AT the Court at Windsor, the 21st day of March, 1890.

PRESENT,
The QUEEN's Most Excellent Majesty.

Lord President.
Duke of Rutland.
Lord Chamberlain.
Earl of Coventry.
Sir William Field.

WHEREAS by the Extradition Acts, 1870 and 1873, it was, amongst other things, enacted, that where an arrangement has been made with any foreign State with respect to the surrender to such State of any fugitive criminals, Her Majesty may, by Order in Council, direct that the said Acts shall apply in the case of such foreign State; and that Her Majesty may, by the same or any subsequent Order, limit the operation of the Order, and restrict the same to fugitive criminals who are in or suspected of being in the part of Her Majesty's dominions specified in the Order, and render the operation thereof subject to such conditions, exceptions, and qualifications as may be deemed expedient; and that if, by any law made after the passing of the Act of 1870 by the Legislature of any British possession, provision is made for carrying into effect within such possession the surrender of fugitive criminals who are in or suspected of being in such British possession, Her Majesty may, by the Order in Council applying the said Acts in the case of any foreign State, or by any subsequent Order, suspend the operation within any such British possession of the said Acts, or of any part thereof so far as it relates to such foreign State, and so long as such law continues in force there and no longer:

And whereas by an Act of the Parliament of Canada passed in 1886, and entitled "An Act respecting the Extradition of Fugitive Criminals," provision is made for carrying into effect within the Dominion the surrender of fugitive criminals:

And whereas by an Order of Her Majesty the Queen in Council, dated the seventeenth day of November one thousand eight hundred and eighty-eight, it was directed that the operation of the Extradition Acts, 1870 and 1873, should be suspended within the Dominion of Canada so long as the provision of the said Act of the Parliament of Canada of 1886 should continue in force and no longer:

And whereas a Convention was concluded on the twelfth day of July, one thousand eight hundred and eighty-nine, between Her Majesty and the United States of America, for the mutual extradition of fugitive criminals, which Convention is in the terms following:—

"WHEREAS by the Xth Article of the Treaty concluded between Her Britannic Majesty and the United States of America on the ninth day of August, one thousand eight hundred and forty-two, provision is made for the extradition of persons charged with certain crimes;

"And whereas it is now desired by the High Contracting Parties that the provisions of the said Article should embrace certain crimes not therein specified, and should extend to fugitives convicted of the crimes specified in the said Article and in this Convention;

"The said High Contracting Parties have appointed as their Plenipotentiaries to conclude a Convention for this purpose, that is to say:—

"No person surrendered by either of the High Contracting Parties to the other shall be triable or tried, or be punished for any political crime or offence, or for any act connected therewith, committed previously to his extradition.

"If any question shall arise as to whether a case comes within the provisions of this Article, the decision of the authorities of the Government in whose jurisdiction the fugitive shall be at the time shall be final.

"ARTICLE III.

"No person surrendered by or to either of the High Contracting Parties shall be triable or be tried for any crime or offence committed prior to his extradition, other than the offence for which he was surrendered, until he shall have had an opportunity of returning to the country from which he was surrendered.

Nevertheless, the rights of third parties with regard to the articles aforesaid shall be duly respected.

"ARTICLE V.

"ARTICLE VI.

"The extradition of fugitives under the provisions of this Convention and of the said Xth Article shall be carried out in Her Majesty's dominions and in the United States, respectively, in conformity with the laws regulating extradition for the time being in force in the surrendering State.

"ARTICLE VII.

"The provisions of the said Xth Article and of this Convention shall apply to persons convicted of the crimes therein respectively named and specified, whose sentence therefor shall not have been executed.

"In case of a fugitive criminal alleged to have been convicted of the crime for which his surrender is asked, a copy of the record of the conviction, and of the sentence of the Court before which such conviction took place, duly authenticated, shall be produced, together with the evidence proving that the prisoner is the person to whom such sentence refers.

"ARTICLE VIII.

"The present Convention shall not apply to any of the crimes herein specified which shall have been committed, or to any conviction which shall have been pronounced, prior to the date at which the Convention shall come into force.

"ARTICLE IX.

"This Convention shall be ratified, and the ratifications shall be exchanged at London as soon as possible.

"It shall come into force ten days after its publication, in conformity with the forms prescribed by the laws of the High Contracting Parties, and shall continue in force until one or the other of the High Contracting Parties shall signify its wish to terminate it, and no longer.

(3.) British sea fishing boats shall observe the said provision in Article I of the said Convention or Arrangement of February first, one thousand eight hundred and eighty-nine.

(4.) The following Regulations shall apply to and be observed in the case of all British sea fishing boats:—

The boat's distinguishing letters and number shall be painted in oil colour on each side of the mainsail of the boat immediately above the close reef, and in such a manner as to be plainly visible; they shall be painted on white sails in black, and on black sails in white, and where the sails are of an intermediate shade, the said letters and numbers shall be painted in black on sails of light shade, and in white on sails of dark shade; provided that whenever the Collector or Principal Officer of Customs of the boat's

(5.) The Regulations scheduled to the said Order in Council of June eighteenth, one thousand eight hundred and sixty-nine, and the Orders in Council of May third, one thousand eight hundred and eighty-two, and March seventh, one thousand eight hundred and eighty-seven (made under the Sea Fisheries Act, 1868), and the Regulations numbered 2, 3, 4, and 5 enacted by the Order in Council of February twenty-sixth, one thousand eight hundred and eighty (made under the Sea Fisheries Act, 1868), shall apply as if they had been made under the Sea Fisheries Act, 1883, and the said Order in Council dated the eighth day of February, one thousand eight hundred and ninety; and the said Regulations shall apply to the Regulations herein contained.

(6.) This Order shall come into force on the date thereof, and shall continue in force from and after that date until altered or revoked by Order in Council.

PRESENT,

The QUEEN's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS by Orders in Council made by the Queen's Most Excellent Majesty on the twelfth February, one thousand eight hundred and seventy-six, twenty-seventh June, one thousand eight hundred and seventy-six, ninth December, one thousand eight hundred and seventy-six, and fifteenth July, one thousand eight hundred and eighty-one, Her Majesty did, by and with the advice of Her Privy Council, order, among other matters, that a Lower Division of the Civil Service should be constituted, to consist of Men Clerks and Boy Clerks engaged to serve in any Department of the State to which they might from time to time be appointed or transferred; that no Department throughout Her Majesty's Civil Service should be permanently increased or regulated afresh without providing for the introduction of a system whereby such of its duties as were of a suitable character should be performed by members of such Lower Division; that such situations in Her Majesty's Civil Service as were not suitable to be filled by members of such Lower Division should be excluded from the Orders, and should until declaration of Her Majesty's further pleasure be regulated as theretofore; that no vacancies should be filled up nor any new appointments made in any Department, except by appointing Clerks of the Lower Division, until the Commissioners of the Treasury had been satisfied that the number of Clerks serving in such Department with higher salaries than those of the Lower Division were not in excess of the number sufficient to perform superior duties; that the salaries of Men Clerks in the Lower Division should commence at eighty pounds, and should rise by triennial increments of fifteen pounds to two hundred pounds; but that in any office where a regular attendance of seven hours a-day was required, the commencing salary might be ninety-five pounds, and the maximum salary might be two hundred and fifty pounds; that extra pay, not exceeding one hundred pounds per annum, might be attached to certain situations open to Clerks of the Lower Division whose duties involved the superintendence of other Clerks, or were otherwise of a more responsible character than such as the generality of their colleagues had to perform; that promotion from the Lower to the Higher Division of the Service should not be made without a special certificate from the Civil Service Commissioners, to be granted exceptionally, after not less than ten years' service, upon a special recommendation from the Head of the Department, and with the assent of the Treasury; that below the Lower Division of Ordinary Clerks (including Boy Clerks) Men and Boy Copyists might be employed for mere copying and for routine work under direct supervision, on the same conditions of service as those then in force for Civil Service Writers;

And whereas by an Order in Council dated the twenty-eighth day of May, one thousand eight hundred and eighty-nine, it was provided that Men Clerks appointed after the date of that Order should give a regular attendance of not less than seven hours a day, and that the salaries of such Men Clerks should commence at seventy pounds per annum, and should rise by such increments to such sums as might thereafter be fixed by Order in Council:

And whereas it appears from certain recent Reports made by Sir Matthew White Ridley, Baronet, and others appointed by Her Majesty to be a Royal Commission for inquiring into various questions connected with the organization of Civil Departments of the State, that further Regulations are required in order to improve the organization of the Civil Service:

Now, therefore, Her Majesty, by and with the advice of Her Privy Council, is pleased to order, and it is hereby ordered, as follows:—

1. The name "Lower Division" is hereby changed to "Second Division;" but Boy Clerks appointed under the Order in Council dated the twelfth day of February, one thousand eight hundred and seventy-six, shall be held not to belong to the Second Division.

2. This Order shall apply only to the Second Division of the Civil Service, as defined by clause one.

3. The salaries of Clerks in the Second Division, for a daily attendance of seven hours, shall commence at seventy pounds per annum, and shall rise by annual increments as follows, viz.:—

From seventy pounds to one hundred pounds by annual increments of five pounds.

From one hundred pounds to one hundred and ninety pounds by annual increments of seven pounds ten shillings.

From one hundred and ninety pounds to two hundred and fifty pounds by annual increments of ten pounds.

4. A higher grade of the Second Division shall be and is hereby established, with salaries commencing at two hundred and fifty pounds per annum, and rising by annual increments of ten pounds to three hundred and fifty pounds.

5. The annual increments of salary shall not be allowed without an annual certificate from the immediate superior of each Clerk, countersigned by the Head of the Department or such officer as he may designate for the purpose, to the effect that such Clerk's conduct has during the year immediately preceding the date of such certificate been in all respects satisfactory.

When the salary of any Clerk appointed after the twenty-eighth May, one thousand eight hundred and eighty-nine, reaches one hundred pounds, a special Report, to be officially recorded in writing, on the competence, character, and diligence of such Clerk, shall be required from the Head of the room, and from the Head of the Division in which, respectively, such Clerk is serving or has served; and until this Report is received and countersigned by the Head of the Department as satisfactory, such Clerk shall not receive any further advance in salary.

When the salary of any Clerk appointed after the twenty-eighth May, one thousand eight hundred and eighty-nine, reaches one hundred and ninety pounds, he shall not receive any further increment unless he obtain a Report to be officially recorded in writing from his immediate superiors, confirmed by the Head of the Department, that he is thoroughly competent to perform efficiently work of a superior and more advanced character in the future.

6. Promotion to the higher grade established under clause four of this Order shall be made (subject to the provisions of clause sixteen of this Order) according to positive merit, and not according to seniority.

A promotion to the said higher grade shall be made whenever any Clerk, who is not in receipt of extra pay, shall reach a salary of two hundred and fifty pounds; but, irrespective of this condition, the Head of a Department may recommend, and the Commissioners of the Treasury may sanction, as a very exceptional case, the promotion to the higher grade of a specially meritorious Clerk who is in receipt of a salary less than two hundred and fifty pounds.

7. Clerks who are required to attend seven hours a day shall be allowed a half holiday on alternate Saturdays, provided that the Heads of the Departments in which such Clerks are respectively serving are satisfied that the state of public business will permit.

8. The ordinary annual holidays allowed to Clerks shall not exceed fourteen week-days during each of their first five years of service, and twenty-one week-days thereafter, exclusive in both cases of Christmas Day, Good Friday, the Queen's Birthday, and (subject to the convenience of the public service) the four Bank Holidays. Provided that nothing in this clause shall affect the rights of existing Clerks who, under the Regulations of the respective Departments in which they are serving, are entitled to holidays in excess of those herein prescribed.

9. Sick leave may be granted by the Head of a Department to any Clerk serving in such Department, but subject to the following conditions, viz.:—

(1.) After two days' continuous absence, a certificate by a duly qualified medical practitioner shall be required.

(2.) If the number of days during which any Clerk in any year is absent without such medical certificate shall exceed seven in the aggregate, the number of days by which such aggregate period of absence exceeds seven shall be deducted from the amount of ordinary annual holidays which may be allowed under clause eight of this Order.

(3.) Continuous sick leave on full salary shall not be granted for any period longer than six months, but at the expiration of such six months the Head of the Department may at his discretion grant further leave, with salary at half the ordinary rate, for any period not exceeding six months. After twelve months' continuous sick leave no Clerk shall be paid any salary, except with the consent of the Commissioners of the Treasury, who may at their discretion, in special circumstances, allow payment of salary during any further period of sick leave to a Clerk at a rate not exceeding the amount of pension (if any) for which, at the expiration of twelve months' sick leave, the Clerk would have been qualified.

(4.) Cases of repeated but not continuous sick leave amounting in the aggregate to upwards of twelve months during any period of eighteen months shall be reported to the Commissioners of the Treasury, who shall decide the payments in respect of salary to be made during such sick leave.

10. An Attendance Book shall be kept in every Department, in which the times of arrival and departure of every Clerk shall be daily recorded.

11. No Clerk shall be allowed to accept any part in the management of any Society, or any trading, commercial, or financial Company of whatever description, which would require the attendance of such Clerk at any time between the hours of ten a.m. and six p.m.

12. Clause eighteen of the Order in Council of the twelfth day of February, one thousand eight hundred and seventy-six, shall be read as if the words "eight years' service" were substituted for the words "ten years' service."

13. All Clerks appointed after the twenty-eighth May, one thousand eight hundred and eighty-nine, and all Clerks appointed before that date who shall be promoted to the higher grade of the Second Division established by clause four of this Order, shall be required to give a regular attendance of not less than seven hours daily; and, as regards all other Clerks appointed before the twenty-eighth May, one thousand eight hundred and eighty-nine, who are giving, at the date of this Order, an attendance of six hours only, the hours of attendance shall be extended to seven, so soon as circumstances will permit, on the conditions specified in clause fourteen of this Order, subject, in each case, to agreement between the Commissioners of the Treasury and the Heads of the respective Departments in which such Clerks are serving as to the date of such extension of hours, and the reduction in the numbers of such Clerks to be made consequent thereon.

14. Clerks who were appointed before the twenty-eighth May, one thousand eight hundred and eighty-nine, and who may be called upon at any time antecedent to their promotion to the higher grade of the Second Division to attend seven hours instead of six, shall be granted an increase of salary of fifteen pounds per annum from the date on which the extension of hours takes place; but Clerks who at the date of their promotion to such higher grade are giving six hours' attendance only shall, on promotion, give an attendance of seven hours without any such increase of salary.

15. Clerks appointed before the twenty-eighth May, one thousand eight hundred and eighty-nine, shall be placed upon the new scale of salary sanctioned in this Order under the following conditions:—

(1.) They shall retain the salary with extra pay, if any, which they are receiving at the date of this Order.

(2.) They shall receive as from the first April, one thousand eight hundred and eighty-nine, an increment of salary equal to the proportion of their triennial increment of fifteen pounds (omitting any fraction of a pound sterling) which may have accrued up to that date.

(3.) The next increment after that described in the preceding paragraph shall accrue on the first April, one thousand eight hundred and ninety; and this and all following increments shall depend upon the rate of salary, exclusive of extra pay, and shall be determined according to clause three of this Order.

Provided always, that if a Clerk be in receipt of extra pay, and his total emoluments are not less than two hundred and fifty pounds, he shall receive no further increment unless he be certified by the Head of the Department in which he is serving to be thoroughly competent; and if he be not in receipt of extra pay, and his salary be not less than two hundred and fifty pounds (or two hundred pounds in case he be a Clerk who is required to give a daily attendance of six hours only), he shall receive no further increment unless he be promoted under clause six of this Order.

