"La demanda para la extradición de un acusado debe ir acompañada de la orden de arresto expedida pour la autoridad competente del Estado que exija la extradición, y de aquellas pruebas que, conforme á las leyes del lugar donde se encuentre el acusado, hubieran de justificar su aprehensión si el delito hubiese sido cometido allí.

"La sentencia dictada in contumaciam no se considerará como fallo condenatorio; pero la persona sentenciada de esta manera pueda tratarse como cualquier individuo acusado.

"Un criminal fugitivo puede ser aprehendido por orden expedida por cualquier magistrado de policia, juez de paz, ú otra autoridad competente en ambos paises, por informes ó quejas, y por pruebas, ó después de procedimientos que, en opinión de la autoridad que dió la orden, justificarian la expedición de ésta, si el delito hubiese sido cometido ó el criminal condenado en aquella parte del territorio de los dos paises contratantes en la cual el magistrado, el juez, ú otra autoridad competente ejerzan jurisdicción; con tal, sin embargo, que en ese caso, en el Reino Unido el acusado sea enviado con la brevedad posible á un magistrado de policia en Londres. De acuerdo con este Artículo, el acusado será puesto en libertad, tanto en Colombia como en el Reino Unido, si en el término de treinta dias no se solicitare su extradición por el Agente Diplomático de su pais conforme á las estipulaciones de este Tratado.

"La misma regla se aplicará en los casos de personas acusadas ó cónvictas de los delitos especificados en este Tratado, y cometidos en alta mar, á bordo de algún buque de cualquiera de los dos Estados que llegue á un puerto del otro.

"ARTICULO XI.

"La extradición solo tendrá lugar si las pruebas fueren suficientes conforme á las leyes del Estado de quien se solicita, bien sea para justificar el sometimiento del procesado á juicio, caso que el delito haya sido cometido en el territorio del mismo Estado, ó bien para probar que el reo es la misma persona sentenciada por los Tribunales del Estado que hace la demanda, y que el delito de que ha sido convicta es de aquellos respecto de los cuales podria haber sido concedida la extradición al tiempo de la sen-by the State applied to; and no criminal shall be surrendered until after the expiration of fifteen days from the date of his committal to prison to await the warrant for his surrender.

"ARTICLE XII.

"In the examinations which they have to make in accordance with the foregoing stipulations, the authorities of the State applied to shall admit as valid evidence the sworn depositions or statements of witnesses taken in the other State, or copies thereof, and likewise the warrants and sentences issued therein, and certificates of, or judicial documents stating, the fact of a conviction, provided the same are authenticated as follows:—

"1. A warrant must purport to be signed by a Judge, Magistrate, or officer of the other State.

In every case, such warrant, deposition, affirmation, copy, certificate, or judicial document must be authenticated either by the oath of some witness, or by being sealed with the official seal of the Minister of Justice, or some other Minister of the other State; but any other mode of authentication for the time being permitted by law where the examination is taken may be substituted for the foregoing.

"ARTICLE XIII.

"If the individual claimed by one of the two High Contracting Parties in pursuance of the present Treaty should be also claimed by one or several other Powers, on account of other crimes or offences committed upon their respective territories, his extradition shall be granted to that State whose demand is earliest in date.

"ARTICLE XIV.

"If sufficient evidence for the extradition be not produced within two months from the date of the apprehension of the fugitive, or within such further time as the State applied to, or the proper Tribunal thereof, shall direct, the fugitive shall be set at liberty.

"ARTICLE XV.

"All articles seized which were in the possession of the person to be surrendered at the time of his apprehension shall, if the competent authority of the State applied to for the extradition has ordered the delivery of such articles, be given up when the extradition takes place; and the said delivery shall extend not merely to the stolen articles, but to everything that may serve as a proof of the crime.

"ARTICLE XVI.

"All expenses connected with extradition shall be borne by the demanding State.

"ARTICLE XVII.

"4. En cada caso, la orden, declaración atestación, copia, certificado, ó documento judicial, debe ser autenticado, ora por el juramento de algún testigo, ora por el sello oficial del Ministro de Justicia ó de algún otro Ministro del otro Estado; pero cualquiera otro modo de autenticación permitido por las leyes vigentes al tiempo de la investigación puede sustituirse por el anterior.

