Lord Chamberlain's Office, St. James's Palace,
May 23, 1890.

NOTICE is hereby given, that His Royal Highness The Prince of Wales will, by command of The Queen, hold a Levee at St. James's Palace, on behalf of Her Majesty, on Monday, the 16th of June, at two o'clock.

It is The Queen's pleasure that Presentations to His Royal Highness at the Levee shall be considered as equivalent to Presentations to Her Majesty.

REGULATIONS

TO BE OBSERVED AT THE QUEEN'S LEVEE TO BE HELD BY HIS ROYAL HIGHNESS THE PRINCE OF WALES, ON BEHALF OF HER MAJESTY, AT ST. JAMES'S PALACE.

By Her Majesty's Command,

Gentlemen who propose to attend Her Majesty's Levees, are requested to bring with them two large cards, with their names clearly written thereon, one to be left with The Queen's Page in attendance in the Corridor, and the other to be delivered to the Lord Chamberlain, who will announce the name to His Royal Highness.

PRESENTATIONS.

Gentlemen who propose to present others must send in writing the name of such Gentlemen to the Lord Chamberlain's Office, not later than two days previous to the Levee, in order that the Lord Chamberlain may submit the names to Her Majesty, when, if they are approved, Presentation Cards will be forwarded. Forms for the purpose can be obtained at the Lord Chamberlain's Office.

Gentlemen who wish to be presented officially should communicate with the heads of their Department, who will provide them with the necessary cards and instructions.

It is particularly requested that the names of the Gentlemen to be presented be very distinctly written on the Presentation Cards delivered to the Lord Chamberlain at the Levee, in order that there may be no difficulty in announcing them to His Royal Highness.

LATHOM,
Lord Chamberlain.

AT the Court at Windsor, the 17th day of May, 1890.

PRESENT,

The QUEEN's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England have, in pursuance of the Act of the twenty-third and twenty-fourth years of Her Majesty, chapter one hundred and forty-two, duly prepared and laid before Her Majesty in Council a scheme bearing date the sixth day of February, in the year one thousand eight hundred and ninety, in the words and figures following, that is to say:—

"We, the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, acting in pursuance of the Act of the twenty-third and twenty-fourth years of Your Majesty, chapter one hundred and forty-two, have prepared and now humbly lay before Your Majesty in Council, the following scheme for effecting an union of two contiguous benefices, situate within the city and diocese of London; to wit, the benefice (being a rectory) of Saint Martin, Ludgate, and the benefice (being an united rectory), of Saint Mary Magdalen, Old Fish-street, with Saint Gregory by Saint Paul.

"Whereas the Right Honourable and Right Reverend Frederick, Bishop of the said diocese of London, has caused proposals (being amended proposals) for a scheme for effecting an union of the said two benefices to be laid before us, which proposals are prepared under the seventh and eighth sections of the said Act, and are approved by the said Frederick, Bishop of the said diocese of London, and are assented to by the Dean and Chapter of the Cathedral Church of Saint Paul, London, who are the patrons of the said rectory of Saint Martin, Ludgate, and are also the patrons of the united rectory of Saint Mary Magdalen, Old Fish-street, with Saint Gregory by Saint Paul, and the same proposals are also assented to, subject to certain modifications, by the vestries of the three parishes concerned; that is to say, by the vestry of the parish of Saint Martin, Ludgate, by the vestry of the parish of Saint Mary Magdalen, Old Fish-street, and by the vestry of the parish of Saint Gregory by Saint Paul.

"And whereas it appears to us to be expedient that the said proposed union of the said two benefices should be effected, and that such arrangements relating thereto, and to the other matters hereinafter contained should be made as are hereinafter mentioned.

"And whereas the said Frederick, Bishop of
