

The London Gazette.

Published by Authority.

FRIDAY, MAY 31, 1889.

Lord Chamberlain's Office, St. James's Palace,
May 6, 1889.

NOTICE is hereby given, that His Royal Highness The Prince of Wales will, by command of The Queen, hold a Levee at St. James's Palace, on behalf of Her Majesty, on Monday, the 3rd of June next, at two o'clock.

It is The Queen's pleasure that Presentations to His Royal Highness at the Levee shall be considered as equivalent to Presentations to Her Majesty.

REGULATIONS

TO BE OBSERVED AT THE QUEEN'S LEVEE TO BE HELD BY HIS ROYAL HIGHNESS THE PRINCE OF WALES, ON BEHALF OF HER MAJESTY, AT ST. JAMES'S PALACE.

By Her Majesty's Command,

The Noblemen and Gentlemen who propose to attend Her Majesty's Levee, at St. James's Palace, are requested to bring with them two large cards, with their names clearly written thereon, one to be left with The Queen's Page in attendance in the Corridor, and the other to be delivered to the Lord Chamberlain, who will announce the name to His Royal Highness.

PRESENTATIONS.

Any Nobleman or Gentleman who proposes to be presented, must leave at the Lord Chamberlain's Office, St. James's Palace, before twelve o'clock, two clear days before the Levee, a card with his name written thereon, and with the name of the Nobleman or Gentleman by whom he is to be presented. In order to carry out the existing regulations that no presentation can be made at a Levee excepting by a person actually attending that Levee, it is also necessary that an intimation from the Nobleman or Gentleman who is to make the presentation, of his intention to be present, should accompany the presentation card above referred to, which will be submitted to The Queen for Her Majesty's approbation. It is Her Majesty's command that no presentations shall be made at the Levee, except in accordance with the above regulations.

It is particularly requested, that in every case the names be very distinctly written upon the cards to be delivered to the Lord Chamberlain, in order that there may be no difficulty in announcing them to His Royal Highness.

The State Apartments will be open for the reception of Company coming to Court at half-past one o'clock.

LATHOM,

Lord Chamberlain.

AT the Court at Windsor, the 28th day of May, 1889.

PRESENT,

The QUEEN's Most Excellent Majesty.

Lord President.
Earl of Coventry.
Lord Ashbourne.

WHEREAS by the Extradition Acts, 1870 and 1873, it was amongst other things enacted, that where an arrangement has been made with any foreign State with respect to the surrender to such State of any fugitive criminals, Her Majesty may, by Order in Council, direct that the said Acts shall apply in the case of such foreign State; and that Her Majesty may, by the same or any subsequent Order, limit the operation of the Order, and restrict the same to fugitive criminals who are in or suspected of being in the part of Her Majesty's dominions specified in the Order, and render the operation thereof subject to such conditions, exceptions, and qualifications as may be deemed expedient; and that if, by any law made after the passing of the Act of 1870 by the Legislature of any British possession, provision is made for carrying into effect within such possession the surrender of fugitive criminals who are in, or suspected of being in, such British possession, Her Majesty may, by the Order in Council applying the said Acts in the case of any foreign State, or by any subsequent Order, suspend the operation within any such British possession of the said Acts, or of any part thereof, so far as it relates to such foreign State, and so long as such law continues in force there and no longer:

And whereas a Treaty was concluded on the fourth day of June, one thousand eight hundred and seventy-eight, between Her Majesty and the King of Spain for the mutual extradition of fugitive criminals:

And whereas by an Order of Her Majesty the Queen in Council, dated the twenty-seventh day of November, one thousand eight hundred and seventy-eight, it was directed that the Extradition Acts, 1870 and 1873, should apply in the case of Spain :

And whereas by an Act of the Parliament of Canada passed in 1886, entitled "An Act respecting the Extradition of Fugitive Criminals," provision is made for carrying into effect within the Dominion the surrender of fugitive criminals :

And whereas by an Order of Her Majesty the Queen in Council, dated the seventeenth day of November, one thousand eight hundred and eighty-eight, it was directed that the operation of the Extradition Acts, 1870 and 1873, should be suspended within the Dominion of Canada so long as the provisions of the said Act of the Parliament of Canada of 1886 should continue in force and no longer :

And whereas a Declaration was concluded on the nineteenth day of February, one thousand eight hundred and eighty-nine, between the Government of Her Majesty and the Government of His Majesty the King of Spain, for amending paragraph 5, Article II, and paragraph 5, Article VI, of the above-mentioned Treaty of the fourth June, one thousand eight hundred and seventy-eight, which Declaration is in the terms following :—

"THE Government of Her Majesty the Queen of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland, Empress of India, and the Government of His Majesty the King of Spain, being desirous to provide for the more effectual repression of crimes and offences in their respective territories, have authorized in due form the undersigned to agree as follows :—

"ARTICLE I.

"The English and Spanish texts of paragraph 5, Article II, of the Extradition Treaty of the 4th June, 1878, are cancelled, and the following text is substituted therefor :—

"Unlawful carnal knowledge or any attempt to have unlawful carnal knowledge of a girl under sixteen years of age. Indecent assault."

"ARTICLE II.

"The Spanish text of paragraph 5, Article VI, of the aforesaid Treaty is amended by the substitution of the words 'no menor' for the words 'que no podrá exceder,' so that the Spanish text shall run, 'A la terminacion de un plazo no menor de quince dias desde que se ordenó la prision y sujecion á juicio del preso,' &c.

"ARTICLE III.

"The present Declaration shall come into force ten days after its publication in the manner prescribed by law in the respective countries.

"In witness whereof the Undersigned have signed the same, and have affixed thereto the seal of their arms.

"Done at Madrid, in duplicate, the nineteenth day of February, in the year of our Lord one thousand eight hundred and eighty-nine.

"EL Gobierno de Su Majestad la Reina del Reino Unido de la Gran Bretaña é Irlanda, y Emperatriz de la India, y el Gobierno de Su Majestad el Rey de España, deseando hacer mas efectiva la represion de los delitos cometidos en sus respectivos territorios, han autorizado en debida forma á los Infrascritos para convenir en lo siguiente :—

"ARTICULO I.

"Los textos Español é Inglés del párrafo 5 del Artículo II del Convenio de Extradicion de 4 de Junio, de 1878, quedan anulados y se sustituyen del modo siguiente :—

"Comercio carnal ilícito ó tentativa del mismo delito en la persona de una jóven menor de diez y seis años de edad. Atentado contra el pudor."

"ARTICULO II.

"El texto Español del párrafo 5, Artículo VI, del antedicho Tratado queda enmendado, sustituyendose por las palabras 'no menor' las palabras 'que no podrá exceder,' de modo que el texto Español será 'á la terminacion de un plazo no menor de quince dias desde que se ordenó la prision y sujecion á juicio del preso,' &c.

"ARTICULO III.

"Esta Declaracion comenzará á regir diez dias despues de su publicacion en la forma prescrita en los respectivos paises.

"En fé de lo cual los Infrascritos la firman y ponen el sello de sus armas.

"Hecho en Madrid, por duplicado, á diez, y nueve de Febrero, de mil ochocientos ochenta y nueve.

Now, therefore, Her Majesty, by and with the advice of Her Privy Council, and in virtue of the authority committed to Her by the said recited Acts, doth order, and it is hereby ordered, that from and after the tenth day of June, one thousand eight hundred and eighty-nine, the said Acts shall apply in the case of the said Declaration of the nineteenth day of February, one thousand eight hundred and eighty-nine, with the Government of His Majesty the King of Spain, as fully to all intents and purposes as in the case of the said recited Treaty of the fourth day of June, one thousand eight hundred and seventy-eight :

Provided always, and it is hereby further ordered, that the operation of the said Acts shall be suspended within the Dominion of Canada so far as relates to the Kingdom of Spain and to the said Treaty and Declaration, and so long as the provisions of the Canadian Act aforesaid of 1886 continue in force, and no longer.

PRESENT,
The QUEEN's Most Excellent Majesty.
Lord President.
Earl of Coventry.
Lord Ashbourne.

WHEREAS by the provisions of the Patents, Designs, and Trade Marks Act, 1883, as amended by the Patents, Designs, and Trade

Marks (Amendment) Act, 1885, it is, amongst other things, provided

That if Her Majesty is pleased to make any arrangement with the government or governments of any foreign state or states for mutual protection of inventions, designs, and trade marks, or any of them, then any person who has applied for protection for any invention, design, or trade mark in any such state shall, subject to the conditions further provided and set forth in the said Act, be entitled to a patent for his invention or to registration of his design or trade mark (as the case may be) under the said Act in priority to other applicants, and such patent or registration shall have the same date as the date of the application in such foreign state :

And whereas it has pleased Her Majesty to make an arrangement with the Government of Mexico by and in virtue of a treaty entered into between Her Majesty and that State dated the twenty-seventh day of November, one thousand eight hundred and eighty-eight, and duly ratified on the eleventh day of February, one thousand eight hundred and eighty-nine, as regards the rights to which subjects or citizens of each of the contracting parties shall be entitled in the dominions and possessions of the other in regard to patents for inventions, designs, and trade marks :

Now therefore Her Majesty, by and with the advice of Her Privy Council, and by virtue of the authority committed to Her by the said first-mentioned Act, doth declare, and it is hereby declared that the provisions of the said Acts hereinbefore specified shall apply to the following country, viz. :

Mexico.

And it is further ordered and declared that this Order shall take effect so far as regards Patents at the expiration of seven months, and so far as regards Designs and Trade Marks at the expiration of four months from the day and date first above written.

WHEREAS by the "Foreign Deserters Act, 1852," it is provided that whenever it is made to appear to Her Majesty that due facilities are or will be given for recovering and apprehending seamen who desert from British merchant ships in the territories of any foreign power, Her Majesty may, by Order in Council stating that such facilities are or will be given, declare that seamen, not being slaves, who desert from merchant ships belonging to a subject of such power, when within Her Majesty's dominions, shall be liable to be apprehended and carried on board their respective ships, and may limit the operation of such Order, and may render the operation thereof, subject to such conditions and qualifications, if any, as may be deemed expedient :

And whereas it has been made to appear to Her Majesty that due facilities will be given for recovering and apprehending seamen who desert from British merchant ships in territories belonging to the United States of Mexico under a treaty between the Governments of Great Britain and the United States of Mexico, signed at the city of Mexico, on the twenty-seventh November, one thousand eight hundred and eighty-eight :

Now, therefore, Her Majesty, by virtue of the power vested in Her by the said "Foreign Deserters Act, 1852," and by and with the advice of Her Privy Council, is pleased to order and declare, and it is hereby ordered and declared, that from and after the publication hereof in the London Gazette, seamen, not being slaves, and not being British subjects, who, within Her Majesty's dominions, desert from merchant ships belonging to citizens of the United States of Mexico, shall be liable to be apprehended and carried on board their respective ships: Provided always, that if any such deserter has committed any crime in Her Majesty's dominions, he may be detained until he has been tried by a competent Court, and until his sentence, if any, has been fully carried into effect :

And the Secretary of State for the Home Department, the Secretary of State for the Colonies, and the Secretary of State for India in Council are to give the necessary directions herein accordingly.

WHEREAS the West Indian Incumbered Estates Acts, 1854 to 1872, are in operation in the Colony of Grenada :

And whereas an address from the Legislature of the said Colony has been presented to Her Majesty, praying for an Order of Her Majesty in Council to be made in pursuance of the West Indian Incumbered Estates Act, 1886, directing that the West Indian Incumbered Estates Acts, 1854 to 1872, shall cease to be in operation in the said Colony :

Now, therefore, in pursuance of the power for that purpose given to Her Majesty by the West Indian Incumbered Estates Act, 1886, it is hereby ordered by Her Majesty, by and with the advice of Her Privy Council, as follows :—

I. Subject as in this Order is mentioned, the West Indian Incumbered Estates Acts, 1854 to 1872, shall cease to be in operation in the Colony of Grenada as from the first day of August, one thousand eight hundred and eighty-nine, hereinafter referred to as the appointed day.

II. This Order shall not affect the operation of the said Acts prior to the appointed day, nor anything done, nor any right acquired, nor any liability incurred thereunder prior to the appointed day.

III. All proceedings under the said Acts in relation to any land in the said Colony, which shall have been commenced before but not completed on or before the appointed day, shall be continued and completed as if this Order had not been made, and for the purpose of continuing and completing such proceedings the powers and authorities and jurisdiction of the West Indian Incumbered Estates Commissioners under the said Acts shall continue until all such proceedings shall be completed.

IV. For the purposes of this Order proceedings under the said Acts shall be deemed to be completed : (1) in the case of an application for sale, when either the application has been refused or the land has been sold, and the conveyance thereof to the purchaser or purchasers has been executed by the said Commissioners, and the purchase-money (except any part thereof which is not immediately distributable, or the parties entitled to which cannot be ascertained) has been distributed under the order of the said Commissioners, and all questions or matters incidental to such conveyance or distribution shall have been disposed of by the said Commissioners ; and (2), in the case of an application for partition, exchange, or division, when either the application has been refused, or an order for partition, exchange, or division has been made, and all or any conveyances necessary for giving effect to such order shall have been executed, and all questions and matters incidental to such partition, exchange, or division shall have been disposed of by the said Commissioners.

V. When the proceedings under the said Acts in any matter relating to land in the said Colony have been completed, the said Commissioners shall, as soon as possible after such completion, or, in case the proceedings shall have been completed on or before the appointed day, as soon as possible after the appointed day, order any money in the Bank of England, and any stocks, funds, or securities standing to their account, or held by them to the credit of such matter, to be transferred to the account of Her Majesty's Paymaster General for and on behalf of the Supreme Court of Judicature, to the credit of an account to be entitled, in the matter of the West Indian Incumbered Estates Acts, 1854 to 1886, and in the matter of the particular estate, on account of which such moneys, stocks, funds, or securities were held before such transfer, in trust to attend the orders of the Chancery Division of the High Court of Justice.

VI. The said Commissioners may by any such order declare the trusts affecting the moneys, stocks, funds, or securities to be transferred or paid thereunder, so far as they have ascertained the same, or may state for the information of the Chancery Division of the High Court of Justice the facts or matters found by them in relation to the rights and interests in such moneys, stocks, funds, or securities, and the said Chancery Division may thereafter make such orders with respect to such moneys, stocks, funds, or securities as the circumstances of the case may require. Provided always, that the Paymaster General shall give effect to any order made by the High Court of Justice or any Judge thereof upon application by summons in Chambers for the payment of the interest or dividends of any stocks, funds, or securities so transferred as aforesaid, confirming any order which shall have been made by the said Commissioners before the transfer thereof.

And one of Her Majesty's Principal Secretaries of State is to give the necessary directions herein accordingly.

WHEREAS the West Indian Incumbered Estates Acts, 1854 to 1872, are in operation in the Colony of Saint Vincent :

And whereas an address from the Legislature of the said Colony has been presented to Her Majesty, praying for an Order of Her Majesty in Council to be made in pursuance of the West Indian Incumbered Estates Act, 1886, directing that the West Indian Incumbered Estates Acts, 1854 to 1872, shall cease to be in operation in the said Colony :

Now, therefore, in pursuance of the power for that purpose given to Her Majesty by the West Indian Incumbered Estates Act, 1886, it is hereby ordered by Her Majesty, by and with the advice of Her Privy Council, as follows :—

I. Subject as in this Order is mentioned, the West Indian Incumbered Estates Acts, 1854 to 872, shall cease to be in operation in the Colony of Saint Vincent as from the first day of August one thousand eight hundred and eighty-nine, hereinafter referred to as the appointed day.

II. This Order shall not affect the operation of the said Acts prior to the appointed day, nor anything done, nor any right acquired, nor any liability incurred thereunder prior to the appointed day.

