Rules and Regulations of the Board of Health of Escambia County, Florida.

Pensacola, Fla., November, 1890.

Be it resolved, by the Board of Health of the County of Escambia, State of Florida:—

1st. That the Port Inspector shall visit and inspect every vessel entering the Bay of Pensacola and ascertain and report her sanitary condition; and until such inspection and report, and the release of such vessel by said officer, no person shall visit her, and no person from her shall visit any other vessel or the shore. The master or owner of each vessel so inspected shall pay to this board for service as follows, to wit;

Steamships ... ..	$15 00
Ships ... ..	15 00
Barks and three- and four-masted schooners ... ..	10 00
Brigs ... ..	5 00
Schooners, two-masted ... ..	5 00

2nd. No vessel coming into the port of Pensacola having on board any contagious or infectious disease, or from a port where any such disease prevails, shall remain within the territory under the jurisdiction of this board, except at a point designated and under restrictions imposed by this board, according to the exigencies of each case.

3rd. It shall be the duty of any person coming into the county of Escambia or port of Pensacola from any locality where any disease in an epidemic form prevails, to report at once to this board, or some officer thereof, and no person coming from any such locality shall remain in said county without the permit of this board, and then only at such point as may be designated, and under such restrictions as may be imposed by this board, according to the exigencies in each case.

4th. No ballast brought into the Bay of Pensacola by vessels shall be discharged in the county of Escambia, or the waters separating that county and the county of Santa Rosa, except at such point as may be designated in a permit obtained from this board or granted on its authority; and in case this board or its Sanitary Inspector or other officer with approval of this board deem it expedient for the preservation of the public health to require fumigation, disinfection, or discharge of ballast at quarantine station, the same shall be done at the expense of the vessel, and in accordance with the system in use by this board.

5th. All pilots and tow boats of the port of Pensacola shall be supplied with copies of these rules, and every pilot or tow boat master speaking or boarding a vessel coming into said port, shall hand a copy thereof to the master of said vessel. Pilots must, and hereby are required, in each case before boarding a vessel desiring to enter the Bay of Pensacola, to make inquiry as to the sanitary condition of the vessel, and in no case must they board if the vessel has contagious or infectious diseases aboard, or has had the same during the voyage. In all such cases the pilot must direct said vessel to the nearest United States quarantine or refuge station.

6th. That in case any vessel shall be required by authority of this board in the exercise of its powers to preserve the public health, to discharge ballast at quarantine station, or be fumigated, she shall pay 25 cents per ton for the ballast discharged, and for maritime sanitation, as follows, to wit:

Steamships ... ..	$75 00
Ships ... ..	50 00
Barks and other vessels, other than brigs and two-masted schooners ... ..	40 00
Brigs ... ..	20 00
Two-masted schooners ... ..	15 00

7th. That no pilot, tow boatman, or other person shall remove, transfer, or receive, or assist in removing, transferring, or receiving, any person from any vessel entering the Bay of Pensacola, until such vessel shall have been inspected and released by the Port Inspector.

8th. Every violation of the foregoing rules will be punished as prescribed by law.

ROBT. W. HARGIS, President.

D. G. BRENT, Secretary and Treasurer.

Approved—November 26, 1890:
