Every appeal shall be made in such manner and form, and subject to such Regulations (including Regulations as to fees, costs, charges, and expenses) as may for the time being be directed by Order in Council; and in the absence of any such Order, or so far as any such Order does not extend, then in such manner and form and subject to such Regulations as are for the time being prescribed or in force respecting maritime causes of appeal.

16. Every ship taken as prize, and brought into port within the jurisdiction of a Prize Court, shall forthwith, and without bulk broken, be delivered up to the Marshal of the Court.

If there is no such Marshal, then the ship shall be in like manner delivered up to the principal officer of Customs at the port.

The ship shall remain in the custody of the Marshal, or of such officer, subject to the Orders of the Court.

17. The captors shall, with all practicable speed after the ship is brought into port, bring the ship papers into the Registry of the Court.

Where no ship papers are delivered up or found on board the captured ship the officer in command, or one of the chief officers of the capturing ship, or some other person who was present at the capture, shall make oath to that effect.

18. As soon as the affidavit as to ship papers is filed a monition shall issue, returnable within twenty days from the service thereof, citing all persons in general to show cause why the captured ship should not be condemned.

19. The captors shall, with all practicable speed after the captured ship is brought into port, bring three or four of the principal persons belonging to the captured ship before the Judge of the Court, or some person authorized in this behalf, by whom they shall be examined on oath on the standing interrogatories.

The preparatory examinations on the standing interrogatories shall, if possible, be concluded within five days from the commencement thereof.

20. After the return of the monition the Court shall, on production of the preparatory examinations and ship papers, proceed with all convenient speed either to condemn or to release the captured ship.

21. Where, on production of the preparatory examinations and ship papers, it appears to the Court doubtful whether the captured ship is good prize or not, the Court may direct further proof to be adduced, either by affidavit or by examination of witnesses, with or without pleadings, or by production of further documents; and on such further proof being adduced the Court shall with all convenient speed proceed to adjudication.

22. The foregoing provisions, as far as they relate to the custody of the ship and to examination on the standing interrogatories, shall not apply to ships of war taken as prize.

23. At any time before final decree made in the cause, any person claiming an interest in the ship may enter in the registry of the Court a claim, verified on oath.

Within five days after entering the claim, the claimant shall give security for costs in the sum of £60; but the Court shall have power to enlarge the time for giving security, or to direct security to be given in a larger sum, if the circumstances appear to require it.

24. The Court may, if it thinks fit, at any time direct that the captured ship be appraised.

Every appraisement shall be made by competent persons sworn to make the same according to the best of their skill and knowledge.

25. After appraisement the Court may, if it thinks fit, direct that the captured ship, be delivered up to the claimant on his giving security to the satisfaction of the Court to pay to the captors the appraised value thereof in case of condemnation.

26. The Court may at any time if it thinks fit, on account of the condition of the captured ship, or on the application of a claimant, order that the captured ship be appraised as aforesaid (if not already appraised), and be sold.

27. On or after condemnation the Court may, if it thinks fit, order that the ship be appraised as aforesaid (if not already appraised), and be sold.

28. Every sale shall be made by or under the superintendence of the Marshal of the Court, or of the officer having the custody of the captured ship.

29. The proceeds of any sale made either before or after condemnation, and after condemnation the appraised value of the captured ship, in case she has been delivered up to a claimant on bail, shall be paid under an order of the Court either into the Bank of England to the credit of Her Majesty's Paymaster-General, or into the hands of an official accountant (belonging to the Commissariat or some other Department) appointed for this purpose by the Commissioners of Her Majesty's Treasury, or by the Lords of the Admiralty, subject in either case to such Regulations as may from time to time be made by Order in Council as to the custody and disposal of money so paid.

30. The captors may include in one adjudication any number, not exceeding six, of armed ships not exceeding one hundred tons each, taken within three months next before institution of proceedings.

31. The foregoing provisions relating to ships shall extend and apply, mutatis mutandis, to goods taken as prize on board ship; and the Court may direct such goods to be unladen, inventoried, and warehoused.