III. All proceedings under the said Acts in relation to any land in the said Colony, which shall have been commenced before but not completed on or before the appointed day, shall be continued and completed as if this Order had not been made, and for the purpose of continuing and completing such proceedings the powers and authorities and jurisdiction of the West Indian Incumbered Estates Commissioners under the said Acts shall continue until all such proceedings shall be completed.

IV. For the purposes of this Order proceedings under the said Acts shall be deemed to be completed : (1) in the case of an application for sale, when either the application has been refused or the land has been sold, and the conveyance thereof to the purchaser or purchasers has been executed by the said Commissioners, and the purchase money (except any part thereof which is not immediately distributable, or the parties entitled to which cannot be ascertained) has been distributed under the order of the said Commissioners, and all questions or matters incidental to such conveyance or distribution shall have been disposed of by the said Commissioners ; and (2), in the case of an application for partition, exchange, or division, when either the application has been refused, or an order for partition, exchange, or division has been made, and all or any conveyances necessary for giving effect to such order shall have been executed, and all questions and matters incidental to such partition, exchange, or division shall have been disposed of by the said Commissioners.

V. When the proceedings under the said Acts in any matter relating to land in the said colony have been completed, the said Commissioners shall, as soon as possible after such completion, or, in case the proceedings shall have been completed on or before the appointed day, as soon as possible after the appointed day, order any money in the Bank of England, and any stocks, funds, or securities, standing to their account, or held by them to the credit of such matter, to be transferred to the account of Her Majesty's Paymaster-General for and on behalf of the Supreme Court of Judicature, to the credit of an account to be entitled, in the matter of the West Indian Incumbered Estates Acts, 1854 to 1886, and in the matter of the particular estate, on account of which such moneys, stocks, funds, or securities were held before such transfer, in trust to attend the orders of the Chancery Division of the High Court of Justice.

VI. The said Commissioners may by any such order declare the trusts affecting the moneys, stocks, funds, or securities to be transferred or paid thereunder, so far as they have ascertained the same, or may state for the information of the Chancery Division of the High Court of Justice the facts or matters found by them in relation to the rights and interests in such moneys, stocks, funds, or securities, and the said Chancery Division may thereafter make such orders with respect to such moneys, stocks, funds, or securities as the circumstances of the case may require. Provided always, that the Paymaster-General shall give effect to any order made by the High Court of Justice or any Judge thereof upon application by summons in Chambers for the payment of the interest or dividends of any stocks, funds, or securities so transferred as aforesaid, confirming any order which shall have been made by the said Commissioners before the transfer thereof.

PRESENT:

The QUEEN's Most Excellent Majesty.

Lord President.

Earl of Coventry.

Lord Ashbourne.

WHEREAS the West Indian Incumbered Estates Acts, 1854 to 1872, are in operation in the Colony of the Leeward Islands, comprising the Presidencies of Antigua, Saint Christopher-Nevis, Dominica, Montserrat, and the Virgin Islands:

And whereas an address from the Legislature of the said Colony, and addresses from the Legislatures of each of the said Presidencies, have been presented to Her Majesty, praying for an Order of Her Majesty in Council to be made in pursuance of the West Indian Incumbered Estates Act, 1886, directing that the West Indian Incumbered Estates Acts, 1854 to 1872, shall cease to be in operation in the said Colony:

Now, therefore, in pursuance of the power for that purpose given to Her Majesty by the West Indian Incumbered Estates Act, 1886, it is hereby ordered by Her Majesty, by and with the advice of Her Privy Council, as follows:—

I. Subject as in this Order is mentioned, the West Indian Incumbered Estates Acts, 1854 to 1872, shall cease to be in operation in the Colony of the Leeward Islands as from the first day of August, one thousand eight hundred and eighty-nine, hereinafter referred to as the appointed day.

II. This Order shall not affect the operation of the said Acts prior to the appointed day, nor anything done, nor any right acquired, nor any liability incurred thereunder prior to the appointed day.

III. All proceedings under the said Acts in relation to any land in the said Colony, which shall have been commenced before but not completed on or before the appointed day, shall be continued and completed as if this Order had not been made, and for the purpose of continuing and completing such proceedings the powers and authorities and jurisdiction of the West Indian Incumbered Estates Commissioners under the said Acts shall continue until all such proceedings shall be completed.

IV. For the purposes of this Order proceedings under the said Acts shall be deemed to be completed: (1) in the case of an application for sale, when either the application has been refused or the land has been sold, and the conveyance thereof to the purchaser or purchasers has been executed by the said Commissioners, and the purchase money (except any part thereof which is not immediately distributable, or the parties entitled to which cannot be ascertained) has been distributed under the Order of the said Commissioners, and all questions or matters incidental to such conveyance or distribution shall have been disposed of by the said Commissioners; and (2), in the case of an application for partition, exchange, or division, when either the application has been refused, or an order for partition, exchange, or division has been made, and all or any conveyances necessary for giving effect to such Order shall have been executed, and all questions and matters incidental to such partition, exchange, or division shall have been disposed of by the said Commissioners.

V. When the proceedings under the said Acts in any matter relating to land in the said Colony have been completed, the said Commissioners shall, as soon as possible after such completion, or, in case the proceedings shall have been completed on or before the appointed day, as soon as possible after the appointed day, order any money in the Bank of England, and any stocks, funds, or securities (except the stock mentioned in the Schedule to this Order) standing to their account, or held by them to the credit of such matter, to be transferred to the account of Her Majesty's Paymaster General for and on behalf of the Supreme Court of Judicature, to the credit of an account to be entitled, In the matter of the West Indian Incumbered Estates Acts, 1854 to 1886, and in the matter of the particular estate, on account of which such moneys, stocks, funds, or securities were held before such transfer, in trust to attend the orders of the Chancery Division of the High Court of Justice.

VI. The said Commissioners may by any such order declare the trusts affecting the moneys, stocks, funds, or securities to be transferred or paid thereunder, so far as they have ascertained the same, or may state for the information of the Chancery Division of the High Court of Justice the facts or matters found by them in relation to the rights and interests in such moneys, stocks, funds, or securities, and the said Chancery Division may thereafter make such orders with respect to such moneys, stocks, funds, or securities as the circumstances of the case may require. Provided always, that the Paymaster General shall give effect to any order made by the High Court of Justice or any Judge thereof upon application by summons in chambers for the payment of the interest or dividends of any stocks, funds, or securities so transferred as aforesaid, confirming any order which shall have been made by the said Commissioners before the transfer thereof.

VII. The said Commissioners shall forthwith cause a notification to be published in the London Gazette and some London daily newspaper, and also in the Government Gazette of the Presidency of Saint Christopher-Nevis, stating that the stock specified in the Schedule to this Order or the money invested in the purchase thereof has been standing to the credit of the account specified in the same Schedule for upwards of eighteen years without any claim thereto having been established, and that unless a claim thereto is laid before the Commissioners before the first day of November one thousand eight hundred and eighty-nine, and established to their satisfaction, the said stock will be sold, and the proceeds of the sale thereof, and any interest which shall have accrued due thereon before such sale, will be paid to the Government of Saint Christopher-Nevis, to be applied as part of the public revenue of Saint Christopher-Nevis.

If a claim or claims to the said stock shall be laid before the said Commissioners before the first day of November one thousand eight hundred and eighty-nine, and shall be established to the satisfaction of the said Commissioners, the said stock, and any interest which shall have accrued due thereon, shall, subject to the payment thereof of such costs and expenses as the said Commissioners shall direct, be transferred and paid to the person or persons entitled thereto; if no claim to the said stock shall be so made before the said first day of November one thousand eight hundred and eighty-nine, or if no claim made before that day to the said stock shall be established to the satisfaction of the said Commissioners, then immediately after the said day, or after the claim or all the claims to the said stock shall have been rejected by the said Commissioners, whichever shall last happen, the said Commissioners shall order the said stock to be sold, and shall pay out of the proceeds of such sale the cost of the publication of the said notices, and shall order the balance of such money and any interest which shall have accrued due on the said stock to be paid to the Crown Agents for the Colonies as Agents for the Government of Saint Christopher-Nevis, and such balance shall be applied as part of the public revenue of Saint Christopher-Nevis.

And one of Her Majesty's Principal Secretaries of State is to give the necessary directions herein accordingly.

PRESENT,

The QUEEN's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS by an Act passed in the forty-fifth and forty-sixth years of Her Majesty's reign intituled "The Militia Act, 1832," it is amongst other things enacted that, save as therein otherwise provided, the Militia shall be trained and exercised for not less than twenty-one days and not more than twenty-eight days in every year, at such times and at such places in every part of the United Kingdom, as Her Majesty may appoint, and also that Her Majesty may, from time to time, with the advice of Her Privy Council, order that the period of training and exercise, in any year, of all or any part of the Militia be extended, but so that the whole period of training and exercise be not more than fifty-six days.

And whereas it is expedient that the training of the 2nd Brigade, Northern Division, Royal Artillery (formerly the Durham Artillery Militia), and the 5th Brigade, South Irish Division, Royal Artillery (formerly the 1st or South Tipperary Artillery Militia) and also of the Royal Anglesey Engineer Militia, Fortress Forces, Royal Engineers, the Royal Monmouthshire Engineer Militia, Fortress Forces, Royal Engineers, and of the several Divisions of the Engineer Militia, Submarine Miners, Royal Engineers, should be extended beyond the period of twenty-eight days for the year one thousand eight hundred and eighty-nine.

Now therefore, Her Majesty, with the advice of Her Privy Council, is pleased to order and direct that the period of training and exercise of the before-mentioned Brigades, Regiments and Divisions of Militia shall, for the year one thousand eight hundred and eighty-nine, be extended, under the provisions of the before-cited Act, from twenty-eight days to the number of days in each case hereinafter mentioned; that is to say:—

2nd Brigade, Northern Division, Royal Artillery, thirty-four (34) days.

5th Brigade, South Irish Division, Royal Artillery, thirty-four (34) days.

Royal Anglesey Engineer Militia, Fortress Forces, Royal Engineers, forty-one (41) days.

Royal Monmouthshire Engineer Militia, Forress Forces, Royal Engineers, forty-one (41) days.

Portsmouth (Engineer Militia) Division Submarine Miners, Royal Engineers, fifty-six (56) days.

Harwich (Engineer Militia) Division, Submarine Miners, Royal Engineers, fifty-six (56) days.

Milford Haven (Engineer Militia) Division Submarine Miners, Royal Engineers, fifty-six (56) days.

South Wales and Severn (Engineer Militia) Division, Submarine Miners, Royal Engineers, fifty-six (56) days.
C. L. Peel.

AT the Court at Windsor, the 28th day of May, 1889.

PRESENT,

The QUEEN's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS by the eleventh section of the Volunteer Act, 1863, it is amongst other things enacted that "Her Majesty in Council may from time to time declare what is requisite to entitle a Volunteer to be deemed an efficient Volunteer, by an Order in Council defining for that purpose the extent of attendance at drill to be given by the Volunteer, and the course of instruction to be gone through by him, and the degree of proficiency in drill and instruction to be attained by him and his Corps, such proficiency to be judged of by the Inspecting Officer at the Annual Inspection of the Corps, or otherwise as by Order in Council is from time to time directed"; and "that the draft of any scheme to be from time to time submitted to Her Majesty in Council for approval under the present section shall have been laid before both Houses of Parliament for one lunar month at least, either before or after, or partly before and partly after, the passing of this Act during the present or for the like period during any subsequent Session of Parliament, before such "scheme receives the approval of Her Majesty in Council."

And whereas it is deemed expedient that the Order in Council bearing date the thirty-first day of July, one thousand eight hundred and eighty, declaring what is requisite to entitle a Volunteer to be deemed an efficient Volunteer, be amended by adding to clause ten of such scheme the words shown in the first paragraph of the schedule to this Order annexed; and also that the scheme in question be varied by the adoption of the three Forms of Certificate of Efficiency for the Volunteer Divisions of Submarine Miners, Royal Engineers, set forth in such schedule, in lieu of those mentioned in the second, third, and fourth paragraphs of the schedule, hitherto in force:

And whereas the proposed addition to paragraph ten of the scheme in question, and the proposed new Forms of Certificates of Efficiency, were on the fourth March, one thousand eight hundred and eighty-nine, laid before both Houses of Parliament in the words mentioned and set forth in the schedule to this Order attached, and one lunar month having elapsed since that time, the said amendment of the said scheme hath this day been submitted to Her Majesty for Her approval thereof:

Now therefore, Her Majesty having this day taken the said amendment into consideration, doth, in pursuance and exercise of the power in Her Majesty by the said Act of Parliament, in that behalf vested, and by and with the advice of Her Privy Council, hereby vary the Order in Council of the thirty-first day of July, one thousand eight hundred and eighty, and doth declare Her royal approval of the said amendment thereof.

C. L. Peel.

SCHEDULE.

AMENDMENT of the Scheme relative to the Efficiency of Volunteers in force under Her Majesty's Order in Council dated thirty-first July, one thousand eight hundred and eighty.

To add to Clause 10 of the Scheme in question the following words:—

"And likewise where, in very special circumstances, any regiment or corps shall in the first year of its service have encountered exceptional difficulties in the completion of its organisation and the efficiency of its members, it shall be similarly competent to such Secretary of State to modify, so far as applies to such first year of service, the stipulated conditions for efficiency of the members of such regiment or corps."

To substitute for the now existing form of certificate of efficiency for Officers of Engineer Volunteer Corps (Submarine Miners), now known as Volunteer Divisions of Submarine Miners, Royal Engineers, a form in the words of the copy-certificate hereto annexed;

To substitute for the now existing form of certificate of efficiency for Sergeants of Engineer Volunteer Corps (Submarine Miners), now known as Volunteer Divisions of Submarine Miners, Royal Engineers, a form in the words of the copy-certificate hereto annexed;

To substitute for the now existing form of certificate of efficiency for Non-commissioned Officers of rank lower than that of Sergeant, and for Sappers of Engineer Volunteer Corps (Submarine Miners), now known as Volunteer Divisions of Submarine Miners, Royal Engineers, a form in the words of the copy-certificate hereto annexed.

Notes.

1. An officer of a Volunteer Division of Submarine Miners, Royal Engineers, shall be returned as efficient as follows, viz.:—He shall have attended a two months' course at the School of Military Engineering, Chatham, and have received a recommendation from the Commandant that his name shall be included in the efficiency return of his Division. He shall further attend the annual exercise of his Division for the full period authorized, and shall attend annually 20 submarine mining drills of the non-commissioned officers or sappers of his Division who may be under instruction in those drills.

2. During the first year of his appointment an officer may be returned as efficient provided:—

(a) He shall have attended the annual exercise and a course of instruction at the School of Military Engineering, Chatham, for one month; or, in lieu of the month's instruction, he shall have passed an examination at Chatham in one of the Parts of the submarine mining course.

(b) If he has not attended a course at the School of Military Engineering, he shall have attended 40 submarine mining drills and the annual exercise.

3. Officers to whom it is more convenient to receive the instruction locally will only be required to attend at the School of Military Engineering, for the purpose of passing an examination in Parts I and II of the submarine mining instruction prescribed by the Regulations for the Volunteer Force, once in the course of their first two years of service, for a period of not more than 14 days; or if unable to pass in both Parts at one examination, then for a second period not exceeding 14 days for the examination in Part II.

4. In special cases where it is found impossible for officers to attend the annual exercise, a certificate may be granted, provided that each officer shall have attended 60 submarine mining drills in lieu of 20 drills and the annual exercise.

5. The minimum duration of each of these drills should not be less than one hour's actual submarine mining work.

6. Submarine mining work extending over a period of 2½ hours on the same day may be allowed to count as two drills, and if consisting of actual practice in laying out and picking up mines and cables, and in junction-box boat work in the mine field, a period of 3½ hours may be allowed to count as three drills, and 4½ hours as four drills towards the number required for efficiency.

