Repeal.

1. There shall be repealed, revoked, and annulled on and as from the day upon which this Warrant comes into operation, so much of each of the Warrants of the Commissioners of Her Majesty's Treasury, dated, respectively, the 5th day of November, 1885, and the 20th day of July, 1886, as relates to the transmission of Parcels by post between the United Kingdom and Ceylon.

Definitions.

2. In this Warrant:—

- (1.) The expression "Parcel" means a Postal Packet which is posted as a Parcel in accordance with the provisions of this Warrant, or any Warrant amending the same.
- (2.) The expression "United Kingdom" includes the Channel Islands and the Isle of Man.

Places between which Parcels may be Transmitted.

3. From and after the date when this Warrant comes into operation Parcels may, subject to the provisions of this Warrant, be transmitted by post between the United Kingdom and Ceylon.

Rates of Postage.

4. On all Parcels transmitted by post under this Warrant between the United Kingdom and Ceylon there shall be charged and paid the following rates of postage, that is to say:—

- On every Parcel not exceeding one pound in weight nine pence (or the equivalent thereof for the time being in the currency of Ceylon).
On every Parcel exceeding one pound and not exceeding eleven pounds in weight, for the first pound nine pence (or such equivalent as aforesaid), and for every additional pound or fraction of a pound in weight sixpence (or such equivalent as aforesaid).

Maximum Dimensions and Weight.

5. Except by permission of the Postmaster-General, no Parcel, the dimensions of which shall exceed in length three feet six inches, or in length and girth measured together six feet (such girth being measured round the thickest part of such Parcel), or which shall exceed eleven pounds in weight, shall be conveyed or tendered for conveyance by post under this Warrant.

Prepayment.

6. The postage chargeable according to the rates hereinbefore respectively mentioned shall in all cases (except as otherwise provided in this Warrant) be prepaid at the time of posting, and such prepayment shall, in the United Kingdom, be effected by means of adhesive postage stamps, or at such Post Offices, within such hours, and under and subject to such regulations as the Postmaster-General shall from time to time prescribe, in money.

Times of Posting.

7. Parcels intended to be transmitted by post may, in the United Kingdom, be posted on any day of the week except Sunday, but shall not be posted on Sundays, or in England or Ireland on Christmas Day or Good Friday, and in Scotland on either of the two Sacramental Fast Days, except in the cases next hereinafter mentioned, that is to say:—

Where the delivery of Parcels on Sundays, or any of the other days aforesaid, at certain Post Offices, to addressees calling for the same, may hereafter be specially authorized by the Postmaster-General, the posting of Parcels on Sundays, or such other days as aforesaid, at such Offices respectively, shall also be permitted within such times and in such manner as may be directed by the Postmaster-General.

Mode of Posting.

8. Except as otherwise provided in this Warrant, all Parcels shall, in the United Kingdom, be posted by being handed in at a Post Office, in the manner hereinafter provided, within the hours during which such Office shall be open to the public for the posting of Parcels.

Posting at Post Offices.

9. The following provisions shall apply to the posting of Parcels at any Post Office in the United Kingdom, that is to say:—

- (1.) It shall be the duty of a person bringing a Parcel to hand it to an officer on duty at the counter in such office.
- (2.) Such Parcel must be accompanied by or have affixed to it a declaration of such kind, and stating the contents of the Parcel in such manner and form, and with such other particulars as the Commissioners of Customs and the Postmaster-General may prescribe.
- (3.) Such Parcel shall be measured and weighed by such officer, and (if such Parcel do not exceed the limits of measurement or weight hereinbefore mentioned) the postage thereof, according to the respective rates fixed by this Warrant shall be prepaid as hereinbefore mentioned, and shall be verified by such officer, and no such Parcel shall be forwarded by the post without the before-mentioned requirements being complied with; and if any such Parcel shall be left at a Post Office without such requirements being complied with, such Parcel shall be detained, and may be returned or given up to the sender thereof, or otherwise dealt with or disposed of in any manner authorized by this Warrant.