32. If the captors fail to institute or to prosecute with effect proceedings for adjudication a monition shall, on the application of a claimant, issue against the captors, returnable within six days from the service thereof, citing them to appear and proceed to adjudication; and on the return thereof the Court shall either forthwith proceed to adjudication, or direct further proof to be adduced as aforesaid, and then proceed to adjudication.

33. Where any person, not an original party in the cause, intervenes on appeal, he shall enter a claim, verified on oath, and shall give security for costs.

34. Where, in an expedition of any of Her Majesty's naval or naval and military forces against a fortress or possession on land, goods belonging to the State of the enemy, or to a public trading Company of the enemy exercising powers of government, are taken in the fortress or possession, or a ship is taken in waters defended by or belonging to the fortress or possession, a Prize Court shall have jurisdiction as to the goods or ship so taken, and any goods taken on board the ship, as in case of prize.

35. Where any ship or goods is or are taken by any of Her Majesty's naval or naval and military forces while acting in conjunction with any forces or any of Her Majesty's allies, a Prize Court shall have jurisdiction as to the same as in case of prize, and shall have power, after condemnation, to apportion the due share of the proceeds to Her Majesty's ally, the proportionate amount and the disposition of which shall be such as may from time to time be agreed between Her Majesty and Her Majesty's ally.

36. Before condemnation a Petition on behalf of asserted joint captors shall not (except by special leave of the Court) be admitted, unless and until they give security to the satisfaction of the Court to contribute to the actual captors a just proportion of any costs, charges, or expenses or damages that may be incurred by or awarded against the actual captors on account of the capture and detention of the prize.

After condemnation such a Petition shall not

(except by special leave of the Court) be admitted unless and until the asserted joint captors pay to the actual captors a just proportion of the costs, charges, and expenses incurred by the actual captors in the case, and give such security as aforesaid, and show sufficient cause to the Court why their Petition was not presented before condemnation.

Provided, that nothing in the present section shall extend to the asserted interest of a Flag Officer claiming to share by virtue of his flag.

37. A Prize Court, on proof of any offence against the law of nations, or against this Act, or any Act relating to naval discipline, or against any Order in Council or Royal Proclamation, or of any breach of Her Majesty's instructions relating to prize, or of any act of disobedience to the orders of the Lords of the Admiralty, or to the command of a superior officer, committed by the captors in relation to any ship or goods taken as prize, or in relation to any person on board any such ship, may, on condemnation, reserve the prize to Her Majesty's disposal, notwithstanding any grant that may have been made by Her Majesty in favour of captors.

PRESENT,

The QUEEN'S Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England have, in pursuance of the Act of the third and fourth years of Her Majesty, chapter one hundred and thirteen, of the Act of the sixth and seventh years of Her Majesty, chapter thirty-seven, and of the Act of the nineteenth and twentieth years of Her Majesty, chapter one hundred and four, duly prepared and laid before Her Majesty in Council a scheme, bearing date the eighth day of November, in the year one thousand eight hundred and eighty-eight, in the words and figures following, that is to say:—

“We the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England in pursuance of the Act of the third and fourth years of Your Majesty, chapter one hundred and thirteen, of the Act of the sixth and seventh years of Your Majesty chapter thirty-seven, and of the Act of the nineteenth and twentieth years of Your Majesty, chapter one hundred and four, have prepared and now humbly lay before Your Majesty in Council the following scheme for constituting a separate district for spiritual purposes to be taken out of the parish of Saint Mary, Nottingham, out of the new parish (sometime district chapelry,) of Saint Luke, Nottingham, out of the new parish (sometime particular district) of Saint Mark, Nottingham, and out of the district parish of Saint Paul, Nottingham, all in the town and county of the town of Nottingham, and in the diocese of Southwell.

C. L. Peel.

At the Court at Windsor, the 17th day of December, 1888.