PRESENT,

The QUEEN'S Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS by an Act passed in the first session of Parliament holden in the first and second years of the reign of Her present Majesty, intituled "An Act to abridge the holding of benefices in plurality, and to make better provision for the residence of the clergy," it is, amongst other things, enacted, "That whenever it shall appear to the Archbishop of the province, with respect to his own diocese, and whenever it shall be represented to him by the Bishop of any diocese, or by the Bishops of any two

“ dioceses, that two or more benefices, or that one or more benefice or benefices, and one or more spiritual sinecure rectory or rectories, vicarage or vicarages, in his or their diocese or dioceses, being either in the same parish or contiguous to each other, and of which the aggregate population shall not exceed one thousand five hundred persons, may, with advantage to the interests of religion, be united into one benefice, the said Archbishop of the province shall inquire into the circumstances of the case; and if on such inquiry it shall appear to him that such union may be usefully made, and will not be of inconvenient extent, and that the patron or patrons of the said benefices, sinecure rectory or rectories, vicarage or vicarages respectively, is or are consenting thereto, such consent being signified in writing under the hands of such patron or patrons, the said Archbishop shall, six weeks before certifying such inquiry and consent to Her Majesty as hereinafter directed, cause, with respect to his own diocese, a statement in writing of the facts, and in other cases a copy in writing of the aforesaid representation to be affixed on or near the principal outer door of the church, or in some public and conspicuous place in each of such benefices, sinecure rectories, or vicarages, with notice to any person or persons interested, that he, she, or they, may, within such six weeks, show cause in writing under his, her, or their hand or hands, to the said Archbishop, against such union; and if no sufficient cause be shown within such time, the said Archbishop shall certify the inquiry and consent aforesaid to Her Majesty in Council, and thereupon it shall be lawful for Her Majesty in Council to make and issue an Order or Orders for uniting such benefices, sinecure rectory or rectories, vicarage or vicarages, into one benefice, with cure of souls, for ecclesiastical purposes only; and it shall be lawful for Her Majesty in Council to give directions for regulating the course and succession in which the patrons, if there be more than one patron, shall present or nominate to such united benefice, from time to time, as the same shall become vacant.”

And whereas the Lord Archbishop of Canterbury pursuant to the provisions of the said Act, hath duly prepared and laid before Her Majesty in Council a certificate in writing, bearing date the sixth day of April in the year of our Lord one thousand eight hundred and eighty-nine, in the words following, that is to say:—

“ To the QUEEN’s Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

“ We the undersigned Edward White Archbishop of the Province of Canterbury Primate of all England and Metropolitan do hereby certify to Your Majesty in Council

“ That the Right Reverend Edward Henry Lord Bishop of Exeter as Bishop of the diocese within which are situate the rectory of Saint Stephen in the city of Exeter and the rectory of Saint Martin in the same city having represented unto us that the said benefices being contiguous to each other and of which the aggregate population does not exceed six hundred persons might with advantage to the interests of religion be united into one benefice we enquired into the circumstances of the case.

“ That on such enquiry it appeared to us that such union might be usefully made and would not be of inconvenient extent and that the said Lord Bishop of Exeter as the patron or person entitled to collate to the said rectory of Saint Stephen if the same were now vacant and the Venerable the Dean and Chapter of the cathedral church of Saint Peter in Exeter as the patrons or persons entitled to present to the said rectory of Saint Martin if the same were now vacant consent to the proposed union.

“ That six weeks and upwards before certifying such enquiry and consents to Your Majesty in Council we caused a copy in writing of the aforesaid representation of the said Lord Bishop to be affixed on the principal outer door of the parish church of each of the said benefices with notice to any person or persons interested that he she or they might within such six weeks show cause in writing under his her or their hand or hands to us the said Archbishop against such union and no such cause has been shown.

“ The representation of the said Lord Bishop of Exeter our enquiry into the circumstances of the case the statement of circumstances in reply thereto the consent in writing of the patrons and the copies of the representation and notice before mentioned are hereunto annexed.

“ And we do hereby certify the enquiry and consent aforesaid to Your Majesty in Council to the intent that Your Majesty in Council may in case Your Majesty in Council shall think fit so to do make and issue an Order for uniting the said benefices into one benefice with cure of souls for ecclesiastical purposes and for declaring that the course and succession in which the respective patrons for the time being shall collate or present to the said benefices, after the same shall be united into one benefice from time to time as the same shall become vacant shall be as follows that is to say the Lord Bishop of Exeter (the present patron of the said rectory of Saint Stephen) and his successors and the Dean and Chapter of the cathedral church of Saint Peter in Exeter (the present patrons of the said rectory of Saint Martin) and their successors shall collate or present to the said united benefices alternately and the said Lord Bishop of Exeter and his successors shall have the first turn to collate thereto and shall accordingly collate thereto on the next avoidance thereof.

“ As witness our hand this sixth day of April in the year of Our Lord one thousand eight hundred and eighty-nine. “ Edw. Cantuar.”

Now therefore Her Majesty in Council, by and with the advice of Her said Council, is pleased to order, as it is hereby ordered, that the rectory of Saint Stephen situate in the city and diocese of Exeter, and the rectory of Saint Martin, situate in the same city and diocese, shall be united into one benefice with cure of souls for ecclesiastical purposes only.

And Her Majesty in Council, by and with the advice of Her said Council, is further pleased to direct that the course and succession in which the respective patrons shall present or nominate to such united benefice, from time to time, as the same shall become vacant, shall be as follows that is to say:—The Lord Bishop of Exeter (the present patron of the said rectory of Saint Stephen) and his successors, and the Dean and Chapter of the cathedral church of Saint Peter in Exeter (the present patrons of the said rectory of Saint Martin) and their successors; shall collate, or present, to the said united benefice alternately; and the said Lord Bishop of Exeter and his successors shall have the first turn to collate thereto, and shall accordingly collate thereto on the next avoidance thereof.

C. L. Peel.

AT the Court at Windsor, the 28th day of May, 1889.

PRESENT,

The QUEEN'S Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS by an Act passed in the first session of the Parliament holden in the first and second years of the reign of Her present Majesty, intituled "An Act to abridge the holding of benefices in plurality, and to make better provision for the residence of the clergy," after reciting that "Whereas in some instances tithings, hamlets, chapelries, and other places or districts may be separated from the parishes or mother churches to which they belong, with great advantage, and places altogether extra-parochial may in some instances with advantage be annexed to parishes or districts to which they are contiguous, or be constituted separate parishes for ecclesiastical purposes," it is, amongst other things, enacted, "That when with respect to his own diocese it shall appear to the Archbishop of the Province, or when the Bishop of any diocese shall represent to the said Archbishop that any such tithing, hamlet, chapelry, place, or district within the diocese of such Archbishop, or the diocese of such Bishop, as the case may be, may be advantageously separated from any parish or mother church, and either be constituted a separate benefice by itself or be united to any other parish to which it may be more conveniently annexed, or to any other adjoining tithing, hamlet, chapelry, place, or district, parochial or extra-parochial, so as to form a separate parish or benefice, or that any extra-parochial place may with advantage be annexed to any parish to which it is contiguous, or be constituted a separate parish for ecclesiastical purposes; and the said Archbishop or Bishop shall draw up a scheme in writing (the scheme of such Bishop to be transmitted to the said Archbishop for his consideration) describing the mode in which it appears to him that the alteration may best be effected; and how the changes consequent on such alteration in respect to ecclesiastical jurisdiction, glebe lands, tithes, rent-charges, and other ecclesiastical dues, rates, and payments, and in respect to patronage and rights to pews, may be made with justice to all parties interested; and if the patron or patrons of the benefice or benefices to be affected by such alteration shall consent in writing under his or their hands to such scheme, or to such modification thereof as the said Archbishop may approve, and the said Archbishop shall, on full consideration and inquiry, be satisfied with any such scheme, or modification thereof, and shall certify the same and such consent as aforesaid by his report to Her Majesty in Council, it shall be lawful for Her Majesty in Council to make an Order for carrying such scheme, or modification thereof, as the case may be, into effect."

And whereas by another Act of Parliament passed in the second and third years of the reign of Her present Majesty, intituled "An Act to make better provision for the assignment of ecclesiastical districts to churches or chapels augmented by the Governors of the Bounty of Queen Anne; and for other purposes," it is, amongst other things, enacted, "That any such scheme or modification as aforesaid may be drawn up according to the regulations and directions in the hereinbefore in part recited Act contained, subject to the consent in writing of the patron or patrons of the benefice or benefices to be affected thereby, under his or

"their hands, notwithstanding the vacancy of such benefice or benefices; and it shall be lawful for Her Majesty in Council thereupon to make an Order for carrying such scheme of modification thereof, as the case may be, into effect; and such Order being registered in the registry of the diocese, as directed by the hereinbefore in part recited Act, shall come into operation, and shall be forthwith binding on all persons whatsoever, notwithstanding such vacancy or vacancies."

And whereas by the Act now in recital it is, amongst other things, further enacted, "That when by any Order of Her Majesty in Council, as aforesaid, a separate parish for ecclesiastical purposes is constituted, the same shall, on registration thereof, and with the consent in writing of the incumbent or incumbents of the benefice or benefices to be thereby affected, become a perpetual curacy and benefice, and the minister thereof, duly nominated and licensed thereto, and his successors, shall be a body politic and corporate, with perpetual succession, and may receive and take to himself and his successors all such lands, tenements, tithes, rent-charges, and hereditaments as shall be granted unto him or them, and such perpetual curate shall thenceforth have within the limits of the district parish formed under the Church Building Acts, for the church of such perpetual curacy, sole and exclusive cure of souls, and shall not in anywise be subject to the controul or interference of the incumbent or incumbents of the benefice or benefices to be affected by such Order, if he or they shall have consented to such Order as aforesaid."

And whereas Edward Henry, Lord Bishop of Exeter, hath represented in a writing dated the twenty-seventh February one thousand eight hundred and eighty-nine to the Right Honourable and Most Reverend Edward White, Lord Archbishop of Canterbury, as follows:—

"To the Most Reverend Edward White by Divine Providence Lord Archbishop of Canterbury.

"We Edward Henry by Divine permission Bishop of Exeter do hereby represent to your Grace as follows:

"1. There is in the county of Devon and my diocese of Exeter the rectory of Bridestowe which comprises the parish of Bridestowe and the parochial chapelry of Sourton the boundaries of which parish and chapelry respectively are well known and defined.

"2. According to the last census the population of the said parish of Bridestowe is six hundred and forty-two and the population of the said chapelry of Sourton is five hundred and fourteen.

"3. The said parish and chapelry respectively have each its own church for the exclusive use and accommodation of its own inhabitants and each has its own churchwardens and parish officers and baptisms churchings marriages and burials and all ecclesiastical parochial offices have from time immemorial been and are now performed in the said churches respectively for the inhabitants of the same parish and chapelry respectively.

"4. The said churches are distant from each other two miles or thereabouts.

"5. There is a residence house belonging to the said rectory of Bridestowe situate within that parish and the endowments of the said rectory consist (besides the said residence house) of the rectorial rent-charges in lieu of tithes arising within the parish of Bridestowe commuted at the sum of three hundred and seventeen pounds of the rectorial rent-charges in lieu of tithes arising within the chapelry of Sourton commuted at the sum of two hundred and fifty-eight pounds, of glebe land in possession situate in the parish of Bridestowe containing sixty-six acres and twenty-six perches or thereabouts of the annual value of one hundred and forty-eight pounds or thereabouts of a Wood called the Parsonage Wood in the parish of Lydford in the county of Devon containing thirteen acres or thereabouts of the annual value of seven pounds or thereabouts of a manor called the Sanctuary Manor consisting of four tenements called respectively South Ball, North Ball, East Ball and Standen all of which are outstanding for certain copyhold estates or interests therein for a life or lives and in respect of which the following yearly conventional rents are payable to the rector of Bridestowe namely for South Ball one pound North Ball one pound four shillings East Ball one pound six shillings and eight pence and Standen eighteen shillings and which said tenements are each of the annual value of sixty pounds or thereabouts and of the surplice fees arising within the said parish of Bridestowe with the said chapelry of Sourton.

"6. The said rectory is now subject to two mortgages in favour of the Governors of the Bounty of Queen Anne in respect of which balances of principal moneys amounting to seventy-eight pounds nine shillings and one hundred and nineteen pounds fifteen shillings and five pence together with the interest payable in respect of the same respectively remain due and the said rectory is also subject to a perpetual annual fee farm rent of six pounds thirteen shillings and four pence.

"7. The Bishop of Exeter in right of his See is the patron of the said rectory.

"8. The said rectory is now vacant by the death of the last incumbent thereof.

"9. It appears to me that under the provisions of the Acts of Parliament of the first and second years of Her present Majesty chapter 106 and the second and third years of Her said Majesty chapter 49 the said chapelry of Sourton may be advantageously separated from the parish of Bridestowe and be constituted a separate parish for ecclesiastical purposes and a perpetual curacy and benefice.

"10. Pursuant to the direction contained in the 26th section of the said first mentioned Act of Parliament I have prepared the following scheme which together with my consent in writing as the patron of the said benefice I submit to your Grace to the intent that your Grace may if on full consideration and enquiry you shall be satisfied with the said scheme certify the same to Her Majesty in Council.

"Given under my hand this twenty-seventh day of February, one thousand eight hundred and eighty-nine.
"E. H. Exm."

And whereas the said scheme drawn up by the said Bishop and the consent referred to in the representation are as follows:—

"SCHEME.

"That the whole of the chapelry of Sourton be separated from the rectory and parish of Bridestowe and be constituted a separate parish for ecclesiastical purposes and a perpetual curacy and benefice by the name or style of the Perpetual Curacy of Sourton of which the church within the same chapelry of Sourton shall be the parish church and that the rector of Bridestowe shall be discharged from all cure of souls within the limits of the said separate parish of Sourton.

"That the proposed separate parish and benefice of Sourton shall be subject to the same ecclesiastical jurisdiction as the said rectory of Bridestowe and the incumbent of such separate parish and benefice shall have the exclusive cure of souls within the limits of the same.

"That the whole of the rectorial rent-charges in lieu of tithes payable in respect of lands within the said chapelry of Sourton and all the Wood called the Parsonage Wood in the parish of Lydford in the county of Devon containing thirteen acres or thereabouts and all the tenements called South Ball and Standen forming part of the sanctuary manor belonging to the said rectory (subject to the outstanding copyhold interests for a life or lives now subsisting therein respectively) together with the annual conventional rents of one pound and eighteen shillings now payable in respect thereof respectively to the rector of Bridestowe shall belong and be annexed to the proposed separate parish and benefice of Sourton and be held received and enjoyed by the incumbent thereof for ever.

"That baptisms churchings marriages burials and all other parochial ecclesiastical offices shall as heretofore be performed in the church and separate parish of Sourton and that the fees for all such offices performed within the same church and separate parish and all Easter offerings and other ecclesiastical dues and fees if any arising within the same shall belong to the incumbent of the same church and separate parish.

"That except as aforesaid all the rectorial rent-charges in lieu of tithes, residence house, glebe lands tenements conventional rents hereditaments and all other the endowments and emoluments now belonging to the said rectory of Bridestowe shall continue to belong to the said rectory as separated from the proposed perpetual curacy of Sourton and shall be held received and enjoyed by the rector thereof for ever and the church within the said parish of Bridestowe shall continue to be the parish church thereof.

