"And whereas it is a part of the proposals made to us as aforesaid by the said Bishop that the Reverend David Howell, Clerk in Holy Orders, vicar of the parish of Wrexham in the said diocese of Saint Asaph (which parish is one of those to be comprised within the said archdeaconry) and Canon of the Canonry Residentiary of Meliden in the Cathedral Church of Saint Asaph shall be the first archdeacon of the said proposed archdeaconry and that the canonry of Meliden aforesaid shall be annexed to the same Archdeaconry as the endowment thereof and he the said David Howell as the incumbent of the same canonry has consented to such annexation, and executes this scheme in token of that his consent.

"And whereas it appears to us to be expedient that the said proposals of the said Bishop should be carried into effect in the manner hereinafter recommended and proposed.

"Now therefore with the consent of the said Alfred George Bishop of the said diocese of Saint Asaph (in testimony of which consent he hath set his hand and affixed his episcopal seal to this scheme) we the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England humbly recommend and propose that upon and from the day on which any Order of Your Majesty in Council ratifying this scheme shall be published in the London Gazette there shall be constituted within the said diocese of Saint Asaph one new archdeaconry to be called "The Archdeaconry of Wrexham" which said new Archdeaconry shall comprise and consist of those rural deaneries now portion of the said present Archdeaconry of Saint Asaph and of those rural deaneries now portion of the said present Archdeaconry of Montgomery, the names of which are set forth in the schedule to this scheme annexed.

"And we further recommend and propose that nothing herein contained shall prevent us from hereafter recommending and proposing any other matter or thing relating to the matters aforesaid or any of them in accordance with the provisions of the said Acts or of either of them or of any other Act of Parliament.
