Subject to the provisions of this part of this Order, a Secretary of State from time to time, by any Consular instructions, or by any notification under his hand, may constitute, alter, or abolish local jurisdictions for the purposes of this Order. Any such instructions or notifications shall be published within the particular jurisdictions to which they relate, in the manner directed by the last part of this Order for the publication of this Order, or in such other manner as a Secretary of State directs in any particular case.

6. There shall be excluded from every local jurisdiction all parts of any of the following places:—

(4.) Any place for the time being subject to the jurisdiction of the Egyptian Courts.

7. For preventing doubts, it is declared that the power of constituting, altering, or abolishing local jurisdictions for the purposes of this Order may be exercised with reference to the whole or any part or parts of any of the districts or territories for the time being included in Her Majesty's Protectorate of the Niger districts or, in any other existing or future Protectorate, or any part or parts of the territories for the time being under the Government of the International Association of the Congo, or under the Government of the Free States under its Administration, subject to, and in accordance with, the provisions of the Convention between Her Majesty and the said International Association, signed at Berlin the 16th December, 1884.

8. A Secretary of State, by any notification constituting or altering a local jurisdiction, may assign thereto a distinctive name or designation which may be used in any judicial or official instrument or document.

11. Subject to the provisions and restrictions contained in this Order, and in particular to the provisions which define the law to be administered under this Order, the powers and authorities conferred by and to be exercised under this Order shall, within each local jurisdiction, comprise and include all power and authority whatsoever which, under the Foreign Jurisdiction Acts or otherwise, Her Majesty is capable of conferring for the purposes expressed in this Order, and all such power and authority are hereby conferred.

PART II.—GENERAL LAW.

12. All Her Majesty's jurisdiction exercisable in any local jurisdiction constituted under this Order for the judicial hearing and determination of matters in difference between British subjects, or between foreigners and British subjects, or for the administration or control of the property or persons of British subjects, or for the repression or punishment of crimes or offences committed by British subjects, or for the maintenance of order among British subjects, shall be exercised under and according to the provisions of this Order, and not otherwise.

13. Subject to the other provisions of this Order, the civil and criminal jurisdiction aforesaid shall, so far as circumstances admit, be exercised upon the principles of and in conformity with the substance of the law for the time being in force in and for England, and with the powers vested in and according to the course of procedure and practice observed by and before Courts of Justice and Justices of the Peace in England, according to their respective jurisdictions and authorities.

14. Except as to offences made or declared such by this Order, or by any Regulation or Rule made under it—

Any act other than an act that would by a Court of Justice having criminal jurisdiction in England, be deemed a crime or offence, making the person doing such act liable to punishment in England shall not, in the exercise of criminal jurisdiction under this Order, be deemed a crime or offence, making the person doing such act liable to punishment.

15. A Secretary of State may from time to time, by order published in such manner as he directs, declare that any of the laws or ordinances for the time being in force in any African possession of Her Majesty as herein defined, and not inconsistent with this Order, shall have effect and be administered under this Order in relation to any place or places within the limits of any local jurisdiction, with such modifications or adaptations as may be necessary; and thereupon such laws or ordinances, as so modified or adapted, shall have effect, in accordance with such order, as if they had been applied by this Order.

16. The provisions of any Treaty with Her Majesty or Her successors for the time being in force with respect to any place within the limits of any local jurisdiction shall have effect as part of the law to be enforced under this Order in relation to such place, and in case of inconsistency between such provisions and the law in force in England, or anything contained in this Order, effect shall be given to such provisions.

17. Crimes, offences, wrongs, and breaches of contract against or affecting the person, property, or rights of natives of Africa, or other foreigners as herein defined, committed by persons subject to this Order, are punishable or otherwise cognizable under the provisions of this Order, with the consent of such natives or foreigners, in the same manner as if they were committed against or affected the person, property, or rights of British subjects.

18. This Order shall not, except as herein expressly provided, abridge, affect, or interfere with any power or authority exercisable otherwise than under this Order, whether by virtue of any Statute or Order in Council, or of any Colonial law, or of any Treaty, or otherwise, and whether exercisable by Her Majesty or by any Colonial Legislature or Colonial or Consular or other Court, or under any Commission, and in particular shall not interfere with any power or authority exercisable under or by virtue of the Act 1 & 2 Geo. IV. cap. 28, or under or by virtue of the Acts 24 & 25 Vict., cap. 31, and 34 & 35 Vict., cap. 8 (relating to offences committed in territories adjacent to Sierra Leone, Gambia, Gold Coast, Lagos, and the adjacent Protectorates), or under or by virtue of the Act 26 & 27 Vict., cap. 35 (relating to South Africa), or the Acts 36 & 37 Vict., cap. 59, or 42 & 43 Vict., cap. 38 (both relating to the Slave Trade), or "The British Settlements Act, 1887" (50 & 51 Vict., cap. 54), or under or by virtue of any enactment for the time being substituted for or amending any of the said Acts: and all powers and authorities in this Article mentioned shall continue to exist concurrently with and independently of the powers and authorities exercisable under this Order.

PART III.—CONSTITUTION OF COURTS.

Consular Courts.

19. Every person for the time being holding Her Majesty's Commission as a Consul-General, Consul, or Vice-Consul, or acting in any of such capacities by the authority of a Secretary of State, shall, if so authorized by a Secretary of State, hold and form a Consular Court under this Order, in and for such district, within any local jurisdiction constituted by or under this Order, and at such place or places within such district as a Secretary of State directs, and subject to any prescribed limitations or restrictions as to the exercise of the powers and authorities conferred by this Order.

In case Her Majesty is pleased to direct the appointment of a person not holding such Commission, nor acting as aforesaid, to perform as a Judge or Judicial Officer or Commissioner in or for any district, place, or region to which this Order applies, all or any of the Judicial powers or authorities by this Order vested in a Consular Court, a person so appointed by authority of a Secretary of State, in such form as the Secretary of State directs, shall in like manner hold and form a Court, and for the purposes of, and subject to, any limitations contained in his appointment, shall have all the same powers and authorities which under this Order can be exercised by a Consular Court, and shall be removable by authority of a Secretary of State; and it shall be lawful for a Secretary of State, by any such appointment or otherwise, to make provision for assigning to such Judge or Judicial Officer or Commissioner, and to any person acting as Consul-General, Consul, or Vice-Consul for the same district, place, or region, or any part thereof, respectively, such of the powers or authorities exercisable under this Order, to be exercised by them, either separately or concurrently, as the Secretary of State from time to time directs, and under such description or designation as he directs.

Throughout this Order the expressions "Consular Courts" or "Court," or "Consul" or "Judge" (when used in relation to a Court), include a Consul-General, Consul, Vice-Consul, or other Judge, Judicial Officer, Commissioner, or person exercising power or authority under this Article; and expressions referring to the district of a Court or to a district refer to a district for or within which any person is appointed to act under this Article.

It shall be lawful for a Secretary of State, or for any Consul as herein defined, with the authority of a Secretary of State, from time to time, by order in writing, to appoint places at which Courts shall be held for any district, and to determine the number and description of the officers (if any) to be attached to any such Court, and the mode of their appointment and removal, and their duties and remuneration, and any matters incident to any of such purposes.

A printed copy of any such appointment, authority, or order as in this Article mentioned, purporting to bear the seal of a Consul or of a Court, shall in all causes and matters be admitted as evidence of the contents, and due making and publication thereof.

Each Court shall have such seal as may be prescribed by any such order as aforesaid.

20. Every Judge of a Superior Court of any African possession of Her Majesty, and the Consul-General of Zanzibar, may exercise within the limits of any prescribed local jurisdiction constituted by or under this Order, any power or authority which can be exercised by any Court under this Order.

Courts of Appeal.

21. The Superior Court of any African possession of Her Majesty, and the Superior Court exercising jurisdiction in Bombay, shall be Courts of Appeal from the Prescribed Courts acting under this Order, but the appellate jurisdiction hereby conferred shall be exercised by any such Court of Appeal only where an appeal to that Court of Appeal is authorized in the particular case in the manner provided by this Order.

In the case of the Colony of the Cape of Good Hope, or of the Colony of Natal, an appeal cannot be authorized until and unless the Court authorizing the appeal is satisfied that provision for entertaining such appeal has been made by the Legislature of that colony.

PART IV.—GENERAL POWERS OF COURTS AND GENERAL PROCEDURE.

22. Except as otherwise provided by this Order, Her Majesty's jurisdiction, civil and criminal, exercisable under this Order, shall, to the extent and in the manner provided by this Order, be vested in the Consular Courts, each for and within its own district.

23. The several Courts acting under this Order shall be auxiliary to one another in all particulars relative to the administration of Justice, civil or criminal.

24. Every Consular Court shall, in the exercise of every part of its respective jurisdiction, be a Court of Record.

Every Consular Court shall be a Court of Law and of Equity.

25. Any Consul-General to whom a district within the limits of this Order is assigned may from time to time admit fit persons to practise in the Courts of such districts as barristers and solicitors, or in either of those capacities; and may from time to time, subject to the approval of one of Her Majesty's Principal Secretaries of State, make rules for regulating the admission of persons to practise as aforesaid in such Courts.

26. In any matter, civil or criminal, a Court within whose district (in civil matters) the matter of complaint wholly or in part arose or happened, or the subject in dispute is wholly or partly situate, or the contract in question was wholly or partly made, or the breach thereof wholly or partly occurred, or the defendant resides or carries on business, or (in criminal matters) the crime was wholly or partly committed, or the accused person happens to be, shall have jurisdiction, and may deal with the case, as if every material fact or thing had happened or was situate within its district; but any such Court, if, in its opinion, justice or convenience so requires, may decline or suspend the exercise of jurisdiction, and may, if it thinks necessary or just, require security from the defendant or accused person for his appearance before some other Court having jurisdiction in the matter, and for obedience to any judgment or order of such other Court, and further, in a criminal case, if necessary, may arrest and commit the accused person, and cause him to be removed under warrant and in custody, to be dealt with by such other Court.

27. Every Court acting under this Order shall have power to rehear any civil matter, and to review its judgments or orders in any civil case in which in the opinion of the Court justice so requires, on such terms as to costs and otherwise as the Court thinks just.

Minutes.

28. In every case, civil or criminal, heard in any Court, proper Minutes of the proceedings shall be drawn up, and shall be signed by the Judge or Officer before whom the proceedings are taken, and sealed with the seal of the Court, and shall, where Assessors are present, be open for their inspection and for their signature if concurred in by them.

The Minutes, with depositions of witnesses and notes of evidence taken at the trial by the Judge or Officer, shall be preserved in the public office of the Court.

Registrar.

29. Any Registrar of the Court or person acting as Registrar, and any other officer of the Court designated in this behalf by the Judge of the Court, may administer oaths, and take affidavits, declarations, and affirmations.

30. The Judge of any Court shall be and act as the Registrar of the Court, if there is no other person appointed to be Registrar there.

Costs, Fees, &c.

31. In a civil case any Court may order such costs, or costs, charges, and expenses, as to the Court seem reasonable, to be paid by any party to the proceedings, or out of any fund to which the proceedings relate.

32. All costs and all charges and expenses of witnesses, prosecutions, punishments and deportations, and other charges and expenses, and all fees, fines, forfeitures, and pecuniary penalties payable under this Order and all judgments, may be enforced by arrest or by distress and seizure and sale of ships, goods, and lands, and, in default of sufficient distress, by imprisonment; and no bill of sale, or mortgage, or transfer of property, made with a view to security in regard to crimes committed, shall be of any avail to defeat any provision of this Order.

Imprisonment in default of distress shall not, except as may be provided by rules of procedure made under this Order, operate as a discharge or satisfaction.

33. Where money ordered by the Court to be paid is due for seamen's wages, or is other money recoverable under the Merchant Shipping Acts or other law relating to ships, and the person ordered to pay has not paid as ordered, the Court, in addition to other powers for compelling payment, shall have power to direct that the amount unpaid be levied by seizure and sale of the ship.

Arbitration and Reconciliation.

34. Every Court may promote reconciliation, and encourage and facilitate the settlement in an amicable way of any suit or proceeding pending before it.

A Court may, with the consent of the parties, refer to arbitration the final determination of any suit or proceeding pending before it, or of all matters in difference between the parties, on such terms and with such directions as to appointment of an Arbitrator and other things as may seem fit, and may, if it thinks fit, take from the parties, or any of them, security to abide by the result of the reference.

In any such case, the award shall be final and conclusive.

On the application of any party a Decree of the Court may be entered in conformity with the award, and such Decree shall not be open to any appeal or rehearing whatever, except on the ground that it is not in conformity with the award.

Every agreement for reference to arbitration or submission to arbitration by consent may, on the application of any party, be made a rule of a Court having jurisdiction in the matter of the reference or submission, which Court shall thereupon have power and authority to enforce the agreement or submission and the award made thereunder, and to control and regulate the proceedings before and after the award in such manner and on such terms as may be just.

Informalities.

35. No proceeding under this Order shall be invalidated by any informality, mistake, or omission so long as, in the opinion of any Court before which any question arises, the essential requisites of law and justice have been complied with, or may be met by amendment.

