It is The Queen's pleasure that Presentations to His Royal Highness at the Levee shall be considered as equivalent to Presentations to Her Majesty.

By Her Majesty's Command,

Whitehall, May 25, 1891.

THE following Addresses were presented to the Queen on the occasion of Her Majesty's recent visit to Derby on the 21st instant:—

The Right Honourable Henry Matthews, Principal Secretary of State for the Home Department, was in attendance on Her Majesty.

The Deputations presenting the Addresses were severally presented to Her Majesty by the Right Honourable the Earl of Lathom, the Lord Chamberlain.

To Her Most Excellent Majesty the QUEEN of Great Britain and Ireland.

May it please Your Majesty,

WE, the Mayor, Corporation, and Burgesses of the Borough of Derby, in Council assembled, desire permission to give public expression to our sentiments of loyal devotion, and to tender our most heartfelt welcome to Your Majesty on the auspicious occasion of Your first official visit to our ancient and loyal Borough.

While our town has shared in no mean measure the national prosperity and progress which Your Majesty, under the Divine guidance, has been enabled to secure for this nation and people by wise and beneficent government, it has likewise participated in that great awakening and growth of humanity and pity which has found expression in so many works for the relief and mitigation of human suffering, and which will be for ever associated with Your Majesty's personal influence and name, ranking among the most glorious achievements of Your illustrious reign.

Before proceeding to refer in particular to the immediate occasion of Your gracious presence amongst us, with pardonable pride we trust we may be permitted to put Your Majesty in remembrance of the fact that Derby was a place of importance in Saxon times, as attested by the Venerable Bede, writing in 666, and was visited by King Edwin about the year 627. In 874 King Alfred the Great constituted it the Metropolis of the County, and honoured it with his presence. About that time his brave daughter, Athelfleda, was in command of the forces, and defeated the Danes in 918. In Domesday Book, Derby is described as a Royal Borough of Edward the Confessor, and privileged with a mint. Derby was made a Corporate Town by Henry I, who granted a Charter about the year 1100. This Charter was renewed and enlarged by Henry II, and confirmed about 1227 by King Edward III. In the year 1217 King John visited Derby, and granted a most important Charter to the town, conferring great powers thereupon. In 1264 King Henry III and his son, Prince Edward, visited the town. King Edward the II, about 1322, visited the town with his army. In 1422 King Henry V granted a Charter to the town. In 1466 King Edward IV confirmed the Charter. In 1483, King Richard III also confirmed the said Charter. In the year 1553 Queen Mary granted the town a Charter. On January 13, 1585, Mary Queen of Scots stayed a night in Derby. In 1624 James I and Prince Charles were also a night in the town, and the king confirmed the old town Charters. In 1635 and 1641 King Charles I visited Derby, and in 1637 that monarch granted it a Charter, and in or about 1680-82 King Charles II granted the town our present and latest Charter.

Returning with especial pleasure and pride to the ever-to-be-remembered event of this day, we crave permission to express our gratitude for Your Majesty's kindly interest in one of the greatest and most important of our public charities—that of our Infirmary, on whose past work we look with pardonable pride and gratitude, and to whose future ministry we look forward with much regard and confidence.

We beg to assure Your Majesty that the memory of this occasion will be cherished with pleasure and satisfaction in the annals of our Borough and County, and we pray that, with the Divine assistance, the new building, to whose commencement Your Majesty has this day accorded Your gracious favour and welcome presence, may continue to dispense healing and succour to many generations yet to come. We venture to express our confidence that the sentiments of loyalty, gratitude, and pride associated with this auspicious beginning will furnish a powerful incentive to the furtherance of that work of mercy and humanity which is at once a public duty as well as a public privilege.

To this recognition of the special services rendered by Your Majesty's visit to our town, it is not unfitting that we should append some general expression of the deep and cordial sentiments of loyalty which animate us as Your humble subjects.

The county of Derby, whose chief town we represent, has, we hope and venture to believe, never failed to furnish its due quota of favoured and trusty servants for the defence of Your Majesty's Realm, as well as for counsel and assistance in the arduous duties connected with the governance of this wide and glorious Empire, in the history of which Your Majesty's happy reign forms the latest and most illustrious page; and we confidently hope that the future will show no diminution in that sense of public duty and loyal attachment to the person of Your Majesty and the interests of the realm which we humbly claim for our borough and county in the past.

Not a few of those present to day will remember the enthusiasm and affection evoked on the occasion of Your Majesty's passage through the town in 1843 and 1849 in company with Your Majesty's illustrious and lamented Consort, and of the subsequent visit nineteen years ago of their Royal Highnesses The Prince and Princess of Wales.

