C. L. Pe.L.

AT the Court at Osborne House, Isle of Wight, the 19th day of August, 1889.

PRESENT,

The QUEEN's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS by an Order in Council bearing date the seventh day of February one thousand eight hundred and eighty-eight and made under and by virtue of the provisions of an Act passed in the first session of the Parliament holden in the first and second years of the reign of Her present Majesty intituled "An Act to abridge the holding of benefices in plurality, and to make better provision for the residence of the clergy" it was ordered that the united benefice consisting of the rectory of All Saints, the rectory of Saint Mary-in-the-Castle, and the rectory of Saint Mildred situate in the city and diocese of Canterbury should be disunited by separating the said rectory of All Saints from the united benefice of the rectory of All Saints, the rectory of Saint Mary-in-the-Castle and the rectory of Saint Mildred; and by the said Order in Council there was assigned and attached to each of the said benefices its own original endowments and emoluments, and it was directed that each benefice should bear its own charges and outgoings.

And whereas it is by the twenty-third section of the said Act enacted "That whenever two or more benefices which have at any time been

"united into one benefice shall be disunited and become separate benefices under the provisions of the said Act, whether the Order for disunion shall extend to the whole number of benefices of which such united benefice consisted, or to one or more of such benefices only. it shall be lawful for Her Majesty in Council, on the recommendation of the Archbishop of the Province with the consent of the patron or patrons of such benefices respectively (such consent to be signified in writing under the hands of such patron or patrons) to assign and attach such portion of the glebe lands, tithes, moduses, rent-charges, or other endowments or emoluments belonging to, or arising or accruing within the limits of such united benefice to each of such benefices respectively, as to Her Majesty in Council shall seem fit, notwithstanding such proportion of glebe land, tithes, rent-charges, moduses, or other endowments or emoluments, or any part thereof, may not arise or accrue within the limits of the benefice to which the same shall be so assigned and attached as aforesaid, or may not have belonged thereto, and also to divide and apportion between such benefices all such charges and outgoings as before the disunion thereof were imposed upon the whole united benefice, and in the case of mortgages with the consent of the mortgagees in writing under their hands and seals."

And whereas by the twenty-seventh section of the said Act, after reciting that the changes effected by virtue of the provisions aforesaid for uniting or disuniting benefices and for altering the contents of parishes, may when the Orders for those purposes respectively come into operation, raise doubts and create disputes, not foreseen at the time when such Orders may have been made respecting ecclesiastical jurisdiction, glebe lands, tithes, rent-charges and other ecclesiastical dues, rates, and payments, patronage, rights to pews, and the definition of local boundaries, it is enacted that it shall be lawful for Her Majesty in Council at any time within five years after such Orders respectively shall come into full operation, if occasion shall arise, to make a Supplemental Order for removing such doubts and settling such disputes, and that every such supplemental Order shall have the same force and effect as if it had formed part of the original Order made under the provisions of the said Act.

And whereas the hereinbefore-mentioned Order in Council came into full operation on the first day of March one thousand eight hundred and eighty-eight on the first avoidance after the said Order in Council of the said united benefice.

And whereas in the statement of facts upon which the said Order in Council of the seventh February one thousand eight hundred and eighty-eight was founded, it was stated that there was a house of residence situate within the said parish of Saint Mildred suitable for an incumbent for that benefice, and it was also stated that the net yearly value of the said united benefice was two hundred and seventy-four pounds or thereabouts, of which the annual sum of three pounds arose and was payable in respect of the benefice of All Saints.

And whereas it now appears that the said yearly value of two hundred and seventy-four pounds, or thereabouts, consists in part of certain sums amounting to two hundred pounds thirteen shillings and four pence per annum which have been secured by the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England to the said late united benefice of All Saints, Saint Mary-in-the-Castle and Saint Mildred, and also in further part of the interest on a sum of four hundred pounds held by the Governors of the Bounty of Queen Anne for the augmentation of the maintenance of the poor clergy, and which was appropriated and secured by them to the said late united benefice; and it also appears that the said late united benefice was subject to a mortgage to the said Governors in respect of which mortgage the sum of fifty-nine pounds fifteen shillings and five pence is still due and owing to the said Governors.

And whereas doubts, not foreseen at the time when the said Order of the seventh February one thousand eight hundred and eighty-eight was made, have arisen whether the said house of residence is legally appropriated to the benefice of Saint Mary-in-the-Castle and Saint Mildred, and whether the said sum of two hundred pounds thirteen shillings and four pence per annum, and the income of the said sum of four hundred pounds can be legally paid by the said Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, and by the said Governors respectively to the incumbent of the said benefice of Saint Mary-in-the-Castle with Saint Mildred, and whether the money now due and owing in respect of the said mortgage is legally secured solely on the revenues of the said benefice of Saint Mary-in-the-Castle with Saint Mildred.

