And whereas by the sixth section of "The Pharmacy Act, 1868" (31 and 32 Victoria, cap. cxxi), it is provided that no person shall conduct any examination for the purposes of that Act until his appointment has been approved by the Privy Council:

And whereas it appears that the persons appointed are, as required by the Bye-laws of the Society, under the age of 65 years, that none of them have held office as Members of the Council during the preceding twelve months, and that no objection exists to the approval of the Lords of the Council being given to such appointments:

Now, therefore, their Lordships are pleased to approve the appointments of the said persons as Examiners for the year 1891 for the purposes of the Pharmacy Act, 1868.

*Board of Trade (Harbour Department),
London, December 10, 1890.*

THE Board of Trade have received, through the Secretary of State for the Colonies, a copy of a Notice, dated November 17, from the High Commissioner of Cyprus, rescinding the order, dated the 1st November, 1890, respecting arrivals from the port of Mersina, and directing that such arrivals shall undergo quarantine as prescribed in the Notice of the 16th October, 1890.

(H. 7643.)

*Board of Trade (Harbour Department),
London, December 10, 1890.*

THE Board of Trade have received, through the Secretary of State for the Colonies, the following Notice, dated November 21, from the High Commissioner of Cyprus:—Under the powers vested in him by "The Quarantine Ordinance, 1879," His Excellency the High Commissioner is pleased to direct that:—

1. All vessels arriving in any port or part of Cyprus, except the port of Larnaca, from any part of the coast of Caramania and Syria between but not including the ports Adalia and Beyrout, unless they have both undergone quarantine of not less than ten clear days at an intermediate port and are provided with a clean bill of health, shall be repelled.

2. No passengers, except those domiciled in Cyprus or coming to Cyprus on Government business, shall be allowed to land under any circumstances from vessels arriving at the port of Larnaca from any part of the coast of Caramania and Syria, between but not including the ports of Adalia and Beyrout, unless such vessels have both undergone quarantine of at least ten clear days at an intermediate port, and are provided with a clean bill of health.

3. Vessels arriving at the port of Larnaca from any part of the coast of Casamania and Syria, between but not including the ports of Adalia and Beyrout, shall be placed in quarantine for at least ten clear days, unless such vessels have both undergone quarantine of at least ten clear days at an intermediate port and are provided with a clean bill of health. Any passengers permitted to land from such vessels shall be landed in quarantine, and shall undergo a quarantine of at least ten clear days from the date of leaving the ship. Passengers' baggage and merchandise shall be landed in quarantine, and shall undergo, at the risk and cost of the owner or consignee, such disinfection as may be considered necessary by the Superintendent of Quarantine. Rags shall be repelled. Mails, except those forwarded in tarred bags from non-infected countries, shall be landed in quarantine and delivered by the postal authorities with all possible despatch.

4. All vessels arriving in Cyprus from Beyrout shall, until further orders, be subjected to strict medical inspection, and if, in the opinion of the health officer making the inspection, there are reasonable grounds for doubt as to the expediency of admitting any such vessel to pratique, such officer shall refuse to admit such vessel to pratique, and shall direct such vessel to proceed to Larnaca.

5. Nothing in the foregoing regulations shall be held to prevent the Chief Superintendent of Quarantine, should he think it advisable, from refusing to admit any vessel to pratique.

THE PLEURO-PNEUMONIA ORDER OF 1891.

By the Board of Agriculture.

THE Board of Agriculture, by virtue and in exercise of the powers in them vested under The Board of Agriculture Act, 1889, and The Contagious Diseases (Animals) Acts, 1878 to 1890, and of every other power enabling them in this behalf, do order, and it is hereby ordered, as follows:

Short Title.

1. This Order may be cited as The Pleuro-Pneumonia Order of 1891.

Extent.

2. This Order extends to England and Wales and Scotland.

Commencement.

3. This Order shall commence and take effect from and immediately after the thirty-first day of December, one thousand eight hundred and ninety.

Interpretation.

