Lynton Railway.

(Extension of Time; Abandonment and Release of Deposit; Power to Employ Electricity in Working Line; Consolidating Existing and Raising Additional Capital; Payment of Interest Out of Capital; Other Powers; Amendment or Repeal of Acts.)

NOTICE is hereby given, that application is intended to be made to Parliament in the ensuing session by the Lynton Railway Company (hereinafter called "the Company") for leave to bring in a Bill for all or some of the following, among other purposes, that is to say:—

1. To extend the periods limited by the Lynton Railway Act, 1885, and the Lynton Railway Act, 1886, respectively; for the completion of the railways by those Acts respectively authorized.

2. To authorize the Company to abandon and relinquish the construction of the works authorized by and described in section 5 of the Lynton Railway Act, 1887, or any or either of them, or any part or parts thereof, and to provide for the payment and transfer of the whole or any part of the railway deposit fund mentioned in section 22 of the said Act of 1887 as having been deposited in respect of the application to Parliament for that Act.

3. To authorize the Company to employ as the motive power in working their railway electricity, or any like agency, either in addition to, or in substitution for, steam power.

4. To rearrange and consolidate the share and loan capitals of the Company, and to alter and amend the provisions of the said Acts with reference to the application of the moneys thereby respectively authorized to be raised, and to authorize the Company to raise further moneys for the general purposes of their undertaking by the creation of new, ordinary, or preference shares or stock, and by borrowing and by the creation and issue of debenture stock, or by any of those means.

5. To enable the Company out of the moneys to be raised by them under the powers of the Bill to pay interest on any shares or stock of the Company.

6. To alter, amend, extend, enlarge, or repeal, all or some of the provisions of the said Acts or any or either of them.

7. To confer on the Company all rights, powers, privileges, and authorities necessary or convenient for carrying into complete and full effect the objects and purposes of the Bill, to vary and extinguish all rights and privileges which would in any manner impede or interfere with any of those objects and purposes, and to confer other rights and privileges.

And notice is hereby further given, that on or before the 21st day of December next printed copies of the Bill will be deposited in the Private Bill Office of the House of Commons.

Dated this 14th day of November, 1889.

St. Anne and St. Mary, Manchester

(Union of Benefices).

(Union of Benefices of St. Anne and St. Mary; Sale of Site of St. Mary's Church, and extinguishment of Benefice; Appointment of Trustees; Powers to Bishop of Diocese, Ecclesiastical Commissioners, and others; Provisions as to Endowments, Charities, and Stipends, and other consequential matters; Amendment of Acts.)

NOTICE is hereby given, that application is intended to be made to Parliament in the ensuing session, for an Act for some or all of the following purposes (that is to say):—

To make provision for the union of the ecclesiastical parishes, districts, or benefices of St. Anne and St. Mary, in the parish of Manchester, into one parish, district, or benefice, for all spiritual and ecclesiastical purposes (hereinafter referred to as "the united parish"), and for attaching to the united parish some or all of the powers, provisions, rights and appendages now annexed or appurtenant to either of the said existing parishes as ecclesiastical parishes, and to confer all such further powers, and make all such further provisions incidental to such union, or which may be found necessary or expedient in connection therewith.

To extinguish the separate benefice of St. Mary, and to provide that after the union, St. Anne's Church shall be the parish church of the united parish, and to make provision for the application of the endowment, if any, of and of the charities, if any, attached to the said church, and of the fees, emoluments, stipends, and salaries payable to the incumbent and the officers thereof.

To provide that the present incumbent of St. Mary's Church shall continue to be the incumbent of the united parish, or to make such other provision for the appointment from time to time of an incumbent of the united parish, and with respect to the patronage of the united parish, as may be prescribed by the intended Act.

To authorise and provide for the sale of the site of St. Mary's Church, and of any hereditaments appurtenant thereto or connected therewith, or some part or parts thereof respectively, and either with or without the buildings thereon, and all or any part of the materials, fittings, ornaments, and furniture of the said church and premises, either together or in lots, and either by public auction or private contract, and either freed and discharged from all ecclesiastical uses or purposes or otherwise, and subject to such consents, conditions, reservations, or exceptions, if any, and with such rights of access and other rights or privileges as may be prescribed or provided for by the intended Act, and if thought fit to provide that the said site and premises, or any part thereof, may be used for or appropriated to any secular purposes whatsoever.
