The QUEEN's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England have, in pursuance of the Act of the thirty-third and thirty-fourth years of Her Majesty chapter thirty-nine and of the Acts therein mentioned, that is to say the Act of the third and fourth years of Her Majesty chapter one hundred and thirteen, and the Act of the fourth and fifth years of Her Majesty chapter thirty-nine, and the Act of the thirty-first and thirty-second years of Her Majesty chapter one hundred and fourteen, duly prepared and laid before Her Majesty in Council a scheme, bearing date the twenty-sixth day of April, in the year one thousand eight hundred and eighty-eight, in the words following, that is to say :—

"Whereas the advowson or perpetual right of patronage of and presentation to the said benefice of Saint John the Baptist, Southend, is now vested in the Bishop of London and his successors.

"And whereas the Right Honourable and Right Reverend Frederick now Bishop of London is desirous that the whole advowson or perpetual right of patronage of and presentation to the said benefice of Saint John the Baptist Southend, now vested in him as aforesaid, should be transferred to and be vested in the Bishop for the time being of the said diocese of Saint Albans.

"And whereas the Right Reverend Thomas Legh, now Bishop of the said diocese of Saint Albans is willing to accept such transfer, and in token of such his willingness and also in token that the same transfer has that consent of the Bishop of the diocese which by the Acts in the hereinbefore firstly-mentioned Act recited or by some or one of them is made necessary, he the said Thomas Legh, Bishop of the said diocese of Saint Albans, has executed this scheme as hereinafter-mentioned.

whereof he has signed this scheme and sealed the same with his archiepiscopal seal) we the said Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England humbly recommend and propose that upon and from the day of the date of the publication in the London Gazette of any Order of Your Majesty in Council ratifying this scheme and without any conveyance or assurance in the law other than such duly gazetted Order, the whole advowson or perpetual right of patronage of and presentation to the said benefice of Saint John the Baptist, Southend, now vested in him the Bishop of London and his successors as aforesaid, shall be transferred from the said Frederick Bishop of London and his successors, to the said Thomas Legh, Bishop of Saint Albans and his successors, and shall thereupon and thenceforth become and be absolutely vested in and shall and may from time to time be exercised by the said Thomas Legh Bishop of the said diocese of Saint Albans and by his successors Bishops of the same diocese for ever.

"And we further recommend and propose that nothing herein contained shall prevent us from recommending and proposing any further or other measures relating to the matters aforesaid or any of them in accordance with the provisions of the said Acts or of any of them or of any other Acts of Parliament."

And whereas the said scheme has been approved by Her Majesty in Council: now, therefore, Her Majesty, by and with the advice of Her said Council, is pleased hereby to ratify the said scheme, and to order and direct that the same and every part thereof shall be effectual in law immediately from and after the time when this Order shall have been duly published in the London Gazette pursuant to the said Act; and Her Majesty, by and with the like advice, is pleased hereby to direct that this Order be forthwith registered by the Registrar of the said diocese of St. Albans.

PRESENT,

The QUEEN's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England have, in pursuance of an Act of the sixth and seventh years of Her Majesty chapter thirty-seven sections six and eight duly prepared and laid before Her Majesty in Council a scheme, bearing date the thirty-first day of May, in the year one thousand eight hundred and eighty-eight, in the words following, that is to say:

"We the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England in pursuance of an Act of the sixth and seventh years of Your Majesty chapter thirty-seven; sections six and eight have prepared and now humbly lay before Your Majesty in Council the following scheme for authorizing the sale and disposal of certain property formerly belonging to the Prebend of Wellington in the Cathedral Church of Hereford, and now vested in us, and also of certain property formerly belonging to the Prebend of Pratum Minus in the same cathedral and now vested in us.

"Whereas at the date of the passing of the Act of the third and fourth years of Your Majesty chapter one hundred and thirteen the said Prebend of Wellington was vacant, and by virtue of the provisions of the said Act all the lands tithes and hereditaments theretofore belonging to the said prebend became upon the passing of the said Act, absolutely vested in us, for the purposes and subject to the provisions applicable to other hereditaments vested in us.

