Lord President.
Duke of Rutland.

Earl of Limerick.
Viscount Lewisham.

WHEREAS by the Extradition Acts, 1870 and 1873, it was amongst other things enacted, that where an arrangement has been made with any foreign State with respect to the surrender to such State of any fugitive criminals, Her Majesty may, by Order in Council, direct that the said Acts shall apply in the case of such foreign State; and that Her Majesty may, by the same or any subsequent Order, limit the operation of the Order, and restrict the same to fugitive criminals who are in or suspected of being in the part of Her Majesty's dominions specified in the Order, and render the operation thereof subject to such conditions, exceptions, and qualifications as may be deemed expedient: and that if, by any law made after the passing of the Act of 1870 by the Legislature of any British possession, provision is made for carrying into effect within such possession the surrender of fugitive criminals who are in or suspected of being in such British possession, Her Majesty may, by the Order in Council applying the said Acts in the case of any foreign State, or by any subsequent Order, suspend the operation within any such British possession of the said Acts, or of any part thereof, so far as it relates to such foreign State, and so long as such Law continues in force there and no longer:

And whereas by an Act of the Parliament of Canada passed in 1886, and entitled "An Act respecting the Extradition of Fugitive Criminals," provision is made for carrying into effect within the Dominion the surrender of fugitive criminals:

And whereas by an Order of Her Majesty the Queen in Council, dated the seventeenth day of November, one thousand eight hundred and eighty-eight, it was directed that the operation of the Extradition Acts 1870 and 1873 should be suspended within the Dominion of Canada so long as the provision of the said Act of the Parliament of Canada of 1886 should continue in force and no longer:

And whereas a Treaty was concluded on the seventh day of September, one thousand eight hundred and eighty-six, between Her Majesty and the President of the United States of Mexico, for the Mutual Extradition of Fugitive Criminals, which Treaty is in the terms following:—

HER Majesty the Queen of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland, and his Excellency the President of the United States of Mexico, having judged it expedient, with a view to the better administration of justice and to the prevention of crime within the two countries and their jurisdictions, that persons charged with or convicted of the crimes or offences hereinafter enumerated, and being fugitives from justice, should, under certain circumstances, be reciprocally delivered up, have named as their Plenipotentiaries to conclude a Treaty (that is to say):

Su Excelencia el Presidente de los Estados Unidos Mexicanos y Su Majestad la Reina del Reino Unido de la Gran Bretaña é Irlanda, habiendo creído conveniente, para mejor administrar justicia y para prevenir los delitos en ambos países y sus jurisdicciones, que los individuos acusados de los delitos enumerados mas adelante ó condenados por ellos, y que estén prófugos, sean en ciertos casos recíprocamente entregados, han nombrado sus Plenipotenciarios para celebrar un Tratado, á saber:

ARTICLE VII.

A person surrendered can in no case be kept in prison or be brought to trial in the State to which the surrender has been made, for any other crime, or on account of any other matters, than those for which the extradition shall have taken place, until he has been restored, or has had an opportunity of returning to the State by which he has been surrendered. This stipulation does not apply to crimes committed after the extradition.

ARTICLE VIII.

The requisition for extradition shall be made through the Diplomatic Agents of the High Contracting Parties respectively.

The requisition for the extradition of an accused person must be accompanied by a warrant of arrest issued by the competent authority of the State requiring the extradition, and by such evidence as, according to the laws of the place where the accused is found, would justify his arrest if the crime had been committed there.

If the requisition relates to a person already convicted, it must be accompanied by the sentence of condemnation passed against the convicted person by the competent Court of the State that makes the requisition for extradition.

A sentence passed in contumaciam is not to be deemed a conviction, but a person so sentenced may be dealt with as an accused person.

ARTICLE IX.

If the requisition for extradition be in accordance with the foregoing stipulations, the competent authorities of the State applied to shall proceed to the arrest of the fugitive.

ARTICLE X.

A fugitive criminal may be apprehended, under a warrant issued by any Police Magistrate, Justice of the Peace, or other competent authority in either country, on such information or complaint, and such evidence, or after such proceedings as would, in the opinion of the authority issuing the warrant, justify the issue of a warrant if the crime had been committed or the person convicted in that part of the dominions of the two Contracting Parties in which the Magistrate, Justice of the Peace, or other competent authority exercises jurisdiction: provided, however, that in the United Kingdom the accused shall, in such case, be sent as speedily as possible before a Police Magistrate in London. In the Republic of Mexico the Government will decide on the extradition by administrative procedure, until a judicial procedure be established by law, when the accused will be delivered as soon as possible to the Judge designated by law. The criminal shall, in accordance with this Article, be discharged, as well in Mexico as in the United Kingdom, if within the term of thirty days a requisition for extradition shall not have been made by the Diplomatic Agent of his country in accordance with the stipulations of this Treaty.

The same rule shall apply to the cases of persons accused or convicted of any of the crimes or offences specified in this Treaty, and committed on the high seas on board any vessel of either country which may come into a port of the other.

ARTICLE XI.

ARTICULO VII.

