

The London Gazette.

Published by Authority.

TUESDAY, AUGUST 14, 1888.

AT the Court at Osborne House, Isle of Wight, the 10th day of August, 1888.

PRESENT,

The QUEEN's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

THIS day Sir Francis Clare Ford, G.C.M.G., C.B., was, by Her Majesty's command, sworn of Her Majesty's Most Honourable Privy Council, and took his place at the Board accordingly.

AT the Court at Osborne House, Isle of Wight, the 10th day of August, 1888.

PRESENT,

The QUEEN's Most Excellent Majesty.

Lord President.
Marquess of Lothian.
Earl of Coventry.
Sir F. Clare Ford.

WHEREAS Her Majesty, by virtue of the authority committed to Her by the International Copyright Acts, 1844 to 1886, and having regard to the provisions of a Convention the ratifications of which were exchanged on the fifth day of September, one thousand eight hundred and eighty-seven, between Her Majesty and the Governments of the foreign countries named in the said Order, was pleased to make an Order in Council dated the twenty-eighth day of November, one thousand eight hundred and eighty-seven, with respect to the protection to be given by way of copyright to the authors of literary and artistic works first produced in one of the said foreign countries:

And whereas it has been intimated to Her Majesty's Government that the Government of the Grand Duchy of Luxembourg have notified the accession of that country to the said Convention:

And whereas Her Majesty in Council is satisfied that the said Grand Duchy of Luxembourg has made such provisions as it appears to Her Majesty expedient to require for the protection of authors of works first produced in Her Majesty's dominions:

Now, therefore, Her Majesty, by and with the advice of Her Privy Council, and by virtue of the authority committed to Her by the said Acts, doth declare, and it is hereby declared, that the provisions of the said Order hereinbefore specified shall extend to the said Grand Duchy of Luxembourg.

This Order shall come into operation on and from the date hereof.

And the Lords Commissioners of Her Majesty's Treasury are to give the necessary orders herein accordingly.
C. L. Peel.

AT the Court at Osborne House, Isle of Wight, the 10th day of August, 1888.

PRESENT,

The QUEEN's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS by the "Foreign Deserters Act, 1852," it is provided that whenever it is made to appear to Her Majesty that due facilities are or will be given for recovering and apprehending seamen who desert from British merchant ships in the territories of any foreign power, Her Majesty may, by Order in Council stating that such facilities are or will be given, declare that seamen, not being slaves, who desert from merchant ships belonging to a subject of such power when within Her Majesty's dominions shall be liable to be apprehended and carried on board their respective ships, and may limit the operation of such Order, and may render the operation thereof subject to such conditions and qualifications, if any, as may be deemed expedient:

And whereas it has been made to appear to Her Majesty that due facilities will be given for recovering and apprehending seamen who desert from British merchant ships in the territories of the Independent State of the Congo:

Now, therefore, Her Majesty, by virtue of the power vested in Her by the said "Foreign Deserters Act, 1852," and by and with the advice of Her Privy Council, is pleased to order and declare, and it is hereby ordered and declared, that, from and after the publication hereof in the London Gazette seamen, not being slaves and not being British subjects, who within Her Majesty's dominions desert from merchant ships belonging to citizens of the Independent State of the Congo shall be liable to be apprehended and carried on board their respective ships; provided always, that if any such deserter has committed any crime in Her Majesty's dominions he may be detained till he has been tried by a competent Court, and until his sentence, if any, has been carried into effect:

And the Secretary of State for the Home Department, the Secretary of State for the Colonies, and the Secretary of State for India in Council, are to give the necessary directions herein accordingly.
C. L. Peel.

AT the Court at Osborne House, Isle of Wight,
the 10th day of August, 1888.

PRESENT,

The QUEEN's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS by "The Merchant Shipping Act, 1854," it is enacted that the word "lighthouses" shall in addition to the ordinary meaning of the word include floating and other lights exhibited for the guidance of ships, and that "buoys and beacons" shall include all other marks and signs of the sea :

And whereas it is by the said Act further enacted that upon the completion of any new lighthouse, buoy, or beacon, Her Majesty may, by Order in Council, fix such dues in respect thereof to be paid by the master or owner of every ship which passes the same or derives benefit therefrom as Her Majesty may deem reasonable, and may from time to time alter the amount thereof, and that such dues shall be paid and collected in the same manner, by the same means, and subject to the same conditions, in, by, and subject to which the light dues authorized to be levied by that Act are paid and collected :

And whereas by "The Merchant Shipping (Miscellaneous) Act, 1887," it is enacted that in "The Merchant Shipping Act, 1854," and the Acts amending the same, the expression "lighthouses" shall in addition to the meaning assigned to it by "The Merchant Shipping Act, 1854," include sirens and all other description of fog signals, and the expression "new lighthouse" shall include the addition to any existing lighthouse of any improved light or any siren, or any description of fog signals :

And whereas the Commissioners of Irish Lights are erecting a lighthouse on the Bull Rock, off the coast of the county of Kerry, and a light will shortly be exhibited therefrom, and are also about to establish in conjunction with the said light a siren or fog signal :

And whereas from and after the exhibition of the said light, the light at present exhibited from Dursey Head will be discontinued :

And whereas it is fit and proper that in respect of the said lighthouse, siren, or fog signal, the dues hereinafter mentioned should be fixed and levied.

Now, therefore, Her Majesty, by and with the advice of Her Privy Council, is pleased to order and direct, and be it hereby ordered and directed that from and after the date of the exhibition of the said light from the said lighthouse on the Bull Rock or from and after the time of the receipt of notice of such exhibition by the officers authorized to collect light dues there shall be paid by and collected from the master or owner of every ship which passes the said lighthouse, siren, or fog signal, or derives benefit therefrom, the dues in the Schedule hereto in that behalf respectively mentioned, and Her Majesty, by and with the advice of Her Privy Council, is pleased to fix, and doth hereby fix, such dues in respect of the said lighthouse, siren, or fog signal, to be paid by the master or owner of every ship which passes the said lighthouse, siren, or fog signal, or derives benefit therefrom.

Her Majesty, by and with the advice aforesaid, is further pleased to direct and order, and it is hereby ordered and directed, that the said dues shall be levied subject to the regulations and exemptions contained in the Consolidated Table of Light Duties, sanctioned by Orders in Council, dated respectively October twenty-fourth, one thousand eight hundred and seventy, May sixteenth, one thousand eight hundred and seventy-one, and February twenty-first, one thousand eight hundred and seventy-four, and also in the special section of the Consolidated Tables, prepared in pursuance of an Order in Council, dated September sixth, one thousand eight hundred and eighty, and to such other regulations and exemptions as may from time to time be duly sanctioned, and subject further also to the gross abatement or discount of sixty-five per centum mentioned in an Order in Council, dated May third, one thousand eight hundred and eighty-eight, or to such other abatement or discount as may for the time being be directed and be in force.

Her Majesty, by and with the advice aforesaid, doth further order and direct that from and after the date aforesaid no dues shall be paid or levied in respect of the lighthouse on Dursey Head.

SCHEDULE of Dues.

For every ship, whether British or Foreign, for each time of passing or deriving benefit from the said lighthouse, siren, or fog signal, if on an over-sea voyage—six-sixteenths of a penny for every ton burden of such ship.

For every ship, whether British or Foreign, for each time of passing or deriving benefit from the said lighthouse, siren, or fog signal, if on a coasting voyage—two-sixteenths of a penny for every ton burden of such ship.

PRESENT,

The QUEEN's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England have, in pursuance of the Act of the eighth and ninth years of Her Majesty, chapter seventy ; of the Act of the fourteenth and fifteenth years of Her Majesty, chapter ninety-seven ; of the Act of the nineteenth and twentieth years of Her Majesty, chapter fifty-five ; and of the Act of the thirty-fourth and thirty-fifth years of Her Majesty, chapter eighty-two ; duly prepared and laid before Her Majesty in Council a representation, bearing date the seventeenth day of May in the year one thousand eight hundred and eighty-eight, in the words and figures following ; that is to say :—

"We, the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, in pursuance of the Act of the eighth and ninth years of Your Majesty, chapter seventy, of the Act of the fourteenth and fifteenth years of Your Majesty, chapter ninety-seven, of the Act of the nineteenth and twentieth years of Your Majesty, chapter fifty-five, and of the Act of the thirty-fourth and thirty-fifth years of Your Majesty, chapter eighty-two, have prepared and now humbly lay before Your Majesty in Council the following representation as to the assignment of a consolidated chapelry to the consecrated church of Saint Matthias situate in the Caledonian-road in the new parish (sometime consolidated chapelry) of Saint Luke West Holloway in the county of Middlesex and in the diocese of London.

"Whereas at certain extremities of the said new parish of Saint Luke West Holloway and of the new parish (sometime district chapelry) of Saint Andrew Islington, in the county and diocese aforesaid, which said extremities lie contiguous one to another, and are described in the schedule hereunder written, there is collected together a population which is situate at a distance from the several churches of such new parishes respectively,

"And whereas it appears to us to be expedient that certain contiguous portions (being the portions containing the population aforesaid) of the said new parish of Saint Luke West Holloway, and of the said new parish of Saint Andrew Islington should be formed into a consolidated chapelry for all ecclesiastical purposes, and that the same should be assigned to the said church of Saint Matthias situate in the Caledonian-road as aforesaid.

"Now therefore with the consent of the Right Honourable and Right Reverend Frederick Bishop of the said diocese of London, as such Bishop, and with the consents of the Reverend Lewis Borrett White of number sixty-seven Queen-street in the city of London, Clerk in Holy Orders, of the Reverend John Hurst of Saint Mark's Vicarage Tollington Park, in the said county of Middlesex, Clerk in Holy Orders, of the Reverend Walter Sunderland Lewis of number seventy-one Hornsey-rise in the said county, Clerk in Holy Orders, of Thomas Wall of number seven Highbury-grange, in the same county Merchant, and of William Edwards of number sixty-six Saint Mark's-road, North Kensington, in the same county, Gentleman, the patrons of the vicarage of the said new parish of Saint Luke, West Holloway and with the consent of the Reverend William Edward Haigh, Clerk in Holy Orders, the vicar or incumbent of the vicarage of the new parish of the Holy Trinity Islington in the said diocese of London, and as such vicar or incumbent, the patron of the vicarage of the new parish of Saint Andrew Islington aforesaid (in testimony whereof they the said consenting parties have respectively signed and sealed this representation) we the said Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, humbly represent, that it would, in our opinion, be expedient that all those contiguous portions of the said new parish of Saint Luke West Holloway, and of the said new parish of Saint Andrew Islington which are described in the schedule hereunder written, all which portions together with the boundaries thereof are delineated and set forth on the map or plan hereunto annexed, should be united and formed into one consolidated chapelry for the said church of Saint Matthias situate in the Caledonian-road as aforesaid and that the same should be named 'The Consolidated Chapelry of Saint Matthias, Caledonian-road, Islington.'

"We therefore humbly pray that Your Majesty will be graciously pleased to take the premises into Your Royal consideration, and to make such Order in respect thereto as to Your Majesty in Your Royal wisdom shall seem meet.

"The SCHEDULE to which the foregoing Representation has reference.

"The Consolidated Chapelry of Saint Matthias, Caledonian-road, Islington comprising:—

"I. All that portion of the new parish (sometime consolidated chapelry) of Saint Luke West Holloway in the county of Middlesex, and in the diocese of London, which is bounded upon the west by the parish of Saint Paul Camden New Town upon the south by the hereinafter-described portion of the new parish (sometime district chapelry) of Saint Andrew Islington, and upon the east partly by the new parish of Saint Clement Barnsbury partly by the new parish of Saint David, West Holloway and partly by the new parish of Saint James (Lower Holloway) all in the county and diocese aforesaid, and upon the remaining side that is to say upon the north-west by an imaginary line commencing upon the boundary which divides the lastly-named new parish from the new parish of Saint Luke West Holloway aforesaid, at the point where the Caledonian-road is joined by Hillmarton-road and by the North-road which leads to and along the north-western side of the Metropolitan Cattle Market, and extending thence that is from the Caledonian-road aforesaid, south-westward along the middle of the said North-road for a distance of thirty-five chains or thereabouts to its junction, at the north-western entrance to the said market, with Brecknock-road, and continuing thence still south-westward and in a direct line across the last-named road to the boundary on the western side of the same road which boundary divides the said new parish of Saint Luke West Holloway from the parish of Saint Paul Camden New Town aforesaid.

"II. And also all that contiguous portion of the said new parish of Saint Andrew Islington which is bounded upon the east by the new parish of Saint Clement Barnsbury aforesaid, upon the north by the hereinbefore-described portion of the new parish of Saint Luke, West Holloway aforesaid, upon the west partly by the parish of Saint Paul Camden New Town aforesaid and partly by the parish of Saint Thomas, Agar Town, in the county and diocese aforesaid, and upon the remaining side, that is to say, upon the south partly by the new parish of Saint Michael Islington in the said county and diocese, and partly by an imaginary line commencing upon the boundary which divides the last-named new parish from the new parish of Saint Andrew Islington aforesaid, at the centre of the bridge which carries the line of the North London Railway over the line of the Great Northern Railway, and extending thence north-eastward along the middle of the line of the North London Railway aforesaid for a distance of twenty chains or thereabouts to the boundary at the centre of the bridge which carries the same line of railway over the Caledonian-road aforesaid, which boundary divides the said new parish of Saint Andrew Islington from the new parish of Saint Clement Barnsbury aforesaid."