PRESENT,

The QUEEN's Most Excellent Majesty in Council,

WHEREAS the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England have, in pursuance of the Act of the sixth and seventh years of His late Majesty King William the Fourth chapter seventy-seven of the Act of the third and fourth years of Her present Majesty chapter one hundred and thirteen and of the Act of the thirty-seventh and thirty-eighth years of Her said Majesty chapter sixty-three duly prepared and laid before Her Majesty in Council a scheme, bearing date the twenty-second day of November, in the year one thousand eight hundred and eighty-eight, in the words and figures following, that is to say:—

"We, the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England acting in pursuance of the Act of the sixth and seventh years of His late Majesty King William the Fourth chapter seventy-seven, of the Act of the third and fourth years of Your Majesty chapter one hundred and thirteen, and of the Act of the thirty-seventh and thirty-eighth years of Your Majesty, chapter sixty-three, have prepared and now humbly lay before Your Majesty in Council the following scheme with respect to the rural deaneries which are within the two archdeaconries of the diocese of Chester to wit the Archdeaconry of Chester and the Archdeaconry of Macclesfield.

"Whereas by an Order of Your Majesty in Council bearing date the sixth day of September in the year one thousand eight hundred and eighty and published in the London Gazette on the twenty-first day of the same month ratifying a scheme prepared by us the said Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, the said Archdeaconry of Macclesfield was created, and, in the two schedules to that scheme annexed were set forth the contents of the several rural deaneries within that archdeaconry and within the said Archdeaconry of Chester.

“ And whereas it has been represented to us by the Right Reverend William, Bishop of the said diocese of Chester that the arrangements which are hereinafter recommended and proposed with respect to the said rural deaneries, or some of them, are desirable and should be carried into effect. And we are of opinion that the same may properly be carried into effect.

“ And whereas the said arrangements involve the formation of one new rural deanery within the said Archdeaconry of Chester and also the transfer of certain parishes or cures or churches from certain rural deaneries within the said Archdeaconry of Chester to certain other rural deaneries within the same archdeaconry, and the same arrangements also involve the formation of one new rural deanery within the said Archdeaconry of Macclesfield, and also the transfer of certain parishes or cures or churches from certain rural deaneries within the said Archdeaconry of Macclesfield to certain other rural deaneries within the same archdeaconry.

“ Now therefore with the consent of the said William Bishop of the said diocese of Chester (in testimony whereof he has set his hand and episcopal seal to this scheme) we the said Ecclesiastical Commissioners humbly recommend and propose that as from the day on which any Order of Your Majesty in Council ratifying this scheme shall be published in the London Gazette and without any assurance in the law other than such duly gazetted Order the Archdeaconry of Chester and the Archdeaconry of Macclesfield respectively shall comprise and consist of those rural deaneries the names of which are set down in order under the names of each of the two said archdeaconries respectively in the schedule to this scheme annexed, and that the name which in the said schedule is given to any rural deanery shall be the name thereof and that every parish or cure or church, the name of which is set down in numbered order in the first column of the said schedule under the name of the Archdeaconry of Chester or under the name of the Archdeaconry of Macclesfield, and under the name of any rural deanery in either the one or the other of the same archdeaconries respectively shall belong to and be and form a part of the archdeaconry and of the rural deanery under the respective names of which it is set down as aforesaid and shall be subject to the jurisdiction and authority of the archdeacon of the same archdeaconry and of the rural dean of the same rural deanery and shall not belong to or be a part of any other archdeaconry, or any other rural deanery, or be subject to the jurisdiction or authority of any other archdeacon or rural dean, the intent of these our recommendations and proposals being that the said schedule to this scheme annexed shall as to the first column thereof be substituted as from the day herein lastly-mentioned for those two schedules of the rural deaneries within the said diocese of Chester, which are, as aforesaid, annexed to the said scheme ratified by the Order of Your Majesty in Council herein firstly-mentioned as aforesaid; the second column of the said schedule to this present scheme annexed containing in the case of each of the said two archdeaconries a statement as to the name of the rural deanery within which each parish or cure or church named in the first column of the same schedule has been heretofore situate: which recommendations and proposals in this scheme and in the said schedule thereto set forth as aforesaid will have the effect of making several alterations of the areas of certain of the rural deaneries within the said diocese of Chester and also of creating one new rural deanery within the same Archdeaconry of Chester to be called ‘ The Rural Deanery of Birkenhead ’ and the same recommendations and proposals will also have the effect of creating one new deanery within the Archdeaconry of Macclesfield aforesaid to be called ‘ The Rural Deanery of Mottram.’

