TUESDAY, APRIL 28, 1891.

*Lord Chamberlain's Office, St. James's Palace,
March 9, 1891.*

NOTICE is hereby given, that Her Majesty's Birthday will be kept on Saturday, the 30th of May next.

*Lord Chamberlain's Office, St. James's Palace,
April 9, 1891.*

NOTICE is hereby given, that The Queen will hold Drawing Rooms at Buckingham Palace, on Wednesday, the 6th, and on Wednesday, the 13th of May next, at three o'clock.

REGULATIONS

TO BE OBSERVED AT THE QUEEN'S DRAWING ROOMS.

By Her Majesty's Command,

The Ladies who propose to attend Her Majesty's Drawing Rooms are requested to bring with them to the Drawing Room two large cards, with their names clearly written thereon, one to be left with The Queen's Page in Attendance, and the other to be delivered to the Lord Chamberlain, who will announce the name to The Queen.

PRESENTATIONS.

The privilege of making presentations to The Queen at a Drawing Room is restricted to those Ladies who have themselves been previously presented to Her Majesty, and who are themselves present at the Drawing Room.

Under such circumstances a Lady has the privilege of presenting one Lady only at a Drawing Room in addition to her Daughters or Daughters-in-law.

This restriction does not apply to Ladies who, from official position or other circumstances, are specially privileged to make presentations to Her Majesty.

The Lady who proposes to present another must send in writing the name of such Lady to the Lord Chamberlain's Office, not later than two days previous to the Drawing Room, in order that the Lord Chamberlain may submit the name to Her Majesty, when, if it be approved, presentation cards will be forwarded.

Printed Forms for this purpose can be obtained at the Lord Chamberlain's Office.

It is particularly requested that the names of the Lady to be presented be very distinctly written on the presentation cards to be delivered to the Lord Chamberlain at the Drawing Room, in order that there may be no difficulty in announcing them to The Queen.

It is not expected that Gentlemen will present themselves at a Drawing Room, except in attendance on the Ladies of their families.

Any Gentleman who under these circumstances should desire to be presented to The Queen will observe the same regulations as are in force for Her Majesty's Levees.

The State Apartments will be open for the reception of Company coming to Court at two o'clock.

LATHOM,

Lord Chamberlain.

*Lord Chamberlain's Office, St. James's Palace,
April 21, 1891.*

NOTICE is hereby given, that His Royal Highness The Prince of Wales will, by command of The Queen, hold a Levee at St. James's Palace, on behalf of Her Majesty, on Friday, the 15th of May next, at two o'clock.

It is The Queen's pleasure that Presentations to His Royal Highness at the Levee shall be considered as equivalent to Presentations to Her Majesty.

REGULATIONS

TO BE OBSERVED AT THE QUEEN'S LEVEE TO BE HELD BY HIS ROYAL HIGHNESS THE PRINCE OF WALES, ON BEHALF OF HER MAJESTY, AT ST. JAMES'S PALACE.

By Her Majesty's Command,

Gentlemen who propose to attend Her Majesty's Levee, are requested to bring with them two large cards, with their names clearly written thereon, one to be left with The Queen's Page in attendance in the Corridor, and the other to be delivered to the Lord Chamberlain, who will announce the name to His Royal Highness.

PRESENTATIONS.

Gentlemen who propose to present others must send in writing the name of such Gentlemen to the Lord Chamberlain's Office, not later than two days previous to the Levee, in order that the Lord Chamberlain may submit the names to Her Majesty, when, if they are approved, Presentation Cards will be forwarded. Forms for the purpose can be obtained at the Lord Chamberlain's Office.

Gentlemen who wish to be presented officially should communicate with the heads of their Department, who will provide them with the necessary cards and instructions.

It is particularly requested that the names of the Gentlemen to be presented be very distinctly written on the Presentation Cards delivered to the Lord Chamberlain at the Levees, in order that there may be no difficulty in announcing them to His Royal Highness.

LATHOM,
Lord Chamberlain.

AT the Council Chamber, Whitehall, the 27th day of April, 1891.

By the Lords of Her Majesty's Most Honourable Privy Council.

WHEREAS one of the Royal Mail Steam Packet Company's vessels, called the "Elbe," has lately arrived from the Brazils and has been directed to proceed to, and remain under quarantine at, the Motherbank, off the Isle of Wight, and during and in the course of her voyage from the Brazils, the Yellow Fever, being a dangerous and infectious disease, appeared on board the said vessel and attacked a person on board thereof, and the said vessel arrived under alarming and suspicious circumstances;

And whereas it is expedient to make provision for the disposition of the persons remaining on board the said ship:

Now, therefore, the Lords of Her Majesty's Most Honourable Privy Council, in exercise of the powers vested in them, do hereby order,—

1. That the said vessel called the "Elbe" shall remain and continue at the Motherbank aforesaid until the Lords of Her Majesty's Most Honourable Privy Council, or any two or more of them, shall make further order.

