

The London Gazette.

Published by Authority.

FRIDAY, MAY 1, 1891.

*Lord Chamberlain's Office, St. James's Palace,
March 9, 1891.*

NOTICE is hereby given, that Her Majesty's Birthday will be kept on Saturday, the 30th of May next.

*Lord Chamberlain's Office, St. James's Palace,
April 9, 1891.*

NOTICE is hereby given, that The Queen will hold Drawing Rooms at Buckingham Palace, on Wednesday, the 6th, and on Wednesday, the 13th of May next, at three o'clock.

REGULATIONS

TO BE OBSERVED AT THE QUEEN'S DRAWING ROOMS.

By Her Majesty's Command,

The Ladies who propose to attend Her Majesty's Drawing Rooms are requested to bring with them to the Drawing Room two large cards, with their names clearly written thereon, one to be left with The Queen's Page in Attendance, and the other to be delivered to the Lord Chamberlain, who will announce the name to The Queen.

PRESENTATIONS.

The privilege of making presentations to The Queen at a Drawing Room is restricted to those Ladies who have themselves been previously presented to Her Majesty, and who are themselves present at the Drawing Room.

Under such circumstances a Lady has the privilege of presenting one Lady only at a Drawing Room in addition to her Daughters or Daughters-in-law.

This restriction does not apply to Ladies who, from official position or other circumstances, are specially privileged to make presentations to Her Majesty.

The Lady who proposes to present another must send in writing the name of such Lady to the Lord Chamberlain's Office, not later than two days previous to the Drawing Room, in order that the Lord Chamberlain may submit the name to Her Majesty, when, if it be approved, presentation cards will be forwarded.

Printed Forms for this purpose can be obtained at the Lord Chamberlain's Office.

It is particularly requested that the names of the Lady to be presented be very distinctly written on the presentation cards to be delivered to the Lord Chamberlain at the Drawing Room, in order that there may be no difficulty in announcing them to The Queen.

It is not expected that Gentlemen will present themselves at a Drawing Room, except in attendance on the Ladies of their families.

Any Gentleman who under these circumstances should desire to be presented to The Queen will observe the same regulations as are in force for Her Majesty's Levees.

The State Apartments will be open for the reception of Company coming to Court at two o'clock.

LATHOM,
Lord Chamberlain.

*Lord Chamberlain's Office, St. James's Palace,
April 21, 1891.*

NOTICE is hereby given, that His Royal Highness The Prince of Wales will, by command of The Queen, hold a Levee at St. James's Palace, on behalf of Her Majesty, on Friday, the 15th of May next, at two o'clock.

It is The Queen's pleasure that Presentations to His Royal Highness at the Levee shall be considered as equivalent to Presentations to Her Majesty.

REGULATIONS

TO BE OBSERVED AT THE QUEEN'S LEVEE TO BE HELD BY HIS ROYAL HIGHNESS THE PRINCE OF WALES, ON BEHALF OF HER MAJESTY, AT ST. JAMES'S PALACE.

By Her Majesty's Command,

Gentlemen who propose to attend Her Majesty's Levee, are requested to bring with them two large cards, with their names clearly written thereon, one to be left with The Queen's Page in attendance in the Corridor, and the other to be delivered to the Lord Chamberlain, who will announce the name to His Royal Highness.

PRESENTATIONS.

Gentlemen who propose to present others must send in writing the name of such Gentlemen to the Lord Chamberlain's Office, not later than two days previous to the Levee, in order that the Lord Chamberlain may submit the names to Her Majesty, when, if they are approved, Presentation Cards will be forwarded. Forms for the purpose can be obtained at the Lord Chamberlain's Office.

Gentlemen who wish to be presented officially should communicate with the heads of their Department, who will provide them with the necessary cards and instructions.

It is particularly requested that the names of the Gentlemen to be presented be very distinctly written on the Presentation Cards delivered to the Lord Chamberlain at the Levees, in order that there may be no difficulty in announcing them to His Royal Highness.

LATHOM,
Lord Chamberlain.

Whitehall, April 30, 1891.

THE Queen has been pleased to direct Letters Patent to be passed under the Great Seal of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland, granting unto the Reverend Philip Frank Eliot, M.A., Canon of Windsor, the Deanery of Her Majesty's Chapel Royal in the Castle of Windsor, with the Registry of the Knights of the Most Noble Order of the Garter thereunto annexed, the same being void by the promotion of Doctor Randall Thomas Davidson to the See of Rochester.

