Board of Agriculture, 10th April, 1891.

County Borough of Cardiff.

IN pursuance of section 48 of the Merchant Shipping (Fishing Boats) Act, 1883, I hereby give notice, that the following Bye-laws for the Regulation of Seamen's Licensed Lodging-houses were made on the 12th January, 1891, and sanctioned by the President of the Board of Trade on the 24th March, 1891:—

WHEREAS by the 48th section of the Merchant Shipping (Fishing Boats) Act, 1883, it is enacted that "The Sanitary Authority within whose district any seaport town is situate may, with the sanction of the President of the Board of Trade, from time to time, make, revoke, alter, and amend Bye-laws and Regulations relating to Seamen's Lodging-houses in such town, which shall be binding upon all persons and bodies keeping houses in which seamen are lodged, and the owners thereof, and persons employed therein. Such Bye-laws and Regulations shall, amongst other things, provide for the licensing of Seamen's Lodging-houses, the inspection of the same, the sanitary conditions of the same, the publication of the fact of a house being licensed, the due execution of the Bye-laws and Regulations, and the non-obstruction of persons engaged in securing such execution, the preventing of persons not duly licensed holding themselves out as keeping, or purporting to keep, licensed houses, and the exclusion from licensed houses of persons of improper character, and sufficient penalties for the breach of such Bye-laws and Regulations, not exceeding in any case the sum of fifty pounds. All offences under such Bye-laws and Regulations shall be deemed to be offences within the Merchant Shipping Acts, 1854 to 1883, and be punishable accordingly."

The Council of the borough of Cardiff, being the Sanitary Authority in and for the said borough, do hereby, at a meeting held on the 12th day of January, 1891, pass the following Bye-laws:—

1. In these Bye-laws, the expression "Registered Common Lodging-house," means a common lodging-house registered as such, pursuant to the enactments and Bye-laws or Regulations in force in that behalf in the borough of Cardiff; and the expression "Registered Lodging-house" means a lodging-house registered as let in lodgings, or occupied by members of more than one family, pursuant to the enactments and Bye-laws or Regulations in force, in that behalf, in the said borough.

2. On the written application of the keeper of any registered common lodging-house, or registered lodging-house, made in such form, and stating such particulars as the Council require, the Council will (subject as hereinafter mentioned), if they see fit, grant to such keeper a licence authorizing him to designate his registered house a Seamen's Licensed Lodging-house.

A licence may contain such conditions not being inconsistent with the laws, Bye-laws, and Regulations, for the time being, in force in the borough, and being specified in the licence as the Council see fit.

3. Such licence shall not be granted in respect of any house not being a Registered Common Lodging-house, or Registered Lodging-house; nor in respect of any house where intoxicating liquor is sold, nor in respect of any house occupied or used for the purpose of the business of a clothier, or outfitter, or slop-dealer.

Such licence shall not be granted to a person who holds a licence for the sale of intoxicating liquor, or who is engaged or interested in the business of a clothier, outfitter, or slop-dealer.

4. The Council shall cause to be kept a Register of all licences granted under these Bye-laws, and the suspension or revocation of any licence shall be noted in that Register.

5. A licence granted to any person under these Bye-laws is not transferable to any other person, and any holder of a licence who transfers or lends the same to any other person is deemed guilty of a breach of these Bye-laws.

6. A licence granted under these Bye-laws continues in force (subject to suspension or revocation, as in these Bye-laws provided) for one year from the date of the grant thereof, but the Council may at their discretion refuse to renew any licence.

7. A licence granted under these Bye-laws may be suspended or revoked by the Council on breach of any of its conditions, or on the conviction of the holder for any felony, misdemeanour, or offence against any law, bye-law, or regulation for the time being in force in the borough, or on the Council being satisfied that the holder has been guilty of a breach of the Merchant Shipping Act, 1854, or the Acts amending the same, or has kept a house in which drunkenness, gambling, or immoral or fraudulent practices prevail, or has been a party to such proceedings, or neglects to remove from the lodging-house any persons of known immoral character who may have entered therein.

Within seven days after suspension or revocation of a licence the holder shall deliver his licence to the Town Clerk, but at the expiration of a period of suspension the licence shall be returned to the holder.

8. Every keeper of a Seamen's Licensed Lodging-house, and every other person having, or acting in the care or management thereof, shall at all times, when required by the Medical Officer of Health, or Lodging-house Inspector, or Inspector of Nuisances of the District, the Chief Constable, or any Inspector of the Borough Police Force, or any Detective Officer specially authorized by the Chief Constable for the purpose, or any Officer of the Board of Trade, give them, or any of them, free access to such house.

9. Any person who not being the holder of a licence under these Bye-laws, and any holder of a licence who during a period of suspension, uses or publishes any sign, notice, inscription, ticket, placard, advertisement, circular, letter, or other document stating or implying that his house is a Seaman's Licensed Lodging-house, is deemed guilty of a breach of the Bye-laws. Every person guilty of a breach of these Bye-laws shall be liable to a penalty not exceeding five pounds.

10. Nothing in these Bye-laws shall in any way prejudice or affect the operation of the enactments, bye-laws, or regulations applicable to any Registered Common Lodging-house or Registered Lodging-house as such, or to any keeper of any such house.

11. These Bye-laws shall take effect from the 1st day of June, 1891.

Given under the Common Seal of the Mayor, Aldermen, and Burgesses of the said county borough of Cardiff, this 12th day of January, 1891.