And whereas the said representation has been approved by Her Majesty in Council; now, therefore, Her Majesty, by and with the advice of Her said Council, is pleased hereby to ratify the said representation, and to order and direct that the same and every part thereof shall be effectual in law immediately from and after the time when this Order shall have been duly published in the London Gazette pursuant to the said Acts; and Her Majesty, by and with the like advice, is pleased hereby to direct that this Order be forthwith registered by the Registrar of the said diocese of London.

C. L. Peel.

AT the Court at Osborne House, Isle of Wight, the 10th day of August, 1888.

PRESENT,

The QUEEN's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England have, in pursuance of the Act of the thirty-third and thirty-fourth years of Her Majesty chapter thirty-nine, and of the Acts therein mentioned, that is to say, the Act of the third and fourth years of Her Majesty, chapter one hundred and thirteen, the Act of the fourth and fifth years of Her Majesty, chapter thirty-nine, and the Act of the thirty-first and thirty-second years of Her Majesty, chapter one hundred and fourteen, duly prepared and laid before Her Majesty in Council a scheme, bearing date the fourteenth day of June, in the year one thousand eight hundred and eighty-eight, in the words following, that is to say:—

"We the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England in pursuance of the Act of the thirty-third and thirty-fourth years of Your Majesty chapter thirty-nine, and of the Acts therein mentioned that is to say, the Act of the third and fourth years of Your Majesty chapter one hundred and thirteen and of the Act of the fourth and fifth years of Your Majesty chapter thirty-nine, and of the Act of the thirty-first and thirty-second years of Your Majesty chapter one hundred and fourteen have prepared and now humbly lay before Your Majesty in Council the following scheme for effecting a transfer of the ownership of the advowson and perpetual right of patronage of and presentation to the church and cure (hereinafter called 'the said benefice') of Sevenhampton in the county of Gloucester and in the diocese of Gloucester and Bristol.

"Whereas the advowson or perpetual right of patronage of and presentation to the said benefice is as to one moiety or half-part thereof vested for an estate in fee simple without incumbrances in Christian William Lawrence of Her Majesty's Diplomatic Service now Minister Resident and Consul-General to the Republic of Equador and his heirs and assigns; and as to the other moiety or half-part thereof, is vested in Goodwin Charles Colquitt Craven of Brockhampton Park in the said county of Gloucester Esquire for and during his life with remainder to Fulwar John Colquitt Craven for and during his life with remainder to Fulwar Lewis George Craven an infant son of the said Fulwar John Colquitt Craven subject to his attaining the age of twenty-one years in fee tail.

"And whereas the said right of patronage of and presentation to the said benefice of Sevenhampton is exercised alternately by the said Christian William Lawrence and by the said Goodwin Charles Colquitt Craven.

"And whereas the said Christian William Lawrence and Goodwin Charles Colquitt Craven are and each of them is desirous that the whole advowson or perpetual right of patronage of and presentation to the said benefice of Sevenhampton now vested in them by way of alternate patronage as aforesaid should be transferred to and be vested in the Bishop for the time being of the said diocese of Gloucester and Bristol.

"And whereas the Right Reverend Charles John now Bishop of the said diocese of Gloucester and Bristol is willing to accept such transfer and in token of such his willingness and also in token that the same transfer has that consent of the Bishop of the diocese which by the Acts hereinbefore mentioned or by some or one of them is made necessary he the said Bishop of the said diocese of Gloucester and Bristol has executed this scheme as hereinafter mentioned.

"And whereas the transfer of the patronage of the said benefice of Sevenhampton which is hereinbefore mentioned, and hereinafter recommended and proposed will render the same benefice more eligible for augmentation out of funds under our control and we have provisionally agreed to make such an augmentation of the same benefice, and under these circumstances the said proposed transfer will in our opinion tend to make better provision for the cure of souls in the parish or district in or in respect of which the right of patronage or advowson so recommended and proposed to be transferred as aforesaid arises or exists that is to say in the parish of Sevenhampton.

"Now therefore with the consent of the said Christian William Lawrence and of the said Goodwin Charles Colquitt Craven (in testimony whereof they have respectively signed and sealed this scheme) and with the consent of the said Charles John Bishop of the said diocese of Gloucester and Bristol (in testimony whereof he has signed this scheme and sealed the same with his episcopal seal), we the said Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England humbly recommend and propose that upon and from the day of the date of the publication in the London Gazette of any Order of Your Majesty in Council ratifying this scheme and without any conveyance or assurance in the law other than such duly gazetted Order, the whole advowson or perpetual right of patronage of and presentation to the said benefice of Sevenhampton now vested in them the said Christian William Lawrence and Goodwin Charles Colquitt Craven by way of alternate patronage and presentation as aforesaid shall be absolutely transferred from them respectively and each of them to the said Charles John Bishop of the said diocese of Gloucester and Bristol and to his successors Bishops of the same diocese in such wise as that the whole advowson (now held in moieties as aforesaid) of the said benefice of Sevenhampton shall thereupon and thenceforth become and be absolutely vested in and shall and may from time to time be exercised by the said Charles John Bishop of the said diocese of Gloucester and Bristol and by his successors for ever.

"And we further recommend and propose that nothing herein contained shall prevent us from recommending and proposing any further or other measures relating to the matters aforesaid or any of them in accordance with the provisions of the said Acts or of any of them or of any other Act of Parliament."

"And whereas the said scheme has been approved by Her Majesty in Council: now, therefore, Her Majesty, by and with the advice of Her said Council, is pleased hereby to ratify the said scheme, and to order and direct that the same and every part thereof shall be effectual in law immediately from and after the time when this Order shall have been duly published in the London Gazette pursuant to the said Acts; and Her Majesty, by and with the like advice, is pleased hereby to direct that this Order be forthwith registered by the Registrars of the said diocese of Gloucester and Bristol, in the Registries at Gloucester and at Bristol respectively.

WHEREAS the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England have, in pursuance of the Act of the fifty-ninth year of His Majesty King George the Third, chapter one hundred and thirty-four; of the Act of the second and third years of Her Majesty, chapter forty-nine; and of the Act of the nineteenth and twentieth years of Her Majesty, chapter fifty-five, duly prepared and laid before Her Majesty in Council a representation, bearing date the twenty-first day of June, in the year one thousand eight hundred and eighty-eight, in the words and figures following, that is to say:—

"We, the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, in pursuance of the Act of the fifty-ninth year of His Majesty King George the Third, chapter one hundred and thirty-four; of the Act of the second and third years of Your Majesty, chapter forty-nine; and of the Act of the nineteenth and twentieth years of Your Majesty, chapter fifty-five, have prepared, and now humbly lay before Your Majesty in Council, the following representation as to the assignment of a district chapelry to the consecrated church of the Holy Trinity situate at Barnes in the parish of Barnes in the county of Surrey and in the diocese of Rochester.

"Whereas it appears to us to be expedient that a district chapelry should be assigned to the said church of the Holy Trinity situate at Barnes as aforesaid.

"Now therefore, with the consent of the Right Reverend Anthony Wilson Bishop of the said diocese of Rochester (testified by his having signed and sealed this representation), we, the said Ecclesiastical Commissioners, humbly represent, that it would, in our opinion, be expedient that all that part of the said parish of Barnes which is described in the schedule hereunder written, all which part, together with the boundaries thereof, is delineated and set forth on the map or plan hereunto annexed, should be assigned as a district chapelry to the said church of the Holy Trinity situate at Barnes as aforesaid, and that the same should be named 'The District Chapelry of the Holy Trinity, Barnes.'

"And with the like consent of the said Anthony Wilson Bishop of the said diocese of Rochester (testified as aforesaid), we, the said Ecclesiastical Commissioners, further represent, that it appears to us to be expedient that banns of matrimony should be published, and that marriages, baptisms, churchings, and burials should be solemnized or performed at the said church of the Holy Trinity situate at Barnes as aforesaid, and that the fees to be received in respect of the publication of such banns and of the solemnization or performance of the said offices should be paid and belong to the minister of the same church for the time being: Provided always, that nothing herein contained shall be construed as expressing any intention on the part of us the said Commissioners to concur in or approve the taking of any fee for the performance of the said office of baptism or for the registration thereof.

"We, therefore, humbly pray that Your Majesty will be graciously pleased to take the premises into Your Royal consideration and to make such Order with respect thereto as to Your Majesty, in Your Royal wisdom, shall seem meet.

"The SCHEDULE to which the foregoing Representation has reference.

"The District Chapelry of the Holy Trinity, Barnes, being:—

"All that part of the parish of Barnes in the county of Surrey and in the diocese of Rochester which is bounded upon the east upon the north and upon the north-west by the boundary in the middle of the River Thames which divides the said county and diocese from the county of Middlesex and from the diocese of London, and upon the remaining sides that is say upon the west and upon the south by an imaginary line commencing upon the said county and diocesan boundary at a point in the middle of the said River Thames, opposite to the south-western end of Chiswick Ait at Chiswick Ferry and extending thence south-eastward and in a direct line for a distance of five and a-half chains or thereabouts to a point upon the right bank of the said river at the north-western end of Ferry-lane and continuing thence still south-eastward along the middle of the said lane for a distance of forty-three chains or thereabouts to a point opposite to a boundary-stone inscribed "B. H. T. D. C. 1888" and placed upon the eastern side of the same lane at a point distant about sixteen and a-half chains or thereabouts (measured along the course of the same lane) from its junction with Hammersmith Bridge-road and immediately opposite to the middle of the opening or roadway between the houses situate on the western side of the said Hammersmith Bridge-road and called or known respectively as Oaklands and as Springfield, and extending thence that is to say from the middle of the said Ferry-lane in a direction a little to the south of east and in a straight line for a distance of eleven chains or thereabouts to and along the middle of the said opening or roadway to a point in the middle of the said Hammersmith Bridge-road and continuing thence still in precisely the same direction and in a straight line for a distance of three and a half chains or thereabouts to and along the middle of the opening or roadway between the houses, situate on the eastern side of the said Hammersmith Bridge-road and called or known respectively as Avondale and Fairlawn to the present south-eastern end of the last-described opening or roadway and continuing thence still in precisely the same direction and in a straight line for a further distance of forty-three chains or thereabouts (thereby crossing the western angle of the buildings called or known as Barn Elms Farm) to a point in the middle of the said River Thames upon the boundary which divides the said county of Surrey and the said diocese of Rochester from the said county of Middlesex and from the diocese of London aforesaid."

AT the Court at Osborne House, Isle of Wight, the 10th day of August, 1888.

PRESENT:

The QUEEN'S Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England have, in pursuance of the Act of the thirty-third and thirty-fourth years of Her Majesty chapter thirty-nine, and of the Acts therein mentioned, that is to say the Act of the third and fourth years of Her Majesty chapter one hundred and thirteen, and the Act of the fourth and fifth years of Her Majesty chapter thirty-nine and the Act of the thirty-first and thirty-second years of Her Majesty chapter one hundred and fourteen duly prepared and laid before Her Majesty in Council a scheme, bearing date the twenty-first day of June, in the year one thousand eight hundred and eighty-eight, in the words following, that is to say:—

"We the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England in pursuance of the Act of the thirty-third and thirty-fourth years of Your Majesty chapter thirty-nine and of the Acts therein mentioned that is to say the Act of the third and fourth years of Your Majesty chapter one hundred and thirteen and the Act of the fourth and fifth years of Your Majesty chapter thirty-nine and the Act of the thirty-first and thirty-second years of Your Majesty chapter one hundred and fourteen have prepared and now humbly lay before Your Majesty in Council the following scheme for effecting a transfer of the ownership of the advowson or perpetual right of patronage of and presentation to the church and cure (hereinafter called 'the said benefice') of Llan-y-Cefn in the county of Pembroke and in the diocese of Saint Davids.

"Whereas the advowson or perpetual right of patronage of and presentation to the said benefice of Llan-y-Cefn is vested for an estate for her own life for her separate use in Dame Mary Philippa the wife of Sir Charles Edward Gregg Philipps Baronet of Picton Castle in the county of Pembroke with remainder to the said Charles Edward Gregg Philipps in the event of his surviving her during his life with certain remainders over.

"And whereas the said Charles Edward Gregg Philipps and Mary Philippa Philipps are and each of them is desirous that the whole advowson or perpetual right of patronage of and presentation to the said benefice of Llan-y-Cefn now vested in them as aforesaid should be transferred to and be vested in the Bishop for the time being of the said diocese of Saint Davids.

"And whereas the Right Reverend William Basil now Bishop of the said diocese of Saint Davids is willing to accept such transfer and in token of such his willingness and also in token that the same transfer has that consent of the Bishop of the diocese which by the Acts in the hereinbefore mentioned Act recited or by some or one of them is made necessary he the said William Basil Bishop of the said diocese of Saint Davids has executed this scheme as hereinafter mentioned.