Provided further, that under no circumstances shall a Clerk, with or without extra pay, who is transferred to the new scale under this Order, be allowed to rise beyond a maximum of three hundred and fifty pounds.

16. Any Clerk who is in receipt of extra pay shall, when his total emoluments reach two hundred and fifty pounds, be forthwith placed in the higher grade established under clause four of this Order, if he be certified by the Head of the Department in which he is serving to be thoroughly competent; after which he shall rise to a maximum of three hundred and fifty pounds, including extra pay, but no more.

17. Clause one of the Order in Council of the twelfth February, one thousand eight hundred and seventy-six, shall be read, from and after the date of this Order, as if the words, "and of boy Clerks," were omitted therefrom.

18. Clause five of the Order in Council of the twelfth February, one thousand eight hundred and seventy-six, shall be read, from and after the date of this Order, as if the words, "of the Lower Division," following the words, "for boy Clerks," were omitted therefrom.

19. Clause fourteen of the Order in Council of the twelfth February, one thousand eight hundred and seventy-six, is hereby repealed.

20. Clauses sixteen and seventeen of the said Order in Council, authorizing and regulating the grant of extra pay, are hereby repealed.

PRESENT,

The QUEEN'S Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England have, in pursuance of the Act of the third and fourth years of Her Majesty, chapter one hundred and thirteen : and of the Act of the seventeenth and eighteenth years of Her Majesty, chapter eighty-four, duly prepared and laid before Her Majesty in Council a scheme bearing date the sixteenth day of January, in the year one thousand eight hundred and ninety, in the words following, that is to say ;

"We the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England in pursuance of the Act of the third and fourth years of your Majesty chapter one hundred and thirteen ; and of the Act of the seventeenth and eighteenth years of your Majesty chapter eighty-four have prepared and now humbly lay before your Majesty in Council the following scheme for apportioning the income of the benefice (being a new parish) of Christ Church, Lee Park, in the county of Kent and in the diocese of Rochester between that benefice and a certain other benefice, namely the benefice (being a consolidated chapelry) of the Good Shepherd, Lee, which said last-named benefice is also situate in the said county of Kent and in the said diocese of Rochester.

"Whereas the Rector for the time being of the parish of Saint Margaret, Lee, in the said county of Kent and diocese of Rochester (of which parish both the said new parish of Christ Church Lee Park and also the said consolidated chapelry of the Good Shepherd Lee were originally parcel) is as such Rector the patron of the said two benefices of Christ Church, Lee Park, and the Good Shepherd, Lee and of each of them.

"And whereas it has been made to appear to us that the said benefice of the Good Shepherd, Lee, is at present insufficiently endowed, and that the said benefice of Christ Church, Lee Park, has emoluments of such an amount as that after the recommendations and proposals to be made by this scheme shall have been carried into effect sufficient provision will still remain for the said benefice of Christ Church, Lee Park.

"And whereas by a certain deed bearing date the first day of September in the year one thousand eight hundred and fifty-four and made between the then Rector of the said parish of Saint Margaret Lee, of the first part ; the then Bishop of London of the second part, the then Lord High Chancellor of Great Britain (the patron in right of the Crown of the rectory of the said parish of Saint Margaret Lee) of the third part, and the then Incumbent of the said new parish (in the same deed described as a district chapelry) of the fourth part which said deed was expressed to be made under a certain Act of Parliament being the Act of the first and second years of His late Majesty King William the Fourth chapter forty-five, an annual sum of fifty pounds sterling was charged upon all the glebe lands tithe rent-charges and other hereditaments whatsoever to the said rectory belonging in favour of the incumbent of the said district chapelry (now a new parish as aforesaid) of Christ Church, Lee Park to whom and to his successors the same annual sum was by the said deed granted with certain remedies in the same deed specified for the recovery thereof.

"And whereas the Right Reverend Anthony Wilson Bishop of the said diocese of Rochester is, and we are, of opinion that it is desirable that additional provision should be made for the cure of souls within the consolidated chapelry of the Good Shepherd Lee, aforesaid by means of that apportionment of the income of the said benefice of Christ Church Lee Park, which is hereinafter recommended and proposed.

"And whereas the said benefice of Christ Church, Lee Park, is now full of a Clerk, the incumbent thereof being the Reverend Lewis Arthur Smith, Clerk in Holy Orders.

"Now therefore with the consent of the said Right Reverend Anthony Wilson, Bishop of the said diocese of Rochester acting as such Bishop and with the consent of the Reverend Frederick Henry Law Clerk in Holy Orders the now rector of the said parish of Saint Margaret Lee and as such rector the patron of each of the said two benefices as aforesaid (in testimony whereof they the said consenting parties have respectively signed and sealed this scheme the said Bishop sealing the same with his episcopal seal) we the said Ecclesiastical Commissioners humbly recommend and propose that without any conveyance or assurance in the law other than this scheme and any duly gazetted Order of Your Majesty in Council ratifying the same and as from the day of the date at which the said benefice of Christ Church Lee Park shall next become vacant the said charge of fifty pounds per annum which was created by the said deed of the first day of September one thousand eight hundred and fifty-four in favour of the said benefice of Christ Church Lee Park shall be transferred to the said benefice of the Good Shepherd, Lee, and shall enure in favour of the said benefice of the Good Shepherd, Lee, and the incumbent thereof and his successors and not in favour of the said benefice of Christ Church, Lee Park, or the incumbent thereof and his successors and that all the powers of recovering the same charge of fifty pounds per annum which by the said deed of the first day of September one thousand eight hundred and fifty-four are given to the incumbent of the said benefice of Christ Church Lee Park and all provisions as to time and manner of payment and receipt of the same charge and all other provisions clauses and declarations in the said deed contained shall as from the date aforesaid be applicable to and as between the rector of the benefice of Saint Margaret Lee and his successors on the one hand and the incumbent of the said benefice of the Good Shepherd, Lee, and his successors on the other hand as if the same benefice of the Good Shepherd, Lee, and the incumbent thereof had been named in the said deed instead of the benefice of Christ Church Lee Park and the incumbent thereof.