2. That all sick persons on board the "Elbe" be removed, if possible, to the "Menelaus" Hospital Ship.

3. That the persons now on board the said vessel called the "Elbe," not ordered to be removed to the "Menelaus," shall be removed to the ship called the "Edgar," unless ordered to remain on board the "Elbe," by the Medical Superintendent of Quarantine at Ryde.

4. That all persons so removed on board the "Menelaus" Quarantine Hulk, or who shall hereafter be removed on board the said Hulk, or on board the "Edgar," and who shall have been on board the "Elbe," shall be kept and detained on board the said Hulk, or the "Edgar," until the Lords of the Council, or any two or more of them, shall make further order.

And the Right Honourable the Lords Commissioners of Her Majesty's Treasury, and the Lords Commissioners of the Admiralty, are to give the necessary directions herein as to them may respectively appertain.

C. L. Peel.

Lord Chamberlain's Office, St. James's Palace,
April 28, 1891.

THE Queen has been pleased to appoint the Right Reverend Randall, Lord Bishop of Rochester, to be a Clerk of the Closet in Ordinary to Her Majesty.

Foreign Office, April 23, 1891.

MR. ABRAHAM HOFFNUNG has presented to the Marquis of Salisbury, Her Majesty's Principal Secretary of State for Foreign Affairs, his new Letter of Credence as Chargé d'Affaires of Her Majesty the Queen of the Hawaiian Islands.

Whitehall, April 23, 1891.

THE Queen has been pleased to issue a Warrant under Her Majesty's Royal Sign Manual, approving a Form of Constitution for "The Imperial Institute of the United Kingdom, the Colonies, and India, and the Isles of the British Seas," to the following effect:—

VICTORIA, R.

VICTORIA, by the Grace of God, of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland Queen, Defender of the Faith, to all to whom these presents shall come; Greeting!

WHEREAS the Governing Body of the Corporation of "The Imperial Institute of the United Kingdom, the Colonies and India, and the Isles of the British Seas," established by Our Charter, bearing date the twelfth day of May, in the fifty-first year of Our Reign, have, in pursuance of the provisions of the said Charter, applied to Us for Our approval of a Form of Constitution for the said Institute which has been prepared by the Organizing Committee of the said Corporation;

Now know Ye that We, having taken the same into Our consideration, are graciously pleased to comply with their application, and, by these presents, to approve of the Form of Constitution for "The Imperial Institute of the United Kingdom, the Colonies and India, and the Isles of the British Seas," as set forth in the Document under Our Royal Sign Manual hereunto annexed.—

Given at Our Court at Saint James's, the twenty-first day of April, one thousand eight hundred and ninety-one, in the fifty-fourth year of Our Reign.

By Her Majesty's Command,
Henry Matthews.

VICTORIA, R.

WHEREAS by Royal Charter, dated the 12th May, 1888, an Association was incorporated by the name of the Imperial Institute of the United Kingdom, the Colonies and India, and the Isles of the British Seas, hereinafter referred to as the "Institute":

And whereas a President was appointed of the said Association, and His Royal Highness the Prince of Wales was named as the first President:

And whereas the Government of the said Institute was provisionally vested in a Committee, called the Organizing Committee, consisting of the several persons therein named, and of such other persons as should be appointed in pursuance of the said Charter:

And whereas it was provided by the said Charter that, before the expiration of three years from the date of the said Charter, the Organizing Committee should prepare a form of Constitution for the Institute, providing amongst other things for such a Governing Body, as, in the opinion of the Organizing Committee, would best represent the subjects of Her Majesty in the United Kingdom, the Colonies and India, and the commercial and industrial interests of the Empire:

And it was further provided that the said Constitution should contain such other provisions as might be deemed expedient in relation to the government of the Institute, its property and affairs, and in respect to the Members thereof, and generally to the regulation of all matters whatever, which the said Organizing Committee might deem it expedient to provide for in such Constitution:

And it was by the said Charter declared that such Constitution should be subject to approval by Royal Warrant, and when so approved should be of the same validity and effect as if the provision thereof had been contained in the said Charter, and no question should thereafter be raised as to its validity :

And it was further provided in the said Charter that the said Constitution when approved should be published in the London Gazette, and from and after the date of such publication should come into force :

And it was further provided that the said Organizing Committee should continue in their offices until the day appointed for the first meeting of the Governing Body under the new Constitution, and on and after that day should cease to hold their offices :

And whereas with a view to carrying into effect the said Charter, the provisions hereinafter contained have been framed by the Organizing Committee as the Constitution of the said Institute : -

Now it is hereby declared as follows :—

GOVERNING BODY.

1. The Governing Body of the Institute shall consist of the President and Governors.

The Governors, other than the President, shall be classified as follows :—

Four as representing the Chambers of Commerce.

Two as representing Indian Institutions.

The nine Governors mentioned in this section shall be nominated by the Governor-General in Council.

The four Governors mentioned in this section shall be selected by such Chambers of Commerce in India as the Governor-General in Council shall direct.