Collection of Parcels.

10. The Postmaster-General may, if he think fit, from time to time authorize such of his officers as he may direct to receive Parcels for the post under such regulations and conditions as he may from time to time prescribe.

Irregular Posting of Parcels.

11. Any Packet transmissible by Parcel Post from the United Kingdom, which, from any words or marks thereon, or other external evidence, appears to have been intended for transmission as a Parcel, but which has not been tendered for transmission as a Parcel, but has been posted in a Post Office letter-box, or otherwise than according to the manner hereinbefore prescribed for the posting of Parcels, may, in the discretion of the Postmaster-General, either be detained and returned or given up to the sender, or if the said Packet is fully prepaid with the Letter or Book Packet rate of postage, and otherwise conforms to the Regulations as to the Letter or Book Post, may be forwarded as a Letter or Book Packet (as the case may be).

Return and Disposal of Undelivered Parcels.

12. With regard to—

- (a.) Parcels which are addressed to a Post Office in the United Kingdom to be called for, or to a place in the United Kingdom beyond the limits of the free postal delivery of any town or district, or to a ship at any port in the United Kingdom, and which are not called for or delivered within such reasonable times as the Postmaster-General may from time to time prescribe; and
- (b.) Parcels which cannot be delivered in the United Kingdom for want of a true direction, or by reason that the addressee is dead, or cannot be found, or has refused the same, or has refused or neglected to pay any charges thereon, or for any other sufficient reason:

The following provisions shall apply, that is to say:—

- (1.) The Parcel shall, as the Postmaster-General may from time to time direct, be detained at or forthwith forwarded to such place as the Postmaster-General may from time to time appoint, and may, if necessary, be there opened and examined.
- (2.) Notice shall be given to the sender through the Post Office of the Colony in which the Parcel was posted that the Parcel will, in default of any claim on the part of the addressee and upon payment of such charges as are hereinafter mentioned be given up to the sender's agent upon personal application at such place as aforesaid, or at the request of the sender will be returned to him by post.
- (3.) In any case the notice shall state that, in default of the receipt by the Postmaster-General of an application for the Parcel during a period to be specified in such notice, from some person who, in the Postmaster-General's judgment, is entitled to receive the Parcel, it will be disposed of in such manner as the Postmaster-General may direct.
- (4.) The Postmaster-General may, in his discretion, specify in any such notice, or otherwise, the periods during which Parcels may be returned to the senders thereof, and in so doing may have regard to the nature and contents of Parcels.
- (5.) Where in the case of a Parcel which cannot be delivered for want of a true direction the sender corrects the address of the Parcel, the Parcel shall be forwarded to the corrected address, subject to the following conditions:—

- (a.) Where the corrected address of the Parcel is within the same free delivery as the original address, and the Parcel is not, at the time of such correction, lying at a Returned Letter Office, no new charge shall be made with respect to the delivery of the Parcel.
- (b.) Where the corrected address of the Parcel is not within the same free delivery as the original address, or the Parcel at the time of such correction is lying at a Returned Letter Office, the sender shall pay a new and distinct rate of postage equal in amount to the rate of postage which would have been chargeable on such Parcel as an Inland Parcel.
- (6.) A Parcel shall not be given up or returned by post to the sender except upon payment by him of any charge for redirection or other charge to which the Parcel has become liable under the provisions of this Warrant, or of any such Regulations as are referred to in section 14 of "The Post Office (Parcels) Act, 1882."
- (7.) Where the sender requests a Parcel to be returned to him by post, such Parcel shall not be returned to the sender except upon payment by him of a new and distinct rate of postage, according to the rates fixed by this Warrant, and all other charges to which the Parcel has become liable.
- (8.) The Postmaster-General may require proof to his satisfaction that an applicant for a Parcel is entitled to receive the same.
- (9.) Where no application is made for a Parcel within the period specified in any such notice as aforesaid, or an applicant fails to prove to the satisfaction of the Postmaster-General that he is entitled to receive the Parcel, or refuses or fails to pay the charges to which the Parcel has become liable under this Warrant, the Parcel may be dealt with or disposed of in such manner as the Postmaster-General may direct or authorize.
- (10.) If at any time while a Parcel remains in the possession of the Postmaster-General, it becomes offensive or injurious to any Officer of the Post Office or other person, or to other Parcels, it may forthwith be dealt with or disposed of in such manner as the Postmaster-General may in his discretion direct or authorize, notwithstanding that the provisions of this Warrant as to the return of such Parcel have not been or have only partially been complied with.