And whereas the Right Honourable and Most Reverend Edward White, Lord Archbishop of Canterbury, hath, pursuant to the enactment aforesaid, made a recommendation in a writing dated the fifteenth day of May, one thousand eight hundred and eighty-nine, which said recommendation is in the words following:—

"We Edward White Lord Archbishop of Canterbury as the Archbishop of the province and of the diocese in which the said benefice of All Saints in the city of Canterbury and the said benefice of Saint Mary-in-the-Castle with Saint Mildred in the same city are respectively situate do hereby pursuant to the beforementioned Act of Parliament and with the consent in writing under the hand of the Right Honourable Hardinge Stanley Baron Halsbury Lord High Chancellor of Great Britain the Patron in right of the Crown and the person now entitled to present to each of the said benefices (which consent is hereunder written) recommend that Your Majesty in Council for the purpose of removing such doubt as aforesaid do assign and attach to the said benefice of Saint Mary-in-the-Castle with Saint Mildred (in addition to its own original endowments and emoluments already assigned and attached to it) all that the house of residence which belonged to the said late united benefice of All Saints Saint Mary-in-the-Castle and Saint Mildred and also all that the said sum of two hundred pounds thirteen shillings and four pence per annum granted by the said Ecclesiastical Commissioners to the said late united benefice and also all that the said sum of four hundred pounds held by the said Governors for or on behalf of the said late united benefice and with the like consent and also with the consent of the said Governors (which consent is hereunder written) we further recommend that Your Majesty in Council shall apportion unto the said benefice of Saint Mary-in-the-Castle with Saint Mildred the said Mortgage which before the disunion thereof was imposed upon the whole united benefice and also the said sum of fifty-nine pounds fifteen shillings and five pence now due and owing in respect of the said mortgage.

"Given under our hand this fifteenth day of May in the year of Our Lord one thousand eight hundred and eighty-nine. "Edu. Cantuar."

And whereas the consents referred to in the said recommendation are as follows:—

"CONSENT of the Patron.

"I The Right Honourable Hardinge Stanley Baron Halsbury Lord High Chancellor of Great Britain the Patron in right of the Crown and the person now entitled to present to each of the above-named benefices of All Saints and Saint Mary-in-the-Castle with Saint Mildred do hereby signify my consent to the above written recommendations and to all things therein recommended.

"As witness my hand this fifteenth day of May in the year of Our Lord one thousand eight hundred and eighty-nine. "Halsbury, C."

"CONSENT of the Governors of Queen Anne's Bounty.

"We The Governors of the Bounty of Queen Anne for the augmentation of the maintenance of the poor clergy do hereby signify our consent to the above written recommendation that there should be apportioned unto the said benefice of Saint Mary-in-the-Castle with Saint Mildred the above mentioned mortgage and also the said sum of fifty-nine pounds fifteen shillings and five pence now due and owing in respect thereof.

"As witness our Seal this fifth day of June in the year of our Lord one thousand eight hundred and eighty-nine."

Now therefore Her Majesty in Council, by and with the advice of Her said Council, is pleased to make a Supplemental Order for removing the doubts which have arisen as aforesaid, and doth Order, as it is hereby ordered, that there be assigned and attached to the said benefice of Saint Mary-in-the-Castle with Saint Mildred (in addition to its own original endowments and emoluments already assigned and attached to it).

All that the house of residence which belonged to the said late united benefice of All Saints, Saint Mary-in-the-Castle, and Saint Mildred.

And also all that the said sum of two hundred pounds thirteen shillings and four pence per annum granted by the said Ecclesiastical Commissioners to the said late united benefice.

And also all that the said sum of four hundred pounds held by the said Governors of the Bounty of Queen Anne for, or on behalf of, the said late united benefice.

And Her Majesty in Council, by and with the advice of Her said Council, is further pleased to Order, as it is hereby ordered, that there be apportioned unto the said benefice of Saint Mary-in-the-Castle with Saint Mildred the said mortgage which before the disunion thereof was imposed upon the whole united benefice, and also the said sum of fifty-nine pounds fifteen shillings and five pence now due and owing in respect of the said mortgage.

And this Order shall be deemed to be, and construed as, part of the said Order in Council of the seventh day of February, one thousand eight hundred and eighty-eight.

At the Court at Osborne House, Isle of Wight, the 19th day of August, 1889.

