

The London Gazette.

Published by Authority.

FRIDAY, DECEMBER 14, 1888.

(PLEURO-PNEUMONIA.)

AT the Council Chamber, Whitehall, the 12th day of December, 1888.

By Her Majesty's Most Honourable Privy Council.

THE Lords and others of Her Majesty's Most Honourable Privy Council, by virtue and in exercise of the powers in them vested under The Contagious Diseases (Animals) Acts, 1878 to 1886, and of every other power enabling them in this behalf, do order, and it is hereby ordered, as follows:

1. The following Area (namely),—at Milton Court, in the Dorking Division of the county of Surrey, comprised within the following boundaries, that is to say, starting from the Lodge on the Westcott-road, thence along the lane to the boundary of Milton Court Farm on the east, thence along the eastern boundary of the Farm to the South Eastern Railway, thence along the same to the boundary of the Farm adjoining the property of Mr. G. A. Fuller, and thence to Lyme-lane along the lane to the high-road from Dorking to Westcott, and thence up the road to the Lodge before mentioned,—which was declared by Order of Council dated the nineteenth day of September, one thousand eight hundred and eighty-eight, to be an Area infected with pleuro-pneumonia, is hereby declared to be free from pleuro-pneumonia, and that Area shall, as from the commencement of this Order, cease to be an Area infected with pleuro-pneumonia.

2. This Order shall take effect from and immediately after the thirteenth day of December, one thousand eight hundred and eighty-eight.