INLAND REGISTRATION AND PARCELS. TREASURY WARRANT.

WE, the Commissioners of Her Majesty's Treasury, in exercise of all powers given to us by the Post Office Acts, or any of them, and of all other powers enabling us in this behalf, do by this Warrant, made on the representation of Her Majesty's Postmaster-General (testified by his signing the same) and under the hands of two of us, the said Commissioners, order, direct, and declare as follows:—

Short Title.

1. This Warrant may be cited as the Inland Registration and Parcels Warrant, 1891.

Construction.

2. This Warrant shall be read as one with the Warrant, dated the 2nd day of April, 1886, and relating to Inland Postal Packets, and the Warrants amending the same.

Definition.

3. In this Warrant the expression "Postal Packet" includes a Pattern Packet and a Sample Packet as defined by the Warrant of the 17th November, 1888, and any Warrants amending the same.

Repeals.

4. On and as from the day upon which this Warrant comes into operation the Warrants specified in the Schedule hereto shall be repealed to the extent shown in the said Schedule.

Compensation for loss or damage of Parcels.

5. If any article of pecuniary value enclosed in or forming part of a Parcel be lost or damaged whilst in the custody of the Postmaster-General, the Postmaster-General may pay to any person or persons who may, in the opinion of the Postmaster-General, establish a reasonable claim to compensation (having regard to the nature of the article, the care with which it was packed, and other circumstances) such sum not exceeding two pounds in respect of such parcel as he may think just.

REGISTRATION.

Postal Packets may be registered.

6. Subject to the provisions of this Warrant any Postal Packet may be registered.

Rules as to Registration.

7. The following rules shall apply to the registration of Postal Packets:—

(1.) The Packet must be posted by—

(a.) being handed for registration to an Officer on duty at a Post Office; or

(b.) being handed for registration to a Rural Post Messenger when on duty on his outward or inward walk, or to some other Officer of the Post Office authorized to receive Packets for registration, though not on duty at a Post Office.

(2.) All sums chargeable on the registration of the Packet and all postage chargeable thereon must be prepaid at the time of posting.

(3.) On the posting of the Packet a Certificate of posting, bearing thereon an acknowledgment that the registration fee has been paid must be obtained. This Certificate must be filled up and signed by the Officer of the Post Office receiving the Packet.

Registration Fees.

8. For the registration of Postal Packets there shall be charged and paid the following sums, that is to say:—

(1.) When the Packet is registered by being handed to an Officer of the Post Office authorized to receive the same, though not on duty at a Post Office, or when the Packet is registered at a Post Office before the expiration of the time appointed for the registration at such Post Office (without extra fee) of Postal Packets intended to be forwarded by the next despatch therefrom the sum of two pence (hereinafter called the ordinary registration fee).

(2.) When the Packet is registered at a Post Office after the expiration of the time appointed for the registration at such Post Office (without extra fee) of Postal Packets intended to be forwarded by the next despatch therefrom, but within such further time (if any) as the Postmaster-General may from time to time provide with reference to such office, such extra sum in addition to the ordinary registration fee as the Postmaster-General may prescribe. Provided that

(a.) In the case of the Chief or Head Post Office in London such sum shall not exceed one shilling; and

(b.) In the case of any other Post Office such sum shall not exceed fourpence.

Compulsory Registration of certain Packets.

9. All Postal Packets on which or the envelope or cover of which the word "registered," or any word or phrase to the like effect or purport is written or impressed, or which contain coin, jewellery, or watches (all which Packets are hereinafter called "Postal Packets subject to compulsory registration") shall be registered before the same are delivered to the persons to whom they are addressed, and may be detained for that purpose at any Post Office through which they shall pass until the ordinary despatch of Packets next after that by which such Packets ought otherwise to have been forwarded.

Detention of Packets subject to Compulsory Registration.

10. If any Postal Packet which is subject to compulsory registration shall be posted at any Post Office before an actual despatch of Postal Packets of the same description, but after the latest time appointed in the case of such Post Office for the receipt of Registered Postal Packets of the same description for transmission by such despatch, such Packet (whether duly posted as a Registered Packet by delivery for registration and payment of charges in manner aforesaid or not) shall not be forwarded by such despatch, but shall be detained at such Post Office until the next subsequent despatch by which the same can be forwarded to its destination.