“ And we further recommend and propose that nothing herein contained shall prevent us from recommending and proposing any other matter or thing with respect to the matters aforesaid or any of them under or by virtue of the said Acts or of any of them or of any other Act of Parliament.

AT the Court at Windsor, the 17th day of December, 1888.

PRESENT,

The QUEEN'S Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England have, in pursuance of the Act of the fifty-ninth year of His Majesty King George the Third, chapter one hundred and thirty-four; of the Act of the second and third years of Her Majesty, chapter forty-nine; and of the Act of the nineteenth and twentieth years of Her Majesty, chapter fifty-five, duly prepared and laid before Her Majesty in Council a representation, bearing date the twenty-second day of November, in the year one thousand eight hundred and eighty-eight, in the words following, that is to say:—

" We the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, in pursuance of the Act of the fifty-ninth year of His Majesty King George the Third, chapter one hundred and thirty-four; of the Act of the second and third years of Your Majesty, chapter forty-nine; and of the Act of the nineteenth and twentieth years of Your Majesty, chapter fifty-five, have prepared and now humbly lay before Your Majesty in Council, the following representation as to the assignment of a district chapelry to the consecrated church of Saint Mark the Evangelist situate at New Ferry in the parish of Bebington in the county of Chester and in the diocese of Chester.

"Whereas it appears to us to be expedient that a district chapelry should be assigned to the said church of Saint Mark the Evangelist situate at New Ferry aforesaid.

"Now therefore with the consent of the Right Reverend William Bishop of the said diocese of Chester (testified by his having signed and sealed this representation), we, the said Ecclesiastical Commissioners, humbly represent, that it would, in our opinion, be expedient that all that part of the said parish of Bebington which is described in the schedule hereunder written, all which part, together with the boundaries thereof, is delineated and set forth on the map or plan hereunto annexed, should be assigned as a district chapelry to the said church of Saint Mark the Evangelist situate at New Ferry as aforesaid, and that the same should be named 'The District Chapelry of Saint Mark the Evangelist, New Ferry.'

"And with the like consent of the said William Bishop of the said diocese of Chester (testified as aforesaid), we, the said Ecclesiastical Commissioners, further represent, that it appears to us to be expedient that banns of matrimony should be published, and that marriages, baptisms, churchings and burials should be solemnized or performed at the said church of Saint Mark the Evangelist situate at New Ferry as aforesaid, and that the fees to be received in respect of the publication of such banns and of the solemnization or performance of the said offices should be paid and belong to the minister of the same church for the time being: Provided always, that nothing herein contained shall be construed as expressing any intention on the part of us the said Commissioners to concur in or approve the taking of any fee for the performance of the said office of baptism or for the registration thereof.

"We, therefore, humbly pray that Your Majesty will be graciously pleased to take the premises into Your Royal consideration and to make such Order with respect thereto as to Your Majesty, in Your Royal wisdom, shall seem meet.

"The SCHEDULE to which the foregoing Representation has reference.

"The District Chapelry of Saint Mark the Evangelist, New Ferry being:—

"All that part of the parish of Bebington in the county of Chester, and in the diocese of Chester wherein the present incumbent of such parish still possesses the exclusive cure of souls and which is bounded upon the greater part of the south-east by the parish or parochial chapelry of Bromborough in the county and diocese aforesaid, upon the north-east by the north-eastern boundary of the parish of Bebington aforesaid in the middle of the River Mersey, upon the north-west by the particular district or new parish of Saint Peter Rock Ferry otherwise Higher Bebington in the said county and diocese, and upon the remaining sides that is to say upon the south-west and upon the remaining part of the south-east by an imaginary line commencing upon the boundary which divides the said particular district or new parish of Saint Peter Rock Ferry otherwise Higher Bebington from the parish of Bebington aforesaid at a point in the middle of the line of the London and North Western and Great Western Joint Birkenhead Railway and extending thence south-eastward along the middle of the said line of railway for a distance of one mile and thirty chains or thereabouts to a point upon the boundary which divides the township of Lower Bebington in the said parish of Bebington from the township of Poulton-cum-Spital in the same parish at which point the same line of railway crosses over the watercourse flowing from the Neston-road, near Parkfield, into the stream called or known as Bromborough Pool and extending thence north-eastward along the said township boundary for a distance of thirty-two chains or thereabouts thereby following the course of the said watercourse to its junction with Bromborough Pool aforesaid, at which point of junction the said township boundary joins the boundary dividing the said parish of Bebington from the parish or parochial chapelry of Bromborough aforesaid."