"ARTICULO XIII.

"Si el individuo reclamado por una de las dos Altas Partes Contratantes conforme al presente Tratado fuere asimismo reclamado por otro ó otros Gobiernos, con motivo de otros delitos cometidos en sus respectivos territorios, la extradición se concederá al que primero haya hecho la demanda.

Pilot Superintendent.

2. The duties of the Pilot Superintendent shall be as follows :—

- (a.) To exercise supervision and control under the Commissioners over all the Pilots so as to see that the Acts and these Bye-laws are duly observed.
- (b.) To obtain from the Pilots a report of all occurrences affecting the services on which the Commissioners or the Superintendent may require information.
- (c.) To hear and determine any differences which may arise between the Pilots.
- (d.) To prevent the employment of unlicensed Pilots.
- (e.) To enquire into complaints made against the Pilots by Masters and Owners of vessels and others interested, and into the circumstances attending cases of grounding, collision, or loss, when vessels have been under the charge of a Pilot.
- (f.) To take soundings of the bar and channels once a year or oftener if required (accompanied on each occasion by the Pilots) and especially to draw the earliest attention of the Commissioners to any alterations in the state of the bar or the deep water channels.
- (g.) To keep a register of all ships arriving at and leaving the port with entries of the Pilots' earnings, and also a journal in which shall be entered all accidents to vessels (however occurring) while in charge of a Pilot.

Limits of Pilotage District.

3. The limits of the Pilotage District of the Port of Boston shall extend to and comprise so

Pilots.

4. Pilots are to bear in mind that since the completion of the dock their duties have become much more serious and responsible than they have hitherto been. It is impossible to lay down a set of regulations to guide Pilots in all cases and they must be largely influenced by their own discretion and caution but the Commissioners will expect the following instructions to be strictly observed, viz. :—

- (a.) No Pilot is to undertake to pilot a ship where, in his opinion, there is any risk of her grounding in the channel.
  - (b.) It is no excuse to a Pilot that the Master or other person in charge of a vessel desires that an attempt shall be made to take her up or down the river when it is doubtful whether there will be enough water, or agrees to take the risk upon himself. In all doubtful cases, a Pilot is to absolutely refuse to pilot a vessel, and if the Captain or other person unduly presses him to do so or makes the attempt himself without the Pilot's consent, the Pilot is to leave the ship.
  - (c.) Before commencing the navigation of a vessel all Pilots are to ascertain that she is in a proper navigable condition, and, if a steam vessel, is provided with sufficient steam power in case an increase of speed should be necessary during her progress, and also to make themselves personally acquainted with her draught of water fore and aft.
  - (d.) A Pilot before undertaking the navigation of a Vessel of over three hundred and fifty tons register shall recommend the Captain to secure the assistance of a Tidesman, a second Pilot to have the preference should one be at liberty.
  - (e.) The Pilots are in all cases to strictly obey the orders and instructions of their superintendent.
5. Every Candidate for the office of Pilot shall have been employed ten years at sea, five of which he must have served in the capacity of able seaman, and be accustomed to the navigation of Steam as well as Sailing Vessels. He shall have attained the age of twenty-five years and must not exceed thirty-five years. He will be required to pass such examination as the Commissioners may prescribe and if approved will be granted a licence which will have to be renewed annually on the first Monday in February. On receiving his licence he will for the first twelve months be allowed by the Superintendent to pilot Vessels not exceeding fifteen feet draught of water into and out of the Port, and if during that period his conduct shall have been in all respects satisfactory he will be permitted to pilot Vessels of every description.

6. A fee of two pounds and two shillings shall be paid by each Pilot upon receiving his Licence and one pound and one shilling upon each renewal thereof. The fees to be paid by Masters and Mates of Vessels for Certificates granted under section 340 of the "Merchant Shipping Act 1854" shall be two pounds and two shillings for each Certificate, and one pound and one shilling for every renewal thereof. The fees received for licences and certificates and the renewals of the same shall be paid to the Pilots' Superannuation Fund. A Certificate held by a Master or Mate of a vessel shall not be renewed unless application in writing for its renewal is made to the Commissioners seven days at least before it expires. The renewal shall be by endorsement under the hand of the Clerk to the Commissioners.

