THE ANIMALS (AMENDMENT) ORDER
OF 1890, No. 2.

By the Board of Agriculture.

THE Board of Agriculture, by virtue and in exercise of the powers in them vested under The Board of Agriculture Act, 1889, and The Contagious Diseases (Animals) Acts, 1878 to 1890, and of every other power enabling them in this behalf, do order, and it is hereby ordered, as follows:

Revocation of Order.

1. The Animals (Amendment) Order of 1890, dated the seventh day of October, one thousand eight hundred and ninety, is hereby from and after the commencement of this Order revoked: Provided that such revocation shall not revive any Order or part of any Order revoked by or otherwise affect the past operation of the Order hereby revoked, or invalidate or make unlawful anything done under the said Order hereby revoked before the commencement of this Order, or interfere with the institution or prosecution of any proceeding in respect of any offence committed against, or any penalty incurred under, the said Order hereby revoked before the commencement of this Order.

The Netherlands declared a Free Country.

2. From and after the commencement of this Order, unless and until the Board of Agriculture otherwise order, animals (except swine) brought from the Kingdom of the Netherlands are allowed to be landed without being subject under the Fifth Schedule to the Act of 1878, or under The Animals Order of 1886, to slaughter or to quarantine, and, subject to the provisions of this Order, Chapter 32 and Part II of the Fifth Schedule of that Order shall be read and have effect as if the Kingdom of the Netherlands were included in the list of Free Countries named in that part of that Schedule as if the Order hereby revoked had not been made.

Amendment of Article 151 of The Animals Order of 1886.

3. The following provisions of this Article shall be read in the place of Article 151 of The Animals Order of 1886, and shall be deemed to be Article 151 of that Order (namely):

Conditions of Landing.

151.—(1.) The landing of foreign animals at a Landing-Place for foreign animals under the provisions of this Chapter is subject to the following conditions:

First. That the vessel in which they are imported has not, within twenty-eight days before taking them on board, had on board any animal exported or carried coastwise from a port or place in any country other than in Her Majesty's Possessions in North America, or in Norway, or in Iceland, or in New Zealand, or in the Channel Islands, or in the Isle of Man, or in the United States of America (provision as to which country is made by the second condition of this Article), or in Denmark, or in Sweden, or in the Netherlands (provision as to which three countries is made by the third condition of this Article).

Second. That the vessel in which they are imported has not, within twenty-one days before taking them on board, had on board any animal exported or carried coastwise from a port or place in the United States of America.

Third. That the vessel in which they are imported has not, within twenty-eight days before taking them on board, had on board any swine exported or carried coastwise from a port or place in Denmark, or in Sweden, or in the Netherlands.

Fourth. That the vessel in which they are imported has not within twenty-one days before taking them on board or at any time since taking on board the animals imported, entered any port or place in any country other than in Her Majesty's Possessions in North America, or in Norway, or in Iceland, or in New Zealand, or in the Channel Islands, or in the Isle of Man, or in Denmark, or in Sweden, or in the Netherlands, or in the United States of America.

Fifth. That the animals imported have not, while on board the vessel, been in contact with any animal exported or carried coastwise from any port or place in any country other than in Her Majesty's Possessions in North America, or in Norway, or in Iceland, or in New Zealand, or in the Channel Islands, or in the Isle of Man, or (subject to the sixth condition of this Article) in Denmark, or in Sweden, or in the Netherlands.

Sixth. That the animals imported have not, while on board the vessel, been in contact with any swine exported or carried coastwise from a port or place in Denmark, or in Sweden, or in the Netherlands.