4. In this Order—

The Act of 1878 means The Contagious Diseases (Animals) Act, 1878:

The Act of 1886 means The Contagious Diseases (Animals) Act, 1886:

The Act of 1890 means The Contagious Diseases (Animals) (Pleuro-Pneumonia) Act, 1890:

The Acts of 1878 to 1890 means The Contagious Diseases (Animals) Acts, 1878 to 1890:

The Board means the Board of Agriculture:

Infected Place means a Place for the time being a Place infected with pleuro-pneumonia under the Act of 1878:

Cattle means bulls, cows, oxen, heifers, and calves:

Fat cattle means cattle intended for slaughter:

Expose means expose for sale or in any manner put up or offer for sale, or exhibit at an exhibition:

Landing-place for foreign animals means any dock, quay, wharf, or other place approved by the Board for the landing of, and includes any lands, buildings, or premises so approved for the lairage of, foreign animals not subject to slaughter or quarantine:

Carcase means the carcase of a head of cattle, and includes part of such a carcase, and the meat, bones, hide, skin, hoofs, horns, offal, or other part of a head of cattle, separately or otherwise, or any portion thereof:

Article means Article of this Order:

Form means a Form given in the Schedules to The Animals Order of 1886, including the directions and notes in and on a Form:

Other terms have the same meaning and scope as in the Act of 1878.

Revocation of Order.

5. The Pleuro-Pneumonia Order of 1890 dated the twenty-first day of August, one thousand eight hundred and ninety, is hereby from and after the commencement of this Order revoked: Provided that such revocation shall not—

(a.) revive any Order or part of any Order revoked by or otherwise affect the past operation of the Order hereby revoked;

(b.) invalidate or make unlawful anything done under the Order hereby revoked, or affect any licence or authority granted, or any right, title, obligation, or liability accrued thereunder, before the commencement of this Order, or interfere with the institution or prosecution of any proceeding in respect of any offence committed against, or any penalty incurred under, the said Order hereby revoked before the commencement of this Order;

(c.) exempt any Local Authority from the obligation to slaughter, and to pay compensation for, any cattle which became liable to be slaughtered by them before the commencement of the Order hereby revoked;

(d.) the provisions of The Pleuro-Pneumonia Slaughter Order of 1888 shall continue to apply to the slaughter of such cattle and to the payment of compensation for the same as if the Order hereby revoked and this Order had not been made.

Revocation of Regulations of Local Authorities.

6.—(1.) All Regulations made by any Local Authority—

(a.) under Article 14 (Regulations of Local Authority as to Movement into their District from other Districts);

(b.) under Article 15 (Regulations of Local Authority as to Movement of Cattle within their District);

(c.) under Article 17 (Regulations of Local Authority as to Landing of Cattle from Ireland);

(d.) under Article 25 (Regulations of Local Authority as to Markets &c. on Account of Pleuro-Pneumonia); and of The Pleuro-Pneumonia Order of 1890 and in force at the commencement of this Order are hereby revoked.

(2.) Provided that this revocation shall not apply to or affect any Regulation made by a Local Authority for prohibiting or regulating the removal of carcasses or for securing the burial or destruction of the same, and in force at the commencement of this Order.

Duty of Police on Notice of Pleuro-Pneumonia.

7.—(1.) The constable to whom notice of the fact of a head of cattle being affected with pleuro-pneumonia, or with disease supposed to be pleuro-pneumonia, is given, under Section thirty-one of the Act of 1878, shall immediately transmit the information by telegraph or other rapid means to the Director, Veterinary Department, Board of Agriculture, St. James's-square, London, S.W.

(2.) The constable shall also forthwith give information of the receipt by him of the notice to an Inspector of the Local Authority, who shall forthwith report the same to the Local Authority.

Optional Notice of Disease or Illness.

8. Any person having in his possession or under his charge a head of cattle affected with pleuro-pneumonia, or with any illness, or suspected of being so affected, besides giving such notice to a constable as he is required by Section thirty-one of the Act of 1878 to give, may, if he thinks fit, give notice of the fact of the head of cattle being so affected, or suspected, to the Inspector of the Local Authority.

Duty of Inspector to act immediately.

9.—(1.) An Inspector of a Local Authority on receiving in any manner whatsoever information of the supposed existence of pleuro-pneumonia, or having reasonable ground to suspect the existence of pleuro-pneumonia, shall proceed with all practicable speed to the place where such pleuro-pneumonia, according to the information received by him, exists, or is suspected to exist, and shall there and elsewhere put in force and discharge the powers and duties by or under the Acts of 1878 to 1890, and any Order thereunder, conferred and imposed on him as Inspector.

(2.) The Inspector shall forthwith report to the Director, Veterinary Department, Board of Agriculture, St. James's-square, London, S.W., the information received by him, and his proceedings thereon.