7. Every Pilot shall in all cases demean himself civilly and respectfully towards all persons who may require his services and shall maintain strict temperance and sobriety in the exercise of his office. He shall also use his utmost care and diligence to conduct the ships and vessels under his charge without damage or doing injury to others, and shall not leave his ship until she is safely moored in the river, or in the dock, or at her discharging or loading berth, and shall within twenty-four hours after his leaving the ship report to the Pilot Superintendent all accidents, if any, which may have happened to such vessel while under his direction. He shall always have with him when on duty a copy of these bye-laws and his licence and on taking charge of a vessel he shall, if required, produce the same to the officer in command. In the case of vessels outward bound from the river or dock he shall be on board at least two hours before high water to ascertain if the vessel of which he is about to take charge is ready for sea and to superintend the unmooring of the vessel from the commencement thereof.

8. In case any Pilot in charge of a vessel shall by the law of quarantine, or at the request of the Master or Owner of the vessel, be detained on board thereof, from any cause whatever, beyond the time necessary for safely berthing such vessel, or outward bound longer than twenty-four hours, he shall be paid by the Master or Owner for such detention, over and above his pilotage at the rate of ten shillings per day, and also have his provisions supplied to him.

9. One half of the number of Pilots shall always be at the upper station and the other half at the lower station, or as required by the Superintendent.

10. The signal for a Pilot shall be the usual one, namely, by day a Jack at the fore-top mast-head and by night a lantern.

11. The Pilots on duty at the upper station taking vessels from the town shall continue their charge to Boston Toft or High Horn.

12. The Pilots on duty at the lower station shall make for all vessels coming in from sea at High Horn or Boston Toft, and take charge of them (unless impracticable), at either of those limits, and shall bring the vessels up to the town if the same can be accomplished in one tide, and the Masters require it.

13. Pilots in charge of outward bound ships or vessels shall on no account whatever except by permission of the Masters of such ships or vessels (unless such Master decide to anchor in Clayhole when such permission shall not be requisite) leave or quit them, by allowing themselves to be put ashore or on board a Pilot's boat, before their arrival at the proper outward compulsory Pilotage limits of the port, namely, High Horn or Boston Toft. On proof to the satisfaction of the Commissioners of any infringement of this Bye-law or in the event of any of the lower station Pilots failing at any time, when practicable, to board inward bound ships or vessels at High Horn or Boston Toft aforesaid, every such Pilot shall for each offence forfeit the sum of one pound to the Commissioners, to be deducted from the share of the earnings of the Pilot so offending.

14. In no case whatever shall the lower station be left without a Pilot being on board the Pilot sloop to attend to all ships and vessels coming in from sea; and the Superintendent is empowered to send down to the lower station any of the upper station Pilots in all cases when any of the lower station Pilots are incapable of discharging their duties or the number of vessels exceed the number of Pilots on the station.

15. No Pilot shall leave his station or be absent from duty under any pretence whatever without the leave of the Superintendent.

16. Each Pilot shall make a return every fourteen days to the Superintendent of all ships and vessels piloted by him with the amount of pilotage in each case.

17. When any Pilot shall by accident or otherwise lay any ship or vessel aground which he shall have in charge, such Pilot shall not of his own accord under any pretence whatever leave the ship until she shall be afloat and in safety.

18. INSTRUMENT assigning a Particular District to the Church of Saint Mark, Noel Park, situate within the limits of the new parish of Saint Michael, Wood Green, in the county of Middlesex, and Diocese of London.

