WHEREAS by Orders in Council dated respectively the twenty-sixth day of June, One thousand eight hundred and seventy-nine, the thirty-first day of December, One thousand eight hundred and eighty-three, and the twenty-ninth day of November, One thousand eight hundred and eighty-four, provision has been made for the surrender by the Governor of the Straits Settlements to Foreign States, in the case of which the Extradition Act, 1870, does not apply, of persons accused or convicted of the commission of certain crimes and offences within the jurisdiction of such States.

And whereas it is expedient to consolidate and amend the said orders:

Now therefore it is hereby ordered by Her Majesty, by and with the advice of Her Privy Council, as follows:—

1. In this Order in Council

"The Governor" means the person for the time being administering the Government of the Straits Settlements.

"The Colony" means the Straits Settlements.

"Protected States" means the States specified in the second schedule to this Order, and the Confederation or Group of States known as the Nègri Sèmbilan shall be deemed for the purposes of this Order to be one State.

"Fugitive Criminal" means any person accused or convicted of any crime committed either before or after the date of this Order, which, if committed in England or within English jurisdiction would be one of the crimes described in the first schedule to this Order, or of having counselled, procured, commanded, aided, or abetted the commission of, or of being accessory before the fact, to any such crime as aforesaid.

"Fugitive Criminal of a State" means a person accused or convicted of any such crime as aforesaid, or of having counselled, procured, commanded, aided or abetted the commission of, or of being accessory before the fact to any such crime as aforesaid, committed within the jurisdiction of that State.

With reference to each of the Protected States, "fugitive criminal" and "fugitive criminal of a State" include any person accused or convicted of a breach of a contract of service to be performed within the jurisdiction of such State committed either before or after the date of this Order within the jurisdiction of such State which, if it had been committed in the Colony and the contract broken had been a contract to be performed in the Colony would have been punishable under the law of the Colony with imprisonment or with fine and with imprisonment in default of payment of such fine.

"Crime" includes any such breach of contract as aforesaid committed within the jurisdiction of any of the Protected States.

"Charge" includes "conviction."

"The crime charged" includes the crime of which the fugitive criminal is alleged to have been convicted.

"Conviction" and "convicted" do not include or refer to a conviction which under foreign law is a conviction for contumacy, but the term "accused" includes a person convicted for contumacy.

The masculine includes the feminine.

2. For the purposes of this Order every Colony, Dependency and constituent part of a Foreign State shall be deemed to be within the jurisdiction of such Foreign State.

3. If requisition be made to the Governor by any Foreign State in the case of which "The Extradition Act, 1870," does not for the time being apply, or by any person recognized by him as an authorized Minister or Officer, Consul, or Vice-Consul of such State, or, in the case of any of the Protected States, by any Officer appointed by Her Majesty or by the Governor as British Resident or Superintendent or Secretary to the Government in such State, for the surrender of a fugitive criminal of such State who is or is suspected of being in any part of the Colony, the Governor may issue an order under his hand and seal to any Magistrate or Magistrates of the Colony directing him or them or any of them to inquire into the truth of the charge.

4. The Governor shall not be bound to comply with a requisition for the surrender of a fugitive criminal under this Order, but may at his absolute discretion either comply with any such requisition in accordance with the provisions of this Order with or without conditions, or refuse to comply therewith.

5. Every such order for inquiry shall signify that the requisition for surrender has been made, shall state the nature of the crime charged, the name or designation (if the name be not known) and any other description that may be thought necessary of the fugitive criminal, and shall require the Magistrate or Magistrates to whom it shall be directed, or any of them, to inquire into the truth of the charge and proceed in pursuance of this Order.

6. The order for inquiry shall be a sufficient proof of the requisition having been made, and a sufficient justification for all acts done in pursuance thereof, and upon production thereof to any Magistrate to whom it is directed he shall have the same powers as if the crime charged had been committed within his jurisdiction.

7. If the evidence adduced shall be such as would in the opinion of the Magistrate have justified the apprehension of the fugitive criminal named or designated in the order, if the crime charged had been committed within his jurisdiction he shall issue his warrant for the apprehension of the fugitive criminal.