No Movement into or out of Infected Place without Licence.

10. No cattle shall be moved into or out of an Infected Place, except with a Movement Licence of an Inspector of the Board, or of a person authorized by the Board to grant the same, and such cattle shall not be moved except in accordance with the conditions contained in such Licence.

Scheduled Districts.

11. For the purposes of this Order a Scheduled District means a District declared by Special Order of the Board to be a Pleuro-Pneumonia Scheduled District, which Scheduled District may include the whole or part of the District of a Local Authority, or the Districts or parts of Districts of two or more Local Authorities.

Movement out of Scheduled District.

12.—(1.) No cattle shall be moved out of a Scheduled District otherwise than in accordance with the following Regulations (that is to say):

(Regulation A.—Movement out of one Scheduled District into another Scheduled District.)

(2.) Cattle may be moved out of one Scheduled District into the District of any Local Authority situate within the limits of any other Scheduled District with a Movement Licence of the Local Authority of the District into which the cattle are to be moved.

(3.) A Licence for movement under this Regulation shall not authorize the movement of cattle through any District or part of a District of a Local Authority not being within one or other of the aforesaid Scheduled Districts otherwise than by railway without untrucking within such District or part of a District.

(4.) A Licence for movement under this Regulation may impose such conditions, if any, as the Local Authority granting the Licence think expedient.

(Regulation B.—Movement out of Scheduled District to a place not within the limits of a Scheduled District.)

(5.) Fat cattle may be moved out of a Scheduled District to a place not within the limits of a Scheduled District with a Movement Licence of the Local Authority of the District in which such place is situate.

(6.) The Licence for movement under this Regulation shall specify the place from which and the place to which the cattle are to be moved.

(7.) The Licence for movement under this Regulation shall be granted only on the following conditions (namely):

(a.) That every head of cattle shall before it is so moved be marked by and at the expense of the owner, consignee, or other person moving it, by the clipping of a broad arrow, not less than four inches long, on both hind quarters.

(b.) That no head of cattle so moved shall be exposed in or at any market, fair, sale-yard, or public lair, or other such place, or shall be moved into or through the District of any Local Authority other than the Local Authority granting the Licence otherwise than by railway without untrucking within that District.

(c.) That every head of cattle so moved shall be slaughtered within four days after the day on which the movement of the animal commences.

(8.) The foregoing conditions shall be specified in the Licence which may contain such further conditions, if any, as the Local Authority granting the Licence think expedient.

(Regulation C.—Movement by Licence of Inspector of Board.)

(9.) Without prejudice to the foregoing provisions of this Article and in addition thereto, cattle may be moved out of a Scheduled District in any circumstances with, and in accordance with, the conditions of a Movement Licence of an Inspector of the Board or of a person specially authorized by the Board to grant the same.

(Regulation D.—Exemption.)

(10.) Nothing in Regulation A or B shall be deemed to authorize movement of a head of cattle—

(a.) that is affected with pleuro-pneumonia; or

(b.) that is liable to be slaughtered under the provisions of The Contagious Diseases (Animals) Acts, 1878 to 1890, or any Order made thereunder; or

(c.) that is in a Pleuro-Pneumonia Infected Place.

(Regulation E.—Exception of Railways.)

(11.) Where the Board have declared a Scheduled District, there shall be deemed to be excepted from that District the lines of railway within that District so far as those lines are used or required for the transit of cattle through that District, without untrucking, and nothing in any Order of the Board declaring such District shall be deemed to interfere with that transit.

Regulations of Local Authority as to Movement of Cattle within their District by Special Authority of Board.

13. A Local Authority, if authorized by the Board to put in operation this Article, but not otherwise, may, with the view of preventing the spreading of pleuro-pneumonia, make such Regulations as they think fit for prohibiting or regulating the movement by land or by water of cattle in the whole of their District or in any part or parts thereof specified by the Board.

Limitation as to Regulations of Local Authorities.

14.—(1.) No Regulation made by a Local Authority under this Order shall be deemed to apply to the movement of—

(a.) cattle into any Place or Circle or Area for the time being a Place or Circle or Area infected with cattle-plague or pleuro-pneumonia or foot-and-mouth disease; or

(b.) cattle affected with pleuro-pneumonia; or

(c.) cattle by railway through the District of that Local Authority, without untrucking; which movement is regulated by the Acts of 1878 to 1890 and Orders issued thereunder.

