The new duty is to be denoted by an adhesive stamp, or adhesive stamps, appropriated to a Contract Note, and such stamp or stamps is, or are, to be cancelled by the person by whom the Note is executed.

Appropriated stamps of the value of 6*d.*, 1*s.*, and 1*s.* 6*d.* have been provided, and can be obtained at the principal stamp offices.

The amount of duty upon a Contract Note stamped in conformity with the Act may be added to the charge for brokerage or agency.

The term "Contract Note" means the Note sent by a broker or agent to his principal (except where such principal is acting as broker or agent for a principal), advising him of the sale or purchase of any stock or marketable security, and any person who effects any such sale or purchase as a broker or agent is to forthwith make and execute a Contract Note, and transmit the same to his principal, and in default of so doing is to forfeit the sum of twenty pounds.

Where a Note advises the sale or purchase of more than one description of stock or marketable security, the Note is to be deemed to be as many Contract Notes as there are descriptions of stock or security sold or purchased.

It is to be observed that section 69 of the Stamp Act, 1870, imposes a penalty of twenty pounds on every person who makes or executes any Contract Note chargeable with stamp duty, and not duly stamped, and it is further provided that no broker, agent, or other person shall have any legal claim to any charge for brokerage, commission, or agency, with reference to the sale or purchase of any stock or marketable security of the value of five pounds or upwards mentioned or referred to in any Contract Note, unless such Note is duly stamped.

Transfers of Registered Bonds, Debentures, &c.

There is to be charged upon a transfer, assignment, disposition, or assignation, otherwise than on mortgage, of any mortgage, bond, debenture, or covenant (being a marketable security), or of any security for money by or on behalf of any Foreign or Colonial State, Government, municipal body, corporation, or company (being a marketable security), the following duties; (that is to say):

Where the transfer, assignment, disposition, or assignation is on sale, the same ad valorem duties as are now charged under the Stamp Act, 1870, upon a conveyance or transfer on sale of any property, such duties being at the rate of ten shillings per cent. of the amount or value of the consideration for the sale.

Where the transfer, assignment, disposition, or assignation is of any other kind than on sale or mortgage, ten shillings.

The above duties are in substitution for the duty of sixpence for every one hundred pounds, and also for any fractional part of one hundred pounds, of the amount transferred, assigned, or disponed in any case in which such duty is imposed by the Stamp Act, 1870, and they must be denoted by impressed stamps.

Statements of Capital of Limited Liability Companies

A statement of the amount of nominal capital to be raised by shares of any company to be registered with limited liability is to be delivered to the Registrar of Joint Stock Companies in England, Scotland, or Ireland, and a statement of the amount of any increase of registered capital of any company now registered or to be registered with limited liability is to be delivered to the said Registrar, and every such statement is to be charged with an ad valorem stamp duty of two shillings for every one hundred pounds and any fraction of one hundred pounds over any multiple of one hundred pounds of the amount of such capital or increase of capital, as the case may be.

Mortgages of Stock, &c.

The Stamp Duty now payable upon a mortgage of any stock or marketable security under the provisions of the Stamp Act (1870) Amendment Act, 1871, is repealed.

Every instrument under hand only (not being a Promissory Note or Bill of Exchange) given upon the occasion of the deposit of any Share Warrant or Stock Certificate to Bearer, or Foreign or Colonial Share Certificate, or any Security for money transferable by delivery, by way of security for any loan, is to be deemed to be an agreement, and is to be charged with the duty of Sixpence accordingly.

Every instrument under hand only (not being a Promissory Note or Bill of Exchange), making redeemable or qualifying a duly stamped transfer, intended as a security, of any registered stock or marketable security, is to be deemed to be an agreement, and is to be charged with the duty of sixpence accordingly.

A release or discharge of any such instrument is not to be charged with any ad valorem duty.

Any deed operating as a mortgage of any stock or marketable security is to be chargeable, in respect of such operation, with the ad valorem duty at the rate of Two Shillings and Sixpence per cent. chargeable upon a mortgage under "The Stamp Act, 1870."

The duty of sixpence above referred to may be denoted by an adhesive Postage and Revenue Stamp.

Equitable Mortgages.

The ad valorem duty chargeable upon a mortgage under "The Stamp Act, 1870," ceases to be payable upon an equitable mortgage effected by an agreement or memorandum, under hand only, relating to the deposit of any title deeds or instruments constituting or being evidence of the title to any property whatever (other than stock or marketable security), or creating a charge on such property, and in lieu of such duty every such agreement or memorandum is to be charged with the duty of one shilling for every one hundred pounds, and any fractional part of one hundred pounds, of the amount secured by the equitable mortgage.

