*Board of Trade (Harbour Department),
London, December 30, 1889.*

THE Board of Trade have received through the Secretary of State for Foreign Affairs a copy of a Despatch, dated the 3rd instant, from Her Majesty's Representative at Washington, enclosing the following copy of the Rules and Regulations of the Board of Health of Pensacola, Florida:—

Rules and Regulations of the Board of Health of Escambia County, Fla.

Pensacola, Florida, November 19, 1889.

Be it resolved, by the Board of Health of the County of Escambia, State of Florida:—

1. THAT the Port Inspector shall visit and inspect every vessel entering the Bay of Pensacola and ascertain and report her sanitary condition; and until such inspection and report, and the release of such vessel by said officer, no person shall visit her, and no person from her shall visit any other vessel or the shore. The master or owner of each vessel so inspected shall pay to this Board for such service five dollars.

2. No vessel coming into the Port of Pensacola, having on board any contagious or infectious disease, or from a port where any such disease prevails, shall remain within the territory under the jurisdiction of this Board, except at a point designated and under restrictions imposed by this Board, according to the exigencies of each case.

3. It shall be the duty of any person coming into the County of Escambia or Port of Pensacola from any locality where any disease in an epidemic form prevails, to report at once to this Board or some officer thereof, and no person coming from any such locality shall remain in said county without the permit of this Board, and then only at such point as may be designated, and under such restrictions as may be imposed by this Board, according to the exigencies of each case.

4. No ballast brought into the Bay of Pensacola by vessels shall be discharged in the County of Escambia, or the waters separating that county and the County of Santa Rosa, except at such point as may be designated in a permit obtained from this Board or granted on its authority; and in case this Board or its Sanitary Inspector or other officer with approval of this Board deem it expedient for the preservation of the public health to require fumigation, disinfection, or discharge of ballast at quarantine station, the same shall be done at the expense of the vessel, and in accordance with the system in use by this Board.

5. All Pilots and tow boats of the Port of Pensacola shall be supplied with copies of these rules, and every Pilot or Tow Boat Master speaking or boarding a vessel coming into said port shall hand a copy thereof to the master of said vessel.

6. That in case any vessel shall be required by authority of this Board in the exercise of its powers to preserve the public health, to discharge ballast at quarantine station, or be fumigated, she shall pay 25 cents per ton for the ballast discharged, and for the fumigation shall pay as follows:—

By the Board of Agriculture.

WHEREAS by The Contagious Diseases (Animals) Act, 1878, it is enacted that every Local Authority shall execute and enforce that Act and every Order of Council as far as the same are to be executed or enforced by Local Authorities, and that where a Local Authority fail to execute or enforce any of the provisions of that Act or of an Order of Council, the Privy Council may by order empower a person therein named to execute and enforce those provisions or to procure the execution and enforcement thereof:

And whereas the said Act was amended by The Contagious Diseases (Animals) Act, 1886, and it was provided by the last-mentioned Act that the same, so far as is consistent with the tenor thereof, should be construed as one with The Contagious Diseases (Animals) Act, 1878:

And whereas by The Board of Agriculture Act, 1889, all the powers and duties of the Privy Council under the aforesaid Acts were at the date of the establishment of the Board of Agriculture transferred to the said Board, and it is provided by the said Act that for the purposes of any Act of Parliament or Order passed or made before the establishment of the Board of Agriculture the name of the Board shall be substituted for the Privy Council and that all Orders of the Privy Council in force at the aforesaid date in relation to the powers and duties transferred by the Act to the said Board shall continue in force until revoked or altered by the same Board:

And whereas by the last recited Act further powers were conferred on the Board of Agriculture with respect to dogs:

And whereas on the seventeenth day of December, one thousand eight hundred and eighty-nine, the Board of Agriculture by virtue and in exercise of the powers in them vested under The Board of Agriculture Act, 1889, and The Contagious Diseases (Animals) Acts, 1878 to 1886, and The Rabies Order of 1887, made The Rabies (Muzzling of Dogs) Order of 1889, which Order was to commence and take effect from and immediately after the thirty-first day of December, one thousand eight hundred and eighty-nine; and it was provided by the said Order that the same should apply to and be in force in, amongst other Districts of Local Authorities, the District of the Local Authority of the County of London, and should be enforced by each of the Local Authorities within their District:

And whereas the London County Council being the Local Authority for the County of London (excluding the City of London) have failed to execute and enforce within their District the provisions of The Rabies (Muzzling of Dogs) Order of 1889:

Now, therefore, the Board of Agriculture, by virtue and in exercise of the powers in them vested under The Board of Agriculture Act, 1889, and The Contagious Diseases (Animals) Acts, 1878 to 1886, and of every other power enabling them in this behalf, do order, and it is hereby ordered, as follows:

1. Major John Trenchard Tennant, Chief Travelling Inspector of the Board of Agriculture, is hereby named and empowered to execute and enforce the provisions of The Rabies (Muzzling of Dogs) Order of 1889, or to procure the execution and enforcement thereof, in the District of the London County Council, so far as those provisions are to be executed or enforced by that Local Authority.

2. In this Order terms have the same meaning as in The Animals Order of 1886.

In witness whereof the Board of Agriculture have hereunto set their Official Seal this second day of January, one thousand eight hundred and ninety.

L. S.

G. A. Leach,
Secretary.

By the Board of Agriculture.

THE Board of Agriculture, acting under The Board of Agriculture Act, 1889, and The Contagious Diseases (Animals) Acts, 1878 to 1886, hereby authorize the Local Authority for the county of Nottingham to put in operation, within seven days after the date of this Authority, Article 6 of The Animals (Amendment) Order of 1887, dated the twenty-third day of March, one thousand eight hundred and eighty-seven, providing for the slaughter by Local Authorities of cattle suspected of pleuro-pneumonia, and the payment of compensation for the same, in respect of a certain roan heifer suspected of being affected with pleuro-pneumonia the property of Mr. Joseph Bailey, of Holly House Farm, Scaftworth.