To all to whom these presents shall come the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England and the Right Reverend Frederick, Bishop of the said Diocese of London, send greeting:

WHEREAS a church has lately been built within the limits of the new parish of Saint Michael, Wood Green, in the county of Middlesex, and diocese of London aforesaid, by and at the expense of certain well-disposed persons, who have, with the approbation of us, the said Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, and of the said Frederick, Bishop of the said diocese of London, secured to the said new church an endowment and a repair fund, in accordance with the provisions of the several Acts of Parliament called "The Church Building Acts," or of some of them, and particularly of the Act of the fourteenth and fifteenth years of Her present Majesty, chapter ninety-seven.

And whereas under the powers or authorities contained in the said Acts, or of some of them, and in the Act of the nineteenth and twentieth years of Her said Majesty, chapter fifty-five, we, the said Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, have, with the consent of the said Frederick, Bishop of the said diocese of London, by an instrument bearing date on or about the twenty-eighth day of October, in the year one thousand eight hundred and eighty-nine, declared that the perpetual right of patronage of, and of nominating a Minister to serve, the said new church from time to time and at all times whenever it should be requisite to nominate a Minister to serve the same should, from and after the consecration of such church, be vested in, and be exercised by, and belong to, the said Frederick, Bishop of the said diocese of London, and by his successors, Bishops of the same diocese, for ever.

And whereas the said church has since been consecrated, and is called "The Church of Saint Mark, Noel Park."

And whereas we, the said Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, deem it expedient that a particular district, to comprise a part of the said new parish of Saint Michael, Wood Green, shall be assigned to the said church of Saint Mark, Noel Park, and also that banns of matrimony should be published, and that marriages, baptisms, churchings, and burials should be solemnized or performed at such church.

Now know ye, that we, the said Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, in exercise and execution of the powers or authorities for this purpose contained in the several Acts of Parliament called "The Church Building Acts" as aforesaid, or in some of them, and particularly in the Act of the first and second years of His late Majesty King William the Fourth, chapter thirty-eight, in the said Act of the fourteenth and fifteenth years of Her said Majesty, chapter ninety-seven, and in the said Act of the nineteenth and twentieth years of Her said Majesty, chapter fifty-five, and of all other powers and authorities in anywise enabling them in this behalf, do hereby, with the consent of the said Frederick, Bishop of the said diocese of London (testified by his being a party to and executing these presents), assign to the said new church of Saint Mark, Noel Park, as a particular district, all that part of the said new parish of Saint Michael, Wood Green, which is described in the schedule hereunder written, and is delineated and set forth upon the map or plan hereunto appended, and do direct that the same shall be called "The Particular District of Saint Mark, Noel Park."

And we, the said Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, with the like consent of the said Frederick, Bishop of the said diocese of London (testified as aforesaid), in further exercise and execution of the powers or authorities contained in the said Acts of Parliament called "The Church Building Acts," or in some of them, and particularly in the said Act of the first and second years of His late Majesty King William the Fourth, chapter thirty-eight, in the Act of the third and fourth years of Her present Majesty, chapter sixty, in the Act of the seventh and eighth years of Her said Majesty, chapter fifty-six, in the said Act of the fourteenth and fifteenth years of Her said Majesty, chapter ninety-seven, and in the said Act of the nineteenth and twentieth years of Her said Majesty, chapter fifty-five, and of all other powers or authorities in anywise enabling them in this behalf, do hereby determine and declare that banns of matrimony shall be published, and that marriages, baptisms, churchings, and burials shall be solemnized or performed at the church of the said particular district of Saint Mark, Noel Park, and do hereby order and direct that all the fees, dues, offerings, or other emoluments to be received in respect of such publication of banns of matrimony, and of such solemnization or performance of marriages, baptisms, churchings, and burials at the same church shall, from and after the next avoidance of the vicarage of the said new parish of Saint Michael, Wood Green, belong to the Incumbent for the time being of the said particular district of Saint Mark, Noel Park: Provided always, that nothing herein contained shall be construed as expressing any intention on the part of us, the said Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, to concur in or approve the taking of any fee for the performance of the said office of baptism, or for the registration thereof.

In witness whereof we, the said Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, have hereunto affixed our common seal, and the said Frederick, Bishop of the said diocese of London, has hereunto set his hand and affixed his episcopal seal, this fourteenth day of November, in the year one thousand eight hundred and eighty-nine.
