To the Guardians of the Poor of the Wallingford Union, in the Counties of Berks and Oxford;—

And to all others whom it may concern.

WHEREAS We, the Local Government Board, by a General Order bearing date the thirty-first day of October, one thousand eight hundred and seventy-four, made rules and regulations relating to the appointment of Vaccination Officers by Guardians of the Poor of certain Unions and Parishes, including the said Wallingford Union; and by Article 9 of that Order it was provided as follows:—

“The Guardians shall pay to any Vaccination Officer such salary or remuneration, and such only, as the Local Government Board may direct or approve, whether for ordinary duties or for occasional services; and such salary or remuneration may be increased or reduced as that Board may from time to time direct or approve.”

And whereas it is expedient to amend the said Order as hereinafter mentioned, so far as regards the said Wallingford Union.

Now therefore, in pursuance of the powers given to Us by the Statutes in that behalf, We hereby Order that, with respect to the said Walingford Union, the above-cited Article shall be amended by the addition of the following proviso :—

GENERAL ORDER of the Local Government Board addressed to Non-Metropolitan Unions and Separate Parishes :—

Financial Statement (Statutory). "The District Auditors Act, 1879." (Poor Law, Public Health, Education, and Highway.)

To the Guardians of the Poor of the several Unions and Separate Parishes in England and Wales, except those wholly comprised in the Administrative County of London :—

To the District Auditors for the time being authorised to audit the Accounts of the said Unions and Separate Parishes respectively ;—

And to all others whom it may concern.

WHEREAS by Section 3 of "The District Auditors Act, 1879," it is enacted as follows :—

"Where the accounts of the receipts and expenditure of a Local Authority are audited by a District Auditor, the Local Authority shall prepare and submit to the District Auditor at every audit (other than an extraordinary audit, held in pursuance of Section 6 of the Poor Law Amendment Act, 1866), a Financial Statement in duplicate in the prescribed Form and containing the prescribed particulars; one of such duplicates shall have the stamp charged under this Act affixed thereon, and the Auditor at the conclusion of the audit shall cancel that stamp, and certify on each duplicate, in the prescribed Form, the amount in words at length of the expenditure so audited and allowed, and further, that the regulations with respect to such statement have been duly complied with, and that he has ascertained by the audit the correctness of the statement."

And whereas We, the Local Government Board, by Orders dated, respectively, the 25th day of April, 1879, and the 26th day of April, 1879, prescribed the Forms of the Financial Statement to be prepared and submitted to the District Auditor by the Guardians of the Poor of Unions and Separate Parishes respectively ;

And whereas it is expedient that a fresh Form of Financial Statement should be prescribed as regards the several Unions and Separate Parishes in England and Wales which are not wholly comprised in the Administrative County of London, and that the said Orders should be rescinded as regards those Unions and Parishes :

Provided that if in any case the Accounts of the said Guardians for the half-year ended the twenty-fifth day of March, one thousand eight hundred and ninety, are audited before the twenty-eighth day of May, one thousand eight hundred and ninety, the Financial Statement to be prepared in such case in respect of the Accounts of the Guardians for that half-year may be in the Form prescribed in the above-cited Order dated the twenty-fifth day of April, one thousand eight hundred and seventy-nine, or in the Form prescribed in the above-cited Order dated the twenty-sixth day of April, one thousand eight hundred and seventy-nine, according as the case may require.

Parcels which are addressed to a Post Office in the United Kingdom to be called for, or to a place in the United Kingdom beyond the limits of the free postal delivery of any town or district, or to a ship at any port in the United Kingdom, and which are not called for or delivered within such reasonable times as the Postmaster-General may from time to time prescribe; and
- (b.) Parcels which cannot be delivered in the United Kingdom for want of a true direction, or by reason that the addressee is dead, or cannot be found, or has refused the same, or has refused to pay any charges thereon, or for any other sufficient reason;

The following provisions shall (subject to the provisions of the Warrant of the said Commissioners of the 12th day of December, 1888, relating to Foreign and Colonial Parcels) apply (that is to say):—

- (1.) The Parcel shall, as the Postmaster-General may from time to time direct, be retained at or forthwith forwarded to such place as the Postmaster-General may from time to time appoint, and may, if necessary, be there opened and examined.
- (2.) Where the name and address of the sender can be ascertained from the Parcel or the declaration accompanying the same, notice shall be given by post to the sender through the Post Office of the place in which the Parcel was posted that the Parcel will, in default of any claim on the part of the addressee, be given up to the sender or his agent upon personal application at such place as aforesaid, or at the request of the sender will be forwarded to a corrected address or returned to him by post in either case upon the conditions hereinafter mentioned.
- (3.) Where the name and address of the sender cannot be ascertained from the Parcel, notice shall be publicly given (by affixing the same at such place or places, or in such other manner as the Postmaster-General may direct), and notice shall also be given to the Post Office of the place in which the Parcel was posted that the Parcel will, in default of any claim on the part of the addressee, and upon payment of such charges as are hereinafter mentioned, be given up upon the personal application of the sender or his agent, or be returned to the sender by post.
- (4.) In any case the notice shall state that, in default of the receipt by the Postmaster-General of an application for the Parcel during a period to be specified in such notice from some person who, in the Postmaster-General's judgment, is entitled to receive the Parcel, it will be disposed of in such a manner as the Postmaster-General may direct.
- (5.) The Postmaster-General may, in his discretion, specify in any such notice, or otherwise, the periods during which Parcels may be returned to the senders thereof, and in so doing may have regard to the nature and contents of Parcels.
- (6.) Where in the case of a Parcel which cannot be delivered for want of a true direction, the sender corrects the address of the Parcel, the Parcel shall be forwarded to the corrected address, subject to the following conditions:—
  - (a.) Where the corrected address of the Parcel is within the same free delivery as the original address, and the Parcel is not at the time of such correction lying at a Returned Letter Office, no new charge shall be made with respect to the delivery of the Parcel.
  - (b.) Where the corrected address of the Parcel is not within the same free delivery as the original address, or the Parcel at the time of such correction is lying at a Returned Letter Office, there shall be paid a new and distinct rate of postage equal in amount to the rate of postage which would have been chargeable on such Parcel as an Inland Parcel.
- (7.) A Parcel shall not be given up or returned by post to the sender except upon payment by him of any charge for re-direction or other charge to which the Parcel has become liable under the provisions of this Warrant, or of any such Regulations as are referred to in section 14 of "The Post Office (Parcels) Act, 1882."

(8.) Where the sender requests a Parcel to be returned to him by post, such Parcel shall not be returned to the sender except upon payment by him of a new and distinct rate of postage, according to the rates fixed by this Warrant, and in such case the said rate of postage and all other charges to which the Parcel has become liable, if not prepaid by the sender, shall be collected on the delivery of the Parcel to him.

(9.) The Postmaster-General may require proof to his satisfaction that an applicant for a Parcel is entitled to receive the same.

(10.) Where no application is made for a Parcel within the period specified in any such notice as aforesaid, or an applicant fails to prove to the satisfaction of the Postmaster-General that he is entitled to receive the Parcel, or refuses or fails to pay the charges to which the Parcel has become liable under this Warrant, the Parcel may be dealt with or disposed of in such manner as the Postmaster-General may in his discretion direct or authorize.

Re-direction to places out of United Kingdom.

13. Any Parcel may be re-directed from its original address, or any substituted address, within the United Kingdom, to any country or place with which a Parcel Post to or from the United Kingdom or Cyprus or Egypt, is established, and in every case of such re-direction there shall be charged on such Parcel in respect of such re-direction a new and distinct rate of postage according to the rates for the time being payable in respect of the transmission of a like Parcel from the United Kingdom to the country or place to which it may be re-directed, and such postage, if not paid at the time of such re-direction, shall be collected on the delivery of the Parcel to the addressee.

Re-direction to places within United Kingdom.

14. Any Parcel may be re-directed from its original address, or any substituted address, within the United Kingdom to any other address within the United Kingdom, and in every case of such re-direction there shall be charged on such Parcel in respect of each such re-direction, and (if not previously paid) paid by the addressee thereof in money upon the delivery of such Parcel, a new and distinct rate of postage, equal in amount to the rate of postage which would have been originally chargeable on such Parcel as an Inland parcel.

Remission of Re-direction Rates.