"And whereas the transfer of the patronage of the said benefice of Llan-y-Cefn which is hereinbefore mentioned and hereinafter recommended and proposed will render the same benefice more eligible for augmentation out of funds under our control and we have provisionally agreed in case the said transfer of patronage be effected to make such an augmentation of the same benefice and under these circumstances the said proposed transfer will in our opinion tend to make better provision for the cure of souls in the parish or district in or in respect of which the right of patronage or advowson so recommended and proposed to be transferred as aforesaid arises or exists that is to say in the parish of Llan-y-Cefn.

"Now therefore with the consent of the said Charles Edward Gregg Philipps and Mary Philippa Philipps (in testimony whereof each of them has signed and sealed this scheme) and with the consent of the said William Basil Bishop of the said diocese of Saint Davids (in testimony whereof he has signed this scheme and sealed the same with his episcopal seal) we the said Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England humbly recommend and propose that upon and from the day of the date of the publication in the London Gazette of any Order of Your Majesty in Council ratifying this scheme and without any conveyance or assurance in the law other than such duly gazetted Order the whole advowson or perpetual right of patronage of and presentation to the said benefice of Llan-y-Cefn shall be transferred from the said Charles Edward Gregg Philipps and Mary Philippa Philipps and each of them to the said William Basil Bishop of the said diocese of Saint Davids and his successors Bishops of the same diocese and shall thereupon and thenceforth become and be absolutely vested in and shall and may from time to time be exercised by the said William Basil Bishop of the said diocese of Saint Davids and by his successors Bishops of the same diocese for ever.

"And we further recommend and propose that nothing herein contained shall prevent us from recommending and proposing any further or other measures relating to the matters aforesaid or any of them in accordance with the provisions of the said Acts or of any of them or of any other Act of Parliament."

And whereas the said scheme has been approved by Her Majesty in Council: Now, therefore, Her Majesty, by and with the advice of Her said Council, is pleased hereby to ratify the said scheme, and to order and direct that the same and every part thereof shall be effectual in law immediately from and after the time when this Order shall have been duly published in the London Gazette pursuant to the said Acts; and Her Majesty, by and with the like advice, is pleased hereby to direct that this Order be forthwith registered by the Registrar of the said diocese of Saint Davids. C. L. Peel.

AT the Court at Osborne House, Isle of Wight, the 10th day of August, 1888.

PRESENT,

The QUEEN'S Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England have, in pursuance of the Act of the third and fourth years of Her Majesty, chapter one hundred and thirteen, of the Act of the sixth and seventh years of Her Majesty, chapter thirty-seven, and of the Act of the nineteenth and twentieth years of Her Majesty, chapter one hundred and four, duly prepared and laid before Her Majesty in Council a scheme, bearing date the twenty-eighth day of June, in the year one thousand eight hundred and eighty-eight, in the words following, that is to say:—

"We the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England in pursuance of the Act of the third and fourth years of Your Majesty chapter one hundred and thirteen and of the Act of the sixth and seventh years of Your Majesty chapter thirty-seven and of the Act of the nineteenth and twentieth years of Your Majesty chapter one hundred and four have prepared and now humbly lay before Your Majesty in Council the following scheme for constituting a separate district for spiritual purposes to be taken out of the parish of Dodderhill in the county of Worcester and in the diocese of Worcester.

"Whereas it has been made to appear to us that it would promote the interests of religion that the particular part of the said parish of Dodderhill which is hereinafter mentioned and described should be constituted a separate district in manner hereinafter set forth.

"And whereas there is not within the limits of the said proposed district any consecrated church or chapel in use for the purposes of Divine worship.

"And whereas for the purpose of providing an endowment for the said proposed district John Corbett of Impney in the said county of Worcester Esquire a Member of the Commons House of Parliament has contributed a sum of three thousand pounds four pounds per centum debenture stock of the Midland Railway Company and has transferred the same into our name in the books of the same Company to be held on trust by us as and for a permanent endowment for the minister for the time being of the said proposed district and so soon as the said district shall have become a new parish under the provisions of the hereinbefore secondly mentioned Act then of the incumbent of the said new parish the amount of the annual interest and dividends to accrue due on account of the said sum of stock to be receivable by the said minister or incumbent for the time being when he shall have been duly licensed according to the provisions of the hereinbefore secondly mentioned Act.

"And whereas the said sum of three thousand pounds four pounds per centum debenture stock of the Midland Railway Company aforesaid has been so provided upon the understanding that we should make and pay out of the common fund created by the firstly herein-named Act to the minister or incumbent for the time being of the said proposed district or new parish (as the case may be) when duly licensed as aforesaid the annual sum of thirty pounds sterling and upon the further understanding and condition that (such arrangement appearing to us to be expedient) the whole right of patronage of the said district or new parish and of the nomination of the minister or incumbent thereof should be assigned in the manner hereinafter mentioned.

"And whereas we have undertaken and agreed to make the said grant of thirty pounds per annum as aforesaid by an instrument to be executed by us under our common seal in accordance with the provisions of the Act of the twenty-ninth and thirtieth years of Your Majesty chapter one hundred and eleven.

"Now therefore with the consent of the Right Reverend Henry Bishop of the said diocese of Worcester (in testimony whereof he has signed and sealed this scheme) we the said Ecclesiastical Commissioners humbly recommend and propose that all that part of the said parish of Dodderhill which is mentioned and described in the schedule hereunder written and is delineated and set forth in the map or plan hereunto annexed) shall upon and from the day of the date of the publication in the London Gazette of any Order of Your Majesty in Council ratifying this scheme become and be constituted a separate district for spiritual purposes, and that the same shall be named 'The District of Wychbold.'

"And we further recommend and propose that the whole right of patronage of the said district so recommended to be constituted and so soon as the said district shall have become a new parish as aforesaid then of the said new parish and the nomination of the minister or incumbent thereof shall without any assurance in the law other than this scheme and any duly gazetted Order of Your Majesty in Council ratifying the same and upon and from the day of the date of the publication of such Order in the London Gazette as aforesaid be assigned to and become vested in and shall and may from time to time be exercised by the said John Corbett his heirs and assigns.

"And we further recommend and propose that nothing herein contained shall prevent us from recommending and proposing any other measures relating to the matters aforesaid or any of them in conformity with the provisions of the said Acts or of any of them or of any other Act of Parliament.

"The SCHEDULE to which the foregoing Scheme has reference.

"The District of Wychbold being:—

"All that part of the parish of Dodderhill in the county of Worcester and in the diocese of Worcester which is bounded upon the south by the parish of Hanbury upon the north-east by the parish of Stoke Prior and upon the north and upon part of the north-west by the parish of Upton Warren all in the county and diocese aforesaid and upon all other sides that is to say upon the remaining part of the north-west and upon the south-west by an imaginary line commencing at the point in the middle of the River Salwarpe near Henbrook where the boundary which divides the said parish of Upton Warren from the parish of Dodderhill aforesaid diverges from the said river in a north-westerly direction and extending thence that is from the said boundary generally south-westward along the middle of the same river for a distance of one mile and fifty chains or thereabouts to a point at the centre of the footbridge which carries the footpath leading from the Robin Hood Inn at Rashwood to Ridgeway Farm over the said river and extending thence that is to say from the said footbridge in a direction a little to the east of south and in a straight line for a distance of nineteen chains or thereabouts to a point in the middle of the road which leads from Upton Warren to Droitwich at its junction with the road leading to Stoke Prior and with the road leading to Rashwood Farm and extending thence that is to say from the said point of junction south-eastward and in a straight line for a distance of thirty-nine chains or thereabouts to the mile post upon the south-eastern side of the line of the Stoke Branch of the Great Western Railway which mile post indicates a distance of two miles from Droitwich and continuing thence in precisely the same direction that is to say south-westward and in a straight line for a distance of eighteen chains or thereabouts to the boundary which divides the said parish of Dodderhill from the parish of Hanbury aforesaid."

And whereas drafts of the said scheme have, in accordance with the provisions of the secondly hereinbefore mentioned Act, been transmitted to the patron and to the incumbent of the parish out of which it is intended that the district recommended in such scheme to be constituted shall be taken, and such patron and incumbent have respectively signified their assent to such scheme.

And whereas the said scheme has been approved by Her Majesty in Council: Now, therefore, Her Majesty, by and with the advice of Her said Council, is pleased hereby to ratify the said scheme, and to order and direct that the same and every part thereof shall be effectual in law immediately from and after the time when this Order shall have been duly published in the London Gazette pursuant to the said Acts; and Her Majesty, by and with the like advice, is pleased hereby to direct that this Order be forthwith registered by the Registrar of the said diocese of Worcester.

At the Court at Osborne House, Isle of Wight,
the 10th day of August, 1888.

PRESENT,

The QUEEN'S Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England have, in pursuance of the Act of the seventh and eighth years of Her Majesty chapter ninety-four of the Act of the thirteenth and fourteenth years of Her Majesty chapter ninety-four and of the Act of the thirty-second and thirty-third years of Her Majesty chapter ninety-four duly prepared and laid before Her Majesty in Council a scheme or representation bearing date the twenty-eighth day of June, in the year one thousand eight hundred and eighty-eight, in the words following, that is to say:—

"We, the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, acting under the provisions of the Act of the seventh and eighth years of Your Majesty chapter ninety-four, of the Act of the thirteenth and fourteenth years of Your Majesty, chapter ninety-four, and of the Act of the thirty-second and thirty-third years of Your Majesty chapter ninety-four, have prepared and now humbly lay before Your Majesty in Council the following scheme or representation for altering the boundaries of the new parish (sometime consolidated chapelry) of Saint James Rhos-ddu in the county of Denbigh and in the diocese of Saint Asaph.

"Whereas by the authority of an Order of Your Majesty in Council bearing date the sixteenth day of August in the year one thousand eight hundred and eighty-six and published in the London Gazette upon the twenty-fourth day of the same month certain contiguous portions of the parish of Wrexham, of the parish of Gresford and of the parish of Gwersyllt, all situate in the county and diocese aforesaid were assigned as a consolidated chapelry to the consecrated church of Saint James situate at Rhos-ddu in the said parish of Wrexham and the same was named 'The Consolidated Chapelry of Saint James Rhos-ddu.'

"And whereas the said consolidated chapelry of Saint James Rhos-ddu has under the provisions of the Act of the nineteenth and twentieth years of Your Majesty chapter one hundred and four, become a new parish of the character contemplated by that Act and by the Act of the sixth and seventh years of Your Majesty chapter thirty-seven and by the above-mentioned Act of the thirty-second and thirty-third years of Your Majesty chapter ninety-four.

"And whereas it has been represented to us and it appears to us to be expedient that the boundaries of the said new parish of Saint James Rhos-ddu should be altered in manner hereinafter mentioned.

"Now therefore with the consent of the Right Reverend Joshua, Bishop of the said diocese of Saint Asaph (in testimony whereof he has signed and sealed this scheme or representation) we the said Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England humbly represent recommend and propose that from and after the day of the date of the publication in the London Gazette of any Order of Your Majesty in Council ratifying this scheme or representation the boundaries of the said new parish of Saint James Rhos-ddu shall be altered by way of extension so that they shall include all that additional part of the said parish of Gwersyllt which is described in the schedule hereunder written and is delineated and set forth upon the map or plan hereunto appended and is thereon coloured pink and that from and after the day of the same date and without any assurance in the law other than such duly gazetted Order the said portion of the said parish of Gwersyllt shall be included within and shall become and be and form part of the said new parish of Saint James Rhos-ddu.

"And we further represent recommend and propose that nothing herein contained shall prevent us from representing recommending or proposing any other measures relating to the matters aforesaid or to any of them in accordance with the provisions of the hereinbefore-mentioned Acts or of any of them, or of any other Act of Parliament.

"The SCHEDULE to which the foregoing Scheme or Representation has reference.

"The territory to be annexed to the new parish of Saint James Rhos-ddu in the county of Denbigh and in the diocese of Saint Asaph being:—

"All that part of the parish of Gwersyllt in the same county and diocese wherein the present incumbent of such parish still possesses the exclusive cure of souls which is bounded upon the south-east and upon the east by the new parish of Saint James Rhos-ddu aforesaid and upon the remaining sides, that is to say, upon the north and upon the north-west by an imaginary line commencing upon the boundary which divides the said new parish of Saint James Rhos-ddu from the parish of Gwersyllt aforesaid at the junction of the road leading from Rhos-Robin to Llan Llyn with the road commonly called Dodd's-lane which leads from Rhos-Robin to the Gwersyllt Railway Station and extending thence generally westward along the middle of the last-mentioned road or lane for a distance of twenty-five chains or thereabouts to its junction with the road which leads to and across the line of the Wheatsheaf Branch of the Great Western Railway and extending thence south-westward along the middle of the last-described road for a distance of four and three-quarter chains or thereabouts to a point in the middle of the said branch line of railway, and continuing thence still in precisely the same direction, that is to say south-westward and in a straight line for a distance of thirty chains or thereabouts to the point where the main road leading from Mold to Wrexham is joined by the road which leads past the northern side of the house called or known as Stansty Farm and along the northern side of the park attached to Stansty Hall to Pool Mouth, and Pentre Isaf, which said last-mentioned point is on the boundary which divides the said parish of Gwersyllt from the new parish of Saint James Rhos-ddu aforesaid."

And whereas drafts of the said scheme or representation have been transmitted to the patrons and to the incumbents of the cures affected by the arrangements which are contemplated by such scheme or representation and such patrons and incumbents have respectively signified their assent thereto.