(2.) No Regulation made by a Local Authority under this Order shall in any way prohibit regulate or apply to the movement of any head of cattle which is moved with and in accordance with the conditions of a Licence of an Inspector of the Board or of a person authorized by the Board to grant the same.

Prohibition of Movement of Cattle

15.—(1.) Where the Board have given Notice in writing to the owner of any cattle requiring that such cattle be detained in any field, shed, or other place, it shall not be lawful for any person, except with a Licence of the Board and in accordance with the conditions of such Licence—

- (a.) to move any of such cattle out of such field, shed, or other place;
- (b.) to move out of such field, shed, or other place any other cattle that may be therein;
- (c.) so long as any cattle to which the Notice applies are detained in such field, shed, or other place, to move any other cattle into the same;
- (d.) to permit any other cattle to come in contact with any cattle to which the Notice applies.

(2.) Any Notice or Licence under this Article may be given or granted by an Inspector of the Board or by a person authorized by the Board to give or grant the same.

Detention of Cattle that have been in Contact with Cattle Affected with Pleuro-Pneumonia.

16. Where it appears to a Local Authority that there is within their District any head of cattle which has been in the same field, shed, or other place, or in the same herd, or otherwise in contact, with any head of cattle affected with pleuro-pneumonia, or otherwise exposed to the infection thereof, that Local Authority shall forthwith report the facts of the case to the Board, addressed to the Director, Veterinary Department, Board of Agriculture, St. James's-square, London, S.W.

Pleuro-Pneumonia found in a Market, Railway Station, Grazing-Park, or other like Place, or during Transit.

17.—(1.) By virtue of Section twenty-seven of the Act of 1878, where any cattle are found to be affected with pleuro-pneumonia—

- (a.) while exposed for sale or exhibited in a market, fair, sale-yard, place of exhibition, or other place; or
- (b.) while placed in a lair or other place before exposure for sale; or
- (c.) while being in or on a landing-place or wharf or railway station or other place during transit; or
- (d.) while in course of being moved by land or by water; or
- (e.) while being on common or uninclosed land; or
- (f.) while being in a cow-shed, field, yard, farm, park, or other place wherein animals of different owners are taken in for shelter, or for rest, or for grazing, or for any other purpose; or
- (g.) while being in any other place not in the possession or occupation or under the control of the owner of the animal;

the Inspector of the Local Authority shall seize and detain all the cattle affected with pleuro-pneumonia and shall forthwith transmit the information by telegraph or other rapid means to the Director, Veterinary Department, Board of Agriculture, St. James's-square, London, S.W., and on the arrival of an Inspector of the Board or other person authorized by the Board to act in that behalf shall place the cattle so seized and detained in charge of the last-named Inspector or of such other person.

No. 26114.

(2.) It shall not be lawful for any person to move any cattle so detained without a Licence of an Inspector of the Board or of a person authorized by the Board to grant the same.

(3.) The market, fair, sale-yard, place of exhibition, lair, landing-place, wharf, railway station, land, water, common, uninclosed land, cow-shed, field, yard, farm, park, or other place aforesaid, or any part thereof, in or on which a head of cattle affected with pleuro-pneumonia is found in any case in which this Article applies shall not by reason thereof be declared to be an Infected Place or part of an Infected Place except by the Board.

(4.) Nothing in this Article shall apply to a Foreign Animals Wharf or to a Foreign Animals Quarantine Station or to a Landing-place for foreign animals.

Prohibition to Expose or Move Cattle affected with or Suspected of Pleuro-Pneumonia.

18. It shall not be lawful for any person—

(a.) To expose a head of cattle affected with or suspected of pleuro-pneumonia in a market or fair, or in a sale-yard, or other public or private place where animals are commonly exposed for sale.

(b.) To place a head of cattle affected with or suspected of pleuro-pneumonia in a lair or other place adjacent to or connected with a market or a fair, or where animals are commonly placed before exposure for sale.

(c.) To send or carry, or cause to be sent or carried, a head of cattle affected with or suspected of pleuro-pneumonia, on a railway, canal, river, or inland navigation, or in a coasting vessel.

(d.) To carry, lead, or drive, or cause to be carried, led, or driven, a head of cattle affected with or suspected of pleuro-pneumonia on a highway or thoroughfare.

