*Office of the Secretary for Scotland,
Whitehall, June 4, 1888.*

THE following Address of the General Assembly of the Church of Scotland having been transmitted by the Right Honourable John Adrian Louis, Earl of Hopetoun, to the Most Honourable Schomberg Henry, Marquis of Lothian, K.T., Her Majesty's Secretary for Scotland, has been by him presented to the Queen, which Address Her Majesty was pleased to receive very graciously:—

May it please Your Majesty,

WE, Your Majesty's loyal and dutiful subjects, the Ministers and Elders of the Church of Scotland now met in General Assembly, beg with all respect and with all heartiness to thank Your Majesty for Your most gracious letter, and especially for the assurance which it conveys to us of Your Majesty's unalterable affection towards the Church of which we are the representatives.

We acknowledge with thankfulness Your Majesty's gracious recognition of the efforts made by our Church in past times to carry the light and the consolations of religion into the homes of the people of Scotland, and we beg humbly to assure Your Majesty that it is our desire, and shall always be our endeavour, under the Divine blessing, to abound more and more in the same good work, and to promote to the utmost of our power both the temporal and spiritual well-being of those who are committed to our care.

We hail with much satisfaction the appointment, for the second time, of the Right Honourable the Earl of Hopetoun as Your Majesty's Representative in our Assembly. The ability and dignity and kindness with which His Grace discharged the duties of his high office last year, secured him the high respect of all concerned; and this we are persuaded will be amply confirmed on the present occasion.

We receive with gratitude Your Majesty's gift of two thousand pounds for the diffusion of Christian Knowledge in the Highlands and Islands of Scotland; and we shall be careful to apply it in such a way as to give the fullest possible effect to Your Majesty's wise and pious intentions.

The day on which we received Your Majesty's gracious letter, being Your Majesty's birthday, it has called forth anew our gratitude to Almighty God for having thus far prolonged Your Majesty's most valuable life; and it is our earnest prayer that He may be graciously pleased still to lengthen out the same, and to bless Your Majesty and make you a blessing for years to come as He has done so abundantly in the past.

May it please Your Majesty, Your Majesty's most faithful and loving subjects, the Ministers and Elders of the Church of Scotland met in this General Assembly.

Signed in our name, in our presence, and at our appointment by

W. H. Gray, D.D., Moderator.

NORTH PACIFIC OCEAN.—SANDWICH ISLANDS.

(1.) Hawaii—New Lighthouse in Hilo Bay.

INFORMATION has been received that a new lighthouse, from which the light is now exhibited, has been erected on the site of the old lighthouse, north-westward of Cocopnut Cove, Hilo Bay, eastern coast of Hawaii.

The character of the light is, as heretofore, fixed white; it is elevated 155 feet above the sea, and should be visible in clear weather from a distance of 10 miles.

The lighthouse is 33 feet high.

Position, approximate, lat. 19° 45' 30" N., long. 155° 6' 30" W.

NOTE.—It is reported that the exhibition of the above light may be relied upon; but it is difficult to distinguish, as there are numerous lights, apparently equally bright, which may be easily mistaken for Hilo Light, shown from plantations near the lighthouse.

(2.) Oahu—Fixed Light on Laeloa (Barber) Point.

Also, that on 9th April, 1888, a light was exhibited from a lighthouse erected on Laeloa (Barber) Point, south-western extreme of Oahu, Sandwich Islands.

The illuminating apparatus is of the fourth order.

The lighthouse is constructed of coral. The lantern is painted red.

GEORGE B. CUMMINS, 41, Lord-street, Liverpool.

In the High Court of Justice.—Chancery Division.
Sudbury v. Hornby. 1887, S., 1739.

To Charles Hornby, late of Worksop, in the county of Notts, England, Wine and Spirit Merchant.

TAKE notice, that by an Order of his Lordship the Honourable Mr. Justice Chitty, dated the 31st day of May, 1888, personal service upon you of notice of Judgment in this action, dated the 14th day of May, 1887, was dispensed with, and it was ordered that publication in the London Gazette of the 8th day of June, 1888, in the Times newspaper of the 9th day of June, 1888, and in the New York Herald of the 23rd and 30th days of June, 1888, of notice of the said Judgment and of the memorandum prescribed by the Rules of the Supreme Court, and of the Reciting Order, should be deemed good service upon you, and that the time within which you might apply to add to the said Judgment should be forty-two days after the last publication of such notice. And further take notice, that by the said Judgment, dated the 14th day of May, 1887, the plaintiff and defendants who claimed to be interested in a moiety of the hereditaments in the statement of claim in that action mentioned by their Counsel, requesting a sale thereof and a distribution of the proceeds, instead of a division of the said hereditaments between or among the persons interested, the Judge did order that the following enquiries and accounts be made and taken:—1. An enquiry who were the persons interested in the hereditaments and property in the statement of claim in that action mentioned, and for what estates and interests, and in what shares and proportions, and whether they were parties to that action. 2. An enquiry what incumbrances affected the entirety of the said hereditaments, or any and what parts thereof. 3. An account of what was due to such of the said incumbrancers as should consent to the sale thereafter directed in respect of their incumbrances. 4. An enquiry what were the priorities of such last-mentioned incumbrancers. And if it should be certified that all persons interested were parties to that action, it was ordered that the said hereditaments be sold, with the approbation of the Judge, free from the incumbrances (if any) of such of the said incumbrancers as should consent to the sale, and subject to the incumbrances of such of them as should not consent, and that the money to arise from such sale be paid into Court to the credit of that action, Sudbury v. Hornby, 1887, S., 1739. And if such money, or any part thereof, should arise from hereditaments sold with the consent of incumbrancers, the money so arising was to be applied in the first place in payment of what should appear to be due to such incumbrancers according to their priorities. But if it should appear that any of the persons interested were not parties to that action, then any of the persons interested collectively or individually to the extent of one moiety or upwards in the said hereditaments were to be at liberty, when it should have been certified that the persons who ought to be served with notice of that Judgment had been so served, to apply at Chambers for a sale of the said hereditaments, and any of the parties were to be at liberty to apply in Chambers for the appointment of a Receiver of the said hereditaments. The further consideration of that action was adjourned, with liberty to apply. And further take notice, that from the date of this advertisement you will be bound by the proceedings in the above action in the same manner as if you had been originally made a party, and that you may, on entering an appearance at the Central Office, attend the proceedings under the within mentioned Judgment, and that you may, within forty-two days after the publication of the last of the advertisements authorized by the said Order, apply to the Court to add to the Judgment.—Dated this 7th day of June, 1888.