15. The Postmaster-General may wholly remit the rate of postage for re-direction on any Parcel addressed to the United Kingdom which may, on the request of the addressee thereof, be re-directed by an Officer of the Post Office, and again forwarded by post to the same person at any address within the limits of the same free postal delivery as the address from which such Parcel was so re-directed.

16. There shall not be posted or conveyed or delivered by post any Parcel—

- (1.) Exceeding in value, if addressed to Egypt, the sum of fifty pounds.
- (2.) Consisting of or containing any indecent or obscene print, painting, photograph, lithograph, engraving, book or card, or any indecent or obscene article whether similar to the above or not; or
- (3.) Having thereon or on the cover thereof

Any such Parcel, if posted or tendered for conveyance by post, may be detained, and either returned or given up to the sender thereof or dealt with or disposed of in such other manner as may be authorized by the Postmaster-General.

17. There shall not be posted or conveyed or delivered by post any Parcel consisting of or containing two or more Parcels or other Postal Packets (of the same or of different descriptions) addressed to different persons at different addresses, and any such Parcel, if posted or tendered for conveyance by post, may be detained and either returned or given up to the sender thereof, or dealt with or disposed of as the Postmaster-General may authorize.

Non-compliance with Regulations.

18. In any case not in this Warrant expressly provided for, where any Parcel shall be posted or tendered for conveyance by post which in any respect infringes or fails to comply with the regulations in this Warrant contained, or any of them, such Parcel may, at the option of the Postmaster-General, either be dealt with as in this Warrant provided, with reference to Parcels which cannot be delivered, or be dealt with or disposed of in such manner as the Postmaster-General may in his discretion direct or authorize.

Provision for Safety of Parcels.

19. In any case where any officer of the Post Office may find it necessary or expedient for the safety or protection of Parcels that any Parcel should be forwarded or delivered by some later despatch or delivery than that for which the same was posted or despatched, or intended to be posted or despatched respectively, he may delay the despatch or delivery of such Parcel, or make such other and special arrangements as to the despatch or delivery thereof, not, however, involving a greater delay than 24 hours in the whole, as may be deemed by such officer necessary or expedient in the circumstances of the case.

Parcels not to interfere with Letter Post.

20. Where the despatch or delivery from a Post Office in the United Kingdom of letters would be delayed by the despatch or delivery therefrom at the same time of Parcels, such Parcels, or any of them, may be detained in the Post Office until the despatch or delivery next following that by which they would ordinarily be despatched or delivered.

Postmaster-General not liable for Loss or Damage.

21. Nothing contained in or done under or in pursuance of this Warrant shall render the Postmaster-General liable, either personally or in his official capacity, to any action or other legal proceeding in respect or in consequence of any loss or damage of any Parcel, whether such loss or damage be occasioned by or arise from any act or neglect of any officer of the Post Office or any other person.

Customs Regulations.

5, King-Street, Westminster,
24th April, 1890.

THE Commissioners for the Conservancy of the River Mersey hereby give notice, pursuant to the 9th section of the Act 5 and 6 Victoria, cap. 110, intituled "An Act for the better preserving the Navigation of the River Mersey," that they have received from Mr. John White, Estate Agent, of Warrington, a notice, given pursuant to the provisions of the abovementioned Act, of his intention, on behalf of Sir Gilbert Greenall, Bart., M.P., to construct a wharf on the left bank of the River Mersey, near Walton Arches, in accordance with plans deposited at this office, a copy of which notice is subjoined.

GEO. HENRY RICHARDS, Admiral and Acting Conservator.

"To the Acting Conservator of the River Mersey.

"Under the provisions of the Mersey Conservancy Act (5 and 6 Vic., cap. 110) I beg to give you notice on behalf of Sir Gilbert Greenall, Bart., M.P., of Walton Hall, near Warrington, of his intention to construct a wharf on the left bank of the River Mersey, about 25 yards to the west of the new railway bridge now being erected across the river at Walton Arches, in the township of Lower Walton, Cheshire, such wharf to be 70 feet long, to be constructed of timber piling, and to be commenced on or about the 1st day of August next. The work will not project further into the river than the abutments of the adjacent railway bridge, and, it is believed, will not, to any appreciable extent, exclude, impede, or interrupt the tidal or other waters of the said River Mersey, or of any river, pool, creek, or inlet communicating therewith.