8. Any Magistrate of the Colony may issue his warrant for the apprehension of a fugitive criminal without the production of any such order for inquiry as aforesaid, on such information or complaint and on such evidence or after such proceedings as would in his opinion have justified the issue of such warrant if the crime charged had been committed within his jurisdiction.

Provided that a Magistrate issuing a warrant under this Order without an order for inquiry shall forthwith send a report of the fact of such issue together with the evidence and information or complaint or certified copies thereof to the Governor, who may, if he thinks fit, order the warrant to be cancelled and the person apprehended on such warrant to be discharged.

9. Every warrant for the apprehension of a fugitive criminal issued under this Order shall be issued in the same manner as if the crime charged had been committed within the jurisdiction of the Magistrate issuing it, and shall contain a memorandum stating that it is issued under this Order and may be executed in any part of the Colony.

10. A fugitive criminal apprehended on a warrant issued under this Order shall be forthwith brought before a Magistrate within whose jurisdiction he shall be apprehended, and such Magistrate shall subject to the provisions of this Order deal with the case in the same manner as if the fugitive criminal were charged with an indictable offence committed within his jurisdiction.

11. A fugitive criminal apprehended on a warrant issued under this Order without an order for inquiry shall be committed by the Magistrate before whom he is brought to some prison in the Colony for detention until an order shall be made with respect to him by the Governor either for enquiry or for his discharge; but such fugitive criminal shall be discharged by the said Magistrate unless such Magistrate within such time as with reference to the circumstances of the case he deems reasonable receives from the governor an order for enquiry with respect to such fugitive criminal.

Upon the receipt of such order for inquiry the Magistrate shall proceed in the same manner as if the order for inquiry had preceded the issue of the warrant for the apprehension of the fugitive criminal.

12. If a fugitive criminal shall, in pursuance of this Order be brought before a Magistrate other than the Magistrate who issued the warrant for his apprehension, the depositions and documents upon which the warrant was issued, or copies thereof certified under the hand of the Magistrate by whom the warrant was issued, shall, upon the requisition of the Magistrate before whom the fugitive criminal shall be brought, be forwarded to such last mentioned Magistrate.

13. Depositions, statements on oath, or affirmations taken in a Foreign State, and copies of such original depositions or statements or affirmations and foreign certificates of or judicial documents stating the fact of a conviction may, if duly authenticated, be received in evidence in proceedings under this Order. Such depositions, statements, or affirmations and copies thereof and such certificates or judicial documents shall be deemed to be duly authenticated for the purpose of this Order as follows:—

(1.) If the depositions or statements or affirmations purport to be certified under the hand of a Judge, Magistrate, or Officer of the Foreign State where the same were taken to be the original depositions, statements, or affirmations, or to be true copies thereof, as the case may require.

(2.) If the certificates or judicial documents purport to be certified by a Judge, Magistrate, or Officer of the Foreign State where the conviction took place, and if in every case the depositions, statements, affirmations, copies, certificates, and judicial documents (as the case may be) are authenticated by the oath of some witness, or by being sealed with the official seal of some Minister of State; and all Courts of Justice and Magistrates in the Colony shall take judicial notice of such official seal.

14. The Magistrate before whom a fugitive criminal accused of a crime shall be brought in pursuance of this Order shall if such evidence is produced as would, according to the law of the Colony justify the committal for trial of the fugitive criminal, if the crime of which he is accused had been committed in the Colony commit him to prison in the Colony, but otherwise shall order him to be discharged.

15. The Magistrate before whom a fugitive criminal of any of the Protected States accused of any such breach of contract as aforesaid shall be brought in pursuance of this Order shall if such evidence is produced as (subject to the provisions of this Order) would according to the law of the Colony have justified the committal for trial of the fugitive criminal if the breach of contract of which he is accused had been an indictable offence and had been committed in the Colony commit him to some prison in the Colony, but otherwise shall order him to be discharged.

16. The Magistrate before whom a fugitive criminal alleged to have been convicted of a crime is brought in pursuance of this Order, shall if such evidence is produced as subject to the provisions of this Order would according to the law of the Colony prove that the prisoner was so convicted commit him to prison, but otherwise shall order him to be discharged.

