

Acts, doth order, and it is hereby ordered, that from and after the 4th day of April, one thousand eight hundred and ninety, the said Acts shall apply in the case of the United States of America, and of the said Convention with the United States of America.

Provided always, and it is hereby further ordered, that the operation of the said Extradition Acts, 1870 and 1873, shall be suspended within the Dominion of Canada so far as relates to the United States of America and to the said Convention, and so long as the provisions of the Canadian Act aforesaid of 1886 continue in force, and no longer.

C. L. Peel.

AT the Court at Windsor, the 21st day of March, 1890.

PRESENT,

The QUEEN's Most Excellent Majesty.

Lord President.

Duke of Rutland.

Lord Chamberlain.

Earl of Coventry.

Sir William Field.

WHEREAS, by treaty, capitulation, grant, usage, sufferance, and other lawful means, Her Majesty the Queen has power and jurisdiction in relation to Her Majesty's subjects and others in the Ottoman dominions:

Now, therefore, Her Majesty, by virtue and in exercise of the powers in this behalf, by "The Foreign Jurisdiction Acts, 1843 to 1878," or otherwise, in Her Majesty vested, is pleased, by and with the advice of Her Privy Council, to order, and it is hereby ordered, as follows:—

1. This Order may be cited as "The Ottoman Order in Council, 1890," and shall be construed as one with "The Ottoman Orders in Council, 1873 and 1882."

2. It shall be lawful, from time to time, for the Secretary of State, or for the Judge or Acting Judge of the Supreme Court, with the assent of the Secretary of State, to nominate and appoint some person qualified for the office of Assistant Judge of the Supreme Court, to be and act as a Judge for the purpose of the trial of any crime or crimes committed, or alleged to have been committed, either before or after the making of this Order, in any part of the Ottoman dominions. A Judge so appointed shall, for the purposes for which he is appointed, have all the powers which could be exercised by the Judge of the Supreme Court upon a trial with a jury or assessors of the like crimes at Constantinople, and may, if in any case, in his opinion, a jury or assessors cannot be obtained, act without a jury or assessors.

The remuneration and expenses of a Judge appointed under this Order shall be paid as the Secretary of State, with the consent of the Treasury, directs:

And the Most Honourable the Marquis of Salisbury, one of Her Majesty's Principal Secretaries of State, is to give the necessary directions herein.

C. L. Peel.

AT the Court at Windsor, the 21st day of March, 1890.

PRESENT:

The QUEEN's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS by the twenty-second section of the Sea Fisheries Act, 1868, it is provided that, subject to any exemptions allowed by or in pursuance of any Order in Council made as thereinafter in the said Act mentioned, every

British sea fishing boat shall, as required by Articles 4, 5, 6, 7, and 8 of the Convention in the First Schedule to the said Act set forth, be lettered and numbered, and have official papers, and shall for that purpose be entered or registered in a register for sea fishing boats.

Whereas by the twenty-third section of the said Act, it is enacted that it shall be lawful for Her Majesty, by Order in Council, from time to time to do (amongst others) all or any of the following things; viz:—

(a.) To make regulations for carrying out, enforcing, and giving effect to both the entry and registry of British sea fishing boats, and also the said above-mentioned Articles 4, 5, 6, 7, and 8 of the First Schedule to that Act; and

(b.) To adopt in such regulations any then existing system of registry or lettering and numbering of boats, and to provide for bringing such system into conformity with the requirements of the said Convention and that Act, and with the said regulations; and

(c.) To define the boats or classes of boats to which such regulations or any of them are to apply, and to provide for the exemption of any boats or classes of boats from such regulations or any of them, and from the provisions of Part Two of the said Act with respect to entry or registry, and the possession of a certificate of registry and official papers; and

(d.) To apply to the entry and registry respectively of the sea fishing boats so defined, and to all matters incidental thereto, such (if any) of the enactments contained in any Act relating to the registry of British ships, and with such modifications and alterations as may be found desirable; and

(e.) To impose penalties not exceeding twenty pounds for the breach of any regulations made by any Order in Council for the breach of which a punishment cannot be provided by the application of the enactments contained in any Act relating to the registry of British ships; and

(f.) To alter and revoke an Order so made.

And that every such Order in Council shall be of the same force as if it were enacted in that Act.

And whereas by section eight of the Sea Fisheries Act, 1883, it is enacted (amongst other things) that sections 22, 23, 24, and 26 of the above in part recited Act shall have effect as if Articles 5 to 12 (both inclusive) of the First Schedule to the Sea Fisheries Act, 1883, were therein referred to in addition to the Articles of the First Schedule to the above in part recited Act in the said sections mentioned, and as if offences under the said Act of 1883 were offences in the said sections mentioned.

And whereas the Sea Fisheries Act, 1883, came into force pursuant to the twenty-ninth section thereof on the fifteenth day of May, one thousand eight hundred and eighty-four.

And whereas by an Order in Council made the eighth day of February, one thousand eight hundred and ninety, under the twenty-third section of the Sea Fisheries Act, 1883, it was recited and provided as follows:

"And whereas by Article VIII of the International Convention for the purpose of regulating the Police of the Fisheries in the North Sea outside Territorial Waters concluded at the Hague on the sixth May, one thousand eight hundred and eighty-two, and set out in the First Schedule to the said Act, it is provided with