PRESENT,

The QUEEN's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England have, in pursuance of the Act of the thirty-third and thirty-fourth years of

Her Majesty, chapter thirty-nine, and of the Acts therein mentioned, that is to say, the Act of the third and fourth years of Her Majesty, chapter one hundred and thirteen, and the Act of the fourth and fifth years of Her Majesty, chapter thirty-nine, and of the Act of the thirty-first and thirty-second years of Her Majesty, chapter one hundred and fourteen, duly prepared and laid before Her Majesty in Council a scheme, bearing date the eleventh day of July in the year one thousand eight hundred and eighty-nine, in the words following, that is to say:—

"We, the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England in pursuance of the Act of the thirty-third and thirty-fourth years of Your Majesty, chapter thirty-nine, and of the Acts therein mentioned, that is to say, the Act of the third and fourth years of Your Majesty, chapter one hundred and thirteen, and the Act of the fourth and fifth years of Your Majesty chapter thirty-nine, and of the Act of the thirty-first and thirty-second years of Your Majesty, chapter one hundred and fourteen, have prepared and now humbly lay before Your Majesty in Council the following scheme for effecting a transfer of the ownership of the advowson or perpetual right of patronage of and presentation to the church and cure (hereinafter called the said benefice) of Allington, in the county of Dorset, and in the diocese of Salisbury.

"Whereas the advowson or perpetual right of patronage of and presentation to the said benefice of Allington is vested for an estate in fee simple without incumbrances in the Reverend Edward Fox, Clerk in Holy Orders, of Silverdale, in the parish of Keymer with Clayton in the county of Sussex, and his heirs and assigns.

"And whereas the said Edward Fox is desirous that the whole advowson or perpetual right of patronage of and presentation to the said benefice of Allington, now vested in him and his heirs and assigns as aforesaid should be transferred to and be vested in the Bishop for the time being of the said diocese of Salisbury.

"And whereas the Right Reverend John now Bishop of the said diocese of Salisbury, is willing to accept such transfer, and in token of such his willingness and also in token that the same transfer has that consent of the Bishop which by the Acts in the hereinbefore mentioned Act recited or by some or one of them is made necessary he the said John Bishop of the said diocese of Salisbury, has executed this scheme as hereinafter mentioned.

"And whereas a certain augmentation of the said benefice of Allington has through us the said Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England and to our satisfaction been made, upon condition nevertheless that the transfer of the advowson of the same benefice which is hereinbefore mentioned and hereinafter proposed shall be effected.

"And whereas it appears to us that the transfer of the patronage of the said benefice of Allington which is hereinbefore mentioned and hereinafter recommended and proposed will tend to make better provision for the cure of souls in the parish or district in or in respect of which the right of patronage or advowson so recommended and proposed to be transferred as aforesaid arises or exists, that is to say, in the parish of Allington.

"Now therefore with the consent of the said Edward Fox (in testimony whereof he has signed and sealed this scheme) and with the consent of the said John Bishop of the said diocese of Salisbury (in testimony whereof he has signed this scheme and sealed the same with his episcopal seal), we the said Ecclesiastical Commissioners humbly recommend and propose that upon and

"And we further recommend and propose that nothing herein contained shall prevent us from recommending and proposing any further or other measures relating to the matters aforesaid or any of them in accordance with the provisions of the said Acts or of any other Act of Parliament."

PRESENT,

The QUEEN's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England have, in pursuance of the Act of the thirty-third and thirty-fourth years of Her Majesty, chapter thirty-nine and of the Acts therein mentioned, that is to say, the Act of the third and fourth years of Her Majesty, chapter one hundred and thirteen, and the Act of the fourth and fifth years of Her Majesty, chapter thirty-nine, and the Act of the thirty-first and thirty-second years of Her Majesty, chapter one hundred and fourteen, duly prepared and laid before Her Majesty in Council a scheme, bearing date the twenty-fifth day of July, in the year one thousand eight hundred and eighty-nine, in the words following, that is to say:—

“We, the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, in pursuance of the Act of the thirty-third and thirty-fourth years of Your Majesty, chapter thirty-nine, and of the Acts therein mentioned, that is to say, the Act of the third and fourth years of Your Majesty, chapter one hundred and thirteen, and the Act of the fourth and fifth years of Your Majesty chapter thirty-nine, and the Act of the thirty-first and thirty-second years of Your Majesty, chapter one hundred and fourteen, have prepared and now humbly lay before Your Majesty in Council the following scheme for effecting a transfer of ownership of the advowson or perpetual right of patronage of and presentation to the church and cure (hereinafter called ‘the said benefice.’) of Saint John Woolwich in the county of Kent and in the diocese of Rochester.

“Whereas the advowson or perpetual right of patronage of and presentation to the said benefice of Saint John Woolwich is now vested in the Rector or Incumbent of the parish of Saint Mary Woolwich in the said county of Kent and his successors.

“And whereas the Reverend Samuel Gilbert Scott now Rector or Incumbent of the rectory of the said parish of Saint Mary Woolwich is desirous that the whole advowson or perpetual right of patronage of and presentation to the said benefice of Saint John Woolwich now vested in him as aforesaid should be transferred to and be vested in the Bishop for the time being of the said diocese of Rochester.