PART V.—SPECIAL POWERS (BANKRUPTCY, PROBATE, &c.).

36. Every Court shall be a Court of Bankruptcy, and as such shall, as far as circumstances admit, have for and within its own district, with respect to British subjects and to their debtors and creditors, being either British subjects or foreigners submitting to the jurisdiction of the Court, all such jurisdiction as for the time being belongs to any judicial authority having for the time being jurisdiction in bankruptcy in England.

37. Every Court shall be a Vice-Admiralty

Court, and as such shall, for and within its district and for vessels and persons coming to and within the district of the Court, have all such jurisdiction as for the time being ordinarily belongs to Vice-Admiralty Courts in Her Majesty's possessions abroad.

38. Every Court shall be a Court of Probate, and as such shall, as far as circumstances admit, have, for and within its district with respect to the property of British subjects appearing to the Court to have at the time of death their fixed places of abode in the district of the Court, all such jurisdiction as for the time being belongs to any Court exercising probate jurisdiction in England.

Probate or administration granted by a Court shall have effect over all the property of the deceased within the district, and shall effectually discharge persons dealing with an executor or administrator thereunder, and that notwithstanding any defect afterwards appears in the grant.

Such a grant shall not be impeachable by reason only that the deceased had not at the time of his death his fixed place of abode within the particular jurisdiction.

39. Any person having in his possession or under his control any paper or writing of a deceased British subject being or purporting to be testamentary, shall forthwith deliver the original to the Court within the district whereof such person is at the time of his first knowledge of the death of the deceased, and deposit it there.

Any person neglecting to do so for fourteen days after having knowledge of the death of the deceased shall be liable to such penalty, not exceeding 50*l.*, as the Court thinks fit to impose.

40. From the death of a British subject, having at the time of his death his fixed place of abode in the district of a Court, intestate, until administration granted, his personal property in the district of the Court shall be vested in the Judge of the Court.

41. If any person other than one of Her Majesty's Consular officers takes possession of or in any manner administers any part of the personal property of any person deceased without obtaining probate or administration within three months after the death of the deceased, or within one month after the termination of any suit or dispute respecting probate or administration (if there is any such which is not ended within two months after the death of the deceased), he shall be liable to such penalty not exceeding 100*l.* as the Court having jurisdiction in the matter of the property of the deceased thinks fit to impose; and in every such case the same fees shall be payable by the person so administering as would have been payable by him if he had obtained probate or administration.

42. Where a British subject not having at the time of death his fixed place of abode in the district of a Court dies there, the Court within whose district he dies shall, where the circumstances of the case appear to the Court so to require, forthwith on the death of the deceased, or as soon after as may be, take possession of his personal property within the particular jurisdiction, or put it under the seal of the Court (in either case, if the nature of the property or other circumstances so require, making an inventory), and so keep the property until it can be dealt with according to law.

43.—(1.) In a case of apparent intestacy, where the circumstances of the case appear to the Court so to require, for reasons recorded in the Minutes, the Court may, if it thinks fit, of its own motion, or otherwise, grant administration to the Judge or an officer of the Court.

(2.) Any officer so appointed shall act under the direction of the Court, and shall be indemnified thereby.

(3.) A commission of 2½ per cent. on the gross value may be charged on an estate administered under this Article.

(4.) All expenses incurred on behalf of the Court in the execution of this Article and the said commission shall be the first charge on the personal property of the deceased in the district of the Court; and the Court shall, by sale of part of that property or otherwise, provide for the discharge of those expenses and the payment of the said commission.

44. Where it appears to the Court that the value of the property or estate of a deceased person does not exceed 100*l.* the Court may, without any probate or letters of administration, or other formal proceeding, pay thereout any debts or charges, and pay, remit, or deliver any surplus to such persons in such manner as a Secretary of State from time to time directs, and shall not be liable to any action, suit, or proceedings in respect of anything done under this Article.

PART VI.—CRIMINAL LAW AND PROCEDURE.

45. The crimes punishable under this Order are—

(1.) Any acts or omissions which are for the time being punishable in England on indictment, with death, penal servitude, or imprisonment, as treasons, felonies, or misdemeanours.

(2.) Acts or omissions by this Order, or by any Regulations made by virtue of this Order, declared to be punishable as offences against this Order.

46. In case an act or omission is punishable both as a crime under the law in force in England and as an offence against this Order, the accused person may be tried and punished for such act or omission, either as a crime, as aforesaid, or as an offence against this Order, but he shall not be liable to be tried or punished in both ways.

47. Any British subject may be proceeded against, tried, and punished under this Order for the crime of piracy wheresoever committed.

Offences against this Order.

48. If any British subject does any of the following things without Her Majesty's authority, that is to say:—

Levies war, or takes any part in any operation of war against, or aids or abets any person in carrying on war, insurrection, or rebellion against any King, Chief, tribe, or Power, every person so offending shall be deemed guilty of an offence against this Order, and, on conviction thereof, shall be liable (in the discretion of the Court before which he is convicted) to be punished by imprisonment for any term not exceeding two years, with or without hard labour, and with or without a fine not exceeding 1,000*l.*, or by a fine not exceeding 1,000*l.* without imprisonment.

In addition to such punishment, every such conviction shall of itself, and without further proceedings, make the person convicted liable to deportation, and the Court before which he is convicted may order that he be deported to such place as the Court directs.

49. A person shall be deemed guilty of an offence against this Order—

(1.) Who wilfully or knowingly acts in contravention of any such Treaty as defined in this Order, or of any Regulations appended thereto.

(2.) Who acts in contravention of any of the Queen's Regulations to be made under this Order, or of any Rules or Regulations for the time being in force made under the authority of the West Africa Order in Council of 1872.

(3.) Who, without reasonable and lawful excuse (proof of which shall lie on the accused person), endangers peace by disturbing any religious ceremony or observance, or publicly insulting any minister of any religion, or violating or insulting any place or object of religious worship, or doing any other act of a similar nature, whether in relation to any native or other form of religion or superstition.

50. A person shall be deemed guilty of an offence against this Order—

Who smuggles or imports into or exports from any place any goods with intent to avoid payment of any duty payable thereon to any recognized Chief, or King, Government, tribe, or people, or any goods the importation or exportation whereof (as the case may be) into such place is prohibited by any such Chief, King, Government, tribe, or people of such place.

A person convicted of an offence against this Article shall be liable to imprisonment for any term not exceeding three months, or fine not exceeding 50*l.*, or both of those punishments; and any goods smuggled or imported in contravention of this Article may, on conviction of the offender, or if he absconds or evades trial, be declared forfeited to Her Majesty, together with any ship, boat, cask, case, or receptacle, wholly or partly belonging to the offender, and containing such goods.

51. If any person subject to the criminal jurisdiction of a Court does any of the following things, namely:—

(1.) Wilfully by act or threat obstructs any officer of or person executing any process of the Court in the performance of his duty; or

(2.) Within or close to the room or place where the Court is sitting wilfully misbehaves in a violent, threatening, or disrespectful manner to the disturbance of the Court, or to the intimidation of suitors or others resorting thereto; or

(3.) Wilfully insults any member of the Court, or any assessor, or any person acting as a clerk or officer of the Court during his sitting or attendance in Court, or in his going to or returning from Court; or

(4.) Does any act in relation to the Court or a Judge thereof, or a matter pending therein, which, if done in relation to a Superior Court in England, would be punishable as a contempt of such Court, or as a libel on such Court, or the Judges thereof, or the administration of justice therein;

Such person shall be liable to be apprehended by order of the Court with or without warrant, and on inquiry and consideration, and after the hearing of any defence which such person may offer, without further process or trial, to be punished with a fine not exceeding 10*l.*, or with imprisonment not exceeding twenty-four hours. A Minute shall be made and kept of every such case of punishment, recording the facts of the offence and the extent of the punishment, and a copy of the Minute shall be forthwith sent to the Secretary of State.

Provided that, if the Court thinks fit, instead of proceeding under the preceding provisions, it may direct or cause the offender to be tried in a separate criminal prosecution or proceeding in which the offender shall be liable to be tried and punished for his offence as an offence against this Order.

Nothing herein shall interfere with the power of the Court to remove or exclude persons who interrupt or obstruct the proceedings of the Court.

52. If any person subject to the criminal jurisdiction of a Consular Court does any act or makes any publication of such kind, and under such circumstances, that, in the opinion of the Consular Court, grave danger to public order is thereby occasioned, the Court shall have the same powers as it has in relation to apprehended breaches of the peace.

53. If any clerk or officer of a Court acting under pretence of the process or authority of the Court is charged with extortion or with not duly paying any money levied, or with other misconduct, the Court may (without prejudice to any other liability or punishment to which the clerk or officer would in the absence of the present provision be liable) inquire into the charge in a summary way, and for that purpose summon and enforce the attendance of all necessary persons in like manner as the attendance of witnesses and others may be enforced in a suit, and may make such Order thereupon for the repayment of any money extorted, or for the due payment of any money levied, and for the payment of such damages and costs as the Court thinks just; and the Court may also, if it thinks fit, impose such fine upon the clerk or officer not exceeding 100*l.* for each offence, as seems just.

54. A Consular Court shall have jurisdiction to make an Order requiring a person to contribute in such manner as the Court directs to the support of his wife or child, whether legitimate or not, being in the opinion of the Court under the age of 16 years. Any such Order may be made in a summary way as if the neglect to provide for the support of such wife or child were an offence against this Order, and a failure to comply with any such Order shall be deemed to be an offence against this Order, and shall be punishable accordingly, and the Court may direct any penalty imposed for such offence to be applied for the support of such wife or child in such manner as the Court thinks fit.

55. Any act which, if done in the United Kingdom or in a British possession, would be an offence against any of the following Statutes of the Imperial Parliament or Orders in Council, that is to say:—

“The Merchandize Marks Act, 1887;”

“The Patents, Designs, and Trade Marks Acts, 1883 to 1888.”

Any Act, Statute, or Order in Council for the time being in force, relating to copyright, or to inventions, designs, or trade marks;

Any Statute amending or substituted for any of the above-mentioned Statutes—

Shall, if done by a British subject within the limits of this Order, be punishable as an offence against this Order, whether such act is done in relation to any property or right of a British subject, or of a foreigner or native, or otherwise:

Provided—

(1.) That a copy of any such Statute or Order in Council shall be published in every Consular Court, and shall be there open for inspection by any person at all reasonable times; and a person shall not be punished under this Article for anything done within the district of a Court before the expiration of one month after such publication therein;

(2.) That a prosecution by or on behalf of a prosecutor who is not a British subject shall not be entertained without the consent in writing of the Court, which may withhold such consent, unless it is satisfied that effectual provision exists for the punishment in Consular or other Courts of similar acts committed by the subjects of the State or Power of which such prosecutor is a subject, in relation to or affecting the interests of British subjects.

56. Where any act or omission is by virtue of this Order, or of any Regulation made under this Order, an offence against this Order, and no penalty or punishment is specified in respect thereof, such offence shall be punishable with imprisonment for not exceeding three months, or fine not exceeding 100*l.*, or both.

Criminal Procedure.

57. Every Court may cause to be apprehended and brought before it any British subject being within the district of the Court and charged with having committed a crime in the district of the Court, and may deal with the accused according to the jurisdiction of the Court and in conformity with the provisions of this Order; or where the crime is triable, and is to be tried, in Her Majesty's dominions, may take the preliminary examination, and commit the accused for trial, and cause or allow him to be taken to the place of intended trial.

58.—(1.) Where a person, subject to the criminal jurisdiction of the Court, is charged with an offence on a summons or warrant issuing out of the Court, he shall be brought before the Court within forty-eight hours after service of the summons or execution of the warrant, unless in any case circumstances unavoidably prevent his being brought before the Court within that time, which circumstances shall be recorded in the Minutes.

(2.) In every case he shall be brought before the Court as soon as circumstances reasonably admit, and the time and circumstances shall be recorded in the Minutes.

59.—(1.) Where an accused person is in custody, he shall not be remanded at any time for more than seven days, unless circumstances appear to the Court to make it necessary or proper that he should be remanded for a longer time, which circumstances, and the time of remand, shall be recorded in the Minutes.

(2.) In no case shall a remand be for more than fourteen days at one time, unless in case of illness of the accused person or other case of necessity.

60.—(1.) Except in cases of murder, an accused person may be admitted to bail at any stage of the proceedings.

(2.) Where the offence charged is one of the following, it shall be in the discretion of the Court to admit the accused to bail or not, according to the circumstances, namely:—

Felony (not being murder).

Riot.

Assault on an officer of the Court in the execution of his duty, or on any person acting in his aid.

Neglect or breach of duty by an officer of the Court.

(3.) In all other cases except murder the Court shall admit the accused to bail, unless in any instance the Court, having regard to the circumstances, see good reason to the contrary, which reason shall be recorded in the Minutes.

61. Where a person is charged before a Consular Court with a crime punishable with death or penal servitude for twenty years or upwards, the Court, on being satisfied by information or evidence on oath that there is reasonable ground for putting such person upon his trial for such crime, shall cause him to be removed for trial to one of the African possessions of Her Majesty, if the Court is satisfied that the attendance of the necessary witnesses for the prosecution and defence respectively at the proposed place of trial can be secured, but otherwise shall commit him for trial within the district.