Charge for Re-direction.

13. Any Parcel may be re-directed from its original address, or any substituted address, within the United Kingdom, to any country or place with which a Parcel Post to or from the United Kingdom or Ceylon is established, and in every case of such re-direction there shall be charged on such Parcel in respect of such re-direction a new and distinct rate of postage according to the rates for the time being payable in respect of the transmission of a like Parcel from the United Kingdom to the country or place to which it may be re-directed, and such postage, if not paid at the time of such re-direction, shall be collected on the delivery of the Parcel to the addressee.

14. Any Parcel may be re-directed from its original address, or any substituted address, within the United Kingdom to any other address within the United Kingdom, and in every case of such re-direction there shall be charged on such Parcel in respect of each such re-direction, and (if not previously paid) paid by the addressee thereof in money upon the delivery of such Parcel, a new and distinct rate of postage, equal in amount to the rate of postage which would have been originally chargeable on such Parcel as an Inland Parcel.

Remission of Re-direction Rates.

15. The Postmaster-General may wholly remit the rate of postage for re-direction on any Parcel addressed to the United Kingdom, which may, on the request of the addressee thereof, be re-directed by an Officer of the Post Office, and again forwarded by post to the same person at any address within the limits of the same free postal delivery as the address from which such Parcel was so re-directed.

Prohibitions.

16. There shall not be posted or conveyed or delivered by post any Parcel—

- (1.) Consisting of or containing any indecent or obscene print, painting, photograph, lithograph, engraving, book or card, or any indecent or obscene article whether similar to the above or not; or
- (2.) Having thereon or on the cover thereof any words, marks, or designs of an indecent, obscene, or grossly offensive character.
- (3.) Containing any article or thing not authorized by the Customs or other laws of either of the said colonies.
- (4.) Consisting of or containing—
 - (a.) Any explosive substance.
 - (b.) Any dangerous substance.
 - (c.) Any filth.
 - (d.) Any noxious or deleterious substance.
 - (e.) Any sharp instrument not properly protected.
 - (f.) Except with the special permission of the Postmaster-General, any living creature.
 - (g.) Any article or thing whatsoever which is likely to injure other Parcels in course of conveyance, or any receptacle in which the same are conveyed, or an officer of the Post Office or other person who may deal with such Parcel.

Any such Parcel, if posted or tendered for conveyance by post, may be detained, and either returned or given up to the sender thereof or dealt with or disposed of in such other manner as may be authorized by the Postmaster-General.

17. There shall not be posted or conveyed or delivered by post any Parcel consisting of or containing two or more Parcels or other Postal Packets (of the same or of different descriptions) addressed to different persons at different addresses; and any such Parcel, if posted or tendered for conveyance by post, may be detained, and either returned or given up to the sender thereof, or dealt with or disposed of as the Postmaster-General may authorize.

Non-compliance with Regulations.

18. In any case not in this Warrant expressly provided for, where any Parcel shall be posted or tendered for conveyance by post which in any respect infringes or fails to comply with the Regulations in this Warrant contained, or any of them, such Parcel may, at the option of the Postmaster-General, either be dealt with as in this Warrant provided, with reference to Parcels which cannot be delivered, or be dealt with or disposed of in such manner as the Postmaster-General may in his discretion direct or authorize.