“And whereas the Right Reverend Anthony Wilson now Bishop of the said diocese of Rochester is willing to accept such transfer and in token of such his willingness and also in token that the same transfer has that consent of the Bishop of the diocese which by the Acts in the hereinbefore firstly-mentioned Act recited or by some or one of them is made necessary he the said Anthony Wilson Bishop of the said diocese of Rochester has executed this scheme as hereinafter mentioned.

“And whereas a sum of money has been paid over to us in augmentation of the income of the said benefice of Saint John Woolwich but upon the understanding that the patronage of the same benefice shall be transferred as is hereinafter recommended and proposed.

“And whereas under these circumstances we are of opinion that the transfer of the patronage of the said benefice of Saint John Woolwich which is hereinbefore mentioned and hereinafter recommended and proposed will tend to make better provision for the cure of souls in the parish or district in or in respect of which the right of patronage or advowson so recommended and proposed to be transferred as aforesaid arises or exists, that is to say, in the new parish of Saint John, Woolwich.

“Now therefore with the consent of the said Samuel Gilbert Scott now Rector or Incumbent of the said parish of Saint Mary Woolwich acting as such Rector or Incumbent (in testimony whereof he has signed and sealed this scheme) and with the consent of the said Anthony Wilson Bishop of the said diocese of Rochester (in testimony whereof he has signed this scheme and sealed the same with his episcopal seal).

"And we further recommend and propose that nothing herein contained shall prevent us from recommending and proposing any other measures relating to the matters aforesaid or any of them in accordance with the provisions of the said Acts or of either of them or of any other Act of Parliament."

And whereas the said scheme has been approved by Her Majesty in Council: Now, therefore, Her Majesty, by and with the advice of Her said Council, is pleased hereby to ratify the said scheme, and to order and direct that the same and every part thereof shall be effectual in law imme-

"And we further recommend and propose that the said sum of three hundred and ninety pounds shall be paid to us the said Ecclesiastical Commissioners and that the receipt of our joint treasurers for the time being endorsed on the said mortgage deed shall be a good and sufficient discharge to the said Governors and their successors for the same who shall not be bound or required to see to the application thereof and that upon the receipt of the said sum of three hundred and ninety pounds the whole or any part or parts thereof shall be applied by us at such times and in such manner as shall appear to us to be expedient towards effecting the said proposed improvements at the episcopal residence aforesaid.

"And we further recommend and propose that nothing herein contained shall prevent us from recommending and proposing any other measures relating to the matters aforesaid or any of them in conformity with the provisions of the herein-named Acts or of either of them or of any other Act of Parliament."

The QUEEN's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England have, in pursuance of the Act of the eighth and ninth years of Her Majesty, chapter seventy; of the Act of the fourteenth and fifteenth years of Her Majesty, chapter ninety-seven; of the Act of the nineteenth and twentieth years of Her Majesty, chapter fifty-five; and of the Act of the thirty-fourth and thirty-fifth years of Her Majesty, chapter eighty-two; duly prepared and laid before Her Majesty in Council a representation, bearing date the twenty-fifth day of July in the year one thousand eight hundred and eighty-nine in the words following; that is to say:—

"We the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England in pursuance of the Act of the eighth and ninth years of Your Majesty chapter seventy, of the Act of the fourteenth and fifteenth years of Your Majesty chapter ninety-seven, of the Act of the nineteenth and twentieth years of Your Majesty, chapter fifty-five, and of the Act of the thirty-fourth and thirty-fifth years of Your Majesty chapter eighty-two, have prepared and now humbly lay before Your Majesty in Council the following representation as to the assignment of a consolidated chapelry to the consecrated church of All Saints, Compton, situate within the limits of the new parish (sometime district) of Saint Luke, Leek, in the county of Stafford and in the diocese of Lichfield.

"Whereas at certain extremities of the said new parish of Saint Luke Leek, and of the parish of Leek in the county and diocese aforesaid, which said extremities lie contiguous one to another, and are described in the schedule hereunder written there is collected together a population which is situate at a distance from the several churches of such new parish and of such parish respectively.

"And whereas it appears to us to be expedient that certain contiguous portions (being the portions containing the population aforesaid) of the said new parish of Saint Luke Leek and of the said parish of Leek, should be formed into a consolidated chapelry for all ecclesiastical purposes and that the same should be assigned to the said church of All Saints Compton, situate as aforesaid.

