April 22, 1890.*

NOTICE is hereby given, that The Queen will hold Drawing Rooms at Buckingham Palace, on Friday, the 9th, and on Friday, the 16th, of May (instead of Thursday, the 15th, as previously announced), at three o'clock.

REGULATIONS TO BE OBSERVED AT THE QUEEN'S DRAWING ROOMS.

By Her Majesty's Command,
The Ladies who propose to attend Her Majesty's Drawing Rooms are requested to bring with them to the Drawing Room two large cards, with their names clearly written thereon, one to be left with The Queen's Page in Attendance, and the other to be delivered to the Lord Chamberlain, who will announce the name to The Queen.

The Lady who proposes to present another must send in writing the name of such Lady to the Lord Chamberlain's Office, not later than two days previous to the Drawing Room, in order that the Lord Chamberlain may submit the name to Her Majesty, when, if it be approved, presentation cards will be forwarded.

Printed Forms for this purpose can be obtained at the Lord Chamberlain's Office.

It is particularly requested that the names of the Lady to be presented be very distinctly written on the presentation cards to be delivered to the Lord Chamberlain at the Drawing Room, in order that there may be no difficulty in announcing them to The Queen.

It is not expected that Gentlemen will present themselves at a Drawing Room, except in attendance on the Ladies of their families.

Any Gentleman who under these circumstances should desire to be presented to The Queen will observe the same regulations as are in force for Her Majesty's Levees.

possession, Her Majesty may, by the Order in Council applying the said Acts in the case of any foreign State, or by any subsequent Order, suspend the operation within any such British possession of the said Acts, or of any part thereof, so far as it relates to such foreign State, and so long as such Law continues in force there and no longer :

And whereas by an Act of the Parliament of Canada passed in 1886, and entitled "An Act respecting the Extradition of Fugitive Criminals," provision is made for carrying into effect within the Dominion the surrender of fugitive criminals :

And whereas by an Order of Her Majesty the Queen in Council, dated the seventeenth day of November, one thousand eight hundred and eighty-eight, it was directed that the operation of the Extradition Acts, 1870 and 1873, should be suspended within the Dominion of Canada so long as the provision of the said Act of the Parliament of Canada of 1886 should continue in force and no longer :

And whereas a Treaty was concluded on the fourteenth day of August, one thousand eight hundred and seventy-six between Her Majesty and The President of the French Republic, for the mutual extradition of fugitive criminals, in the case of which Treaty the above-mentioned Acts of Parliament were applied by an Order in Council of the sixteenth of May, one thousand eight hundred and seventy-eight :

And whereas an Arrangement was concluded on the thirty-first day of December, one thousand eight hundred and eighty-nine, between the Government of Her Majesty and the Government of the French Republic, acting in the name of the Government of His Highness The Bey of Tunis, for extending the provisions of the said Treaty of August 14, 1876, to Tunis, which Arrangement is in the terms following :—

"THE Government of Her Britannic Majesty on the one part, and the Government of the French Republic, acting in the name of the Government of His Highness the Bey of Tunis, on the other part, with a view to insure as far as possible the arrest and delivery to the competent jurisdiction of criminals who seek to escape by flight from the action of justice, have agreed as follows :—

"The provisions of the Anglo-French Convention of the fourteenth August, one thousand eight hundred and seventy-six, are extended to Tunis, except that the period of fourteen days, stipulated by Article IX of the said Convention, is prolonged to two months.

"The present Arrangement shall have the same duration as the Convention of Extradition to which it relates.

"In witness whereof the Undersigned his Excellency the Earl of Lytton, Her Britannic Majesty's Ambassador at Paris, and his Excellency M. Spuller, Minister for Foreign Affairs of the French Republic, have prepared the present Arrangement, and have affixed thereto their seals.

"Done at Paris, the thirty-first day of December, one thousand eight hundred and eighty-nine.

Now, therefore, Her Majesty, by and with the advice of Her Privy Council, and in virtue of the authority committed to Her by the said recited Acts, doth order, and it is hereby ordered, that from and after the sixteenth day of May, one thousand eight hundred and ninety, the said Acts shall apply in the case of Tunis in conformity with the said Arrangement with the French Republic.

Provided always, and it is hereby further ordered that the operation of the said Extradition Acts, 1870 and 1873, shall be suspended within the Dominion of Canada so far as relates to Tunis and to the said Arrangement, and so long as the provisions of the Canadian Act aforesaid of 1886 continue in force, and no longer.

PRESENT,

The QUEEN's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS by the thirtieth section of "The Weights and Measures Act, 1889," it is enacted that Her Majesty the Queen may, from time to time, on the application of the local authority for any area, and on being satisfied that the provisions made by or under any Local Act in force at the commencement of "The Weights and Measures Act, 1889," with respect to the sale of coal in that area, are more stringent than the corresponding provisions of the said Act, by Order in Council exempt that area from the provisions of the second part of the Act to such extent, and under such conditions, as may appear to Her Majesty in Council expedient:

And whereas it has been made to appear, and Her Majesty has been satisfied, that the provisions of the eighty-sixth section of "The Nottingham Improvement Act, 1874," with respect to the distance to which coals in carts may be required to be carried to be re-weighed are more stringent than the corresponding provisions of "The Weights and Measures Act, 1889":

Now, therefore, Her Majesty, in exercise of the powers vested in Her by the said "Weights and Measures Act, 1889," by and with the advice of Her Privy Council, is pleased to direct that from and after the date of this Order, the area comprised in the said borough of Nottingham shall be exempted from the following provisions (subsection [a]) of the twenty-seventh section of "The Weights and Measures Act, 1889," namely:—

No seller of coal or person in charge of a vehicle in which coal is carried shall be required under this section to carry coal beyond such distance, not exceeding half a mile, as may be prescribed in that behalf by the Local Authority.

or perpetual right of patronage of and presentation to the church and cure (hereinafter called 'the said benefice') of the consolidated chapelry of Saint John the Baptist Holland-road Kensington in the county of Middlesex and in the diocese of London.

"Whereas the advowson or perpetual right of patronage of and presentation to the said benefice of Saint John the Baptist, Holland-road, Kensington, is vested saving the next two turns of presentation in the Bishop of the said diocese of London and his successors.

"And whereas under the circumstances thus set forth it appears to us the said Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England that the transfer of the advowson of the same benefice saving the next two turns which is hereinbefore mentioned and hereinafter proposed will tend to make better provision for the cure of souls in the parish or district in or in respect of which the right of patronage or advowson so recommended and proposed to be transferred as aforesaid arises or exists that is to say in the consolidated chapelry of Saint John the Baptist Holland-road, Kensington.

"And we further recommend and propose that nothing herein contained shall prevent us from recommending and proposing any further or other measures relating to the matters aforesaid or any of them in accordance with the provisions of the said Acts or of any other Act of Parliament."
