

Privy Council Office, December 13, 1889.

THE following Statute, made by the Governing Body of Brasenose College, Oxford, on the fourth day of December, one thousand eight hundred and eighty-nine, has been submitted for the approval of Her Majesty in Council, and notice of its having been so submitted is published in accordance with the provisions contained in the Universities of Oxford and Cambridge Act, 1877:—

ALTERATIONS OF STATUTE 3 made at a General Meeting of the Governing Body of the Principal and Fellows of the King's Hall and College of Brasenose, in Oxford, specially summoned for the purpose, by the votes of not less than two-thirds of the number of persons present and voting on the questions this 4th day of December, 1889.

These alterations, if approved of, will be by the insertion in Statute 3 of the following Clauses 19, 21, 22, 23, and 24, in lieu of the Clauses 19, 21, 22, 23, and 24 of the said Statute, and the insertion of a new Clause 31 at the end of the said Statute.

19. In certain excepted cases persons may be elected to and may hold Fellowships within the College without public notice of the vacancy and without examination, and without any period of probation, and without having passed the examinations required by the University for the degree of Bachelor of Arts, and without being ready and willing to serve the College on the terms specified in Clause 8 of this Statute. The excepted cases are as follows:—

(A.) Any Professor or Public Reader within the University, or Assistant Librarian of the Bodleian Library, or any person who may be distinguished in any branch of Literature, Science, or Art, and who shall undertake (if required) to perform some definite literary, scientific, or educational work in the College or (under the direction of the University) elsewhere, which work shall be specified in the resolution by which he is elected: Provided, that if the emoluments, exclusive of fees, of any Professor so elected shall exceed £700 per annum, he shall not receive as the emolument of his Fellowship a greater sum than will amount, with the emoluments of his Professorship, exclusive of fees, to £900 per annum.

(B.) Any former member of the Governing Body who has served the College in one of the following offices, namely, those of Principal, Vice-Principal, Bursar or Tutor, he shall not receive any emolument, but shall have the other rights of a Fellow not official or professorial.

Provided also that no election shall take place under this clause except by a majority of two-thirds of the votes of the Principal and Fellows present and voting at a meeting specially called, with notice of the business to be transacted thereat, the Principal's vote being counted as two votes.

21. Not more than one Fellowship shall at any one time be held under each of the sections A. and B. of Clause 19 of this Statute.

22. Every person elected to a Fellowship under the provisions of either section in Clause 19 of this Statute shall be entitled to hold his Fellowship for the term of seven years with power for the Principal and Fellows (if they should think fit) to re-elect him at the end of such term, and so from time to time. Both as to the term for which he shall have been first elected, and to every succeeding term of re-election, the person elected under Section A shall hold his Fellowship subject to the conditions expressed in the two clauses next hereinafter following, and shall be entitled to receive, as the emolument of his Fellowship, the sum of £200 per annum, without any other allowances save as hereinafter mentioned. Any person elected to a Fellowship under Section B shall be elected as a supernumerary Fellow, and not be counted among the official Fellows, or in the total number of twelve.

23. Every Professor, Public Reader, or Assistant Librarian elected to a Fellowship by virtue of Section A of Clause 19 of this Statute shall hold such Fellowship so long, and so long only, as he shall hold such Professorship, Public Readership, or Assistant Librarianship.

24. Every person elected to a Fellowship under Section A of Clause 19 of this Statute, but not being a Professor, Public Reader, or Assistant Librarian as aforesaid, shall vacate his Fellowship if in the judgment of the Principal and Fellows he shall refuse, neglect, or cease to perform (after being required so to do) the literary, scientific, or educational work which he undertook to perform (if required) at the time of his election.

31. The Principal and Fellows may at any stated General Meeting elect distinguished persons who are or have been members of the College to Honorary Fellowships within the College. Persons so elected shall be termed Honorary Fellows, and shall not be members of the Governing Body, or receive any emolument as Fellows, but may enjoy such other privileges and advantages as the Principal and Fellows shall from time to time determine. Honorary Fellows shall not be counted among the Fellows of the College, nor Honorary Fellowships among the Fellowships of the College. The conditions of eligibility to and tenure of Honorary Fellowships, and the mode of election thereof, to be determined by the Principal and Fellows from time to time.

Privy Council Office, December 13, 1889.

NOTICE is hereby given, that a Petition has been addressed to Her Majesty in Council by certain Inhabitant Householdors within the Local Government District of Ossett-cum-Gawthorpe, in the West Riding of the county of York, praying that a CHARTER OF INCORPORATION may be granted, whereby the provisions of the Municipal Corporations Act may be extended to that District; and notice is hereby further given, that the said Petition will be taken into consideration by a Committee of the Lords of Her Majesty's Most Honourable Privy Council on the twenty-eighth day of January, one thousand eight hundred and ninety.

Foreign Office, December 16, 1889.

THE Marquis of Salisbury, K.G., Her Majesty's Principal Secretary of State for Foreign Affairs has received the following Despatch from Her Majesty's Commissioners for the Navigation of the Danube:—

MY LORD, Galatz, December 9, 1889.

I HAVE the honour to inclose a translation of the new Tariff of Navigation Dues to be levied at the Sulina Mouth of the Danube.