In case a person is so removed for trial, the provisions of "The Foreign Jurisdiction Act, 1843," section 4, shall be observed.

62. In the case of any crime other than as in the last preceding Article mentioned, and which is by the law administered in the Consular Court punishable with imprisonment for twelve months or upwards, or with any greater punishment, it shall be in the discretion of the Consular Court, regard being had to all the circumstances of the case, and in particular to the practicability of procuring the necessary witnesses for the prosecution and defence to attend at a trial elsewhere than within the district, either to cause the accused person to be removed for trial as in the last preceding Article mentioned, or to commit him for trial within the district.

63. A person tried before a Consular Court for a crime to which either of the two last preceding Articles applies shall, if practicable, be tried by the Court with Assessors, unless he consents to be tried without Assessors.

64. A person charged with a crime which is not punishable with imprisonment for twelve months or upwards, or with any greater punishment, or charged with an offence against this Order, shall be tried by the Consular Court, with or without Assessors, as the Court thinks fit.

65. Every Court and authority in imposing and inflicting punishments shall have regard, so far as circumstances admit and subject to the other provisions of this Order, to the punishments imposed by the law of England in like cases, and to the mode in which the same are inflicted in England.

66. Any Court may order any person convicted before it of any crime or offence to pay all or any part of the expenses of or preliminary to his trial, and of his imprisonment or other punishment.

Where it appears to any Court that any charge made before it is malicious, or is frivolous and vexatious, the Court may order all or any part of the expenses of the prosecution to be paid by the person making the charge.

In either of the two last-mentioned cases, the amount ordered to be paid shall be deemed a debt due to the Crown, and may, by virtue of the order, without further proceedings, be levied on the property of the person convicted or making the charge, as the case may be, or may be enforced by imprisonment for not exceeding one month or until payment.

67.—(1.) The Court may, if it thinks fit; order a person convicted of an assault to pay to the person assaulted, by way of damages, any sum not exceeding 20*l.*

(2.) Damages so ordered to be paid may be either in addition to or in lieu of a fine, and shall be recoverable in like manner as a fine.

(3.) The person convicted shall not be liable to an action for the assault.

68. If, on a trial, the Court is of opinion that the accused attempted to commit the offence with which he is charged, but did not complete it, he shall not be therefore acquitted, but the Court may find him guilty of the attempt, and may adjudge him to be punished as if he had been charged with the attempt.

He shall not be liable to be afterwards prosecuted for the offence.

69. If, on the trial of a person charged with robbery, the Court is of opinion that the accused committed an assault with intent to rob, but did not commit robbery, he shall not be therefore acquitted, but the Court may find him guilty of the assault, and may adjudge him to be punished as if he had been charged with the assault.

He shall not be liable to be afterwards prosecuted for the assault.

70. If on a trial for any of the following offences, namely, burglary, or stealing in a dwelling-house, or breaking and entering and stealing in a shop, warehouse, or counting-house, or a building within the curtilage of a dwelling-house, or larceny, or feloniously receiving property stolen, embezzled, or otherwise feloniously taken, obtained, or disposed of, the facts proved authorize a conviction for one of those offences, not being the offence charged, the Court may find the accused guilty of that other offence, and may adjudge him to be punished, as if he had been charged with that other offence. He shall not be liable to be afterwards prosecuted for that other offence.

71. If any person procures or endeavours to procure or incites any other person to commit a crime or offence, he shall be punishable on conviction in the same manner as if he were convicted of an attempt to commit that crime or offence. If the crime or offence is actually committed in pursuance of the procurement or incitement, both persons may be tried and punished for that crime or offence as principal offenders.

72. Sentences of imprisonment passed by a Consular Court shall be carried into effect in such prisons and in such manner as a Secretary of State from time to time directs.

If there be no such prison, or if, by reason of the condition of any such prison, or the state of health of the prisoner, or on any other ground, the Consular Court thinks that the sentence ought not to be carried into effect in such prison, the prisoner shall, by warrant under the hand and seal of the Consul, be removed in custody to one of Her Majesty's African possessions, there to undergo his sentence.

Any sentence of imprisonment under this Order may be with or without hard labour, as the Court directs.

A sentence of death shall be carried into effect in one of Her Majesty's African possessions.

When a person is sent to a Colony for execution of a sentence of death or imprisonment, the provisions of the 5th section of "The Foreign Jurisdiction Act, 1843," shall be observed.

72A. Whenever under this Order a person is to be removed for trial, or for the execution of a sentence of imprisonment or death, to one of Her Majesty's African possessions, he shall be removed to one of the following possessions of Her Majesty, that is to say:—

Sierra Leone,
Gold Coast,
Lagos,
Mauritius,
Seychelles,
Cape Colony,
Natal,
Zululand.

Provided—

(1.) That a person shall not be so removed to the Cape Colony or Natal without the consent of the Government of the Cape Colony or Natal (as the case may be);

(2.) That a person shall not be removed to Mauritius or Seychelles, except from Madagascar or its dependencies or territorial waters, without the consent of a Secretary of State; and

(3.) That, subject as aforesaid, in determining to which of the above-mentioned possessions the person is to be removed, regard shall be had to the place of birth or domicile of the person removed, and to any considerations with respect to convenience of trial and the attendance of witnesses, and subject thereto the removal shall be directed to be made to the nearest of the above-mentioned possessions to which the person can be removed.

73. It shall be lawful for a Consular Court, from time to time, by order or warrant under the seal of the Court, to appoint any building or place specified in such order or warrant to be a prison for any purpose of this Order, either generally or in relation to a particular case, or for a limited time, and to appoint such persons as the Court thinks fit to be gaolers, keepers, or officers of any such prison.

74. A Secretary of State may remit or commute, in whole or in part, any sentence of a Consular Court.

In every case of sentence of death the Minutes of the trial shall be transmitted to a Secretary of State, and the sentence shall not be carried into effect until confirmed by him.

When a Consular Court sentences a person to imprisonment exceeding twelve months, or fine exceeding 100*l.*, or in any other case, if a Secretary of State by any general or particular instruction so directs, the sentence shall be submitted to the prescribed Court of Appeal for review in the manner hereafter in this Order prescribed.

75. Where a sentence is under this Order submitted for review, the Consular Court shall transmit the Minutes of the case, with such observations as the Consul thinks necessary, and the Court of Appeal shall return the Minutes, with such instructions as they think fit to give, either as to findings of fact, or as to law, or as to mitigation of sentence, and the Consular Court shall give effect to such instructions.

Pending the review of a sentence, the Consular Court may suspend the execution of the sentence, but is not obliged so to do unless so directed by the Court to whom the case is submitted, or by a Secretary of State. In either case the Consular Court may (unless otherwise directed) take such security by way of bail or otherwise, and if necessary by commitment to prison for safe custody, as it thinks necessary for submission to the ultimate sentence.

76. Where a person charged with having committed a crime or offence in the district of one Court escapes or removes from that district, and is found within the district of another Court, the Court within the district of which he is found may proceed in the case to examination, indictment, trial, and punishment, or in a summary way (as the case may require), in the same manner as if the crime or offence had been committed in its own district; or may, on the requisition or with the consent of the Court of the district in which the crime or offence is charged to have been committed, send him in custody to that Court, or require him to give security for his surrender to that Court, there to answer the charge and be dealt with according to law.

Where any person is to be so sent in custody a warrant shall be issued by the Court within the district of which he is found, and such warrant shall be sufficient authority to any person to whom it is directed to receive and detain the person therein named, and to carry him to and deliver him up to the Court of the district within which the crime or offence was committed, according to the warrant.

77. Where a warrant or order of arrest is issued by a competent authority in Her Majesty's dominions for the apprehension of a British subject, who is charged with having committed a crime or offence within the jurisdiction of the authority issuing the warrant or order, and who is, or is supposed to be, in the district of a Court, and the warrant or order is produced to the Court, the Court may back the warrant or order; and the same when so backed shall be sufficient authority to any person to whom the warrant or order was originally directed, and also to any constable or other officer of the Court by which it is backed, to apprehend the accused at any place where the Court by which the warrant or order is backed has jurisdiction, and to deliver him on board any ship in African waters into the custody of any person having authority to receive and carry him in custody to Her Majesty's dominions.

78.—(1.) In cases of murder or manslaughter, if either the death or the criminal act which wholly or partly caused the death happened within the jurisdiction of a Court acting under this Order, such Court shall have the like jurisdiction over any British subject who is charged either as the principal offender or as accessory before the fact to murder, or as accessory after the fact to murder or manslaughter, as if both such criminal act and the death had happened within such jurisdiction.

(2.) In the case of any crime committed on the high seas, or within the Admiralty jurisdiction, by any British subject on board a British ship, or on board a foreign ship to which he did not belong, a Court acting under this Order shall have jurisdiction as if the crime had been committed within the district of such Court. In cases tried under this provision no different sentence can be passed from the sentence which could be passed in England if the crime were tried there.

(3.) The foregoing provisions of this Article shall be deemed to be adaptations, for the purposes of this Order and of "The Foreign Jurisdiction Act, 1878," of the following enactments described in the first schedule to that Act (that is to say):—

"The Admiralty Offences (Colonial) Act, 1849."

"The Admiralty Offences (Colonial) Act, 1860."

"The Merchant Shipping Act, 1867," section 11. And the said enactments shall, so far as they are repeated and adapted by this Article (but not further or otherwise), extend to all places within the limits of every local jurisdiction constituted under this Order.

79. "The Fugitive Offenders Act, 1881," shall apply to each local jurisdiction constituted under this Order as if such local jurisdiction were a British possession, subject to the conditions, exceptions and qualifications following:—

(1.) The said Act shall apply only in the case of British subjects.

(2.) The principal British Consular officer for the time being in the jurisdiction, or person acting as such by authority of a Secretary of State, is for the purposes of the said Act substituted for the Governor of a British possession, and for a superior Court, or a Judge thereof, in a British possession, and for a Magistrate or Justice of the Peace in a British possession.

(3.) So much of the 4th and 5th sections of the said Act as relates to the sending a Report of the issue of a warrant, together with the information, or a copy thereof, or to the sending of a certificate of committal and report of a case, or to the information to be given by a Magistrate to a fugitive, shall be excepted.

(4.) So much of the 6th section of the said Act as relates to habeas corpus, and as requires the expiration of fifteen days before issue of a warrant, shall be excepted.

(5.) The said Consular officer shall not be bound to return a fugitive offender to a British possession unless satisfied that the proceedings to obtain his return are taken with the consent of the Governor of that possession.

For the purposes of Part II of the said Act, Madagascar and Mauritius shall be deemed to be one group of British possessions, and any other local jurisdiction constituted under this Order shall be deemed, together with Her Majesty's African possessions other than Mauritius, to be one group of British possessions.

80. "The Colonial Prisoners Removal Act, 1884," shall apply to each local jurisdiction constituted under this Order as if each local jurisdiction constituted under this Order were a British possession and part of Her Majesty's dominions, subject as follows:—

The principal Consular officer in any district shall, in relation to such district, be substituted for the Governor of a British possession.

81. Nothing in this Order shall be deemed to affect Her Majesty's prerogative of pardon.

PART VII.—APPEALS.

82. In civil matters an appeal shall lie from a Consular Court to the prescribed Court of Appeal: by the leave of the Consular Court, or without such leave where leave is given by the Court of Appeal.

The appeal shall be brought within such time and in such manner, as regards the form and transmission of the appeal, and as to stay of execution and otherwise, as may be prescribed by any rules of procedure made under this Order, or as in any case by any special leave or order the said Court of Appeal may direct.

A Consular Court may, before deciding any civil matter, state a case in writing for the opinion of the prescribed Court of Appeal, and shall give effect to such opinion, and when a case has been so stated, no appeal shall be brought against the decision of the Consular Court in conformity therewith unless by leave of the same Court of Appeal.

As regards matters not provided for by this Article, the procedure on appeal in the Court of Appeal may be the same as the ordinary procedure of that Court upon the hearing of any application for a new trial, or upon a case stated or reserved for the opinion of the Court, and the judgment or order of such Court in the appeal shall be certified under its seal to the Consular Court which shall give effect thereto.

The decision of a Court of Appeal under this Order shall be subject to appeal to Her Majesty in Council, in the same manner and on the same conditions as to the amount involved and otherwise as any other decision of the same Court of Appeal.

PART VIII.—EVIDENCE.

83.—(1.) In any case, criminal or civil, and at any stage thereof, the Court, either of its own motion, or on the application of any party, may summon a British subject to attend to give evidence, or to produce documents, or to be examined.

(2.) If the person summoned, having reasonable notice of the time and place at which he is required to attend, fails to attend and be sworn, and give evidence, or produce documents, or submit to examination accordingly, and does not excuse his failure to the satisfaction of the Court, he shall be guilty of an offence against this Order.

(3.) A person punished under this Article shall not be liable to an action in respect of the same matter; and any such action, if begun, shall be stayed by the Court in such manner and on such terms as the Court thinks fit.