"That the whole of the first fruits tenths and other ecclesiastical dues now payable by the incumbent of Bridestowe with Sourton annexed and the whole of the principal moneys and interest now due to the Governors of the Bounty of Queen Anne on the mortgages to them of the benefice of Bridestowe with Sourton annexed and the whole of the fee farm rent of six pounds thirteen and four pence now payable out of the said rectory of Bridestowe with Sourton annexed shall henceforth be payable by the incumbent of Bridestowe as separated from the said parish of Sourton.

"That churchwardens shall continue to be annually chosen as heretofore in and for the said parishes of Bridestowe and Sourton respectively.

"That subject to the provisions of the Church Rates Abolition Act 31 and 32 Victoria, c. 109 the inhabitants of the parish of Bridestowe as separated from the said parish of Sourton shall be exclusively liable for the maintenance of the parish church of the same parish and the inhabitants of the said separate parish of Sourton shall be exclusively liable for the maintenance of the parish church thereof and the parishioners and inhabitants of the said proposed separate parish of Sourton shall not be entitled to any accommodation in the parish church of Bridestowe nor shall the parishioners and inhabitants of the parish of Bridestowe be entitled to any accommodation in the parish church of Sourton.

"That the patronage or right of nomination of or to the said proposed separate benefice of Sourton shall be vested in and exercised by the Bishop of Exeter and his successors for ever.

" CONSENTS.

" We Edward Henry Lord Bishop of Exeter the patron now entitled to present or nominate to the rectory and parish church of Bridestowe with the said chapelry of Sourton do hereby as such patron signify our consent to the scheme above proposed for separating the said chapelry of Sourton from the said rectory and parish of Bridestowe and for constituting the said chapelry of Sourton a separate parish for ecclesiastical purposes and a perpetual curacy and benefice.

" In witness whereof we the said Bishop have subscribed the same the twenty-seventh day of February, one thousand eight hundred and eighty-nine.

" E. H. Exon."

" We the Governors of the Bounty of Queen Anne for the augmentation of the maintenance of the Poor Clergy, mortgagees of the rectory of Bridestowe with the chapelry of Sourton annexed do hereby as such mortgagees signify our consent to the scheme above proposed for separating the said chapelry of Sourton from the said rectory and parish of Bridestowe and for constituting the said chapelry of Sourton a separate parish for ecclesiastical purposes and a perpetual curacy and benefice.

" In witness whereof we the said Governors have hereunto set our common seal the tenth day of April one thousand eight hundred and eighty-nine."

And whereas the said scheme hath been transmitted by the said Bishop to the said Archbishop for his consideration.

And whereas the said Archbishop, being satisfied with the said scheme, hath certified the same and the consent aforesaid to Her Majesty in Council, by his report dated the twenty-third day of April one thousand eight hundred and eighty-nine, which said report is in the words and figures following:—

" To the QUEEN's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

" We the undersigned Edward White Archbishop of the Province of Canterbury, do hereby report to Your Majesty in Council.

" That the Right Reverend Edward Henry Lord Bishop of Exeter has represented unto us (amongst other things)

" That there is in the county of Devon and diocese of Exeter the rectory of Bridestowe which comprises the parish of Bridestowe and the parochial chapelry of Sourton the boundaries of which parish and chapelry respectively are well known and defined.

" That the said parish and chapelry respectively have each its own church for the exclusive use and accommodation of its own inhabitants.

" That the said churches are distant from each other two miles or thereabouts.

" That it appears to the said Lord Bishop that the said chapelry of Sourton may be advantageously separated from the said parish of Bridestowe and be constituted a separate parish for ecclesiastical purposes and a perpetual curacy and benefice.

" That pursuant to the direction contained in the Act of Parliament of the first and second years of Your Majesty's reign chapter 106 the said Lord Bishop has drawn up a scheme in writing describing the mode in which it appears to him the proposed alteration may best be effected and how the changes consequent upon such alteration in respect to ecclesiastical jurisdiction glebe lands tithe rent-charges dues rates and payments and in respect to patronage and rights to pews may be made with justice to all parties interested which scheme together with the consent thereto in writing of the said Lord Bishop of Exeter the patron of the said rectory and parish church of Bridestowe with the said chapelry of Sourton (the same being now vacant) has been transmitted by the said Lord Bishop to us for our consideration.

" The representation and scheme of the said Lord Bishop and the consent before referred to are hereunto annexed.

" And we the said Archbishop being on full consideration and enquiry satisfied with the said scheme do hereby pursuant to the Acts of Parliament of the first and second years of Your Majesty's reign chapter 106, and of the second and third years of Your Majesty's reign chapter 49, certify the same and such consent as aforesaid to Your Majesty in Council to the intent that Your Majesty in Council may in case Your Majesty in Council shall think fit so to do make and issue an Order for carrying the said scheme into effect.

" As witness our hand this twenty-third day of April one thousand eight hundred and eighty-nine.

" Edw. Cantuar."

Now therefore Her Majesty in Council, by and with the advice of Her said Council, is pleased to order, as it is hereby ordered, that the said scheme be carried into effect.

C. L. Peel.

At the Court at Windsor, the 23th day of May, 1889.

PRESENT,

The QUEEN's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS by an Act passed in the first session of the Parliament holden in the first and second years of the reign of Her present Majesty, intituled "An Act to abridge the holding of benefices in plurality, and to make better provision for the residence of the clergy," after reciting that "Whereas in some instances tithings, hamlets, chapelries, and other places or districts may be separated from the parishes or mother churches to which they belong, with great advantage, and places altogether extra-parochial may in some instances with advantage be annexed to parishes or districts to which they are contiguous, or be constituted separate parishes for ecclesiastical purposes," it is, amongst other things, enacted, "That when with respect to his own diocese it shall appear to the Archbishop of the Province, or when the Bishop of any diocese shall represent to the Archbishop that any such tithing, hamlet, chapelry, place or district within the diocese of such Archbishop, or the diocese of such Bishop, as the case may be, may be advantageously separated from any parish or mother church and either be constituted a separate benefice by itself or be united to any other parish to which it may be more conveniently annexed, or to any other adjoining tithing, hamlet, chapelry, place, or district, parochial or extra-parochial, so as to form a separate parish or benefice, or that any extra-parochial place may with advantage be annexed to any parish to which it is contiguous, or be constituted a separate parish for ecclesiastical purposes: and the said Archbishop or Bishop shall draw up a scheme in writing (the scheme of such Bishop to be transmitted to the “ said Archbishop for his consideration) describing the mode in which it appears to him that the alteration may best be effected, and how the changes consequent on such alteration in respect to ecclesiastical jurisdiction, glebe lands, tithes, rent-charges, and other ecclesiastical dues, rates, and payments, and in respect to patronage and rights to pews, may be made with justice to all parties interested: and if the patron or patrons of the benefice or benefices to be affected by such alteration shall consent in writing under his or their hands to such scheme, or to such modification thereof as the said Archbishop may approve, and the said Archbishop shall, on full consideration and inquiry, be satisfied with any such scheme or modification thereof, and shall certify the same and such consent as aforesaid, by his report to Her Majesty in Council, it shall be lawful for Her Majesty in Council to make an Order for carrying such scheme, or modification thereof, as the case may be, into effect.

And whereas by another Act of Parliament passed in the second and third years of the reign of Her present Majesty, intituled “ An Act to make better provision for the Assignment of Ecclesiastical Districts to Churches or Chapels augmented by the Governors of the Bounty of Queen Anne; and for other purposes,” it is, amongst other things, further enacted, “ That when by any Order of Her Majesty in Council, as aforesaid, a separate parish for ecclesiastical purposes is constituted, the same shall, on registration thereof, and with the consent in writing of the incumbent or incumbents of the benefice or benefices to be thereby affected, become a perpetual curacy and benefice, and the minister thereof, duly nominated and licensed thereto, and his successors, shall be a body politic and corporate, with perpetual succession, and may receive and take to himself and his successors all such lands, tenements, tithes, rent-charges, and hereditaments as shall be granted unto him or them, and such perpetual curate shall thenceforth have within the limits of the district parish formed under the Church Building Acts, for the church of such perpetual curacy, sole and exclusive cure of souls, and shall not in anywise be subject to the control or interference of the incumbent or incumbents of the benefice or benefices to be affected by such Order, if he or they shall have consented to such Order as aforesaid.”

And whereas the Right Reverend Charles John, Lord Bishop of Gloucester and Bristol, hath represented in a writing dated the thirtieth March one thousand eight hundred and eighty-nine to the Right Honourable and Most Reverend Edward White, Lord Archbishop of Canterbury as follows:—

“ To the Most Reverend Edward White Lord Archbishop of the Province of Canterbury.

“ I the Right Reverend Charles John Bishop of Gloucester and Bristol do hereby represent to your Grace that to the benefice (being a vicarage) and parish church of Highworth in the county of Wilts and my diocese of Gloucester and Bristol belongs among other places an ancient parochial chapelry or hamlet known by the name of South Marston the limits and boundaries whereof are well known and defined.

“ That according to the census of one thousand eight hundred and eighty-one the population of the parish of Highworth exclusive of the said chapelry or hamlet of South Marston is two thousand one hundred and ten and the population of the said chapelry is four hundred and one.

“ That there is in the said chapelry or hamlet of South Marston a church or chapel affording accommodation for about two hundred persons and distant from the parish church of Highworth about four miles in which church or chapel of South Marston Divine service is performed by the vicar of Highworth or his curate.

“ That baptisms, marriages, churchings, and burials have been from time immemorial and are now solemnized and performed in the church or chapel of South Marston and in the burial-ground thereto belonging.

“ That the net annual value of the said vicarage of Highworth exclusive of the value of the vicarage house situate at Highworth aforesaid is five hundred pounds or thereabouts.

“ That the patronage of the said vicarage and parish church of Highworth belongs to me in right of my bishoprick and the Reverend James Charles Norman is the present incumbent of the said vicarage.

“ That it appears to me that under the provisions of the Acts of Parliament passed in the sessions holden in the first and second years of the reign of Her present Majesty chapter one hundred and six and in the second and third years of the same reign chapter forty-nine the said chapelry or hamlet of South Marston may be advantageously separated from the said vicarage and parish church of Highworth and be constituted a separated parish for ecclesiastical purposes and a perpetual curacy and benefice.

“ That the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England have undertaken (subject to certain conditions) to transfer and grant to the said proposed separate parish and benefice of South Marston, as a permanent endowment for the same, a yearly sum or payment of one hundred and twenty pounds being part of the yearly sum or payment of one hundred and seventy-five pounds heretofore paid by them (subject to certain conditions) to the incumbent for the time being of the said vicarage and parish church of Highworth.

“ That pursuant to the direction contained in the twenty-sixth section of the said first-mentioned Act, I have prepared the following scheme which together with the consents thereto of the patron and of the incumbent of the said vicarage I submit to your Grace to the intent that your Grace may, if on full consideration and enquiry you shall be satisfied with such scheme certify the same and such consents by your report to Her Majesty in Council.”

And whereas the said scheme drawn up by the said Bishop of Gloucester and Bristol, and the consents referred to in the representation are as follows:—

“ SCHEME.

“ The chapelry of South Marston shall be separated from the vicarage and parish church of Highworth and be constituted a separate parish for ecclesiastical purposes and a perpetual curacy and benefice by the name or style of ‘ The Perpetual Curacy of South Marston ’ of which the church or chapel within the said chapelry shall be the parish church.

“ The proposed separate parish and benefice of South Marston shall be subject to the same ecclesiastical jurisdiction as the said vicarage of Highworth and the incumbent of such separate parish and benefice shall have exclusive cure of souls within the limits of the same.

“ The vicarage house with its garden and appurtenances situate at Highworth and all the glebe lands and tithe rent-charge forming the endowments of the said vicarage shall belong to the vicar of Highworth and his successors who shall be exclusively liable for first fruits and tenths charged on the said vicarage.

"The parsonage house recently erected within the said chapelry of South Marston with its garden and appurtenances shall belong to the incumbent of South Marston and his successors."

"All fees and other ecclesiastical dues and payments for marriages, churchings, burials and other ecclesiastical offices solemnized and performed within the said proposed separate parish and benefice of South Marston and all such other ecclesiastical dues offerings and emoluments usually payable to the incumbent of a parish or benefice as shall arise within the said proposed separate parish and benefice shall belong to the incumbent thereof."

"The patronage of or right of presentation or nomination to the proposed separate parish and benefice of South Marston shall be vested in the Bishop of Gloucester and Bristol and his successors."

"The parishioners of the proposed separate parish shall not be entitled to accommodation in any other church than the church of the said proposed separate parish of South Marston, nor shall the parishioners of Highworth or of any other chapelries belonging thereto be entitled to any accommodation in the church or chapel of the said proposed separate benefice and parish of South Marston, except nevertheless any person or persons possessing a right by faculty or otherwise to the exclusive use of any pew or pews, sitting or sittings in either church who may not be willing to relinquish and give up the same."

"Given under my hand the thirtieth day of March in the year of our Lord one thousand eight hundred and eighty-nine."

"C. J. Gloucester and Bristol."

"CONSENT."

"I, the Right Reverend Charles John, Bishop of Gloucester and Bristol the patron of the vicarage of Highworth and I the Reverend James Charles Norman the incumbent of the said benefice do hereby signify our consent to the scheme above proposed and set forth and to every matter and thing therein contained."

"In witness whereof we have hereunto set our hands the thirtieth day of March in the year of our Lord one thousand eight hundred and eighty-nine."

"C. J. Gloucester and Bristol."

"James Charles Norman."

And whereas the said scheme hath been transmitted by the said Bishop to the said Archbishop for his consideration.

And whereas the said Archbishop being satisfied with the said scheme hath certified the same and the consents aforesaid to Her Majesty in Council, by his report dated the sixth day of April, one thousand eight hundred and eighty-nine, which said report is in the words and figures following:—

"To the QUEEN's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

"We the undersigned Edward White Archbishop of the Province of Canterbury, do hereby report to Your Majesty in Council:

"That the Right Reverend Charles John Lord Bishop of Gloucester and Bristol has represented unto us (amongst other things),—

"That to the benefice (being a vicarage) and parish church of Highworth in the county of Wilts and diocese of Gloucester and Bristol belongs among other places an ancient parochial chapelry or hamlet known by the name of South Marston the limits and boundaries whereof are well known and defined.

"The representation and scheme of the said Lord Bishop and the consents before referred to are hereunto annexed.

"And we the said Archbishop being on full consideration and enquiry satisfied with the said scheme do hereby pursuant to the said Act of the first and second years of Your Majesty's reign chapter one hundred and six certify the same and such consents as aforesaid to Your Majesty in Council to the intent that Your Majesty in Council may in case Your Majesty in Council shall think fit so to do make and issue an Order for carrying the said scheme into effect.

"As witness our hand this sixth day of April one thousand eight hundred and eighty-nine."

"Edw. Cantuar."

Now therefore Her Majesty in Council, by and with the advice of Her said Council, is pleased to order, as it is hereby ordered, that the said scheme be carried into effect.

C. L. Peel.

AT the Court at Windsor, the 28th day of May, 1889.

PRESENT,

The QUEEN's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England have, in pursuance of the Act of the eighth and ninth years of Her Majesty, chapter seventy; of the Act of the fourteenth and fifteenth years of Her Majesty, chapter ninety-seven; of the Act of the nineteenth and twentieth years of Her Majesty, chapter fifty-five; and of the Act of the thirty-fourth and thirty-fifth years of Her Majesty, chapter eighty-two; duly prepared and laid before Her Majesty in Council a representation, bearing date the twenty-fourth day of January in the year one thousand eight hundred and eighty-nine, in the words and figures following; that is to say:—

"We the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England in pursuance of the Act of the eighth and ninth years of Your Majesty chapter seventy of the Act of the fourteenth and fifteenth years of Your Majesty chapter ninety-seven of the Act of the nineteenth and twentieth years of Your Majesty chapter fifty-five and of the Act of the thirty-fourth and thirty-fifth years of Your Majesty chapter eighty-two have prepared and now humbly lay before Your Majesty in Council the following representation as to the assignment of a consolidated chapelry to the consecrated church of All Saints situate at Kenley in the parish of Coulsdon in the county of Surrey and in the diocese of Rochester.