And whereas the said scheme or representation has been approved by Her Majesty in Council: now, therefore, Her Majesty, by and with the advice of Her said Council, is pleased hereby to ratify the said scheme or representation, and to order and direct that the same and every part thereof shall be effectual in law immediately from and after the time when this Order shall have been duly published in the London Gazette pursuant to the said Acts; and Her Majesty, by and with the like advice, is pleased hereby to direct that this Order be forthwith registered by the Registrar of the said diocese of Saint Asaph.

C. L. Peel.

At the Court at Osborne House, Isle of Wight, the 10th day of August, 1888.

PRESENT,

The QUEEN'S Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England have, in pursuance of the Act of the eighth and ninth years of Her Majesty, chapter seventy; of the Act of the fourteenth and fifteenth years of Her Majesty, chapter ninety-seven; of the Act of the nineteenth and twentieth years of Her Majesty, chapter fifty-five; and of the Act of the thirty-fourth and thirty-fifth years of Her Majesty, chapter eighty-two; duly prepared and laid before Her Majesty in Council a representation, bearing date the twenty-eighth day of June, in the year one thousand eight hundred and eighty-eight, in the words and figures following; that is to say:—

"We the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, in pursuance of the Act of the eighth and ninth years of Your Majesty, chapter seventy, of the Act of the fourteenth and fifteenth years of Your Majesty chapter ninety-seven, of the Act of the nineteenth and twentieth years of Your Majesty chapter fifty-five, and of the Act of the thirty-fourth and thirty-fifth years of Your Majesty, chapter eighty-two, have prepared, and now humbly lay before Your Majesty in Council the following representation as to the assignment of a consolidated chapelry to the consecrated church of the Holy Trinity, situate at Ilkeston in the parish of Ilkeston in the county of Derby and in the diocese of Southwell.

"Whereas at certain extremities of the said parish of Ilkeston and of the new parish (some-time district) of Cotmanhay in the said county and in the diocese aforesaid which said extremities lie contiguous one to another, and are described in the schedule hereunder written, there is collected together a population which is situate at a distance from the several churches of such parish and of such new parish respectively.

"And whereas it appears to us to be expedient that certain contiguous portions (being the portions containing the population aforesaid) of the said parish of Ilkeston and of the said new parish of Cotmanhay should be formed into a consolidated chapelry for all ecclesiastical purposes and that the same should be assigned to the said church of the Holy Trinity situate at Ilkeston as aforesaid.

"Now therefore with the consent of the Right Reverend George, Bishop of the said diocese of Southwell as such Bishop, with the consent of the Most Noble John James Robert, Duke of Rutland the patron of the vicarage of the said parish of Ilkeston, and with the consent of Alfred Edward Miller Mundy of Shipley Hall in the said county of Derby, one of your Majesty's Justices of the Peace, the patron of the vicarage of the new parish of Cotmanhay aforesaid (in testimony whereof they the said consenting parties have respectively signed and sealed this representation), we the said Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, humbly represent, that it would, in our opinion, be expedient that all those contiguous portions of the said parish of Ilkeston and of the said new parish of Cotmanhay, which are described in the schedule hereunder written, all which portions, together with the boundaries thereof are delineated and set forth on the map or plan hereunto annexed, should be united and formed into one consolidated chapelry for the said church of the Holy Trinity situate at Ilkeston as aforesaid, and that the same should be named 'The Consolidated Chapelry of the Holy Trinity, Ilkeston.'

"We, therefore, humbly pray that Your Majesty will be graciously pleased to take the premises into Your Royal consideration, and to make such Order in respect thereto as to Your Majesty in Your Royal wisdom shall seem meet.

"The SCHEDULE to which the foregoing Representation has reference.

"The Consolidated Chapelry of the Holy Trinity Ilkeston, comprising:—

"1. All that portion of the parish of Ilkeston in the county of Derby and in the diocese of Southwell wherein the present incumbent of such parish still possesses the exclusive cure of souls which is bounded upon the west partly by the parish of West Hallam in the said county and diocese and partly by the new parish of the Holy Trinity Mapperley in the same county and diocese upon the north by the new parish of Cotmanhay in the same county and diocese upon the east by the parish of Wollaton-with-Cossall in the county of Nottingham and in the diocese aforesaid and upon the remaining side that is to say upon the south by an imaginary line commencing upon the boundary which divides the said parish of Wollaton-with-Cossall from the parish of Ilkeston aforesaid at the centre of the bridge which carries Station-road over the River Erewash and extending thence south-westward along the middle of the said road for a distance of forty-four chains and forty-eight links or thereabouts to its junction with Bath-street and extending thence southward along the middle of the said street for a distance of four chains and seventy-seven links or thereabouts to its junction with Wilmot-street and extending thence north-westward along the middle of the last-named street for a distance of two chains and forty links or thereabouts to its junction with the roadway or footpath which leads towards Manor House and continuing thence still north-westward along the middle of the said roadway or footpath for a distance of fourteen chains or thereabouts to its junction with the roadway which leads from Bath-street towards Manners Colliery and extending thence first south-westward and then north-westward along the middle of the last-described roadway for a distance of ten chains and eighteen links or thereabouts to the centre of the bridge which carries the same roadway over the line of the Derbyshire and North Staffordshire Extension of the Great Northern Railway and extending thence south-westward to and along the middle of the last-mentioned line of railway for a distance of forty-two chains and ninety-one links or thereabouts to the boundary at Nut Brook which divides the said parish of Ilkeston from the parish of West Hallam aforesaid.

"II. And also all that contiguous portion of the new parish of Cotmanhay aforesaid which is bounded upon the south-west by the hereinbefore described portion of the said parish of Ilkeston upon the east and upon the south-east by the parish of Wollaton-with-Cossall aforesaid and upon the remaining sides that is to say upon the north and upon the north-west by an imaginary line commencing upon the boundary which divides the said parish of Wollaton-with-Cossall from the new parish of Cotmanhay aforesaid at the centre of the bridge which carries Awsworth Common road over the River Erewash aforesaid and extending thence first westward and then south-westward along the middle of the last-named road for a distance of thirty-two chains and eighty-one links or thereabouts to the bridge over the Erewash Canal which bridge connects the said Awsworth Common-road with Awsworth-road and extending thence westward for a distance of one chain and forty-four links or thereabouts along the middle of the said bridge and along the middle of Awsworth-road aforesaid to the boundary at the junction of the last-named road with Duke-street which boundary divides the said new parish of Cotmanhay from the parish of Ilkeston aforesaid."

And whereas the said representation has been approved by Her Majesty in Council: now, therefore, Her Majesty, by and with the advice of Her said Council, is pleased hereby to ratify the said representation, and to order and direct that the same and every part thereof shall be effectual in law immediately from and after the time when this Order shall have been duly published in the London Gazette pursuant to the said Acts; and Her Majesty, by and with the like advice, is pleased hereby to direct that this Order be forthwith registered by the Registrar of the said diocese of Southwell.

C. L. Peel.

At the Court at Osborne House, Isle of Wight, the 10th day of August, 1838.

PRESENT,

The QUEEN'S Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England have, in pursuance of the Act of the eighth and ninth years of Her Majesty, chapter seventy; of the Act of the fourteenth and fifteenth years of Her Majesty, chapter ninety-seven; of the Act of the nineteenth and twentieth years of Her Majesty, chapter fifty-five; and of the Act of the thirty-fourth and thirty-fifth years of Her Majesty, chapter eighty-two; duly prepared and laid before Her Majesty in Council a representation, bearing date the fifth day of July, in the year one thousand eight hundred and eighty-eight, in the words following; that is to say:—

“We the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, in pursuance of the Act of the eighth and ninth years of Your Majesty, chapter seventy, of the Act of the fourteenth and fifteenth years of Your Majesty chapter ninety-seven, of the Act of the nineteenth and twentieth years of Your Majesty, chapter fifty-five, and of the Act of the thirty-fourth and thirty-fifth years of Your Majesty, chapter eighty-two, have prepared and now humbly lay before Your Majesty in Council the following representation as to the assignment of a consolidated chapelry to the consecrated church of Saint James situate at Gunnersbury in the new parish (sometime district chapelry) of (Saint George) Old Brentford in the county of Middlesex and in the diocese of London.

“Whereas at certain extremities of the said new parish of (Saint George) Old Brentford, of the new parish (sometime district chapelry) of Christ Church Turnham Green, and of the new parish (sometime district chapelry) of All Saints South Acton, all in the said county of Middlesex and in the diocese of London aforesaid, which said extremities lie contiguous one to another and are described in the schedule hereunder written, there is collected together a population which is situate at a distance from the several churches of such new parishes respectively.

“And whereas it appears to us to be expedient that certain contiguous portions (being the portions containing the population aforesaid) of the said new parish of (Saint George) Old Brentford, of the said new parish of Christ Church Turnham Green and of the said new parish of All Saints South Acton should be formed into a consolidated chapelry for all ecclesiastical purposes, and that the same should be assigned to the said church of Saint James situate at Gunnersbury as aforesaid.

“Now therefore, with the consent of the Right Honourable and Right Reverend Frederick Bishop of the said diocese of London as such Bishop, and also as the patron in right of his See, both of the vicarage of the said new parish of Christ Church Turnham Green, and of the vicarage of the said new parish of All Saints, South Acton, and with the consent of the Reverend William Elliott Oliver, the vicar or incumbent of the vicarage of the parish of Ealing, in the county and diocese aforesaid, and as such vicar or incumbent, the patron of the vicarage of the new parish of (Saint George) Old Brentford aforesaid (in testimony whereof they the said consenting parties have respectively signed and sealed this representation), we the said Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England humbly represent that it would, in our opinion be expedient that all those contiguous portions of the said new parish of (Saint George) Old Brentford, of the said new parish of Christ Church Turnham Green, and of the said new parish of All Saints South Acton which are described in the schedule hereunder written, all which portions together with the boundaries thereof are delineated and set forth on the map or plan hereunto annexed, should be united and formed into one consolidated chapelry for the said church of Saint James situate at Gunnersbury as aforesaid, and that the same should be named ‘The Consolidated Chapelry of Saint James, Gunnersbury.’

“We therefore humbly pray that Your Majesty will be graciously pleased to take the premises into Your Royal consideration, and to make such Order in respect thereto as to Your Majesty in Your Royal wisdom shall seem meet.

“The SCHEDULE to which the foregoing Representation has reference.

“The Consolidated Chapelry of Saint James, Gunnersbury comprising:—

“All those several contiguous portions of the new parish (sometime district chapelry) of (Saint George) Old Brentford, within the original limits of the parish of Ealing, of the new parish (sometime district chapelry) of Christ Church Turnham Green, within the original limits of the parish of Chiswick and of the new parish (sometime district chapelry) of All Saints South Acton within the original limits of the parish of Acton, all being in the county of Middlesex and in the diocese of London, which are hereinafter described, that is to say, All those portions of such new parishes which are comprised within and are bounded by an imaginary line commencing at the point where the boundary which divides the said new parish of (Saint George) Old Brentford from the parish of Ealing aforesaid crosses the middle of that part of the line of the London and South-Western Railway which extends between Kew Gardens Station and South Acton Station at which point the said line of railway is also crossed by the line of the Ealing Extension of the Metropolitan District Railway and extending thence north-westward along the said boundary for a distance of nine chains or thereabouts (thereby following for the most part the course of the private footpath or occupation road called or known as the Long-walk and which leads from Bollobridge-lane towards Gunnersbury House) to a point in the middle of the line of the North and South-Western Junction Railway and extending thence that is to say from the last-mentioned point, south-westward along the middle of the last-named line of railway for a distance of thirty-nine and a half chains or thereabouts to its junction with the line of the Kew Curve of the London and South-Western Railway aforesaid and extending thence first south-westward then southward and then south-eastward along the middle of the line of the said Kew Curve for a distance of twenty-nine and a half chains or thereabouts to the point about five chains to the east of the Kew Bridge Railway Station where the line of the said Kew Curve joins the loop line of the said London and South-Western Railway at or near to which point the boundary dividing the said new parish of (Saint George) Old Brentford from the new parish of Christchurch Turnham Green aforesaid joins the boundary dividing the last-named cure from the consolidated chapelry of Saint Paul Grove Park Chiswick in the county and diocese aforesaid and extending thence south-eastward along the last-described boundary for a distance of thirty-two and a half chains or thereabouts thereby following the course of the said loop line of the said London and South-Western Railway to the point where the same loop line of railway crosses under that part of the line of the said London and South-Western Railway which extends between Kew Bridge Station and South Acton Station as aforesaid, and extending thence that is to say from the said last-described boundary northward along the middle of the last-mentioned line of railway for a distance of fifty-eight and a half chains or thereabouts thereby crossing the boundary which divides the said new parish of Christ Church Turnham Green from the new parish of All Saints South Acton aforesaid, and also crossing the boundary which divides the last-named new parish from the new parish of (Saint George) Old Brentford aforesaid, to the first-described point upon the boundary which divides the last-named new parish from the parish of Ealing aforesaid, at which point the said imaginary line commenced."

And whereas the said representation has been approved by Her Majesty in Council: now, therefore, Her Majesty, by and with the advice of Her said Council, is pleased hereby to ratify the said representation, and to order and direct that the same and every part thereof shall be effectual in law immediately from and after the time when this Order shall have been duly published in the London Gazette pursuant to the said Acts; and Her Majesty, by and with the like advice, is pleased hereby to direct that this Order be forthwith registered by the Registrar of the said diocese of London.