17. Whenever a Magistrate commits a fugitive criminal to prison in pursuance of either the 14th 15th or 16th clause of this Order he shall inform such fugitive criminal that he will not be surrendered until after the expiration of fifteen days, and that during such fifteen days he may appeal to any Judge of the Supreme Court of the Colony.

18. Any person who is committed to prison under the 14th 15th or 16th clause of this Order may within fifteen days from the date of such committal appeal against such committal to a Judge of the Supreme Court of the Colony, and such Judge shall upon hearing such appeal either affirm the order of committal or order the appellant to be discharged from prison, in which latter case no Order shall be made for his surrender to the Foreign State from which the requisition for his surrender proceeded.

19. Every Magistrate who shall commit a fugitive criminal to prison under this Order shall forthwith report the result of his proceedings to the Governor, together with any remarks which he may deem it necessary or proper to make upon the case, and together with a copy of all depositions and documents used before him.

20. Upon receipt of a Magistrate's report of the committal of a fugitive criminal under the provisions of this Order, the Governor may, after the expiration of fifteen days from the date of committal, or after the affirmation of the order of committal by the Judge before whom the appeal of the fugitive criminal is brought, as the case may be, or after such further period as may be allowed in either case by the Governor, by warrant under his hand and seal order the fugitive criminal to be surrendered to such person, as may, in his opinion, be duly authorised to receive the fugitive criminal by the Foreign State from which the requisition for his surrender proceeded, and such fugitive criminal shall be surrendered accordingly.

Provided always, that no fugitive criminal shall be surrendered under this Order if—

(1.) The offence in respect of which his surrender is demanded is of a political character, or if it is shown to the satisfaction of the Governor that the requisition for his surrender has been made with a view to try or punish him for an offence of a political character, nor—

(2.) Unless provision is made by the law of the State from which the requisition for his surrender proceeds, or by arrangement, that he shall not, until he has been restored to Her Majesty's dominions, be detained or tried in that State for any offence committed before his surrender, other than the crime in respect of which he is surrendered.

21. It shall be lawful for the person to whom a fugitive criminal shall be so ordered to be surrendered to receive, hold in custody, and convey within the jurisdiction of the Foreign State from which the requisition for his surrender came such fugitive criminal, and if such fugitive criminal escapes out of the custody of such person it shall be lawful to retake him in the same manner as any person accused of any crime against the laws of the Colony may be retaken upon an escape from lawful custody.

22. If any fugitive criminal committed to prison under this Order shall not be surrendered and conveyed out of the Colony within two calendar months after his committal, it shall be lawful for any Judge of the Supreme Court of the Colony upon application by or on behalf of the fugitive criminal, and upon proof that notice of the application has been given to the Governor or to the Colonial Secretary, to order the fugitive criminal to be discharged out of custody, unless sufficient cause is shown to the contrary.

The following is an account of the services in respect of which the decoration has been conferred:—

The "Gettysburg" was lost by striking on the Morant Cays on the night between 31st March and 1st April, 1889, whilst on a voyage from Monte Video to Pensacola, seven of the crew being drowned.

The sea during the night washed over the ship and over the remaining nine of the crew, who, however, managed to hang on to the wreck until daylight, when WILLIAM CARTER and seven men managed to reach a rock which was seen above water at the distance of about 500 yards.

The Master of the vessel tried to follow, but was injured and exhausted, and the sea was so strong that he was knocked down, and would have been drowned had not CARTER returned and carried him to the rock.

CARTER afterwards swam out and secured part of the topmast and yard, lashed them together, and with assistance brought them ashore, where they were formed into a raft.

The nine men left, got on the raft, and with small pieces of wood commenced to paddle to the nearest Island, distant one and a half miles, CARTER and another seaman at times swimming alongside and directing the raft, which was frequently turned off its course and sometimes upset owing to the heavy sea which was running at the time.

CARTER and six others subsequently swam to a larger island a quarter of a mile distant, the former returning the next day, and assisting the Master and a seaman, who were seriously injured, to reach it.

The survivors of the shipwrecked crew remained on the larger Island till the 21st April last, when CARTER and others manufactured a larger raft, on which two of the crew sailed to Jamaica, a distance of 32 miles, in two days, whereby the rescue of all the men was ultimately effected.

Repeal.

1. There shall be repealed, revoked, and annulled on and from the day upon which this

Warrant comes into operation the Warrant of the Commissioners of Her Majesty's Treasury, dated the 6th day of April, 1889, relating to the transmission of Parcels between the United Kingdom and Canada, and so much of the Warrant of the said Commissioners dated the 14th day of February, 1889, as relates to the transmission of Parcels from Canada to places via the United Kingdom.

Definitions.

2. In this Warrant—

- (1.) The expression "Parcel" means a Postal Packet which is posted as a Parcel in accordance with the provisions of this Warrant, or any Warrant amending the same:
- (2.) The expression "United Kingdom" includes the Channel Islands and the Isle of Man.

Places between which Parcels may be transmitted.

3. From and after the date when this Warrant comes into operation Parcels may, subject to the provisions of this Warrant, be transmitted by post between the United Kingdom and Canada and between Canada and places via the United Kingdom.

Rates of Postage.

4. On all Parcels transmitted by Post under this Warrant between Canada and the United Kingdom there shall be charged and paid the rates of postage respectively specified in Part I. of the Schedule hereto.

5. On all Parcels transmitted by post under this Warrant from Canada to any place mentioned or referred to in Part II. of the said Schedule there shall be charged and paid the rates of postage therein respectively specified or referred to. But such last-mentioned rates shall not apply in any case where a special fixed rate of postage is authorised by law in respect of a Parcel so transmitted.

Maximum Dimensions and Weight.

6. Except by permission of the Postmaster-General, there shall not be conveyed or tendered for conveyance by post under this Warrant any Parcel the dimensions of which shall exceed in length two feet, or in width or depth one foot, or which shall exceed in weight five pounds.

Provided that any Parcel posted in the United Kingdom addressed to British Columbia or Vancouver's Island insufficiently prepaid which is prepaid to an amount equal to the postage which would have been payable thereon if the same had been addressed to any other parts of Canada, shall be forwarded, charged with the amount of the deficient postage, together with an additional postage of one penny.

Times of Posting.

8. Parcels intended to be transmitted by post may, in the United Kingdom, be posted on any day of the week except Sunday, but shall not be posted on Sundays, or in England or Ireland on Christmas Day or Good Friday, and in Scotland on either of the two Sacramental Fast Days, except in the cases next hereinafter mentioned, that is to say:—

Where the delivery of Parcels on Sundays, or any of the other days aforesaid, at certain Post Offices, to addressees calling for the same, may hereafter be specially authorized by the Postmaster-General, the posting of Parcels on Sundays, or such other days as aforesaid, at such offices respectively, shall also be permitted within such times and in such manner as may be directed by the Postmaster-General.

Irregular Posting of Parcels.

12. Any Packet transmissible by Parcel Post from the United Kingdom which, from any words or marks thereon, or other external evidence, appears to have been intended for transmission as a Parcel, but which has not been tendered for transmission as a Parcel, but has been posted in a Post Office letter-box, or otherwise than according to the manner hereinbefore prescribed for the posting of Parcels, may, in the discretion of the Postmaster-General, either be detained or returned or given up to the sender, or if the said Packet is fully prepaid with the Letter or Book rate of postage, and otherwise conforms to the Regulations as to the Letter or Book Post, the same may be forwarded as a Letter or Book Packet (as the case may be).

Return and Disposal of Undelivered Parcels.

13. With regard to—

- (a.) Parcels which are addressed to a Post Office in the United Kingdom to be called for, or to a place in the United Kingdom beyond the limits of the free postal delivery of any town or district, or to a ship at any port in the United Kingdom, and which are not called for or delivered within such reasonable times as the Postmaster-General may from time to time prescribe; and
- (b.) Parcels which cannot be delivered in the United Kingdom for want of a true direction, or by reason that the addressee is dead, or cannot be found, or has refused the same, or has refused to pay any charges thereon, or for any other sufficient reason.

