THE following Address of the General Assembly of the Church of Scotland having been transmitted by the Right Honourable John Adrian Louis, Earl of Hopetoun, to the Most Honourable Schomberg Henry, Marquis of Lothian, K.T., Her Majesty's Secretary for Scotland, has been by him presented to the Queen, which Address Her Majesty was pleased to receive very graciously:—

May it please Your Majesty,

WE, Your Majesty's loyal and dutiful subjects, the Ministers and Elders of the Church of Scotland convened in General Assembly, have received with the greatest gratification Your Majesty's most gracious letter.

We are most grateful for the goodwill it expresses, and for the assurances of Royal countenance and support it contains towards the Church of Scotland.

Your Majesty may be assured that there are no more loyal subjects in the British Empire than the Office Bearers and Members of the Church of Scotland; and Your Majesty's kindly feelings to the Scottish people and the Presbyterian Church, along with Your many good qualities as our Queen, have given Your Majesty a hold on the loyalty of Scotland greater than has ever been possessed by any British Sovereign.

Your Majesty expresses a confident assurance in the prudence and discretion of the General Assembly. Your Majesty need not doubt that we shall endeavour in this General Assembly to advance in every way we can the highest welfare of the people of Scotland.

We welcome as Your Majesty's representative, for the third time, the Right Honourable the Earl of Hopetoun, who has already as Lord High Commissioner won all hearts by his ability and courtesy, his interest in our Church's welfare, and his kindness to ourselves.

We gratefully accept the grant of two thousand pounds made to us by Your Majesty, and it will be our endeavour so to employ it as to promote the best interests of the population for whose benefit it is designed.

It is our most earnest prayer that the God and Father of Our Lord and Saviour Jesus Christ, who has already preserved Your Majesty so long among us, may spare you still for many years, in personal health and amid family mercies; and that these blessings of earth may be followed by the blessings of Heaven.

May it please Your Majesty, Your Majesty's most faithful and loyal subjects, the Ministers and Elders of the Church of Scotland met in this General Assembly.

Signed in our name, in our presence, and at our appointment by

Paton J. Gloag, D.D., Moderator.

AT the Court at Windsor, the 28th day of May, 1889.

PRESENT,

The QUEEN's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England have, in pursuance of an Act of the sixth and seventh years of Her Majesty chapter thirty-seven sections six and eight duly prepared and laid before Her Majesty in Council a scheme, bearing date the ninth day of May, in the year one thousand eight hundred and eighty-nine, in the words following, that is to say:

"We, the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, in pursuance of an Act of the sixth and seventh years of Your Majesty chapter thirty-seven sections six and eight have prepared and now humbly lay before Your Majesty in Council the following scheme for authorizing the sale and disposal of certain property formerly belonging to the Treasurership of the Cathedral Church of Hereford and now vested in us.

"Whereas by the decease of the Right

Honourable and Reverend Frederick Baron Saye and Sele Treasurer of the said cathedral church who died on or about the twenty-sixth day of May in the year one thousand eight hundred and eighty-seven all the lands tithes tenements and hereditaments theretofore belonging to the said Treasurership became by virtue of the Act of the third and fourth years of Your Majesty chapter one hundred and thirteen absolutely vested in us for the purposes and subject to the provisions applicable to other hereditaments vested in us.

"And whereas our estate in the lands tithes tenements hereditaments and endowments aforesaid consists to a considerable extent of reversions expectant upon the determination of beneficial leases such leases producing only a small annual revenue and partly on that account and partly on account of the character or situation of the property the said lands tithes tenements hereditaments and endowments are unsuitable or inconvenient to be held or applied for the purposes for which estates vested in us are applicable under the Acts by which our proceedings are governed.

"And whereas by an Act of the twenty-third and twenty-fourth years of Your Majesty chapter one hundred and twenty-four power is given to lessees holding under us in the event of our declining to enter into a treaty for the sale of our reversions or the purchase of the leasehold interests to require us to purchase such leasehold interests at a valuation.

"And whereas with a view to the advantageous appropriation of the said lands tithes tenements hereditaments and endowments or of the proceeds thereof for the ultimate improvement of our common fund it is expedient that the said lands tithes tenements hereditaments and endowments or such parts thereof as we shall at any time and from time to time think fit should be sold or disposed of and accordingly that we should be empowered to dispose of our interests therein or in any part or parts thereof in such manner as shall appear to us advisable.

