To the Returning Officers for the First Election of County Councillors for the several Administrative Counties in England and Wales other than the County of London;—

To the Mayor, Aldermen, and Burgesses of the several Boroughs in England and Wales, other than County Boroughs;—

And to all others whom it may concern.

WHEREAS the Local Government Act, 1888, after enacting that a County Council shall be established in every Administrative County, makes provision for the Election of County Councillors in each such county, and for the conduct of such elections;

And whereas a difficulty has arisen as to the person who is authorized to act as Returning Officer in any Electoral Division which is either co-extensive with a Borough divided into Wards, or is comprised in any such Borough and is not co-extensive with a Ward;

And whereas by Section 108 of the said Act, in the case of any difficulty arising as respects the holding of the First Election of County Councillors, We, the Local Government Board, are empowered to do, by Order, any matter or thing which appears to Us necessary for the proper holding of such Election, and it is enacted that any such Order may modify the provisions of the said Act, and the enactments applied by the said Act, so far as may appear to Us necessary for the purpose aforesaid:

Now therefore, in pursuance of the powers given to Us in that behalf, We hereby Order as follows:—

ARTICLE I.—For the purposes of the First Election of any County Councillor in any Electoral Division which is either co-extensive with a Borough divided into Wards, or is comprised in any such Borough and is not co-extensive with a Ward, the person who shall act as Returning Officer under sub-section (6) of Section 75 of the Local Government Act, 1888, shall be the person who would act as Returning Officer under the provisions of the Municipal Corporations Act, 1882, if the Election of such County Councillor were a First Election of a Town Councillor for a Ward held after the division of the Borough into Wards, and the Electoral Division were a Ward.

ARTICLE II. The Writ to be directed by the County Returning Officer to the Returning Officer for such an Electoral Division shall be sufficient if directed to the Mayor by name, although some other person may have been appointed to act as Returning Officer; and in such case the Mayor shall cause the Writ to be delivered to the person so appointed.

ARTICLE III. Expressions in this Order shall have the same meaning as in the Local Government Act, 1888.
