FRIDAY, SEPTEMBER 20, 1889.

Whitehall, September 20, 1889.

THE following Addresses of Welcome on the occasion of the Queen's recent visit to Wales have been transmitted to the Right Honourable Henry Matthews, Her Majesty's Principal Secretary of State for the Home Department, for presentation to the Queen, and have accordingly been presented by him to Her Majesty, who has been pleased to receive the same very graciously:—

To The QUEEN's Most Excellent Majesty.

May it please Your Most Gracious Majesty,

THE Lord Lieutenant, the Deputy Lieutenant, the Magistracy, and the County Councillors of the County of Cardigan approach Your Majesty with loyalty and sincere good wishes, on Your Majesty's entry into the Principality of Wales.

Amidst the mountainous scenery of our beloved country Your memorialists humbly pray that Your Majesty may enjoy health and happiness, and that at some future period the inhabitants of the southern part of the Principality may also be afforded the honour and privilege of giving Your Majesty a personal welcome.

During the reign of no other Sovereign has our country enjoyed the same blessings of peace and prosperity, and that Your Majesty may long be spared to witness the still further developments of its moral and material greatness, and increase of happiness to all classes of Your subjects, is the earnest prayer of Your memorialists.

Signed by

Herbert Davies Evans, Lord Lieutenant.

To Her Most Gracious Majesty The QUEEN.

May it please Your Majesty,

WE, Your Majesty's dutiful and loyal subjects the Mayor, Aldermen, and Burgesses of Aberystwyth, humbly approach Your Majesty to tender to You on behalf of ourselves and our fellow townsmen the homage of our loyalty, affection, and attachment to Your Majesty.

We sincerely hope Your Majesty may be able to repeat Your visit to Wales at no distant date, and that Aberystwyth may on that occasion have the honour and privilege of welcoming Your Majesty.

That Your Majesty may long be spared to continue Your prosperous reign is our anxious prayer.

Given under our Common Seal this 20th day of August, 1889.

C. M. Williams, Mayor.

Arthur J. Hughes, Town Clerk.

Whitehall, September 20, 1889.

THE following Addresses of Congratulation on the occasion of the Marriage of Her Royal Highness Princess Louise of Wales with the Earl of Fife, have been transmitted to the Right Honourable Henry Matthews, Her Majesty's Principal Secretary of State for the Home Department, for presentation to the Queen, and have accordingly been presented by him to Her Majesty, who has been pleased to receive the same very graciously:—

To The QUEEN's Most Excellent Majesty.

May it please Your Majesty,

WE, the Mayor, Aldermen, and Burgesses of the Borough of Newport, in the Isle of Wight, desire with all loyal and dutiful respect to approach Your Most Gracious Majesty with the expression of our congratulations on the auspicious occasion of the Marriage of Her Royal Highness the Princess Louise of Wales with the Right Honourable the Earl of Fife, K.T.; and, while we pray for the blessing of Almighty God on the illustrious Bride and Bridegroom, we venture to renew the assurance of our devoted attachment to Your Majesty's Person, and of our heartfelt sympathy in every event which can conduce to Your Majesty's happiness.

The Corporate Common Seal of the borough was affixed hereto by me, in accordance with a resolution of the Council passed on the 22nd day of July, 1889.

Arthur S. Estcourt, Town Clerk.