"Now therefore with the consent of the Right Reverend William Dalrymple, Bishop of the said diocese of Lichfield, as such Bishop, and also as the patron in right of his See, of the vicarage of the said parish of Leek and also as the alternate patron, in right of his See, of the said new parish of Saint Luke Leek, and with the consent of the Right Honourable William Henry Smith, the First Lord of Your Majesty's Treasury acting on behalf of Your Majesty as the other alternate patron, in right of the Crown, of the same new parish of Saint Luke Leek, (in testimony whereof they the said consenting parties have respectively signed and sealed this representation), we the said Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England humbly represent that it would in our opinion be expedient that all those contiguous portions of the said new parish of Saint Luke, Leek, and of the said parish of Leek which are described in the schedule hereunder written, all which portions together with the boundaries thereof are delineated and set forth on the map or plan hereunto annexed, should be united and formed into one consolidated chapelry for the said church of All Saints, Compton, situate as aforesaid and that the same should be named 'The Consolidated Chapelry of All Saints, Compton, Leek.'

"We therefore humbly pray that Your Majesty will be graciously pleased to take the premises into Your Royal consideration and to make such Order in respect thereto as to Your Majesty in Your Royal wisdom shall seem meet.

"The SCHEDULE to which the foregoing Representation has reference.

"The Consolidated Chapelry of All Saints, Compton, Leek, being:—

"All that portion of the new parish (sometime district) of Saint Luke, Leek, in the county of Stafford and in the diocese of Lichfield and also all those two contiguous portions of the parish of Leek in the same county and diocese which are comprised within and are bounded by an imaginary line commencing upon the boundary which divides the said parish of Leek from the new parish of Saint Luke, Leek aforesaid at the point in the town of Leek, where Derby-street is joined by Russell-street and extending thence southward along the middle of the last-named street for a distance of six and a half chains or thereabouts to its junction with Heywood-street and extending thence first eastward and then north-eastward along the middle of the last-named street for a distance of eleven chains or thereabouts to its junction with London-road, and extending thence south-eastward along the middle of the last-named road for a distance of seven chains or thereabouts to its junction with Moorhouse-street and extending thence first south-westward then southward and then south-eastward along the middle of the last-named street for a distance of seven and a half chains or thereabouts to its junction with Wood-street and continuing thence in a direction due south-east and in a straight line for a distance of five chains or thereabouts to a point in the middle of the stream called or known as Pickwood Brook and extending thence first south-westward and then southward along the middle of the said stream for a distance of twenty-five and a half chains or thereabouts to the bridge over the same stream at or near to the public footpath leading from the Leek and Sandon High-road near the Leek Cemetery through Bollington Wood and past the house called or known as Cowhay, towards Ashenhurst Mill and extending thence generally south-eastward along the middle of the last-described public footpath for a distance of seventy-eight chains or thereabouts to a point where it crosses the middle of the stream called or known as Leek Brook upon the boundary which divides the said new parish of Saint Luke, Leek, from the new parish of Saint Luke Onecote-cum-Bradnop in the county and diocese aforesaid and extending thence generally south-westward along the last-mentioned boundary for a distance of forty-five chains or thereabouts thereby following the course of the said stream called or known as Leek Brook to the point where the same stream

C. L. Peel.

AT the Court at Osborne House, Isle of Wight, the 19th day of August, 1889.

PRESENT,

The QUEEN's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England have, in pursuance of the Act of the third and fourth years of Her Majesty, chapter one hundred and thirteen, of the Act of the sixth and seventh years of Her Majesty, chapter thirty-seven, and of the Act of the twenty-third and twenty-fourth years of Her Majesty, chapter one hundred and four, duly prepared and laid before Her Majesty in Council a scheme, bearing date the first day of August, in the year one thousand eight hundred and eighty-nine, in the words and figures following, that is to say:—

"We the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England in pursuance of the Act of the third and fourth years of Your Majesty chapter one hundred and thirteen of the Act of the sixth and seventh years of Your Majesty chapter thirty-seven and of the Act of the twenty-third and twenty-fourth years of Your Majesty chapter one hundred and twenty-four have prepared and now humbly lay before Your Majesty in Council the following scheme for constituting a separate district for spiritual purposes to be taken partly out of the new parish (sometime district) of Saint Paul, Low Team, and partly out of the new parish (sometime district chapelry) of Saint Cuthbert Gateshead both within the original limits of the parish of Saint Mary Gateshead in the county of Durham and in the diocese of Durham.

"Whereas it has been made to appear to us that it would promote the interests of religion that the particular portions of the said new parish of Saint Paul Low Team and of the said new parish of Saint Cuthbert Gateshead which are hereinafter mentioned and described should be constituted a separate district in the manner hereinafter set forth.

"And whereas there is not at present within the limits of the said proposed district any con-separated church or chapel in use for the purposes of Divine worship.