Registration Fee on Packets compulsorily Registered.

11. If any Postal Packet which is subject to compulsory registration shall be posted in any other manner than that prescribed by this Warrant for the posting of Registered Postal Packets, such Packet shall be charged with a registration fee or charge of eight pence, in addition to all other postage payable thereon, but the stamps, if any, which may have been affixed to such letter or packet shall be accepted in payment, or part payment, as the case may be, of such registration fee or charge of eight pence, and such other postage as aforesaid.

Compensation for Loss and Damage of Articles in Registered Postal Packets.

12.—(1.) Subject to the provisions of this Warrant, and of the said Warrant of the 2nd day of April, 1886, if any article of pecuniary value enclosed in, or forming part of, a Registered Postal Packet, be lost or damaged whilst in the custody of the Postmaster-General, the Postmaster-General may pay to any person or persons who may, in the opinion of the Postmaster-General, establish a reasonable claim to compensation (having regard to the nature of the article, the care with which it was packed, and other circumstances) such sum as he may think just, provided that—

(a.) If only the postage and registration fee payable in respect of the said Postal Packet have been paid by the sender, the sum paid by way of compensation shall not exceed the sum of £5.

(b.) If in addition to the postage and registration fee as aforesaid the sum of one penny has been paid by the sender in respect of such Postal Packet, the sum paid by way of compensation shall not exceed the sum of £10.

(c.) If in addition to the postage and registration fee as aforesaid, the sum of two pence has been paid by the sender in respect of such Postal Packet, the sum paid by way of compensation shall not exceed the sum of £15.

(d.) If, in addition to the postage and registration fee as aforesaid, the sum of three pence has been paid by the sender in respect of such Postal Packet, the sum paid by way of compensation shall not exceed the sum of £20.

(e.) If, in addition to the postage and registration fee as aforesaid, the sum of four pence has been paid by the sender in respect of such Postal Packet, the sum paid by way of compensation shall not exceed the sum of £25.

(2.) The compensation payable in respect of a registered Parcel shall be in substitution for, and not in addition to, any compensation which would have been payable under this Warrant in case the Parcel had not been registered.

Compensation not payable in respect of Packets posted without compliance with Registration Rules.

13. If any Postal Packet which is subject to compulsory registration shall be posted without compliance with the rules applicable to the registration of Postal Packets no claim to compensation will be considered by the Postmaster-General to arise under this Warrant in respect of the loss or damage (if any) of any article enclosed in or forming part of such Packet.

Compensation may be paid out of Aids provided by Parliament.

14. The Postmaster-General may give effect to the provisions of this Warrant as to the loss or damage of articles enclosed in or forming part of registered Postal Packets and unregistered Parcels out of such aids or supplies as may be from time to time provided and appropriated by Parliament for that purpose, but nothing contained in or done under or in pursuance of this Warrant shall render him liable, either personally or in his official capacity, to any action or other legal proceeding in respect of or in consequence of any such loss or damage. And the decision of the Postmaster-General on all questions arising between him and any person claiming payment in respect of the loss or damage of any article enclosed in or forming part of a registered Postal Packet or unregistered Parcel shall be final and conclusive.

Acknowledgment of Delivery of Postal Packet.

15. Subject to such Rules as the Postmaster-General may from time to time prescribe, the Postmaster-General may, at the request of the sender of a Registered Postal Packet and on prepayment by such sender of the sum or fee of two pence, obtain and forward to such sender an acknowledgment or certificate of the delivery of the Postal Packet at the place to which the said Packet is addressed.

Commencement of Warrant.

16. This Warrant shall come into operation on the first day of June, one thousand eight hundred and ninety-one.

Date.

Dated this 24th day of April, 1891.

WE, the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, in consideration of a benefaction of one thousand pounds sterling, which has been paid to us in favour of the vicarage of Saint Philip, Buckingham Palace-road, in the county of Middlesex, and in the diocese of London, and in respect of which we have agreed to pay to the Incumbent of the same vicarage, and to his successors, a yearly sum of thirty pounds, do hereby, in pursuance of the Act of the twenty-ninth and thirtieth years of Her Majesty, chapter one hundred and eleven, section five, grant out of our common fund to the said vicarage of Saint Philip, Buckingham Palace-road, to meet such benefaction, one capital sum of seven hundred pounds, in respect of which, so long as the same capital sum, or any part thereof, shall remain in our hands, there shall be paid by us to the Incumbent for the time being of the said vicarage, one yearly sum of twenty-one pounds, or such part thereof as shall be proportionate to any balance of the same capital sum which shall so remain in our hands, such lastly-mentioned yearly payment to commence as from the date of the publication of these presents in the London Gazette, and to be receivable in equal half-yearly portions, on the first day of May and the first day of November in each and every year.