"Whereas at certain extremities of the said parish of Coulsdon, and of the particular district of Saint Luke Caterham Valley in the county and diocese aforesaid which said extremities lie contiguous one to another, and are described in the schedule hereunder written there is collected together a population which is situate at a distance from the several churches of such parish and of such particular district respectively.

"And whereas it appears to us to be expedient that certain contiguous portions (being the portions containing the population aforesaid) of the said parish of Coulsdon and of the said particular district of Saint Luke Caterham Valley should be formed into a consolidated chapelry for all ecclesiastical purposes and that the same should be assigned to the said church of All Saints situate at Kenley as aforesaid.

"Now therefore with the consent of the Right Reverend Anthony Wilson Bishop of the said diocese of Rochester as such Bishop, with the consent of the Right Honourable and Most Reverend Edward White Archbishop of Canterbury the patron in right of his sec, of the rectory of the parish of Coulsdon aforesaid and with the consent of Henry Drayton Pilcher of Can Hatch Banstead in the said county of Surrey Esquire, the patron of the perpetual curacy of the particular district of Saint Luke Caterham Valley aforesaid (in testimony whereof they the said consenting parties have respectively signed and sealed this representation) we, the said Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, humbly represent that it would in our opinion be expedient that all those contiguous portions of the said parish of Coulsdon and of the particular district of Saint Luke Caterham Valley aforesaid which are described in the schedule hereunder written, all which portions, together with the boundaries thereof are delineated and set forth on the map or plan hereunto annexed should be united and formed into one consolidated chapelry for the said church of All Saints situate at Kenley as aforesaid and that the same should be named 'The Consolidated Chapelry of All Saints Kenley.'

"We therefore humbly pray that Your Majesty will be graciously pleased to take the premises into Your Royal consideration, and to make such Order in respect thereto as to Your Majesty in Your Royal wisdom shall seem meet.

"The SCHEDULE to which the foregoing Representation has reference.

"The Consolidated Chapelry of All Saints Kenley comprising:—

"1. All that portion of the parish of Coulsdon in the county of Surrey and in the diocese of Rochester wherein the present incumbent of such parish still possesses the exclusive cure of souls which is bounded upon the north-east partly by the parish of Sanderstead in the said county and diocese partly by the parish of Warlingham in the same county and diocese partly by that portion of the particular district of Saint Luke Caterham Valley in the same county and diocese which, by an instrument under the hands and seal of the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England and of the Bishop of Rochester dated the twenty-fifth day of June in the year one thousand eight hundred and eighty-five, is to be restored to the parish of Coulsdon aforesaid upon the next avoidance of the vicarage of the said parish of Warlingham, and partly by the hereinafter described portion of the said particular district; and upon all other sides, that is to say upon the south-west, upon the south, upon the west, and upon the north-west, by an imaginary line commencing upon the boundary which divides the said hereinafter described portion of the particular district of Saint Luke Caterham Valley aforesaid from the parish of Coulsdon aforesaid at the point where the line of the Caterham Branch of the South-Eastern Railway is crossed by the road or footway which leads from the Rose and Crown Inn to Kenley House and extending thence first south-westward and then westward along the middle of the said road or footway for a distance of thirty-eight chains or thereabouts to its junction near Kenley House aforesaid with Kenley-lane and extending thence north-westward along the middle of the said lane for a distance of one and a half chains or thereabouts to its junction with the private road which leads from Kenley House to Kenley Railway Station and extending thence first westward then northward and then north-westward along the middle of the said private road for a distance of thirty-one chains or thereabouts to a point (near the house called or known as Woodhurst) opposite to a boundary stone inscribed 'K.A.S.C.C. 1889 No. 1' and placed on the western side of the same private road at the eastern end of the fence which forms the northern boundary of the close numbered 341 upon the map of the Ordnance Survey of the said parish of Coulsdon on the $\frac{1}{2500}$ scale and upon the map hereunto annexed and extending thence south-westward to the said boundary stone and along the said fence for a distance of one and a half chains or thereabouts to its junction with the fence which forms the northern boundary of the close numbered 314 upon the said map and extending thence westward along the last-described fence for a distance of six and a half chains or thereabouts to the point where it rejoins the fence forming the northern boundary of the close numbered 341 as aforesaid and extending thence south-westward along the last-described fence for a distance of five chains and seventy links or thereabouts to a point due south of the junction of the road called or known as Zigzag-road at its western end with the road sometimes known as Occupation-road, which leads from Hays-lane past the house called or known as Elmwood to the Kenley Railway Station aforesaid, and extending thence, that is to say from the last-described point in the fence forming the northern boundary of the close numbered 341 as aforesaid due north and in a direct line for a distance of four and a half chains or thereabouts to the last described point of junction at the western end of Zigzag-road aforesaid at or near to which point a boundary stone inscribed 'K.A.S.C.C. 1889 No. 2' has been placed and extending thence still northward along the middle of the road leading from Hays-lane past Elmwood to Kenley Station as aforesaid for a distance of nineteen chains or thereabouts, to a point opposite to a boundary stone inscribed 'K.A.S.C.C. 1889 No. 3' and placed on the western side of the same road at the south-eastern angle of the garden attached to the house called or known as Uplands and extending thence first westward to the last-mentioned boundary stone and then in a direction due west and in a straight line for a distance of seven chains or thereabouts to a boundary stone inscribed 'K.A.S.C.C. 1889 No. 4' and placed upon the south-eastern side of Hays-lane at a distance (measured along the same lane) of eight chains and eighty links or thereabouts to the south of the junction of the said Hays-lane with Riddlesdown Park-road and extending thence first westward to and then north-eastward and northward along the middle of Hays-lane aforesaid for the said distance of eight chains and eighty links or thereabouts to its junction, at or near to Little Roke House with Riddlesdown Park-road as aforesaid and extending thence first north-westward and then north-eastward along the middle of the last-named road for a distance of ten and a half chains or thereabouts to its junction with the lane which leads to and past the houses called or known as Little Roke into Godstone-road and extending thence first northward and then north-eastward along the middle of the last-described lane for a distance of thirty-two chains or thereabouts thereby crossing the line of the Caterham Branch of the South Eastern Railway aforesaid to the point where the same lane joins Godstone-road and extending thence north-eastward and in a direct line over Riddlesdown for a distance of nineteen chains or thereabouts to the boundary at the western angle of Coombs Wood which boundary divides the said parish of Coulsdon from the parish of Sanderstead aforesaid.

"2. And also all that contiguous portion of the said particular district of Saint Luke Caterham Valley which is bounded upon the north-east by the parish of Warringham aforesaid upon the north-west by that portion of the said particular district which is as aforesaid prospectively restored to the said parish of Coulsdon upon the south-west by the hereinbefore described portion of the last-named parish and upon the remaining side that is to say upon the south-east by an imaginary line commencing upon the boundary which divides the said parish of Coulsdon from the particular district of Saint Luke Caterham Valley aforesaid at the hereinbefore described point where the said Caterham Branch of the South-Eastern Railway is crossed by the said road or footway which leads from Kenley House towards the Rose and Crown Inn, and extending thence north-eastward along the middle of the said road or footway for a distance of six chains or thereabouts to its junction on the southern side of the said Rose and Crown Inn with Godstone-road aforesaid and extending thence in a direction due east and in a straight line for a distance of seven chains or thereabouts to the boundary in the middle of the line of the London Oxted and East Grinstead Railway which boundary divides the said particular district of Saint Luke Caterham Valley from the parish of Warringham aforesaid."

And whereas the said representation has been approved by Her Majesty in Council: now, therefore, Her Majesty, by and with the advice of Her said Council, is pleased hereby to ratify the said representation, and to order and direct that the same and every part thereof shall be effectual in law immediately from and after the time when this Order shall have been duly published in the London Gazette pursuant to the said Acts; and Her Majesty, by and with the like advice, is pleased hereby to direct that this Order be forthwith registered by the Registrar of the said diocese of Rochester.

C. L. Peel.

At the Court at Windsor, the 28th day of May, 1889.

PRESENT,

The QUEEN's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England have, in pursuance of the Act of the eighth and ninth years of Her Majesty, chapter seventy; of the Act of the fourteenth and fifteenth years of Her Majesty, chapter ninety-seven; of the Act of the nineteenth and twentieth years of Her Majesty, chapter fifty-five; of the Act of the thirty-fourth and thirty-fifth years of Her Majesty, chapter eighty-two; and of the Act of the thirty-fifth and thirty-sixth years of Her Majesty, chapter fourteen, duly prepared and laid before Her Majesty in Council a representation, bearing date the fourteenth day of February, in the year one thousand eight hundred and eighty-nine, in the words following; that is to say:—

"We the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England in pursuance of the Act of the eighth and ninth years of Your Majesty chapter seventy of the Act of the fourteenth and fifteenth years of Your Majesty chapter ninety-seven, of the Act of the nineteenth and twentieth years of Your Majesty chapter fifty-five, of the Act of the thirty-fourth and thirty-fifth years of Your Majesty chapter eighty-two and of the Act of the thirty-fifth and thirty-sixth years of Your Majesty chapter fourteen have prepared and now humbly lay before Your Majesty in Council the following representation as to the assignment of a consolidated chapelry to the consecrated church of King Charles the Martyr situate at Tunbridge Wells partly in the new parish (sometime district chapelry) of Christ Church Tunbridge Wells, and partly in the new parish (sometime district chapelry) of Saint Paul Rusthall both in the county of Kent and in the diocese of Canterbury.

"Whereas at certain extremities of the said new parish of Christ Church Tunbridge Wells, of the said new parish of Saint Paul Rusthall, and of the new parish (sometime consolidated chapelry) of Saint Mark Broadwater situate partly in the said county of Kent and partly in the county of Sussex and wholly in the diocese of Chichester, which said extremities lie contiguous one to another, and are described in the schedule hereunder written, there is collected together a population which is situate at a distance from the several churches of such new parishes respectively.

"And whereas it appears to us to be expedient that certain contiguous portions (being the portions containing the population aforesaid) of the said new parish of Christ Church Tunbridge Wells, of the said new parish of Saint Paul Rusthall, and of the new parish of Saint Mark Broadwater aforesaid should be formed into a consolidated chapelry for all ecclesiastical purposes and that the same should be assigned to the said church of King Charles the Martyr situate at Tunbridge Wells as aforesaid.

"Now therefore with the consent of the Right Honourable and Most Reverend Edward White, Archbishop of Canterbury, as such Archbishop, with the consent of the Right Reverend Richard, Bishop of the said diocese of Chichester as such Bishop, with the consents of the Reverend Thomas Edmund Franklyn, of Old Dalby Hall, Melton Mowbray in the county of Leicester Clerk in Holy Orders, of Charles Joseph Goodhart of Wetherden Rectory, Haughley in the county of Suffolk Clerk in Holy Orders, of the Reverend George Edward Tate of Kippington Vicarage Sevenoaks in the said county of Kent Clerk in Holy Orders, of the Reverend Edmund Hall of Stratford Saint Andrew Rectory, Saxmundham, in the county of Suffolk Clerk in Holy Orders and of the Reverend John Erskine Campbell-Colquhoun of Chartwell near Westerham in the said county of Kent Clerk in Holy Orders, one of Your Majesty's Justices of the Peace, as the patrons of the vicarage of the new parish of Christ Church Tunbridge Wells aforesaid, with the consent of the Reverend John James Saint, the rector or incumbent of the rectory of the parish of Speldhurst, in the said county of Kent, Clerk in Holy Orders and as such rector or incumbent the patron of the vicarage of the new parish of Saint Paul Rusthall aforesaid, and with the consent of the Most Honourable William, Marquis of Abergavenny, Knight of the Most Noble Order of the Garter, the patron of the vicarage of the new parish of Saint Mark Broadwater aforesaid (in testimony whereof they the said consenting parties have respectively signed and sealed this representation) we the said Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England humbly represent that it would in our opinion be expedient that all those contiguous portions of the said new parish of Christ Church, Tunbridge Wells, of the said new parish of Saint Paul Rusthall and of the said new parish of Saint Mark Broadwater which are described in the schedule hereunder written, all which portions together with the boundaries thereof are delineated and set forth on the map or plan hereunto annexed should be united and formed into one consolidated chapelry for the said church of King Charles the Martyr situate at Tunbridge Wells as aforesaid and that the same should be named 'The Consolidated Chapelry of King Charles the Martyr, Tunbridge Wells,' and that such consolidated chapelry should become and be and form part of the said diocese of Canterbury and should be included within and form part of the rural deanery of South Malling and of the archdeaconry of Maidstone, within the said lastly-named diocese.

"We therefore humbly pray that Your Majesty will be graciously pleased to take the premises into Your Royal consideration and to make such Order in respect thereto as to Your Majesty in Your Royal wisdom shall seem meet.

"The SCHEDULE to which the foregoing Representation has reference.

"The Consolidated Chapelry of King Charles the Martyr, Tunbridge Wells, being:—

"All those several contiguous portions of the new parish (sometime district chapelry) of Christ Church Tunbridge Wells in the county of Kent and in the diocese of Canterbury, of the new parish (sometime district chapelry) of Saint Paul Rusthall in the same county and diocese and of the new parish (sometime consolidated chapelry) of Saint Mark Broadwater situate partly in the said county of Kent and partly in the county of Sussex and wholly in the diocese of Chichester, all which said contiguous portions are comprised within and are bounded by an imaginary line commencing upon the boundary which divides the said new parish of Christ Church Tunbridge Wells from the new parish of Saint Mark Broadwater aforesaid at a point at the southern end of the footway called or known as Cumberland-walk otherwise Patty Moon's-walk at its junction with the footway which leads into the private occupation road called or known as Mount Nevill-lane and extending thence first southward and then south-westward along the middle of the last described footway for a distance of forty yards or thereabouts to the point at the footbridge over the stream which forms the boundary between the said counties of Kent and of Sussex, which footbridge connects the said footway with Mount Nevill-lane aforesaid and extending thence westward along the middle of the last-mentioned lane for a distance of two hundred and thirty-five yards or thereabouts to its junction with the Frant-road and extending thence southward along the middle of the last-named road for a distance of one hundred and six yards or thereabouts to a point opposite to a house called Langley Villa immediately over the middle of the tunnel whereby the line of the East Grinstead and Tunbridge Wells Branch of the London Brighton and South Coast Railway passes under the Frant-road aforesaid and extending thence westward for a distance of eighty-six yards or thereabouts thereby following upon the surface of the ground the course of the said tunnel, and also thereby passing for the most part along the wall or fence which divides the house and garden called or known as Northcote from the house and garden called or known as The Oaks to the western end of the said tunnel and continuing thence still westward along the middle of the said branch line of railway for a distance of ninety yards or thereabouts to the centre of the bridge which carries Montacute-road over the same branch line of railway and extending thence northward for a distance of twenty-six yards or thereabouts along the middle of the last-named road to its junction with New Station-road and extending thence first westward and then northward along the middle of the last-named road for a distance of two hundred and eighty-six yards or thereabouts thereby passing to the north-east of the Tunbridge Wells Railway Station on the said branch line of railway to the point at or near to the Carlton Hotel where the same road is crossed by the county and diocesan boundary which divides the said new parish of Saint Mark Broadwater from the new parish of Saint Paul Rusthall aforesaid and extending thence first westward then northward and then again westward along the last-described boundary for a distance of five hundred and thirty-four yards or thereabouts to the point where the said boundary intersects the hedge or fence which forms the western boundary of Tunbridge Wells Common and extending thence northward along the last described hedge or fence for a distance of one hundred and forty-three yards or thereabouts to a point upon the southern side of High Rocks-road and continuing thence still northward to a point in the middle of the last-named road and extending thence eastward along the middle of the same road for a distance of six hundred and ten yards or thereabouts to its junction with Major York's-road and extending thence north-eastward and in a direct line across the said Tunbridge Wells Common for a distance of five hundred yards or thereabouts to a point on the eastern side of the same Common at the middle of the south-western end of Vale-road upon the boundary which divides the said new parish of Saint Paul Rusthall from the new parish of Christ Church Tunbridge Wells aforesaid and extending thence south-westward along the last-mentioned boundary for a distance of two hundred and sixty yards or thereabouts thereby passing in front of most of the houses situate on the south-eastern side of the London-road to the point where the said London-road is joined by Mount Sion-road and extending thence south-eastward for a distance of eighty-two yards or thereabouts along the middle of the last-named road to its junction with the footway called or known as Cumberland-gardens, and extending thence south-westward along the middle of the last-named footway for a distance of one hundred and twelve yards or thereabouts to its junction with the footway called or known as Cumberland-walk otherwise Patty Moon's-walk aforesaid, and extending thence first south-eastward and then southward along the middle of the last-named footway for a distance of three hundred and twenty-two yards or thereabouts to the first described point upon the boundary which divides the said new parish of Christ Church Tunbridge Wells from the new parish of Saint Mark Broadwater aforesaid at which point the said imaginary line commenced."

And whereas the said representation has been approved by Her Majesty in Council: now, therefore, Her Majesty, by and with the advice of Her said Council, is pleased hereby to ratify the said representation, and to order and direct that the same and every part thereof shall be effectual in law immediately from and after the time when this Order shall have been duly published in the London Gazette pursuant to the said Acts; and Her Majesty, by and with the like advice, is pleased hereby to direct that this Order be forthwith registered by the Registrar of the said diocese of Canterbury, and by the Registrar of the said diocese of Chichester respectively.

AT the Court at Windsor, the 28th day of May, 1889.

PRESENT,

The QUEEN'S Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England have, in pursuance of the Act of the third and fourth years of Her Majesty, chapter one hundred and thirteen, and of the Act of the sixth and seventh years of Her Majesty, chapter thirty-seven, duly prepared and laid before Her Majesty in Council a scheme, bearing date the fourth day of April, in the year one thousand eight hundred and eighty-nine, in the words following, that is to say:—

"We the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England in pursuance of the Act of the third and fourth years of Your Majesty chapter one hundred and thirteen and of the Act of the sixth and seventh years of Your Majesty chapter thirty-seven have prepared and now humbly lay before Your Majesty in Council the following scheme for constituting a separate district for spiritual purposes to be taken out of the new parish (sometime chapelry district) of Saint Anne Tottington out of the new parish (sometime chapelry district) of All Saints Elton and out of the new parish (sometime district chapelry) of Saint Stephen Elton all in the county of Lancaster and in the diocese of Manchester.

"Whereas it has been made to appear to us that it would promote the interests of religion that the particular portions of the said new parish of Saint Anne Tottington of the said new parish of All Saints Elton and of the said new parish of Saint Stephen Elton which are hereinafter mentioned and described should be constituted a separate district in manner hereinafter recommended and proposed.

"And whereas there is not at present within the limits of the said proposed district any consecrated church or chapel in use for the purposes of Divine worship.

"And whereas for the purpose of providing an endowment for the said proposed district a sum of three thousand pounds four pounds per centum debenture stock of the North British Railway Company has been purchased and transferred into our name in the books of the same Company by the Reverend John Gorell Haworth Clerk in Holy Orders now the vicar or incumbent of the vicarage of the new parish of the Holy Trinity Tunstead in the diocese of Manchester aforesaid to be held in trust by us as and for a permanent endowment for the minister for the time being of the said district hereinafter recommended to be constituted and so soon as the said district shall have become a new parish under the provisions of the hereinbefore secondly mentioned Act then for the incumbent of the said new parish and the amount of the annual interest and dividends to accrue due on account of the said sum of stock to be receivable by the said minister or incumbent for the time being when he shall have been duly licensed in accordance with the provisions of the secondly hereinbefore mentioned Act.

"And whereas the said sum of three thousand pounds debenture stock has been so provided as aforesaid upon the understanding that we the said Ecclesiastical Commissioners should out of the common fund created by the firstly hereinbefore mentioned Act grant to the said proposed district or new parish a capital sum of one thousand pounds in respect of which there shall be paid by us to the incumbent of the said proposed district or new parish when duly licensed as aforesaid a yearly sum of thirty pounds and upon the further understanding that (such arrangement appearing to us to be expedient) the whole right of patronage of the said district or new parish and of the nomination of the minister or incumbent thereto should be assigned to the said John Gorell Haworth his heirs and assigns for ever.

"And whereas the said grant of one thousand pounds will after the publication in the London Gazette of an Order of Your Majesty in Council ratifying this scheme be made and secured by an instrument to be executed by us the said Commissioners under our common seal in accordance with the provisions of the Act of the twenty-ninth and thirtieth years of Your Majesty chapter one hundred and eleven.

"Now therefore with the consent of the Right Reverend James Bishop of the said diocese of Manchester as such Bishop (in testimony whereof he has signed and sealed this scheme) we the said Ecclesiastical Commissioners humbly recommend and propose that all those portions of the said new parish of Saint Anne Tottington of the said new parish of All Saints Elton and of the said new parish of Saint Stephen Elton which are described in the schedule hereunder written all which portions together with the boundaries thereof are delineated and set forth on the map or plan hereunto annexed shall upon and from the day of the date of the publication in the London Gazette of any Order of Your Majesty in Council ratifying this scheme become and be constituted a separate district for spiritual purposes, and that the same shall be named 'The District of Christ Church Walshaw.'

"And we further recommend and propose that the whole right of patronage of the said proposed district and so soon as the said district shall have become a new parish then of the said new parish and of the nomination of the minister or incumbent thereof shall without any assurance in the law other than this scheme and any duly gazetted Order of Your Majesty in Council ratifying the same and upon and from the day of the date of the publication of such Order in the London Gazette as aforesaid be assigned to and become and be absolutely vested in and shall and may from time to time be exercised by the said John Gorell Haworth his heirs and assigns for ever.

"And we further recommend and propose that nothing herein contained shall prevent us from recommending and proposing any other measures relating to the matters aforesaid or to any of them in accordance with the provisions of the said Acts or of any of them or of any other Act of Parliament.

“ The SCHEDULE to which the foregoing Scheme has reference.

“ The District of Christ Church Walshaw comprising :—

“ All those several contiguous portions of the new parish (sometime chapelry district) of Saint Anne Tottington of the new parish (sometime chapelry district) of All Saints Elton and of the new parish (sometime district chapelry) of Saint Stephen Elton all in the county of Lancaster and the diocese of Manchester which are comprised within and are bounded by an imaginary line commencing upon the boundary which divides the said new parish of All Saints Elton from the new parish of Saint Anne Tottington aforesaid at the point at or near to Four Lane Ends where the said boundary crosses the middle of Harwood-road and extending thence northward along the middle of the said road for a distance of one chain or thereabouts to its junction at Four Lane Ends aforesaid with Long-lane Bradshaw-road and Tottington-lane and continuing thence still northward along the middle of the last-named lane for a distance of nineteen chains or thereabouts to its junction with the footpath which leads past the buildings called or known respectively as Hey Head Meadow Head, Jackson Fold and Kays into Long-lane aforesaid and extending thence first eastward then south-eastward and then southward along the middle of the said footpath for a distance of thirty-nine chains or thereabouts to the point a little to the north-west of Jackson Fold aforesaid where the same footpath crosses the stream flowing past the buildings called or known respectively as Birchen Bower, Jackson Fold aforesaid Booth, and Leemans Hill, into Kirklees Brook and extending thence generally eastward along the middle of the said stream for a distance of thirty-five chains or thereabouts to the centre of the bridge which carries Booth-lane over the same stream and extending thence southward along the middle of the last-named lane for a distance of two and one-half chains or thereabouts to its junction with the road or lane called or known as Old-lane and leading from Booth past Leemans Hill, to Moss Side on the Tottington-road, and extending thence generally eastward along the middle of the said road or lane for a distance of thirty-five chains or thereabouts to its junction at Moss Side aforesaid, with the said Tottington-road and extending thence south-eastward along the middle of the last-named road for a distance of eight chains or thereabouts to its junction with the road which leads past the house called or known as Wash, to Bolholt Mills, and extending thence southward along the middle of the last described road for a distance of twenty-two chains or thereabouts thereby crossing the boundary which divides the said new parish of Saint Anne Tottington from the new parish of All Saints Elton aforesaid, to the junction of the same road with Walshaw-road and extending thence south-westward and in a direct line for a distance of thirty chains or thereabouts to the point on the northern side of the house called or known as Scholes otherwise Leighs where the occupation road which leads from the last-named road into Pleasington otherwise Newington-lane is intersected by the roadway which leads from Elton Fold to Yethards Field, the said last-mentioned point being upon the boundary which divides the said new parish of All Saints Elton from the new parish of Saint Stephen Elton aforesaid, and extending thence first southward and then south-westward along the middle of the said occupation road for a distance of twenty chains or thereabouts to its junction with Pleasington otherwise Newington-lane aforesaid and extending thence south-eastward along the middle of the last-named lane for a distance of sixteen chains or thereabouts to its junction with Cockey-lane, and extending thence south-westward along the middle of the last-named lane for a distance of thirty-one chains or thereabouts to a point at the junction of the same lane with Watling or Blackburn-street upon the boundary which divides the said new parish of Saint Stephen Elton from the consolidated chapelry of Saint Andrew Black-lane, Radcliffe, aforesaid, and extending thence first north-westward and then westward along the last-mentioned boundary for a distance of twenty-nine chains or thereabouts to its junction with the boundary which divides the said new parish of Saint Stephen Elton from the new parish of Christ Church Ainsworth in the county and diocese aforesaid and extending first north-westward then westward and then south-westward along the last-mentioned boundary for a distance of seventy-nine chains or thereabouts to its junction with the boundary which divides the said new parish of Saint Stephen Elton from the new parish of Christ Church Harwood in the county and diocese aforesaid and extending thence first north-westward and then north-eastward along the last-mentioned boundary for a distance of thirty-eight chains or thereabouts to its junction with the boundary which divides the said new parish of All Saints Elton from the new parish of Christ Church Harwood aforesaid and extending thence generally northward along the last-mentioned boundary for a distance of forty-four chains or thereabouts to its junction with the boundary which divides the said new parish of All Saints Elton from the new parish of Bradshaw in the county and diocese aforesaid and extending thence north-eastward along the last-mentioned boundary for a distance of two and a half chains or thereabouts to its junction with the boundary which divides the said new parish of All Saints Elton from the new parish of Saint Anne Tottington as aforesaid and extending thence first eastward and thence south-eastward along the last-mentioned boundary for a distance of twenty-five chains or thereabouts to the first first described point in the middle of Harwood-road aforesaid at or near to Four Lane Ends as aforesaid at which point the said imaginary line commenced.”

And whereas drafts of the said scheme have, in accordance with the provisions of the secondly hereinbefore mentioned Act, been transmitted to the patrons and to the incumbents of the three cures out of which it is intended that the district recommended in such scheme to be constituted shall be taken, and such patrons and incumbents have respectively signified their assent to such scheme.

And whereas the said scheme has been approved by Her Majesty in Council: now, therefore, Her Majesty, by and with the advice of Her said Council, is pleased hereby to ratify the said scheme and to order and direct that the same and every part thereof shall be effectual in law immediately from and after the time when this Order shall have been duly published in the London Gazette pursuant to the said Acts; and Her Majesty, by and with the like advice, is pleased hereby to direct that this Order be forthwith registered by the Registrar of the said diocese of Manchester.

C. L. Peel.

AT the Court at Windsor, the 28th day of May, 1889.

PRESENT.

The QUEEN'S Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England have, in pursuance of the Act of the eighth and ninth years of Her Majesty, chapter seventy; of the Act of the fourteenth and fifteenth years of Her Majesty, chapter ninety-seven; of the Act of the nineteenth and twentieth years of Her Majesty, chapter fifty-five; and of the Act of the thirty-fourth and thirty-fifth years of Her Majesty, chapter eighty-two; duly prepared and laid before Her Majesty in Council a representation, bearing date the fourth day of April, in the year one thousand eight hundred and eighty-nine, in the words and figures following; that is to say:—

“We, the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, in pursuance of the Act of the eighth and ninth years of Your Majesty, chapter seventy, of the Act of the fourteenth and fifteenth years of Your Majesty, chapter ninety-seven, of the Act of the nineteenth and twentieth years of Your Majesty, chapter fifty-five, and of the Act of the thirty-fourth and thirty-fifth years of Your Majesty, chapter eighty-two, have prepared, and now humbly lay before Your Majesty in Council the following representation as to the assignment of a consolidated chapelry to the consecrated church of Saint Thomas the Apostle situate at Eastville in the new parish (sometime district) of Saint Mark Easton in the county of Gloucester and in the diocese of Gloucester and Bristol.

“Whereas at certain extremities of the said new parish of Saint Mark Easton, and of the new parish (sometime district chapelry) of Fishponds in the said county and in the diocese aforesaid which said extremities lie contiguous one to another, and are described in the schedule hereunder written, there is collected together a population which is situate at a distance from the several churches of such new parishes respectively.

“And whereas it appears to us to be expedient that certain contiguous portions (being the portions containing the population aforesaid) of the said new parish of Saint Mark Easton, and of the said new parish of Fishponds should be formed into a consolidated chapelry for all ecclesiastical purposes, and that the same should be assigned to the said church of Saint Thomas the Apostle situate at Eastville as aforesaid.

“Now therefore, with the consent of the Right Reverend Charles John, Bishop of the said diocese of Gloucester and Bristol as such Bishop and also as the patron in right of his See of the vicarage of the said new parish of Saint Mark Easton, and with the consent of the Reverend Henry Buller Heberden, Clerk in Holy Orders, the Rector or Incumbent of the rectory of the parish or parochial chapelry of Stapleton in the county and diocese aforesaid, and as such Rector or Incumbent, the patron of the vicarage of the new parish of Fishponds aforesaid (in testimony whereof they the said consenting parties have respectively signed and sealed this representation), we, the said Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, humbly represent, that it would, in our opinion, be expedient that all those contiguous portions of the said new parish of Saint Mark Easton and of the said new parish of Fishponds which are described in the Schedule hereunder written, all which portions, together with the boundaries thereof, are delineated and set forth on the map or plan hereunto annexed, should be united and formed into one consolidated chapelry for the said church of Saint Thomas the Apostle situate at Eastville as aforesaid, and that the same should be named ‘The Consolidated Chapelry of Saint Thomas the Apostle, Eastville.’

“We therefore, humbly pray that Your Majesty will be graciously pleased to take the premises into Your Royal consideration, and to make such Order in respect thereto as to Your Majesty in Your Royal wisdom shall seem meet.

“The SCHEDULE to which the foregoing Representation has reference.

“The Consolidated Chapelry of Saint Thomas the Apostle Eastville, being:—

“I. All that portion of the new parish (sometime district) of Saint Mark, Easton, in the county of Gloucester and the diocese of Gloucester and Bristol which originally formed part of the parish or parochial chapelry of Stapleton in the said county and diocese.

