*Board of Trade (Fisheries Department),
London, June 21, 1889.*

REGULATIONS to be observed by the Admirals, Masters, and Crews of the Fishing Smacks and Steam Carriers forming the Fleet of the Great Yarmouth Steam Carrying Company Limited ("Red White Fleet"), made pursuant to the provisions of Section 10 of "The Merchant Shipping (Fishing Boats) Act, 1887."

WHEREAS the Great Yarmouth Steam Carrying Company Limited, forming part of an Association of Owners of Fishing Vessels engaged in fishing in the North Sea, have applied to the Board of Trade to make such Regulations respecting the conveyance of fish from trawlers to vessels engaged in collecting and carrying fish to ports as may appear to the said Board to be expedient for the purpose of preventing loss of life, or danger to life or limb: Now, therefore, the Board of Trade do make and publish the following Regulations:—

1. There shall be one signal for the Trawler's boat to put fish on board the Carrier (which operation is hereinafter called "boarding"), and such signal shall be shown from the Carrier, but shall not be exhibited when the weather is such as to render it dangerous for boats to board.

2. The Admiral, when on the spot, shall determine whether the weather is fit for boarding or not, and, if in his opinion it is so fit, shall cause the Carrier to hoist the signal to board.

3. In the event of the Admiral being absent when the boarding is about to commence, the Master of the Carrier shall determine whether the weather is fit for boarding or not, and, if in his opinion it is so fit, shall hoist or cause to be hoisted the signal to board.

4. After the boarding signal has been hoisted the Master of the Carrier must be on deck whilst boarding is taking place, and shall have full authority over the crews of all boats when alongside or on board of the Carrier. In the event of a change in the weather rendering it unfit for boarding, he shall lower the boarding signal, and having taken on board the cargoes of the boats already alongside, shall at once steam to windward of the Fleet.

5. Although the signal for boarding is hoisted, yet there shall be no legal obligation upon the Skippers of the Trawlers to board, and each Skipper must use his own independent judgment in the matter. No Skipper shall send away his boat for the purpose of boarding from his vessel's side unless the boarding signal is then exhibited.

6. When the deck of the Carrier is temporarily full or encumbered with boxes, the Master of such Carrier shall haul down to half-mast the boarding signal. No Skipper shall permit his boat to leave his Trawler with fish whilst such signal is half-mast.

7. The Owner of every Trawler shall supply two life-buoys and three life-belts to such Trawler. The Skipper thereof shall keep or cause to be kept the life-buoys and life-belts, as well as any other life-saving appliances which may be supplied by the Owner, at all times fit and ready for use.

8. The Skipper of each Trawler shall not permit the boat to leave his Trawler for the Carrier unless the boat has a suitable life-buoy attached by a line to the stern-ring thereof, or unless each man going in the boat wears a life-belt.

9. It shall be the duty of the crew of the boat to wear life-belts when ordered by their Skipper to do so.

10. The Skipper of each Trawler shall keep his boat efficiently fitted with a life-line or rope rove through the keel, and extending on either side right along it, fore-and-aft, and also up the stem and stern, and shall not permit her to leave for the Carrier with fish unless properly laden and efficiently manned.

11. No Skipper shall permit his boat to leave his Trawler for the Carrier except in charge of himself or the second hand. In the event of the second hand being incapacitated and unable to handle the boat the Skipper may appoint the third hand in his place if thoroughly competent.

12. Boarding shall not be permitted after dark.

13. The Master of a Carrier on arriving at the Fleet shall be ready to distribute his boxes, stores, &c., as soon as practicable. He shall not permit any boat to leave his vessel with more stores or empty fish boxes than she can reasonably and safely carry.

14. The Master of the Carrier shall always engage from the Smacks' boats sufficient hands to assist her own crew in stowing fish, provided such assistance is needed. Other boats' crews shall only place their boxes on the Carrier's deck and at once return in their boats to their respective vessels. It shall be the duty of the Master of the Carrier to order crews back to their Trawlers directly they have placed their boxes on the Carrier's deck; he shall also, before leaving the fishing ground, approach as near as he can with safety the Trawlers from which the stowers have been engaged for the purpose of assisting them on board the same.

15. When alongside the Carrier, and engaged in boarding or in the transport of stores or empty fish boxes, the Crews of the boats shall obey the commands of the Master of the Carrier.

16. In the event of the Carrier being also engaged in trawling, the Master shall not permit his trawl to be down later than midnight previous to the day on which he proposes to take in fish, and shall have the beam inboard and the deck clear before hoisting the signal for boarding.

17. Skippers of Trawlers shall have their fish ready packed before sailing for the Carrier to board, so that there may be as few Trawlers as possible lying near the Carrier.

18. No Skipper, unless compelled by unavoidable circumstances, shall suffer his Trawler to approach a Carrier engaged in receiving fish so near that the boats alongside the Carrier are injuriously affected by the Trawler's backwash.

N.B.—If any person to whom any of the above Regulations applies makes default in compliance therewith, he will for each such default incur a penalty not exceeding ten pounds (50 and 51 Vict., ch. 4, section 10, sub-section 4).

Signed by order of the Board of Trade, this 23rd day of March, 1889.

Henry G. Calcraft,
Secretary to the Board of Trade.
