

Now, therefore, Her Majesty, by and with the advice of Her Privy Council, is pleased to order, and it is hereby ordered, that no new burial-ground shall be opened in the undermentioned parish without the previous approval of one of Her Majesty's Principal Secretaries of State, and that burials in the said parish shall be discontinued, as follows; viz. :—

BOVEY TRACEY.—Forthwith and entirely in the Old Baptist Chapel, in the parish of Bovey Tracey, in the county of Devon, and in the chapelyard within six yards of any dwelling; and also in the rest of the chapelyard, except as follows :

In such reserved grave spaces in the chapelyard, as have never before been buried in, and which when opened are free from water, burials may be allowed of so many members of the families to whom they may be allotted as can be buried at or below the depth of five feet.

AT the Court at Windsor, the 28th day of November, 1889.

PRESENT,

The QUEEN'S Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS by an Act passed in the Session of Parliament held in the eighteenth and nineteenth years of Her Majesty's reign, intituled "An Act further to amend the laws concerning the burial of the dead in England," it is, amongst other things, enacted that it shall be lawful for Her Majesty, by and with the advice of Her Privy Council, from time to time to postpone the time appointed by any Order in Council for the discontinuance of burials, or otherwise to vary any Order in Council made under any of the Acts recited in the said Act, or under the said Act (whether the time thereby appointed for the discontinuance of burials thereunder, or other operation of such Order, shall or shall not have arrived), as to Her Majesty, with such advice as aforesaid, may seem fit :

And whereas Orders in Council have been made directing the discontinuance of burials in the churchyards hereinafter mentioned from the time specified in such Orders; and whereas it seems fit to Her Majesty, by and with the advice of Her Privy Council, that the time for discontinuing burials in the said churchyards be postponed :

Now, therefore, Her Majesty, by and with the advice aforesaid, is pleased to order, and it is hereby ordered, that the time for the discontinuance of burials in such churchyards be postponed as follows, viz. :—

In the parish churchyard of Earl's Barton, in the county of Northampton, until the thirtieth day of April, one thousand eight hundred and ninety.

In the parish churchyard of Llangyfelach, in the county of Glamorgan, until the thirtieth day of June, one thousand eight hundred and ninety.

In the parish churchyard of Wetheral, in the county of Cumberland, until the thirtieth day of June, one thousand eight hundred and ninety.

In the parish churchyard of Wooler, in the county of Northumberland, until the thirtieth day of June, one thousand eight hundred and ninety.