Where the total amount which may be at any time secured by any equitable mortgage is unascertained or unlimited in the first instance, and the ad valorem stamp duty impressed on the agreement or memorandum in conformity with this section is available under section 107 of "The Stamp Act, 1870," for such an amount only as such duty extends to cover, such agreement or memorandum is, for the purpose of stamp duty, to be deemed to be a new and separate agreement or memorandum bearing date on the day on which any advance or loan is made in excess of the amount covered by the duty impressed thereon.

The duty above referred to must be denoted by an impressed stamp.

Foreign or Colonial Share Certificates, Bonds, and other Securities to Bearer.

The undermentioned duties are charged upon,—

(a.) Any foreign or colonial share certificate or any other document whatever, being primâ facie evidence of the title of any person as proprietor of, or as having the beneficial interest in, any share or shares, or stock or debenture stock, or funded debt of any foreign or colonial Company or Corporation where such person is not registered in respect thereof in a register duly kept in the United Kingdom.

(b.) Any security for money of any Company or Corporation being a marketable security and transferable by delivery, or security for money by or on behalf of any foreign or colonial State, Government, Municipal Body, Corporation, or Company, being a marketable security and transferable by delivery, whatever may be the date thereof, or of the issue thereof, and wherever it may have been made or issued, or the interest may be payable.

On the occasion of the first delivery or transfer by delivery thereof in the United Kingdom on or after the first day of July in the year one thousand eight hundred and eighty-eight, and on the occasion of the first delivery or transfer by delivery thereof in the United Kingdom in any year after the year in which such first delivery or transfer by delivery shall happen—

Where the nominal amount in money of the share or shares or stock or debenture stock or funded debt or where the amount secured does not exceed twenty-five pounds ...	0	0	3
Where such nominal amount or amount secured exceeds twenty-five pounds and does not exceed fifty pounds	0	0	6
Where such nominal amount or amount secured exceeds fifty pounds, for every fifty pounds and any fractional part of fifty pounds thereof	0	0	6

It is, however, provided that the new duty upon a security as defined under (b) shall not be payable in the case of any security, duly stamped with the duty of one shilling for every ten pounds, and also for any fractional part of ten pounds of the money thereby secured in conformity with the Customs and Inland Revenue Act, 1885. But the new duty is payable upon every other security, transferable by delivery, and in the case of any stamp duty having been heretofore paid upon any such other security, in addition to such stamp duty.

The duties under the above heads are to be denoted by adhesive stamps appropriated by words and figures on the face thereof to such duties and to each year. The stamps of the respective values of 3*d.*, 6*d.*, 1*s.*, 1*s.* 6*d.*, 2*s.*, 2*s.* 6*d.*, 5*s.*, and 10*s.*, will be obtainable at the principal stamp offices on or before the 1st July next, when the duties come into force.

Every person who delivers or transfers, or is concerned as broker or agent in delivering or transferring any instrument chargeable with duty under this section, and not being duly stamped, is to forfeit the sum of twenty pounds.

Where the holder of any foreign or colonial share certificate bearing the stamp for any year in conformity with the Act shall, in the course of such year, cause himself to be registered in the register of the foreign or colonial company or corporation, and shall obtain a new certificate consequent upon such registration, the Board are empowered to stamp such certificate for the same year without payment of duty, subject to such regulations as they may prescribe, and which will be duly announced.

It is to be observed that the Stamp Act, 1870, provides that where an instrument is chargeable with ad valorem duty, in respect of any money in any foreign or colonial currency, such duty is to be calculated on the value of such money in British currency according to the current rate of exchange on the day of the date of the instrument.

No. 2. NOTICE.

CUSTOMS AND INLAND REVENUE ACT, 1888.

IMPORTANT AMENDMENTS IN THE LAW RELATING TO STAMP DUTIES.

THE Board of Inland Revenue direct attention to the following provisions of the Customs and Inland Revenue Act, 1888, which has now received the Royal Assent.

It is enacted that in relation to instruments executed after the passing of the Act, which are chargeable with ad valorem stamp duty under the undermentioned heads, viz. :—

(a.) Bond, covenant, or instrument of any kind whatsoever;

(b.) Conveyance or transfer on sale;

(c.) Lease or tack (including an agreement for a lease or tack for any term not exceeding thirty-five years);

(d.) Mortgage, bond, debenture, covenant, and warrant of attorney to confess and enter up judgment;

(e.) Equitable mortgage;

the following provisions are to have effect:—

(a.) The instrument, unless it is written upon duly stamped material, is to be duly stamped with the proper ad valorem duty before the expiration of thirty days after it is first executed, or after it has been first received in the United Kingdom in case it is first executed at any place out of the United Kingdom, unless the opinion of the Commissioners of Inland Revenue, with respect to the amount of duty with which the instrument is chargeable, has, before such expiration, been required under the provisions of section eighteen of the Stamp Act, 1870.

