

ordained by the notice of the Ministry of Justice, of April 27th, 1887, and March 12th, 1889, in pursuance of the Law of July 2nd, 1880, section I. 2, with respect to ships arriving in like manner from ports in Chile and from Palma, is withdrawn, as is likewise the prohibition contained in the aforesaid notice against the importation of the articles mentioned in section 32 of the Law, and the purification enjoined under official supervision of linen, wearing apparel, and bedclothes belonging to the personal effects of travellers from thence, is no longer required.

There are no quarantines in force at present.

The provisions of Section I. 2 of the Law of July 2, 1880, for the prevention of the introduction of contagious disorders into the kingdom will be in force henceforward with regard to the following places:—

Marseilles; Ports in Sicily; Trieste; Lisbon; all roadsteads in Egypt; Ports in Tonkin and Cochin China, as well as in the East Indies, including the Dutch East Indian Colonies; Ports in the Red Sea; Brazilian Ports; Cuba; Haiti; Porto Rico.

The prohibition against the importation into this Kingdom of used linen, wearing apparel, and bed clothes (not having formed part of passengers' travelling effects), rags, used wadding, carding wool, and paper waste, is put into force as regards all the places mentioned.

In addition, the purification under official supervision of linen, wearing apparel, and bed clothes, brought as travelling effects from any of the aforesaid places, will have to be attended to.

This notice takes effect immediately—May 8th, 1889.