Provision for Safety of Parcels.

19. In any case where any officer of the Post Office may find it necessary or expedient for the safety or protection of Parcels that any Parcel should be forwarded or delivered by some later despatch or delivery than that for which the same was posted or despatched, or intended to be posted or despatched respectively, he may delay the despatch or delivery of such Parcel, or make such other and special arrangements as to the despatch or delivery thereof, not, however, involving a greater delay than 24 hours in the whole, as may be deemed by such officer necessary or expedient in the circumstances of the case.

Parcels not to interfere with Letter Post.

20. Where the despatch or delivery from a Post Office in the United Kingdom of letters would be delayed by the despatch or delivery therefrom at the same time of Parcels, such Parcels, or any of them, may be detained in the Post Office until the despatch or delivery next following that by which they would ordinarily be despatched or delivered.

Postmaster-General not liable for Loss or Damage.

21. Nothing contained in or done under or in pursuance of this Warrant shall render the Postmaster-General liable, either personally or in his official capacity, to any action or other legal proceeding in respect of or in consequence of any loss or damage of any Parcel, whether such loss or damage be occasioned by or arise from any act or neglect of any officer of the Post Office or any other person.

Customs Regulations.

22. Parcels intended to be transmitted by post under the provisions of this Warrant shall not be posted, forwarded, conveyed, or delivered, except subject to such Regulations as are referred to in section 14 of "The Post Office (Parcels) Act, 1882."

Remission of Postage.

23. The Postmaster-General may, in any case in which he may consider it just or reasonable so to do, remit any postage or any sum made payable under this Warrant.

Commencement of Warrant.

24. This Warrant shall come into operation on the twenty-second day of October, one thousand eight hundred and eighty-eight.

NOTICE TO MARINERS.

(No. 318 of the year 1888.)

RED SEA—EASTERN SHORE.

Kamarán Bay—Reef off Southern Entrance.

INFORMATION has been received through the Board of Trade that on 1st August, 1888, the British steam-vessel "Bussorah," when entering Kamarán Bay by the South Channel, struck on the southern side of the entrance.

The bearings given for the position of the vessel when aground in three fathoms of water, are as follows:—

Northern extreme of Ras el Bayádh, N. $61\frac{1}{2}^{\circ}$ E.

Southern extreme of Ras el Bayádh, S. $8\frac{3}{4}^{\circ}$ W.

South-west extreme of Kamarán Island, N. $47\frac{1}{2}^{\circ}$ W.

As the Southern Entrance to Kamarán Bay has previously been reported to be narrower than shown on the plan, it appears probable that the shore reef outside Ras el Bayádh is wider than given on the chart, and mariners should use caution in entering.

NOTE.—In the caution printed on chart No. 14 the word "not" is omitted from the second paragraph, which should run as follows:—When there is any wind the reefs are not easily seen.

[The bearings are magnetic. Variation $3\frac{1}{2}^{\circ}$ Westerly in 1888.]

W. J. L. Wharton, Hydrographer.

CHINA.—LIAU-TUNG GULF.

Liau River.—Great Changes reported.

THE United States Government has given notice—on the authority of Lieutenant Commander J. E. Craig, U.S.S. "Palos"—that Admiralty Chart, Liau River, No. 2894, is not now reliable from the light-vessel off the bar to Newchwang, a distance of about 17 miles:—

The channel of the river shifts, and the present positions of the beacons do not correspond in direction, one from another, as shown on the chart. Shoals have formed off some of the points of the river banks. Fishing stakes at intervals, surmounted by balls, may be mistaken for beacons, and the local pilots place in position coloured buoys, which not being shown on the chart, are misleading.

From the changes above reported, the chart can only be considered as a rough guide, this, with the strong tides in the river, make it advisable to take a pilot.

