

in the county of Kent; and also in the churchyard except as follows:—

(a) In such vaults and wholly walled graves as are now existing burials may be allowed of the following relations of those already interred therein at the date of the Order, viz.: widows and widowers, on condition that every coffin buried therein be separately enclosed by stonework or brickwork properly cemented.

(b) In such earthen graves now existing as can be opened to the depth of five feet without exposing coffins or disturbing human remains burials may be allowed of so many of the following relations of those interred therein at the date of the Order, viz.: widows and widowers, as can be buried at or below that depth.

Twenty-four hours' written notice of any such intended burial to be given by the Sexton to the Sanitary Inspector of the district.

Now, therefore, Her Majesty in Council is pleased hereby to give notice of such representation, and to order that the same be taken into consideration by a Committee of the Lords of Her Majesty's Most Honourable Privy Council on the fourteenth day of April next:

And Her Majesty is further pleased to direct that this Order be forthwith published in the London Gazette, and that copies thereof be affixed on the doors of the churches or chapels of the said parish, or on some conspicuous places within the part or parts of the Metropolis affected by such representation, one calendar month at the least before the said fourteenth day of April.

C. L. Peel.

At the Court at Windsor, the 23rd day of February, 1891.

PRESENT,

The QUEEN'S Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS the Right Honourable Henry Matthews, one of Her Majesty's Principal Secretaries of State, after giving to the Incumbents and the Churchwardens of the parishes hereinafter mentioned ten days' previous notice of his intention to make such representation, has, under the provisions of an Act passed in the Session of Parliament held in the sixteenth and seventeenth years of Her Majesty's reign, intitled "An Act to amend the laws concerning the burial of the dead in England beyond the limits of the Metropolis, and to amend the Act concerning the burial of the dead in the Metropolis," made a representation stating that, for the protection of the public health, no new burial ground should be opened in the under-mentioned parishes without the previous approval of one of Her Majesty's Principal Secretaries of State, and that burials should be discontinued therein with the following modifications, viz.:—

TONGE-CUM-BRIGHTMET.—Forthwith and entirely in Tonge-cum-Brightmet Church (Bolton), in the county of Lancaster; and also in the churchyard after the thirtieth April, one thousand eight hundred and ninety-one, except as follows:—

(a.) In such wholly walled graves as are now existing in the churchyard burials may be allowed on condition that every coffin buried therein be separately enclosed by stonework or brickwork properly cemented.

(b.) In such partly walled and earthen graves now existing in the churchyard as can be opened to the depth of five feet without exposing coffins or disturbing human remains burials may be allowed of so many of the relations of those interred therein at the date of the Order as can be buried at or below that depth.

CURY.—Forthwith and entirely in the parish church of Cury, in the county of Cornwall; and also in the churchyard except as follows:—

(a.) In such vaults and wholly walled graves as are now existing in the churchyard burials may be allowed on condition that every coffin buried therein be separately enclosed by stonework or brickwork properly cemented.

(b.) In such partly walled graves now existing in the churchyard as can be opened to the depth of five feet without exposing coffins or disturbing human remains burials may be allowed of so many of the relations of those interred therein at the date of the Order as can be buried at or below that depth.

CADOXTON - JUTXA - BARRY.—Forthwith and entirely in the parish church of Cadoxton-juxta-Barry, in the county of Glamorgan and also in the churchyard except as follows:—

(a.) In such vaults and walled graves as are now existing in the churchyard burials may be allowed on condition that every coffin buried therein be separately enclosed by stonework or brickwork properly cemented.

(b.) In such earthen graves now existing in the churchyard as can be opened to the depth of five feet without exposing coffins or disturbing human remains burials may be allowed of so many of the relations of those interred therein at the date of the Order as can be buried at or below that depth.

CADOXTON - JUTXA - BARRY.—Forthwith and entirely in the Welsh Baptist Chapel, Cadoxton; and also in the chapelyard except as follows:—

In such walled graves as are now existing in the chapelyard burials may be allowed of the following persons at their decease, viz.: Mrs. Ann John, and Mrs. Ann Brock, on condition that each coffin be separately enclosed by stonework or brickwork properly cemented.

MERTHYR DOVAN.—Forthwith and entirely in the parish church of Merthyr Dovan, in the county of Glamorgan; and also in the churchyard except as follows:—

(a.) In such vaults and walled graves as are now existing in the churchyard burials may be allowed on condition that every coffin buried therein be separately enclosed by stonework or brickwork properly cemented.

(b.) In such earthen graves now existing in the churchyard as can be opened to the depth of five feet without exposing coffins or disturbing human remains burials may be allowed of so many of the relations of those interred therein at the date of the Order as can be buried at or below that depth.

Now, therefore, Her Majesty in Council is pleased hereby to give notice of such representation, and to order that the same be taken into consideration by a Committee of the Lords of Her Majesty's Most Honourable Privy Council on the fourteenth day of April next:

And Her Majesty is further pleased to direct that this Order be forthwith published in the London Gazette; and that copies thereof be affixed on the doors of the churches or chapels of, or on some conspicuous places within, the parishes