"Now therefore we humbly recommend and propose that we may be authorized and empowered by instrument or instruments in writing duly executed, according to law from time to time to sell or dispose of and duly to convey according to the provisions of the said Act of the sixth and seventh years of Your Majesty's reign with the consent of the holder or holders thereof (if any) to be testified by his her or their being made parties to such instruments all or any of the said lands tithes tenements hereditaments and endowments formerly belonging to the said Treasurership and so vested in us as aforesaid with their appurtenances and all our estate right title and interest therein or in any part or parts thereof unto and to the use of any person or persons desirous or willing to purchase the same and his her or their heirs executors administrators or assigns or otherwise as he she or they shall direct or appoint and for such consideration as shall upon due calculation and enquiry appear to us to be just and reasonable it being our intention to invest the proceeds of such sale from time to time as occasion may arise in the purchase of other lands tithes, rent-charges, tenements, or hereditaments or of some estate or interest therein convenient to be held by us for the purposes of the Acts by which our proceedings are governed as aforesaid and in the meantime to invest the said proceeds in some Government or Parliamentary Stock, or other public securities in England.

"And we further recommend and propose that nothing herein contained shall prevent us from recommending and proposing any other measures relating to the matters aforesaid or any of them in accordance with the provisions of the said Acts or of any other Act of Parliament."

And whereas the said scheme has been approved by Her Majesty in Council: now, therefore, Her Majesty, by and with the advice of Her said Council, is pleased hereby to ratify the said scheme, and to order and direct that the same and every part thereof shall be effectual in law immediately from and after the time when this Order shall have been duly published in the London Gazette pursuant to the said Act; and Her Majesty, by and with the like advice, is pleased hereby to direct that this Order be forthwith registered by the Registrar of the diocese of Hereford.

C. L. Peel.

AT the Court at Windsor, the 28th day of May, 1889.

PRESENT,

The QUEEN's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England have, in pursuance of the Act of the third and fourth years of Her Majesty, chapter one hundred and thirteen, and of the Act of the sixth and seventh years of Her Majesty, chapter thirty-seven, duly prepared and laid before Her Majesty in Council a scheme, bearing date the ninth day of May, in the year one thousand eight hundred and eighty-nine, in the words following, that is to say:—

"We the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England in pursuance of the Act of the third and fourth years of Your Majesty chapter one hundred and thirteen, and of the Act of the sixth and seventh years of Your Majesty chapter thirty-seven have prepared and now humbly lay before Your Majesty in Council the following scheme for constituting a separate district for spiritual purposes to be taken out of the parish of Mansfield, in the county of Nottingham, and in the diocese of Southwell.

"Whereas it has been made to appear to us that it would promote the interests of religion that the particular part of the said parish of Mansfield which is hereinafter mentioned and described should be constituted a separate district in the manner hereinafter recommended and proposed.

"And whereas there is not at present within the limits of the said proposed district any consecrated church or chapel in use for the purposes of Divine worship.

"And whereas certain endowments producing a clear yearly sum in excess of one hundred pounds have been secured to our satisfaction in favour of the said proposed district partly by means of funds heretofore belonging to a certain charity at Mansfield aforesaid which is called 'The Eight Men's Intake' and partly by means of funds heretofore belonging to a certain other charity at Mansfield aforesaid which is called 'The Church Estate' and partly by means of subscriptions which have been paid to us by private persons.

"And whereas the said funds belonging to the said 'Eight Men's Intake' Charity and to the said 'Church Estate' Charity respectively have been so secured by means of certain Orders to that effect made by the Charity Commissioners on the twenty-second day of February one thousand eight hundred and eighty-four and on the fourth day of September one thousand eight hundred and eighty-eight.

"And whereas the said endowments have been so secured and paid as aforesaid upon the understanding that we the said Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England should out of the common fund created by the hereinbefore firstly-mentioned Act pay to the Minister or incumbent of the said proposed district when duly licensed a grant of fifty pounds per annum.

"And whereas under the provisions of section twenty of the said secondly-mentioned Act the trustees of the said 'Eight Men's Intake' Charity and the trustees of the said 'Church Estate' Charity and the said private persons or some of them have nominated to us the Bishop of Southwell for the time being as the Ecclesiastical Corporation sole to whom they desire that the whole right of patronage of the said proposed district and of the nomination of the minister thereof and the whole right of patronage of the new parish which the same district will or may ultimately become and of the nomination of the incumbent of the same new parish should be assigned.

"And whereas so soon as an Order of Your Majesty in Council ratifying this scheme shall have been published in the London Gazette the said annual grant of fifty pounds will be made and secured to the district created by the same Order by an instrument to be executed by us the said Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England under our common seal in accordance with the provisions of the Act of the twenty-ninth and thirtieth years of Your Majesty chapter one hundred and eleven.

