

said Act, and now remaining in Court as security for the completion of the said railway and works, together with all interest or dividends which may have accrued on such moneys or stock.

The Bill will contain all provisions incidental or necessary to the purposes aforesaid, and it will vary or extinguish all rights and privileges which would interfere with the objects thereof, and confer other rights and privileges.

The Bill will provide for the winding up of the affairs and the dissolution of the Company and the discharge of their debts and liabilities, and it will repeal or alter all or some of the provisions of the Holsworthy and Bude Railway Acts, 1883 and 1888, and of any other Act relating to the said Company.

Printed copies of the Bill will, on or before the 21st day of December next, be deposited in the Private Bill Office of the House of Commons.

Dated this 12th day of November, 1889.

NOTICE is hereby given, that a separate building, named the Zion Primitive Methodist Chapel, situate at Speedwell, in the parish of Staveley, in the county of Derby, in the district of Chesterfield, being a building certified according to law as a place of religious worship, was, on the 28th day of October, 1889, duly registered for solemnizing marriages therein, pursuant to the Act of 6th and 7th Wm. 4, cap. 85.—Witness my hand this 29th day of October, 1889.

GEORGE SHAW, Superintendent Registrar.

London County Council.

AT a Meeting of the Council of the Administrative County of London, held in the Council Chamber, at the Guildhall, in the City of London, this 19th day of November, 1889, amongst the Orders is as follows:—

Metropolis Management Act, 1855; Metropolis Management Amendment Acts, 1862 and 1885; and the Local Government Act, 1888.
—Division of the Parish of Plumstead into Wards.

WHEREAS by the Metropolis Management Amendment Act, 1862, Section 41, it is enacted: that "When at any time upon any account taken of the population by the authority of Parliament any of the parishes within the Metropolis not now divided into wards for the purpose of electing vestrymen shall be found to contain more than two thousand rated householders, it shall be lawful for the Metropolitan Board of Works, upon the application in writing of the vestry or of not less than five hundred rated householders of the parish, to divide such parish into wards, and to determine and set out the number, extent, limits, and boundary lines of such wards, but so nevertheless that no ward shall contain less than five hundred rated householders, and that the whole number of wards shall not exceed eight, and the Metropolitan Board shall apportion among the several wards the number of vestrymen to be elected for such parish, and shall, in assigning the number of vestrymen to each ward, have regard as far as in their judgment is practicable, as well to the number of persons rated to the relief of the poor in each ward, as to the aggregate amount of the sums at which all such persons are rated, and the number of vestrymen assigned to each ward shall be a number divisible by three."

And whereas the parish of Plumstead is within the limits of the Metropolis as defined by the Metropolis Management Act, 1855, and is one of the parishes in Part I of Schedule B of that Act, and was not at the passing of the Metropolis Management Amendment Act, 1862, divided into wards: And whereas the powers, duties, and liabilities of the Metropolitan Board of Works were transferred to the London County Council by the Local Government Act, 1888.

And whereas the Vestry of the said parish of Plumstead have applied to us, the London County Council, to divide the said parish into wards, pursuant to the provisions of the said 41st section of the Metropolis Management Amendment Act, 1862.

And whereas it appears from the last account taken of the population by the authority of Parliament, as contained in the census return for the year 1881, that the said parish contained five thousand one hundred and sixty-four rated householders.

And whereas it appears from the rate books of the said parish, prepared in the month of April, 1883, that the number of rated householders is seven thousand eight hundred and fifty-nine, and that the rateable annual value of property in the said parish is one hundred and twenty-nine thousand seven hundred and two pounds.

Now the London County Council having considered the said application, and having ascertained from the said last account taken of the population by the authority of Parliament as contained in the census return for the year 1881, that the number of rated householders for the parish of Plumstead was then five thousand one hundred and sixty-four, and having taken into consideration the