This Authority is revocable by the Board of Agriculture.

In witness whereof the Board of Agriculture have hereunto set their Official Seal this second day of January, one thousand eight hundred and ninety.

L. S.

G. A. Leach,
Secretary.

By the Board of Agriculture.

THE Board of Agriculture, by virtue and in exercise of the powers in them vested under The Board of Agriculture Act, 1889, and The Contagious Diseases (Animals) Acts, 1878 to 1886, and of every other power enabling them in this behalf, do order, and it is hereby ordered, as follows:

1. The provisions of Article 73 (Swine-Fever Infected Circle) of The Animals Order of 1886, as amended by Article 2 of The Animals (Amendment) Order of 1888, No. 2, shall apply and extend to and be in force in the District mentioned in the Schedule to this Order, and shall continue to apply and extend to and be in force in that District until the Board of Agriculture by further Special Order direct and order; and the Order of the Privy Council dated the sixteenth day of September, one thousand eight hundred and eighty-six, which applies the said provisions to certain Districts therein named, shall be read and have effect as if the District named in the Schedule to this Order was also named in that Order.

2. This Order shall take effect from and immediately after the fourth day of January, one thousand eight hundred and ninety.

In witness whereof the Board of Agriculture have hereunto set their Official Seal this second day of January, one thousand eight hundred and ninety.

Secretary.

SCHEDULE.

District.

County of Northampton.

Civil Service Commission, January 3, 1890.

THE Civil Service Commissioners hereby give notice, that the following Regulations have been approved by the Lords Commissioners of Her Majesty's Treasury, viz. :—

SPECIAL REGULATIONS (Supplementary to the General Regulations issued 8th April, 1872, and amended by subsequent notices in the London Gazette), respecting Open Competitive Examinations for the situation of Junior Examiner in Her Majesty's Office of Works.

I. The limits of age for this situation are 23 and 30, and Candidates must be of the prescribed age on the first day of the competitive part of the examination.

II. Candidates will be required to show what technical education and practical training they have undergone to qualify themselves for a situation of this nature. They must show (1) that they have served for at least five years in a public or private office under an Architect, Builder, or Surveyor; (2) that the works on which they have been engaged during those years were such as to afford them the opportunity of gaining a satisfactory knowledge of their profession; and (3) that they have fully profited by their practical training, and possess the necessary qualifications and experience. Evidence on these points must be sent in at such times and in such manner as the Civil Service Commissioners may appoint. If such evidence should prove prima facie satisfactory, the Candidate will be admitted to examination, subject, in case of his being successful in the competition, to such further inquiry, and the production of such further evidence as may be necessary.

III. The examination will consist of two parts, and will be in the following subjects, viz. :—

PART I.—Preliminary.

Handwriting.

Orthography.

Arithmetic (including Vulgar and Decimal Fractions).

* * No Candidate who fails to show satisfactory proficiency in any of the subjects specified above will be admitted to the competitive part of the examination.

PART II.—Competitive.

1. English Composition (so far as regards the ability to write a fair business letter).

2. Squaring Dimensions, and preparation of Builders' Accounts (including abstracting and getting into bill, pricing, &c., and examination).

3. Architectural Drawing (so far as necessary to show a knowledge of general construction and details).

4. Taking out quantities from drawings and measurement of works executed.

5. Knowledge of Materials.

IV. Candidates must pass to the satisfaction of the Civil Service Commissioners in all these subjects.

V. A fee will be required from each Candidate attending the examination according to the scale laid down, under the Order in Council of 22nd March 1879, by notice in the London Gazette of 8th November, 1889.

VI. Application for permission to attend an Examination must be made at such times and in such manner as the Commissioners may appoint.

The Civil Service Commissioners further give notice, that an Open Competitive Examination for the situation of Junior Examiner in Her Majesty's Office of Works, will be held in London, on the 25th February, 1890, under the foregoing Regulations.

A Preliminary Examination will be held in London on the 11th February, 1890.

The number of situations to be filled will be the number vacant at the time of the Examination.

No person will be admitted to examination from whom the Secretary of the Civil Service Commission has not received, on or before the 29th January, an application in the handwriting of the Candidate on a prescribed form, which may be obtained from the Secretary at once.

Civil Service Commission, January 3, 1890

 January 1, 1890.

Bounty Office,

Westminster, January 3, 1890.

NOTICE is hereby given, pursuant to Rule 5 of the Second Charter of 12 Anne, that on the 19th day of March next, the Governors of Queen Anne's Bounty will make their annual distribution of grants to duly qualified benefices, in accordance with the Rules and Regulations prescribed by the said Charter and by Royal Sign Manuals.

The applications during the past nine years have been far more numerous than the Governors could satisfy.

The following observations apply to the distribution:—

1. The grants are usually of the capital sum of £200.

2. No grant is given except to meet a benefaction of the value of £200 or more in money, land, houses, rent-charge, or stipend. A rent-charge or stipend of £15 per annum is considered equal to £200.

3. No grant can be made to any benefice—

(a.) Whose net income from all sources exceeds £200 per annum.

(b.) Which has not a duly consecrated church.

4. The Governors have power to make as many as three grants in one year to the same benefice to meet three separate benefactions.

The rate of interest on augmentation moneys is $2\frac{1}{4}$ per cent.

Further information and forms of application may be obtained from the Secretary. The last day for receiving applications is the 1st day of March next.

By order,
 JOSEPH K. ASTON, Secretary and Treasurer.