The remaining two Governors shall be selected by any such institutions or groups of institutions in India as the Governor-General in Council may determine, with this restriction, that an institution shall not be qualified to choose or assist in the choice of a Governor, unless the majority of its members are natives of India, and unless it is an institution which, in the opinion of the Governor-General, is so constituted as to be conducive to and interested in the objects for which the Institute is founded.

Each of the fifteen Governors mentioned in this section shall hold his office for one year only. If no successor is appointed within three months from the date on which the term of office of any such Governor expires, his seat may be filled up by the Executive Council.

16. Subject as aforesaid, the Governors representing India shall be chosen in such manner, and subject to such regulations, as the Governor-General in Council may direct.

Elected Governors.

17. The commerce and industries of England and Wales shall be represented on the Governing Body by fourteen Governors, elected as follows, that is to say:—

Of the South-Eastern District of England by two Governors, who shall be elected by the Chairmen of the County Councils of Bedfordshire, Berkshire, Buckinghamshire, Cambridgeshire, the Isle of Ely, Essex, Hertfordshire, Huntingdonshire, Kent, Norfolk, Middlesex, the East and West Divisions of Suffolk, Surrey, and the East and West Divisions of Sussex.

Of the South-Western District of England by two Governors, who shall be elected by the Mayor of Bristol and the Chairmen of the County Councils of Cornwall, Devonshire, Dorset, Gloucestershire, Hampshire, the Isle of Wight, Somerset, and Wiltshire.

Of the Midland District of England by two Governors, who shall be elected by the Mayors of Birmingham, Leicester, and Nottingham, and the Chairmen of the County Councils of Derbyshire, Herefordshire, the Holland, Kesteven, and Lindsey Divisions of Lincolnshire, Northamptonshire, Nottinghamshire, Oxfordshire, the Soke of Peterborough, Rutland, Shropshire, Staffordshire, Warwickshire, and Worcestershire.

Of Cheshire and Lancashire by two Governors, who shall be elected by the Mayors of Blackburn, Bolton, Liverpool, Manchester, Oldham, and Salford, and the Chairmen of the County Councils of Cheshire and Lancashire.

Of Yorkshire by two Governors, who shall be elected by the Lord Mayor of York, and the Mayors of Bradford, Kingston-upon-Hull, Leeds, and Sheffield, and the Chairmen of the County Councils of the West Riding, the East Riding, and the North Riding of Yorkshire.

Of the Northern District of England by two Governors, who shall be elected by the Mayors of Gateshead, Newcastle-on-Tyne, Sunderland, and South Shields, and the Chairmen of the County Councils of Cumberland, Durham, Northumberland, and Westmoreland.

Of North Wales by one Governor, who shall be elected by the Chairmen of the County Councils of the Isle of Anglesey, Carnarvonshire, Denbighshire, Flintshire, Merionethshire, and Montgomeryshire.

Of South Wales by one Governor, who shall be elected by the Mayors of Cardiff and Swansea, and the Chairmen of the County Councils of Brecknockshire, Cardiganshire, Carmarthenshire, Glamorganshire, Pembrokeshire, Radnorshire, and Monmouthshire.

18. The commerce and industries of Scotland shall be represented on the Governing Body by three Governors, elected as follows, that is to say:—

Of the South-Eastern District of Scotland by one Governor, to be elected by the Lord Provost of Edinburgh, the Provost of Leith, and the Chairmen of the County Councils of Berwickshire, Clackmannanshire, Edinburgh (Midlothian), Fifeshire, Haddington, Kinross-shire, Linlithgow, Peeblesshire, Roxburghshire, and Selkirkshire.

Of the South-Western District of Scotland by one Governor, to be elected by the Lord Provost of Glasgow, the Provosts of Greenock and Paisley, and the Chairmen of the County Councils of Ayrshire, Buteshire, Dumbartonshire, Dumfriesshire, Kirkeudbrightshire, Lanarkshire, Renfrewshire, Stirlingshire, and Wigtownshire.

Of the Northern District of Scotland by one Governor, to be elected by the Lord Provost of Aberdeen and the Provost of Dundee, and the Chairmen of the County Councils of Aberdeenshire, Argyllshire, Banffshire, Caithness, Elginshire, Forfarshire, Invernessshire, Kincardineshire, Nairnshire, Orkney and Shetland, Perthshire, Ross-shire, Cromarty, and Sutherland.

19. The commerce and industries of Ireland shall, for the time being, be represented on the Governing Body by four Governors, of whom two shall be elected by the Lord Mayor of Dublin in conjunction with the Mayors of the cities of Belfast, Cork, Kilkenny, Limerick, Londonderry, and Waterford, the Mayor of the Borough of Sligo; and the Chairmen of the Town Commissioners of Galway and Newry; and two shall be elected by the Chairmen of the Chambers of Commerce of Belfast, Cork, Dublin, Londonderry, and Waterford.