“II. And also all that contiguous portion of the new parish (sometime district chapelry) of Fishponds in the said county and diocese which is bounded upon the north-west and upon the west by the said parish or parochial chapelry of Stapleton upon the south-west and upon the south by the new parish of Saint Mark, Easton aforesaid, and upon the remaining sides that is to say upon the south-east, upon the north-east, and upon the north by an imaginary line commencing at the point in the middle of the line of the Bristol and Birmingham Branch of the Midland Railway where the boundaries of the said new parish of Saint Mark, Easton, the said new parish, of Fishponds, and the parish or parochial chapelry of Saint George, in the county and diocese aforesaid, all join, and extending thence north-eastward along the middle of the said branch line of railway for a distance of $22\frac{1}{2}$ chains or thereabouts to the centre of the bridge which carries the footpath leading from Crooked-lane into Fishponds-road over the same branch line of railway and extending thence north-westward along the middle of the said footpath for a distance of 7 chains or thereabouts to its junction with Fishponds road aforesaid and extending thence south-westward along the middle of the last-named road for a distance of $5\frac{1}{2}$ chains or thereabouts to its junction with the lane called or known as Elm Grove-lane and extending thence north-eastward along the middle of the last-named lane for a distance of 5 chains or thereabouts to its north-eastern end and continuing thence still north-eastward for a distance of 22 chains or thereabouts along the middle of the footpath which leads from the said lane to Small-lane Fishponds to the centre of the footbridge which carries the said footpath over Hardings Brook, and extending thence generally eastward along the middle of the last-named brook for a distance of 19 chains or thereabouts to the boundary at the junction of the said brook with the River Frome which boundary divides the said new parish of Fishponds from the parish or parochial chapelry of Stapleton aforesaid.”

And whereas the said representation has been approved by Her Majesty in Council: now, therefore, Her Majesty, by and with the advice of Her said Council, is pleased hereby to ratify the said representation, and to order and direct that the same and every part thereof shall be effectual in law immediately from and after the time when this Order shall have been duly published in the London Gazette pursuant to the said Acts; and Her Majesty, by and with the like advice, is pleased hereby to direct that this Order be forthwith registered by the respective Registrars of the said diocese of Gloucester and Bristol at Bristol and Gloucester.

At the Court at Windsor, the 28th day of May, 1889.

PRESENT,

The QUEEN'S Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England have, in pursuance of the Act of the fifty-ninth year of His Majesty King George the Third, chapter one hundred and thirty-four; of the Act of the second and third years of Her Majesty, chapter forty-nine; of the Act of the third and fourth years of Her Majesty, chapter sixty; and of the Act of the nineteenth and twentieth years of Her Majesty, chapter fifty-five, duly prepared and laid before Her Majesty in Council a representation, bearing date the eleventh day of April, in the year one thousand eight hundred and eighty-nine, in the words following, that is to say:—

"We, the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, in pursuance of the Act of the fifty-ninth year of His Majesty King George the Third, chapter one hundred and thirty-four; of the Act of the second and third years of Your Majesty chapter forty-nine; of the Act of the third and fourth years of Your Majesty chapter sixty; and of the Act of the nineteenth and twentieth years of Your Majesty, chapter fifty-five have prepared and now humbly lay before Your Majesty in Council, the following representation as to the assignment of a district chapelry to the consecrated church of Saint Luke, Bromley Common, situate within the limits of the new parish (sometime chapelry district) of the Holy Trinity Bromley in the county of Kent and in the diocese of Canterbury.

"Whereas it appears to us to be expedient that a district chapelry should be assigned to the said church of Saint Luke Bromley Common situate as aforesaid.

"Now therefore with the consent of the Right Honourable and Most Reverend Edward White, Archbishop of Canterbury (testified by his having signed and sealed this representation), we, the said Ecclesiastical Commissioners, humbly represent, that it would, in our opinion, be expedient that all that part of the said new parish of the Holy Trinity, Bromley, which is described in the schedule hereunder written, all which part, together with the boundaries thereof, is delineated and set forth on the map or plan hereunto annexed should be assigned as a district chapelry to the said church of Saint Luke Bromley Common situate as aforesaid, and that the same should be named 'The District Chapelry of Saint Luke Bromley Common.'

"And with the like consent of the said Edward White Archbishop of Canterbury (testified as aforesaid) we, the said Ecclesiastical Commissioners, further represent, that it appears to us to be expedient that banns of matrimony should be published, and that marriages, baptisms, churchings, and burials should be solemnized or performed at the said church of Saint Luke, Bromley Common situate as aforesaid and that the fees to be received in respect of the publication of such banns and of the solemnization or performance of the said offices should be paid and belong to the minister of the same church for the time being. Provided always, that nothing herein contained shall be construed as expressing any intention on the part of us the said Commissioners to concur in or approve the taking of any fee for the performance of the said office of baptism or for the registration thereof.

"We therefore humbly pray that Your Majesty will be graciously pleased to take the premises into Your Royal consideration, and to make such Order with respect thereto as to Your Majesty in Your Royal wisdom shall seem meet.

"The SCHEDULE to which the foregoing Representation has reference.

"The District Chapelry of Saint Luke, Bromley Common, being:—

"All that part of the new parish (sometime chapelry district) of the Holy Trinity Bromley, in the county of Kent and in the diocese of Canterbury, which is bounded upon the west by the parish of Hayes, upon the north-west and upon the north by the parish of Bromley, upon the east by the new parish of Saint George Bickley, all in the county and diocese aforesaid, and upon the remaining sides, that is to say, upon the south and upon the south-east, by an imaginary line commencing upon the boundary which divides the said new parish of Saint George Bickley from the new parish of the Holy Trinity Bromley aforesaid, at the northern point of junction of Southborough-lane with Crown-lane, and extending thence, first westward, then north-westward, and then again westward, along the middle of the last-named lane for a distance of forty chains or thereabouts to its junction with Bromley Common-road, and extending thence north-westward along the middle of the last-named road for a distance of nine chains or thereabouts to its junction with the occupation road leading to Ho:k Farm, and extending thence south-westward along the middle of the said occupation road for a distance of ten chains or thereabouts to the point where it bends in a north-westerly direction towards the said Farm, and extending thence still south-westward and in a straight line for a distance of twelve chains or thereabouts to a point in the middle of the stream called or known as the Raven's Bourne, and extending thence first south-eastward and then southward along the middle of the said stream for a distance of ten and a half chains or thereabouts to the point where it crosses the public footpath leading from the said Bromley Common-road to Hayes, and extending, first south-westward, and then westward, along the middle of the same footpath for a distance of thirty-one and a-half chains or thereabouts, thereby passing in the last-mentioned direction along the northern side of Brook Wood, to the boundary at the north-western angle of the said wood, which boundary divides the said new parish of the Holy Trinity Bromley from the parish of Hayes aforesaid."

And whereas the said representation has been approved by Her Majesty in Council: now, therefore, Her Majesty, by and with the advice of Her said Council, is pleased hereby to ratify the said representation, and to order and direct that the same and every part thereof shall be effectual in law immediately from and after the time when this Order shall have been duly published in the London Gazette pursuant to the said Acts; and Her Majesty, by and with the like advice, is pleased hereby to direct that this Order be forthwith registered by the Registrar of the said diocese of Canterbury. *C. PRESENT,

The QUEEN'S Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England have, in pursuance of the Act of the fifty-ninth year of His Majesty King George the Third, chapter one hundred and thirty-four; of the Act of the second and third years of

Her Majesty, chapter forty-nine; of the Act of the fourteenth and fifteenth years of Her Majesty, chapter ninety-seven; and of the Act of the nineteenth and twentieth years of Her Majesty, chapter fifty-five, duly prepared and laid before Her Majesty in Council a representation, bearing date the eleventh day of April, in the year one thousand eight hundred and eighty-nine, in the words following, that is to say:—

“We, the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, in pursuance of the Act of the fifty-ninth year of His Majesty King George the Third, chapter one hundred and thirty-four; of the Act of the second and third years of Your Majesty, chapter forty-nine; of the Act of the fourteenth and fifteenth years of Your Majesty, chapter ninety-seven; and of the Act of the nineteenth and twentieth years of Your Majesty, chapter fifty-five, have prepared, and now humbly lay before Your Majesty in Council, the following representation as to the assignment of a district chapelry to the consecrated church of Saint Luke, situate at Chadderton, in the new parish (sometime district) of Saint Matthew, Chadderton, in the county of Lancaster, and in the diocese of Manchester.

“Whereas it appears to us to be expedient that a district chapelry should be assigned to the said church of Saint Luke situate at Chadderton as aforesaid.

“Now therefore, with the consent of the Right Reverend James Bishop of the said diocese of Manchester (testified by his having signed and sealed this representation), we, the said Ecclesiastical Commissioners, humbly represent, that it would, in our opinion, be expedient that all that part of the said new parish of Saint Matthew Chadderton which is described in the schedule hereunder written, all which part, together with the boundaries thereof, is delineated and set forth on the map or plan hereunto annexed, should be assigned as a district chapelry to the said church of Saint Luke situate at Chadderton as aforesaid, and that the same should be named ‘The District Chapelry of Saint Luke Chadderton.’

“And with the like consent of the said James Bishop of the said diocese of Manchester (testified as aforesaid), we, the said Ecclesiastical Commissioners, further represent, that it appears to us to be expedient that banns of matrimony should be published, and that marriages, baptisms, churchings, and burials should be solemnized or performed at the said church of Saint Luke situate at Chadderton as aforesaid, and that the fees to be received in respect of the publication of such banns and of the solemnization or performance of the said offices should be paid and belong to the minister of the same church for the time being: Provided always, that nothing herein contained shall be construed as expressing any intention on the part of us the said Commissioners to concur in or approve the taking of any fee for the performance of the said office of baptism or for the registration thereof.

“We, therefore, humbly pray that Your Majesty will be graciously pleased to take the premises into Your Royal consideration and to make such Order with respect thereto as to Your Majesty, in Your Royal wisdom, shall seem meet.”

“The SCHEDULE to which the foregoing Representation has reference.

“The District Chapelry of Saint Luke Chadderton being:—

“All that part of the new parish (sometime district) of Saint Matthew Chadderton, in the county of Lancaster and in the diocese of Manchester, wherein the present incumbent of such new parish still possesses the exclusive cure of souls, which is bounded upon the west by the consolidated chapelry of Saint Gabriel Middleton Junction, upon the south, partly by the last-named cure, partly by the new parish of Christ Church Chadderton, and partly by the new parish of Saint John Chadderton, all in the county and diocese aforesaid, upon the east, partly by the last-named cure, and partly by the new parish of Saint Andrew Oldham, in the said county and diocese, and upon the remaining side, that is to say, upon the north, by an imaginary line, commencing upon the boundary which divides the said new parish of Saint Andrew Oldham from the new parish of Saint Matthew Chadderton, aforesaid, at the point where the Featherstall-road crosses the Middleton and Oldham road; and extending thence westward along the middle of the last-named road for a distance of one mile and nine chains or thereabouts to the boundary at the junction of the same road with the occupation road leading past Ferney Fields to Gravel Hole, which boundary divides the said new parish of Saint Matthew Chadderton from the consolidated chapelry of Saint Gabriel Middleton Junction aforesaid.”

And whereas the said representation has been approved by Her Majesty in Council: Now, therefore, Her Majesty, by and with the advice of Her said Council, is pleased hereby to ratify the said representation, and to order and direct that the same and every part thereof shall be effectual in law immediately from and after the time when this Order shall have been duly published in the London Gazette pursuant to the said Acts; and Her Majesty, by and with the like advice, is pleased hereby to direct that this Order be forthwith registered by the Registrar of the said diocese of Manchester.

C. L. Peel.

AT the Court at Windsor, the 28th day of May, 1889.

PRESENT,

The QUEEN'S Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS Charles Neve Cresswell, Esquire, Barrister-at-Law, duly appointed in pursuance of the Municipal Corporations Act, 1882, as Commissioner for the purpose of preparing a scheme for determining the boundaries of the wards of the borough of Tynemouth, and for apportioning the Councillors thereto, has transmitted to one of Her Majesty's Principal Secretaries of State his scheme in the following terms:—

“MUNICIPAL CORPORATIONS ACT, 1882.

“(45 and 46 Vict. c. 50.)

Borough of Tynemouth.

“WHEREAS Her Majesty has been pleased by and with the advice of Her Privy Council, and in pursuance and exercise of the power vested in Her Majesty by the Municipal Corporations Act, 1882, to fix the number of Wards into which the borough of Tynemouth shall be divided and to order and direct that such borough shall be divided into six Wards.

“And whereas on the twelfth day of February one thousand eight hundred and eighty-nine the Right Honourable Henry Matthews one of Her Majesty's Principal Secretaries of State in pursuance of the thirtieth section of the said Act did duly warrant and appoint Charles Neve Cresswell Esquire Barrister-at-Law to be a Commissioner to prepare a scheme for determining the boundaries of the Wards of the borough of Tynemouth and for apportioning the Councillors among them as in the said Act directed.

" Now I the said Charles Neve Cresswell do hereby in pursuance of the powers given to me by the said Warrant and appointment determine as hereinafter mentioned the boundaries of the six Wards into which the said borough shall be divided, which Wards are hereinafter numbered and named as follows, that is to say:—

" Ward No. 1 otherwise Tynemouth Ward West.

" Ward No. 2 otherwise Tynemouth Ward East.

" Ward No. 3 otherwise Shields Ward North.

" Ward No. 4 otherwise Shields Ward South.

" Ward No. 5 otherwise Percy Ward.

" Ward No. 6 otherwise Collingwood Ward.

" And I do hereby determine that the said Ward No. 1 otherwise Tynemouth Ward West shall comprise so much of the area of the borough of Tynemouth as is contained within a line commencing from a point in the centre of Albion-street opposite to the centre of Preston-lane at the south-western corner of the graveyard of Christ Church, the parish church of Tynemouth, thence in an easterly direction along the centre of Albion-street to its junction with Tynemouth-road, thence along the centre of Tynemouth-road, to a point opposite to the centre of Linskill-street, thence along the centre of Linskill-street, to a point opposite to the centre of Tyne-street, thence in an easterly direction along the centre of Tyne-street to a point opposite to the centre of Ropery-stairs, thence along the centre of the said stairs to a point opposite to the centre of Bell-street, thence in a westerly direction along the centre of Bell-street to a point opposite to the centre of Maitland's-lane, thence along the centre of the said lane to the borough boundary of the River Tyne, thence in a westerly direction along the said boundary to a point opposite to the centre of the Broad Quay, thence in a north-westerly direction along the centre of the Broad Quay to a point opposite to the centre of Wooden Bridge Bank, thence in a northerly direction along the centre of Wooden Bridge Bank to Bedford-street, thence along the centre of Bedford-street to a point opposite to the centre of Albion-street, thence in an easterly direction along the centre of Albion-street to the point of commencement aforesaid.

" And I do hereby determine that the said Ward No. 2 otherwise Tynemouth Ward East shall comprise so much of the area of the borough of Tynemouth as is contained within a line commencing from the point of intersection of the northern and eastern boundaries of No. 1 Ward in Tynemouth-road, thence in an easterly direction along the centre of Tynemouth-road to a point opposite to the centre of Cross-lane on the bridge of the North Eastern Railway thence across the said railway in a south-easterly direction and to the eastward of Percy-square to a point in the borough boundary on the River Tyne near the south-east corner of Percy-square, thence in a westerly direction along the said boundary to the eastern boundary of No. 1 Ward, thence in a northerly direction along the said boundary to the point of commencement aforesaid.