(b.) In case the opinion of the said Commissioners with respect to any such instrument has been required, the instrument is to be stamped in accordance with the assessment of the Commissioners within fourteen days after the date of notice of such assessment.

(c.) If any such instrument is not duly stamped in conformity with the foregoing provisions, the person in the behalf specified in the First Schedule to the Act is to forfeit the sum of ten pounds, and in addition to the penalty payable by law on stamping the instrument there is to be paid an additional penalty equivalent to the stamp duty thereon, unless a reasonable excuse for the delay in stamping, or for the omission to stamp, or the insufficiency of stamp, be afforded to the satisfaction of the said Commissioners, or of the court, judge, arbitrator, or referee before whom it is produced.

The person specified in the First Schedule to the Act as liable to the personal penalty of Ten Pounds above referred to, is, briefly stated, the person in whose favour the instrument operates, or, in the case of a settlement, the settlor.

The personal penalty is to be sued for by information in the High Court, in England in the name of the Attorney-General for England, in Scotland in the name of the Lord Advocate, and in Ireland in the name of the Attorney-General for Ireland, and may be recovered with full costs of suit.

The Board are empowered to reward any person who may inform them of any case in which the personal penalty has been incurred, or who may assist in the recovery of such penalty.

In addition to the imposition of the personal penalty above referred to, the following changes take effect as regards the penalties payable on stamping instruments after the execution thereof:—

(1.) The period within which the Board consent to stamp without penalty instruments executed in the United Kingdom, not subject to any special enactments or regulations, is reduced from two months to thirty days after the first execution.

(2.) The period within which an instrument first executed out of the United Kingdom may be stamped without penalty is reduced from two months to thirty days after its first receipt in the United Kingdom.

(3.) The period within which the Board are empowered, if they think fit, to remit or mitigate the penalty or penalties, is reduced from twelve months to three months after first execution.

(4.) In the case of the instruments chargeable with ad valorem duties under the heads set forth above, and executed after the passing of the Act, the penalty of ten pounds, with interest in certain cases, on payment of which the instrument may be stamped after execution, is increased by a sum equivalent to the unpaid duty.

In connexion with these alterations of the law it is important that it should be borne in mind that an agreement for a lease or tack, or with respect to the letting of any lands, tenements, or heritable subjects for any term not exceeding thirty-five years, is chargeable with the same duty as if it were an actual lease or tack made for the term and consideration mentioned in the agreement.

In any case in which application is made to the Board for the mitigation of a penalty payable on stamping an instrument, by, or on behalf of, any person who has incurred a personal penalty by reason of the omission to stamp the instrument as required by law, a separate memorial must be presented showing cause why proceedings should not be instituted for the recovery of such penalty.

If an instrument be not presented for stamping within three months of the first execution thereof, the penalty or penalties must be paid, as has hitherto been the case in respect to instruments presented for stamping after the expiration of twelve months after first execution.

It is further provided that no assignment of a policy of life assurance is to confer on the assignee therein named, his executors, administrators, or assigns, any right to sue for the moneys assured or secured thereby, or to give a valid discharge for the same, or any part thereof, unless such assignment is duly stamped, and no payment is to be made to any person claiming under any such assignment unless the same is duly stamped. If any payment is made in contravention of this enactment, the Stamp Duty not paid upon the assignment, together with the penalty payable on stamping the same, is to be a debt due to Her Majesty from the Company or person by whom such payment is made, and recoverable as such accordingly.

The Act also provides that every condition of sale framed with the view of precluding objection or requisition upon the ground of absence or insufficiency of stamp upon any instrument, executed after the passing of the Act, and every contract, arrangement, or undertaking for assuming the liability on account of absence or insufficiency of stamp upon any such instrument or indemnifying against such liability, absence, or insufficiency, is to be void.

NOTICE is hereby given, that the Manchester Ship Canal Company (hereinafter referred to as "the Company") intend to apply to the House of Commons by Petition, as soon as the forms of the House admit, for leave to introduce a Bill in the present Session for the hereinafter mentioned, or some of the hereinafter mentioned, among other, purposes:—

In this notice the expression "the Act of 1885" means "The Manchester Ship Canal Act, 1885," and the expression "the Plans of 1884" means the Plans deposited in the month of November, 1884, with the Clerk of the Peace for the County of Lancaster, for the purposes of the Bill for the Act of 1885.