W. J. L. Wharton, Hydrographer.

JAPAN.—TSUGAR STRAIT YEZO ISLAND.

Revolving Light on Cape Sirakami.

THE Japanese Government has given notice, that on 15th September, 1888, a light would be exhibited from a lighthouse erected on Cape Sirakami, northern side of western entrance to Tsugar Strait:—

The light is a revolving light, showing alternate white and red flashes at intervals of forty seconds, visible seaward through an arc of $206\frac{1}{2}^{\circ}$, or from the bearing of S. 73° E. to S. $80\frac{3}{4}^{\circ}$ W. It is elevated 120 feet above the sea, and should be seen in clear weather from a distance of 17 miles.

The illuminating apparatus is catoptric, or by reflectors, of the second order.

The lighthouse, 50 feet high, constructed of iron and hexagonal in shape, is painted black and white in horizontal bands.

Position, lat. $41^{\circ} 24' 20''$ N., long. $140^{\circ} 12' 40''$ E.

[The bearings are magnetic, and are given from seaward. Variation $5\frac{1}{2}^{\circ}$ Westerly in 1888.]

FRANCE—WEST COAST.

USHANTOR ILE D'OUessant.

Creac'h Point—Re-Exhibition of Permanent Light and Discontinuance of Provisional Light.

WITH reference to Notice to Mariners, No. 236, of 13th August, 1888, and previous Notice, on the intended construction of works for the establishment of an electric light in Creac'h Point Lighthouse, and for the transference to Stiff Point Lighthouse of the illuminating apparatus of Creac'h Point Lighthouse; also that during the continuance of the works, provisional lights would be exhibited:—

The French Government has given further notice, that on 4th November, 1888, the permanent light will be re-exhibited on Creac'h Point, and the provisional light discontinued; also, that until 4th November, 1888, the new electric light may be exhibited irregularly for experiment.

The light will be an electric group flashing white light every ten seconds, showing two flashes at intervals of two and half seconds, each group being separated by an eclipse of seven and a half seconds.

The light will be elevated 223 feet above high water (as previous to alteration), and should be visible in clear weather from a distance of 21 miles, but the intensity of the flashes will enable the glare to be seen considerably beyond this radius.

CHINA SEA.—RHIO STRAIT.

(1.) Sunken Rock westward of Pulo Loban Kechil.

THE Government of Batavia has given notice, dated 22nd August, 1888, that a search has been made by the Commander of H.N.M.S. "Pontianak" for the rock lying westward of Pulo Loban Kechil, on which H.M.S. "Orion" touched in July, 1888, with the following result:—

The rock (Orion Rock) is about 33 yards in extent, and has a least depth of 16 feet at low water, with six to eight fathoms close around. It lies with the western point of Pulo Loban Kechil bearing E. $\frac{3}{4}$ N., distant $3\frac{3}{4}$ cables.

Position, lat. $0^{\circ} 58' 55''$ N., long. $104^{\circ} 13' 15''$ N.

NOTE.—This danger will shortly be marked by a buoy.

(2.) Shoal north-westward of Pulo Loban Kechil.

Information has been received from Captain H. J. Carr, H.M.S. "Orion," that when sounding north-westward of Pulo Loban Kechil in search of Orion Rock (which was not found in consequence of the strong tide running), a shoal, with a depth of $2\frac{3}{4}$ fathoms at low water, was found lying with the northern point of Pulo Loban Kechil bearing E. $\frac{1}{2}$ S., distant $3\frac{3}{4}$ cables.

Position, lat. $0^{\circ} 59' 5''$ N., long. $104^{\circ} 13' 25''$ E.

NOTE.—A shoal awash at low water lies one cable eastward of the last-mentioned danger.

ceeding forty shillings for each offence, and not exceeding, for any continuing offence, ten shillings for every day during which the offence continues.