"Now therefore with the consent of the Right Reverend George Bishop of the said diocese of Southwell (in testimony whereof he has signed this scheme and sealed the same with his episcopal seal) we the said Ecclesiastical Commissioners humbly recommend and propose that all that portion of the said parish of Mansfield which is more particularly described in the schedule hereunder written and is delineated and set forth on the map or plan hereunto annexed shall upon and from the day of the date of the publication in the London Gazette of any Order of Your Majesty in Council ratifying this scheme become and be constituted a separate district for spiritual purposes, and that the same shall be named 'The District of Saint Mark Mansfield.'

"And we further recommend and propose that the whole right of patronage of the said proposed district and (when the same shall have become a new parish as aforesaid then) of the said new parish and of the nomination of the minister or incumbent thereto shall without any assurance in the law other than this scheme and any duly gazetted Order of Your Majesty in Council ratifying the same and upon and from the day of the date of the publication of such Order in the London Gazette as aforesaid be assigned to and become absolutely vested in and shall and may be exercised by the said George Bishop of Southwell and his successors for ever.

"And we further recommend and propose that nothing herein contained shall prevent us from recommending and proposing any other measures relating to the matters aforesaid or to any of them in accordance with the provisions of the said Acts or of either of them or of any other Act of Parliament.

"The SCHEDULE to which the foregoing Scheme has reference.

"The District of Saint Mark Mansfield being:—

"All that part of the parish of Mansfield in the county of Nottingham and in the diocese of Southwell wherein the present incumbent of such parish still possesses the exclusive cure of souls which is bounded upon part of the north-east by

PRESENT,

The QUEEN'S Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS by an Act passed in the Session of Parliament held in the sixteenth and seventeenth years of Her Majesty's reign, intitled "An Act to amend the laws concerning the burial of the dead in England beyond the limits of the Metropolis, and to amend the Act concerning the burial of the dead in the Metropolis," it is enacted, that in case it appears to Her Majesty in Council, upon the representation of one of Her Majesty's Principal Secretaries of State, that, for the protection of the public health, the opening of any new burial-ground in any city or town; or within any other limits, save with the previous approval of one of such Secretaries of State, should be prohibited, or that burials in any city or town, or within any other limits, or in any burial-grounds or places of burial, should be wholly discontinued, or should be discontinued subject to any exception or qualification, it shall be lawful for Her Majesty, by and with the advice of Her Privy Council, to order that no new burial-ground shall be opened in any city or town consideration by a Committee of the Lords of Her Majesty's Most Honourable Privy Council on the fifteenth day of July next:

And Her Majesty is further pleased to direct that this Order be forthwith published in the London Gazette; and that copies thereof be affixed on the doors of the churches or chapels of, or on some conspicuous places within, the parish affected by such representation, one month before the said fifteenth day of July.

PRESENT,

The QUEEN'S Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS by an Act passed in the session of Parliament held in the sixteenth and seventeenth years of Her Majesty's reign, intituled "An Act to amend the laws concerning the burial of the dead in England beyond the limits of the Metropolis, and to amend the Act concerning the burial of the dead in the Metropolis," it is enacted that, in case it appears to Her Majesty in Council, upon the representation of one of Her Majesty's Principal Secretaries of State, that, for the protection of the public health, the opening of any new burial-ground in any city or town, or within any other limits, save with the previous approval of one of such Secretaries of State, should be prohibited, or that burials in any city or town, or within any other limits, or in any burial-grounds or places of burial, should be wholly discontinued, or should be discontinued subject to any exception or qualification, it shall be lawful for Her Majesty, by and with the advice of Her Privy Council, to order that no new burial-ground shall be opened in any city or town, or within such limits, without such previous approval, or (as the case may require) that, after a time mentioned in the Order, burials in such city or town or within such limits, or in such burial-grounds or places of burial, shall be discontinued wholly, or subject to any exceptions or qualifications mentioned in such Order, and so from time to time as circumstances may require; provided always, that notice of such representation, and of the time when it shall please Her Majesty to order that the same be taken into consideration by the Privy Council, shall be published in the London Gazette, and shall be affixed on the doors of the churches or chapels of, or on some other conspicuous places within, the parishes affected by such representation, one month before such representation is so considered; provided also, that no such representation shall be made in relation to the burial-ground of any parish until ten days' previous notice of the intention to make such representation shall have been given to the Incumbent and Vestry Clerk or Churchwardens of such parish:

And whereas the Right Honourable Henry Matthews, one of Her Majesty's Principal Secretaries of State, after giving to the Incumbents and the Churchwardens of the parishes hereinafter mentioned ten days' previous notice of his intention to make such representation, made a representation stating that, for the protection of the public health, no new burial-ground should be opened in the undermentioned parishes without the previous approval of one of Her Majesty's Principal Secretaries of State, and that burials should be discontinued therein with certain modifications:

And whereas Her Majesty was pleased, by Her Order in Council of the second day of March last, to give notice of such representation, and to order that the same should be taken into consideration by a Committee of the Lords of Her Majesty's Most Honourable Privy Council on the twelfth day of April, one thousand eight hundred and eighty-nine, and such Order has been published in the London Gazette, and copies thereof have been affixed, as required by the said Act:

Now, therefore, Her Majesty, by and with the advice of Her Privy Council, is pleased to order, and it is hereby ordered, that no new burial-ground shall be opened in the undermentioned parishes without the previous approval of one of Her Majesty's Principal Secretaries of State, and that burials in the said parishes shall be discontinued, as follows; viz. :—

The QUEEN'S Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS by an Act passed in the Session of Parliament held in the eighteenth and nineteenth years of Her Majesty's reign, intituled "An Act further to amend the laws "concerning the burial of the dead in England," it is, amongst other things, enacted that it shall be lawful for Her Majesty, by and with the advice of Her Privy Council, from time to time to postpone the time appointed by any Order in Council for the discontinuance of burials, or otherwise to vary any Order in Council made under any of the Acts recited in the said Act, or under the said Act (whether the time thereby appointed for the discontinuance of burials thereunder, or other operation of such Order, shall or shall not have arrived), as to Her Majesty, with such advice as aforesaid, may seem fit:

And whereas Orders in Council have been made directing the discontinuance of burials in the churchyards hereinafter mentioned from the time specified in such Orders; and whereas it seems fit to Her Majesty, by and with the advice of Her Privy Council, that the time for discontinuing burials in the said churchyards be postponed:

Now, therefore, Her Majesty, by and with the advice aforesaid, is pleased to order, and it is hereby ordered, that the time for the discontinuance of burials in such churchyards be postponed as follows, viz. :—

REGULATIONS made by the Lords Commissioners of Her Majesty's Treasury, dated 31st May 1889, prescribing Regulations relating to the Preparation, Issue, and Cancellation of Treasury Bills, under the Acts 40 Vict. c. 2, and 52 Vict. c. 6 :—

THE Lords Commissioners of Her Majesty's Treasury hereby rescind the existing regulations relating to the preparation, issue, and cancellation of Treasury Bills; and they proceed to lay down in lieu thereof the following regulations in pursuance of the powers conferred upon them by section 9 of the Treasury Bills Act, 1877, and section 5 of the National Debt Act, 1889, viz. :—

I. Whenever it is required to exercise the powers conferred by the Treasury Bills Act, 1877 (40 Vict. c. 2) the Treasury will issue Treasury Bills in one of the following ways, or partly in one way and partly in another way.

A. The Treasury may invite tenders for Treasury Bills.

(1.) Notice that such tenders will be received at the office of the Chief Cashier of the Bank of England on a given day shall be published in the London Gazette not less than five clear days before the date on which tenders are to be delivered, and shall specify the period (not exceeding 12 months) for which, and the terms and conditions subject to which, the Bills are to be issued.

(2.) The principal of such Bills shall be repaid at the date mentioned in each Bill.

(3.) The Treasury will from time to time instruct the Bank of England as to the form in which the tenders are to be made, and as to any other necessary proceedings in relation thereto.

(4.) The Treasury reserves to itself the right of refusing tenders, if it should think proper to do so.

(5.) The tenders for Treasury Bills shall be opened at the Bank of England in the presence of such person or persons as the Treasury shall from time to time direct.

B. The Treasury may also issue Treasury Bills with a fixed rate of interest to the Commissioners for the Reduction of the National Debt, or to such other person or persons as may be willing to buy the same.

(1.) The rate of interest of the Bills so issued shall be fixed by the Treasury.

(2.) The currency of the Bills shall be for any period not exceeding 12 months.

(3.) The principal of such Bills shall be repaid at the date mentioned in each Bill.

II. The name of the Permanent Secretary for the time being to the Treasury will be engraved on Treasury Bills, which will be printed on a special description of paper to be previously approved by the Treasury, and will be numbered in arithmetical order throughout each financial year, commencing with new numbers in each year.

III. The Treasury will from time to time give directions to the Bank of England for the preparation, in the Form A. hereto annexed, of such Treasury Bills as are required.