In the name of the whole body of loyal inhabitants of this Borough we embrace this opportunity of humbly expressing our sense of the many blessings we have enjoyed during Your Majesty's long and glorious reign; and we earnestly pray that life and those marvellous powers of body and mind vouchsafed to you by Divine Providence may long be preserved, and that Your Majesty may continue to preside over the destinies of this nation for many prosperous years to come.

Given under the Common Seal of the Corporation of Derby, this 21st day of May, 1891.

(Signed) Alfred Seale Haslam,
Mayor of the Borough.

H. F. Gadsby, Town Clerk.
(Presented by The Mayor.)

To which Address Her Majesty was pleased to return the following most gracious Answer:—

"I HAVE received with much pleasure your loyal and dutiful Address, and I highly appreciate the cordial welcome which has been accorded to Me by My faithful People of Derby.

"It is with sincere satisfaction that I observe how largely your ancient borough shared in the general prosperity and progress of My Kingdom, and I feel encouraged in meeting the responsibilities that devolve on Me when I know I have the hearty support of My faithful Subjects.

"Although I am glad to be here to-day, I cannot but feel the greatest sorrow, which I am sure is shared by you all, at the death of Lord Edward Cavendish, who was so universally beloved. I condole most sincerely with his father and his family, and regret that this sad event has deprived us of the presence of Lord Hartington on this occasion."

The following Addresses were presented to the Queen, and Her Majesty was pleased to receive the same very graciously:—

To the QUEEN's Most Excellent Majesty.

May it please Your Majesty,

WE, the Justices of the Peace for the Borough of Derby, beg to offer to Your Majesty the expression of our deep loyalty and devotion on the occasion of Your visit to this ancient and loyal town.

In common with all the inhabitants of the Town and County of Derby, we gratefully recognize in the act which Your Majesty graciously performs to-day at the County Hospital an instance of that personal interest in all that concerns the health and well-being of Your people, which has ever distinguished Your Majesty's beneficent Reign.

We thankfully acknowledge the many great blessings and privileges which, through Divine Providence, have been secured to this nation during Your Majesty's Reign, and we pray that Your rule over the Empire may be long continued.

With every feeling of profound fealty and attachment to Your Throne and Person, we are Your Majesty's loyal and devoted subjects and servants.

WE, Your Majesty's most faithful subjects, the Members of the Derby School Board, desire to approach Your Majesty with the expression of our sincere and dutiful respect and gratitude on the occasion of the welcome visit of Your Majesty to our ancient Borough.

Earnestly desiring for Your Majesty and all the Members of Your Royal House continued life and happiness.

May it please your Majesty,

WE, Your Majesty's most faithful subjects, the Clergy of the Deanery of Derby, beg leave to approach Your Majesty with feelings of deep loyalty to Your Person and profound attachment to Your Throne.

We desire to express our gratitude to Almighty God that He has secured to the English people, by the long duration of Your Majesty's reign, those blessings which naturally spring from the continuance of good and wise government.

Chief among these blessings we venture to account the high example of social and domestic life which Your Majesty has ever set before Your people, an example which we are convinced has had an elevating and purifying influence upon the tone of English society.

Nor would we, especially on this occasion, omit to mention with peculiar gratitude the unvarying interest which Your Majesty has shown in every effort for ameliorating the distress and elevating the intelligence of the poorer classes in this land. To the interest and to the wise counsels both of Your Majesty and of your ever-lamented Consort, we can without hesitation attribute a large share in that great outgrowth of manifold agencies for the exercise of philanthropy and the increase of intellectual culture, which is so striking a feature of Your Majesty's reign.

We cannot help noticing the immense increase which has taken place during Your Majesty's reign in the population of the country, and especially of the towns. We are profoundly conscious how great a responsibility is laid upon the Clergy of the Church of England and upon all who have the moral and spiritual welfare of the people at heart, to spread the principles of the Christian faith among rich and poor alike.

With the fervent prayer that Your Majesty may yet long be spared to reign over a godly and contented people, we beg leave to subscribe ourselves, with fervent sentiments of loyalty and devotion,

Your Majesty's most dutiful subjects. Signed on behalf of the Clergy of the Deanery, and Rural Dean.

To Her Most Gracious Majesty VICTORIA,
Queen of Great Britain and Ireland.

WE, the undersigned members of the Medical Profession in Derby, desire most respectfully to approach Your Majesty, and to tender to You our grateful thanks for this Your most considerate act of regard for the welfare of the sick poor by coming to lay the foundation-stone of a new Hospital for this town and county.

That Your life of unceasing sympathy with all who are in trouble may long be spared, and that You may be granted the blessing of health and our constant and earnest prayer.