"And we further recommend and propose that nothing herein contained shall prevent us from recommending and proposing any other measures relating to the matters aforesaid or any of them in accordance with the provisions of the said Acts or of either of them or of any other Act of Parliament."

And whereas the said scheme has been approved by Her Majesty in Council: now, therefore, Her Majesty, by and with the advice of Her said Council, is pleased hereby to ratify the said scheme, and to order and direct that the same and every part thereof shall be effectual in law immediately from and after the time when this Order shall have been duly published in the London Gazette pursuant to the said Acts; and Her Majesty, by and with the like advice, is pleased hereby to direct that this Order be forthwith registered by the Registrar of the said diocese of Rochester.

AT the Court at Windsor, the 21st day of March, 1890.

PRESENT,

The QUEEN'S Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England have, in pursuance of the Act of the thirty-third and thirty-fourth years of Her Majesty, chapter thirty-nine, and of the Acts therein mentioned, that is to say, the Act of the third and fourth years of Her Majesty, chapter one hundred and thirteen; and the Act of the fourth and fifth years of Her Majesty, chapter thirty-nine; and the Act of the thirty-first and thirty-second years of Her Majesty chapter one hundred and fourteen, duly prepared and laid before Her Majesty in Council a scheme bearing date the sixteenth day of January, in the year one thousand eight hundred and ninety, in the words following, that is to say:—

"We the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England in pursuance of the Act of the thirty-third and thirty-fourth years of Your Majesty chapter thirty-nine and of the Acts therein mentioned that is to say, the Act of the third and fourth years of Your Majesty chapter one hundred and thirteen, and of the Act of the fourth and fifth years of Your Majesty chapter thirty-nine, and of the Act of the thirty-first and thirty-second years of Your Majesty chapter one hundred and fourteen have prepared and now humbly lay before Your Majesty in Council the following scheme for effecting a transfer of the ownership of the advowson or perpetual right of patronage of and presentation to the church and cure (hereinafter called the said benefice) of Pilton in the county of Devon and in the diocese of Exeter.

"Whereas the advowson or perpetual right of patronage of and presentation to the said benefice of Pilton is vested for an estate in fee simple without incumbrances in Townshend Monckton Hall of Pilton aforesaid Esquire and his heirs and assigns.

"And whereas the said Townshend Monckton Hall is desirous that the whole advowson or perpetual right of patronage of and presentation to the said benefice of Pilton now vested in him as aforesaid should be transferred to and be vested in the Dean and Chapter of the Cathedral Church of Exeter and their successors.

"And whereas the said Dean and Chapter are willing to accept such transfer and in token of such their willingness have executed this scheme as hereinafter mentioned.

"And whereas the Right Reverend Edward Henry Bishop of Exeter has to the same transfer given that consent of the Bishop of the diocese which by the Acts in the hereinbefore mentioned Act recited or by some or one of them is made necessary and in token of the same consent has executed this scheme as hereinafter mentioned.

"And whereas a sum of money has been paid over to us in augmentation of the income of the said benefice of Pilton but upon the understanding that the patronage of the same benefice shall be transferred as is hereinafter recommended and proposed.

"And whereas under the circumstances we are of opinion that the transfer of the patronage of the said benefice of Pilton which is hereinbefore mentioned and hereinafter recommended and proposed will tend to make better provision for the cure of souls in the parish or district in or in respect of which the right of patronage or advowson so recommended and proposed to be transferred as aforesaid arises or exists that is to say in the parish of Pilton.

"Now therefore with the consent of the said Townshend Monckton Hall (in testimony whereof he has signed and sealed this scheme) and with the consent of the Dean and Chapter of the Cathedral Church of Exeter (in testimony whereof the said Dean and Chapter have sealed this scheme with their common or capitular seal) and with the consent of the said Edward Henry Bishop of Exeter acting as Bishop of the said diocese of Exeter (in testimony whereof he has signed this scheme and sealed the same with his episcopal seal) we the said Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England humbly recommend and propose that upon and from the day of the date of the publication in the London Gazette of any Order of Your Majesty in Council ratifying this scheme and without any conveyance or assurance in the law other than such duly gazetted Order, the whole advowson or perpetual right of patronage of and presentation to the said benefice of Pilton now vested in him the said Townshend Monckton Hall and his heirs and assigns as aforesaid shall be transferred from him and them to the said Dean and Chapter of Exeter and their successors and shall thereupon and thenceforth become and be absolutely vested in and shall and may from time to time be exercised by the said Dean and Chapter of Exeter and by their successors for ever.