C. L. Peel.

AT the Court at Osborne House, Isle of Wight, the 10th day of August, 1888.

PRESENT,

The QUEEN'S Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England have, in pursuance of the Act of the eighth and ninth years of Her Majesty, chapter seventy; of the Act of the fourteenth and fifteenth years of Her Majesty, chapter ninety-seven; of the Act of the nineteenth and twentieth years of Her Majesty, chapter fifty-five; and of the Act of the thirty-fourth and thirty-fifth years of Her Majesty, chapter eighty-two; duly prepared and laid before Her Majesty in Council a representation, bearing date the seventh day of June, in the year one thousand eight hundred and eighty-eight, in the words following; that is to say:—

"We the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England in pursuance of the Act of the eighth and ninth years of Your Majesty; chapter seventy of the Act of the fourteenth and fifteenth years of Your Majesty; chapter ninety-seven of the Act of the nineteenth and twentieth years of Your Majesty; chapter fifty-five and of the Act of the thirty-fourth and thirty-fifth years of Your Majesty; chapter eighty-two have prepared and now humbly lay before Your Majesty in Council the following representation as to the assignment of a consolidated chapelry to the consecrated church of Saint John situate within the limits of the parish of Windermere in the county of Westmorland and in the diocese of Carlisle.

"Whereas at certain extremities of the said parish of Windermere and of the new parish (sometime particular district) of Saint Mary Applethwaite in the county and diocese aforesaid which said extremities lie contiguous one to another, and are described in the schedule hereunder written there is collected together a population which is situate at a distance from the several churches of such parish and of such new parish respectively.

"And whereas it appears to us to be expedient that certain contiguous portions (being the portions containing the population aforesaid) of the said parish of Windermere and of the said new parish of Saint Mary Applethwaite should be formed into a consolidated chapelry for all ecclesiastical purposes and that the same should be assigned to the said church of Saint John situate as aforesaid.

"Now therefore with the consent of the Right Reverend Harvey Bishop of Carlisle as such Bishop and also as the patron in right of his See of the vicarage of the new parish of Saint Mary Applethwaite aforesaid and with the consent of Stanley Hughes Le Fleming of Rydal Hall in the said county of Westmorland Esquire the patron of the rectory of the parish of Windermere aforesaid (in testimony whereof they the said consenting parties have respectively signed and sealed this representation).

"We the said Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England humbly represent that it would in our opinion be expedient that all those contiguous portions of the said parish of Windermere and of the said new parish of Saint Mary Applethwaite which are described in the schedule hereunder written all which portions together with the boundaries thereof are delineated and set forth on the map or plan hereunto annexed should be united and formed into one consolidated chapelry for the said church of Saint John situate as aforesaid and that the same should be named 'The Consolidated Chapelry of Saint John Windermere.'

"We therefore humbly pray that Your Majesty will be graciously pleased to take the premises into Your Royal consideration and to make such Order in respect thereto as to Your Majesty in Your Royal wisdom shall seem meet.

"The SCHEDULE to which the foregoing Representation has reference.

"The Consolidated Chapelry of Saint John Windermere comprising:—

AT the Court at Osborne House, Isle of Wight, the 10th day of August, 1888.

PRESENT,

The QUEEN'S Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England have, in pursuance of the Act of the fifty-ninth year of His Majesty King George the Third, chapter one hundred and thirty-four; of the Act of the second and third years of Her Majesty, chapter forty-nine; and of the Act of the nineteenth and twentieth years of Her Majesty, chapter fifty-five, duly prepared and laid before Her Majesty in Council a representation, bearing date the twelfth day of July, in the year one thousand eight hundred and eighty-eight, in the words following, that is to say:—

"We the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, in pursuance of the Act of the fifty-ninth year of His Majesty King George the Third, chapter one hundred and thirty-four; of the Act of the second and third years of Your Majesty, chapter forty-nine; and of the Act of the nineteenth and twentieth years of Your Majesty, chapter fifty-five, have prepared and now humbly lay before Your Majesty in Council, the following representation as to the assignment of a district chapelry to the consecrated church of Saint Laurence situate at Rusley Green, Catford in the parish of Saint Mary Lewisham in the county of Kent and in the diocese of Rochester.

"Whereas it appears to us to be expedient that a district chapelry should be assigned to the said church of Saint Laurence situate as aforesaid.

"Now therefore with the consent of the Right Reverend Anthony Wilson Bishop of the said diocese of Rochester (testified by his having signed and sealed this representation), we, the said Ecclesiastical Commissioners, humbly represent, that it would, in our opinion, be expedient that all that part of the said parish of Saint Mary, Lewisham, which is described in the schedule hereunder written, all which part, together with the boundaries thereof, is delineated and set forth on the map or plan hereunto annexed, should be assigned as a district chapelry to the said church of Saint Laurence situate as aforesaid, and that the same should be named 'The District Chapelry of Saint Laurence, Catford.'

"And with the like consent of the said Anthony Wilson Bishop of the said diocese of Rochester (testified as aforesaid), we, the said Ecclesiastical Commissioners, further represent, that it appears to us to be expedient that banns of matrimony should be published, and that marriages, baptisms, churchings and burials should be solemnized or performed at the said church of Saint Laurence situate as aforesaid, and that the fees to be received in respect of the publication of such banns and of the solemnization or performance of the said offices should be paid and belong to the minister of the same church for the time being: Provided always, that nothing herein contained shall be construed as expressing any intention on the part of us the said Commissioners to concur in or approve the taking of any fee for the performance of the said office of baptism or for the registration thereof.

"We, therefore, humbly pray that Your Majesty will be graciously pleased to take the premises into Your Royal consideration and to make such Order with respect thereto as to Your Majesty, in Your Royal wisdom, shall seem meet.

"The SCHEDULE to which the foregoing Representation has reference.

"The District Chapelry of Saint Laurence, Catford being:—

"All that part of the parish of Saint Mary, Lewisham in the county of Kent and in the diocese of Rochester wherein the present incumbent of such parish still possesses the exclusive cure of souls which is comprised within and is bounded by an imaginary line commencing upon the boundary which divides the said parish of Saint Mary Lewisham from the consolidated chapelry of Saint George Perry Hill in the county and diocese aforesaid, at the centre of the bridge which carries the Mid-Kent Line of the South-Eastern Railway over the Ravensbourne River, the said bridge being distant about three chains to the east of the junction of the said river with the Pool River and extending thence northward along the middle of the said line of railway for a distance of fifty-seven and a half chains or thereabouts, thereby following for the most part the boundary aforesaid, to a point opposite to the junction of Doggett-road, at its northern end, with a certain road which connects Doggett-road aforesaid with Brookdale-road and extending thence eastward to and along the middle of the said connecting road for a distance of six and a half chains or thereabouts to its junction with Brookdale-road aforesaid and extending thence northward along the middle of the last-named road for a distance of one chain or thereabouts to its junction with Medusa-road and extending thence eastward along the middle of the last-named road for a distance of ten chains or thereabouts to its junction with Blagdon-road and extending thence southward along the middle of the last-named road for a distance of two chains or thereabouts to its junction with Hawstead-road and extending eastward along the middle of the last-named road for a distance of five and a half chains or thereabouts to its junction with the Lewisham and Bromley-road and extending thence northward along the middle of the last-named road for a distance of four chains or thereabouts to its junction with George-lane and extending thence eastward along the middle of the last-named lane for a distance of twenty-one chains or thereabouts to its junction with Fordyce-road and extending thence in a direction due south, and a straight line for a distance of thirty chains or thereabouts to a point in the middle of Brownhill-road, the said point being distant about nine chains to the east of Laleham-road and extending thence eastward along the middle of the said Brownhill-road for a distance of fifty-four chains or thereabouts to its junction with Hither Green-lane, and continuing thence still eastward across the last-named lane to a point on its eastern side upon the boundary which divides the said parish of Saint Mary Lewisham from the consolidated chapelry of Saint Mildred Burnt Ash Hill, Lee, in the county and diocese aforesaid and extending thence first southward and then south-eastward along the last-mentioned boundary for a distance of thirty-six and a half chains or thereabouts, thereby following for the most part the course of the last-named lane, to a point at the eastern end of the wall or fence forming the northern boundary of the Lee Cemetery and extending thence westward along the said wall or fence for a distance of five and a half chains or thereabouts to its western end on the eastern side of Hither Green-lane aforesaid and continuing thence still eastward and in a direct line to a point in the middle of the said lane, and extending thence southward along the middle of the same lane for a distance of ten chains or thereabouts to its junction, opposite to the western end of the wall or fence forming the southern boundary of the said cemetery, with the accommodation road or footway which leads into the Lewisham and Bromley-road aforesaid and extending thence westward along the middle of the said accommodation road or footway for a distance of one mile and five chains or thereabouts to its junction with the Lewisham and Bromley-road aforesaid and extending thence northward along the middle of the last-named road for a distance of eight and a half chains or thereabouts to its junction at or near to the house called or known as Rose Lawn with the road or footpath which leads past the southern side of the last-named house to the western end of Aitken-street and extending thence first westward and then north-westward along the middle of the last-described road or footpath for a distance of ten chains or thereabouts to the western end of Aitken-street aforesaid, at the south-eastern end of the wall or fence which forms the south-western boundary of the houses and gardens situate on the south-western side of Barmeston-street, and continuing thence still north-westward along the last-described wall or fence for a distance of seven chains or thereabouts to the point where it strikes

the River Ravensbourne aforesaid and extending thence first northward and then generally westward along the middle of the said river for a distance of eighteen chains or thereabouts to the first-described point, at the centre of the bridge which carries the said Mid-Kent line of railway over the same river, upon the boundary which divides the said parish of Saint Mary Lewisham from the consolidated chapelry of Saint George Perry Hill as aforesaid at which point the said imaginary line commenced."

And whereas the said representation has been approved by Her Majesty in Council: now, therefore, Her Majesty, by and with the advice of Her said Council, is pleased hereby to ratify the said representation, and to order and direct that the same and every part thereof shall be effectual in law immediately from and after the time when this Order shall have been duly published in the London Gazette pursuant to the said Acts; and Her Majesty, by and with the like advice, is pleased hereby to direct that this Order be forthwith registered by the Registrar of the said diocese of Rochester.

AT the Court at Osborne House, Isle of Wight, the 10th day of August, 1888.

PRESENT,

The QUEEN'S Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England have, in pursuance of the Act of the eighth and ninth years of Her Majesty, chapter seventy; of the Act of the fourteenth and fifteenth years of Her Majesty, chapter ninety-seven; of the Act of the nineteenth and twentieth years of Her Majesty, chapter fifty-five; and of the Act of the thirty-fourth and thirty-fifth years of Her Majesty, chapter eighty-two; duly prepared and laid before Her Majesty in Council a representation, bearing date the twelfth day of July, in the year one thousand eight hundred and eighty-eight in the words and figures following; that is to say:—

"We the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England in pursuance of the Act of the eighth and ninth years of Your Majesty chapter seventy of the Act of the fourteenth and fifteenth years of Your Majesty chapter ninety-seven of the Act of the nineteenth and twentieth years of Your Majesty chapter fifty-five and of the Act of the thirty-fourth and thirty-fifth years of Your Majesty chapter eighty-two have prepared and now humbly lay before Your Majesty in Council the following representation as to the assignment of a consolidated chapelry to the consecrated church of Saint Saviour situate in Hanley-road within the limits of the new parish (sometime district chapelry) of Saint Mark Tollington Park in the county of Middlesex and in the diocese of London.

"Whereas at certain extremities of the said new parish of Saint Mark Tollington Park and of the new parish (sometime district chapelry) of Saint Mary Hornsey Rise in the said county of Middlesex and in the diocese of London aforesaid which said extremities lie contiguous one to another and are described in the schedule hereunder written there is collected together a population which is situate at a distance from the several churches of such new parishes respectively.

"And whereas it appears to us to be expedient that certain contiguous portions (being the portions containing the population aforesaid) of the said new parish of Saint Mark Tollington Park and of the new parish of Saint Mary Hornsey Rise aforesaid should be formed into a consolidated chapelry for all ecclesiastical purposes and that the same should be assigned to the said church of Saint Saviour situate as aforesaid.

"Now therefore with the consent of the Right Honourable and Right Reverend Frederick Bishop of the said diocese of London as such Bishop with the consent of the Reverend Alfred Grabham Gristock Clerk in Holy Orders the vicar or incumbent of the vicarage of the district parish of Saint John Upper Holloway in the county and diocese aforesaid and as such vicar or incumbent the patron of the vicarage of the new parish of Saint Mark Tollington Park aforesaid and with the consent of the Reverend John Hurst Clerk in Holy Orders the vicar or incumbent of the last-named vicarage and as such vicar or incumbent the patron of the vicarage of the new parish of Saint Mary Hornsey Rise aforesaid (in testimony whereof they the said consenting parties have respectively signed and sealed this representation) we the said Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England humbly represent that it would in our opinion be expedient that all those contiguous portions of the said new parish of Saint Mark Tollington Park and of the said new parish of Saint Mary Hornsey Rise which are described in the schedule hereunder written all which portions together with the boundaries thereof are delineated and set forth on the map or plan hereunto annexed should be united and formed into one consolidated chapelry for the said Church of Saint Saviour situate as aforesaid and that the same should be named 'The Consolidated Chapelry of Saint Saviour Tollington Park.'