(e.) To place or keep a head of cattle affected with or suspected of pleuro pneumonia on common or uninclosed land, or in a field or place insufficiently fenced, or in a field adjoining a highway unless that field is so fenced or situated that cattle therein cannot in any manner come in contact with cattle passing along that highway or grazing on the sides thereof.

(f.) To graze a head of cattle affected with or suspected of pleuro-pneumonia on pasture being on the sides of a highway.

(g.) To allow a head of cattle affected with or suspected of pleuro-pneumonia to stray on a highway or thoroughfare or on the sides thereof or on common or uninclosed land, or in a field or place insufficiently fenced.

Proceedings in Case of Contravention of last preceding Article.

19.—(1.) Where a head of cattle is exposed or otherwise dealt with in contravention of the last preceding Article, the Inspector or other officer of the Local Authority appointed in that behalf shall seize and remove and detain it, and shall forthwith transmit the information by telegraph or other rapid means to the Director, Veterinary Department, Board of Agriculture, St. James's-square, London, S.W., and on the arrival of an Inspector of the Board, or of a person authorized by the Board to act on his behalf, shall place the cattle so seized and detained in charge of the last-named Inspector or of such other person.

(2.) It shall not be lawful for any person to move any cattle so detained without a Licence of an Inspector of the Board or of a person authorized by the Board to grant the same.

Expenses.

20. The Local Authority may recover the expenses of the execution by them or by their Inspector or other officer of the provisions of the two last preceding Articles from the owner of the cattle seised, or from the consignor or consignee thereof, who may recover the same from the owner summarily.

Food and Water during Detention.

21. An Inspector, officer, or constable detaining a head of cattle under this Order shall cause it to be supplied with requisite food and water during its detention; and the expenses incurred by him in respect thereof may be recovered from the person having charge of the head of cattle, or from its owner, summarily.

Cleansing and Disinfection.

22.—(1.) The occupier of any place which has been used by any cattle which have been or are liable to be slaughtered under the Act of 1890 shall give all reasonable facilities to an Inspector of the Board or to any person appointed by him for the cleansing and disinfection of such place and all utensils, pens, hurdles, or other things used for or about such cattle.

(2.) No Regulation made by a Local Authority under Article 111 of The Animals Order of 1886, shall apply to such place or to such utensils, pens, hurdles, or other things.

Ascertainment of Value for Compensation in England and Wales.

23. Where in England or Wales any head of cattle is slaughtered by order of the Board under the provisions of the Act of 1890 the value of the head of cattle for compensation shall be ascertained as follows:

(i.) If within six days after the receipt of notice in writing from an Inspector or officer of the Board of the valuation of a head of cattle slaughtered under the Act of 1890, the owner does not give a counter-notice in writing, stating in effect that he disputes the valuation made on behalf of the Board, the compensation will be paid on that valuation.

(ii.) If the owner gives such a notice, then the question of the value of the animal shall by this Order stand referred to the arbitration of a single arbitrator, who shall make his award ready for delivery within seven days after he is appointed, and the provisions of The Arbitration Act, 1889 shall apply to the reference and arbitration, as if the same were pursuant to a submission, except in so far as that Act is inconsistent with the provisions of this Article.

(iii.) If a higher valuation is awarded than the valuation notified by the Board, then the Board will pay the costs of the reference and award and all costs incurred by the owner with respect to the arbitration, but otherwise the costs of the reference and award and all costs incurred by the Board with respect to the arbitration may be deducted by the Board from the sum payable to the owner as compensation under the award. The arbitrator may tax or settle the amount of costs to be paid by the owner or the Board under this Article.

Ascertainment of Value for Compensation in Scotland.

24. Where in Scotland a head of cattle is slaughtered by order of the Board under the provisions of the Act of 1890 the value of the head of cattle for compensation shall be ascertained as follows:

(i.) Failing agreement between the valuer appointed by the Board and the owner of such animal or his agent, the valuation shall be made by a valuer appointed by the Sheriff as hereinafter provided.

(ii.) As soon as may be after the date of this Order and from time to time the Sheriff of every county in Scotland may by order recorded in the Sheriff Court books appoint a sufficient number of persons (hereinafter called official valuers) to act as valuers within such county under this Order and may recall any such appointment and may fix the scale of remuneration to be paid to each official valuer as costs in each valuation made by him.