IV. When any tender or tenders for Treasury Bills shall have been accepted by the Treasury, or when the National Debt Commissioners or other person or persons shall have signified their willingness to buy Treasury Bills carrying a fixed rate of interest, a Treasury Warrant, drawn in the terms of one of the Forms B. or C. annexed to these regulations, will be transmitted for the counter-signature of the Comptroller and Auditor-General, authorizing the Bank of England to prepare and issue such number of Treasury Bills, and for such amounts, as are specified in the Warrant.

V. The Bills when ready for issue will, upon the receipt of the sums therein specified, be delivered by the Bank of England, under the authority of the Treasury Warrant, to the order of the person or persons entitled thereto.

VI. The amounts received by the Bank for Treasury Bills sold will be carried to the account of Her Majesty's Exchequer, as provided by the fifth section of the said Act.

VII. When the consideration allowed for the money advanced on Treasury Bills takes the form of interest prepaid, it will be necessary to make provision for showing in the public accounts the amount of such consideration. Accordingly, the Treasury will direct the issue to the Bank of England from the Exchequer of the amount of the prepaid interest, which will be paid by the Bank to the Exchequer account, together with the sums actually received for the Bills, thereby rendering the amount paid to the Exchequer, and thus brought to account as money raised, equal to the nominal amount of the Bills.

VIII. The principal sums of Treasury Bills will be payable at the Bank of England on the dates specified in the Bills, without grace, and the discharge for the payment of such Bills shall be an acknowledgment of receipt, to be given on the back of the Bills, or on a schedule of the numbers and amounts of the Bills.

IX. When Treasury Bills have been paid off by the Bank of England, they will be cancelled in such manner as may be determined upon by the Governor and Deputy Governor of the Bank, and the Treasury will from time to time, upon an application from the Bank, direct cancelled Treasury Bills to be destroyed, and the Chief Cashier of the Bank shall certify to the Treasury the particulars of the Treasury Bills so destroyed.

X. When, upon any representation made by any holder of a Treasury Bill, the Treasury has reason to believe that a Bill has been lost, destroyed, or defaced, the Treasury will cause a warrant to be prepared authorizing the issue of a duplicate of such Bill, and will give directions for the delivery of such duplicate Bill to the person or persons applying for the same, upon the execution by them of the usual bond of indemnity.

NOTICE TO MARINERS.

(No. 176 of the year 1889.)

UNITED STATES COAST.

THE United States Government has given notice, that the United States Vessel of War "Blake," Lieutenant and Commander J. E. Pillsbury, engaged in making current observations, will anchor during May, June, and July, 1889, in the following localities, and in depths between 100 and 2,500 fathoms:—

South-east of Cape Hatteras; south of Nantucket Shoal; and south of George Shoal.

When at anchor, she will hoist during the day, three balls or shapes at the fore topmast head, and at night will show from the same position, three lights vertical, red, white, and red.

Mariners are requested to look out for and keep clear of her.

Sub Surface Current Floats.

In connection with this current work, Lieutenant Pillsbury will set adrift a number of subsurface current floats, each consisting of a  $1\frac{1}{2}$  inch square white painted pine staff, about eight feet long, projecting from one to two feet above the surface, surmounted by a simple tin wind vane, and with four galvanized sheet iron wings at the lower end to receive the impulse of the ocean currents at a depth of six or seven feet below the surface, and cause it to drift with the sub surface currents and be substantially exempt from the influence of winds or surface currents. The staff carries five glass watertight tubes, each held in a mortise by easily unfastened copper wire. Each tube incloses an envelope, addressed to "The Superintendent Coast and Geodetic Survey, Washington, D. C.," containing a leaflet printed in English, German, Spanish, and French, showing the date and locality of the first launching of the float, and giving instructions to the finder as to filling the blanks with the date and locality at which he found it. Any person finding one of the floats is respectfully and earnestly requested to remove from it one of the glass tubes and immediately set the float adrift again, so that it may continue to float with currents until intercepted again and another tube removed by some other finder, and so on until it is finally lost or all its tubes removed. Each finder should break or open the tube carefully, read, and follow the directions of the printed leaflet, by writing in the proper blank spaces the date and locality at which he found it, either afloat or ashore, appending his own signature and address, inclosing it in the accompanying envelope, and forwarding it to the nearest United States Consul, or to the Superintendent of the Coast and Geodetic Survey, as addressed. In view of the importance, to safety of navigation, of all items of information as to the direction and velocity of ocean currents, all mariners and people along shore are urgently requested to contribute to the success of this feature of their investigation by intercepting and relaunching a float wherever seen, and carefully complying with the foregoing suggestions.

By command of their Lordships,

W. J. L. Wharton, Hydrographer.
