THE Board of Trade have received from the Secretary of State for Foreign Affairs, a copy of a Despatch, dated 26th instant, enclosing the following translation of an Argentine notice relative to quarantine:—

Buenos Aires,

February 8, 1889.

IN view of the antecedent note from the National Health Department in which is made apparent the serious risk accruing to public health from the frequent traffic carried on by vessels trading between Paraguayan ports and those situated in the northern part of Brazil, and the ports of the Empire last-mentioned which are declared to be infected or suspicious, in accordance with the Articles of the International Sanitary Convention officially put in force; and considering—

1st. That, up to the present date, the Republic of Paraguay has adopted no precautionary measures whatsoever against a possible invasion of epidemic, when the increase, day by day of yellow fever at Rio de Janeiro is borne in mind.

2nd. That, in order to provide that vessels proceeding from Paraguay or from ports in the northern portion of Brazil shall not touch at internal Argentine ports without having previously conformed to sanitary usages, the establishment of a Maritime Sanitary Station at the mouths of the rivers in Argentine territory is indispensable.

3rd. That, in order that vessels proceeding from Paraguay or from ports in the northern part of Brazil shall not touch at internal Argentine ports without having previously carried sanitary measures into practical effect, it is indispensable to establish a Maritime Sanitary Station at the entrance of rivers in Argentine territory.

4th. That it is a duty incumbent on the National Government to preserve public health from the inroad of exotic pestilential diseases by every means within its power.

The Vice-President of the Argentine Republic, in exercise of the executive authority, decrees:

ART. I. The ports of the Republic of Paraguay and of Northern Brazil are declared suspicious, to the intent that vessels originally proceeding from, or having touched at, the said ports may be amenable to sanitary processes in accordance with the prescriptions laid down in the International Convention.

ART. II. The National Health Department is authorized to establish a sanitary station on the most convenient spot at the entrance of the Rivers Paraguay and Parana in Argentine territory in order that, on that spot, the sanitary visit may take effect and the requisite precautions may be there adopted.

ART. III. Vessels proceeding from Rio de Janeiro and other ports in the southern portion of the Brazilian Empire, and desiring to ascend the rivers, shall request the Health Visit on their arrival in the roadstead of Buenos Aires, and shall be subject to such measures as may be adopted for other vessels arriving from the same points, and in accordance with their sanitary condition on board.

ART. IV. Vessels proceeding from Paraguay and ports in the northern portion of the Empire of Brazil, shall request the Health Visit at the station referred to in Article II of the present Decree, until this ("esto") ? station be definitively installed in the port of the city of Corrientes.

ART. V. The Ministry of Marine has been instructed to make arrangements for stationing two ships of war at the points best adapted for carrying into effect the stipulations of the present Decree.

WHEREAS in pursuance of the Explosives Act, 1875 (in this Order referred to as the Act), an Order of the Secretary of State (known as Order of Secretary of State, No. 3) was made on the 27th day of November, 1875, adapting the General Rules relating to packing of gunpowder, contained in Part I of the Act to the packing of explosives other than gunpowder; and whereas by section 83 of the Act, it is provided that a Secretary of State may by order from time to time revoke, add to, or alter any previous orders of the Secretary of State.

Now, therefore, in the exercise of the powers aforesaid, I, one of Her Majesty's Principal Secretaries of State, hereby order as follows:—

1. Part B, Rule 2 of the Order of the Secretary of State, No. 3 aforesaid, relating to the packing of explosives of the 1st division of the 3rd (nitro compound) class, shall be amended as follows:—

(a.) By the insertion after the words "shall not contain more than 10 lbs.," in the said Rule, of the words "except with the consent of and under conditions approved by a Government inspector"; and