"And whereas certain hereditaments and premises situate within the said parish of Saint Mary Gateshead have become vested in us under the provisions of and for the purposes of the herein-mentioned Acts or of some or one of them and we have in respect of such hereditaments and premises agreed to make and pay out of the common fund created by the firstly herein-mentioned Act to the minister of the district hereinafter recommended to be constituted so soon as one shall have been duly licensed in accordance with the provisions of the secondly herein-mentioned Act and to his successors a grant of one hundred and fifty pounds per annum.

"And whereas such grant as aforesaid will be made by an instrument to be executed by us under our common seal in accordance with the provisions of the Act of the twenty-ninth and thirtieth years of Your Majesty chapter one hundred and eleven.

"And whereas the Right Reverend Joseph Barber, Bishop of the said diocese of Durham has contributed and paid to us the said Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England a sum of five hundred pounds to be held by us towards the cost of the provision of a church for the district herein proposed to be constituted upon the understanding that (such arrangement appearing to us to be expedient) the whole right of patronage of the said proposed district, and so soon as the same district shall have become a new parish under the provisions of the hereinbefore secondly-mentioned Act then of the said new parish and of the nomination of the minister or incumbent thereto should be assigned in the manner hereinafter set forth.

"Now therefore with the consent of the said Joseph Barber, Bishop of the said diocese of Durham (in testimony whereof he has signed and sealed this scheme) we the said Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England humbly recommend and propose that all those contiguous portions of the said new parish of Saint Paul Low Team and of the said new parish of Saint Cuthbert Gateshead which are mentioned and described in the schedule hereunder written, and are delineated and set forth upon the map or plan hereunto annexed shall upon and from the day of the date of the publication in the London Gazette of any Order of Your Majesty in Council ratifying this scheme become and be constituted a separate district for spiritual purposes and that the same shall be named 'The District of Saint Aidan Gateshead.'

"And we further recommend and propose that the whole right of patronage of the said proposed district and so soon as the said district shall have become a new parish then of the said new parish and of the nomination of the minister or incumbent thereto, shall without any assurance in the law other than this scheme and any duly gazetted Order of Your Majesty in Council ratifying the same and upon and from the day of the date of the publication of such Order in the London Gazette as aforesaid be assigned to and become and be absolutely vested in and shall and may from time to time be exercised by the said Joseph Barber, Bishop of the diocese of Durham aforesaid and by his successors, Bishops of the same diocese for ever.

"And we further recommend and propose that nothing herein contained shall prevent us from recommending and proposing any other measures relating to the matters aforesaid or to any of them in accordance with the provisions of the said Acts or of any of them or of any other Act of Parliament.

"The SCHEDULE to which the foregoing Scheme has reference.

"The District of Saint Aidan, Gateshead, comprising:—

"I. All that portion of the new parish (sometime district) of Saint Paul, Low Team, in the county of Durham and in the diocese of Durham which is bounded upon the north-west partly by the new parish of Saint Stephen, Low Elswick and partly by the parish of Saint John, Newcastle-upon-Tyne both in the county of the town of Newcastle-upon-Tyne and in the diocese of Newcastle, upon the north-east by the parish of Saint Mary Gateshead upon the south-east by the new parish (sometime district chapelry) of Saint Cuthbert Gateshead both in the county and diocese of Durham aforesaid and upon the remaining side, that is to say, upon the south-west by an imaginary line commencing upon the boundary which divides the said new parish of Saint Cuthbert Gateshead from the new parish of Saint Paul Low Team aforesaid at the point at the centre of the bridge over the main line of the North-Eastern Railway where Askew-road West is joined by Cuthbert-street and by Lower Cuthbert-street and extending thence north-westward along the middle of the last-named street for a distance of twelve and three quarters chains or thereabouts to its termination at its junction with Rose-street and with Tyne-road East and continuing thence in precisely the same direction and in a straight line for a further distance of nine and a half chains or thereabouts to the boundary in the middle of the River Tyne which boundary divides the said new parish of Saint Paul Low Team from the new parish of Saint Stephen Low Elswick aforesaid.

"II. And also all that contiguous portion of the said new parish of Saint Cuthbert Gateshead which is bounded upon the north-west by the above-described portion of the new parish of Saint Paul Low Team aforesaid upon the north-east and upon part of the south-east by the parish of Saint Mary Gateshead aforesaid and upon the remaining part of the south-east and upon the south-west by an imaginary line commencing at the point where the boundary which divides the said parish of Saint Mary Gateshead from the new parish of Saint Cuthbert Gateshead aforesaid crosses the middle of Bensham-road at the junction of that road with Union-lane and extending thence south-westward along the middle of the said Bensham-road for a distance of fifteen chains or thereabouts to its junction with Bank-street and extending thence north-westward along the middle of the last-named street for a distance of fifteen and a half chains or thereabouts to a point at its junction with Askew-road West aforesaid upon the boundary which divides the said new parish of Saint Cuthbert Gateshead from the new parish of Saint Paul, Low Team aforesaid."