In witness whereof, we have hereunto set our common seal, this twenty-third day of April, in the year one thousand eight hundred and ninety-one.

(L.S.)

WE, the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, in consideration of a benefaction consisting of a sum of two hundred pounds sterling, which has been paid to us in favour of the consolidated chapelry and benefice (hereinafter called the benefice) of Saint Luke, Darlington, in the county of Durham, and in the diocese of Durham, do hereby, in pursuance of the Act of the twenty-ninth and thirtieth years of Her Majesty, chapter one hundred and eleven, sections five and eleven, grant and appropriate out of our common fund to the said benefice of Saint Luke, Darlington, to meet such benefaction, one other capital sum of two hundred pounds sterling, to be applicable towards defraying the cost of providing a parsonage or house of residence for the said benefice, according to plans and a specification approved or to be approved, by us, such capital sum, or the balance thereof unapplied to such purpose, to remain in the meantime in our hands at interest after the rate of two pounds and ten shillings per centum per annum, and such interest to be paid to the Incumbent for the time being of the said benefice of Saint Luke, Darlington.

In witness whereof, we have hereunto set our common seal, this twenty-third day of April, in the year one thousand eight hundred and ninety-one.

WE, the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, in consideration of a benefaction, consisting of a sum of one hundred pounds, which has been paid to us in favour of the consolidated chapelry and benefice (hereinafter called the benefice) of Saint Thomas the Apostle, Eastville, in the county of Gloucester, and in the diocese of Gloucester and Bristol, do hereby in pursuance of the Act of the twenty-ninth and thirtieth years of Her Majesty, chapter one hundred and eleven, sections five and eleven, grant and appropriate out of our common fund to the said benefice of Saint Thomas the Apostle, Eastville, to meet such benefaction one other capital sum of one hundred pounds sterling, to be applicable towards defraying the cost of repairing and improving the parsonage or house of residence belonging to the said benefice, according to plans and a specification approved or to be approved by us, such capital sum, or the balance thereof unapplied to such purpose, to remain in the meantime in our hands at interest after the rate of two pounds and ten shillings per centum per annum, and such interest to be paid to the Incumbent for the time being of the said benefice of Saint Thomas the Apostle, Eastville.

In witness whereof, we have hereunto set our common seal, this twenty-third day of April, in the year one thousand eight hundred and ninety-one.

WE, the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, in consideration of a sum of five hundred and sixty pounds which has been paid to us, do hereby in pursuance of the Act of the twenty-ninth and thirtieth years of Her Majesty, chapter one hundred and eleven, section five, subject as hereinafter mentioned, grant and convey to the Incumbent of the rectory of Gunhouse-with-Burringham, in the county of Lincoln, and in the diocese of Lincoln, and to his successors, Incumbents of the same vicarage, all and singular the yearly rectorial tithe commutation rent-charges which are particularly described in the schedule hereunto annexed, and are now vested in us: To have and to hold the said yearly rectorial tithe commutation rent-charges to the use of the said Incumbent and his successors for ever: Provided always, that the said yearly rectorial tithe commutation rent charges expressed to be hereby granted and conveyed shall be and be taken to be in lieu of and in full substitution for the yearly sum or stipend of thirty pounds heretofore payable by us, the said Ecclesiastical Commissioners, or by our lessee, to the Incumbent for the time being of the said rectory of Gunhouse-with-Burringham in respect of the said rectorial tithe rent-charges and other property: And provided also, that the Incumbent for the time being of the same rectory shall be entitled, as and from the first day of May, in the year one thousand eight hundred and ninety-one, to receive the profits and proceeds of the said yearly rectorial tithe commutation rent-charges.

In witness whereof, we have hereunto set our common seal, this twenty-third day of April, in the year one thousand eight hundred and ninety-one.

Schedule.