"And whereas the said Prebend of Pratum Minus became vacant on or about the fourteenth day of November in the year one thousand eight hundred and seventy by the decease of the Reverend Robert Biscoe, the then prebendary and upon such vacation all the lands and hereditaments theretofore belonging to the said Prebend of Pratum Minus became absolutely vested in us for the purposes and subject to the provisions applicable to other hereditaments vested in us.

"And whereas the lands tithes and hereditaments aforesaid are not subject to any outstanding lease or grant but are now in our possession, excepting only certain of the said tithes which have been annexed by us to the vicarage of Wellington but some portions of the said lands tithes and hereditaments so remaining in our possession after such annexation, are on account of their character or situation unsuitable or inconvenient to be held or applied for the purposes for which estates vested in us are applicable under the Acts by which our proceedings are governed.

"And whereas with a view to the advantageous appropriation of the said lands tithes and hereditaments so remaining in our possession as aforesaid or of the proceeds thereof, for the ultimate improvement of our common fund, it is expedient that such lands tithes and hereditaments or such part or parts thereof as we shall at any time and from time to time think fit should be sold or disposed of, and accordingly that we should be empowered to sell or dispose of our interest in such lands tithes and hereditaments or in any part or parts thereof in such manner as shall appear to us advisable.

"Now therefore we humbly recommend and propose that we may be authorized and empowered by instrument or instruments in writing duly executed according to law from time to time to sell or dispose of and duly to convey according to the provisions of the said Act of the sixth and seventh years of Your Majesty's reign, all or any of the said lands tithes and hereditaments formerly belonging to the said two prebends respectively and so remaining in our possession as aforesaid, with their appurtenances, and all our estate right title and interest therein or in any part or parts thereof, unto and to the use of any person or persons desirous or willing to purchase the same, and his or their heirs executors administrators or assigns or otherwise as he or they shall direct or appoint, and for such consideration as shall upon due calculation and enquiry appear to us to be just and reasonable, it being our intention to invest the proceeds of such sale from time to time as occasion may arise in the purchase of other lands, tithes, rent-charges, tenements or hereditaments, or of some estate or interest therein, convenient to be held by us for the purposes of the Acts by which our proceedings are governed as aforesaid, and in the meantime to invest the proceeds in some Government or Parliamentary Stock, or other public securities in England.

"And we further recommend and propose that nothing herein contained shall prevent us from recommending and proposing any other measures relating to the matters aforesaid or any of them in accordance with the provisions of the said Acts or of any other Act of Parliament."

And whereas the said scheme has been approved by Her Majesty in Council: now, therefore, Her Majesty, by and with the advice of Her said Council, is pleased hereby to ratify the said scheme, and to order and direct that the same and every part thereof shall be effectual in law immediately from and after the time when this Order shall have been duly published in the London Gazette pursuant to the said Act; and Her Majesty, by and with the like advice, is pleased hereby to direct that this Order be forthwith registered by the Registrar of the diocese of Hereford.

"We the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England in pursuance of the Act of the thirteenth and fourteenth years of Your Majesty chapter forty-one and of the Act of the nineteenth and twentieth years of Your Majesty chapter fifty-five have prepared and now humbly lay before your Majesty in Council the following scheme for setting out and constituting a district for spiritual purposes and annexing such district to the consecrated church of All Saints Heaton Norris situate within the limits of the new parish (sometime a district under the above-mentioned Act of the thirteenth and fourteenth years of Your Majesty chapter forty-one otherwise known as 'The Parish of Manchester Division Act 1850') of Saint Mary Heaton Reddish within the original limits of the said parish of Manchester in the county of Lancaster, and in the diocese of Manchester.

"Whereas it appears to us to be expedient that a district for spiritual purposes comprising a portion of the said new parish of Saint Mary Heaton Reddish and also portions of the new parish of Christ Church Heaton Norris (which last-named new parish is also within the original limits of the said parish of Manchester and was sometime a district under 'The Parish of Manchester Division Act 1850' aforesaid) should be set out and constituted for and annexed to the said church of All Saints, Heaton Norris, which church was not consecrated under the provisions of the Act of the sixth and seventh years of Your Majesty chapter thirty-seven.

"The SCHEDULE to which the foregoing Scheme has reference.