84.—(1.) In a criminal case, where it is proved that a British subject is likely to give material evidence, either for the prosecution or for the defence, and that he will not voluntarily attend to give evidence, the Court may issue a summons for his attendance.

(2.) If he does not obey the summons, and does not excuse his failure to the satisfaction of the Court, then, after proof of the summons, the Court may issue a warrant to compel his attendance.

(3.) Where it is proved that he will not attend to give evidence unless compelled to do so, the Court may issue a warrant in the first instance.

85. In civil cases any Court may, where the circumstances appear to justify it, order that the expenses of a witness, on his appearing to give evidence, shall be defrayed by the parties or any of them.

86. Any person appearing before a Court to give evidence in any case, civil or criminal, may be examined or give evidence on oath in the form or with the ceremony that he declares to be binding on his conscience.

87. Any British subject wilfully giving false evidence in any suit or proceeding, civil or criminal, or on any arbitration, or in any affidavit, shall be deemed guilty of wilful and corrupt perjury.

88. Judicial notice shall be taken of this Order, and of the commencement thereof, and of the appointment of Consular or other officers, and of the constitution and limits of any jurisdiction, Court, or district, and of Consular seals and signatures, and of any Rules or Regulations made or in force under this Order, and no proof shall be required of any of such matters.

89. Every signature or seal affixed to any instrument purporting to be the signature of any Consular officer or person acting under this Order, or to be the seal of any of Her Majesty's Courts, shall, for all purposes under this Order, without any proof thereof, be presumed to be genuine, and shall be taken as genuine until the contrary is proved.

90. A person attending to give evidence before the Court, or the Court of Appeal, shall not be compelled or allowed to give any evidence or produce any document if, in the opinion of the principal Consular Officer having authority in the district in which the Court is held signified by him personally or in writing to the Court, the giving or production thereof would be injurious to Her Majesty's service.

91.—(1.) The provisions of "The Evidence Act, 1851," 14 & 15 Vict. c. 99, sections 7 and 11, relating to the proof of judicial and other documents, shall extend and be applied for all purposes as if the district were in a British Colony.

(2.) The following Acts, namely:—

"The Foreign Tribunals Evidence Act, 1856,"

"The Evidence by Commission Act, 1859,"

"The Evidence by Commission Act, 1885,"

or so much thereof as is for the time being in force, and any enactment for the time being in force amending or substituted for the same, are hereby extended to all places and Courts to which this Order applies with the adaptations following, namely:—

In the said Acts the Court is hereby substituted for a Supreme Court or a Judge of a Court in a Colony.

(3.) The following Acts, namely:—

"The British Law Ascertainment Act, 1859,"

"The Foreign Law Ascertainment Act, 1861,"

or so much thereof as is for the time being in force, and any enactment for the time being in force amending or substituted for the same are hereby extended to all places and Courts to which this Order applies, with the adaptations following, namely:—

In the said Acts the Court is hereby substituted for a Superior Court in a Colony.

PART IX.—ASSESSORS.

92. Where a Court proceeds, in pursuance of this Order, to hear and determine any case, civil or criminal, with Assessors, the Court shall nominate and summon as Assessors not less than two and not more than four indifferent British subjects of good repute, resident in the district of the Court or belonging to a British ship.

Where, however, by reason of local circumstances, the Court is able to obtain the presence of one fit person only as Assessor, the Court may sit with him alone as Assessor; and where for like reasons the Court is not able to obtain the presence of any fit person as Assessor, the Court may (notwithstanding anything in this Order) sit without an Assessor; but in every such case the Court shall record in the Minutes of Proceedings its reasons for sitting with one Assessor only, or without an Assessor.

An Assessor shall not have voice or vote in the decision of the Court in any case, civil or criminal; but an Assessor dissenting in a civil case from any decision of the Court, or in a criminal case from any decision of the Court, or the conviction, or the amount of punishment awarded, may record in the Minutes of Proceedings his dissent and the grounds thereof; and an Assessor dissenting shall be entitled to receive gratis a certified copy of the Minutes.

93. Where a suit relates to money, goods, or other property of a less amount or value than 300*l.*—and does not relate to or involve, directly or indirectly, a question respecting any matter at issue of the amount or value of 300*l.* or upwards—and is not brought for recovery of damages of a greater amount than 300*l.*—the Court may hear and determine the case without Assessors.

In all other civil cases the Court (subject to the provisions of this Order respecting inability to obtain an Assessor) shall hear and determine the case with Assessors.

94. If any person summoned to act as Assessor fails, without lawful excuse, to attend at the trial, or at any adjournment thereof, or to continue to serve throughout the trial, he shall be liable, under a summary order of the Court, to a fine not exceeding 10*l.* to be levied by attachment and sale of his goods within the district, and in default of recovery thereby of the fine, to be imprisoned for any time not exceeding six days, if the fine is not sooner paid.

PART X.—RULES OF PROCEDURE.

95. Every Consular officer holding a Court for any district may from time to time frame Rules for any purpose for which it is in this Order expressed or implied that Rules of Procedure or Practice are to be made, and the execution of judgments or orders, and for the regulation of appeals in civil and in criminal cases, and of rehearings, and generally for the purpose of making any provision proper or necessary for the proper or effectual exercise of the jurisdiction of Courts under this Order, and may thereby impose reasonable penalties, and may provide for the enforcement of any judgment or order by imprisonment for not exceeding one month.

Rules affecting the conduct of civil suits shall be so framed as to secure, as far as may be, that cases shall be decided on their merits according to substantial justice, without excessive regard to technicalities of pleading or procedure, and without unnecessary delay.

Rules framed under this Article shall not have effect unless and until they are approved by a Secretary of State, save that in case of urgency declared in any Rules framed by the Consular officer, the same shall have effect unless and until they are disapproved by a Secretary of State, and notification of such disapproval is received and published by the Consular officer.

The Rules, Regulations, and Forms contained in the Schedule to this Order may be used with such modifications as circumstances require, and shall be deemed to have been duly made and approved under this Order, but may be altered with the approval of a Secretary of State in relation to any district in the same manner as other Rules made under this Order.

96. Provision may, amongst other things, be made by Rules under this Order authorising the Court to grant and enforce search warrants, and to enforce awards, and to enforce by distress, or by attachment or commitment, judgments or orders of the Court, or payment of any damages, costs, penalties, fines, or forfeitures, and for the sale of things forfeited, and for garnishee process, and for attachments of property in order to compel appearance or submission to the jurisdiction or process of the Court, and authorising the Court to compel, by fine, distress, or recognizance, or in default of security by commitment, the attendance of witnesses before the Court, or before a Colonial or English Court to which a case is sent for trial, and to fix and enforce the fees to be taken in respect of any proceedings under this Order, not exceeding, as regards any matters provided for by the Act of 6 Geo. IV, cap. 87, fees fixed and allowed from time to time by any Order in Council made under that Act, and to take and transmit depositions of witnesses for use at trials in a Colony or in England, and to appoint forms of indictment or charge in criminal proceedings: Provided that the scales of all fees fixed under the provisions of this Order shall have been sanctioned by the Commissioners of Her Majesty's Treasury.

97. A copy of the Rules for the time being in force shall be kept exhibited conspicuously in each Court and Consulate.

Printed copies shall be provided and sold at such reasonable price as the Consular officer from time to time directs.

No penalty shall be enforced in any Court for the breach of any Rule until the Rule has been so exhibited in the Court for one month, unless the person offending is proved to have had express notice of the Rule.

A printed copy of any Rule, purporting to be certified under the hand of the Consular officers shall be for all purposes conclusive evidence of the due framing, approval, and publication of the contents thereof.

98. From and after the commencement of any Rules made under this Order, all Rules and Regulations theretofore in force in the district in respect of the same matter in respect whereof Rules are made under this Order shall cease to operate.

PART XI.—TREATIES AND QUEEN'S REGULATIONS.

99. Every Consul, according to the authority to be assigned to him under this Order, shall have power to make and alter Regulations (to be called Queen's Regulations) for the following purposes (that is to say):—

(1.) For securing the observance of any Treaty for the time being in force relating to any place to which this Order applies, or of any native or local law or custom whether relating to trade, commerce, revenue, or any other matter.

(2.) For the peace, order, and good government of British subjects within any such place in relation to matters not provided for by this Order.

(3.) For requiring Returns to be made of the nature, quantity, and value of articles exported from or imported into his district, or any part thereof, by or on account of any British subject or in any British ship, and for prescribing the times and manner at or in which and the persons by whom such Returns are to be made.

(4.) For the governance, visitation, care, and superintendence of prisons.

Any Regulations under this Article may provide for forfeiture of any goods, receptacles, or things in relation to which, or to the contents of which, any breach is committed of such Regulations, or of any Treaty or any native or local law or custom, the observance of which is provided for by such Regulations.

Any Regulations made under this Article shall, when allowed by a Secretary of State, and published as he directs, have effect as if contained in this Order.

Any Rules or Regulations heretofore made under the authority of the West Africa Order in Council, 1872, or of any Order in Council repealed by this Order, and which are in force at the time of the commencement of this Order, and which are not expressly repealed by this Order, shall, notwithstanding the repeal of that Order, continue in force until revoked by a Secretary of State, but shall be subject to the provisions of this Order, and so far as they are inconsistent with any provision of this Order, or with any Regulations or Rules made under this Order, this Order, and any Regulations or Rules made under it, shall have effect.

A breach of any such Regulations shall be deemed to be an offence against this Order, and shall be punishable accordingly in addition to any forfeiture as aforesaid.

PART XII.—FOREIGNERS AND FOREIGN COURTS.

Suits by or against Foreigners.

100.—(1.) Where a foreigner desires to institute to take a suit or proceeding of a civil nature against a British subject, or a British subject desires to institute or take a suit or proceeding of a civil nature against a foreigner, the Court may entertain the suit or proceeding, and hear and determine it (and if all parties desire, or the Court directs a trial with Assessors, then with Assessors) at a place where such a trial might be had if all parties were British subjects, and in all other respects according to the ordinary course of the Court.

(2.) Provided that the foreigner (i.) first files in the Court his consent to the jurisdiction of the Court; and (ii.) also, if required by the Court, obtains and files a certificate in writing from a competent authority of his own Government, to the effect that no objection is made by that Government to the foreigner submitting in the particular cause or matter to the jurisdiction of the Court; and (iii.) also, if required by the Court, gives security to the satisfaction of the Court, to such reasonable amount as the Court directs, by deposit of money or otherwise, to pay fees, costs, damages, and expenses, and to abide by and perform the decision to be given by the Court or on appeal.

(3.) A counter-claim or cross suit cannot be brought or instituted in the Court against a plaintiff, being a foreigner, who has submitted to the jurisdiction, by a defendant, except by leave of the Court first obtained.

(4.) The Court, before giving leave, requires proof from the defendant that his claim arises out of the matter in dispute, and that there is reasonable ground for it, and that it is not made for vexation and delay.

(5.) Nothing in this Article prevents the defendant from instituting or taking in the Court against the foreigner, after the termination of the suit or proceeding in which the foreigner is plaintiff, any suit or proceeding that the defendant might have instituted or taken in the Court against the foreigner if no provision restraining counter-claims or cross suits had been inserted in this Order.

(6.) Where a foreigner obtains in the Court an order against a defendant being a British subject, and in another suit that defendant is plaintiff and the foreigner is defendant, the Court may, if it thinks fit, on the application of the British subject, stay the enforcement of the order pending that other suit, and may set off any amount ordered to be paid by one party in one suit against any amount ordered to be paid by the other party in the other suit.

(7.) Where a plaintiff, being a foreigner, obtains in the Court an Order against two or more defendants, being British subjects, jointly, and in another suit one of them is plaintiff and the foreigner is defendant, the Court may, if it thinks fit, on the application of the British subject, stay the enforcement of the Order pending that other suit, and may set off any amount ordered to be paid by one party in one suit against any amount ordered to be paid by the other party in the other suit, without prejudice to the right of the British subject to require contribution from his co-defendants under the joint liability.

(8.) Where a foreigner is co-plaintiff in a suit with a British subject who is within the particular jurisdiction, it is not necessary for the foreigner to make deposit or give security for costs, unless the Court so directs; but the co-plaintiff British subject is responsible for all fees and costs.

Foreign Tribunals.

101.—(1.) Where it is shown to a Court that the attendance of a British subject to give evidence, or for any other purpose connected with the administration of justice, is required in a native or foreign Court, or before a native or foreign judicial officer, or in a Court, or before a judicial officer of any State in amity with Her Majesty, the Court may, if it thinks fit, in a case and in circumstances in which it would require his attendance before itself, order that he do attend and give evidence and produce documents as so required. The order may be made subject to conditions as to payment or tender of expenses or otherwise.

(2.) A Court, however, cannot so order attendance at any place beyond its particular jurisdiction.

(3.) If the person ordered to attend, having reasonable notice of the time and place at which he is required to attend, fails to attend accordingly, and does not excuse his failure to the satisfaction of the Court, or if he refuses to give evidence, or wilfully gives false evidence, or fails to produce documents which he is properly required to produce, he is, independently of any other liability, guilty of an offence against this Order, and for every such offence, on conviction thereof, by summary trial, is liable to a fine not exceeding 100*l.*, or to imprisonment for not exceeding one month in the discretion of the Court.

