TUESDAY, JUNE 2, 1891.

Lord Chamberlain's Office, St. James's Palace, May 15, 1891.

NOTICE is hereby given, that His Royal Highness The Prince of Wales will, by command of The Queen, hold a Levee at St. James's Palace, on behalf of Her Majesty, on Friday, the 5th of June next, at two o'clock.

It is The Queen's pleasure that Presentations to His Royal Highness at the Levee shall be considered as equivalent to Presentations to Her Majesty.

REGULATIONS

TO BE OBSERVED AT THE QUEEN'S LEVEE TO BE HELD BY HIS ROYAL HIGHNESS THE PRINCE OF WALES, ON BEHALF OF HER MAJESTY, AT ST. JAMES'S PALACE.

By Her Majesty's Command,

Gentlemen who propose to attend Her Majesty's Levee, are requested to bring with them two large cards, with their names clearly written thereon, one to be left with The Queen's Page in attendance in the Corridor, and the other to be delivered to the Lord Chamberlain, who will announce the name to His Royal Highness.

PRESENTATIONS.

Gentlemen who propose to present others must send in writing the name of such Gentlemen to the Lord Chamberlain's Office, not later than two days previous to the Levee, in order that the Lord Chamberlain may submit the names to Her Majesty, when, if they are approved, Presentation Cards will be forwarded. Forms for the purpose can be obtained at the Lord Chamberlain's Office.

Gentlemen who wish to be presented officially should communicate with the heads of their Department, who will provide them with the necessary cards and instructions.

It is particularly requested that the names of the Gentlemen to be presented be very distinctly written on the Presentation Cards delivered to the Lord Chamberlain at the Levee, in order that there may be no difficulty in announcing them to His Royal Highness.

LATHOM,
Lord Chamberlain.

*Office of the Secretary for Scotland,
Whitehall, June 1, 1891.*

THE following Address of the General Assembly of the Church of Scotland having been transmitted by His Grace the Lord High Commissioner to the Most Honourable the Marquess of Lothian, K.T., Her Majesty's Secretary for Scotland, has been by him laid before the Queen, who was pleased to receive the same very graciously:—

May it please Your Majesty,

AS loyal and dutiful subjects, we, the Ministers and Elders of the Church of Scotland met in General Assembly, welcome with the greatest satisfaction Your Majesty's most gracious letter on occasion of our annual meeting.

The expressions of goodwill which it contains, and the renewed assurances of Royal countenance and support to the Church of Scotland, afford us an additional incentive to duty.

We beg to assure Your Majesty of our continued loyalty, which, based on hereditary feeling and principles, has been intensified by the wise and kindly action of Your Majesty during a reign of unusual length and unparalleled success, the blessings of which have fallen in full proportion on our Land and Church, and for which we are most sincerely grateful.

It shall be our endeavour in this, as in previous General Assemblies, by the Divine blessing, to do our utmost to promote the highest interests of Your Majesty's subjects in this ancient Kingdom of Scotland.

To represent Your Majesty as Lord High Commissioner we welcome anew in our midst the Marquis of Tweeddale, already endeared to us by his ability, personal worth, and friendliness to our National Church, besides his great courtesy to all members of our General Assembly.

We gratefully accept the grant of two thousand pounds made to us by Your Majesty, and it will be our endeavour so to employ it as to promote the best interests of the population in the Scottish Highlands and Islands for whose benefit it is designed.

It is our fervent prayer to the Divine Head of our Church and Nation, who has already so signally blessed Your Majesty, that His favour may yet spare You as our Sovereign for many years to come, and continue those blessings, personal, domestic, and national, that now, as we recall