And whereas drafts of the said scheme have, in accordance with the provisions of the secondly hereinbefore-mentioned Act, been transmitted to the patrons and to the incumbents of the vicarage of the said new parish of Saint Paul Low Team and of the vicarage of the said new parish of Saint Cuthbert Gateshead, out of which it is intended that the district recommended in such scheme to be constituted shall be taken, and such patrons and incumbents have respectively signified their assent to such scheme.

And whereas the said scheme has been approved by Her Majesty in Council: now, therefore Her Majesty, by and with the advice of Her said Council, is pleased hereby to ratify the said scheme and to order and direct that the same and every part thereof shall be effectual in law immediately from and after the time when this Order shall have been duly published in the London Gazette pursuant to the said Acts; and Her Majesty, by and with the like advice, is pleased hereby to direct that this Order be forthwith registered by the Registrar of the said diocese of Durham.

And whereas the Postmaster-General has from time to time made Regulations accordingly:

And whereas it is intended on and after the first day of September next to authorise the payment of Money Orders by telegraph between certain offices on the conditions hereinafter appearing:

Now I, the Right Honourable Henry Cecil Raikes, Her Majesty's Postmaster-General, in pursuance and by virtue of the said Acts and of all other powers enabling me in this behalf, do with the consent of Her Majesty's Treasury make the following regulations, that is to say:—

1. These Regulations may be cited as the Money Order (Telegraph) Regulations, 1889.

REGULATIONS AS TO FOREIGN TELEGRAMS.

I, THE Right Honourable Henry Cecil Raikes, Her Majesty's Postmaster-General, with the consent of the Commissioners of Her Majesty's Treasury, given under the hands of two of the said Commissioners, whose names are hereunder signed and written, by virtue of the power vested in me by the Telegraph Act (1885), and of every other power enabling me in this behalf, do hereby make the following Regulations for fixing the sums to be from time to time paid for the transmission of Foreign Telegrams, and for services rendered in connection therewith, and for the general conduct of Telegraphic business in relation to Foreign Telegrams.

Short Title.

1. These Regulations may be cited as the Foreign Telegram Regulations, 1889.

Interpretation.

2. In these Regulations, unless the context otherwise requires:—

The expression "Foreign Telegram" means a Telegram originating in or destined for a place outside the United Kingdom.

The expression "United Kingdom" includes the Channel Islands and the Isle of Man.

The expression "European Telegram" means a Foreign Telegram originating in a place and destined for a place both of which have been declared under the provisions of the International Telegraph Convention to belong to the European system of telegraphy.

The expression "Extra European Telegram" means a Foreign Telegram originating in or destined for a place which does not belong to the European system of telegraphy.

The expression "Inland Telegram" means a Telegram originating in a place and destined for a place within the United Kingdom.

The expression "Ordinary Telegram" means a Telegram written in plain language; that is to say, in words, figures, or letters combined into sentences or phrases, conveying an intelligible meaning in any language admitted in international telegraph correspondence in any state a party to the International Telegraph Convention (hereinafter referred to as an admitted telegraph language), and such expression shall include part of a Telegram when the context so requires.

The expression "Code Telegram" means a Telegram written in preconcerted language; that is to say, in words intelligible in themselves, but not combined into sentences or phrases conveying an intelligible meaning in an admitted telegraph language; and such expression includes part of a Telegram when the context so requires.

The expression "Cypher Telegram" means a Telegram which, though composed of groups of letters or figures, does not comply with the definition of an Ordinary Telegram or a Code Telegram, and such expression includes part of a Telegram when the context so requires.

The expression "Authorised List of Offices" means the list of Foreign Telegraph Offices published by the International Telegraph Office at Berne.

Classes of Telegrams.

3. (1.) Foreign Telegrams are divided into three classes: Ordinary Telegrams, Code Telegrams, and Cypher Telegrams.

(2.) A telegram may be partly an Ordinary Telegram, partly a Code Telegram, and partly a Cypher Telegram.

(3.) Code Telegrams and Cypher Telegrams shall only be accepted for transmission to such countries as are willing to receive and deliver them.

Code Telegrams.

4. (1.) Code Telegrams (whether European Telegrams or Extra-European Telegrams) may contain words drawn from any or all of the following languages, viz.:—English, French, German, Italian, Spanish, Portuguese, Dutch, and Latin; but no word used in a Code Telegram shall exceed 10 letters in length.

(2.) Proper names may not be used in the text of Code Telegrams except in their natural sense.

(3.) The following words, viz.:—

(a.) Any proper name not used in its natural sense,

(b.) Any word of more than 10 letters,

(c.) Any other inadmissible word, must be placed in parenthesis, and shall be deemed to be cypher.