(2.) And the animals imported shall not be landed at a Landing-Place for foreign animals unless and until—

(a.) The owner or charterer of the vessel in which they are imported, or his agent in England or Wales or Scotland, has entered into a bond to Her Majesty the Queen, in a sum not exceeding one thousand pounds, with or without a surety or sureties, to the satisfaction of the Commissioners of Customs, conditioned for the observance of the foregoing conditions; and

(b.) The master of the vessel has on each occasion of importation of foreign animals therein satisfied the Commissioners of Customs, or their proper officer, by declaration made and signed or otherwise, that all the animals then imported therein are properly imported according to the provisions of this Article.

Amendment of Article 130 of The Animals Order of 1886.

4. The following provisions of this Article shall be read in the place of Article 130 of The Animals Order of 1886, and shall be deemed to be Article 130 of that Order (namely):

Conditions of Landing.

130.—(1.) The landing of foreign animals at a Foreign Animals Wharf under the provisions of this Chapter is subject to the following conditions:

First. That the vessel in which they are imported has not, within twenty-eight days before taking them on board, had on board any animal exported or carried coastwise from a port or place in any of the countries mentioned in Part I of the Fourth Schedule, or from a port or place in Malta, or in Belgium, or in Germany, or from any port or place from which the landing of animals is for the time being prohibited.

Second. That the vessel has not within twenty-one days before taking them on board or at any time since taking on board the animals imported, entered any port or place in any of the countries mentioned in Part I of the Fourth Schedule, or any port or place in Malta, or in Belgium, or in Germany, or any port or place from which the landing of animals is for the time being prohibited.

Third. That the animals imported have not, while on board the vessel, been in contact with any animal exported or carried coastwise from any port or place in any of the countries mentioned in Part I of the Fourth Schedule, or from any port or place in Malta, or in Belgium, or in Germany, or from any port or place from which the landing of animals is for the time being prohibited.

(2.) And the animals imported shall not be landed at a Foreign Animals Wharf unless and until the master of the vessel has on each occasion of importation of foreign animals therein delivered to the Commissioners of Customs or their proper officer, a declaration made and signed that all the animals then imported therein are properly imported according to the provisions of this Article.

Interpretation.

Leghorn—Light-Buoy near the Extremity of Vegliaia Breakwater in Progress.

WITH reference to Notice to Mariners, No. 195 of 1890, and previous notice, on the construction of a breakwater at Leghorn (Livorno), extending in a N. 63° W. direction from Vegliaia Tower, and that the works would be marked by a buoy and lights:—

The Italian Government has given further notice, that on 1st December, 1890, in order better to indicate the works of Vegliaia Breakwater in progress, a light buoy would be moored off the extremity. Also that on the same date, the red buoy with staff and ball, previously marking the works in progress, would be withdrawn:—

The light shown from the buoy marking Vegliaia breakwater is a fixed red light, elevated 11 feet above the sea; it is moored about 600 yards in a N. 63° W. direction from Vegliaia Tower, or in the same line of direction as the works.

NOTE.—Vessels entering the Port of Leghorn by the South Channel during the night, should pass westward of the above-mentioned light buoy, keeping within the arc of white light shown from the south extreme of the outer (curved) breakwater, and with the white light of Squarci Baths also in sight.

GEO. HRY. BARTLETT, 6, Northumberland-buildings, Bath, Solicitor.

In the High Court of Justice.—Chancery Division.

Mr. Justice North. 1890. L., No. 49.

In the Matter of William Lee, deceased, and in the Matter of Sarah Parker Lee, deceased.

Between William Winder Lee and Sarah Winder Anderson (a married woman suing in respect of her separate estate), Plaintiffs; and James Dickinson, William Delanoy, and Septimus Anderson, Defendants.

To the abovenamed defendant, William Delanoy.