It shall be lawful for the Sovereign, in the event of a system of County Government analogous to that of County Councils in England being established in Ireland, by Warrant under Sign Manual to repeal any provisions of this Constitution relating to Ireland, and to substitute therefor other provisions with a view to assimilate the representation of the commerce and industries of Ireland in the Institute more nearly to the mode of the representation provided for the commerce and industries of England, Wales, and Scotland, so that the number of the representatives of the commerce and industries of Ireland be not increased.

20. The commerce and industries of the Channel Islands, the Isle of Man, and the other Isles of the British seas, shall be represented on the Governing Body by one Governor, who shall from time to time be nominated by the President.

21. The Governors representing the commerce and industries of England, Wales, Scotland, Ireland, and the Isles of the British seas, shall hold their offices for a term of five years. If no successor is elected within three months of the date on which the term of office of any such Governor expires, his seat may be filled up by the Executive Council.

The President of the Council of the Institution of Electrical Engineers.

The President of the Council of the City and Guilds of London Institute for the advancement of Technical Education.

The President of the Council of the Royal United Service Institution.

The President of the Royal Academy of Arts.

The President of the Royal Geographical Society.

The President of the Royal Statistical Society.

The President of the Royal Institute of British Architects.

The President of the Mining Association of Great Britain.

The Chairman of the Council of the Trades Union Congress of Great Britain.

The Chairman of the Council of the National Miners' Union of Great Britain.

Any Association, by this section entitled to be represented on the Governing Body, may, instead of the person by this section appointed to represent the Association, appoint another person, being a Member of the Governing Body of such Association; but any person so substituted shall remain in office so long only as the person, in whose place he is substituted, would have remained in office had no such substitution taken place.

23. The Governing Body, may, on the recommendation of the Executive Council, and with the sanction of the President, increase the number of Associations entitled to be represented on the Governing Body, or they may, in the event of any represented Association ceasing to exist, or declining to be represented, remove the name of such Association from the list of Associations entitled to be represented. Provided that the number of representatives of Associations shall in no case exceed forty.

Regulations as to Governors.

24. A Governor shall vacate his office if he becomes bankrupt or insolvent, or, in the opinion of the Executive Council testified by special resolution, acts in such a manner as to render it detrimental to the interests of the Institute that he should continue a Governor.

A special resolution for the purposes of this section means a resolution passed by a majority of three-fourths of the Executive Council present and voting at any meeting of which special notice has been given, and confirmed by a resolution passed by a majority of the Members present and voting at a further special meeting summoned within one month after the date of the foregoing meeting.

25. A Governor shall not, by reason of his having served on the Governing Body, be disqualified from being nominated, appointed, elected or from otherwise serving, either immediately or otherwise, for a further term or terms.

First Meeting of the Governing Body.

26. The names of the Governors appointed to represent any Colony, Province of a Colony, or Group of Colonies, on the first Governing Body under this Constitution shall be notified to the Organizing Committee by the authorities appointing the same on or before the

Should the name of any such Governor not be notified to the Executive Council on or before the said date, the Executive Council may fill up the vacancy in question.

27. For the purpose of electing the Governors to represent the commerce and industries of England and Wales, and of Scotland and Ireland on the first Governing Body under this Constitution, the following proceedings shall be taken:—

The President of the Organizing Committee shall, at a reasonable time before the , cause a summons to be issued in such form and authenticated in such manner as he may think fit, requesting the persons constituted the electors in each case, to meet together at such time and place, or at such times and places, as he may appoint, for the purpose of electing the representative or representatives. The electors in each case, on meeting together, shall choose a Chairman; and all proceedings relating to the elections shall be conducted in such manner as the Chairman may direct. Any elector who is unable to attend may, by writing under his hand, and in such form as may be directed by the President of the Organizing Committee, appoint a person, not being one of the electors, to act as proxy; and any person, so appointed proxy, may do any act or thing in respect to the election which the person who appointed him proxy might have done. If, within half an hour after the time appointed for any election, all the electors are not present in person or by proxy, the electors present in person or by proxy may proceed to the election, so that they be not fewer than three in number. If, after the lapse of three hours after the time appointed for any election, three electors are not present in person or by proxy, the right of election shall be deemed to have lapsed. The seat or seats, the right of election to which has so lapsed, may be filled up by the Executive Council.

If in any case, at an election, the votes are equal, the Chairman may give a second, or casting vote.

28. The names of the Representatives of Associations to serve on the first Governing Body under this Constitution shall be notified to the Organizing Committee on or before the

, in such manner as the Organizing Committee may determine.

If, at the Meeting of the first Governing Body under this Constitution, there is no Representative of an Association which is by this Constitution entitled to be represented on the Governing Body, such Association shall cease to have any right to be represented on the Governing Body, unless it proves to the satisfaction of the Executive Council that such failure in the representation was excusable.