PART XIII.—DEPORTATION AND REMOVAL.

102.—(1.) Where a person is convicted before a Court of any crime or offence, the Court may in addition to or in lieu of any other sentence order him to give security to the satisfaction of the Court, by recognizance, deposit of money, or otherwise, for future good behaviour, and in default of such security may order him to be deported forthwith, or after undergoing any other sentence which may be passed upon him, to the prescribed African possession of Her Majesty, or to such other part of Her Majesty's dominions as a Secretary of State, with the concurrence of the Commissioners of Her Majesty's Treasury, from time to time, directs in this behalf.

(2.) Where, upon or without any complaint or charge made, it appears to a Court that there is reason to believe that any person is about to commit a breach of the peace, or that his conduct is likely to produce or excite a breach of the peace, the Court may order him to give security as above mentioned for peace and good behaviour, and in default may order him to be deported as aforesaid.

(3.) An order for deportation shall be executed in the manner provided by this Order, with respect to the removal of persons from a district. It may, in any case with reference to which the Secretary of State, by any general or special directions, so directs, provide for the deportation of the person to whom it refers, in the first instance to any place to which such person can, under this Order, be deported, and also for his further deportation from that place to any other place to which he could lawfully have been deported in the first instance.

(4.) The Court, as part of an order for deportation, may order that the person to be deported pay all or any part of the expenses of his deportation, to an amount specified in the order.

(5.) A report of every order for deportation, stating the grounds thereof and the proceedings thereunder, shall forthwith be made to a Secretary of State, who may at any time remit such order.

(6.) An order for deportation may be expressed to be in force for a time to be limited therein, or for an unlimited time.

(7.) If a person deported from a district returns while the order is in force, without the written consent of the Court or of a Secretary of State, which consent may be given subject to any terms as to security for good behaviour or otherwise, he is guilty of an offence against this Order, and in addition to any other punishment for such offence he may be again deported on a fresh warrant under the original order or under a new order.

103. Where a person is to be removed from a district, either for trial in another district, or in England, or in a Colony, or for the execution of a sentence in a Colony, or under an order of deportation, a warrant for the purpose shall be issued by the Judge of the Court under his hand and seal, and the person may, under such warrant, be taken to and put on board of one of Her Majesty's ships, or some other fit ship, and shall be conveyed in such ship or otherwise to the place named in the warrant.

Pending removal, the person shall, if the Court so orders, by indorsement on the warrant, be arrested and detained in custody or in prison until an opportunity for removal occurs.

On arrival at the place named in the warrant, the person, if removed under an order of deportation, shall be discharged, or otherwise shall be handed over to the proper gaoler, constable, magistrate, or officer.

Where a warrant of deportation provides for further deportation from the place to which the person is first deported to some other place, the person shall, on his arrival at such first-mentioned place, be delivered with the warrant into the custody of the Chief Magistrate or officer of police at that place who shall detain him, and shall forthwith report the case to the Governor or person administering the Government at that place, who shall either cause him to be further deported with and in accordance with the warrant, and in the meantime to be detained in custody for any necessary period not exceeding three months, or, if the circumstances of the case appear to render his discharge expedient, shall discharge him from custody.

A warrant of removal is sufficient authority to the person to whom it is directed or delivered for execution, and to the person in command of any ship, and to every person acting under the warrant or in aid of any such person, to take, receive, detain, convey, and deliver the person named therein in the manner thereby directed, and generally is sufficient authority for anything done in execution or intended execution of the warrant.

A warrant of removal must be issued in duplicate, and the person executing it must on arriving at the place named, deliver one of the duplicates with the prisoner to the proper gaoler, constable, magistrate or officer.

PART XIV.—REGISTRATION.

104.—(1.) Every British subject resident in a Consular district, being of the age of twenty-one years or upwards, or being married, or a widower or widow, though under that age, must, in every January, register himself at the Consular Court of the district within which he is resident.

(2.) Every British subject not resident in a Consular district, arriving within the district of a Consular Court, unless borne on the muster-roll of a British or foreign vessel, must, within one month after arrival, register himself at the Consular Court.

(3.) But this provision does not require any person to register himself oftener than once in a year, beginning 1st January.

(4.) The registration of a man comprises the registration of his wife, if living with him; and

(5.) The registration of the head, male or female, of a family comprises the registration of all females, being relatives of such head, in whatever degree, living under the same roof with him at the time of his registration.

(6.) The Consul shall yearly give to each person registered a certificate of registration, signed by the Consul, and sealed with his Consular seal.

(7.) The name of a wife, if her registration is comprised in her husband's, shall, unless in any case the Consul sees reason to the contrary, be indorsed on the husband's certificate.

(8.) The names and descriptions of females whose registration is comprised in that of the head of the family shall, unless in any case the Consul sees reason to the contrary, be indorsed on the certificate of the head of the family.

(9.) Every person on every registration shall pay a fee of 2s. 6d.

(10.) The amount of the fee may be uniform for all persons, or may vary according to the position and circumstances of different classes, if the Secretary of State from time to time so directs, but may not in any case exceed 5s.

(11.) Every person by this provision required to register himself must, unless excused by the Consul, attend personally for that purpose at the Court, on each occasion of registration.

(12.) If any person fails to comply with the requirements of this Article, and does not excuse his failure to the satisfaction of the Consul, he is guilty of an offence against this Order, and shall be liable to a fine not exceeding 5*l.*, and any Court or authority may, if it thinks fit, decline to recognize him as a British subject.

PART XV.—OFFICIAL.

105. Except as in this Order expressly provided, nothing in this Order shall preclude any of Her Majesty's Consular officers from performing any act not of a judicial character, which Her Majesty's Consular officers might by law or by virtue of usage or sufferance, or otherwise, have performed if this Order had not been made.

106. Whenever an Acting Consular officer has commenced the hearing of any cause or matter, civil or criminal, he may, unless the Consular officer otherwise directs, continue and complete the hearing and determination thereof, notwithstanding that his authority to act as such Consular officer has otherwise ceased by reason of the expiration of the time for which he was appointed to act, or by reason of the happening of any event by which his authority is determined.

107. Any suit or proceeding shall not be commenced in any of Her Majesty's Courts against any person for anything done or omitted in pursuance or execution or intended execution of this Order, or of any Regulation or Rule made under it, unless notice in writing is given by the intending plaintiff or prosecutor to the intended defendant one clear month before the commencement of the suit or proceeding, nor unless it is commenced within three months next after the act or omission complained of, or in case of a continuation of damage within three months next after the doing of such damage has ceased.

The plaintiff in any such suit shall not succeed if tender of sufficient amends is made by the defendant before the commencement thereof; and if no tender is made the defendant may by leave of the Court at any time pay into Court such sum of money as he thinks fit, whereupon such proceeding and Order shall be had and made in and by the Court as may be had and made on the payment of money into Court in an ordinary suit.

PART XVI.—FEES AND EXPENSES.

108. All fees, fines, forfeitures, confiscations, and pecuniary penalties, and all commissions levied or received under this Order shall be accounted for, paid, and applied as a Secretary of State with the concurrence of the Commissioners of Her Majesty's Treasury from time to time directs.

109. Subject to the other provisions of this Order, all expenses of removal of prisoners and others, and the expenses of deportation, and of the sending of any person to England, shall be defrayed in such manner as a Secretary of State with the concurrence of the Commissioners of Her Majesty's Treasury from time to time directs.

PART XVII.—SUPPLEMENTAL.

110. Where, by virtue of any Imperial Act or of this Order or otherwise, any provisions of any Imperial Acts, or of any Law, or of any Orders in Council, other than this Order are applicable within any local jurisdiction or district constituted under this Order, or any form, regulation, or procedure prescribed or established under any such Act or Law, are, or is, so applicable, the same shall be deemed applicable so far only as the constitution and jurisdiction of the Courts acting under this Order and the local circumstances permit, and for the purpose of facilitating application may be construed or used with such alterations and adaptations as may be necessary, and anything required to be done by or to any Court, Judge, officer, or authority, may be done by or to a Court, Judge, officer, or authority having the like or analogous functions, or by any officer designated by a Secretary of State, or by the Court (as the case may require) for that purpose, and the seal of the Court may be substituted for any other seal; and in case any difficulty occurs in the application it shall be lawful for a Secretary of State to direct by, and to whom, and in what manner, anything is to be done, and such Act, law, order, form, regulation, or procedure shall be construed accordingly.

111. Sums of money, fines, forfeitures, penalties, or fees payable under this Order, shall be calculated and paid in English money, or, with the consent of the Court, in its equivalent in local currency or produce, or bills of exchange, approved by the Court.

112. In case Her Majesty appoints any Consul-General, Judge, Commissioner, or other person to exercise within the whole or part of any local jurisdiction constituted under this Order appellate jurisdiction in relation to Consular Courts within the limits of his appointment, the following provisions shall have effect:—

(1.) He shall have in all civil and criminal matters an extraordinary original jurisdiction concurrent with that of the Judge of any such Court, and such extraordinary jurisdiction shall be exercised in such classes of cases or particular cases as subject to the terms of his appointment or commission and to any instructions of a Secretary of State he thinks fit to direct.

(2.) He shall have such other powers or authorities over the Consular Courts and the officers thereof as his appointment or commission may specify, and all Consular or other officers in executing this Order shall, so far as such powers or authorities extend, conform to his directions.

(3.) In cases in which he does not exercise original jurisdiction, an appeal from a Consular Court may be brought to him in the like cases and manner in which under this Order an appeal may be brought to the Court of Appeal, and by his leave a further appeal shall lie in like manner to the Court of Appeal.

Rules of Procedure under this Order may be made for any of the purposes of this Article.

PART XVIII.—COMMENCEMENT, PUBLICATION, REPEALS, AND TEMPORARY PROVISIONS.

113. From the commencement of this Order the West Africa Order in Council, 1885, and the Order in Council for Madagascar, dated the 4th February, 1869, shall be repealed, but this repeal shall not affect the past operation of those Orders, or any existing right, title, obligation, or liability, or the validity of any Rules or Regulations made or confirmed under those Orders, or revive anything thereby repealed.

114. Nothing in this Order, or in any Rules made under it, shall apply to, or in any manner affect, any suit or proceeding, either of a civil or of a criminal nature, pending at the commencement of this Order, either with reference to the original proceedings therein or with reference to any appeal therein, or otherwise, subject, nevertheless, as follows:—

In any suit or proceeding, whether of a civil or of a criminal nature, the Court before which the same is pending at the commencement of this Order, after hearing the parties, or of its own motion, or on the application of either party, or by consent, may, if it seems fit, from time to time direct that the procedure and practice prescribed by this Order or by any Rule made under it be followed in any respect.

115. This Order shall commence and have effect as follows:—

(1.) As to the making of any warrant or appointment under this Order, immediately from and after the date of this Order.

(2.) As to the framing of Rules of Procedure or Regulations and the approval thereof by one of Her Majesty's Principal Secretaries of State, immediately from and after the date of this Order.

(3.) As to the repeal of former Orders, and as to all other matters and provisions comprised and contained in this Order, as regards each district immediately from and after the expiration of one month after this Order is first exhibited in the public office of the principal Consular officer for that district; for which purpose he is hereby required forthwith, on receipt by him of a copy of this Order, to affix and exhibit the same conspicuously in his public office, and he is also hereby required to keep the same so affixed and exhibited during one month from the first exhibition thereof; and notwithstanding anything in this Order, the time of the expiration of the said month shall be deemed to be the time of the commencement of this Order.

(4.) Proof shall not in any proceeding or matter be required that the provisions of this Article have been complied with, nor shall any act or proceeding be invalidated by any failure to comply with any of such provisions.

116. A copy of this Order shall be kept exhibited conspicuously in each Consular Court.

Printed copies shall be provided and sold at such reasonable price as the Consular officer, subject to any direction of a Secretary of State, may fix.

And the Most Honourable the Marquis of Salisbury and the Right Honourable Lord Knutsford, two of Her Majesty's Principal Secretaries of State, and the Lords Commissioners of the Treasury and the Lords Commissioners of the Admiralty, are to give the necessary directions herein as to them may respectively appertain.

C. L. Peel.

SCHEDULE referred to in foregoing Order in Council.

RULES and REGULATIONS for procedure in Civil and Criminal Cases.

(Under Part X of the Africa Order in Council of 1889.)

(Expressions in these Rules and Regulations have the same meanings as in the Africa Order in Council, 1889.)

PART A.—GENERAL.

Application of Part A.

THE provisions in Part A apply to all proceedings, civil and criminal.

1. Attendance of Witnesses.

(1.) In any proceeding, and at any stage thereof, the Court may summon a British subject to attend to give evidence or to produce documents. (Form A 2.)

(2.) Any British subject present at any proceeding in Court, may be required by the Court, if the Court thinks fit, to give evidence, or to produce documents.

2. Witnesses' Oath or Declaration.

(1.) Each witness, before giving evidence, takes an oath, according to such ceremonies or in such form as he deems binding on his conscience. In ordinary cases the form will be as follows:—"I swear that I will speak the truth, the whole truth, and nothing but the truth. So help me God."