"And we further recommend and propose that nothing herein contained shall prevent us from recommending and proposing any further or other measures relating to the matters aforesaid or any of them in accordance with the provisions of the said Acts or of any of them or of any other Act of Parliament."

And whereas the said scheme has been approved by Her Majesty in Council: now, therefore, Her Majesty, by and with the advice of Her said Council, is pleased hereby to ratify the said scheme, and to order and direct that the same and every part thereof shall be effectual in law immediately from and after the time when this Order shall have been duly published in the London Gazette pursuant to the said Acts; and Her Majesty, by and with the like advice, is pleased hereby to direct that this Order be forthwith registered by the Registrar of the said diocese of Exeter.

Privy Council Office, March 21, 1890.

THE following Statutes, made by the Governing Body of King's College, Cambridge, on the 1st day of February, 1890, and sealed with the Common Seal of the College, on 27th February, 1890, have been submitted for the approval of Her Majesty in Council, and notice of their having been so submitted is published in accordance with the provisions contained in the Universities of Oxford and Cambridge Act, 1877:—

STATUTES to alter Statutes made by the Commissioners appointed under The Universities of Oxford and Cambridge, Act 1877 (40 and 41 Victoria Chapter 48) in relation to The King's College of Our Lady and Saint Nicholas in Cambridge duly made at a general meeting of the Governing Body of the said College specially summoned for this purpose, held on the first day of February one thousand eight hundred and ninety and passed at such meeting by the votes of not less than two-thirds of the number of persons present and voting and submitted for the approval of Her Majesty the Queen in Council.

Whereas by Statute F made by the Commissioners under the Universities of Oxford and Cambridge Act 1877 (40 and 41 Victoria Chapter 48) in relation to The King's College of Our Lady and Saint Nicholas in Cambridge it is enacted as follows:

1. There shall be forty-eight Scholarships in the College, of which twenty-four shall be called Eton Scholarships, and twenty-four shall be called Open Scholarships.

2. Both the Eton and the Open Scholarships shall be divided into Entrance and Undergraduate Scholarships.

3. An Eton Entrance Scholarship shall be tenable for four years, and an Open Entrance Scholarship shall be tenable in the first instance for two years, but may be prolonged by the Council for any further period not exceeding two years, the tenure being in each case reckoned from the first day of the term in which the holder of the Scholarship commenced residence in the University. Any Entrance Scholarship shall be vacated by the election of the holder to an Undergraduate Scholarship or a Fellowship.

4. An Undergraduate Scholarship shall be tenable until the holder completes six years from the twenty-fifth day of March in the academical year in which he commenced residence in the University, or is sooner elected to a Fellowship.

5. No Scholarship shall be tenable with any office or emolument on the foundation of any other College in the University, or of any College in the University of Oxford or of Trinity College, Dublin.

6. Every candidate for a Scholarship, not being already a member of the College, shall bring a satisfactory certificate of moral character.

7. The time and manner of examinations for Scholarships and the day or days of election and admission thereto, shall from time to time be fixed by the Governing Body.

8. At any election a Scholarship which is not actually vacant but which will necessarily be vacated on or before the first day of the Michaelmas Term then next following, may be treated as a vacant Scholarship.

9. The electors to Scholarships shall be the Provost or in his absence the Vice-Provost, and two or more Fellows to be appointed annually by the Council, who may also appoint any examiners to assist the electors.

10. No person shall vote at the election to any Scholarship who has not taken part in the examination for the same.

11. The electors shall not be bound to elect to a Scholarship any candidate whom they shall not consider of sufficient merit for election; and they shall have power to require from any candidate a declaration that he intends to devote himself exclusively to the studies of the University during the whole of the time preceding his admission to his first degree.

12. Every candidate elected to a Scholarship shall be admitted a Scholar, and (if not already a member of the College) commence residence at such time as shall be prescribed by the Governing Body, and shall thereupon be entitled to the emoluments of his Scholarship, which emoluments shall commence, in the case of an Entrance Scholarship, from the first day of the term in which the Scholar is admitted, and, in the case of an Undergraduate Scholarship, from the day of election, provided that no holder of an Entrance Scholarship shall, upon election to an Undergraduate Scholarship, be required to be again admitted a Scholar; provided also, that any person elected to a Scholarship under the eighth section of this chapter shall not be entitled to any emolument thereof until the same has become actually vacant.

13. The Council shall, from time to time, make such regulations as they shall think proper with respect to the University and College examinations that the Scholars shall be required to undergo, and any Scholar who shall fail to conform to such regulations, or shall not make reasonable progress in the studies preparatory for such examinations, may be deprived of his Scholarship by the Council.

14. Every Scholar shall proceed to his degree of Bachelor of Arts or Bachelor of Laws, or to some equal degree, at his regular time, except with the approval of the Council, given for illness or other grave cause, and any Scholar failing so to proceed may be deprived of his Scholarship by the Council.