29. The First Meeting of the Governing Body shall be held at such time in the month of 1891, and at such place within the county of London, and shall be summoned in such manner, as the President may direct, and shall be deemed the first meeting of the Governing Body under the new Constitution. On the meeting assembling, the President shall, if present, take the chair; but if he is not present, the Chairman of the late Organizing Committee or, in his absence, the Vice-Chairman of the late Organizing Committee shall take the chair. If none of these persons be present, the meeting shall elect a Chairman.

A report shall be made to the Governing Body by the late Organizing Committee, in such form and in such manner as they may think expedient, of the proceedings which have taken place in relation to the establishment of the Institute, and the condition and prospects thereof. After hearing the report, the Governing Body shall proceed to the election of a person, to be called the Chairman of the Governing Body, and to the election of such Members of the Executive Council as they are by this Constitution authorized to elect, and also to the election of Members of the Finance Committee and Committee of Selection, hereinafter mentioned, and to such other business (if any) as with the sanction of the President may be brought before the meeting.

30. The office of any Governor nominated, appointed, or elected to serve on the first Governing Body shall be deemed to commence on the day of the first meeting of such Governing Body, whether his nomination, appointment, or election be before or after such meeting.

The Chairman of the Governing Body.

31. In the absence of the President, the Chairman of the Governing Body shall preside at all meetings of the Institute, of the Governing Body, of the Executive Council, and of all Committees and Sub-Committees at which he may be present.

32. The Chairman of the Governing Body shall be ex-officio a member of the Executive Council and of all Standing Committees, Special Committees, and Sub-Committees, and shall in the case of the Executive Council, of the Finance Committee, and of the Committee of Selection, be in addition to the number of members hereinafter mentioned.

33. The Chairman of the Governing Body shall be elected annually at the Annual General Meeting of the Governing Body. The retiring Chairman shall be eligible for re-election.

Executive Council and Committees.

34. The Governing Body may exercise its powers through the medium of the Executive Council and the Committees established in pursuance of this Constitution, and the Executive Council or any Committee so established shall be deemed, for the purposes of its action in relation to the matters within its jurisdiction, to have all the powers of the Governing Body delegated to it. But the Governing Body may, at any Annual or Extraordinary General Meeting, alter the Constitution of the Executive Council or any Committee, or the mode of delegation of any of the powers of the Governing Body.

The Governing Body shall be divided into (1) Executive Council, (2) Standing Committees, (3) Special Committees.

The Executive Council shall consist of the Chairman of the Governing Body and thirty other Members, of whom six shall be appointed by the President from among the Governors. The remaining twenty-four shall be elected by the Governing Body from among their number.

The Standing Committees shall be as follows:—

- (1.) The Finance Committee.
- (2.) The Committee of Selection.
- (3.) The Committee of Commerce and Industries.
- (4.) The Committee for the Colonies.
- (5.) The Committee for India.
- (6.) The Committee of Colonization and Emigration.
- (7.) The Committee of Publications and Library.

The Finance Committee shall consist of the Chairman of the Governing Body and ten other Members, to be elected by the Governing Body from among their number.

The Committee of Selection shall consist of the Chairman of the Governing Body and fifteen other Members, to be elected by the Governing Body from among their number.

35. The election, at the first Meeting of the first Governing Body under this Constitution, of the Chairman of the Governing Body, and of Members of the Executive Council, the Finance Committee, and the Committee of Selection, shall be conducted in such manner as the Chairman of the Meeting may direct, provided that the election shall, in case of difference, be decided by a majority of the Governors present and voting at the Meeting, each Governor having one vote, and, in case of an equality of votes, the Chairman shall have a second or casting vote.

36. A Governor may serve on more than one Committee.

37. The Executive Council shall have the general administration of the affairs of the Institute, but shall not incur any expense exceeding £100 for any one purpose without the assent of the Finance Committee.

38. The Finance Committee shall have the control over the funds of the Institute, with the exception of the Endowment Fund, and the control over the investments of such funds.

The Finance Committee shall, from time to time, at such time and in such form as the Executive Council may by rule appoint, report their proceedings to the Executive Council.

39. The Committee of Selection shall select the other Standing Committees, and may, after consultation with the Executive Council, determine the numbers of Members in each case, and assign them their duties.

40. The Members of the Executive Council and of the Standing Committees shall continue in office from the date of their appointment until the next Annual General Meeting of the Governing Body. The retiring Members shall be eligible for re-election.

41. The Committee of Selection may, at the request of the Executive Council, form a standing committee or standing committees in addition to those named in this Constitution.

42. Special Committees may be appointed by the Committee of Selection for the consideration of special industries, special matters of trade, matters relating to particular colonies or India, or otherwise in relation to any matters which the Executive Council may consider to require investigation by a Special Committee. Regard being had to the wishes of Governors desiring to serve on such Committees, and to the employment, so far as is practicable, of all Governors on some business relating to the objects of the Institute, Special Committees shall consist of such number and such Members, and shall continue for such period and shall perform such duties as the Committee of Selection may from time to time determine. The Committee of Selection may add to any Special Committee any person whose services they think it desirable to secure, although such person be neither a Governor nor a Member of the Institute.

