*Board of Trade (Harbour Department),
London, December 2, 1890.*

THE Board of Trade have received, through the Secretary of State for Foreign Affairs, a Despatch, dated November 29, from Her Majesty's Representative at Copenhagen, transmitting the following Translation of a Notice by the Danish Government, dated November 21:—

Small-pox being officially declared epidemic in St. Petersburg, the provisions of the law for the prevention of the introduction of contagious disorders into the kingdom, of July 2, 1880, section I. 2, shall take effect until further notice, with respect to vessels arriving from or having had communication with St. Petersburg, and, in accordance with § 32 of that law, the importation into the kingdom is forbidden of used linen, worn clothing, and used bedding, unless constituting part of travellers' personal effects, rags, used wadding, carded wool, and paper waste. Purification is ordered, under official supervision, of linen, bedding, and clothing bought as personal effects by travellers from St. Petersburg. Quarantine remains in force with respect to Spanish Mediterranean ports. The provisions of section I. 2 of the above law hold good in regard to the following places:—Marseilles, Venice, all Egyptian ports, ports in Tonkin and Cochin China, ports in the East Indies, including the Dutch Colonies, Red Sea ports, the Persian Gulf, Japan, Lisbon, Syrian ports, and St. Petersburg.

Importation from the foregoing places into Denmark of the various articles enumerated above is forbidden. Purification of travellers' personal effects (bedding, &c.) is ordered as above.

Importation of fruits and vegetables growing either in or in proximity to the soil is forbidden as far as concerns Spain.

Inland Revenue, Somerset House,
London, December 2, 1890.

INCOME TAX.

WHEREAS by the Taxes Management Act, 1880 (43 and 44 Vict., ch. 19), power is given for increasing in certain cases the number of persons appointed, under the provisions made by the Income Tax Act of 1842, Commissioners for the general purposes of the Income Tax, and persons to supply vacancies amongst such Commissioners in each district or division in Great Britain; and it appearing to the Board of Inland Revenue that the number of persons so appointed for the division of Amounderness, in the county of Lancaster, is insufficient for the proper discharge of the business therein arising under the Tax Acts, the said Board hereby authorize the increase in the number of the Commissioners for the said division to any number not exceeding fourteen, and of persons to supply vacancies amongst such Commissioners to any number not exceeding fourteen; and we, the undersigned, two members of the said Board, do hereby convene a meeting of the persons appointed for putting in execution within the said county an Act passed in the 38th year of the reign of King George the Third, intituled "An Act for granting an aid to His Majesty by a Land Tax to be raised in Great Britain for the service of the year 1798," being respectively qualified to act as Commissioners in the execution of the last-mentioned Act, to be holden at the Office of the Clerk to the Commissioners, in Preston, on Tuesday, the 9th day of December, 1890, at half-past ten o'clock in the forenoon, for the purpose of choosing and appointing, according to the regulations of the said Income Tax Act of 1842, such number of fit and proper persons to be Commissioners for general purposes for the said division of Amounderness, and of persons to supply vacancies amongst such Commissioners, as may be sufficient to increase the number of such Commissioners to any number not exceeding fourteen, and of persons to supply vacancies amongst such Commissioners to any number not exceeding fourteen.
