FACTORY AND WORKSHOP ACT, 1878.

41 Vict., c. 16, s. 53.

OVERTIME.—ADDITIONAL TWO HOURS.

Order of Secretary of State extending Special Exception.

WHEREAS the Factory and Workshop Act, 1878, contains a special exception to the effect that the regulations of the Act with respect to the employment of young persons and women shall not prevent the employment in the factories and workshops or parts thereof to which the exception applies of young persons and of women during a period of employment beginning at 6 A.M. and ending at 8 P.M., or beginning at 7 A.M. and ending at 9 P.M., or beginning at 8 A.M. and ending at 10 P.M., if they are employed in accordance with the following conditions; namely,

- (1.) There shall be allowed to every such young person and woman for meals during the period of employment not less than two hours, of which half an hour shall be after five o'clock in the evening; and
- (2.) Any such young person or woman shall not be so employed on the whole for more than five days in any one week, nor for more than 48 days in any 12 months:

And whereas the special exception is by the Act declared to apply to the factories and workshops referred to in the said section:

And whereas Part 2 of the same Act, section 63, provides as follows:

Where it appears to a Secretary of State that the adoption of any special means or provision for the cleanliness or ventilation of a factory or workshop is required for the protection of the health of any child, young person, or woman employed, in pursuance of an exception under this part of this Act, either for a longer period than is otherwise allowed by this Act, or at night, he may by order made under this part of this Act direct that the adoption of such means or provision shall be a condition of such employment:

And whereas it has been proved to my satisfaction that in the non-textile factories and workshops of the class mentioned in the Schedule hereunder, it is necessary, by reason of press of work arising at certain recurring seasons of the year, and of the liability of the business to a sudden press of orders arising from unforeseen events, to employ young persons and women in manner authorized by this exception, and that such employment will not injure the health of the young persons and women affected thereby, provided that it be subject to the condition hereinafter appearing.

Now I, the Right Honourable Henry Matthews, one of Her Majesty's Principal Secretaries of State, by this Order, made under Part 2 of the said Act, extend this exception accordingly: Provided that it shall be a condition of the employment of any young person or woman under this extended exception that there shall be a cubic space of at least four hundred feet for every young person and woman so employed.

This Order shall come into effect on the 16th and shall continue in force until the 24th day of December, 1890, inclusive, and no longer.

Henry Matthews.

In the Matter of the Companies Acts, 1862 and 1867, and in the Matter of the Arpad Gold Syndicate Limited.

BY an Order made in the above matters by Mr. Justice North, dated the 6th day of December, 1890, on the petition of Mylius Cohen, of No. 20, Moorgate-street, in the city of London, the Secretary of the abovenamed Syndicate. It was ordered that the said Arpad Gold Syndicate Limited be wound up by this Court under the provisions of the Companies Acts, 1862 and 1867, and the Petitioner, by his Counsel, undertaking to be responsible for anything to be received by Edward Hobbs and Alfred Broughton Lamb, pursuant to that Order, until they should have given security. That Court did thereby appoint Edward Hobbs, of 110, Cheapside, in the city of London, Chartered Accountant, and Alfred Broughton Lamb, of Sefton Lodge, Twickenham-park, in the county of Middlesex, and 31, Fenchurch-street, in the city of London, Manager to a firm of Tea Brokers, provisionally Joint Official Liquidators of the said Arpad Gold Syndicate Limited, to act at once; and it was ordered that the said Edward Hobbs and Alfred Broughton Lamb do on or before the 20th day of December, 1890, give security to be approved by the Judge; and it was ordered that the said Edward Hobbs and Alfred Broughton Lamb do on the 6th day of June, 1891, and the 6th day of December, 1891, and the same days in each succeeding year, leave their accounts at the chambers of the Judge; and it was ordered that all moneys to be received by the said Edward Hobbs and Alfred Broughton Lamb be paid by them into the Bank of England, to the credit of the account of the Provisional Official Liquidators of the said Arpad Gold Syndicate Limited, within seven days after receipt thereof; and that Court did thereby limit and restrict the powers of the said Edward Hobbs and Alfred Broughton Lamb, as such Provisional Official Liquidators, to the following acts; that was to say, to take possession of and to protect the assets of the said Arpad Gold Syndicate Limited, but not to distribute the same without further order, and to expend a sum not exceeding £250 in meeting pressing demands in the Kingdom of Hungary; and that Court did declare that the said acts might be done by either of the Provisional Official Liquidators thereby appointed; and it was ordered that the costs of the petitioners, of the said contributories and creditors supporting the petition of the said petition (including in the costs of the petitioners and the said contributories and creditors supporting the petition, their costs of the motion to appoint a Provisional Official Liquidator made unto that Court, on the 26th day of November, 1890), be taxed by the Taxing Master, and paid out of the assets of the said Syndicate; but in taxing such costs only one set of costs was to be allowed between the said contributories supporting the petition, and one set of costs between the said creditors supporting the same.—Dated this 15th day of December, 1890.