(4.) If there is any doubt as to whether a proper name is used in its natural sense or not, the sender may be required to produce his code.

(5.) If there is a doubt whether any expression is a genuine word, the sender may be required to show it in a standard dictionary.

(6.) Any passage in plain language occurring in a Code Telegram shall be charged for as if it formed part of an Ordinary Telegram.

(7.) A single word in plain language occurring in a Code Telegram shall not be regarded as constituting a passage in plain language unless it is a proper name used in its natural sense.

Cypher Telegrams.

5. (1.) A Cypher must be wholly in figures or wholly in letters.

(2.) If a Telegram consist partly of a Cypher and partly of an Ordinary or a Code Telegram, the portion of cypher shall be placed in parenthesis.

(3.) Any passage in plain language or in Code occurring in a Cypher Telegram shall be charged for as part of an Ordinary or Code Telegram, as the case may be; but a single word shall not be deemed to be a passage.

(4.) Words incorrectly spelled, so as to reduce the number of letters below the maximum, or words incorrectly joined together contrary to the usage of the language, shall be charged for as Cypher in any Telegram in which they occur.

(5.) When a Telegram is expressed in the language of the office of delivery, the decision of that office, in any question arising under the last sub-section, shall be final.

Charges for Transmission.

6. (1.) The charges for the transmission of a Foreign Telegram shall be at such rates per word, and all other charges in connection with Foreign Telegrams shall be such as are from time to time fixed by the various Telegraph Administrations in accordance with the provisions of the International Telegraph Regulations for the time being in force, and, so far as they are concerned, by the Private Telegraph Companies.

Provided always that no Telegram shall be transmitted to the following countries for less than the following respective sums, that is to say:—

- (b.) No Telegram shall be transmitted from the United Kingdom to Belgium for less than a sum of Tenpence.
- (c.) No Telegram shall be transmitted from the United Kingdom to Holland for less than a sum of Tenpence.
- (d.) No Telegram shall be transmitted from the United Kingdom to Germany for less than a sum of Tenpence.

(2.) The names and addresses of the sender and addressee of a Foreign Telegram when forming part of the matter telegraphed shall be counted as part of the words for which payment is required.

(3.) The Postmaster-General shall from time to time publish in the "London Gazette" the several rates per word fixed as provided in these Regulations, and in any proceeding by or against the Postmaster-General relating to the sum payable in respect of a Foreign Telegram, the production of a copy of the Gazette containing the rate in question shall be conclusive evidence that such rate is the rate for the time being fixed as aforesaid.

Mode of Payment of Charges.

7. (1.) All charges in respect of the transmission of Foreign Telegrams, and of all other services rendered in connection with Foreign Telegrams, shall be paid by means of stamps.

(2.) Except as otherwise provided, all such charges as aforesaid shall be paid in advance by the sender of the Telegram.

(3.) Where it is found by the office of delivery that an insufficient sum has been paid for the transmission of a telegram, or for any services rendered in connection therewith, any additional charges payable in respect of the telegram shall be payable in the first instance by the addressee; and the Telegram may be withheld until such charges have been paid. If, nevertheless, such charges are not paid by the addressee, they shall be payable by the sender.

Mode of Counting Telegrams.

8. (1.) For the purpose of calculating the charge for a Foreign Telegram, the maximum length of a word is fixed in the case of Ordinary European Telegrams at 15 letters, and in the case of Code Telegrams and Ordinary Extra European Telegrams at 10 letters.

(2.) Any additional letters shall be charged for as extra words at the rate of 15 or 10 letters respectively to the word, any number of letters over and above an exact multiple of 15 or 10 (as the case may be) being treated as a word.

Where the corrected address of the Parcel is not within the same free delivery as the original address, or the Parcel at the time of such correction is lying at a Returned Letter Office, the sender shall pay a new and distinct rate of postage equal in amount to the rate of postage which would have been chargeable on such Parcel as an Inland Parcel.
- (6.) A Parcel shall not be given up or returned by post to the sender except upon payment by him of any charge for re-direction or other charge to which the Parcel has become liable under the provisions of this Warrant, or of any such Regulations as are referred to in section 14 of "The Post Office (Parcels) Act, 1882."
- (7.) Where the sender requests a Parcel to be returned to him by post, such Parcel shall

- (8.) The Postmaster-General may require proof to his satisfaction that an applicant for the Parcel is entitled to receive the same.
- (9.) Where no application is made for a Parcel within the period specified in any such notice as aforesaid, or an applicant fails to prove to the satisfaction of the Postmaster-General that he is entitled to receive the Parcel, or refuses or fails to pay the charges to which the Parcel has become liable under this Warrant, the Parcel may be dealt with or disposed of in such manner as the Postmaster-General may in his discretion direct or authorize.

Re-direction to Places within United Kingdom.
