

AUGHTON.—Forthwith and entirely in the parish church of Aughton, near Ormskirk, in the county of Lancaster, and in the old part of the churchyard; and also in the addition made to it in one thousand eight hundred and thirty-eight except as follows:—

(a.) In such vaults and wholly walled graves as are now existing burials may be allowed on condition that every coffin buried therein be separately enclosed by stonework or brickwork properly cemented.

(b.) In such earthen graves now existing as can be opened to the depth of five feet without exposing coffins or disturbing human remains burials may be allowed of so many of the following relations of those interred therein at the date of the Order, viz.: widows and widowers, and parents, as can be buried at or below that depth.

(c.) In such reserved grave spaces as have never before been buried in, and which when opened are free from water, burials may be allowed of so many members of the families to whom they may be allotted as can be buried at or below the depth of five feet.

Also that the churchyard be effectually drained so that water shall not accumulate in any grave or vault.

MORVAL.—Forthwith and entirely in the parish church of Morval, in the county of Cornwall; and also in the churchyard except as follows:—

(a.) In such partly walled graves as are now existing in the churchyard, provided that the earth above them can be opened to the depth of five feet without exposing coffins or disturbing human remains burials may be allowed of so many of the relations of those interred therein at the date of the Order as can be buried at or below that depth.

(b.) In such earthen graves now existing in the churchyard as can be opened to the depth of five feet without exposing coffins or disturbing human remains burials may be allowed of so many of the relations of those interred therein at the date of the Order as can be buried at or below that depth.

(c.) In such reserved grave spaces in the churchyard (as have never before been buried in, and which when opened, are free from water) burials may be allowed of so many members of the families to whom they may be allotted as can be buried at or below the depth of five feet. C. L. Peel.

A T the Court at Windsor, the 23rd day of June, 1891.

PRESENT,

The QUEEN'S Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS by an Act passed in the Session of Parliament held in the eighteenth and nineteenth years of Her Majesty's reign, intituled "An Act further to amend the laws "concerning the burial of the dead in England," it is, amongst other things, enacted that it shall be lawful for Her Majesty, by and with the advice of Her Privy Council, from time to time to postpone the time appointed by any Order in Council for the discontinuance of burials, or otherwise to vary any Order in Council made under any of the Acts recited in the said Act, or under the said Act (whether the time thereby appointed for the discontinuance of burials thereunder, or other operation of such Order, shall or shall not have arrived), as to Her Majesty, with such advice as aforesaid, may seem fit:

And whereas Orders in Council have been made directing the discontinuance of burials in the churchyards hereinafter mentioned from the time specified in such Orders; and whereas it seems fit to Her Majesty, by and with the advice of Her Privy Council, that the time for discontinuing burials in the said churchyards be postponed:

Now, therefore, Her Majesty, by and with the advice aforesaid, is pleased to order, and it is hereby ordered, that the time for the discontinuance of burials in such churchyards be postponed as follows, viz.:—

In the parish churchyard of Clun, in the county of Salop, until the thirty-first day of August, one thousand eight hundred and ninety-one.

In the parish churchyard of Berriew, in the county of Montgomery, until the thirty-first day of July, one thousand eight hundred and ninety-one. C. L. Peel.

A T the Court at Windsor, the 23rd day of June, 1891.

PRESENT,

The QUEEN'S Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS by an Act passed in the Session of Parliament held in the eighteenth and nineteenth years of Her Majesty's reign, intituled "An Act further to amend the laws concerning "the burial of the dead in England," it is, amongst other things, enacted that it shall be lawful for Her Majesty, by and with the advice of Her Privy Council, from time to time to postpone the time appointed by any Order in Council for the discontinuance of burials, or otherwise to vary any Order in Council made under any of the Acts recited in the said Act, or under the said Act (whether the time thereby appointed for the discontinuance of burials thereunder, or other operation of such Order, shall or shall not have arrived), as to Her Majesty, with such advice as aforesaid, may seem fit:

And whereas an Order in Council was made on the fifteenth day of September, one thousand eight hundred and eighty-seven, directing the discontinuance of burials in the parish church, and, with certain exceptions, in the churchyard of Wincanton, in the county of Somerset, from the time specified in such Order; and whereas it seems fit to Her Majesty, by and with the advice of Her Privy Council, that the said Order in so far as it affects burials in the said churchyard be varied:

Now, therefore, Her Majesty, by and with the advice aforesaid, is pleased to order, and it is hereby ordered, that the said Order be varied by the addition of the following clause to the Article in the said Order relating to burials in the parish church and churchyard of Wincanton, viz.:—

(d.) In such reserved grave spaces in the churchyard as have never before been buried in, and which when opened are free from water, burials may be allowed at their decease of the following persons, viz., Mr. John Messiter, Mrs. Charlotte Messiter, and Mrs. Catherine Elizabeth Messiter, if they can be buried at or below the depth of five feet. C. L. Peel.