Most Gracious Sovereign,

WE, the Governors, Masters, and Scholars of Derby School desire this day, in common with all other dutiful and loyal subjects belonging to this town and county, humbly to express our devotion, affection, and zealous attachment to Your Royal Person, and to join in the general expression of gratitude for the great honour now paid by Your Majesty to this town, of which our School is one of the most ancient institutions.

That we should approach Your Majesty on this day, of all others, is an auspicious omen for our future prosperity. It was on this day, 337 years ago, that the Charter was signed by Your Royal predecessor, Queen Mary, re-constituting and providing in perpetuity for the old school, which has alone, perhaps, of all other English schools, rung its Curfew bell since the time of the Normans. Founded A.D. 1160, in the reign of Henry II, by that great prelate Walter Durdant, Bishop of Lichfield, it has for centuries educated the sons of Your Majesty's loyal subjects of Derby and Derbyshire. Within its walls was educated John Flamsteed, the first Astronomer Royal, at whose suggestion and under whose direction Your Majesty's Royal Observatory at Greenwich was first erected. The name of Flamsteed is but one from the long list of distinguished alumni who, up to the present time, have continued to do honour to their School and to the town of Derby.

The School for want of sufficient endowment languished during the first half of the present century, but during the last twenty-five years has regained its position among the leading schools of the country.

Twice during that period has it been considered worthy of the high honour of a visit from members of Your Majesty's august family.

In 1872 their Royal Highnesses the Prince and Princess of Wales visited the School and distributed the prizes, and twelve years later His Royal Highness again came to inspect the new building raised to commemorate the honour paid to the School by the former visit of their Royal Highnesses.

God grant that the presence of Your Majesty on this anniversary (remarkable to us as the day on which a former Queen of England gave by Her signature new life to Derby School) may mark the beginning of a new era of prosperity and usefulness for this ancient foundation, and that in years to come Your Majesty's Royal favour now shown may be revered and jealously guarded by Derby boys as their most cherished tradition, encouraging them to noble thoughts and deeds as worthy citizens of that great Empire over which Your Majesty so gloriously reigns.

Given under the Seal.

 Queen of Great Britain and Ireland.

WE, the Masters and Boys of Trent College, established in the year 1866, on the principles of the Protestant and Reformed Church of England, desire to welcome Your Majesty on the occasion of Your Majesty's visit to the town of Derby.

It is our earnest prayer that, as Supreme Head of Church and State, Your Majesty may live long to rule over a happy and united people, and that from the public schools of this country there may continue to spring forth year by year a harvest of young Englishmen ready to acknowledge as the gift of Almighty God the blessings of freedom, political, moral, and religious, which they enjoy, and to defend that freedom by their willing and intelligent obedience, by service unselfish and untiring, and by faithful and uncompromising loyalty to Your Majesty and to that religion—the religion of simple faith in God's Holy Word and God's Holy Spirit, the religion of civilization, progress, and enlightenment—of which Your Majesty is the acknowledged champion.

We rejoice that Your Majesty as Grand Patroness of the Royal Masonic Institution for Girls and also of the Royal Masonic Institution for Boys is directly connected with our fraternity, and we earnestly pray that Your Majesty may be long spared to rule over a loyal and united people.

As representatives of the various branches of trade and commerce in Derby we beg to recall the fact that during Your Majesty's auspicious reign the population has trebled and the wealth and prosperity of the inhabitants have proportionately increased under that happy union of individual freedom and legal authority which has peculiarly distinguished the long period of Your Majesty's wise and beneficent rule.

We earnestly pray that Your Majesty may long continue to reign over a prosperous and united people, and may by the blessing of Almighty God be spared to witness a further advancement in that material, moral, and intellectual progress which will ever be associated with Your name.

WE, the Representatives of the Friendly Societies in this Borough, beg to approach Your Majesty with the most profound respect for Your Throne and Person.

We hail with the utmost pleasure and interest Your visit to Derby on an occasion of such supreme importance to the industrial population of this town and county as the laying of the foundation stone of the building of one of our noblest institutions which confers such great benefits on the class to which we belong.

Our Societies especially appreciate Your Majesty's gracious purpose in being here to-day, inasmuch as it is in entire consonance with the work in which we are engaged, namely, by mutual association, to relieve distress, aid the sick, to comfort the mourner, and to promote habits of thrift and forethought.

We remember with pride and gratitude the foresight and noble efforts of the late Prince Consort in regard to works of beneficence and humanity, and the well-being of the industrial classes, and the poor.