(iii.) Before any valuer appointed by the Board and the owner or his agent proceed to value any head of cattle under this Order they shall, by writing under their hands, select one of the official valuers to act in the event of their differing in opinion as to the value of such animal: Provided that if such official valuer decline or fail to act when called upon to do so any other official valuer may act in his place.

(iv.) The valuation made in writing under the hand of any official valuer shall be final and binding on the Board and on the owner.

(v.) If a higher valuation is awarded by the official valuer than the value assigned in writing under his hand by the valuer appointed by the Board, then the Board will pay the costs and expenses of the valuation and all costs incurred by the owner in relation thereto, but otherwise the costs and expenses of the valuation and all costs incurred by the Board in relation thereto may be deducted by the Board from the sum payable to the owner as compensation in accordance with the valuation of the official valuer, who may tax or settle the amount of costs to be paid by the owner or the Board under this Article.

Carcases.

25.—(1.) The carcase of every head of cattle that has died of pleuro-pneumonia shall be disposed of by the Local Authority as follows:

(i.) Either the Local Authority shall cause the carcase to be buried as soon as possible in its skin in some proper place, and to be covered with a sufficient quantity of quicklime or other disinfectant, and with not less than six feet of earth.

(ii.) Or the Local Authority may, if authorized by Licence from the Board, cause the carcase to be destroyed, under the inspection of the Local Authority, in the mode following: The carcase shall be disinfected, and shall then be taken, in charge of an officer of the Local Authority, to a horse-slaughterer's or knacker's-yard approved for the purpose by the Board, or other place so approved, and shall be there destroyed by exposure to a high temperature, or by chemical agents.

(2.) With a view to the execution of the foregoing provisions of this Article the Local Authority may make such Regulations as they think fit for prohibiting or regulating the removal of any carcase or for securing the burial or destruction of the same.

(3.) A Local Authority may cause or allow a carcase to be taken into the District of another Local Authority to be buried or destroyed, with the previous consent of that Local Authority or with a Licence in that behalf of the Board, but not otherwise.

Digging up.

26. It shall not be lawful for any person, except with the Licence of the Board, to dig up, or cause to be dug up, the carcase of any head of cattle that has been buried.

Declaration of Slaughter-House an Infected Place by Board only.

27. Notwithstanding anything in the Act of 1878, or any Order, a slaughter-house in which a head of cattle affected with pleuro-pneumonia or the carcase of a head of cattle that was affected with pleuro-pneumonia is found, shall not, by reason thereof, be declared to be an Infected Place, except by the Board.

Removal of Dung or other Things.

28. It shall not be lawful for any person to send or carry, or cause to be sent or carried, on a railway, canal, river, or inland navigation, or in a coasting vessel, or on a highway or thoroughfare, any dung, fodder, or litter that has been in an Infected Place, or that has been in any place in contact with or used about a diseased head of cattle except with a Licence of the Local Authority for the District in which such Place is situate, on a certificate of an Inspector certifying that the thing moved has been, as far as practicable, disinfected, or with a Licence of an Inspector of the Board or other person authorized by the Board to act in that behalf.

Forms.

29. The Forms for use by a Local Authority and by their Inspector given in the First Schedule to The Animals Order of 1886, with such variations as circumstances require, may be used for the purposes of the Acts of 1878 to 1890 and of this Order.

Granting of Movement Licences.

30.—(1.) An Inspector of the Board or a person authorized by the Board to grant Movement Licences, or a Local Authority may, if they think fit, withhold a Movement Licence in any case where the movement of the cattle proposed to be moved would be in their judgment inexpedient or improper.

(2.) No Licence for movement of a head of cattle granted under this Order or under any Regulation of a Local Authority under this Order shall be available if granted by the owner of the animal to be moved or by his agent, or by the owner or consignee or other person selling the animal, or exposing the animal for sale, or by the purchaser thereof, or by his agent, or by the auctioneer or other person conducting the public or private sale at which the head of cattle is exposed, or by the occupier of the farm or premises or slaughter-house from or to which the animal is to be moved.

Delivery of Certificates and Declarations.

31.—(1.) A Movement Licence granted under this Order is not available except when accompanied by the certificate or by the declarations or declaration, if any, on which it is granted.

(2.) The person granting such Movement Licence under this Order, shall, for the identification of each certificate or declaration produced to him, mark the same by signing his name thereon, with the date of the production thereof to him.

