WHEREAS the study of Modern History is constantly increasing in the University and it is therefore desirable that some portion of the income of the College should be expended in the encouragement of that study. And whereas the College is at present obliged by its Statutes to support five Scholarships for the encouragement of the study of Mathematics for which purpose four Scholarships would suffice.

We the Master and Fellows of the said College desire to change one of the above-named Scholarships into two Exhibitions for the encouragement of the study of Modern History and for this purpose in exercise of the powers given to us by section 54 of the said Act and by Statute XI of the College Statutes alter and amend Statute V of the College Statutes.

By substituting in clause 1 line two the word "sixteen" for "seventeen" and in line eleven the word "four" for "five."

By adding to clause 6 the words "Two Exhibitions founded by the College, out of the Linton Fund and called Linton Exhibitions."

By adding in clause 7 line three after the word "Gunsley" the words "and also the Linton Exhibitions."

By inserting between the present clauses 13 and 14 the following clause to be hereafter numbered 14.

The two Linton Exhibitions shall be of the annual value of not less than forty pounds and shall be awarded for special proficiency in Modern History. No person shall be eligible who on the day of election shall have exceeded the age of twenty-one years or have completed the eighth term from that of his matriculation inclusive.

By changing the numbers of the clauses from 14-20 inclusive to 15-21 inclusive.

Given under our common seal this fourth day of June one thousand eight hundred and ninety.