We deem it to be one of the glories of Your Majesty's reign that the spirit which prompts to such objects has so largely grown in this Kingdom, and resulted in conferring incalculable benefits on Your Majesty's subjects.

Praying that Your Majesty may be long spared to reign in peace and happiness over a contented and prosperous people.

ON behalf of the Teachers of Derby and District Association of Teachers, we desire to offer Your Most Gracious Majesty our sincere and hearty thanks for Your condescension in honouring the inhabitants of this ancient Borough with Your Royal Presence.

We cannot fail to appreciate deeply the great kindness of heart which has influenced You to pay this visit in the interest and for the benefit of the poorer and more unfortunate of Your Majesty's subjects, nor can we doubt but that Your gracious act this day will deepen and strengthen the affectionate regard and devotion of Your subjects generally, and will further bind You to their hearts as the Mother of Your People.

We would desire to offer to Your Majesty our felicitations upon the surpassing brilliance of Your reign during which strides so marvellous have been taken in Science, the Arts, Commerce, and Universal Progress.

Your Majesty must contemplate with pleasure and satisfaction the great progress that Education has made under Your rule and governance, and especially the education of those who earn their bread by manual labour. It is our high privilege to bear a part in this work, and we beg to assure Your Majesty that as it has been in the past so in the future it shall be our aim and earnest endeavour, as far as in us lies, to train up a God-fearing, loyal, and devoted people.

WE, the undersigned Members and Workers connected with Temperance Organizations in Derby and the district, desire to express to Your Majesty on this auspicious occasion our sincere devotion and loyalty to Your Person and Your Throne.

The object of Your visit to the town of Derby to lay the foundation stone of our new Infirmary is of itself another proof of the great interest Your Majesty has always taken in matters affecting the poorer classes in the land, and we recognize with profound thankfulness the manifold proofs of the social advancement and higher intelligence of the people, which are largely attributed to the benign influence of Your Majesty's personal example and beneficent reign.

The gracious patronage extended by Your Majesty to the Church of England Temperance Society, we are convinced, has done much to advance the cause of Temperance, which also derived much benefit from the public utterances of the ever-lamented Prince Leopold, and it is our pleasure to inform You of the great progress which is being made in this and the surrounding districts where young and old are being taught and trained in the principles of sobriety and virtue, which are so essential to the material prosperity and social and moral welfare of Your people.

We trust the life of Your Majesty may long be spared, and that the remaining years of Your long and successful reign may be rendered happy and enjoyable by the continued loyalty and unswerving devotion of all Your subjects, and the peaceable relations existing with other nations.

We are Your Majesty's loyal and devoted subjects and servants.

THE following Address was presented to the Queen on the occasion of Her Majesty laying the foundation stone of the Derbyshire Royal Infirmary, at Derby, on the 21st inst. :—

The President and Governors of the Derbyshire General Infirmary.

To the QUEEN's Most Excellent Majesty.

May it please Your Majesty,

WE, the President and Governors of the Derbyshire Royal Infirmary, beg to approach Your Gracious Majesty with feelings of profound respect on this the occasion of Your Majesty's first state visit to our ancient borough of Derby. We tender to Your Majesty our heartfelt gratitude for having consented to honour us with Your presence, and to mark with Your illustrious sanction the important formality of laying the foundation stone of a new and much-needed General Infirmary in our midst. For more than half a century the beneficent work of administering to the relief of the sick and injured artizans and poor of the thickly-populated district embraced within the borough and county has been successfully carried on within the walls of our Infirmary, but circumstances beyond the control of those responsible for the proper administration of the charity have cast upon them the immediate and arduous duty of providing an effectual remedy for admitted evils in the existing buildings.

After mature deliberation, and with the advice and assistance of experts in infirmary construction, the Governing Body came to the decision that they had no alternative but to sanction the removal of the old structure and to undertake the substitution of an entirely new building, on an enlarged scale, and with means and appliances more in accordance with the requirements of modern sanitary and medical science.

We whose privilege and happiness it is to number ourselves amongst Your Majesty's loyal subjects in this the very centre of the United Kingdom, are deeply conscious of the distinction conferred upon us by Your Majesty's presence on such an auspicious occasion ; and we entertain a strong conviction that the countenance given to the good work in which we are engaged, will not only be a great encouragement to us, but that it will exercise an all-potent influence in enabling us to carry it to a complete and successful issue.

With the heartfelt prayer that Your Majesty may long be spared to preside over the destinies of this nation, and a renewed expression of our grateful feelings for the signal service rendered to the Borough and County of Derby on this occasion by Your Majesty.

We have the honour to be,

Your Majesty's loyal, dutiful, and obedient subjects and servants,

(Signed) T. W. Evans, President.