"We therefore humbly pray that Your Majesty will be graciously pleased to take the premises into Your Royal consideration and to make such order in respect thereto as to Your Majesty in Your Royal wisdom shall seem meet.

"The SCHEDULE to which the foregoing Representation has reference.

"The Consolidated Chapelry of Saint Saviour Tollington Park comprising—

"1. All that portion of the new parish (sometime district chapelry) of Saint Mark Tollington Park in the county of Middlesex and in the diocese of London wherein the present incumbent of such new parish still possesses the exclusive cure of souls which is bounded upon the north-east by the new parish of the Holy Trinity Stroud Green in the county and diocese aforesaid upon the north-west and upon the south-west by the new parish (sometime district chapelry) of Saint Mary Hornsey Rise in the same county and diocese and upon the remaining side that is to say upon the south-east by an imaginary line commencing upon the boundary which divides the said new parish of Saint Mary Hornsey Rise from the new parish of Saint Mark Tollington Park aforesaid at the point where Hornsey-road is joined by Thorpedale-road and extending thence north-eastward along the middle of the last-named road for a distance of three and a half chains or thereabouts to its intersection by Bracey-street and extending thence south-eastward along the middle of the last-named street for a distance of one and a quarter chains or thereabouts to a point opposite to the south-western end of the wall or fence which forms the south-eastern boundary of the houses and premises which are situate on the south-eastern side of that portion of Thorpedale-road aforesaid which extends between Bracey-street aforesaid and Alington-street and extending thence that is to say from the last-described point in the middle of Bracey-street aforesaid north-eastward to and along the said wall or fence for a distance of eleven and a quarter chains or thereabouts to its junction with the wall or fence which forms the south-western boundary of the houses and premises situate upon the south-western side of Almington-street aforesaid and extending thence south-eastward along the last-described wall or fence for a distance of two and three-quarter chains or thereabouts to its junction with the wall or fence which forms the south-eastern boundary of the house and premises called or known as number forty-two Almington-street and extending thence north-eastward for a distance of seven and a half chains along the last-described wall or fence along the wall or fence which forms the south-eastern end of Almington-street aforesaid along the walls or fences which form the south-eastern boundary of the houses and premises called or known respectively as number thirty-nine Almington-street and as number sixteen Montem-street along the wall or fence which forms the south-eastern end of the last-named street along the wall or fence which form the south-eastern boundary of the house and premises called or known as number thirteen Montem-street and along the wall or fence which forms the north-western boundary of the house and premises called or known as number fifty-one Marriott-road to the north-eastern end of the last-described wall or fence on the south-western side of the last-named road and continuing thence still north-eastward and in a direct line across the same road to a point on its north-eastern side at the south-western end of the wall or fence which divides the house and premises called or known as number thirty-two Marriott-road from the house and premises called or known as number thirty Marriott-road and continuing thence still north-eastward for a distance of three and a quarter chains or thereabouts along the last-described wall or fence and along the wall or fence which divides the house and premises now entered in the rate books of the vestry of the parish of Saint Mary Islington in the county and diocese aforesaid as number fifty-eight Evershot-road from the house and premises now entered in the said rate books as number twenty-six Evershot-road to the north-eastern end of the last-described fence on the south-western side of the last-named road and continuing thence still north-eastward and in a direct line across the last-named road to a point on its north-eastern side at the south-western end of the wall or fence which divides the house and premises now entered in the said rate books as number fifty-seven Evershot-road from the house and premises now entered in the same rate books as number fifty-three Evershot-road and continuing thence still north-eastward for a distance of one and a half chains or thereabouts along the last-described wall or fence to its junction with the wall or fence which divides the said house and premises called or known as number fifty-seven Evershot-road from the house and premises called or known as number forty-three Regina-road and extending thence first north-eastward and then north-westward along the last-described wall or fence for a distance of one chain or thereabouts to its junction with the wall or fence which divides the house and premises called or known as number forty-five Regina-road from the house and premises called or known as number forty-three Regina-road as aforesaid, and extending thence north-eastward along the last-described wall or fence for a distance of one and a quarter chains or thereabouts to its north-eastern end on the south-western side of the last-named road and extending thence first north-eastward to and then south-eastward along the middle of the same road for a distance of one and a quarter chains or thereabouts to a point opposite to the south-western end of the opening between the house called or known as number thirty-four Regina-road, and the house called or known as number thirty-two Regina-road and extending thence that is to say from the last-described point in the middle of Regina-road aforesaid north-eastward for a distance of two and a half chains or thereabouts to and along the wall or fence which divides the said opening and the premises situate in rear of the said house called or known as number thirty-four Regina-road from the house and premises called or known as number thirty-two Regina-road to the junction of the same wall or fence with the wall or fence which divides the premises situate in rear of the last-mentioned house from the premises situate in rear of the house called or known as number one hundred and thirty-three Stroud Green-road and extending thence south-eastward along the last-described wall or fence for a distance of ten links or thereabouts to its junction with the wall or fence which divides the last-mentioned house and premises from the house and premises called or known as number one hundred and thirty-one Stroud Green-road and extending thence north-eastward along the middle of the last-described wall or fence for a distance of one-and-three-quarter chains or thereabouts to its north-eastern end on the south-western side of Stroud Green-road and continuing thence still north-eastward and in a direct line across the last-named road to the boundary upon the north-eastern side of the same road which boundary divides the said new parish of Saint Mark Tollington Park from the new parish of the Holy Trinity Stroud Green aforesaid.

"2. And also all that contiguous portion of the new parish of Saint Mary Hornsey Rise aforesaid wherein the present incumbent of such new parish still possesses the exclusive cure of souls which is bounded upon the north-east by the new parish of the Holy Trinity Stroud Green aforesaid and upon the south-east by the hereinbefore described portion of the new parish of Saint Mark Tollington Park aforesaid and upon the remaining sides, that is to say, upon the south-west and upon the north-west by an imaginary line commencing upon the boundary which divides the last-mentioned new parish from the new parish of Saint Mary Hornsey Rise aforesaid at the point where Grenville-road joins Hornsey-road aforesaid and extending north-westward along the middle of the last-named road for a distance of two chains or thereabouts to the centre of the bridge which carries the same road over the line of the Tottenham and Hampstead Junction Railway and extending thence north-eastward to and along the middle of the said line of railway for a distance of thirty-two chains or thereabouts thereby passing through the Crouch Hill Railway Station to the boundary which divides the said new parish of Saint Mary Hornsey Rise from the new parish of the Holy Trinity Stroud Green aforesaid."

And whereas the said representation has been approved by Her Majesty in Council: now, therefore, Her Majesty, by and with the advice of Her said Council, is pleased hereby to ratify the said representation, and to order and direct that the same and every part thereof shall be effectual in law immediately from and after the time when this Order shall have been duly published in the London Gazette pursuant to the said Acts; and

Her Majesty, by and with the like advice, is pleased hereby to direct that this Order be forthwith registered by the Registrar of the said diocese of London.

At the Court at Osborne House, Isle of Wight, the 10th day of August, 1888.

PRESENT,

The QUEEN'S Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England have, in pursuance of the Act of the eighth and ninth years of Her Majesty, chapter seventy; of the Act of the fourteenth and fifteenth years of Her Majesty, chapter ninety-seven; of the Act of the nineteenth and twentieth years of Her Majesty, chapter fifty-five; and of the Act of the thirty-fourth and thirty-fifth years of Her Majesty, chapter eighty-two; duly prepared and laid before Her Majesty in Council a representation, bearing date the nineteenth day of July in the year one thousand eight hundred and eighty-eight in the words and figures following; that is to say:—

"We the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England in pursuance of the Act of the eighth and ninth years of Your Majesty chapter seventy of the Act of the fourteenth and fifteenth years Your Majesty chapter ninety-seven of the Act of the nineteenth and twentieth years of Your Majesty, chapter fifty-five and of the Act of the thirty-fourth and thirty-fifth years of Your Majesty chapter eighty-two have prepared and now humbly lay before Your Majesty in Council the following representation as to the assignment of a consolidated chapelry to the consecrated church of Saint Bartholomew situate at Lower Cam in the parish of Cam in the county of Gloucester and in the diocese of Gloucester and Bristol.

"Whereas at certain extremities of two cures, to wit, the said parish of Cam and the parish or parochial chapelry of Stinchcombe, in the county and diocese aforesaid which said extremities lie contiguous one to another and are described in the schedule hereunder written there is collected together a population which is situate at a distance from the several churches of such cures.

"And whereas it appears to us to be expedient that certain contiguous portions (being the portions containing the population aforesaid) of the said parish of Cam and of the said parish or parochial chapelry of Stinchcombe should be formed into a consolidated chapelry for all ecclesiastical purposes and that the same should be assigned to the said church of Saint Bartholomew situate at Lower Cam as aforesaid.

"Now, therefore with the consent of the Right Reverend Charles John Bishop of the said diocese of Gloucester and Bristol as such Bishop and also as the patron in right of his See both of the vicarage of the said parish of Cam and of the perpetual curacy of the said parish or parochial chapelry of Stinchcombe (in testimony whereof he the said Bishop has signed and sealed this representation) we the said Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England humbly represent that it would in our opinion be expedient that all those contiguous portions of the said parish of Cam and of the said parish or parochial chapelry of Stinchcombe which are described in the schedule hereunder written all which portions together with the boundaries thereof are delineated and set forth on the map or plan hereunto annexed should be united and formed into one consolidated chapelry for the said church of Saint Bartholomew situate at Lower Cam as aforesaid and that the same should be named 'The Consolidated Chapelry of Saint Bartholomew Lower Cam.'

"We therefore humbly pray that Your Majesty will be graciously pleased to take the premises into Your Royal consideration and to make such order in respect thereto as to Your Majesty in Your Royal wisdom shall seem meet.

"The SCHEDULE to which the foregoing Representation has reference.

"The Consolidated Chapelry of Saint Bartholomew Lower Cam comprising—

"I. All that portion of the parish of Cam in the county of Gloucester and in the diocese of Gloucester and Bristol which is bounded upon the south partly by the main body of the parish or parochial chapelry of Stinchcombe and partly by a certain detached portion of the parish or parochial chapelry of Leonard Stanley upon the north-west by the parish of Berkeley upon the north for the most part by the parish of Slimbridge and for a small part by a certain detached portion of the parish of Coaley upon the east by the main body of the last-named parish the said abutting cures being all situate in the county and diocese aforesaid and upon the remaining side that is to say upon the south-east by an imaginary line commencing upon the boundary which divides the said parish of Coaley from the parish of Cam aforesaid at a point at the northern angle of Cam Green in the middle of Halmore-lane at its junction with Cam Green-lane and extending thence first south-westward and then southward along the middle of the last-named lane for a distance of eight chains or thereabouts thereby passing along the north-western side of Cam Green aforesaid to its junction with the road which leads from Coaley past Upthorpe towards Cam and extending thence south-westward along the middle of the last-mentioned road for a distance of thirty-one chains or thereabouts (thereby proceeding down Hocker's or Hawker's Hill) to the point where the same road is joined by the public footway which leads into the main road between Cam and Lower Cam and continuing thence still south-westward along the middle of the said footway for a distance of four chains or thereabouts to its junction with the said main road and continuing thence still south-westward along the middle of the same main road for a distance of ten chains or thereabouts (thereby crossing the line of the Dursley Branch of the Midland Railway and also crossing the River Cam) to the point where the said main road bends towards the north-west and is joined by Spout House-lane and continuing thence still south-westward along the middle of the last-named lane for a distance of eight chains or thereabouts to the point where it bends sharply towards the south-east and is joined by the public footpath which leads in a south-westerly direction into the high road which leads from Lower Cam towards Stinchcombe and extending thence that is to say from Spout House-lane aforesaid first south-westward and then westward along the middle of the said public footpath for a distance of twenty chains or thereabouts to its junction with the high road which leads from Lower Cam towards Stinchcombe as aforesaid and extending thence south-westward along the middle of the said high road for a distance of forty-three and a half chains or thereabouts to its junction with the high road from Berkeley to Dursley and continuing thence still south-westward along the middle of the last-mentioned high road for a distance of one and a half chains or thereabouts to the boundary at or near to the Yew Tree Ina which boundary divides the said parish of Cam from the parish or parochial chapelry of Stinchcombe aforesaid.

"II. And also all those eight portions of the said parish or parochial chapelry of Stinchcombe which are locally situate within and are each bounded upon all sides by the hereinbefore described portion of the parish of Cam aforesaid."

And whereas the said representation has been approved by Her Majesty in Council; now, therefore, Her Majesty, by and with the advice of Her said Council, is pleased hereby to ratify the said representation, and to order and direct that the same and every part thereof shall be effectual in law immediately from and after the time when this Order shall have been duly published in the London Gazette pursuant to the said Acts; and Her Majesty, by and with the like advice, is pleased hereby to direct that this Order be forthwith registered by the respective Registrars of the said Diocese of Gloucester and Bristol at Bristol and at Gloucester.

