

and seventy-six, twenty-seventh June one thousand eight hundred and seventy-six, ninth December one thousand eight hundred and seventy-six, and fifteenth July one thousand eight hundred and eighty-one, Her Majesty did, by and with the advice of Her Privy Council, order, among other matters, that a Lower Division of the Civil Service should be constituted, to consist of Men Clerks and Boy Clerks engaged to serve in any Department of the State to which they might from time to time be appointed or transferred: that the salaries of such Men Clerks should commence at eighty pounds and should rise by triennial increments of fifteen pounds to two hundred pounds; but that in any office where a regular attendance of seven hours a day was required, the commencing salary might be ninety-five pounds and the maximum salary two hundred and fifty pounds:

And whereas by an Order in Council dated the twenty-first March one thousand eight hundred and ninety it was provided that the Lower Division should thenceforth be called the Second Division and that Second Division Clerks appointed after the twenty-eighth May one thousand eight hundred and eighty-nine should give a regular attendance of seven hours a day and commence at a salary of seventy pounds rising by annual increments as hereinafter provided:

And whereas it is provided by an Order in Council of the fourth June one thousand eight hundred and seventy that no person shall be appointed to any office or employment in any of Her Majesty's Civil Establishments until a certificate of qualification shall have been issued by the Civil Service Commissioners after examination:

And whereas under clause seven of the said Order in Council of the fourth June one thousand eight hundred and seventy the Civil Service Commissioners may, with the consent of the Commissioners of the Treasury in certain cases, dispense with examination wholly or partially and may grant their certificates of qualification on evidence satisfactory to them:

And whereas it appears that certain Men Copyists were approved by the Commissioners of the Treasury before the twenty-eighth May one thousand eight hundred and eighty-nine for appointment to the Lower Division under clause seven of the said Order in Council of the fourth June one thousand eight hundred and seventy, but that certificates of their qualification were not issued by the Civil Service Commissioners before the said twenty-eighth May one thousand eight hundred and eighty-nine:

Now therefore Her Majesty, by and with the advice of Her Privy Council is pleased to order, and it is hereby ordered, as follows:—

Any Man Copyist who was approved by the Commissioners of the Treasury before the twenty-eighth May one thousand eight hundred and eighty-nine for appointment to a Man Clerkship of the Lower Division under clause seven of the said Order in Council of the fourth June one thousand eight hundred and seventy, shall on appointment receive the initial rate of salary in force for Men Clerks of the Lower Division before the twenty-eighth May one thousand eight hundred and eighty-nine, but shall in other respects be subject to the provisions of the Order in Council of the twenty-first March one thousand eight hundred and ninety determining the constitution of the Second Division of the Civil Service.

C. L. Peel.

AT the Court at Windsor, the 1st day of May, 1890.

PRESENT,

The QUEEN's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS by an Order in Council bearing date the seventh day of February, one thousand eight hundred and eighty-eight, Her Majesty was pleased to order that a Police Court Division therein defined should be constituted and be assigned to a Police Court to be called the Dalston Police Court which was then to be erected or fitted up at a place which was therein specified. And whereas a Police Court has been erected at such place and is called the Dalston Police Court.

And whereas it has been represented to Her Majesty by divers inhabitants of the division assigned to the said Court that the area over which the said Court has jurisdiction comprises not only the comparatively small district of Dalston but also other large and important parishes and parts of parishes, and that it is desirable that such Court should be henceforth known by the name of "The North London Police Court."

Her Majesty is pleased with the advice of Her Privy Council to order and direct and it is hereby ordered and directed that such Police Court shall henceforth be known and called by the name of "The North London Police Court."

And the Right Honourable Henry Matthews one of Her Majesty's Principal Secretaries of State is to give the necessary directions herein accordingly.

C. L. Peel.

AT the Court at Windsor, the 1st day of May, 1890.

PRESENT,

The QUEEN's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS by section sixteen of "The Fluoridities Act, 1838," it is, amongst other things, enacted, "That whenever it shall appear to the Archbishop of the Province, with respect to his own diocese, and whenever it shall be represented to him by the Bishop of any diocese, or by the Bishops of any two dioceses, that two or more benefices, or that one or more benefice or benefices, and one or more spiritual sinecure rectory or rectories, vicarage or vicarages, in his or their diocese or dioceses, being either in the same parish or contiguous to each other, and of which the aggregate population shall not exceed one thousand five hundred persons, may, with advantage to the interests of religion, be united into one benefice, the said Archbishop of the Province shall inquire into the circumstances of the case; and if on such inquiry it shall appear to him that such union may be usefully made, and will not be of inconvenient extent, and that the patron or patrons of the said benefices, sinecure rectory or rectories, vicarage or vicarages respectively, is or are consenting thereto, such consent being signified in writing under the hands of such patron or patrons, the said Archbishop shall, six weeks before certifying such inquiry and consent to Her Majesty as herein after directed, cause with respect to his own diocese, a statement in writing of the facts, and in other cases a copy in writing of the aforesaid representation to be affixed on or near the principal outer door of the church, or in some public and conspicuous place in each of such benefices, sinecure rectories, or vicarages, with notice to any person or persons interested, that he, she, or they, may, within such six weeks, show cause in