43. The Committee of Selection, at the request of the Executive Council, may delegate to any Standing or Special Committee the power of appointing Sub-Committees with such powers and qualifications, if any, as the Committee of Selection may think fit to impose. Such Sub-Committees may or may not consist, either wholly or in part, of persons not being Members of the Institute.

44. The Committee of Selection may at the request of the Executive Council appoint Local Committees for the purpose of superintending or managing or otherwise conducting any matters within the jurisdiction of the Institute, and may assign to such Committees such duties as the Committee of Selection may think fit. The Committee of Selection may also determine the tenure of office, the mode of proceeding, and the constitution of any such Committees, and such Committees may or may not consist, either wholly or in part, of persons not being Members of the Institute.

45. The first Meetings of the Executive Council, the Finance Committee, and the Committee of Selection shall be held at the buildings of the Institute on the Thursday immediately succeeding their appointment, or at such other time and place as the President may direct, and may be adjourned from time to time, and from place to place.

46. In the absence of the President and of the Chairman of the Governing Body, the Executive Council and each of the said Committees shall at its first meeting together, and at any subsequent meeting, until rules are made as hereinafter provided, elect a Chairman. The procedure at such meeting or meetings shall, until such rules are made, be of such a character as the Chairman for the time being may direct.

47. The quorum of the Executive Council shall be five Members; and of the Finance Committee, and of the Committee of Selection, three Members. The quorum of all other Committees and Sub-Committees shall be determined by the authority appointing the same.

48. Subject to the provisions of this Constitution and to any rules that may be framed by the Executive Council, every Standing or Special Committee or Sub-Committee may conduct its business in such manner as may to it seem best.

MEETINGS OF THE INSTITUTE.

49. The First Annual General Meeting of the Institute shall be held at such time in the year 1892 as the Executive Council may determine. A Report shall be presented at the First Annual General Meeting, containing an account of the progress of the Institute from the date of its establishment.

50. Subsequent General Meetings of the Institute shall be held once in every year, with an interval of not more than fourteen months between any two such meetings. At every subsequent General Meeting a Report shall be presented containing an account of the progress and proceedings of the Institute since the date of the last Report.

GENERAL.

51. The Executive Council, with the concurrence of the President, may affiliate to the Institute, or amalgamate with the Institute, or enter into any arrangements for wholly or partially working in conjunction with, any body of persons, corporate or incorporate, formed for all or any of the purposes for which the Institute has been incorporated, or for any purposes analogous or corresponding thereto, and may for the purpose of carrying into effect this power, with the assent of the Finance Committee, contribute to or receive contributions from the funds of any such body of persons upon such conditions as to the Executive Council may seem fit, or make such other financial arrangements from time to time with such other bodies as may be mutually agreed upon. The Executive Council may also, with the concurrence of the President, and the consent of the Governing Body testified by resolution at a General Meeting, give any such body of persons affiliated or amalgamated as aforesaid, such representation on the Governing Body of the Institute, as the Executive Council may think fit.

52. With the exception of the Endowment Fund, and subject to the trust thereof, the Finance Committee may invest the funds of the Institute in securities of such description as they may from time to time deem expedient, and the Executive Council may, with the assent of the Finance Committee, apply both the real and personal property of the Institute in such manner as they deem best adapted to promote the purposes thereof.

53. The Executive Council may at any time, and from time to time, with the concurrence of the President, apply for and accept a Supplemental Charter or an Act of Parliament, if it appears to them that such Supplemental Charter or Act of Parliament is required for carrying into effect any of the purposes or powers of the Institute.

54. An act or proceeding of the Governing Body, or of the Executive Council, or of any Committee or Sub-Committee shall not be questioned on account of any vacancy or vacancies in such Governing Body, or Executive Council, Committee, or Sub-Committee.

55. A defect in the qualification or election of any person or persons acting as Governor or Governors, or as a Member or Members of the Executive Council, or of any Committee or Sub-Committee, shall not be deemed to vitiate any proceedings of such Governing Body, Executive Council, Committee, or Sub-Committee, in which he or they has or have taken part.

56. Contracts on behalf of the Institute may be made in the manner provided by section 37 of the Companies Act, 1867, and, if so made, shall be effectual in law and binding on the Institute.

Any notice issued by or on behalf of the Institute, and any appointment made by the Institute, shall be deemed to be duly issued or made if signed by the proper officer.

Any document not otherwise provided for in this section, shall be deemed to be duly executed either if sealed with the seal of the Institute and signed by the proper officer, or if signed by two or more Members of the Executive Council authorized by a resolution of that body to sign it, and countersigned by the proper officer.

57. The proper officer of the Institute shall be the Secretary or any officer authorized by the Executive Council to sign such notices and documents as he is required to sign as aforesaid; and the Executive Council may appoint more than one person to execute the duties of the proper officer.

58. In every year succeeding the year 1891, a General Meeting of the Governing Body shall be held, at such time and place as the Executive Council may direct, for the transaction of necessary business.