15. The following provisions shall apply to Eton Scholarships only:

(a.) At least six Scholarships shall be offered every year, of which at least four shall be offered as Entrance Scholarships, but it shall not be necessary to offer more than six Scholarships in any year, and, subject thereto, the Council shall determine in each year how many Scholarships shall be offered in that year, and what number shall be offered as Entrance and Undergraduate Scholarships respectively:

(b.) The Entrance Scholarships shall be open to all candidates receiving education at Eton School, whether on the foundation or not, who on the twenty-fifth day of March nearest to the commencement of the examination are under nineteen years of age, or such less age as shall from time to time be fixed by the Annual Congregation with the consent of the Governing Body of Eton School:

(c.) The Undergraduate Scholarships shall be open to all Undergraduates of the College in their first, second, and third years of residence, who have been educated at Eton School, whether on the foundation or not:

(d.) The emoluments of an Eton Scholarship shall be eighty pounds per annum, with tuition, and with commons during residence, and with rooms rent free until the Scholar takes his first degree; and the Council may, if they think fit, assign rooms rent free to any Eton Scholar after taking his first degree, if he shall, with their permission, reside in College.

16. The following provisions shall apply to Open Scholarships only:

(a.) At least six Scholarships shall be offered every year, but it shall not be necessary to offer more than six in any year, and subject thereto, the Council shall determine in each year how many Scholarships shall be offered in that year, and what numbers shall be offered as Entrance and Undergraduate Scholarships respectively:

(b.) The Entrance Scholarships shall be open to all candidates who at the commencement of the examination are under nineteen years of age, or such less age as shall from time to time be fixed by the Annual Congregation:

(c.) The Undergraduate Scholarships shall be open to all Undergraduates of the College in their first, second and third years of residence, including the holders of Eton Entrance Scholarships; provided that the Governing Body may in any year declare that any or all of the Undergraduate Scholarships to be offered in that year shall be open to all Undergraduates of the University.

(d.) The emoluments of an Open Entrance Scholarship for the first two years shall not exceed eighty pounds per annum, inclusive of rent of rooms and all allowances. The emoluments and allowances of an Open Entrance Scholarship after the first two years, if the Scholarship be prolonged, and of an Open Undergraduate Scholarship, shall be such as the Annual Congregation shall from time to time determine.

17. If under the foregoing provisions of this Statute the number of Eton Scholarships or Open Scholarships be in any year increased beyond twenty-four, then not more than six such Scholarships shall be offered in any subsequent year until their number is again reduced to twenty-four.

And whereas by Statute M chapter IV. made by the said Commissioners it is enacted as follows:

1. The Vintner Legacy and the Purefoy, Price, Day and Betham Funds shall be applicable for Exhibitions according to the following scheme:

(a.) A Vintner Exhibition to be awarded for proficiency in Natural Science and to consist of the whole or such part of the annual income of Dr. Vintner's Legacy as the Governing Body shall from time to time determine, after deducting what, if anything, may be necessary for the payment of examiners, and having regard to the proviso as to maximum value hereinafter contained:

(b.) Two Exhibitions to be awarded for proficiency in the ordinary studies of the College, each to consist of one-half or such other part of the net income of the Purefoy, Price, Day and Betham funds as the Governing Body shall from time to time determine, having regard to the proviso as to maximum value hereinafter contained:

(c.) Each Exhibition shall be open to all Undergraduates of the College in their first or second year of residence, and to such other candidates as are at the commencement of the examination under the age of nineteen years and bring satisfactory certificates of moral character, provided that no Exhibition shall be tenable with any Scholarship or Fellowship of the College, and that in the event of any person not a member of the College obtaining any Exhibition, he shall forthwith become a member of the College:

(d.) Each Exhibition shall be tenable for two years with power of prolongation by the Council for a further period not exceeding two years.

(e.) No exhibition shall exceed in value the emoluments of an Open Entrance Scholarship, and any surplus income shall be carried to a Capital account, and accumulated for the purpose of forming a fund for a future Exhibition or Exhibitions, similar to the Exhibition or Exhibitions from the surplus income of which such accumulation shall have accrued and so toties quoties:

(f.) The Exhibitions shall be awarded by the Council, who shall have power to appoint such examiners and make such regulations for conducting the examinations as they may think fit.

2. All other property (not being part of the general endowment of the College) held by the College upon any trusts, conditions or directions, which might lawfully have been modified by these Statutes, shall continue to be administered as heretofore, unless and until some other mode of administering the same shall be prescribed by some alteration of these Statutes, or by other competent authority.

And whereas it appears to us the Provost and Scholars of the said College (being the Governing Body thereof) that it is expedient to alter the said Statutes F. and M. chapter IV. in manner hereinafter appearing. Now therefore we the Provost and Scholars of the said College do hereby in exercise of the powers given us by the fifty-fourth section of the said Act alter and amend the said Statute F. hereinbefore set out by substituting therefor the following (that is to say)

1. There shall be forty-eight Scholarships in the College, of which twenty-four shall be called Eton Scholarships, and twenty-four shall be called Open Scholarships; but the Honorary Scholarships mentioned in section eighteen (a) of this chapter shall not be reckoned in this number.

9. The electors to Scholarships shall be the Provost, or in his absence the Vice-Provost, and two or more Fellows to be appointed annually by the Council, who may also appoint any examiners to assist the electors.

10. The manner of electing to Scholarships and all proceedings relating to the election shall be in the discretion of the electors; provided that no candidate shall be elected a Scholar without the concurrence of at least one-half of the electors present, the Provost, or in his absence the Vice-Provost, or in the absence of both the senior elector present, having a second or casting vote in case of an equality of votes; provided also that no person shall vote at an election to Entrance Scholarships who has not taken part in the examination for the same.