(3.) The person granting such Movement Licence shall deliver the certificate and the declarations or declaration produced to him, when so marked, with the Licence, to the person receiving the Licence from him.

Production of Licences; Names and Addresses.

32.—(1.) Every person in charge of cattle being moved, where under this Order or under any Regulation of a Local Authority under this Order a Movement Licence may be necessary, shall, on demand of a Justice, or of a constable, or of an Inspector or other officer of the Board or of a Local Authority, produce and show to him the Movement Licence, if any, authorizing the movement, and shall allow it to be read and a copy of or extract from it to be taken by the person to whom it is produced.

(2.) Every person so in charge shall, on demand as aforesaid, give his name and address to the Justice, or constable, or Inspector or other officer.

Provisions as to Regulations of Local Authority.

33.—(1.) Every Local Authority shall forthwith send to the Board a copy of every Regulation made by them under the provisions of this Order.

(2.) If the Board are satisfied on inquiry with respect to any Notice served or any Regulation made by a Local Authority under the provisions of this Order that the same is of too restrictive a character, or otherwise objectionable, and direct the revocation thereof, the same shall thereupon cease to operate.

Offences.

34.—(1.) If a head of cattle is moved in contravention of this Order, or of a Notice served under this Order, or of a Regulation made by a Local Authority under the provisions of this Order, or of the conditions of a Movement Licence thereunder, the owner of the animal, and the person for the time being in charge thereof, and the person causing, directing, or permitting the movement, and the person moving or conveying the animal, and the owner and the charterer and the master of the vessel in which it is moved, and the consignee or other person receiving or keeping it knowing it to have been moved in contravention as aforesaid, and the occupier of the place from which the head of cattle is moved, shall, each according to and in respect of his own acts and defaults, be deemed guilty of an offence against the Act of 1878.

(2.) If a person in charge of a head of cattle being moved, where under this Order or under any Regulation made by a Local Authority under the provisions of this Order a Movement Licence is necessary, on demand made under this Order, fails to give his true name and address, or gives a false name or address, he shall be deemed guilty of an offence against the Act of 1878.

(3.) If a head of cattle is not marked as required by this Order, or by a Regulation made by a Local Authority under the provisions of this Order, or by the conditions of a Movement Licence thereunder, the owner, consignee, or other person moving the same, and the person for the time being in charge thereof, and the purchaser thereof shall, each according to and in respect of his own acts and defaults, be deemed guilty of an offence against the Act of 1878.

(4.) If any person, with a view to unlawfully evade or defeat the operation of this Order, by clipping, or washing, or in any other manner, takes out, effaces, obliterates, or removes, or attempts to take out, efface, obliterate, or remove, any mark on or attached to any cattle so marked by direction of the Board, or by a Regulation made by a Local Authority under the provisions of this Order, or in accordance with the conditions of a Movement Licence thereunder, the person doing the same, and the person causing, directing, or permitting the same to be done, and the owner of the head of cattle, and the person for the time being in charge thereof, shall, each according to and in respect of his own acts and defaults, be deemed guilty of an offence against the Act of 1878.

(5.) If a head of cattle is not slaughtered as required by this Order, or by a Regulation made by a Local Authority under the provisions of this Order, or by the conditions of a Movement Licence thereunder, the person to whom the Movement Licence is granted, and the owner of the animal, and the person for the time being in charge thereof, and the person failing to cause the same to be so slaughtered, shall, each according to and in respect of his own acts and defaults, be deemed guilty of an offence against the Act of 1878.

(6.) If a head of cattle is exposed in or at any market, fair, sale-yard, or public lair, or other such place, in contravention of this Order, or of a Regulation made by a Local Authority under the provisions of this Order, or of the conditions of a Movement Licence thereunder, the owner or consignee of the animal, and the person so exposing the same, in or at such market, fair, sale-yard, or public lair, or other such lair, and the purchaser thereof of any animal so exposed in contravention of this Order or of such Regulation or of the conditions of such Licence, such purchaser knowing the head of cattle to be exposed in contravention as aforesaid, shall, each according to and in respect of his own acts and defaults, be deemed guilty of an offence against the Act of 1878.