59. The quorum of a Meeting of the Governing Body shall be 20 Members. If at a General Meeting of the Governing Body a quorum is not present, the Chairman may, in his discretion, adjourn the Meeting to some other day, not less than a fortnight from the date of the Meeting, or at once adjourn the Meeting sine die. If at any adjourned Meeting of a General Meeting a quorum is not present, the Meeting shall stand adjourned sine die. When any General Meeting is adjourned sine die, any person whose term of office would have expired, shall be deemed to be continued in such office until the next General Meeting at which a quorum is present.

60. An Extraordinary Meeting of the Governing Body may be at any time summoned by the Executive Council.

61. In case of any doubt arising with regard to the powers of any Standing or Special Committee or Sub-Committee, the same may be decided by the Executive Council.

62. Sir F. A. Abel, K.C.B., F.R.S., shall be the first Secretary of the Institute. Subject to this provision, the Executive Council may, with the approval of the President, appoint, and from time to time remove, such officers and servants as the Executive Council may deem expedient, and assign them such duties, and, with the assent of the Finance Committee, such salaries, gratuities, or pensions as they may deem expedient.

63. Any Governor, Member of the Executive Council, or Member of any Committee or Sub-Committee of the Governing Body, may resign his office by giving notice in writing to the Secretary of his intention to do so.

64. A casual vacancy in the number of nominated members may be filled up by the authority which nominated the vacating member.

A casual vacancy in the number of appointed members may be filled up by the authority which appointed the vacating member.

A casual vacancy in the number of elected members may be filled up by the body which elected the vacating member.

A casual vacancy in the number of the representatives of Associations may be filled up by the Association represented by the vacating member.

A casual vacancy in the office of Chairman of the Governing Body may be filled up by the President.

Casual vacancies on the Executive Council, the Finance Committee, or the Committee of Selection may be filled up by the Executive Council, the Finance Committee, or the Committee of Selection, as the case may be. Casual vacancies on any other Committee or Sub-Committee may be filled up by the Committee appointing such Committee or Sub-Committee.

Any person, appointed to fill a casual vacancy, shall hold his office for such time only as the person for whom he is substituted would have held it, if no such vacancy had taken place.

65. Any provision of this Constitution may be altered or repealed, or any addition may be made thereto by Royal Warrant, on application made to the Sovereign by the Executive Council with the sanction of the President.

66. Women shall be entitled to become members of the Institute.

67. The Executive Council may, subject to the provisions of this Constitution, from time to time make, and, when made, repeal, alter or add to rules in respect to the following matters:—

- (a.) The mode of summoning meetings of the Institute, and the time and place of the meetings and the procedure thereat.
- (b.) The mode of summoning meetings of the Governing Body and the time and place of the meetings and the procedure thereat.
- (c.) The mode of summoning meetings of the Executive Council, Standing and Special Committees, and Sub-Committees, and the time and place of the meetings and the procedure thereat.
- (d.) The conduct of election of Governors, the time and place of meeting of the electors and all matters incidental thereto.
- (e.) Any other matter or thing in the opinion of the Executive Council conducive to or required for the carrying into effect the Charter and this Constitution.

68. The Institute, the Governing Body, the Executive Council, or any Committee or Sub-Committee, may adjourn from time to time and from place to place as may be required.

69. The Executive Council may, if it deem it expedient, delegate to any Standing or Special Committee power to make rules as to the procedure of such Standing or Special Committee.

70. The Executive Council may, by order, supply any omission which it may be necessary to supply, or correct any error which it may be necessary to correct in this Constitution for the purpose of carrying into effect the purposes of the Charter of Incorporation or of this Constitution. Such order shall remain in force only until the next meeting of the Governing Body unless it be confirmed by such meeting, in which case it shall be of the same validity as if it were contained in this Constitution.

71. This Constitution shall, so far as is consistent with the tenor thereof, be construed as one with the Charter of Incorporation of the Institute.

No. 194.—NORTH AMERICA AND WEST INDIES STATION.

UNITED STATES.—GULF OF MEXICO—FLORIDA. Pensacola Bay Entrance—Decreased Depths on Inner Bar.

THE United States Government has given notice, dated 28th March, 1891, that Captain G. C. Wiltse, U.S.S. "Boston," reports that there is less water on the Inner Bar, at the entrance to Pensacola Bay, than is shown on the charts:—Middle ground has extended southward, and there is now a depth of 17 feet at low water lying with the flagstaff in the centre of Fort Pickens bearing N.N.E. $\frac{1}{2}$ E., distant $10\frac{1}{2}$ cables, and Pensacola Lighthouse N. by W. $\frac{1}{4}$ W.; this depth extends about 200 feet eastward. It is also stated that the Inner Bar has shoaled 2 to 3 feet in the last few years.

Consequent on the foregoing, the dotted line indicating the course over the Inner Bar, heretofore shown on the plan of Pensacola Bay, has been removed; and the course indicated by Fort McRae Beacons in line substituted.

