INSTRUMENT substituting the New Church of Saint John the Evangelist, situate within the parish of Swarraton, with the Chapelry of Northington annexed, in the county of Southampton, and diocese of Winchester, for the Old Church, situate within and hitherto being the Parish Church of the same Parish.

To all to whom these presents shall come, the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England send greeting:

WHEREAS a new church has lately been built at Northington, within the parish of Swarraton, with the chapelry of Northington annexed, in the county of Southampton, and in the diocese of Winchester, and has been consecrated and dedicated to Saint John.

And whereas the Right Reverend Edward Harold, Bishop of the said diocese of Winchester, and the Right Honourable Alexander Hugh Baron Ashburton, patron of the said parish of Swarraton, with the chapelry of Northington annexed, and the Reverend William Leigh Williamson Eyre, the Incumbent of the rectory of the same parish, have, by an instrument under their hands, bearing date on or about the twenty-ninth day of October, in the year one thousand eight hundred and ninety, certified to us, the said Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, that it would be for the convenience of the said parish of Swarraton, with the chapelry of Northington annexed, that the said new church of Saint John the Evangelist, situate at Northington within such parish, should be substituted for the old parish church of the same parish.

Now, therefore, we, the said Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, in exercise and execution of the power or authority in that behalf contained in the Act of the eighth and ninth years of Her present Majesty, chapter seventy, and in the Act of the nineteenth and twentieth years of Her said Majesty, chapter fifty-five, and of all other powers or authorities in anywise enabling us in the same behalf, do, by this instrument under our common seal, with the consent (testified as hereinafter mentioned) of the said Edward Harold, Bishop of the said diocese of Winchester, and of the said Alexander Hugh Baron Ashburton, and of the said William Leigh Williamson Eyre, hereby declare that the said new church of Saint John the Evangelist, situate at Northington, within the said parish of Swarraton, with the chapelry of Northington annexed, and duly consecrated as aforesaid, shall be, and the same is hereby, substituted for the said old parish church of the same parish, and that such new church shall henceforth be the parish church of the said parish of Swarraton, with the chapelry of Northington annexed, in lieu of the said old parish church of the same parish, as fully in all respects as if the said new church of Saint John the Evangelist, so hereby substituted, had been originally the parish church of the same parish.

And we, the said Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, in further pursuance and exercise of the powers and authorities aforesaid, and with such consents as aforesaid (testified as hereinafter mentioned), do hereby transfer all the endowments, emoluments, and rights of or belonging to the said old parish church (dedicated to Saint John the Evangelist as aforesaid) of the said parish of Swarraton with Northington annexed, or of or belonging to the Rector or Incumbent thereof, to the said new church of Saint John the Evangelist (now being by virtue of these presents the parish church of the said parish of Swarraton), with the chapelry of Northington annexed, and to the Rector or Incumbent thereof and his successors for ever.

In witness whereof to these presents we, the said Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, have set our common seal, and the said Edward Harold, Bishop of the said diocese of Winchester, has set his hand and affixed his episcopal seal, and the said Alexander Hugh Baron Ashburton and the said William Leigh Williamson Eyre have respectively set their hands and affixed their seals, this eleventh day of December, in the year one thousand eight hundred and ninety.

THE Commissioners named in and appointed under the abovenamed Act of 1873 hereby give notice, that George Moreley Dowdeswell, Esq., one of Her Majesty's Counsel, and Henry John Marten, Esq., two of the Arbitrators appointed under the said Act of 1873, have made an award in triplicate for a Mines Drainage Rate in the Old Hill District. And the said Commissioners hereby give further notice, that one copy of the said award has been deposited at the office of the Commissioners, Trindle House, Dudley, in the county of Worcester, and another copy thereof has been deposited at the office of the Clerk of the Peace for the county of Stafford, and another copy thereof has been deposited at the office of the Clerk of the Peace for the county of Worcester. And the said Commissioners hereby give further notice, that the said award is, from and after the date of such respective deposits as aforesaid, binding upon the Commissioners, and upon the owners, lessees, and occupiers of the mines within the Old Hill District, so far as the rating of the said mines is concerned. —Dated this 6th day of January, 1891.

J. E. UNDERHILL, Law Clerk.

NOTICE is hereby given, that the Heart of Oak Lodge, 665, Independent Order of Oddfellows, Manchester Unity, Register No. 981, held at the Wheatsheaf Inn, Ingleton, in the county of York, is dissolved by instrument, registered at this office, the 6th day of January, 1891, unless within three months from the date of the Gazette in which this advertisement appears, proceedings be commenced by a member or other person interested in, or having any claim on, the funds of the Society, to set aside such dissolution; and the same be set aside accordingly.

J. M. LUDLOW, Chief Registrar of Friendly Societies.

Statistical Department, Custom House, London,
January 8, 1891.

T. J. PITTAR.

In the Matter of certain Letters Patent, granted to Paul Jablochkoff, of Paris, Boulevard de Strasbourg, 23, Engineer, for the invention of "A new process of producing and dividing electric light and apparatus therefor," and bearing date the 22nd day of May, 1877, and numbered 1996.

NOTICE is hereby given, that it is the intention of the Electrical Engineering Corporation Limited, in whom the said Letters Patent are now vested, to present a petition to Her Majesty in Council, praying that the said Letters Patent may be extended for a further term. And notice is hereby further given, that on the 19th day of February next, or on such subsequent day as the Judicial Committee of Her Majesty's Privy Council shall appoint for that purpose, an application will be made to the said Committee for a time to be fixed for hearing the matter of the said petition, and any person desirous of being heard in opposition to the prayer of the said petition must enter a caveat to that effect in the Privy Council Office, on or before the said 19th day of February next.—

Dated this 24th day of December, 1890.