El individuo entregado en ningun caso puede ser mantenido en prision ó juzgado en el Estado al cual se ha hecho su entrega, por algun otro delito, ó con motivo de cualesquiera otros negocios, diferentes de aquellos que han motivado la extradicion, hasta que haya sido devuelto ó haya tenido una oportunidad de volver al Estado por el cual fué entregado. Esta estipulacion no es aplicable á delitos cometidos despues de la extradicion.

ARTICULO VIII.

La demanda de extradicion deberá lacerse por medio de los Agentes Diplomáticos respectivos de las Altas Partes Contratantes.

La demanda de extradicion de un acusado estará acompañada de un mandamiento de prision expedido por la autoridad competente del Estado que pida la extradicion, y de la prueba que, conforme á las leyes del lugar donde se encuentra el acusado, justificarian su detencion, si allí se hubiere cometido el delito.

Si el requerimiento se refiere á un individuo ya condenado, se acompañará la sentencia condenatoria pronunciada contra el condenado por el Tribunal competente del Estado que pida la extradicion.

Una sentencia pronunciada en rebeldia no se tendrá como sentencia condenatoria; pero el individuo así condenado será considerado como acusado.

ARTICULO IX.

Si la demanda de extradicion está conforme con las precedentes estipulaciones, las autoridades competentes del Estado al cual se haya pedido aquella, procederán á la aprehension del prófugo.

ARTICULO X.

Se podrá aprehender á un reo prófugo en virtud de un mandamiento librado por cualquiera Magistrado de Policía, Juez de Paz ú otra autoridad competente en uno ú otro país, fundado en los informes ó quejas, y en las pruebas ó diligencias que, en opinion de la autoridad que expida el mandamiento, justificarian este acto si el delito hubiese sido cometido ó condenada la persona en aquella parte de los dominios de ambas Partes Contratantes en la cual el Magistrado, Juez de Paz, ú otra autoridad competente ejerce jurisdiccion; con tal, sin embargo, que en el Reino Unido el acusado sea consignado, en este caso, tan pronto como sea posible, á un Magistrado de Policía en Londres. En la República Mexicana el Gobierno decidirá en la via administrativa sobre la extradicion, entretanto las leyes no establezcan un procedimiento judicial, en cuyo caso el acusado será consignado tan pronto como sea posible el Juez que la ley designe. De conformidad con este Artículo el reo será puesto en libertad, tanto en el Reino Unido como en la República Mexicana, si en el término de treinta dias no se ha hecho la demanda de extradicion por el Agente Diplomático del país respectivo, con arreglo á las estipulaciones de este Tratado.

Se observará la misma regla en los casos de individuos acusados ó condenados por alguno de los delitos especificados en este Tratado, y cometidos en alta mar á bordo de un buque de alguno de los dos paises que llegue á un puerto del otro.

ARTICULO XI.

Solo tendrá lugar la extradicion si, conforme á las leyes del Estado al cual se pide aquella, se consideran suficientes las pruebas, ya para que el mittal of the prisoner for trial, in case the crime had been committed in the territory of the same State, or to prove that the prisoner is the identical person convicted by the Courts of the State which makes the requisition, and that the crime of which he has been convicted is one in respect of which extradition could, at the time of such conviction, have been granted by the State applied to; and no criminal shall be surrendered until after the expiration of fifteen days from the date of his committal to prison to await the warrant for his surrender.

ARTICLE XII.

In the examinations which they will have to make in accordance with the foregoing stipulations, the authorities of the State applied to for said extradition shall admit as valid evidence the depositions or statements of witnesses taken in the other State, under oath or under solemn affirmation to tell the truth, according as its legislation may provide, or the copies of these depositions or statements, and likewise the warrants issued and sentences pronounced in the State which demands the extradition, the certificates of the fact of the condemnation, or the judicial documents which prove it, provided the same are authenticated as follows:—

1. A warrant must purport to be signed by a Judge, Magistrate, or Officer of the other State.

2. Depositions or affirmations, or the copies thereof, must purport to be certified under the hand of a Judge, Magistrate, or Officer of the other State, to be the original depositions or affirmations, or to be true copies thereof, as the case may require.

3. A certificate of, or a judicial document stating the fact of a conviction, must purport to be certified by a Judge, Magistrate, or Officer of the other State.

4. In every case such warrant, deposition, affirmation, copy, certificate, or judicial document must be authenticated either by the oath of some witness, or by being sealed with the official seal of the Minister of Justice, or some other Minister of the other State; but any other mode of authentication for the time being permitted by law in the State where the examination is taken may be substituted for the foregoing.

ARTICLE XIII.

If the individual claimed by one of the two High Contracting Parties, in pursuance of the present Treaty, should be also claimed by one or several other Powers on account of other crimes or offences committed upon their respective territories, his extradition shall be granted to that State whose demand is earliest in date.

ARTICLE XIV.

If sufficient evidence for the extradition be not produced within two months from the date of the apprehension of the fugitive, or within such further time as the State applied to, or the proper Tribunal thereof shall direct, the fugitive shall be set at liberty.

