

(a.) Steamers and vessels in general, arriving from the Arabian Coast of the Red Sea, which have been submitted to a quarantine of only ten days at some lazaretto on the Red Sea, and which passed the Suez Canal under quarantine, shall be submitted to five days' observation, commencing from the day of their examination by the competent sanitary authority. The observation will be carried out in the Ports of the Kingdom where there exists a health officer of the first class, and at the Lazaretto of Delos, if no case of cholera has happened during the voyage; and,

(b.) Steamers and vessels in general, arriving from the Arabian Coast of the Red Sea, which have not been submitted to a quarantine in the Red Sea, but which having crossed the Suez Canal under quarantine, entered into the Mediterranean, shall be submitted to a quarantine of eleven days, to be counted from the day of their examination by the health officer, and to be performed at the Lazaretto at Delos.

With regard to merchandise shipped at the Arabian coast of the Red Sea, the provisions of our Decrees of the 19th July, 1866, and 15th November, 1873, shall be applied.

The same Minister shall publish and execute the present Decree.