TAKE notice, that this action was on the 6th January, 1890, commenced against you and the abovenamed James Dickinson and Septimus Anderson and that the plaintiffs by the endorsement on the Writ of Summons claim:—1. That two agreements alleged by the defendants, James Dickinson and William Delanoy respectively, to have been made in the year 1878 by them respectively, with Sarah Parker Lee, deceased, the wife of the abovenamed William Lee, deceased, for the sale to her of two several annuities of £210s each, during the life of the said Sarah Parker Lee, deceased, may be declared invalid. 2. That it may be declared that the defendants, James Dickinson and William Delanoy, are respectively liable to refund the respective sums of £500 paid to them respectively by the said Sarah Parker Lee, on the occasion of the said alleged agreements. 3. That it may be declared that the said sums of £500 form part of the estate of William Lee, deceased. 4. For administration (if any and so far as may be necessary) of the respective estates of William Lee, deceased, and Sarah Parker Lee, deceased. The defendants, James Dickinson and William Delanoy, are sued as well personally as executors of the will of the said William Lee, deceased. The defendant, Septimus Anderson is sued, as one of the executors of William Lee, deceased, and as the administrator of the estate of Sarah Parker Lee, deceased. And also take notice that the Judge has, by Order, dated the 15th day of December, 1890, ordered that substituted service of the said Writ of Summons upon you, by serving the said defendant, James Dickinson, with the said Writ of Summons, and a copy of the said Order, and by the publication, by advertisement, of the said Writ of Summons and of the said Order in the London Gazette and in the Times newspaper, be deemed good and sufficient service upon you of the said Writ of Summons. And further take notice, that you are required to enter an appearance to the said Writ of Summons at the Royal Courts of Justice, Strand, London, within ten days after such service as aforesaid on the said defendant, James Dickinson, and after the insertion of the said notices, inclusive of the day of such service and such insertion, and that in default of your so doing the plaintiffs may proceed therein; and judgment may be given in your absence.

FRED. BLUNDELL MOSS, the Outer Temple, Strand, W.C.; Agent for BROWN, WILKIN, and SCOTT, Wakefield, Solicitors for the Plaintiffs.

To Mr. HENRY HUNT, late of Lynda's, 16, Castelnau-gardens, Barnes, in the county of Surrey.

In the High Court of Justice.—Chancery Division.

Mr. Justice Kekewich. 1890. G., No. 2455.

Between Gethin Williams Griffith, Clerk, Anthony Hanmer Miers, and Walter James Baron Ruthven, Plaintiffs; and William Joseph Dewes Andrew and Henry Hunt, Defendants.

TAKE notice, that this action was on the 16th day of December, 1890, commenced against you in the Chancery Division of Her Majesty's High Court of Justice, by Gethin Williams Griffith, Clerk, Anthony Hanmer Miers, and Walter James Baron Ruthven, to have an account taken of what is due to the plaintiffs for principal, interest, and costs, under and by virtue of a mortgage, dated the 13th June, 1879, made between you, the defendant, Henry Hunt, of the one part, and the Reverend Charles Bodvel Griffith, Clerk in Orders, of the other part, and a transfer of mortgage, dated the 17th June, 1879, made between the said Charles Bodvel Griffith of the one part, and the plaintiffs and Walter Henry Sutton, since deceased, of the other part, and that the mortgage might be enforced by foreclosure.

And further take notice, that by an Order made in the said action, dated the 16th December, 1890, it was ordered that service of that Order and the said Writ of Summons, by advertising the said Order and the said Writ of Summons once in the London Gazette and once in the Times newspaper, and by sending, by prepaid letter post, addressed to Laura Hunt (the wife of you, the defendant, Henry Hunt), at 63, St. Stephen's-avenue, Shepherd's Bush, W., a copy of the said Order and a copy of the said Writ of Summons, together with a letter from the plaintiffs' solicitors, explaining to the said Laura Hunt the nature of the said action and how it will affect your property, should be deemed good and sufficient service of the said Writ of Summons on you, the said defendant, Henry Hunt.

And further take notice, that you are required to appear to the said Writ of Summons within sixty days after the insertion of the last of the said notices, in manner aforesaid, inclusive of the day of such insertion, otherwise the action will proceed against you as for default of appearance.