1. To enable the Company to exercise the powers or some of the powers hereinafter mentioned, and to construct and maintain in the County of Lancaster the following works, or some of them, or some part or parts thereof respectively, that is to say:—

Work A. To divert, vary, enlarge, and extend so much of that portion of the Manchester Ship Canal, described in the Act of 1885 as Work Number 3, as is by that Act authorised to be made between a point in the Township of Barton-upon-Irwell, in the Parish of Eccles, on the left bank of the River Irwell, about 2 furlongs and 5 chains below the southern end of Mode Wheel Weir (measured along the said left bank) and the termination of the said Canal at the western side of Trafford Bridge, such diversion, variation, enlargement, and extension to be made by the construction and maintenance of a new navigable canal or channel (with locks and sluices therein), to commence in the said Township and Parish at the said point on the left bank of the River Irwell, and to terminate in the Township of Stretford, in the parish of Manchester, by a junction at or near Throstle Nest Weir with the Work No. 7 (Dock No. 3) authorised by the Act of 1885. In connection with this Work to remove Throstle Nest Weir. This Work will be made or pass from, through, or into the said Township of Barton-upon-Irwell, in the said Parish of Eccles, the said Townships of Stretford and Salford, in the said Parish of Manchester, and the Township of Pendleton, in the said Parish of Eccles.

Work B. To vary, extend, and enlarge the Work Number 5 (Dock No. 1) authorised by the Act of 1885, and the wharfage accommodation thereof, within the limits of deviation shown on the Plans of 1884 as the limits of deviation for the construction of that Dock.

In connection with the intended Works A and B, and between the commencement and termination of the intended Work A, to raise the level of the waters of the River Irwell, and of the cuts, brooks, and channels connected therewith.

Work C. To abandon the construction of so much of the said Work Number 7 (Dock No. 3), in the said Township of Salford, as lies to the north-west of the River Irwell, and to construct and maintain wholly in the said Township of Salford, on lands lying between the River Irwell, Tatton Mills, Ordsall Lane and Ordsall Soap Works, a substituted addition to the said Dock.

Work D. An opening bridge across, and at right angles to, the River Irwell, with all necessary machinery and apparatus, commencing in the said Township of Salford at the south-eastern end of Fairbrother Street, and terminating in the Township of Hulme, in the said Parish of Manchester, on the left bank of the River Irwell.

Work E. A diversion of Trafford Road, wholly in the said Townships of Salford and Stretford, to commence in the said Township of Salford at or near a point in the said road about 50 yards north of the northern abutment of Trafford Bridge, and to be carried across the intended canal or channel (Work A) by an opening bridge, with all necessary machinery and apparatus, and to terminate in the said Township of Stretford by a junction with the Chester Road at a point therein about 90 yards west of the present junction therewith of Trafford Road. The Bill will or may authorise the Company to stop up and extinguish all rights of way over so much of Trafford Road as lies between the commencement of the said diversion and the entrance from that road to the road numbered on the Plans of 1884 971 in the said Township of Stretford.

2. To abandon the construction of the following works authorised by the Act of 1885, and shown on the Plans of 1884, that is to say, so much of the authorised Work Number 3 as lies between the commencement of the intended Work A and the termination of the authorised Work Number 3, also the authorised Works Number 4, Number 6, Number 29, Number 30, Number 31, Number 32, and Number 33; also so much of the authorised Work Number 7 as lies to the north-west of the River Irwell.

3. To substitute the intended Work A for so much of the authorised Work Number 3 as is proposed to be abandoned, and to constitute the said intended Work A a portion of the authorised Work Number 3, and to substitute the intended Work B for the authorised Work Number 5, and to substitute the intended Work C for the portion of the authorised Work Number 7 proposed to be abandoned, and to constitute the said intended Works A, B, and C part of the Port and Harbour of Manchester, and to enable the Company to exercise and enjoy for the purpose of constructing and maintaining, and generally in relation to the said intended works, all such powers, authorities, rights, and privileges (including the power to levy tolls, rates, and charges) as under or by virtue of the Act of 1885 they might have exercised or enjoyed in relation to the said intended works, had the same been authorised, constructed, and maintained under the powers of that Act, and to relieve the Company from all obligation to construct the said corresponding works and portions of works so authorised by that Act.