"We, the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, in pursuance of the Act of the fifty-ninth year of His Majesty King George the Third, chapter one hundred and thirty-four; of the Act of the second and third years of Your Majesty chapter forty-nine; and of the Act of the nineteenth and twentieth years of Your Majesty, chapter fifty-five, have prepared and now humbly lay before Your Majesty in Council, the following representation as to the assignment of a district chapelry to the consecrated church of Saint Margaret situate at Aberaman in the parish of Aberdare in the county of Glamorgan and in the diocese of Llandaff.

"Whereas it appears to us to be expedient that a district chapelry should be assigned to the said church of Saint Margaret situate at Aberaman as aforesaid.

"Now therefore with the consent of the Right Reverend Richard Bishop of the said diocese of Llandaff (testified by his having signed and sealed this representation), we the said Ecclesiastical Commissioners, humbly represent, that it would, in our opinion, be expedient that all that part of the said parish of Aberdare which is described in the schedule hereunder written, all which part, together with the boundaries thereof, is delineated and set forth on the map or plan hereunto annexed should be assigned as a district chapelry to the said church of Saint Margaret situate at Aberaman as aforesaid, and that the same should be named 'The District Chapelry of Saint Margaret Aberaman.'

"And with the like consent of the said Richard, Bishop of the said diocese of Llandaff (testified as aforesaid); we, the said Ecclesiastical Commissioners, further represent, that it appears to us to be expedient that banns of matrimony should be published, and that marriages, baptisms, churchings, and burials should be solemnized or performed at the said church of Saint Margaret situate at Aberaman as aforesaid, and that the fees to be received in respect of the publication of such banns and of the solemnization or performance of the said offices should be paid and belong to the minister of the same church for the time being: Provided always that nothing herein contained shall be construed as expressing any intention on the part of us the said Commissioners to concur in or approve the taking of any fee for the performance of the said office of baptism or for the registration thereof.

"We therefore humbly pray that Your Majesty will be graciously pleased to take the premises into Your Royal consideration and to make such Order with respect thereto as to Your Majesty, in Your Royal wisdom, shall seem meet.

"The SCHEDULE to which the foregoing Representation has reference.

"The District Chapelry of Saint Margaret Aberaman being:—

"All that part of the parish of Aberdare in the county of Glamorgan and in the diocese of Llandaff wherein the present incumbent of such parish still possesses the exclusive cure of souls which is bounded upon the south-west and upon the south by the consolidated chapelry of Tylorstown-with-Ferndale upon the south-east by the parish or parochial chapelry of Llanwonno upon the east and upon part of the north-east by the new parish of Saint Margaret Aberdare all the said abutting cures being in the county and diocese aforesaid and upon all other sides that is to say upon the remaining part of the north-east upon the north and upon the north-west by an imaginary line commencing at the point in the middle of the River Cynon where the boundary which divides the said parish of Aberdare from the said new parish of Saint Margaret Aberdare diverges from the said river in a north-easterly direction the said point being distant eight chains to the south-east of the middle of the bridge which carries the Lletty Shenkin Branch of the Taff Vale Line of Railway over the River Cynon aforesaid and extending thence that is to say from the said point north-westward along the middle of the said river for a distance of seventy-two chains or thereabouts to its junction with the stream called or known as Nant Gwawr and extending thence for a distance of one mile and twenty-three chains or thereabouts first north-westward along the middle of the said stream (thereby following the new course thereof) and then south-westward along the middle of the same stream to its source near Rhos Gwawr, and extending thence still south-westward and in a direct line for a distance of two miles and ten chains or thereabouts thereby crossing the stream called or known as Nant Aman Fach to the point in the middle of the Rhonddafach River at its junction with the stream called or known as Nant-y-Calch at which point being at the northern extremity of the consolidated chapelry of Tylorstown-with-Ferndale aforesaid the boundaries of that cure and of the said parish of Aberdare, and of the parish or parochial chapelry of Ystrad-dy-fodwg in the county and diocese aforesaid all meet."

And whereas the said representation has been approved by Her Majesty in Council; now, therefore, Her Majesty, by and with the advice of Her said Council, is pleased hereby to ratify the said representation, and to order and direct that the same and every part thereof shall be effectual in law immediately from and after the time when this Order shall have been duly published in the London Gazette pursuant to the said Acts; and Her Majesty, by and with the like advice, is pleased hereby to direct that this Order be forthwith registered by the Registrar of the said diocese of Llandaff.

AT the Court at Osborne House, Isle of Wight, the 10th day of August, 1888.

PRESENT,

The QUEEN's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England have, in pursuance of the Act of the fifty-ninth year of His Majesty King George the Third, chapter one hundred and thirty-four; of the Act of the second and third years of Her Majesty, chapter forty-nine; and of the Act of the nineteenth and twentieth years of Her Majesty, chapter fifty-five, duly prepared and laid before Her Majesty in Council a representation, bearing date the twenty-sixth day of July, in the year one thousand eight hundred and eighty-eight, in the words and figures following; that is to say:—

“We, the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, in pursuance of the Act of the fifty-ninth year of His Majesty King George the Third, chapter one hundred and thirty-four; of the Act of the second and third years of Your Majesty, chapter forty-nine; and of the Act of the nineteenth and twentieth years of Your Majesty, chapter fifty-five, have prepared, and now humbly lay before Your Majesty in Council, the following representation as to the assignment of a district chapelry to the consecrated church of Saint Michael and All Angels, situate in the parish of Belgrave, in the suburbs of the town of Leicester, in the county of Leicester, and in the diocese of Peterborough.

“Whereas it appears to us to be expedient that a district chapelry should be assigned to the said church of Saint Michael and All Angels situate as aforesaid.

“Now therefore with the consent of the Right Reverend William Connor, Bishop of the said diocese of Peterborough (testified by his having signed and sealed this representation), we, the said Ecclesiastical Commissioners, humbly represent, that it would, in our opinion, be expedient that all that part of the said parish of Belgrave which is described in the schedule hereunder written, all which part, together with the boundaries thereof, is delineated and set forth on the map or plan hereunto annexed, should be assigned as a district chapelry to the said church of Saint Michael and All Angels, situate as aforesaid, and that the same should be named ‘The District Chapelry of Saint Michael and All Angels, Belgrave.’

“And with the like consent of the said William Connor, Bishop of the said diocese of Peterborough (testified as aforesaid), we, the said Ecclesiastical Commissioners, further represent, that it appears to us to be expedient that banns of matrimony should be published, and that marriages, baptisms, churchings, and burials should be solemnized or performed at the said church of Saint Michael and All Angels, situate as aforesaid, and that the fees to be received in respect of the publication of such banns and of the solemnization or performance of the said offices should be paid and belong to the minister of the same church for the time being: Provided always, that nothing herein contained shall be construed as expressing any intention on the part of us the said Commissioners to concur in or approve the taking of any fee for the performance of the said office of baptism or for the registration thereof.

“We, therefore, humbly pray that Your Majesty will be graciously pleased to take the premises into Your Royal consideration and to make such Order with respect thereto as to Your Majesty, in your Royal wisdom, shall seem meet.

“The SCHEDULE to which the foregoing Representation has reference.

“The District Chapelry of Saint Michael and All Angels Belgrave, being:—

“All that part of the parish of Belgrave in the suburbs of the town of Leicester in the county of Leicester and in the diocese of Peterborough, wherein the present incumbent of such parish still possesses the exclusive cure of souls and which is bounded upon the north-east by the parish of Thurmaston, upon the south-east partly by the parish of Humberstone and partly by the consolidated chapelry of Saint Barnabas New Humberstone upon the south by the new parish of Saint Matthew Leicester and upon the south-west by the consolidated chapelry or new parish of Saint Mark the Evangelist Leicester, all which said abutting cures are in the county and diocese aforesaid and upon the remaining sides that is to say upon the west and upon the north-west by an imaginary line commencing upon the boundary which divides the said consolidated chapelry or new parish of Saint Mark the Evangelist Leicester from the parish of Belgrave aforesaid at a point in the middle of Loughborough-road opposite to the northern end of the houses called or known as Milton-villas and extending thence northward along the middle of the said road for a distance of fifteen chains or thereabouts to a point opposite to a boundary-stone inscribed ‘B. St. M. D. C. 1888 No. 1.’ and placed on the eastern side of the same road at the western end of the wall or fence which forms the southern boundary of the house and grounds called or known as the Grange and extending thence that is from the middle of the Loughborough-road eastward to the said boundary-stone and along the middle of the said wall or fence for a distance of twelve chains or thereabouts to a boundary-stone inscribed ‘B. St. M. D. C. 1888 No. 2.’ and placed at the eastern end of the same wall or fence on the north-western side of the ancient Roman road, called or known as the Foss Way, otherwise Melton-road, and extending thence first eastward to and then north-eastward along the middle of the last-named road for a distance of sixty-four chains or thereabouts to the boundary which divides the said parish of Belgrave from the parish of Thurmaston aforesaid.”

And whereas the said representation has been approved by Her Majesty in Council: now, therefore, Her Majesty, by and with the advice of Her said Council, is pleased hereby to ratify the said representation, and to order and direct that the same and every part thereof shall be effectual in law immediately from and after the time when this Order shall have been duly published in the London Gazette pursuant to the said Acts; and Her Majesty, by and with the like advice, is pleased hereby to direct that this Order be forthwith registered by the Registrar of the said diocese of Peterborough.

C. L. Peel.

Privy Council Office, August 10, 1888.

THE following Statutes made by the Governing Body of Trinity College, Cambridge, on the twentieth day of April, one thousand eight hundred and eighty-eight, and sealed with the Common Seal of the College, on the nineteenth day of July, one thousand eight hundred and eighty-eight, have been submitted for the approval of Her Majesty in Council, and notice of their having been so submitted is published in accordance with the provisions contained in the Universities of Oxford and Cambridge Act, 1877:—

Statutes to add to alter and amend the Statutes framed by the Commissioners appointed under the Universities of Oxford and Cambridge Act 1877 (40 and 41 Vict. c. 48) in relation to Trinity College in the University of Cambridge duly made at a General Meeting of the Governing Body of the said College specially summoned for this purpose held on the twentieth day of April one thousand eight hundred and eighty-eight and passed at such Meeting by the votes of more than two-thirds of the number of persons present and voting (there being then present the Master and more than twenty-five Fellows) and submitted for the approval of Her Majesty the Queen in Council.

WE the Master Fellows and Scholars of the said College do hereby in exercise of the powers given us by the fifty-fourth section of the said Act alter and amend the Statutes framed by the said Commissioners in relation to our said College in the following manner:—

By substituting for § 2 of Statute XII the following section to form an amended § 2 of the same Statute:—

§ 2. The vacant Fellowships or so many of them as shall not be filled up under any of the titles (β) (γ) (δ) or (ε) temporarily suspended under the provision in that behalf hereinbefore contained shall be filled up (α) from among Members of the College (and if in any year the Council shall so think fit, other Members of the University) as next hereinafter provided (that is to say) any Member of the College (or other Member of the University who shall have been admitted to the title of Bachelor Designate in Arts or to some equal title shall be eligible at each or any of the three annual elections taking place or which might have taken place next after the end of three years and six months from the beginning of the term in which he commenced residence. Provided however that if a Member of the College has been by illness or other grave cause prevented from proceeding to a degree at the regular time the Council if they think fit may prolong in his case the said period of three years and six months so as to make him eligible at each or any of the three annual elections next after the time when he shall have been admitted to the title of Bachelor Designate in Arts or to some equal title.

By adding to Statute XII the following section to precede § 3 and to form § 2a of the same Statute:—

§ 2a. The foregoing § 2 of Statute XII shall take effect from and after the approval thereof by Her Majesty in Council but so as not thereby to preclude any person who shall be then a Member of the College from becoming a Candidate at any annual election at which but for such alteration of Statute XII he might have been a Candidate nor in any case to enable such person to be a Candidate at more than three annual elections or otherwise than at three successive annual elections.

By substituting for § 2 of Statute XX the following section to form an amended § 2 of the same Statute:—

§ 2. The election to the major Scholarships shall take place on the Monday after Easter week or on such other day as may be fixed by the Council. All the major Scholarships which are vacant on the day of election shall then be filled up and if the election take place less than six months before the time when such Scholarships are ordinarily vacated by lapse of time then as many more persons as the Council shall think fit shall be elected to the major Scholarships provided that such additional persons shall not exceed in number the major Scholarships which will be necessarily vacated when such Scholarships are so ordinarily vacated.

Given under our Common Seal
the nineteenth day of July one thousand eight hundred and eighty-eight.

GENERAL ORDER of the Local Government Board: Altering General Consolidated Order as to Instruction of Children:—

Watford Union.

To the Guardians of the Poor of the Watford Union, in the county of Hertford:—

And to all others whom it may concern.