And whereas the said representation has been approved by Her Majesty in Council: now, therefore, Her Majesty, by and with the advice of Her said Council, is pleased hereby to ratify the said representation, and to order and direct that the same and every part thereof shall be effectual in law immediately from and after the time when this Order shall have been duly published in the London Gazette pursuant to the said Acts; and Her Majesty, by and with the like advice, is pleased hereby to direct that this Order be forthwith registered by the Registrar of the said diocese of Chester.

C. L. Peel.

[The following Order in Council is substituted for that which appeared in the London Gazette of the 23rd November, 1888.]

At the Court at Windsor, the 17th day of November, 1888.

PRESENT,

The QUEEN's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS by an Act passed in the Session of Parliament held in the sixteenth and seventeenth years of Her Majesty's reign, intituled "An Act to amend the laws concerning the burial of the dead in England beyond the limits of the Metropolis, and to amend the Act concerning the burial of the dead in the Metropolis," it is enacted, that in case it appears to Her Majesty in Council, upon the representation of one of Her Majesty's Principal Secretaries of State, that, for the protection of the public health, the opening of any new burial-ground in any city or town, or within any other limits, save with the previous approval of one of such Secretaries of State, should be prohibited, or that burials in any city or town, or within any other limits, or in any burial-grounds or places of burial, should be wholly discontinued, or should be discontinued subject to any exception or qualification, it shall be lawful for Her Majesty, by and with the advice of Her Privy Council, to order that no new burial-ground shall be opened in any city or town, or within such limits, without such previous approval or (as the case may require) that, after a time mentioned in the Order, burials in such city or town, or within such limits, or in such burial-grounds or places of burial, shall be discontinued wholly, or subject to any exceptions or qualifications mentioned in such Order, and so from time to time as circumstances may require; provided always, that notice of such representation, and of the time when it shall please Her Majesty to order that the same be taken into consideration by the Privy Council, shall be published in the London Gazette, and shall be affixed on the doors of the churches or chapels of, or on some other conspicuous places within, the parishes affected by such representation, one month before such representation is so considered; provided also, that no such representation shall be made in relation to the burial-ground of any parish until ten days' previous notice of the intention to make such representation shall have been given to the incumbent and vestry clerk or churchwardens of such parish.

And whereas by another Act passed in the Session of Parliament held in the eighteenth and nineteenth years of Her Majesty's reign, intituled "An Act further to amend the laws concerning the burial of the dead in England," it is, amongst other things, enacted that it shall be lawful for Her Majesty, by and with the advice of Her Privy Council, from time to time to postpone the time appointed by any Order in Council for the discontinuance of burials, or otherwise to vary any Order in Council made under any of the Acts recited in the said Act, or under the said Act (whether the time thereby appointed for the discontinuance of burials thereunder, or other operation of such Order, shall or shall not have arrived), as to Her Majesty, with such advice as aforesaid, may seem fit:

And whereas the Right Honourable Henry Matthews, one of Her Majesty's Principal Secretaries of State, after giving to the incumbent and the churchwardens of the parish hereinafter mentioned ten days' previous notice of his intention to make such representation made a representation stating that he was of opinion that the Orders of Her Majesty in Council of the fourth day of April, one thousand eight hundred and fifty-six, the second day of February, one thousand eight hundred and fifty-seven, and the twenty-seventh day of August, one thousand eight hundred and fifty-seven, in so far as they affect burials in the parish of Old Swinford, in the county of Worcester, should be varied, and that the following directions should be substituted for those contained in the said Orders, with respect to burials in the church and churchyard of that parish:

And whereas Her Majesty was pleased, by Her Order in Council of the twenty-ninth day of June, one thousand eight hundred and eighty-eight, to give notice of such representation, and to order that the same should be taken into consideration by a Committee of the Lords of Her Majesty's Most Honourable Privy Council on the thirteenth day of August, one thousand eight hundred and eighty-eight, and such Order has been published in the London Gazette, and copies thereof have been affixed as required by the said first-recited Act:

Now, therefore, Her Majesty, by and with the advice of Her Privy Council, is pleased to order, and it is hereby ordered:—

That burials be discontinued forthwith and entirely in the parish church of Old Swinford, in the county of Worcester; and also in the old churchyard within the rails, except as follows:—

In such vaults and wholly walled graves as are now existing burials may be allowed on condition that every coffin buried therein be separately enclosed by stonework or brickwork properly cemented.

And in the rest of the churchyard, except as follows:—

(a.) In such vaults and wholly walled graves as are now existing, burials may be allowed on condition that every coffin buried therein be separately enclosed by stonework or brickwork properly cemented:

(b.) In such partly walled and earthen graves now existing as can be opened to the depth of five feet without exposing coffins or disturbing human remains burials may be allowed of so many of the following relations of those interred therein at the date of the Order, namely, widows, widowers, children, grandchildren, brothers, sisters, uncles, aunts, nephews, nieces, and first cousins, as can be buried at or below that depth:

(c.) In such grave spaces (as have never before been buried in, and which when opened are free from water) burials may be allowed of so many bodies as can be buried at or below the depth of five feet.

This Order does not apply to any part of the said churchyard that has been opened with the approval of the Secretary of State under the Burial Acts.

POST OFFICE (MONEY ORDERS) ACTS,
1848 to 1883.

REGULATIONS MADE UNDER THE POST OFFICE (MONEY ORDERS) ACTS, 1848 TO 1883.

WHEREAS "The Post Office (Money Orders) Act, 1880," provides that, subject to the Post Office Regulations, the Postmaster-General with the consent of the Treasury may, for the purpose of the transmission of small sums through the Post Office, authorize his Officers, or any of them, to issue Orders (hereinafter referred to as Postal Orders) in the form set forth in the schedule to that Act, subject nevertheless to the provisos contained in the said Act.

And whereas by the Post Office (Money Orders) Acts, 1848 and 1880, the Postmaster-General is authorized, with the consent of the Commissioners of Her Majesty's Treasury, to make Post Office Regulations relating to Money Orders and to the persons by or to whom Money Orders shall be paid and to the times at which and the mode in which the same shall be paid.

And whereas by "The Post Office (Money Orders) Act, 1883," certain alterations in the form of Postal Orders as set forth in the schedule to "The Post Office (Money Orders) Act, 1880," are sanctioned, and the Postmaster-General is empowered, with the consent of the Commissioners of Her Majesty's Treasury, to prescribe by Post Office Regulations further modifications of the form of Postal Orders and the several amounts (not exceeding 20s.) of such Orders, and the sums of poundage (not exceeding 2d.) to be taken in respect of such Orders, and it was amongst other things provided that where an arrangement is made with the Government of any British Possession for the transmission of small sums through the Post Offices of the United Kingdom and such British Possession by means of Money Orders of a like character to those issued under "The Post Office (Money Orders) Act, 1880," as amended by that Act, the said Act as amended by that Act should, so far as is consistent with the tenor thereof and subject to the prescribed modifications apply in like manner as if an Order issued in pursuance of such arrangement whether by an Officer of the Post Office or of such British Possession was an Order under the said Act as amended by that Act, and that such portions of the said Act as enact punishment should apply accordingly.

And whereas an arrangement has been made with the Government of Newfoundland for the issue in Newfoundland, and for the payment in the United Kingdom and in Constantinople, of Postal Orders in the form and subject to the Regulations hereinafter mentioned.