" And I do hereby determine that the said Ward No. 3 otherwise Shields Ward North shall comprise so much of the area of the borough of Tynemouth as is contained within a line commencing from the point already determined in Albion-street opposite to the centre of Preston-lane thence in a northerly direction along the centre of Preston-lane to a point opposite to the centre of Front-street Preston, thence along the centre of Front-street to a point opposite to the centre of Hawkey's-lane, thence in a southerly direction along the centre of Hawkey's-lane to a point opposite to the centre of the Newcastle and Tynemouth main road, thence in an easterly direction along the centre of the said main road to a point opposite to the centre of Coach-lane, thence in a southerly direction along the centre of Coach-lane to a point opposite to the centre of Waterville-terrace, thence in an easterly direction along the centre of Waterville-terrace to a point opposite to the centre of Borough-road, thence in a southerly direction along the centre of Borough-road to a point opposite to the centre of New Quay, thence to the nearest point in the boundary of the borough on the River Tyne thence in an easterly direction along the said boundary to the western boundary of No. 1 Ward, thence in a north-westerly direction along the said western boundary of No. 1 Ward to the point of commencement aforesaid.

" And I do hereby determine that the said Ward No. 4, otherwise Shields Ward South, shall comprise so much of the area of the borough of Tynemouth as is contained within a line commencing from the point already determined in the boundary of the borough at New Quay, thence in a north-westerly and westerly direction along the boundary of No. 3 Ward to the point opposite to the centre of Coach-lane, thence in a southerly direction along the centre of Coach-lane to a point opposite to the centre of Lawson-street thence along the centre of Lawson-street and Lawson-street West to a point opposite to the centre of Dock-road thence in a south-easterly direction along the centre of Dock-road to a point in the parapet wall abutting upon 'Smiths' Ship Building Yard, thence in a south-easterly direction to the nearest point in the boundary of the borough on the River Tyne, thence in a northerly direction along the said boundary to the point of commencement aforesaid.

" And I do hereby determine that Ward No. 5 otherwise Percy Ward shall comprise so much of the area of the borough of Tynemouth as is contained within a line commencing from the point already determined in Albion-street opposite to the centre of Preston-lane, thence in a northerly and westerly direction along the eastern and northern boundaries of No. 3 Ward to a point opposite to the centre of Preston North-road, thence in a northerly direction along the centre of Preston North-road to the borough boundary, thence in an easterly direction along the said boundary to the extreme north-eastern corner of the borough at Cullercoats thence in a southerly and westerly direction along the seaward boundary of the borough to the point already determined at the south-eastern corner of Percy-square, thence in a northerly and westerly direction along the boundary of No. 2 Ward to the boundary of No. 1 Ward, thence in a westerly direction along the northern boundary of No. 1 Ward to the point of commencement aforesaid.

" And I do hereby determine that the said Ward No. 6 otherwise Collingwood Ward shall comprise so much of the area of the borough of Tynemouth as is contained within a line commencing from the point in the boundary of the borough already determined at 'Smiths' Ship Building Yard on the River Tyne, thence in a north-westerly and north-easterly direction along the western boundary of No. 4 Ward to the boundary of No. 3 Ward thence in a northerly direction along the western boundary of No. 3 Ward to the boundary of No. 5 Ward, thence in a northerly direction along the western boundary of No. 5 Ward to the boundary of the borough, thence in a westerly, southerly and easterly direction along the line of the boundary of the borough to the point of commencement aforesaid.

"And I the said Charles Neve Cresswell in further pursuance of the said Act and of the said Warrant of Appointment and of the powers thereby created do hereby assign and apportion three Councillors to each and every Ward as follows that is to say:—

"To Ward No. 1 otherwise Tynemouth Ward West:—(1) John Edward Miller, (2) William Carnaby, (3) Joseph Elliot.

"To Ward No. 2 otherwise Tynemouth Ward East:—(1) George Armstrong, (2) John Philip Spencer, (3) John Hart Burn.

"To Ward No. 3 otherwise Shields Ward North:—(1) Alexander Thompson Jewels, (2) Robert Holden, (3) Leslie Morton Johnson.

"To Ward No. 4 otherwise Shields Ward South:—(1) John Heppell, (2) Andrew Nichol Dodds, (3) Jonathan Eskdale.

Privy Council Office, May 28, 1889.

NOTICE is hereby given, that a Petition has been presented to Her Majesty by the Council of the Borough of Bury St. Edmunds, praying, under the provisions of "The Municipal Corporations Act, 1882," for an alteration of the number and boundaries of the Wards into which the said borough is now divided; and notice is hereby further given, that Her Majesty has been pleased, by Her Order in Council of this day's date, to order that the said Petition be taken into consideration by a Committee of the Lords of Her Majesty's Most Honourable Privy Council, on the first day of July, one thousand eight hundred and eighty-nine.

Privy Council Office, May 28, 1889.

NOTICE is hereby given, that a Petition has been presented to Her Majesty in Council by "Dame Mary Louisa Whitworth and others," praying for the grant of a CHARTER OF INCORPORATION under the name and style of "The Manchester Whitworth Institute." And Her Majesty having referred the said Petition to a Committee of the Lords of the Council, notice is further given, that all Petitions for or against such grant should be sent to the Privy Council Office, on or before the first day of July next.

AT the Council Chamber, Whitehall, the 28th day of May, 1889.

By Her Majesty's Most Honourable Privy Council.

THE Lords and others of Her Majesty's Most Honourable Privy Council, by virtue and in exercise of the powers in them vested under The Contagious Diseases (Animals) Acts, 1878 to 1886, and of every other power enabling them in this behalf, do hereby revoke their Order bearing date the thirtieth day of April, one thousand eight hundred and eighty-eight, defining a part of the Port of Liverpool, as a foreign animals wharf: Provided that nothing herein shall be deemed to invalidate or make unlawful anything done under the said Order before the date of this revocation, or interfere with the institution or prosecution of any proceeding in respect of any offence committed against, or any penalty incurred under, the said Order.

NOTICE is hereby given, that the State Apartments of Windsor Castle will be open to the Public on and after Monday, the 10th of June, until further notice.

Whitehall, May 29, 1889.

THE Queen has been pleased to issue a Commission under Her Majesty's Royal Sign Manual to the following effect:—

VICTORIA, R.

VICTORIA, by the Grace of God of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland Queen, Defender of the Faith, to—

Our right trusty and well-beloved Councillor, Farrer, Baron Herschell;

Our trusty and well-beloved:—

Sir James Paget, Baronet, Fellow of the Royal College of Surgeons;

Sir Charles Dalrymple, Baronet;

Sir William Guyer Hunter, Knight Commander of Our Most Distinguished Order of Saint Michael and Saint George, Fellow of the Royal College of Physicians;

Sir Edwin Henry Galsworthy, Knight;

William Scovell Savory, Esquire, President of the Royal College of Surgeons;

Charles Bradlaugh, Esquire;

John Syer Bristowe, Esquire, Fellow of the Royal College of Physicians;

William Job Collins, Esquire, Fellow of the Royal College of Surgeons;

John Stratford Dugdale, Esquire, one of Our Counsel learned in the Law;

Michael Foster, Esquire, Master of Arts, Professor of Physiology in Our University of Cambridge;

Jonathan Hutchinson, Esquire, Fellow of the Royal College of Surgeons ;

James Allanson Picton, Esquire ;

Samuel Whitbread, Esquire ; and

Frederick Meadows White, Esquire, one of Our Counsel learned in the Law ; Greeting !

Whereas We have deemed it expedient that a Commission should forthwith issue to inquire and report as to

(1.) The effect of vaccination in reducing the prevalence of, and mortality from, small-pox.

(2.) What means, other than vaccination, can be used for diminishing the prevalence of small-pox ; and how far such means could be relied on in place of vaccination.

(3.) The objections made to vaccination on the ground of injurious effects alleged to result therefrom ; and the nature and extent of any injurious effects which do, in fact, so result.

(4.) Whether any, and if so, what means should be adopted for preventing or lessening the ill effects, if any, resulting from vaccination ; and whether, and if so, by what means, vaccination with animal vaccine should be further facilitated as a part of public vaccination.

(5.) Whether any alterations should be made in the arrangements and proceedings for securing the performance of vaccination, and, in particular, in the provisions of the Vaccination Acts with respect to prosecutions for non-compliance with the law :

Now know ye, that We, reposing great trust and confidence in your knowledge and ability, have authorized and appointed, and do by these presents authorize and appoint, you, the said Farrer, Baron Herschell ; Sir James Paget ; Sir Charles Dalrymple ; Sir William Guyer Hunter ; Sir Edwin Henry Galsworthy ; William Scovell Savory ; Charles Bradlaugh ; John Syer Bristowe ; William Job Collins ; John Stratford Dugdale ; Michael Foster ; Jonathan Hutchinson ; James Allanson Picton ; Samuel Whitbread ; and Frederick Meadows White ; to be Our Commissioners for the purposes of the said inquiry.

And for the better effecting the purposes of this Our Commission, We do, by these presents, give and grant unto you, or any five or more of you, full power to call before you such persons as you shall judge likely to afford you any information upon the subject of this Our Commission ; and also to call for, have access to, and examine all such books, documents, registers, and records as may afford you the fullest information on the subject ; and to inquire of and concerning the premises by all other lawful ways and means whatsoever.

And We do further by these presents authorize and empower you, or any five or more of you, to visit and personally inspect such places as you may deem expedient for the more effectual carrying out of the purposes aforesaid.

And We do by these presents will and ordain that this Our Commission shall continue in full force and virtue, and that you Our said Commissioners, or any five or more of you, may from time to time proceed in the execution thereof, and of every matter and thing therein contained, although the same be not continued from time to time by adjournment.

And We do further ordain that you, or any five or more of you, have liberty to report your proceedings under this Our Commission from time to time, if you shall judge it expedient so to do.

And Our further will and pleasure is, that you do, with as little delay as possible, report to Us, under your hands and seals, or under the hands and seals of any five or more of you, your opinion upon the several matters herein submitted for your consideration.

Given at Our Court at Saint James's, the twenty-ninth day of May, one thousand eight hundred and eighty-nine, in the fifty-second year of Our Reign.

By Her Majesty's Command,
Henry Matthews.

WE, the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, acting in pursuance of the Act of the twenty-ninth and thirtieth years of Her Majesty, chapter one hundred and eleven, section five, do hereby, subject as hereinafter mentioned, grant to the Incumbent for the time being of the vicarage of Emmanuel, Harrow-road, Paddington, in the county of Middlesex, and in the diocese of London, one yearly sum or stipend of sixty pounds, such yearly sum or stipend to be payable out of the common fund under our control, and to be calculated as from the first day of May, in the year one thousand eight hundred and eighty-nine, and to be receivable in four equal portions, on the first day of February, the first day of May, the first day of August, and the first day of November in each and every year: Provided always, that the annual sum or stipend so granted by us to the Incumbent of the said vicarage of Emmanuel, Harrow-road, Paddington, shall be paid only upon the production to us, on or after each of the said lastly-mentioned days in each and every year of a certificate under the hand of the Bishop of the said diocese of London, that an Assistant-Curate, duly licensed by such Bishop, has been employed within the parish of Emmanuel, Harrow-road, Paddington aforesaid, during the quarter of the year then ended: Provided also, that such yearly sum or stipend shall continue payable as aforesaid so long only as may to us appear to be expedient under the circumstances from time to time affecting the said vicarage and parish.

In witness whereof, we have hereunto set our common seal, this twenty-third day of May, in the year one thousand eight hundred and eighty-nine.

WE, the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, acting in pursuance of the Act of the twenty-ninth and thirtieth years of Her Majesty, chapter one hundred and eleven, section five, do hereby grant and convey to the Incumbents for the time being of the several churches or benefices in the diocese of Norwich, which are mentioned in the first column of the schedule hereunto annexed, the several yearly sums or pensions, the amount of which is in each case set forth in the third column of the same schedule, opposite to the name of each church or benefice, which said yearly sums or pensions were formerly payable by the Incumbents of the said several churches or benefices to the Dean and Chapter of Norwich, but are now payable to us, the said Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, it being the intent and meaning of this grant and conveyance that the said yearly sums or pensions shall henceforth cease to be payable.

In witness whereof, we have hereunto set our common seal, this twenty-third day of May, in the year one thousand eight hundred and eighty-nine.

Agricultural Department, Privy Council Office, 31st May, 1889.

In the Matter of Frederick Walton and Company Limited and Reduced, and in the Matter of the Companies Acts, 1867 and 1877.

NOTICE is hereby given, that the Order of the High Court of Justice, Chancery Division, dated the 4th day of May, 1889, confirming the reduction of the capital of the above-named Company from £100,000 to £50,000, and the Minute (approved by the Court) showing with respect to the capital of the Company as altered the several particulars required by the above statutes, were registered by the Registrar of Joint Stock Companies, on the 23rd day of May, 1889; and further take notice, that the said Minute is in the words and figures following:—"The capital of Frederick Walton and Company Limited and Reduced is from henceforth £50,000, divided into 5,000 shares of £10 each, 3,250 of which have been fully paid up, and on 1,000 others, of which £4 per share have been and are to be deemed to be paid up instead of the original capital of £100,000 divided into 1,000 shares of £100 each, 650 of which were fully paid up, and on 200 of which £40 per share were paid up, the remaining 150 shares not having been issued. The remaining 750 of the said 5,000 shares are unissued."—Dated the 23rd day of May, 1889.

H. Forshaw and Hawkins, Liverpool, Solicitors for the Company.

In the Matter of the Railway Companies Act, 1867, and in the Matter of the East and West India Dock Company.

NOTICE is hereby given, that on the 29th day of May, 1889, an amended scheme of arrangement between the above-named Company and their creditors, by which it is provided that no interest already accrued, or hereafter to accrue, during the period commencing with the 31st December, 1887, and concluding with the 30th June, 1889, has (except as to £1,867 17s. 9d.) been, or shall be, paid by the Company on the mortgages and charges of the Company of any class or rank, or on the debenture stock of the Company, or any part thereof, but the interest during such period (except as aforesaid) is to be treated as funded interest bearing interest from the 1st July, 1889, at the same rate as the principal, and as secured on the same security, as the principal, and that if at any time during the ensuing ten years the realized profits of the Company, together with the money, if any, for the time being to the credit of the secured interest reserve fund shall not suffice to pay the whole of the accruing interest on the mortgages, charges, and debenture stock of the Company for any half year in cash, then, and in any such case, the Company shall fund the interest for such half-year, provided that such funding shall not be effected for more than four half-years, and by which it is further provided that if at any time during such period of ten years any property charged or mortgaged specifically shall be realized, the proceeds of such realization shall be applied in or towards redemption of such charge or mortgage, and, subject thereto, one-half of such proceeds shall be applied to the purchase or redemption, at or below par, of deferred debenture stock of the Company, and the other half shall be carried to the credit of the Secured Interest Reserve Fund, and that the proceeds of realization of any property realized under the provisions of Section 74 of the Company's Act 1 and 2 Willm. 4, cap. 52, shall be applied in like manner, and by which it is further provided that the Company shall have power to liquidate debts and liabilities incurred before the 5th March, 1888, to unsecured creditors by the issue of deferred debenture stock bearing interest at the rate of 4 per cent. per annum charged on the undertaking of the Company, subject to the prior mortgages, charges, and debenture stock secured thereon, provided that no interest is to be paid in any half-year on the deferred debenture stock except so far as the profits of the Company for that half-year shall be sufficient to pay the same after providing for the interest on the mortgages, charges, and debenture stock and funded interest thereon, and that any surplus profits in any half-year, after paying interest on the mortgages, charges, and debenture stock, funded interest thereon, deferred debenture stock and funded interest thereon, shall be devoted to payment of arrears of interest on deferred debenture stock except in those half-years in which such arrears of interest are funded, but not containing any provisions for settling and defining any rights of any classes of stockholders of the Company among themselves, was filed in the Chancery Division of the High Court of Justice, and a copy of the said scheme will be furnished to any person requiring the same by the undersigned, or at the office of the Company, at 109, Leadenhall-street, in the city of London, on payment of the regulated charges for the same.—Dated this 29th day of May, 1889.