WHEREAS the Poor Law Commissioners, by a General Order dated the 24th day of July, 1847, addressed, among others, to the Guardians of the Poor of the said Watford Union, prescribed Regulations in regard to the government of the Workhouse or Workhouses of that Union, and by Article 114 of that Order provision was made for the instruction of the boys and girls who might be inmates of any such Workhouse:

And whereas it is expedient that the said Article 114 should be rescinded as regards the said Watford Union, and other provisions substituted in lieu thereof :

Now therefore, We, the Local Government Board, in pursuance of the powers given to Us by the Statutes in that behalf, hereby rescind Article 114 of the above-cited General Order so far as regards the said Watford Union, and We Order that the following provisions shall be substituted in lieu thereof :

ART. 114.—Except when the Guardians shall direct the School to be closed for holidays, the children who have attained the age of five years shall be instructed during at least eighteen hours in every week in reading, writing, and arithmetic, and the principles of the Christian religion, and such other instruction shall be imparted to them as may fit them for service and train them to habits of usefulness, industry, and virtue. The regulations in force for the time being prescribing what attendance at a Workhouse School shall be deemed to be an attendance for the purpose of the First Schedule to the Elementary Education Act, 1876, shall apply to the children in the School.

Provided, as follows :—

1. If the Guardians shall so direct, any child above the age of thirteen years who is in good health, and has been duly certified to have reached the Fourth Standard of the Code of 1876, or any higher Standard, may be employed upon works of industry for not more than seven hours in each week day. Any such child shall, however, be required to attend the classes for intellectual instruction during three half-days in each week, with the view of ensuring that the proficiency which the child has reached is maintained; except that if the Guardians shall so direct, any such child who has been out to service and has returned to the Workhouse may be employed wholly upon works of industry, without being required to attend the classes for intellectual instruction.
 2. Nothing in this Article shall be deemed to relieve the Guardians or any child from any duty or liability imposed by the Elementary Education Acts, or by any Bye-laws made under those Acts and in force in the School District in which the Workhouse is situate.
- Given under the Seal of Office of the Local Government Board, this seventh day of August, in the year one thousand eight hundred and eighty-eight.

NOTICE TO MARINERS.

(No. 221 of the year 1888.)

SOUTH AMERICA.—WEST COAST.

MAGELLAN STRAIT TO ARAUCO BAY.

Amended Positions, Existence, and Non-Existence of Certain Islands and Dangers.

THE following information relating to the positions, existence, and non-existence of certain islands and dangers on the western coast of South America, between Magellan Strait and Arauco Bay, is derived from a report and observations by Mr. J. T. Walbran, of the Pacific Steam Navigation Company's steam-vessel "Aconcagua," July, 1888 :—

(1.) Cambridge Island—West Coast.—Amended Position of Islet Westward of Cape George.

The true position of the islet, marked on Admiralty Charts, W. by N. $\frac{1}{2}$ N., distant $6\frac{1}{2}$ miles from Cape George, south-western extreme of Cambridge Island, is, by careful observations from the "Aconcagua," considered to be W. by N. $\frac{3}{4}$ N., distant $3\frac{1}{2}$ miles from Cape George, or in lat. $51^{\circ} 34' 15''$ S., long. $75^{\circ} 22' 45''$ W.

(2.) Hanover Island—West Coast.—Amended Positions of Duncan Rock and White Horse Island, and Non-Existence of certain Dangers.

The true position of Duncan Rock, as determined by the "Aconcagua," on many occasions, by the course and distance run from Cape George, is lat. $51^{\circ} 10' S.$, long. $75^{\circ} 27' W.$

White Horse Island, the position of which has been ascertained in the same way as that of Duncan Rock, extends from lat. $51^{\circ} 6' 30'' S.$, to lat. $51^{\circ} 8' 15'' S.$, and from long. $75^{\circ} 9' 30'' W.$, to long. $75^{\circ} 11' 15'' W.$

A conical islet is situated south-eastward of Duncan Rock, in lat. $51^{\circ} 13' 10'' S.$, long. $75^{\circ} 25' W.$

The rocks and islets marked on Admiralty Charts, north-westward of Cambridge Island, and comprised between lats. $51^{\circ} 23' 30'' S.$, and $51^{\circ} 26' 30'' S.$, and longs. $75^{\circ} 15' W.$ and $75^{\circ} 22' W.$, are reported to have no existence, and they have been expunged from the charts.

NOTE.—The charts of the above localities are principally the result of information supplied by sealers and are very imperfect. Mariners are therefore cautioned that great care is necessary when navigating in this vicinity.

(3.) Campana Island—West Coast.—Amended Position of Western Rock, and Non-Existence of certain Islands and Dangers.

From good observations, taken at noon, on two occasions, from the "Aconcagua," with the western rock off the land to the northward of Cape Montague, close abeam, the latitude of that rock was found to be $49^{\circ} 5' S.$, and longitude (as previously marked on charts) $75^{\circ} 49' 15'' W.$

The rock in latitude $49^{\circ} 0' 30'' S.$, longitude $75^{\circ} 49' 15'' W.$, and the dangers northward of it have therefore been expunged, and the rock whose position is now given, has been called Western Rock on the charts. It is conical.

The island, marked on Admiralty Charts 2 miles eastward of the above position of Western Rock, is reported not to exist.

A reef, which breaks heavily, is situated northward of Western Rock, in latitude $49^{\circ} 1' 15'' S.$, longitude $75^{\circ} 49' W.$

The islands marked on Admiralty Charts between latitudes $48^{\circ} 56' 30'' S.$, and $48^{\circ} 59' S.$, and longitude $75^{\circ} 46' W.$, are reported, if they exist at all, to be eastward of the above positions.

(4.) Arauco Bay—Southern Approach.—Non-Existence of Dangers.

The danger westward of Carnero Head, in latitude $37^{\circ} 21' S.$, longitude $73^{\circ} 46' 30'' W.$, marked, Reported Breakers, 1880, has been repeatedly looked for, and not seen, by the "Aconcagua"; on a recent occasion with a strong breeze from the southward, and fine clear weather, Maule Shoal being plainly visible, that vessel passed about 2 cables westward of the reported position of this danger off Carnero Head, and observed no trace of breakers on that spot. It has therefore been expunged from the Admiralty Charts.

The locality of the danger westward of Santa Maria Island, on which the "John Renwick" was reported to have been wrecked, July, 1848, in latitude $36^{\circ} 59' S.$, longitude $73^{\circ} 44' W.$, has been frequently passed over by the steam-vessels of the Pacific Company, and it is reported that the commanders of those vessels have never observed any danger in that position. These reports are corroborative of similar that have been previously received; and the rock has consequently been expunged from the Admiralty Charts.

WITH reference to Notice to Mariners, No. 118, of 1st May, 1888, on the proposed exhibition of a light from a lighthouse on Balfe Point, west extreme of Perim Island:—

Information has been received from the Perim Coal Company, dated 28th July, 1888, that this light will be exhibited in the middle of August, 1888.

The light will be a fixed light, visible over an arc of 211° , or between the bearings of S. 16° W., through east, and N. 15° W., and should be seen in clear weather from a distance of five miles.

The lighthouse will be 20 feet high.

Position, lat. $12^{\circ} 39' 5'' N.$, long. $43^{\circ} 23' E.$

[The bearings are magnetic, and are given from seaward. Variation $4\frac{1}{4}^{\circ}$ Westerly in 1888.]

By command of their Lordships,

W. J. L. Wharton, Hydrographer.

Amended Positions of Jali Kun (Hog Island),

Dark Rock, and Hawkins Reef.

THE following information relating to the positions of Jali Kund (Hog Island), Dart Rock, and Hawkins Reef is derived from a recent examination by Commander A. Carpenter, R.N., in charge of the Marine Survey of India:—

The correct position of Jali Kund (Hog Island), with regard to Pigeon Island, is one mile north-eastward of that previously charted, or lat. $14^{\circ} 0' 35''$ N., long. $74^{\circ} 28' 15''$ E., on Admiralty Chart, No. 744.

Dart Rock, the position of which depended on that of Hog Island, has been lately examined by H.M.I.M.S. "Investigator," and found to be one mile nearer the shore than where formerly placed. It lies with Hog Island bearing S.S.E., distant $5\frac{1}{10}$ miles, and Pigeon Island S.W. by W.—Depths of 6 to $6\frac{1}{2}$ fathoms were found around Dart Rock.

Position, lat. $14^{\circ} 5' 25''$ N., long. $74^{\circ} 26' 20''$ E.

Hawkins Reef is the western extreme of a rocky patch, extending from the shore one mile northward of Modeshwur Point; from the reef that point bears S.E. $\frac{1}{4}$ S., distant $1\frac{1}{10}$ miles. Hog Island kept open westward of the largest islet, south-westward of Modeshwur Point, bearing S. by E., leads westward of Hawkins Reef.

Position, lat. $14^{\circ} 6' 50''$ N., long. $74^{\circ} 27' 40''$ E.

[The bearings are magnetic. Variation 1° Easterly in 1888.]

INSTRUMENT substituting the New Church of the Holy Trinity, within the Parish of Tarleton, for the Old Church of Saint John, within the same Parish, in the County of Lancaster, and Diocese of Manchester.

To all to whom these presents shall come, the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, send greeting:

WHEREAS a new church has lately been built within the parish of Tarleton, in the county of Lancaster, and in the diocese of Manchester, and has been consecrated and dedicated to the Holy Trinity.

And whereas the Right Reverend James, Bishop of the said diocese of Manchester, and the Reverend Robert Crompton Fletcher, Clerk in Holy Orders, patron and Incumbent of the rectory and vicarage of the said parish of Tarleton, have, by an instrument under their hands, bearing date on or about the eleventh day of June, in the year one thousand eight hundred and eighty-eight, certified to us, the said Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, that it would be for the convenience of the said parish of Tarleton that the said new church of the Holy Trinity, situate within such parish, should be substituted for the old parish church (dedicated to Saint John) of the same parish.

Now, therefore, we, the said Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, in exercise and execution of the power or authority in that behalf contained in the Act of the eighth and ninth years of present Her Majesty, chapter seventy, and in the Act of the nineteenth and twentieth years of Her said Majesty, chapter fifty-five, and of all other powers or authorities in anywise enabling us in the same behalf, do, by this instrument under our common seal, with the consent (testified as hereinafter mentioned) of the said James, Bishop of the said diocese of Manchester, and of the said Robert Crompton Fletcher, hereby declare that the said new church of the Holy Trinity, situate within the said parish of Tarleton, and duly consecrated as aforesaid, shall be, and the same is hereby substituted for the said old parish church (dedicated to Saint John as aforesaid) of the same parish, and that such new church shall henceforth be the parish church of the said parish of Tarleton in lieu of the said old parish church of the same parish as fully in all respects as if the said new church of the Holy Trinity so hereby substituted, had been originally the parish church of the same parish.

And we, the said Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, in further pursuance and exercise of the powers and authorities aforesaid, and with such consents as aforesaid (testified as hereinafter mentioned), do hereby transfer all the endowments, emoluments, and rights of or belonging to the said old parish church (dedicated to Saint John as aforesaid) of the said parish of Tarleton, or of or belonging to the Rector and Vicar or Incumbent thereof, to the said new church of the Holy Trinity (now being by virtue of these presents the parish church of the said parish of Tarleton), and to the Rector and Vicar or Incumbent thereof, and his successors for ever.

In witness whereof to these presents, we, the said Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, have set our common seal, and the said James, Bishop of the said diocese of Manchester, has set his hand and affixed his episcopal seal, and the said Robert Crompton Fletcher has set his hand and affixed his seal this twenty-sixth day of July, in the year one thousand eight hundred and eighty-eight.

Seal of the Ecclesiastical Commissioners. (L.S.)

J. Manchester. (L.S.)

Robert Crompton Fletcher. (L.S.)

NOTICE is hereby given, that a separate building, named the Baptist Chapel, situate at Broughton-road, Dalton-in-Furness, in the parish of Dalton-in-Furness, in the county of Lancaster, in the district of Ulverston, being a building certified according to law as a place of religious worship, was, on the 23rd day of December, 1886, duly registered for solemnizing marriages therein, pursuant to the Act of 6th and 7th Wm. 4, cap. 85, being substituted for the building known as the Baptist Chapel, Broughton-road, Dalton-in-Furness aforesaid, now disused.—Witness my hand this 24th day of December, 1886.

John Soulby Sykes, Superintendent Registrar.

In the High Court of Justice.—Chancery Division.

Mr. Justice Kay.

In the Matter of the United Limmer and Vorwöhle Rock Asphalte Company Limited and Reduced, and in the Matter of the Companies Acts, 1867 and 1877.

NOTICE is hereby given, that by an Order of the High Court of Justice made by Mr. Justice Kay on the 4th day of August, 1888, in the above-mentioned matter, it was ordered that the Special Resolution for reduction of capital passed at the Extraordinary General Meeting of the Company held on the 18th April, 1888, and confirmed at the Extraordinary General Meeting of the Company held on the 9th May, 1888 (which resolution was in the words and figures set out in the Schedule A. to the said Order), be confirmed in conformity with the provisions of the Companies Acts, 1867 and 1877, and that the addition of the words "and Reduced" to the title of the said Company be henceforth altogether dispensed with. And notice is hereby also given, that the said Order has been produced to the Registrar of Joint Stock Companies, and a copy thereof has been delivered to him, together with a Minute approved by the said Judge in the words and figures following, namely:—"The capital of the United Limmer and Vorwöhle Rock Asphalte Company Limited is from henceforth £52,869, divided into 17,623 shares of £3 each, on which the sum of £3 has been and is to be deemed paid up, instead of the original capital of £200,000, divided into 20,000 shares of £10 each," and that such Order and Minute have been duly registered by the said Registrar of Joint Stock Companies.—Dated this 10th day of August, 1888.