Now, therefore, I, the Right Honourable Henry Cecil Raikes, Her Majesty's Postmaster-General, in pursuance of the said Acts, and of all other powers enabling me in this behalf, with the consent of the Commissioners of Her Majesty's Treasury, do hereby order as follows:—

1. These Regulations shall come into operation on the first day of January, one thousand eight hundred and eighty-nine.

2. Subject to the provisions of these Regulations, Postal Orders issued at any Post Office in Newfoundland may be paid in the United Kingdom and at Constantinople by any officer or person for the time being there authorized to pay Postal Orders issued in the United Kingdom.

Every Postal Order issued in Newfoundland shall be in the form and of one of the amounts specified in the Regulations made under the Post Office (Money Orders) Acts, 1818 to 1883, and dated the 28th day of January, 1881, or any other Regulations for the time being in force with reference to Postal Orders issued in the United Kingdom, and all the provisions of the said Regulations shall apply to Orders issued in Newfoundland so far as the nature of the case admits.

In witness whereof I, the said Henry Cecil Raikes, Her Majesty's Postmaster-General, have hereunto set my hand this fourteenth day of December, one thousand eight hundred and eighty-eight.

Henry Cecil Raikes.

We, the undersigned, being two of the Commissioners of Her Majesty's Treasury, do hereby signify the consent of the same Commissioners to the above regulations.

NOTICE TO MARINERS.

EASTERN ARCHIPELAGO.

Surabaya Strait—Light-Buoys in Southern Entrance.

THE Government of Batavia has given notice, dated 1st November, 1888, that three light buoys (Pintsoh System) have been placed in the southern entrance of Surabaya Strait, to facilitate the navigation of this channel at night:—

The lights shown from these buoys are fixed white lights, visible in clear weather from a distance of 5 miles.

The southernmost buoy is moored with the north-east extreme of Kleta Reef bearing S.W. by S., distant about 330 yards.

The second buoy is moored about $4\frac{2}{10}$ miles N.N.W. $\frac{1}{4}$ W. from the southernmost buoy. The third buoy is moored $4\frac{8}{10}$ miles N.W. $\frac{3}{4}$ N. from the second buoy.

[The bearing is magnetic. Variation $2\frac{1}{4}^{\circ}$ Easterly in 1888.]

(1.) Largs Bay.—Leading Lights for Semaphore Anchorage.

WITH reference to Notice to Mariners, No. 350 (2) of 9th November, 1888, that the light shown from the "Beatrice" in Semaphore Anchorage, Largs Bay, would be discontinued on 1st December, 1888; and that arrangements would probably be made for the exhibition of lights on the shore to lead to the mooring buoy for ocean steam vessels:—

The Marine Board, Port Adelaide, has given further notice, that on 1st December, 1888, two leading lights would be exhibited on the shore of Largs Bay—one from the Time Ball Tower, the other from the flagstaff at the inner end of the Semaphore Jetty:—

The lights are fixed red lights, and kept in line bearing S.E. $\frac{1}{4}$ S. lead through the deepest water in semaphore anchorage, and to the mooring buoy for ocean steam vessels.

DIRECTIONS.—Vessels approaching Semaphore Anchorage at night, should not bring Port Adelaide principal light northward of the bearing N.E. until the above leading lights are in line, which may then be steered for, and anchorage taken up as convenient, or the mooring buoy picked up. When the red light, north-east of the lighthouse, is just closing with the white light on No. 11 Beacon, the vessel will be near the mooring buoy.

The leading lights are obscured southward of the Bell Buoy on Wonga Shoal, so that, vessels of suitable draught, not intending to use the mooring buoy, may steer in for the anchorage as soon as the two red lights are visible.

During the day, Port Adelaide Principal Lighthouse should not be brought northward of the bearing N.E., until the Time Ball Tower and the Water Tower are in line, when the anchorage may be steered for.

The buoy, painted red, and surmounted by a cage, is moored in five fathoms water, close westward of the three-quarters of a fathom patch, with the following bearings and distance:—

North west extreme of South Head, N.E.

Observation Point, S.E. by E., distant two cables.

[The bearings are magnetic. Variation (1) $5\frac{1}{4}^{\circ}$, (2) $9\frac{1}{2}^{\circ}$, Easterly in 1888.]