(2.) But the Court, if satisfied in the case of an intended witness that the taking of an oath would not bind his conscience, may permit him, instead of taking an oath, to make a declaration that he will, in giving evidence, tell the truth, the whole truth, and nothing but the truth.

3. Oral Evidence.

(1.) Subject to the direction of the Court in any particular case, each witness, after examination, is subject to be cross-examined and re-examined. After re-examination he shall not be further questioned or recalled, except through or by leave of the Court.

(2.) The Court may disallow any questions put in cross-examination which appear to the Court to be irrelevant, oppressive, or merely vexatious.

(3.) The Court takes a note of the substance of all the oral evidence given before it, in a narrative form, but putting down, if there appears reason for doing so, the terms of any particular question or answer.

4. Documentary Evidence.

(1.) Every document tendered and admitted in evidence is put in and read.

(2.) Every document put in is marked by the Court at the time with a distinguishing letter or number, and is retained by the Court till the end of the preliminary examination or trial (as the case may be), when it is returned to the party who put it in, or from whose custody it came, unless the Court, for any reason, orders it to be detained in the custody of the Court.

5. Assessors.

(1.) Every Court keeps a list of persons resident in the district who are qualified under Part IX of the "Africa Order in Council, 1889," to be assessors.

(2.) When the presence of assessors is likely to be required at any civil or criminal trial, the Court summons from among the persons whose names are on the list as many as it thinks necessary.

(3.) So far as is practicable, the persons liable to attend as assessors are summoned in regular order, according to the place of their names in the list.

(4.) The summons to a person to attend as assessor is in writing under the seal of the Court, and is served on him by being delivered to him personally, unless he is at the time of service absent from his usual place of abode, in which case it may be left for him there with some adult inmate. (Form A 3.)

(5.) The Court may, on reasonable cause shown, excuse from attendance generally, or in any particular case, any person summoned, or liable to be summoned, as assessor, and may for like cause discharge from attendance in any particular case any person who is acting as assessor therein.

(6.) If in the course of a trial one or more of the assessors is, or are prevented by sufficient cause from continuing to serve, the trial may, if the Court thinks fit, proceed with the aid of the remaining assessor or assessors, if any.

(7.) If in any case the sole assessor is, or all the assessors are prevented from continuing to serve, the proceeding shall be stayed, and a new trial held with another assessor or assessors. But in a case of urgent necessity, or by consent of the parties or their agents, the Court may continue the trial, recording the fact and the reason for so acting in the Minutes.

6. Sealing.

Every Summons, Judgment, Order, Notice, or other document issued from the Court is sealed with the seal of the Court.

7. Minutes and File of Proceedings.

(1.) In every case Minutes of the proceedings at each stage are drawn up in writing, signed by the Consul, and sealed with the seal of the Court.

(2.) The Minutes and all other documents in the case are filed in a continuous file, called the file of proceedings.

(3.) The file of proceedings must be carefully preserved among the records of the Consulate.

(4.) The file of proceedings in any case is open to the inspection of the assessors engaged in that case, but may not be inspected by any other person except by order of the Secretary of State.

PART B.—CIVIL.

8. Application of Part B.

The provisions in Part B apply to civil proceedings only.

CIVIL PROCEEDINGS.

9. Action; Summons.

- (1.) Civil proceedings are taken by action.
- (2.) An action is commenced by a summons.
- (3.) A summons is a document in the Form B 1, or some form to the like effect, which is issued from the Court on the application of the plaintiff. It contains a concise statement of the particulars of the plaintiff's claim, and gives the defendant notice of the time and place of trial. It is sealed with the seal of the Court.

10. Cause-book.

Every Court keeps a book called the Cause-book, in which are entered all actions brought in that Court, numbered consecutively in each year with a short statement of the particulars of each action, and a note of the several proceedings therein. (Form B 2.)

11. Joinder of Causes of Action.

- (1.) A plaintiff may unite in the same action several causes of action or complaint.
- (2.) But the Court, if it thinks that such causes of action, or some of them, cannot be conveniently tried together, may order separate trials.

12. Parties.

- (1.) All persons may join as plaintiffs in whom the right to any relief claimed is alleged to exist, whether jointly, severally, or in the alternative.
- (2.) All persons may be joined as defendants against whom the right to any relief claimed is alleged to exist, whether jointly, severally, or in the alternative.
- (3.) The Court may at any stage strike out the names of parties improperly or unnecessarily joined, and may, after due notice given to the persons affected, add the names of parties whose presence is essential to a just decision of the matter in dispute.

13. Plaintiff out of District.

- (1.) Where a plaintiff, taking out a summons, either alone or jointly with any other person, is out of the district or only temporarily therein, he must file at the office of the Court, when the summons is issued, a written statement of a fit place within the district where notices and other papers issuing from the Court may be served on him.

- (2.) He must also give security for costs by deposit or by bond for such amount as the Court directs.

(3.) The Court may, at any stage of the proceedings, order a plaintiff, who has left or is about to leave the district, to give security, or further or better security, for costs, to such an amount as the Court thinks fit, and may direct proceedings to be stayed in the meanwhile.

14. Service.

(1.) Service is effected by an officer of the Court, and is personal, unless in any case the Court thinks fit otherwise to direct.

(2.) Personal service is effected by showing to the person to be served the original document, and by leaving with him a copy of the document of which service is intended.

(3.) Service shall not, without the leave of the Court, be made on Sunday, or before 6 A.M. or after 6 P.M. on any other day.

(4.) This rule applies to the service of a Summons, Orders, Judgments, and all other documents required by these Rules or the practice of the Court to be served.

15. Service of Summons.

(1.) The summons is delivered by the plaintiff to the officer of the Court for service on the defendant (except in cases where the Court thinks fit otherwise to direct) at least seven days before the day named in the summons for the hearing of the action.

(2.) The date and place of service are indorsed on the original summons by the person serving it.

16. Dismissal for Failure to Proceed.

If an action entered in the cause-book is not proceeded with and disposed of within twelve months from service of the summons, the Court may, if it thinks fit, upon or without application by any party, order the same to be dismissed for failure to proceed.

17. Payment into Court in Satisfaction.

(1.) Where an action is brought to recover a debt or damages, any defendant may, at any time after service of the summons, pay into the office of the Court a sum of money by way of satisfaction or amends.

(2.) It shall be paid to the proper officer, who shall give a receipt for the same.

(3.) The defendant shall give the plaintiff notice that he has paid in that money, stating in respect of what claim.

(4.) Money so paid in may, unless the Court otherwise orders, be paid out to the plaintiff, or to his solicitor on the written authority of the plaintiff.

(5.) The plaintiff may, after receipt of notice of payment in, accept the amount in satisfaction of the causes of action in respect of which it is paid in; in which case he shall give notice thereof to the defendant, and the Court shall make such order thereon as shall be just.

18. Set-off and Counter-claim.

(1.) A defendant may set off or set up, by way of counter-claim against the claim of the plaintiff, any right or claim.

(2.) Notice of set-off or counter-claim must be given in writing to the Court, so that it may be served on the plaintiff at least four days before the day fixed for the hearing of the action. (Form B 3.)

(3.) If in the opinion of the Court the set-off or counter-claim cannot be conveniently tried in the pending action, the Court may refuse permission to the defendant to avail himself of it in that action.

19. Death of Party or other Change.

(1.) Where, after action brought, any change or transmission of interest or liability occurs in relation to any party to the action, or any party to the action dies, or (being a woman) marries, or the action in any other way becomes defective or incapable of being carried on, any person interested may obtain from the Court any order requisite for curing the defect, or enabling or compelling proper parties to carry on the proceedings.

(2.) But any person served with such an order may, within such time, not exceeding fourteen days, as the Court in the order or otherwise directs, apply to the Court to discharge the order.

20. Depositions before Trial.

(1.) At any time after an action is begun, and before the trial, the Court may take the evidence of a witness who is about to leave the district, or who, from illness or old age or any other sufficient cause, is not likely to be able to be present at the trial.

(2.) The evidence of such witness is taken in like manner, as nearly as may be, as evidence is taken at the trial.

(3.) The note of the evidence is signed by the witness at the time, and sealed with the seal of the Court. It is called a deposition.

(4.) A deposition may not, except for special reasons to be recorded in the Minutes, be admitted in evidence at the trial unless it is shown that the party against whom it is offered had an opportunity of cross-examining the deponent.

21. Absence of Parties at Hearing.

(1.) If at the time appointed for the hearing the plaintiff does not appear, the Court may strike out the action, and make such order as to costs in favour of any defendant appearing as the Court thinks just.

(2.) If the plaintiff a second time in like manner fails to appear, the Court shall, unless it sees good reason to the contrary, dismiss the summons, which dismissal shall have the like effect as a Judgment for the defendant on the merits at the hearing.

(3.) If at the time appointed for the hearing the plaintiff appears, but the defendant, or any of the defendants does not appear, the Court, before hearing the action, inquires into the service of the summons on the absent party or parties.

(4.) The Court, if not satisfied respecting service on every party, may order that further service be made as the Court directs, and may adjourn the hearing for that purpose.

(5.) The Court, on being satisfied respecting service on every party, may, if it thinks fit, proceed to hear the action, notwithstanding the absence of the defendant, or of any of the defendants.

(6.) If the Court hears the action, and makes an order against a defendant in his absence, the Court may afterwards, on such terms as the Court thinks fit, re-hear the action, on proof that his absence was excusable, and that he has a defence on the merits.

22. Hearing.

(1.) The hearing takes place in open Court.

(2.) The Court may postpone or adjourn the hearing when and as often as justice requires.

23. Judgment.

(1.) The Judgment of the Court is delivered in open Court, and recorded in the Minutes.

(2.) Where the grounds of the Judgment are stated in writing, the written statement, or a copy signed by the Consular Officer holding the Court, is filed on the file of proceedings.

(3.) Where the Court reserves Judgment, the parties are served with notice to attend and hear Judgment, unless the Court at the hearing states the day on which Judgment will be delivered.

(4.) All parties are deemed to have notice of the Judgment if pronounced at the hearing.

(5.) All parties served with notice to attend and hear Judgment are deemed to have notice of the Judgment when pronounced.

24. Costs.

(1.) In every action the costs of the whole action, and of each particular proceeding therein, and the costs of every proceeding in the Court, are in the discretion of the Court, as regards the person by whom they are to be paid.

(2.) But the Court shall not order the successful party in an action to pay to the unsuccessful party the costs of the whole action; although the Court may order the successful party, notwithstanding his success in the action, to pay the costs of any particular proceeding therein.

(3.) The Court may order any costs to be paid out of any fund or property to which an action or proceeding relates.

(4.) Where the Court orders costs to be paid by any party, the Court may, if it thinks fit, order all proceedings by, or on behalf of that party in the same action or proceeding, or connected therewith, to be stayed until the costs are paid.

(5.) When the Court adjudges or orders any costs to be paid, the amount of such costs is, if practicable, fixed by the Court at the time of making the Judgment or Order and named therein.

(6.) In fixing the amount of costs the principle to be observed is that the party who is in the right is to be indemnified for the expense to which he has been necessarily put in establishing his claim, defence, or counter-claim, but the Court takes into account all the circumstances of the case.

25. Judgments and Orders.

(1.) Upon the application of any party to an action a Judgment or Order shall be drawn up in the Form B 4, or some Form to the like effect. It shall, when drawn up, bear the date of the day when it was given or made, and shall be copied in full in the Minutes.

(2.) When a Judgment or Order is drawn up the Court certifies it by affixing to it the seal of the Court, and the Order so certified is handed to the party applying for it.

(3.) Until a Judgment or Order has been drawn up and certified it cannot be served or enforced, or appealed against.

(4.) Any party to an action is entitled, on paying a reasonable sum for the expense of copying, to an office copy (that is, a copy certified by the seal of the Court) of any Judgment or Order which has been drawn up and entered.

26. Operation of Judgment.

(1.) A Judgment or Order for the payment of money may, as the Court thinks fit, order the money to be paid either at once or by specified instalments, or after the expiration of a specified time.

(2.) A Judgment or Order requiring any person to do any act other than the payment of money, or to abstain from doing anything, may according as the Court directs, take effect at once or after the expiration of a specified time.

(3.) The Court may at any time stay execution of a Judgment or Order upon such terms as it thinks fit.

27. Payment of Money ordered to be paid.

(1.) All money ordered by any Judgment or Order of the Court to be paid by any person must be paid into an office of the Court unless the Court otherwise directs.

(2.) Money so paid in is paid out by the Court to the person entitled thereto.

28. Execution. Generally.

(1.) Execution of a Judgment or Order does not issue against a party who has not been served with the Judgment or Order.

(2.) A Judgment or Order may not, in general, be served, or enforced out of the district of the Court.

(3.) But the Court may, for special reasons to be recorded in the Minutes, direct that any particular Judgment or Order be served or enforced out of that district.

(4.) When the Court is satisfied that a Judgment or Order has been served and not obeyed, the Court, on the application of the person entitled to the benefit of the Judgment or Order, unless it sees good reason to the contrary, issues execution.