All and singular the yearly rectorial tithe commutation rent-charges, amounting to one hundred and seventy-three pounds ten shillings and tenpence, arising in the township of Burringham, within the parish of Bottesford, in the county of Lincoln, being the whole of the appropriate tithe commutation rent-charges described in the tithe apportionment of the said parish as payable to the Dean and Chapter of Lincoln and their lessee.

WE, the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, in consideration of a benefaction consisting of a sum of one hundred pounds sterling, which has been paid to us in favour of the vicarage of Saint Paul, Leicester, in the county of Leicester, and in the diocese of Peterborough, do hereby, in pursuance of the Act of the twenty-ninth and thirtieth years of Her Majesty, chapter one hundred and eleven, sections five and eleven, grant and appropriate out of our common fund to the said vicarage of Saint Paul, Leicester, to meet such benefaction, one other capital sum of one hundred pounds sterling, to be applicable towards defraying the cost of providing a parsonage or house of residence for the said vicarage, according to plans and a specification approved or to be approved by us, such capital sum, or the balance thereof unapplied to such purpose, to remain in the meantime in our hands at interest after the rate of two pounds and ten shillings per centum per annum, and such interest to be paid to the Incumbent for the time being of the said vicarage of Saint Paul, Leicester.

In witness whereof, we have hereunto set our common seal, this twenty-third day of April, in the year one thousand eight hundred and ninety-one.

Handsworth (Stafford) Rectory.

(For vesting in the Ecclesiastical Commissioners the Endowments of the Rectory of Handsworth, in the County of Stafford; and for the Re-endowment of the said Rectory and the Transfer of the Advowson to the See of Lichfield; and for the Endowment or Augmentation of New Districts within the Parish of Handsworth aforesaid; and for other purposes.)

NOTICE is hereby given, that application has been made to the House of Lords for a Bill to effect all or some of the purposes following, that is to say:—

1. On the resignation or death, or otherwise, of the present Rector, to vest in the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England the property and endowments of the Rectory of Handsworth, in the county of Stafford, to be applied for or towards the payment of a pension to the present Rector, and for or towards the re-endowment of the said rectory, and for and towards the endowment or augmentation of districts or new parishes already formed, or to be hereafter formed, within the original limits of the said rectory or parish, or otherwise, and for or towards the provision and repayment of the consideration money, for the transfer of the advowson of the said rectory to the Lord Bishop of Lichfield in right of his See (hereinafter referred to as the Lord Bishop), and of any other moneys advanced for the purposes of the Bill, and for or towards the provision of a house of residence for the said rectory or any new parish, and for other purposes.

2. To transfer to the Lord Bishop the advowson and perpetual right of presentation to the said rectory, and also the patronage of new districts or new parishes which is now vested in the Rector of Handsworth, and to make provisions for or with respect to the resignation of the present Rector of Handsworth.

3. To enable the Ecclesiastical Commissioners to exercise in respect of the property and endowments of the rectory when so vested in them, the rights and powers of an absolute owner, and to provide for the disposal of the proceeds of any sale or any capital sum.

4. To enable the Ecclesiastical Commissioners to advance out of their Common Fund sums of money to provide the consideration money for effecting the transfer of the advowson of the said rectory from the present owner to the Lord Bishop as aforesaid, and to provide for the development of any lands for building and other purposes, and for other objects of the Bill, and for payment of the costs of obtaining and passing the intended Act, and the costs and expenses of carrying the same into effect.

5. To enable the Ecclesiastical Commissioners to appropriate or set apart out of the lands belonging to the rectory such part thereof as may be convenient, with power to purchase sites for the church and parsonage of the said rectory, or of any district or new parish.

6. To repeal, alter, vary, amend, or extend the provisions of a local Act of 31 Geo. III (1791) so far as the same extends to the granting of leases by the Rector of Handsworth of lands belonging to the said rectory, or any other Act relating to the said rectory.

7. To vary or extinguish all existing powers, rights, privileges, and exemptions which may or can in any manner interfere with the purposes of the Bill, and to confer all such powers, rights, privileges, and exemptions as may be necessary for carrying into effect the said purposes, or any of them.

Printed copies of the Bill have been or (as soon as leave may have been given to bring in the Bill) will be deposited in the office of the Clerk of the Parliaments and in the Private Bill Office of the House of Commons.

Dated this 28th day of April, 1891.