4. To authorise the Company to divert into and impound in the intended new works the waters of the said River Irwell, and any tributary thereof, and all other waters under the control of the Company, or to which they have any right, and to enter upon, take, and use the bed, channel, and banks of the said River, and the Mersey and Irwell navigation, where the same may be coincident with, or intersected by, the line of the intended works, and to supersede and discontinue the use for the purposes of navigation, and to fill in and level so much of the present course or channel of the River Irwell, and of the said navigation between the commencement and termination of the intended Work A, as may be rendered unnecessary by the construction of the intended works or any of them.

5. To authorise the Company, for the purposes of, and in connection with, the construction and maintenance of the several intended works, to exercise the powers usually conferred on Railway Companies for the construction and maintenance of railways, and especially the powers granted by Section 16 of "The Railways Clauses Consolidation Act, 1845," and for the same purposes to deviate laterally and vertically to any extent from the lines and levels of the works as shown on the Plans and Sections to be deposited as hereinafter mentioned.

6. The Bill will extinguish all rights of way over, and will or may vest in the Company, the site and soil of the portions of roads and footpaths rendered unnecessary by reason of any diversions thereof, or which are shown on the said deposited Plans as intended to be stopped up, or which are included within the limits of the land shown on the deposited Plans as intended to be taken compulsorily, and which shall be so taken, or which they are in any way authorised to stop up, and will provide for the maintenance and repair of the proposed diverted road, and will or may authorise the Company to enter into and fulfil contracts and agreements with the Road Authority, or any person or persons interested therein with relation to the matters aforesaid, and will or may confirm any agreement which may have been, or which, during the progress of the Bill, may be so entered into, and will or may authorise any such Authority for such purpose to apply their funds and rates, and levy new rates.

7. To authorise the Company from time to time to purchase, take on lease, or otherwise acquire, compulsorily or by agreement, lands, houses, buildings, wharves, and other property, and easements thereover, thereunder, or in respect thereof, and to vary and extinguish such rights of way, manorial, commonable, and other rights and privileges, as it may be necessary or expedient to vary or extinguish for any of the purposes of the Bill, and particularly to purchase, or otherwise acquire, compulsorily or by agreement, the following lands, buildings, houses, and property, in addition to those required for the purposes of the said works, that is to say:—Lands in the said Township of Stretford, between the River Irwell and the said road numbered 971 on the Plans of 1884, and an imaginary straight line drawn from the point of junction of that road with Trafford Road, along the northern side of the Bridgewater Canal to the point at which the main drive to Trafford Hall passes over that Canal, and thence continuing in a straight line to the point where the boundary between the said Township of Stretford and the said Township of Barton-upon-Irwell meets the said River.

8. The Bill will or may provide that all lands between the commencement and termination of the intended Works A and B, and purchased or contracted to be purchased by the Company, or in respect of which the Company have given any notice to treat, or with or on which the Company have already entered under the provisions of the Act of 1885, may be acquired, retained, and used by them for the purposes of the intended works or the general purposes of their Undertaking.

9. To levy tolls, rates, and charges, to alter existing tolls, rates, and charges, and confer exemption from existing tolls, rates, and charges.

10. To empower the Company, on the one hand, and any Municipal, Sanitary, Highway or Local Authority, and any Company, and the owners, lessees, and occupiers of any lands taken under or affected by the powers of the Bill, on the other hand, to enter into, and fulfil, contracts and agreements for or in relation to the execution of any works, the construction and maintenance of any roads or footpaths, the taking of any lands in or by which they may respectively be interested or affected, and the alteration of any local boundaries, and to enable any such authority to provide the necessary funds for the purpose by borrowing and by the levying of rates, or by either of those means, and the Bill will or may confirm any such contract or agreement which may already have been, or which may at any time hereafter be, entered into for, or in relation to, any of the matters aforesaid.

11. To empower the Company from time to time, notwithstanding anything contained in "The Lands Clauses Consolidation Act, 1845," or "The Harbours, Docks, and Piers Clauses Act, 1847," or any other Act or Acts, to hold or to sell, exchange, demise, and grant building or other leases, and otherwise dispose of any lands or other property to be acquired under the powers, or which may be appropriated to the purposes, of the Bill or the Act of 1885, and to lease or grant the use or occupation of, or easements in, and rights over, any warehouses, buildings, sheds, quays, wharves, yards, cranes, machines, or other conveniences belonging to or provided by them for such times or periods as they think fit.

12. To repeal, alter, and amend the following Sections of the Act of 1885—namely, Sections 115, 118, 119, and 126, or such parts of those Sections as it may be necessary to repeal, alter, and amend for the purposes of the Bill.