The following provisions shall (subject to the provisions of the Warrant of the said Commissioners of the 12th day of December, 1888, relating to Foreign and Colonial Parcels) apply (that is to say):—

- (1.) The Parcel shall, as the Postmaster-General may from time to time direct, be retained at or forthwith forwarded to such place as the Postmaster-General may from time to time appoint, and may, if necessary, be there opened and examined.
- (2.) Where the name and address of the sender can be ascertained from the Parcel or the declaration accompanying the same, notice shall be given by post to the sender through the Post Office of Canada, that the Parcel will, in default of any claim on the part of the addressee, be given up to the sender or his agent upon personal application at such place as aforesaid, or at the request of the sender will be forwarded to a corrected address or returned to him by post in either case upon the conditions hereinafter mentioned.
- (3.) Where the name and address of the sender cannot be ascertained from the Parcel, notice shall be publicly given (by affixing the same at such place or places, or in such other manner as the Postmaster-General may direct), and notice shall also be given to the Post Office of Canada that the Parcel will, in default of any claim on the part of the addressee, and upon payment of such charges as are hereinafter mentioned, be given up upon the personal application of the sender or his agent, or be returned to the sender by post.
- (4.) In any case the notice shall state that, in default of the receipt by the Postmaster-General of an application for the Parcel during a period to be specified in such notice from some person who, in the Postmaster-General's judgment, is entitled to receive the Parcel, it will be disposed of in such manner as the Postmaster-General may direct.
- (5.) The Postmaster-General may, in his discretion, specify in any such notice, or otherwise, the periods during which Parcels may be returned to the senders thereof, and in so doing may have regard to the nature and contents of Parcels.
- (6.) Where in the case of a Parcel which cannot be delivered for want of a true direction, the sender corrects the address of the Parcel, the Parcel shall be forwarded to the corrected address, subject to the following conditions:—
- (a.) Where the corrected address of the Parcel is within the same free delivery as the original address, and the Parcel is not at the time of such correction lying at a Returned Letter Office, no new charge shall be made with respect to the delivery of the Parcel.

- (b.) Where the corrected address of the Parcel is not within the same free delivery as the original address, or the Parcel at the time of such correction is lying at a Returned Letter Office, there shall be paid a new and distinct rate of postage equal in amount to the rate of postage which would have been chargeable on such Parcel as an Inland Parcel.
- (7.) A Parcel shall not be given up or returned by post to the sender except upon payment by him of any charge for re-direction or other charge to which the Parcel has become liable under the provisions of this Warrant, or of any such Regulations as are referred to in section 14 of "The Post Office (Parcels) Act, 1882."
- (8.) Where the sender requests a Parcel to be returned to him by post, such Parcel shall not be returned to the sender except upon payment by him of a new and distinct rate of postage, according to the rates fixed by this Warrant, and in such case the said rate of postage and all other charges to which the Parcel has become liable, if not prepaid by the sender, shall be collected on the delivery of the Parcel to him.
- (9.) The Postmaster-General may require proof to his satisfaction that an applicant for a Parcel is entitled to receive the same.
- (10.) Where no application is made for a Parcel within the period specified in any such notice as aforesaid, or an applicant fails to prove to the satisfaction of the Postmaster-General that he is entitled to receive the Parcel, or refuses or fails to pay the charges to which the Parcel has become liable under this Warrant, the Parcel may be dealt with or disposed of in such manner as the Postmaster-General may in his discretion direct or authorize.

Re-direction to places out of United Kingdom.

14. Any Parcel may be re-directed from its original address, or any substituted address, within the United Kingdom, to any country or place with which a Parcel Post to or from the United Kingdom or Canada is established, and in every case of such re-direction there shall be charged on such Parcel in respect of such re-direction a new and distinct rate of postage according to the rates for the time being payable in respect of the transmission of a like Parcel from the United Kingdom to the country or place to which it may be re-directed, and such postage, if not paid at the time of such re-direction, shall be collected on the delivery of the Parcel to the addressee.

Re-direction to places within United Kingdom.

15. Any Parcel may be re-directed from its original address, or any substituted address, within the United Kingdom to any other address within the United Kingdom, and in every case of such re-direction there shall be charged on such Parcel in respect of each such re-direction, and (if not previously paid) paid by the addressee thereof in money upon the delivery of such Parcel, a new and distinct rate of postage, equal in amount to the rate of postage which would have been originally chargeable on such Parcel as an Inland parcel.