Neufahrwasser—Alteration in Fog Signal.

THE German Government has given notice, dated 4th April, 1891, that the following alteration has been made in the fog signal on the East Mole at Neufahrwasser, south shore of Gulf of Danzig:—

During thick or foggy weather the bell on the East Mole at Neufahrwasser will be sounded at least ten times in quick succession at intervals of about one minute, when vessels make it understood by fog signals they are approaching the port; and the bell will be sounded continuously, or with very short intervals of silence, when a vessel is near the entrance of the port.

This Notice affects Admiralty Plan of Neufahrwasser, on Sheet of Baltic Sea, No. 2842b. Also, Admiralty List of Lights on the Eastern Shores of the North Sea, &c., 1891, No. 575; and Baltic Pilot, 1888, page 173.

NANTUCKET SHOALS.

Dangerous Shoal Reported Westward of Davis South Shoal.

THE United States Government has given notice, dated 20th March, 1891, that Mr. D. Jenkins, commanding the British steam-vessel "Salamanca," has reported that on 17th March, 1891, at 1h. 45m. P.M., when in approximately lat. $40^{\circ} 58'$ N., long. $70^{\circ} 0'$ W., the vessel, drawing $15\frac{1}{2}$ feet water, struck twice on hard bottom, where $5\frac{1}{2}$ fathoms has heretofore been shown on the Admiralty Charts.

Mariners are cautioned accordingly.

This Notice affects the following Admiralty Charts:—Halifax to the Delaware, No. 2670; River Pungue Entrance—Buoyage.

INFORMATION has been received through H.B.M. Acting Consul at Mozambique, dated 10th March, 1891, that the buoys as undermentioned now mark River Pungue entrance:—

1. A black conical buoy, surmounted by a staff and black ball, visible in clear weather from a distance of about 8 miles, and indicating the fairway of River Pungue entrance, is moored in 7 fathoms water, with Palms south of Chirora bearing W. by N. $\frac{3}{4} N.$, distant $10\frac{1}{4}$ miles.

Approximate position on Admiralty Charts, lat. $19^{\circ} 59' S.$, long $34^{\circ} 57' E.$

2. A black can buoy is moored in 26 feet water, with Palms south of Chirora bearing W.N.W., distant $7\frac{1}{2}$ miles.

3. A black can buoy is moored in 24 feet water, with Palms south of Chirora bearing W.N.W., distant $2\frac{3}{4}$ miles. This buoy indicates the point at which the course should be altered towards Massique Point.

4. A black spherical buoy is moored in 19 feet water, at the south-east extreme of Massique Point Spit, with Massique Point bearing N. by W. $\frac{1}{4} W.$, distant one mile. On reaching this buoy, which should be left on the port hand (entering the river), the course should be altered for the anchorage off River Chiveve entrance.

The depths given are at low water.

NOTE.—These bearings and distances, as well as a plan recently received, show that the present plan of Pungue River entrance, No. 648, based on former Portuguese sketch surveys, is inaccurate, especially in its scale. This will shortly be amended from recent information.

In Parliament.—Session 1891.

London Tramways Bill.

(Petition for Additional Provision with reference to Transfer of Powers to London County Council; Working of Proposed Tramways by London Tramways Company Limited; Regulation of Traffic; Use of Tramways by other Companies; Limitation of Hours of Employment on Tramways; Confirmation of Agreements, &c., &c.)

NOTICE is hereby given, that application is intended to be made to Parliament in the present session, by Petition for additional provision, for leave to insert in the Bill now pending in the House of Commons under the above name or short title, provisions to effect or make provision for effecting the following, or some of the following objects (that is to say):—

1. The transfer to, and the exercise if thought fit by the London County Council (hereinafter called "the Council"), of all or some of the powers proposed to be conferred upon the London Tramways Company Limited (hereinafter called "the Company,"), by the said Bill, including the powers for the construction of the tramways sought to be authorized by the said Bill.

2. The leasing of the said tramways to and the working thereof by the Company, and the payments whether by way of rent or otherwise, to be made by the Company to the Council in respect thereof, and of the user of the roads.

3. The regulation by the Council of the traffic on the proposed tramways, and of the working thereof, and as to the fares to be charged in respect of traffic using such tramways.

4. The use of the proposed tramways by any other Company with the sanction of the Council.

5. The limitation of the number of hours during which persons may be employed on or in connection with the tramways of the Company.

And it is proposed to sanction, confirm, or give effect to any contracts, agreements, or arrangements which may have been or may be entered into between the Company and the Council with reference to any of the matters aforesaid, and to confer upon the Council all such powers as may be necessary for the construction, maintenance, repair, and renewal of the tramways proposed to be authorized by the Bill, and for otherwise enabling them to carry out the above objects and to vary or extinguish all or any rights or privileges which are inconsistent or would interfere with the execution of any of the intended objects of the said additional provision, and to confer other rights or privileges.

Dated this 24th day of April, 1891.
