

pleased hereby to direct that this Order be forthwith registered by the Registrar of the said diocese of Saint Albans.

C. L. Peel.

AT the Court at Windsor, the 5th day of July, 1889.

PRESENT,

The QUEEN's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England have, in pursuance of the Act of the seventh and eighth years of Her Majesty chapter ninety-four of the Act of the thirteenth and fourteenth years of Her Majesty chapter ninety-four and of the Act of the thirty-second and thirty-third years of Her Majesty chapter ninety-four duly prepared and laid before Her Majesty in Council a scheme, or representation bearing date the sixth day of June, in the year one thousand eight hundred and eighty-nine, in the words following, that is to say:—

"We, the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, acting under the provisions of the Act of the seventh and eighth years of Your Majesty chapter ninety-four, of the Act of the thirteenth and fourteenth years of Your Majesty chapter ninety-four, and of the Act of the thirty-second and thirty-third years of Your Majesty, chapter ninety-four, have prepared and now humbly lay before Your Majesty in Council the following scheme or representation for altering the boundaries of the new parish of Saint James Burnley in the county of Lancaster and in the diocese of Manchester.

"Whereas by the authority of an Order of Your Majesty in Council, bearing date the twenty-eighth day of November in the year one thousand eight hundred and forty-four and published in the London Gazette upon the third day of December following a part of the parochial chapelry of Burnley (hereinafter called a parish or parochial chapelry) in the parish of Whalley in the county of Lancaster and at that time in the diocese of Chester but now in the diocese of Manchester aforesaid, was constituted a separate district for spiritual purposes, and the same was called 'The District of Saint James Burnley.'

"And whereas by the Authority of another Order of Your Majesty in Council bearing date the twenty-third day of December in the year one thousand eight hundred and forty-five, and published in the London Gazette on the sixteenth day of January, in the year one thousand eight hundred and forty-six, the boundaries of the said district of Saint James Burnley were altered.

"And whereas the said district of Saint James Burnley has since become a new parish of the character contemplated by the Act of the sixth and seventh years of Your Majesty chapter thirty-seven, and by the above mentioned Act of the thirty-second and thirty-third years of Your Majesty, chapter ninety-four.

"And whereas by the authority of another Order of Your Majesty in Council bearing date the sixteenth day of May in the year one thousand eight hundred and seventy-one, and published in the London Gazette upon the same day, the boundaries of the said new parish of Saint James Burnley were again altered.

"And whereas it has been represented to us and it appears to us to be expedient that the boundaries of the said new parish of Saint James Burnley, should be further altered in the manner hereinafter mentioned.

"Now therefore with the consent of the Right Reverend James Bishop of the said diocese of Manchester (in testimony whereof he has signed and sealed this scheme or representation). We, the said Ecclesiastical Commissioners, humbly represent recommend and propose that from and after the day of the date of the publication in the London Gazette of any Order of Your Majesty in Council ratifying this scheme or representation and without any assurance in law other than such duly gazetted Order the boundaries of the said new parish of Saint James Burnley shall be further altered so that all that portion of the said parish or parochial chapelry of Burnley which is described in the schedule hereunder written and is delineated and set forth upon the map or plan hereunto appended and is thereon coloured pink shall be annexed to and shall in future form part of the said new parish of Saint James Burnley.

"And we further represent recommend and propose that nothing herein contained shall prevent us from representing recommending or proposing any other measures relating to the matters aforesaid, or any of them in accordance with the provisions of the hereinbefore mentioned Acts or of any of them or of any other Act of Parliament.

"The SCHEDULE to which the foregoing Scheme or Representation has reference.

"The territory to be annexed to the new parish of Saint James, Burnley, in the county of Lancaster and in the diocese of Manchester, being:—

"All that portion of the parish or parochial chapelry of Burnley in the county of Lancaster, and in the diocese of Manchester wherein the present incumbent of such parish or parochial chapelry still possesses the exclusive cure of souls, which is bounded upon the north-west and upon the south-west by the new parish of the Holy Trinity, Habergham Eaves, in the said county and diocese, upon the south-east by the new parish of Saint James Burnley aforesaid and upon the remaining side, that is to say, upon the north-east by an imaginary line commencing upon the boundary which divides the said new parish of Saint James Burnley from the parish or parochial chapelry of Burnley aforesaid at the centre of the bridge on the line of the Lancashire and Yorkshire Railway at the south-eastern end of Canning-street and extending thence north-westward along the middle of the said street for a distance of four-and-a-half chains or thereabouts to its junction with Warwick-street and with Rectory-road, and continuing thence still north-westward along the middle of the last-named road for a distance of twenty chains or thereabouts to its present north-western end, a little beyond its junction with Ashley-street and continuing thence still in precisely the same direction and in a straight line for a further distance of ten-and-a-half chains or thereabouts to the boundary which divides the said parish or parochial chapelry of Burnley from the new parish of the Holy Trinity Habergham Eaves aforesaid."

And whereas drafts of the said scheme or representation have been transmitted to the patrons and to the incumbents of the cures affected by the arrangements which are contemplated by such scheme or representation and such patrons and incumbents have respectively signified their assent thereto.

And whereas the said scheme or representation has been approved by Her Majesty in Council: now, therefore, Her Majesty, by and with the advice of Her said Council, is pleased hereby to ratify the said scheme or representation, and to
