Published by Authority.

TUESDAY, NOVEMBER 4, 1890.

Lord Chamberlain's Office, St. James's Palace, November 4, 1890.

NOTICE is hereby given, that the State Apartments of Windsor Castle will be closed after Saturday next, the 8th instant, until further orders.

[The following Order in Council is substituted for that which appeared in the London Gazette of the 28th October, 1890, owing to a typical error by which the date of the Order appeared as 30th October, 1890, instead of 21st October, 1890.]

AT the Court at Balmoral, the 21st day of October, 1890.

PRESENT,

The QUEEN's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS by an Act passed in the session of Parliament held in the twentieth and twenty-first years of Her Majesty's reign, intituled "An Act to amend the Burial Acts," it is, amongst other things, enacted, that it shall be lawful for Her Majesty, upon the representation of one of Her Majesty's Principal Secretaries of State, by and with the advice of Her Privy Council, from time to time to order such acts to be done by or under the directions of the churchwardens or such other persons as may have the care of any vaults or places of burial, for preventing them from becoming or continuing dangerous or injurious to the public health; and that every such Order in Council shall be published in the London Gazette, and that such churchwardens or other persons shall do or cause to be done all acts ordered as aforesaid, and the expenses incurred in and about the doing thereof shall be paid out of the poor rates of the parish; Provided always, that no such representation shall be made until ten days' previous notice of the intention to make such representation shall have been given to the churchwardens or other persons, or one of the churchwardens or other persons, having the care of the vaults or places of burial to which the representation relates:

And whereas the Right Honourable Henry Matthews, one of Her Majesty's Principal Secretaries of State, after ten days' previous notice of his intention to make such representation having been duly given to the churchwardens of the district church of Holy Trinity, in the parish of Saint Mary Newington or other person or persons having the care of the vaults beneath the said church, has made a representation, stating that, for the purpose of preventing the vaults under the said church from becoming or continuing dangerous or injurious to the public health, an Order should be made for the adoption of the measures which are hereinafter set forth:

Now, therefore, Her Majesty, by and with the advice of Her Privy Council, is pleased to order, and it is hereby ordered, that the churchwardens or other persons having the care of the said vaults do adopt, or cause to be adopted, the following measures, viz.:—

- (1.) That the coffins contained in the said vaults be deposited in a compartment of the vaults situated below the church porch, and be forthwith covered with clean dry earth and powdered charcoal.
- (2.) That this compartment be securely bricked up and a ventilating tube carried from it to the roof of the church.
- (3.) That the work be carried out under the supervision, and to the satisfaction of the Medical Officer of Health of the District.

AT the Court at Balmoral, the 21st day of October, 1890.

PRESENT,

The QUEEN's Most Excellent Majesty in Council,

WHEREAS, Archibald Bence Bence-Jones, Barrister-at-Law, duly appointed in pursuance of the Walsall Corporation Act 1890, as Commissioner for determining the boundaries of the Wards of the borough of Walsall, and for apportioning the Councillors thereto, has transmitted to one of Her Majesty's Principal Secretaries of State his scheme in the following terms:—

"WALSALL CORPORATION ACT, 1890.

"Borough of Walsall.

"WHEREAS by the Walsall Corporation Act 1890 it was provided that the extended borough should be divided into eight Wards with such boundaries and names as should be determined by a Commissioner to be for that purpose appointed by Her Majesty's Principal Secretary of State for the Home Department within three weeks after the passing of the said Act.