(5.) When default is made in paying an instalment under a Judgment or Order ordering the payment of money by instalments, execution may issue for the whole sum then remaining unpaid unless the Court otherwise directs.

29. Execution of Judgments or Orders for the Payment of Money.

(1.) The person entitled to the benefit of a Judgment or Order for the payment of money is called the judgment creditor.

(2.) The person bound by such Judgment or Order is called the judgment debtor.

(3.) Execution of the Judgment or Order for the payment of money is—

- (a.) By seizure and sale of the judgment debtor's goods, or
- (b.) By attachment of debts due to the judgment debtor, or
- (c.) By both the above-mentioned processes, or
- (d.) In certain cases, by sale of the judgment debtor's lands.

30. Seizure and Sale.

(1.) On the application of a judgment creditor the Court issues a warrant of seizure and sale, directing an officer of the Court therein named to levy the money due, together with the costs of the execution, by seizure and sale of the goods of the judgment debtor wheresoever found within the district. (Form B 5.)

(2.) The sum due, and the further sum to be levied for costs of the execution, are indorsed on the warrant.

(3.) The sale of the goods seized shall be made by order of the Court, and shall be conducted under the direction of the Court, and by a person nominated by the Court.

(4.) But no steps shall be taken therein without the demand of the judgment creditor.

(5.) The judgment creditor shall be liable for any damage recoverable in consequence of any proceeding taken at his instance.

(6.) The sale shall not be made until after the end of five days at least next following the day of seizure, unless the goods are of a perishable nature, or on the request, in writing, of the judgment debtor, or under Order of the Court made for reasons recorded in the Minutes.

(7.) Until sale the goods shall be deposited by the officer in some fit place, or they may remain in the custody of a fit person approved by the Court, and put into possession by the officer.

(8.) The Court shall not order the sale of the goods seized unless it is proved that they belong to the judgment debtor, and are in a place where the Court has jurisdiction.

(9.) Where a claim is made by a third party to the goods, or part thereof, the same, if made by a British subject, or British-protected person, shall be decided by the Court in a summary way, as between the claimant and the judgment creditor.

(10.) If the claim is made by a native of Africa or foreigner, the Court may, if it thinks fit, either oblige the judgment creditor to establish his claim before selling the goods, or sell the goods and require the judgment creditor to defend any claim.

(11.) The officer executing a warrant of seizure and sale may, by virtue thereof, seize any money, bank-notes, bills of exchange, promissory notes, bonds, or securities for money belonging to the judgment debtor.

(12.) The Court shall hold the property or instruments seized, other than money and securities immediately convertible into money, as security for the amount directed to be levied, or so much thereof as is not otherwise levied, for the benefit of the judgment creditor.

(13.) The judgment creditor may sue in the name of the judgment debtor, or in the name of any person in whose name the judgment debtor might have sued, for the recovery of the money secured or made payable by any instrument seized, when the time for suing arrives.

(14.) If before or after seizure the judgment debtor, by payment into Court, or to the officer executing the warrant, satisfies the execution, the warrant shall be superseded, and the goods and property and instruments seized shall be released and delivered up.

31. Attachment of Debts.

(1.) Execution by way of attachment of debts is granted when the judgment creditor satisfies the Court that another person (called the garnishee) is indebted to the judgment debtor, and is within the jurisdiction of the Court.

(2.) The Court may summon the garnishee and the judgment debtor to attend and be examined.

(3.) If the garnishee upon such examination disputes his liability to the judgment debtor, or alleges that the debt sought to be attached belongs to some third person, the Court takes such proceedings as it thinks necessary to determine the garnishee's liability, and may, if such third person is within the jurisdiction, summon such third person or any other necessary witness to attend, and may bar or otherwise deal with such third person's claim.

(4.) If the garnishee admits, or the Court after such proceedings as aforesaid is satisfied, that there is a liquidated sum then due from the garnishee to the judgment debtor, the Court may order the garnishee to pay into Court the amount so due, or so much thereof as is sufficient to satisfy the claim of the judgment creditor. (Form B 6.)

(5.) If the garnishee disobeys the order for payment, the Court may issue a warrant of seizure and sale against his goods.

(6.) Payment made by, or execution levied upon, the garnishee, under an order for payment, is a valid discharge to him as against the judgment debtor to the amount paid or levied.

32. Sale of Lands.

(1.) When the judgment debtor is beneficially entitled to any interest in any lands within the district, and the Court is satisfied that there is no other property of the judgment debtor available for execution, the Court may, on the application of the judgment creditor, issue a warrant directing an officer of the Court to sell the interests of the judgment debtor in such lands at such time and in such manner as under the circumstances the Court think just and reasonable. (Form B 7.)

(2.) The proceeds of the sale shall be paid into Court.

(3.) Before issuing such warrant, the Court may inquire, if it thinks fit, into the nature and extent of the judgment debtor's interest, and for the purpose of such inquiry may summon the judgment debtor and other witnesses to attend.

33. Cominittal of Judgment Debtor.

(1.) Where a Judgment or Order for the payment of money remains after service wholly or in part unsatisfied, whether execution has issued or not, the Court may, on the application of the judgment creditor, summon the judgment debtor to attend and be examined as to his ability to pay. (Form B 8.)

(2.) The judgment debtor if he appears, and whether the judgment debtor appears or not, any other witnesses whom the Court thinks fit to summon may then be examined on oath as to the circumstances under which the judgment debtor incurred the debt or liability, and as to his ability then and since and at the time of the examination, to satisfy such debt or liability.

(3.) The Court may, if it thinks fit, adjourn the examination from time to time, and require from the judgment debtor security for his appearance, and in default of his finding security, may, by order, commit him until the adjourned hearing, to the custody of an officer of the Court.

If it appears to the Court, by the examination of the judgment debtor or other evidence—

(1.) That the judgment debtor then has, or, since the making of the Order, has had sufficient means to pay the money directed to be paid by him, and he refuses or neglects to pay the same according to the Order; or

(2.) That, with intent to defraud his creditors, or any of them, he has made or suffered any gift, delivery, or transfer of any property, or charged, removed, or concealed any property; or

(3.) That the debt or liability in question has been contracted or incurred by him, by or by reason of fraud, or false pretence, or breach of trust, committed by him; or

(4.) That forbearance thereof was obtained by him by fraud or false pretence; or

(5.) That the debt or liability was wilfully contracted or incurred by him without his having at the same time a reasonable expectation of being able to pay or discharge it;

Then, and in any such case, the Court may, if it thinks fit, by Order commit him to prison for any time not exceeding forty days, and may issue its warrant accordingly. (Form B 9.)

The Order, and the grounds on which it is made, must be recorded in the Minutes.

35.

On the examination, the Court, if it thinks fit, whether it makes an Order for commitment or not, may rescind or alter any order for the payment of money, by instalments or otherwise, and may make any further or other Order, either for payment of the whole amount forthwith, or by instalments, or in any other manner, as the Court thinks fit.

36.

(1.) The expenses of the judgment debtor's maintenance in prison shall be defrayed, in the first instance, by the judgment creditor, and may be recovered by him from the judgment debtor, as the Court directs.

(2.) The expenses shall be estimated by the Court, and shall be paid by the judgment creditor at such times and in such manner as the Court directs.

(3.) In default of payment, the judgment debtor may be discharged, if the Court thinks fit.

37.

(1.) Imprisonment of a judgment debtor under the foregoing provisions shall not operate as a satisfaction or extinguishment of the debt or liability to which the Order relates, or protect the debtor from being anew imprisoned for any new fraud, or other default making him liable to be imprisoned, or deprive the judgment creditor of any right to have execution against his goods, as if there had not been such imprisonment.

(2.) The judgment debtor, on paying at any time the amount ordered to be paid, and all costs and expenses, shall be discharged.

38. Execution of Judgments or Orders other than those for the Payment of Money.

(1.) A Judgment or Order which orders a person to do any act other than the payment of money, or to abstain from doing anything, is executed by arrest, or by sequestration, or by both processes.

(2.) The copy of such a Judgment or Order served on the person required to obey it is indorsed with a Memorandum in the words or to the effect following:

"If you, the within-named A. B., neglect to obey this Order within the time therein appointed, you will be liable to be arrested, and your property may be sequestered."

39. Arrest.

(1.) Where the person directed to do or abstain from doing the act fails to obey the Order, the person prosecuting the Order may apply to the Court for a warrant for the arrest of the disobedient person.

(2.) Thereupon the Court shall, unless it sees good reason to the contrary, issue a warrant ordering and empowering an officer of the Court therein named to take the body of the disobedient person, and detain him in custody until further order. (Form B 10.)

(3.) He shall be liable to be detained in custody until he has obeyed the Order in all things that are to be immediately performed, and has given such security as the Court thinks fit to obey the Order in other respects (if any), at the future times thereby appointed; or, in case of his no longer having the power to obey the Order, then until he has been imprisoned for such time, not exceeding thirty days, or until he has paid such fine, not exceeding ten pounds, as the Court thinks fit.

40. Sequestration.

(1.) In case the person against whom a warrant of arrest issues is not and cannot be found, or is taken and detained in custody without obeying the Order, then the person prosecuting the Order may apply to the Court for a warrant of sequestration against his property.

(2.) The warrant of sequestration empowers and directs the person or persons therein named, called the sequestrators, to enter upon and seize all the real and personal estate within the district of the person against whom the Order issues, and to keep the same and the rents and profits thereof until such last-named person shall appear before the Court and clear his contempt, or until the Court shall otherwise order. (Form B 11.)

(3.) The Court may order, out of the proceeds of the sequestration, payment of all charges attending its execution, including such reasonable remuneration to the sequestrators as the Court may allow.

41. Injunctions and Orders before Action.

(1.) On proof of urgency or other peculiar circumstances, the Court may, if it thinks fit, before service of a summons and without notice, make an Order of injunction, or an Order to sequester money or goods, or to stop the clearances of a vessel, or to hold to bail, or to attach property.

(2.) Before making the Order the Court shall require the person applying for it to enter into a recognisance, with or without a surety or sureties, as the Court thinks fit, as security for his being answerable in damages to the person against whom the Order is sought.

(3.) The Order shall not remain in force more than twenty-four hours, and shall, at the end of that time, wholly cease to be in force, unless within that time an action is regularly brought by the person obtaining the Order.

(4.) The Order shall be dealt with in the action as the Court thinks just.

APPEALS.

42. Time of Appeal.

(1.) In the case of a Judgment or Order which cannot be appealed from without leave, leave to appeal may not be applied for after one month from the delivery of the decision of the Court.

(2.) In other cases notice of appeal must be given within two months from the date of the decision.

43. Notice of Appeal.

(1.) The appellant transmits to the Court a written notice of appeal stating concisely the extent and the grounds of his appeal.

(2.) He must, within seven days after transmitting such notice, give such security as the Court directs, that he will prosecute the appeal and pay the costs if unsuccessful.

(3.) He must, within the same time, pay into Court the sum estimated by the Court as the cost of making up and transmitting the record to the Court of Appeal.

44. Service.

When the appellant has complied with the conditions of Rule 46, the Court serves the notice of appeal on the respondent, who shall, within fourteen days from the service thereof, give notice of cross appeal, if any.

45. Making up and transmitting Record.

(1.) The Court then makes up the record of appeal, which includes certified copies of the summons, of any Orders made in the action, of all written and documentary evidence admitted or tendered, of the notes of the oral evidence, and of the notice of appeal.

(2.) The several pieces are fastened together and numbered consecutively, and the whole is secured by the seal of the Court, and forwarded by the Court to the Court of Appeal.

(3.) No original document shall, except under special circumstances, be transmitted as part of the record.

(4.) After the record of appeal is transmitted until the appeal is disposed of, the Court of Appeal is in possession of the whole action as between the parties to the appeal.

(5.) The Order made on the appeal by the Court of Appeal is, when duly certified and transmitted to the Court below, enforced by the latter Court in the same manner as one of its own Orders.

46. Stay of Execution on Appeal.

(1.) When leave to appeal or a notice of appeal is given before the Judgment or Order appealed against has been obeyed or enforced, the Court, may, as it thinks fit, either direct immediate execution, or suspend execution pending the appeal.

(2.) If the Court directs immediate execution, it may require the person entitled to execution to give security before execution for the performance of the Order to be made on appeal.

(3.) If the Court suspends execution it may require the appellant to give security before the Order for suspension issues to the amount of the Judgment or Order appealed against.

47. Time.

(1.) Where any particular number of days is prescribed for doing anything by these Rules, or by any Judgment Order or Rule of the Court, the same shall be reckoned exclusively of the first day and inclusively of the last, unless clear days are mentioned.

(2.) Where the days prescribed are less than six days, Sundays are not to be reckoned in the computation.

(3.) Where the time prescribed for doing anything by these Rules, or by any Judgment Order or Rule of the Court expires on Sunday, the act or proceeding will be done or taken in due time if done or taken on the next day.

48. General Powers of the Court.

(1.) Every application in the course of an action may be made to the Court orally and without previous formality, unless in any case the Court otherwise directs.

(2.) The Court may, as often as it thinks fit, and either before or after the expiration of the time appointed by these Rules, or by any Judgment Order or Rule of the Court, extend or adjourn the time for doing any act or taking any proceeding.