11. The electors shall not be bound to elect to a Scholarship any candidate whom they shall not consider of sufficient merit for election; and they shall have power to require from any candidate a declaration that he intends to devote himself exclusively to the studies of the University during the whole of the time preceding his admission to his first degree.

12. Every candidate elected to a Scholarship shall be admitted a Scholar, and (if not already a member of the College) commence residence at such time as shall be prescribed by the Governing Body, and shall thereupon be entitled to the emoluments of his Scholarship, which emoluments shall commence, in the case of an Entrance Scholarship, from the first day of the term in which the Scholar is admitted, and, in the case of an Undergraduate Scholarship, from the day of election; provided that no holder of an Entrance Scholarship shall, upon election to an Undergraduate Scholarship, be required to be again admitted a Scholar; provided also, that any person elected to a Scholarship under the eighth section of this chapter shall not be entitled to any emolument thereof until the same has become actually vacant.

13. The Governing Body shall, from time to time, make such regulations as they shall think proper with respect to the University and College examinations that the Scholars shall be required to undergo, and with respect to their residence and studies; and any Scholar who shall fail to conform to such regulations, or shall not make reasonable progress in his studies, may be deprived by the Council of his Scholarship, or of the whole or part of the pecuniary emoluments of the same.

14. Every Scholar shall proceed to his degree of Bachelor of Arts or Bachelor of Laws, or to some equal degree, at his regular time, except with the approval of the Council, given for illness or other grave cause, and any Scholar failing so to proceed may be deprived of his Scholarship by the Council.

15. The following provisions shall apply to Eton Scholarships only:

(a) At least six Scholarships shall be offered every year, of which at least four shall be offered as Entrance Scholarships, but it shall not be necessary to offer more than six Scholarships in any year, and subject thereto, the Council shall determine in each year how many Scholarships shall be offered in that year, and what number

Non-Existence of Harrington Rock.

The following information has been received from Lieutenant and Commander G. C. Frederick, Her Majesty's surveying vessel "Dart," relative to a search made in December, 1889, for Harrington Rock, reported in 1874 as lying southward of Coquet Island, Howick Group, and to have less than 6 feet of water on it:—

The "Dart" was anchored 3 cables south-eastward of the reported position of Harrington Rock (lat.  $14^{\circ} 33\frac{1}{2}'$  S., long.  $145^{\circ} 1\frac{1}{2}'$  E.), and the boats sounded closely around for a distance of  $7\frac{1}{2}$  cables, without any evidence of shoal water being observed.

The soundings show the bottom as evenly sloping from  $6\frac{1}{2}$  fathoms near the track recommended on the west to 8 fathoms on the east, and no appearance of shoal or discoloured water was seen from the masthead. Subsequently the "Dart" steamed over the reported position.

On two previous occasions the "Dart" had passed close to the reported position, without any indication of shoal water being seen.

Considering that in the original report there was no positive evidence of a rock, and that had one existed, it would probably ere this have been again reported; this examination of "Dart" is considered to disprove the original report, and Harrington Rock has therefore been removed from the Admiralty Charts.

Great Northern Railway (Various Powers) Bill.
(Petition for Additional Provision.)

(Confirmation of Agreement for Lease to Great Northern Railway Company, from Corporation of City of London, of Underground Surface under Lands in Parish of St. Sepulchre; Loan by the said Company to the Corporation of Boston for the purposes of their Docks.)

THE Great Northern Railway Company (hereinafter called "the Company") intend to apply, so soon as the rules of Parliament will permit, for leave to introduce into the above-named Bill an additional provision to authorize the Company to take from the Mayor, Commonalty, and Citizens of the city of London (hereinafter referred to as the "Corporation of London") a lease of the underground surface below the street level of certain lands in the parish of St. Sepulchre, in the said city, situate in Charterhouse-street and southern roadway (on part of the upper surface of which the Corporation of London have constructed, and on other parts of the upper surface of which they intend to construct, market buildings), together with accesses to such underground surface by inclined roadways from Snow Hill and Farringdon-street, for such consideration and upon such terms and conditions as may have been, or may during the progress of the Bill be, agreed to between the Corporation of London and the Company, and to confirm and give effect to any such agreement.

To enable the Company to lend to the Mayor, Aldermen, and Burgesses of the borough of Boston (hereinafter referred to as "the Corporation of Boston") any sum or sums, not exceeding in the whole the sum of £25,000, upon the security of the Harbour Revenue, Borough Fund and Borough Rate of the borough of Boston, and other rates, funds, and revenues of the Corporation of Boston, or some of them, or upon mortgage of any part of the real estate of the Corporation of Boston, for the purpose of constructing warehouses and other works in connection with the docks of the Corporation, and to authorize the Corporation of Boston to borrow the said sum on such security, and to make provision for the repayment thereof.

To enable the Corporation of Boston and the Company to enter into and fulfil contracts and agreements for and in relation to any of the purposes in this and the next preceding paragraph mentioned, and to confirm any agreement which may have been, or which during the progress of the Bill may be, entered into between the Corporation of Boston and the Company touching the said purposes or any of them.

The additional provision will vary and extinguish all existing rights and privileges which would interfere with its objects, and confer other rights and privileges.

Printed copies of the proposed additional provision can be obtained at the offices of the undersigned.
