

lantern of eight inches in diameter, and so constructed as to show a clear uniform, and unbroken light, visible all round the horizon at a distance of at least one mile; and in addition thereto, all vessels having two or more masts, shall exhibit another white light, at double the height of the bow light, at the main or mizen peak, or the boom-topping lift, or other position near the stern where it can best be seen.

III. Dumb-craft shall, between sunset and sunrise, exhibit in the forepart of the craft a white light behind an opal frosted or ground colourless glass shade, and distinctly visible on all sides, not less in height above deck or above any cargo or other obstruction on the deck:—

- (1.) When at anchor, than five feet;
- (2.) When being towed, than three feet; and the sternmost of the craft towed shall also exhibit a white light at the stern.

IV. Every passenger ferry steamer plying between Hull and New Holland, while under way, and in motion shall, in all weathers between sunset and sunrise, carry at the stern a bright white light, so constructed as to show an unbroken and uniform light over an arc of the horizon of twelve points of the compass, so fixed as to throw the light from right astern to six points on each side of the ship, and of such a character as to be visible on a dark night with a clear atmosphere at a distance of at least one mile.

V. Any vessel which from unavoidable circumstances may be compelled to anchor in the fairway of the river shall, with as little delay as may be, remove to a proper roadstead or otherwise proceed on her course.

VI. In interpreting these Rules, the term "dumb-craft" shall include canal boats, mud barges and other barges, lighters, vessels without masts and vessels without either deck or mast, sloops and keels with their masts lowered, and rafts.

AT the Court at Windsor, the 21st day of February, 1888.

PRESENT,

The QUEEN's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England have, in pursuance of the Act of the fifty-ninth year of His Majesty King George the Third, chapter one hundred and thirty-four; of the Act of the second and third years of Her Majesty, chapter forty-nine; and of the Act of the nineteenth and twentieth years of Her Majesty, chapter fifty-five, duly prepared and laid before Her Majesty in Council a representation, bearing date the nineteenth day of January, in the year one thousand eight hundred and eighty-eight, in the words following, that is to say:—

"We, the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, in pursuance of the Act of the fifty-ninth year of His Majesty King George the Third, chapter one hundred and thirty-four; of the Act of the second and third years of Your Majesty, chapter forty-nine; and of the Act of the nineteenth and twentieth years of Your Majesty chapter fifty-five, have prepared, and now humbly lay before Your Majesty in Council, the following representation as to the assignment of a district chapelry to the consecrated church of Saint Alban situate at Streatham Park in the parish of Streatham in the county of Surrey and in the diocese of Rochester.

"Whereas it appears to us to be expedient that a district chapelry should be assigned to the said church of Saint Alban situate at Streatham Park aforesaid.

"Now therefore, with the consent of the Right Reverend Anthony Wilson, Bishop of the said diocese of Rochester (testified by his having signed and sealed this representation) we, the said Ecclesiastical Commissioners, humbly represent, that it would, in our opinion, be expedient that all that part of the said parish of Streatham which is described in the schedule hereunder written, all which part, together with the boundaries thereof, is delineated and set forth on the map or plan hereunto annexed, should be assigned as a district chapelry to the said church of Saint Alban situate at Streatham Park as aforesaid, and that the same should be named 'The District Chapelry of Saint Alban, Streatham Park.'

"And with the like consent of the said Anthony Wilson, Bishop of the said diocese of Rochester (testified as aforesaid) we, the said Ecclesiastical Commissioners, further represent, that it appears to us to be expedient that banns of matrimony should be published, and that marriages, baptisms, churchings, and burials should be solemnized or performed at the said church of Saint Alban situate at Streatham Park as aforesaid, and that the fees to be received in respect of the publication of such banns and of the solemnization or performance of the said offices should be paid and belong to the minister of the same church for the time being:—

"Provided always, that so long as the Reverend John Richard Nicholl, Clerk in Holy Orders the present rector or incumbent of the rectory of the said parish of Streatham shall continue to be such rector or incumbent all the fees which may be received in respect of such publication solemnization or performance at the said church of Saint Alban situate at Streatham Park as aforesaid shall be paid over by the minister thereof to the said John Richard Nicholl: And provided also that nothing herein contained shall be construed as expressing any intention on the part of us the said Commissioners to concur in or approve the taking of any fee for the performance of the said office of baptism or for the registration thereof.

"We, therefore, humbly pray that Your Majesty will be graciously pleased to take the premises into Your Royal consideration and to make such Order with respect thereto as to Your Majesty, in Your Royal wisdom, shall seem meet.

"The SCHEDULE to which the foregoing Representation has reference.

"The District Chapelry of Saint Alban Streatham Park, being:—

"All that part of the parish of Streatham in the county of Surrey and in the diocese of Rochester wherein the present incumbent of such parish still possesses the exclusive cure of souls, which is bounded upon the south-east by the new parish of Emmanuel Streatham upon the south-west by the new parish of Christ Church Mitcham upon the north-west and upon the west by the parish of Saint Nicholas, Tooting, otherwise called or known as Tooting Graveney, all in the county and diocese aforesaid, and upon the remaining sides that is to say upon the north and upon the east by an imaginary line commencing upon the boundary which divides the last-named parish from the parish of Streatham aforesaid, at a point, at or near to the south-western angle of Tooting Bec Common in the middle of Tooting Bec-road and extending thence eastward along the middle of the said road for a distance of twenty-eight and a half chains or thereabouts to the centre of the bridge which carries the same