(7.) If a carcase is removed or is not buried or is not destroyed in contravention of a Regulation made by a Local Authority under the provisions of this Order, the owner of the carcase, and the person for the time being in charge thereof, and the person causing, directing, or permitting the removal, and the person removing or conveying the carcase, and the owner and the charterer and the master of the vessel in which it is removed, and the consignee or other person receiving or keeping it, knowing it to have been removed in contravention as aforesaid, and the person failing to bury or destroy the carcase, shall, each according to and in respect of his own acts and defaults, be deemed guilty of an offence against the Act of 1878.

(8.) If any person with a view to unlawfully evade or defeat the operation of this Order allows a head of cattle to stray he shall be deemed guilty of an offence against the Act of 1878.

In witness whereof the Board of Agriculture have hereunto set their Official Seal this eleventh day of December, one thousand eight hundred and ninety.

INCOME TAX.

WHEREAS by the Taxes Management Act, 1880 (43 and 44 Vict., ch. 19), power is given for increasing in certain cases the number of persons appointed, under the provisions made by the Income Tax Act of 1842, Commissioners for the general purposes of the Income Tax, and persons to supply vacancies amongst such Commissioners in each district or division in Great Britain; and it appearing to the Board of Inland Revenue that the number of persons so appointed for the city and county of the city of Coventry, is insufficient for the proper discharge of the business therein arising under the Tax Acts, the said Board hereby authorize the increase in the number of the Commissioners for the said city and county to any number not exceeding fourteen, and of persons to supply vacancies amongst such Commissioners to any number not exceeding fourteen; and we, the undersigned, two members of the said Board, do hereby convene a meeting of the persons appointed for putting in execution within the said city and county an Act passed in the 38th year of the reign of King George the Third, intituled "An Act for granting an aid to His Majesty by a Land Tax to be raised in Great Britain for the service of the year 1798," being respectively qualified to act as Commissioners in the execution of the last-mentioned Act, to be holden at the office of the Clerk to the Commissioners of Taxes, in Coventry, on Tuesday, the 16th day of December, 1890, at twelve o'clock at noon, for the purpose of choosing and appointing, according to the regulations of the said Income Tax Act of 1842, such number of fit and proper persons to be Commissioners for general purposes for the said division of Coventry, and of persons to supply vacancies amongst such Commissioners, as may be sufficient to increase the number of such Commissioners to any number not exceeding fourteen, and of persons to supply vacancies amongst such Commissioners to any number not exceeding fourteen.

Petitioners' Solicitors.

In the High Court of Justice.—Chancery Division.
Mr. Justice Chitty.

In the Matter of the Companies Acts, 1862 and 1867, and in the Matter of the Tivoli Limited.

BY an Order made in the above matter, by Mr. Justice Chitty, dated the 15th day of November, 1890, on the petition of Frederick Meyer, of Burlington-buildings, Birmingham, in the county of Warwick, Wine and Spirit Merchant, a creditor of the abovenamed Company, it was ordered that the said Tivoli Limited be wound up by the Court under the provisions of the Companies Acts, 1862 and 1867; and it was ordered that the costs of the petitioner, and of the said Tivoli Limited, and of the said creditors and contributories of the application be taxed by the Taxing Master, and paid out of the assets of the said Tivoli Limited, but in such taxation only one set of costs was to be allowed to the said creditors, and one set of costs to the said contributories; and it was ordered that a proper person be appointed Official Liquidator of the said Tivoli Limited, and the said Court did thereby appoint Frederick John Young, of 41, Coleman-street, in the city of London, Chartered Accountant, provisionally Official Liquidator of the abovenamed Tivoli Limited; and it was ordered that the said Frederick John Young should, on or before the 15th day of December, 1890, or within four days from the date of entry of this Order, whichever should be last, give security to be approved by the Judge; and it was ordered that the said Frederick John Young should, on or before the 15th day of May, 1891, and the 15th November, 1891, and the same days in each succeeding year, leave his accounts at the chambers of the said Judge; and it was ordered that all moneys to be received by the said Frederick John Young be paid by him into the Bank of England to the credit of "the account of the Provisional Official Liquidator of the Tivoli Limited," within seven days after receipt thereof; and the said Court did thereby limit and restrict the powers of the said Frederick John Young, as such Provisional Official Liquidator, to the following acts, that is to say, to taking possession of and protecting the assets of the Tivoli Limited, and to carrying on the business of the said Tivoli Limited without borrowing money until the appointment of an Official Liquidator, or until further order; and it was ordered that the time limited for the advertisement of the said Order in the London Gazette pursuant to the general Order of the Court be extended to the 15th December, 1890.