"The District of All Saints, Heaton Norris, comprising—

AT the Court at Windsor, the 29th day of June, 1888.

PRESENT,

The QUEEN's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS by an Act passed in the Session of Parliament held in the sixteenth and seventeenth years of Her Majesty's reign, intitled "An Act to amend the laws concerning the burial of the dead in England beyond the limits of the Metropolis, and to amend the Act concerning the burial of the dead in the Metropolis," it is enacted, that in case it appears to Her Majesty in Council, upon the representation of one of Her Majesty's Principal Secretaries of State, that, for the protection of the public health, the opening of any new burial-ground in any city or town, or within any other limits, save with the previous approval of one of such Secretaries of State, should be prohibited, or that burials in any city or town, or within any other limits, or in any burial-grounds or places of burial, should be wholly discontinued, or should be discontinued subject to any exception or qualification, it shall be lawful for Her Majesty, by and with the advice of Her Privy Council, to order that no new burial-ground shall be opened in any city or town, or within such limits, without such previous approval or (as the case may require) that, after a time mentioned in the Order, burials in such city or town, or within such limits, or in such burial-grounds or places of burial, shall be discontinued wholly, or subject to any exceptions or qualifications mentioned in such Order, and so from time to time as circumstances may require; provided always, that notice of such representation, and of the time when it shall please Her Majesty to order that the same be taken into consideration by the Privy Council, shall be published in the London Gazette, and shall be affixed on the doors of the churches or chapels of, or on some other conspicuous places within, the parishes affected by such representation, one month before such representation is so considered; provided also that no such representation shall be made in relation to the burial-ground of any parish until ten days' previous notice of the intention to make such representation shall have been given to the incumbent and vestry clerk or churchwardens of such parish.

And whereas by another Act passed in the Session of Parliament held in the eighteenth and nineteenth years of Her Majesty's reign, intituled "An Act further to amend the laws concerning the burial of the dead in England," it is, amongst other things, enacted that it shall be lawful for Her Majesty, by and with the advice of Her Privy Council, from time to time to postpone the time appointed by any Order in Council for the discontinuance of burials, or otherwise to vary any Order in Council made under any of the Acts recited in the said Act, or under the said Act (whether the time thereby appointed for the discontinuance of burials thereunder, or other operation of such Order, shall or shall not have arrived), as to Her Majesty, with such advice as aforesaid, may seem fit:

And whereas the Right Honourable Henry Matthews, one of Her Majesty's Principal Secretaries of State, after giving to the incumbent and the churchwardens of the parish hereinafter mentioned ten days' previous notice of his intention to make such representation made a representation stating that he was of opinion that the Order of Her Majesty in Council of the twenty-sixth day of March, one thousand eight hundred and eighty-five, in so far as it affects burials in the parish of Richmond, in the county of York, should be varied, and that the directions hereinafter set forth should be substituted for those contained in the said Order, with respect to burials in the said parish:

And whereas Her Majesty was pleased, by Her Order in Council of the third day of May, one thousand eight hundred and eighty-eight, to give notice of such representation, and to order that the same should be taken into consideration by a Committee of the Lords of Her Majesty's Most Honourable Privy Council on the eighteenth day of June, one thousand eight hundred and eighty-eight, and such Order has been published in the London Gazette, and copies thereof have been affixed as required by the said first-recited Act:

Now, therefore, Her Majesty, by and with the advice of Her Privy Council, is pleased to order, and it is hereby ordered:—

That burials be discontinued forthwith and entirely in the parish church of Richmond, in the county of York; and also in the churchyard, except as follows:—

(a.) In such vaults and wholly walled graves as are now existing in the churchyard burials may be allowed on condition that every coffin buried therein be separately enclosed by stonework or brickwork properly cemented.

(b.) In such earthen graves now existing in the churchyard as can be opened to the depth of five feet without exposing coffins or disturbing human remains burials may be allowed of so many of the following relations of those interred therein at the date of this Order, viz.: widows, widowers, parents, children, brothers and sisters, as can be buried at or below that depth.

(c.) In such reserved grave spaces in the churchyard (as have never before been buried in, and which when opened are free from water) burials may be allowed of so many members of the families to whom they may be allotted as can be buried at or below the depth of five feet.