ARTICLE XV.

All articles seized which were in the possession of the person to be surrendered at the time of his apprehension shall, if the competent authority of the State applied to for the extradition has ordered the delivery of such articles, be given up when the extradition takes place; and the said delivery shall extend, not merely to the stolen articles, but to everything that may serve as a proof of the crime.

detenido hubiera sido sometido á juicio, en caso de haberse perpetrado el delito en el territorio del mismo Estado; ya para probar que el preso es la misma persona condenada por los Tribunales del Estado que hace el requerimiento, y que el delito por el que fué condenado es de aquellos en punto á los cuales el Estado á quien se pidió la extradición, podía conceder esta en la época de la condenación. Ningun reo será entregado hasta despues de haber trascurrido quince dias contados desde la fecha en que fué puesto en prisión en espera del mandamiento para su entrega.

ARTICULO XII.

Las autoridades del Estado al que se pida la extradición, en el examen que deben hacer conforme á las precedentes estipulaciones, admitirán como pruebas válidas las deposiciones ó declaraciones de testigos, tomadas en el otro Estado bajo juramento ó bajo protesta de decir verdad, conforme lo prevenga su legislación, ó las copias de estas deposiciones ó declaraciones, é igualmente los mandamientos librados y sentencias pronunciadas en el Estado que pide la extradición, los certificados del hecho de la condenación, ó los documentos judiciales que lo comprueben, con tal que estén legalizados en la forma siguiente:—

1. Un mandamiento debe expresar que está firmado por un Juez, Magistrado, ó funcionario del otro Estado.

2. Las deposiciones ó declaraciones, ó sus copias, deben expresar que están certificadas por un Juez, Magistrado, ó funcionario del otro Estado, y que son las deposiciones ó declaraciones originales, ó copias exactas de las mismas, segun lo exija el caso.

3. Un certificado del hecho de la condenación, ó un documento judicial que lo compruebe, debe expresar que está certificado por un Juez, Magistrado, ó funcionario del otro Estado.

4. En todo caso, este mandamiento, deposición, declaración, copia, certificado, ó documento judicial serán legalizados ó por el juramento de algun testigo, ó sellándoseles con el sello oficial del Ministro de Justicia ú otro Ministro del otro Estado; pero cualquiera otra forma de legalización permitida por la ley en la época y en el Estado donde se haga el examen pueda ser sustituida por la precedente.

ARTICULO XIII.

Si el individuo reclamado por una de las dos Altas Partes Contratantes, en virtud del presente Tratado, lo fuere tambien por una ó por varias otras Potencias por razon de otros delitos cometidos en sus respectivos territorios, se concederá su extradición al Estado cuya demanda sea primera en fecha.

ARTICULO XIV.

Se pondrá en libertad al reo prófugo, si no se produce prueba suficiente para la extradición en el término de dos meses contados desde la fecha de su aprehensión, ó dentro del término que, además de estos dos meses, señale el Estado á quien se pide la extradición ó el Tribunal competente del mismo.

ARTICULO XV.

Todos los objetos secuestrados que, al tiempo de la aprehensión, estaban en poder del individuo á quien se ha de entregar, tambien serán entregados cuando la extradición tenga lugar; si la autoridad competente del Estado al que aquella se ha pedido, ordena la entrega de los mencionados objetos: dicha entrega se extenderá, no solo á los objetos robados, sino á todo lo que pueda servir de prueba del delito.

ARTICLE XVI.

All expenses connected with extradition shall be borne by the demanding State.

ARTICLE XVII.

The stipulations of the present Treaty shall be applicable to the Colonies and foreign possessions of Her Britannic Majesty, so far as the laws for the time being in force in such Colonies and foreign possessions respectively will allow.

The requisition for the surrender of a fugitive criminal who has taken refuge in any of such Colonies or foreign possessions shall be made to the Governor or chief authority of such Colony or possession by the Chief Consular Officer of the Republic of Mexico in such Colony or possession.

Such requisition may be disposed of, subject always, as nearly as may be, and so far as the law of such Colony or foreign possession will allow, to the provisions of this Treaty, by the said Governor or chief authority, who, however, shall be at liberty either to grant the surrender or to refer the matter to his Government.

Her Britannic Majesty shall, however, be at liberty to make special arrangements in the British Colonies and foreign possessions for the surrender of Mexican criminals who may take refuge within such Colonies and foreign possessions, on the basis, as nearly as may be, and so far as the law of such Colony or foreign possession will allow, of the provisions of the present Treaty.

Requisitions for the surrender of a fugitive criminal emanating from any Colony or foreign possession of Her Britannic Majesty shall be governed by the rules laid down in the preceding Articles of the present Treaty.

ARTICLE XVIII.

The present Treaty shall come into force ten days after its publication, in conformity with the forms prescribed by the laws of the High Contracting Parties. It may be terminated by either of the High Contracting Parties by a notice not exceeding one year and not less than six months.

The Treaty, after receiving the approval of the Congress of Mexico, shall be ratified, and the ratifications shall be exchanged at Mexico as soon as possible.