"Dated this 10th day of April, 1890.

"(Signed) JOHN WHITE,

"Agent for the said Sir Gilbert Greenall.

Yokohama Bay—Light-vessels Marking Heads of Breakwaters in Progress.

THE Japanese Government has given notice, that on 20th March, 1890, and during the construction of two breakwaters in Yokohama Bay, lights would be exhibited from light-vessels placed to mark the East and North Breakwater Heads, and to guide vessels entering or leaving the harbour through the fairway between them:—

The East Breakwater will extend in a northerly direction about nine cables from a position about one cable north-eastward of Nakamura Gawa (creek in foreign settlement) entrance, eastern part of Yokohama. The North Breakwater will extend in a south-east direction about  $1\frac{1}{10}$  miles from a position about two cables eastward of the east angle of Kanagawa Fort. A channel for boats will be left between the inner end of either breakwater and the shore.

East Breakwater Light-vessel shows a fixed green light, elevated 32 feet above the sea, and visible in clear weather from a distance of about four miles. The vessel, painted green, with a green ball at the masthead, is moored in five fathoms water, about one cable eastward of the breakwater head.

North Breakwater Light-vessel shows a fixed red light, elevated 32 feet above the sea, and visible in clear weather from a distance of about four miles. The vessel, painted red, with a red ball at the masthead, is moored in five fathoms water, about one cable eastward of the breakwater head.

NOTE.—Vessels entering or leaving the harbour must pass between the light-vessels, which are about one cable apart. Entering, they should, to clear the breakwater heads, steer West (as nearly as possible) for a distance of at least two cables after passing the light-vessels, and when leaving, steer East for at least two cables before coming to the light-vessels.

Information concerning certain Dangerous Sunken Wrecks.

WITH reference to Notice to Mariners, Nos. 11, 57, and 74 of 1890, on the existence of two dangerous sunken wrecks in the North Sea—the following particulars are now promulgated for the guidance of Mariners, until more precise information can be given:—

The two large steamers "Gaw Quan Sia" and "Leerdam" collided in a fog on 16th December, 1889, both steamers eventually sinking within a mile of one another, after floating for about twelve hours.

From the circumstances of weather, and drift, the positions were very doubtful, and they have since been reported as follows, by different passing vessels:—

1. Lat. 52° 10' N., long. 3° 14' E.

2. Lat. 52° 24' N., long. 3° 21' E.

3. Lat. 52° 27' N., long. 3° 2' E.

4. Lat. 51° 58' N., long. 3° 2' E.

The last position is however undoubtedly the most accurate, having been obtained by the salvage steamer "John Dixon," on 8th January, 1890, when she observed a latitude at noon alongside the wreck of the "Gaw Quan Sia," the longitude being by dead reckoning.

The topmasts of both vessels, and the "Leerdam's" topsail yard, were at first out of water, but by the time Her Majesty's ship "Penguin," sent especially in January to accurately fix the positions, arrived, these had been broken off, and nothing remained to show their positions. "Penguin" was therefore unable to carry out this service.

There is now however no doubt that the heads of the four lower masts, which are of iron, present a great danger to shipping, as the depth of these below the surface at low water cannot be much more than 15 feet, and may be considerably less, both vessels having lower masts of 100 feet from keel to cap. The stumps of the topmasts probably also project above the caps.

The report of Messrs. Gann, who have been waiting for fine weather to attempt to find the "Gaw Quan Sia," and commence salvage operations, is as follows:—

"Leerdam" lies about a mile N.N.W. of 'Gaw Quan Sia.' Both vessels are quite upright. Depth alongside 'Gaw Quan Sia' 19 fathoms, and about one fathom less alongside 'Leerdam.'

"A spar, lying flat on the water, was moored as a buoy close to the 'Gaw Quan Sia' on 8th January, but has not since been seen."

The wreck of "Gaw Quan Sia" has been placed on Admiralty Charts in lat. 51° 58' N., long. 3° 2' E. The other wreck one mile to N.N.W.; and a note "one fathom over iron masts, position approximate," written against them.

CAUTION.—As these wrecks lie, whatever their precise positions, in the track of vessels passing through the North Sea between the Strait of Dover and the north, and in other directions, the greatest care is necessary to avoid passing near the positions given.