(3.) No action or proceeding shall be treated by the Court as invalid on account of any technical or formal error.

(4.) All errors and mistakes may be corrected, and all amendments made, and non-compliance with any of the rules of practice excused, by the Court upon such terms as to costs or otherwise as it thinks just and reasonable.

PART C.—CRIMINAL.

49. Application of Part C.

The provisions in Part C apply to criminal proceedings only.

50. Charge.

(1.) Criminal proceedings are begun by a charge.

(2.) The charge is made before the Consul by the person preferring it (called the prosecutor).

(3.) The Consul makes at the time a Minute in writing of the charge, stating the name of the prosecutor, the name of the person against whom the charge is made (called the accused), and the substance of the offence. (Form C 1).

51. Process to Compel Appearance.

If the accused is not already in custody, his appearance is compelled by summons or by warrant according to the circumstances of the case.

52. Summons.

(1.) For the issuing of a summons, it is not necessary that the charge be sworn to unless in any case the Consul so requires.

(2.) A summons to compel appearance is a document under the seal of the Court in the Form C 2, or some form to the like effect. It states the substance of the charge, and names a time and place at which the accused is commanded to appear.

(3.) The summons is served by an officer of the Court.

53. Warrant of Arrest.

(1.) A warrant to arrest the accused is not issued in the first instance unless the charge is sworn to by the prosecutor or some other person.

(2.) If the charge is sworn to, and the procedure by way of summons appears to the Consul to be ineffective, a warrant may issue in the first instance instead of a summons.

(3.) If the accused having been in the first instance summoned fails to obey the summons, the Consul may on proof of service of the summons issue a warrant.

(4.) A warrant of arrest is a document under the Seal of the Court in the Form C 3, or some Form to the like effect, addressed to the officer of the Court. It states the name of the accused and the substance of the charge, and requires the person executing it to arrest the accused and bring him before the Court. It need not be made returnable at any particular time, and remains in force until executed.

54. Form of Charge.

The description of an offence in the words of any Act of Parliament under which the offence arises, or if the offence charged is one against the Africa Order then in the words of that Order, or in either case in similar words, is sufficient.

55. Bringing Persons arrested before the Court.

(1.) Where a person is arrested on a charge under a warrant he must, if practicable, be brought before the Court within forty-eight hours from the time of his arrest.

(2.) If in any case more than forty-eight hours elapse between the arrest of the accused and his being brought before the Consul, the fact, and the reason for the delay, must be recorded in the Minutes.

56. Bail.

(1.) The mode of giving bail is by recognizance binding the accused to appear as and when required. (Forms C 13, C 14.)

(2.) The recognizance is entered into by the accused with or without sureties, as the Consul thinks fit.

(3.) On the completion of the recognizance the accused is discharged from custody.

(4.) If a person out on bail fails to appear when required, the Court, in addition to forfeiting his recognizance, may, if it thinks fit, issue a warrant for his arrest. (Form C 3.)

57. Preliminary Examination.

The object of a preliminary examination is to inquire whether there is reasonable ground for putting the accused upon his trial, and whether the attendance of the necessary witnesses at the place of trial can be secured, and to determine whether the accused ought to be removed for trial or tried in the district.

58. Procedure at Preliminary Examination.

(1.) The preliminary examination is conducted by the Consul in the presence of the accused.

(2.) At the preliminary examination the Consul takes down in writing the evidence of the witnesses for the prosecution and of the witnesses (if any) tendered for examination by the accused, and enters it in the Minutes. The evidence of a witness when so taken down is called a deposition. (Form C 5.)

(3.) The deposition of each witness is read over to the witness as soon as his evidence is finished, and signed by him at the time.

59. Discharge of the Accused.

If the Consul, after hearing the evidence, is of opinion that there is no reasonable ground for putting the accused on his trial, the accused, if in custody, is discharged.

60. Order for Trial.

If the Consul considers the evidence sufficient to put the accused on his trial, he either makes an Order for the removal of the accused for trial to one of the places named in Article 60 of the Africa Order in Council, 1889, or makes an Order for the trial of the accused before the proper Court. In either case the Order made, which is recorded in the Minutes (Forms C 6, C 7), states the charge as it appears to the Consul to be sustainable on the evidence.

61. Order for Removal of Trial.

If an Order is made for the removal of the accused for trial, the following provisions apply:—

(1.) The Consul forthwith issues a warrant of removal.

(2.) A warrant of removal for trial is a document in the Form C 16, or some similar form, sealed with the seal of the Court, and addressed to an officer of the Court. It is issued in duplicate, and both copies are delivered to the person executing it.

(3.) Pending the execution of the warrant the Consul either admits the accused to bail, or orders him to be kept in custody. In the latter case the warrant of removal is indorsed in the Form C 16, or in some similar Form.

(4.) The Consul transmits copies, certified under his hand and under the seal of the Court, of the depositions and of the Order for removal for trial to the Court before which the accused person is ordered to be tried.

62. Order for Trial before the Court.

If an Order is made for the trial of the accused before the Court of the district, the following provisions apply:—

(1.) The Consul makes a special note in the Minutes of his reasons for not removing the trial.

(2.) The Consul may bind by recognizance the prosecutor and the witnesses for the prosecution and for the defence to appear at the trial and prosecute or give evidence. (Forms C 13, C 14.)

(3.) If the prosecutor or any of the witnesses, being a British subject or under British protection, refuses to enter into such recognizance, the Court may order him to be kept in custody until the trial, unless in the meantime he enters into such recognizance. In such case the Consul issues a warrant of commitment in Form C 15, or some similar form.

(4.) Until the trial, the Consul either admits the accused to bail or orders him to be kept in custody. In the latter case, the Consul issues a warrant of commitment in the Form C 4, or some Form to the like effect.

(5.) The accused person ordered for trial is entitled to a copy of the charge, and on payment of a sum not exceeding 6d. per one hundred words, or, if the Consul thinks fit, without payment, to a copy of the depositions. The Consul, when ordering the accused for trial, informs him of this provision.

(6.) The date of the trial is named in the Order for trial, and the prisoner is informed of such date at the time when the Order is made. Except for special reasons to be recorded in the Minutes, the date named for trial must be not later than fourteen days after the close of the preliminary examination.

63. Place of Preliminary Examination.

The public have no right of access to the place in which a preliminary examination is held.

65. Notice to Prosecutor of Trial.

Notice is given by the Court to the prosecutor of the time and place appointed for the trial. (Form C 8.)

66. Absence of Parties.

(1.) If at the appointed time and place the prosecutor is not present the Court dismisses the charge, unless for some reason, to be recorded in the Minutes, it sees fit to adjourn the trial. (Form C 10.)

(2.) Except in the case provided for by Rule 73 (5), no charge can be heard in the absence of the accused.

67. Hearing.

If at the time and place appointed for the trial, or adjourned trial, both the prosecutor and the accused are present, the Court and (if the case is tried with assessors) the assessors proceed to hear and dispose of the charge.

(1.) The substance of the charge is stated to the accused, and he is asked if he admits or denies the truth.

(2.) If he admits the truth of the charge the Court may convict him.

(3.) If he denies the truth of the charge the Court proceeds to hear the evidence.

(4.) If he asserts that he has been previously convicted or acquitted of the same charge, the Court inquires into and ascertains the truth of his answer before proceeding to hear the evidence.

(5.) If he appears to be of unsound mind the Court may from time to time make such order for his safe keeping as the Court thinks fit.

68.

After hearing the evidence, the Court considers the whole matter, and either convicts the accused or dismisses the charge.

69. Conviction and Sentence.

In cases of conviction the Court enters on the Minutes the conviction and the sentence (if any), together with any Order which the Court may make ordering the person convicted to give security for future good behaviour, or to be deported, or to pay damages or costs. (Form C 9.)

70. Dismissal.

(1.) When a charge is dismissed an Order of dismissal is entered on the Minutes, together with any Order requiring the prosecutor to pay costs which the Court may make. (Forms C 10, C 11.)

(2.) A certificate of dismissal, sealed with the seal of the Court, is, on the application of the accused, furnished to him by the Court. (Form C 12.)

(3.) Such certificate is conclusive evidence of the dismissal of the charge, and a bar to any subsequent charge in Africa against the accused in respect of the same matter.

71. Place of Trial.

The place of trial is an open Court, and the public have a right of access thereto.

GENERAL PROVISIONS.

72. Accused and Husband or Wife competent Witnesses.

(1.) In all criminal proceedings, including preliminary examinations, the accused and the husband or wife of the accused are competent, but not compellable, to give evidence.

(2.) When the accused, or the husband or wife of the accused, offer themselves as witnesses, they take the oath or declaration required of witnesses, and are examined and subject to be cross-examined in the same way as ordinary witnesses.

73. Adjournment, &c.

(1.) Where a preliminary examination or trial cannot conveniently be finished in a single day it is resumed, if possible, on the next day, and so on from day to day (except Sundays) until it is brought to an end.

(2.) But the Court may, in the presence and hearing of the parties, and for reasons to be recorded in the Minutes, postpone or adjourn a preliminary examination or trial when and so often as justice requires, but if the accused is kept in custody no postponement or adjournment shall be for more than fourteen days.

(3.) Such postponement or adjournment must be to a stated time and place, and in the interval the Court may, in its discretion, either suffer the accused to go at large, or order him to be kept in custody, or admit him to bail.

(4.) If the accused is ordered to be kept in custody the Consul issues a warrant of commitment in the Form C 4, or some Form to the like effect.

(5.) If at the time and place to which a preliminary examination or trial has been postponed or adjourned the accused does not appear, the Court may, if it thinks fit, for reasons to be recorded in the Minutes, proceed as if the accused were present.

74. Security to be of Good Behaviour.

When the Court requires a person to give security to keep the peace, or to be of good behaviour, a recognizance in the Form C 13, or some similar Form, may be used.

EXECUTION.

75. Imprisonment.

(1.) Where on a conviction the offender is sentenced to be imprisoned, the Court issues a warrant of imprisonment (Form C 19), or a warrant of removal for imprisonment. (Form C 17.)

(2.) When a warrant of removal for imprisonment is issued, the Court enters on the Minutes the grounds for issuing such warrant. The Court in such case transmits to the proper gaoler, constable, magistrate, or officer, in the place selected for the execution of the sentence, a certified copy of the conviction and sentence, and a written notice that a warrant of removal for imprisonment has been issued.

76. Deportation.

When a person makes default in giving security to keep the peace or be of good behaviour as required by the Court, the Court may issue a warrant of deportation. (Form C 18.)

77. Payment of Money.

(1.) Where the Court orders money to be paid by an accused person or by a prosecutor, by way of fine or damages, or for costs, the Order may be enforced by seizure and sale, in the same manner as a Judgment in an action for payment of money.

(2.) If after execution by seizure and sale the Order remains wholly or in part unsatisfied, the Court may issue a warrant of commitment (Form C 20), committing the person who has disobeyed the Order to prison, without hard labour, for a term not exceeding one month for every 20*l.* or part thereof then unpaid, unless the money and all expenses of the commitment and conveyance to prison, the several amounts of which are specified in the warrant, are sooner paid.

(3.) Upon payment or tender by the prisoner, or some person on his behalf, of the amounts specified in the warrant, the prisoner is entitled to be discharged if he is in custody for no other matter.

78. Sale of Goods forfeited.

(1.) When any goods smuggled or imported in contravention of Article 50 of the Africa Order in Council, 1889, or any ship, boat, cask, or case, or receptacle containing such goods, are, on conviction of the offender, declared forfeited to Her Majesty, the Consul may issue a warrant of sale. (Form C 21.)

(2.) The warrant is addressed to an officer of the Court, and authorizes and directs him to sell by public auction the goods therein named.

(3.) The officer pays the proceeds of the sale into Court, and the Court may deduct therefrom a reasonable sum for the expenses of the sale.

79. Search Warrant.

(1.) If it is made to appear to the Consul by the oath or declaration of a credible witness that there is reasonable cause to suspect that any British subject or person under British protection has on his premises any property or thing, on or by or with respect to which any crime or offence cognizable by the Consul has been committed, the Consul may issue a search warrant.

(2.) The information of the applicant for a search warrant is taken down in writing and signed by him. It must describe the goods, the premises on which they are suspected to be, and the grounds for the suspicion.

(3.) The search warrant is directed to an officer therein named, and he alone has authority to execute it, but in executing it he may be assisted by other persons.

(4.) The search warrant authorizes and directs the officer to search the premises therein named, and those only, for the goods therein named, and those only, and to seize and bring before the Consul any of the said goods which he there finds. The goods and premises named in the warrant are those described in the information of the applicant. (Form C 23.)

(5.) The search warrant may also authorize and direct the officer to arrest the occupier of the premises if any of the goods are there found.

(6.) If the premises are closed, and the officer, after demanding admission and showing his authority, is refused entrance, he may break open the doors.

(7.) A search warrant may not be executed in the night-time.

(8.) If it appears to the Consul that a search warrant has been applied for maliciously and without reasonable and probable cause, he may, in addition to any punishment to which the applicant may be liable for giving false evidence, order him to pay damages to the occupier of the premises searched.

80. Time and Place of Execution.
