

Privy Council, is further pleased to order and declare that, upon and after the publication hereof in the London Gazette, the Order in Council relating to seamen who desert from the merchant ships belonging to the subjects of the Emperor of Brazil, made by virtue of the said Act, on seventeenth day of May, one thousand eight hundred and seventy-six, shall be revoked, and the same is hereby revoked accordingly.

And the Secretary of State for the Home Department, the Secretary of State for the Colonies, and the Secretary of State for India in Council, are to give the necessary directions herein accordingly. C. L. Peel.

At the Court at Windsor, the 17th day of November, 1888.

PRESENT,
The QUEEN'S Most Excellent Majesty.
Lord President.
Marquess of Lothian.
Sir Henry Ponsonby.
Mr. Robertson.

WHEREAS Her Majesty was pleased by Orders in Council dated respectively the twenty-sixth day of June, one thousand eight hundred and eighty-four, the twenty-seventh day of January and the ninth day of July, one thousand eight hundred and eighty-five, and the twelfth day of July, one thousand eight hundred and eighty-seven, to declare that certain provisions of "The Patents, Designs and Trade Marks Act, 1883, should apply to the several countries mentioned in such Orders :

Now therefore Her Majesty, by and with the advice of Her Privy Council and by virtue of the authority committed to Her by the said Act, doth declare and it is hereby declared that the provisions of the said Act hereinbefore referred to shall also apply to the East Indian Colonies of the Netherlands.

And it is hereby further ordered and declared that this Order shall take effect so far as regards Patents at the expiration of seven months and so far as regards designs and trade marks at the expiration of four months from the day and date first above written. C. L. Peel.

At the Court at Windsor, the 17th day of November, 1888.

PRESENT,
The QUEEN'S Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS The Patents, Designs, and Trade Marks Act, 1883, amongst other things, provides, by section 39, that the exhibition of an invention at an industrial or international exhibition, certified as such by the Board of Trade, or the publication of any description of the invention during the period of the holding of the exhibition, or the use of the invention for the purpose of the exhibition in the place where the exhibition is held, or the use of the invention during the period of the holding of the exhibition by any person elsewhere, without the privy or consent of the inventor, shall not prejudice the right of the inventor or his legal personal representative to apply for and obtain provisional protection and a patent in respect of, the invention or the validity of any patent granted on the application, provided that both the following conditions are complied with, namely:—

(a.) The exhibitor must, before exhibiting the invention, give the comptroller the prescribed notice of his intention to do so ; and

(b.) The application for a patent must be made before or within six months from the date of the opening of the exhibition.

And whereas the said Act further provides, by section 57, that the exhibition at an industrial or international exhibition, certified as such by the Board of Trade, or the exhibition elsewhere during the period of the holding of the exhibition, without the privy or consent of the proprietor, of a design, or of any article to which a design is applied, or the publication, during the holding of any such exhibition, of a description of a design, shall not prevent the design from being registered, or invalidate the registration thereof, provided that both the following conditions are complied with, namely:—

(a.) The exhibitor must, before exhibiting the design or article, or publishing a description of the design, give the comptroller the prescribed notice of his intention to do so ; and

(b.) The application for registration must be made before or within six months from the date of the opening of the exhibition.

And whereas Her Majesty, by virtue of the authority committed to Her by the provisions of The Patents Act, 1886, is empowered by Order in Council from time to time to declare that the provisions of the said Act of 1883 above recited shall apply to any exhibition mentioned in the Order in like manner as if it were an Industrial or International Exhibition certified by the Board of Trade, and to provide that the exhibitor shall be relieved from the conditions specified in the said hereinbefore recited sections of the said Act of 1883 :

Now therefore Her Majesty, by and with the advice of Her Privy Council, and by virtue of the authority committed to Her by the said Act of 1886, doth declare and it is hereby declared that the provisions of the foregoing sections of the said Act of 1883 shall apply to the Paris Universal Exhibition to be held at Paris in the year 1889; and further, that the exhibitor of an invention, a design, or any article to which a design is applied, shall be relieved from the conditions specified in the said hereinbefore recited sections of the said Act of 1883 of giving notice as therein required of his intention to exhibit such invention, design, or article to which a design is applied. C. L. Peel.

At the Court at Windsor, the 17th day of November, 1888.

PRESENT,
The QUEEN'S Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS by Order in Council made in pursuance of "The Merchant Shipping Act Amendment Act, 1862," and dated the eleventh day of August, one thousand eight hundred and eighty-four, Her Majesty, on the joint recommendation of the Admiralty, and the Board of Trade, was pleased to direct that, on and after the first day of September, one thousand eight hundred and eighty-four, the regulations contained in the schedule thereto should, so far as regards British ships and boats be substituted for the regulations then in force.

And whereas Her Majesty, by Order in Council dated the fifteenth day of September, one thousand eight hundred and eighty-seven, was pleased to direct that the regulations appended to the said last-mentioned Order in Council and to the said recited Order in Council of the eleventh August, one thousand eight hundred and eighty-four, should, with certain exceptions, from the fifteenth day of September, one thousand eight hundred
